were not visible outside, and they continue there down to this day. [10] There was nothing in the Ark but the two tablets that Moses had given at Ho′reb, when Jehovah covenanted with the sons of Israel while they were coming out from Egypt.

11 And it came about when the priests came out from the holy place (for all the priests that were to be found had, for their part, sanctified themselves—there was no need to observe the divisions); 12 and the Levites that were singers belonging to all of them, namely, to A′saph, to He′man, to Je·du′thun and to their sons and to their brothers clothed in fine fabric with cymbals and with stringed instruments and harps, were standing to the east of the altar and along with them priests to the number of a hundred and twenty sounding the trumpets; 13 and it came about that as soon as the trumpeters and the singers were as one in causing one sound to be heard in praising and thanking Jehovah, and as soon as they lifted up the sound with the trumpets and with the cymbals and with the instruments of song and with praising Jehovah, “for he is good, for to time indefinite is his loving-kindness,” the house itself was filled with a cloud, the very house of Jehovah, 14 and the priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud; for the glory of Jehovah filled the house of the true God.

6 It was then that Sol′o·mon said: “Jehovah himself said he was to reside in the thick gloom; [2] and I, for my part, have built a house of lofty abode for you and an established place for you to dwell in to time indefinite.”

[3] Then the king turned his face and began to bless all the congregation of Israel, while all the congregation of Israel were standing up. [4] And he went on to say: “Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who spoke with his own mouth with David my father and by his own hands has given fulfillment, saying, [5] ‘From the day that I brought my people out from the land of Egypt I have not chosen a city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house for my name to prove to be there, and I have not chosen a man to become leader over my people Israel. [6] But I shall choose Jerusalem for my name to prove to be there, and I shall choose David to come to be over my people Israel.’ [7] And it came to be close to the heart of David my father to build a house to the name of Jehovah the God of Israel. [8] But Jehovah said to David my father, ‘For the reason that it proved to be close to your heart to build a house to my name, you did well because it proved to be close to your heart. [9] Only you yourself will not build the house, but your son who is coming forth from your loins is the one that will build the house to my name.’ [10] And Jehovah proceeded to carry out his word that he had spoken, that I might rise up in the place of David my father and sit upon the throne of Israel, just as Jehovah had spoken, and that I might build the house to the name of Jehovah the God of Israel, [11] and that I might place there the Ark where the covenant of Jehovah is that he concluded with the sons of Israel.”

[12] And he began standing before the altar of Jehovah in front of all the congregation of Israel, and he now spread out his palms. [13] (For Sol′o·mon had made a platform of copper and then put it in the middle of the enclosure. Its length was five cubits, and its width five cubits, and its height three cubits; and he kept standing upon it.) And he proceeded to kneel upon his knees in front of all the congregation of Israel and to spread his palms out to the heavens. [14] And he went on to say: “O Jehovah the God of Israel, there is no God like you in the heavens or on the earth, keeping the covenant and the loving-kindness toward your servants who are walking before you with all their heart; [15] you who have kept toward your servant David my father what you promised him, so that you made the promise with your mouth, and with your own hand you have made fulfillment as at this day. [16] And now, O Jehovah the God of Israel, keep toward your servant David my father what you promised him, saying, ‘There will not be cut off a man of yours from before me to sit upon the throne of Israel, if only your sons will take care of their way by walking in my law, just as you have walked before me.’ [17] And now, O Jehovah the God of Israel, let your promise that you have promised to your servant David prove trustworthy.

[18] “But will God truly dwell with mankind upon the earth? Look! Heaven, yes, the heaven of the heavens themselves, cannot contain you; how much less, then, this house that I have built! [19] And you must turn toward the prayer of your servant and to his request for favor, O Jehovah my God, by listening to the entreating cry and to the prayer with which your servant is praying before you, [20] that your eyes may prove to be opened toward this house day and night, toward the place where you said you would put your name, by listening to the prayer with which your servant prays toward this place. [21] And you must listen to the entreaties of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place, that you yourself may hear from the place of your dwelling, from the heavens; and you must hear and forgive.

[22] "If a man sins against his fellowman and he actually lays a cursing upon him to bring him under liability to the curse, and he actually comes within the curse before your altar in this house, [23] then may you yourself hear from the heavens, and you must act and judge your servants so as to pay back the wicked by putting his course upon his own head and by pronouncing the righteous one righteous by giving to him according to his own righteousness.

[24] "And if your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they kept sinning against you, and they indeed return and laud your name and pray and make request for favor before you in this house, [25] then may you yourself hear from the heavens, and you must forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the ground that you gave to them and their forefathers.

[26] "When the heavens are shut up so that no rain occurs because they kept sinning against you, and they actually pray toward this place and laud your name and from their sin they turn back because you kept afflicting them, [27] then may you yourself hear from the heavens, and you must forgive the sin of your servants, even of your people Israel, because you instruct them regarding the good way in which they should walk; and you must give rain upon your land that you have given to your people as a hereditary possession.

[28] "In case a famine occurs in the land, in case a pestilence occurs, in case scorching and mildew, locusts and cockroaches occur; in case their enemies besiege them in the land of their gates—any sort of plague and any sort of malady— [29] whatever prayer, whatever request for favor there may occur on the part of any man or of all your people Israel, because they know each one his own plague and his own pain; when he actually spreads out his palms toward this house, [30] then may you yourself hear from the heavens, the place of your dwelling, and you must forgive and give to each one according to all his ways, because you know his heart (for you yourself alone well know the heart of the sons of mankind); [31] to the end that they may fear you by walking in your ways all the days that they are alive upon the surface of the ground that you gave to our forefathers.

[32] "And also to the foreigner who is no part of your people Israel and who actually comes from a distant land by reason of your great name and your strong hand and your stretched-out arm, and they actually come and pray toward this house, [33] then may you yourself listen from the heavens, from your established place of dwelling, and you must do according to all for which the foreigner calls to you; in order that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and may fear you the same as your people Israel do, and may know that your name has been called upon this house that I have built.

[34] "In case your people go out to the war against their enemies in the way that you send them, and they indeed pray to you in the direction of this city that you have chosen and the house that I have built to your name, [35] you must also hear from the heavens their prayer and their request for favor, and you must execute judgment for them.

[36] "In case they sin against you (for there is no man that does not sin), and you have to be incensed at them and abandon them to an enemy, and their captors actually carry them off captive to a land distant or nearby; [37] and they indeed come to their senses in the land where they have been carried off captive, and they actually return and make request to you for favor in the land where they are captives, saying, ‘We have sinned, we have erred and we have acted wickedly’; [38] and they indeed return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land where they are captives of those who carried them off captive, and they indeed pray in the direction of their land that you gave to their forefathers and the city that you have chosen and the house that I have built to your name; [39] you must also hear from the heavens, from your established place of dwelling, their prayer and their requests for favor, and you must execute judgment for them and forgive your people who have sinned against you.

[40] “Now, O my God, please, let your eyes prove to be opened and your ears attentive to the prayer respecting this place. [41] And now do rise up, O Jehovah God, into your rest, you and the Ark of your strength. Let your priests themselves, O Jehovah God, be clothed with salvation, and let your loyal ones themselves rejoice in goodness. [42] O Jehovah God, do not turn back the face of your anointed one. O do remember the loving-kindnesses to David your servant.”

7 Now as soon as Sol′o·mon finished praying, the fire itself came down from the heavens and proceeded to consume the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and Jehovah’s glory itself filled the house. [2] And the priests were unable to enter into the house of Jehovah because Jehovah’s glory had filled the house of Jehovah. [3] And all the sons of Israel were spectators when the fire came down and the glory of Jehovah was upon the house, and they immediately bowed low with their faces to the earth upon the pavement and prostrated themselves and thanked Jehovah, “for he is good, for his loving-kindness is to time indefinite.”

[4] And the king and all the people were offering sacrifice before Jehovah. [5] And King Sol′o·mon went on offering the sacrifice of twenty-two thousand cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. Thus the king and all the people inaugurated the house of the true God. [6] And the priests were standing at their posts of duty, and the Levites with the instruments of song to Jehovah that David the king had made to thank Jehovah, “for his loving-kindness is to time indefinite,” when David would render praise by their hand; and the priests were loudly sounding the trumpets in front of them, while all the Israelites were standing.

[7] Then Sol′o·mon sanctified the middle of the courtyard that was before the house of Jehovah, because there he rendered up the burnt offerings and the fat pieces of the communion sacrifices, for the copper altar that Sol′o·mon had made was itself not able to contain the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat pieces. [8] And Sol′o·mon proceeded to hold the festival at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation from the entering in of Ha′math down to the torrent valley of Egypt. [9] But on the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, because the inauguration of the altar they had held for seven days and the festival for seven days. [10] And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their homes, joyful and feeling good at heart over the goodness that Jehovah had performed toward David and toward Sol′o·mon and toward Israel his people.

[11] Thus Sol′o·mon finished the house of Jehovah and the house of the king; and in everything that had come into Sol′o·mon’s heart to do regarding the house of Jehovah and his own house he proved successful. [12] Jehovah now appeared to Sol′o·mon during the night and said to him: “I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen this place for myself as a house of sacrifice. [13] When I shut up the heavens that no rain may occur and when I command the grasshoppers to eat up the land and if I send a pestilence among my people, [14] and my people upon whom my name has been called humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn back from their bad ways, then I myself shall hear from the heavens and forgive their sin, and I shall heal their land. [15] Now my own eyes will prove to be opened and my ears attentive to prayer at this place. [16] And now I do choose and sanctify this house that my name may prove to be there to time indefinite, and my eyes and my heart will certainly prove to be there always.

[17] “And if you yourself will walk before me, just as David your father walked, even by doing according to all that I have commanded you, and you will keep my regulations and my judicial decisions, [18] I will also establish the throne of your kingship, just as I covenanted with David your father, saying, ‘There will not a man of yours be cut off from ruling over Israel.’ [19] But if YOU yourselves turn back and actually leave my statutes and my commandments that I have put before YOU, and YOU actually go and serve other gods and bow down to them, [20] I will also uproot them from off my ground that I have given them; and this house that I have sanctified for my name, I shall throw away from before my face, and I shall make it a proverbial saying and a taunt among all the peoples. [21] As for this house that had become heaps of ruins, everyone passing by it will stare in amazement and be certain to say, ‘For what reason did Jehovah do like that to this land and to this house?’ [22] And they will have to say, ‘It was for the reason that they left Jehovah the God of their forefathers who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and they proceeded to take hold of other gods and bow down to them and serve them. That is why he brought upon them all this calamity.’”

8 And it came about at the end of twenty years, in which Sol′o·mon had built the house of Jehovah and his own house, [2] that the cities that Hi′ram had given to Sol′o·mon—Sol′o·mon rebuilt them and then caused the sons of Israel to dwell there. [3] Furthermore, Sol′o·mon went to Ha′math-zo′bah and prevailed over it. [4] Then he rebuilt Tad′mor in the wilderness and all the storage cities that he had built in Ha′math. [5] And he went on to build Upper Beth-ho′ron and Lower Beth-ho′ron, fortified cities with walls, doors and bar, [6] and Ba′al·ath and all the storage cities that had become Sol′o·mon’s and all the chariot cities and the cities for the horsemen and every desirable thing of Sol′o·mon that he had desired to build in Jerusalem and in Leb′a·non and in all the land of his dominion.

[7] As for all the people that were left over of the Hit′tites and the Am′or·ites and the Per′iz·zites and the Hi′vites and the Jeb′u·sites, who were no part of Israel, [8] from their sons that had been left behind them in the land, whom the sons of Israel had not exterminated, Sol′o·mon kept levying men for forced labor until this day. [9] But there were none out of the sons of Israel that Sol′o·mon constituted slaves for his work; for they were warriors and chiefs of his adjutants and chiefs of his charioteers and of his horsemen. [10] These were the chiefs of the deputies that belonged to King Sol′o·mon, two hundred and fifty, the foremen over the people.

[11] And Phar′aoh’s daughter Sol′o·mon brought up out of the City of David to the house that he had built for her, for he said: “Although a wife of mine, she should not dwell in the house of David the king of Israel, for the places to which the ark of Jehovah has come are something holy.”

[12] It was then that Sol′o·mon offered up burnt sacrifices to Jehovah upon the altar of Jehovah that he had built before the porch, [13] even as a daily matter of course to make offerings according to the commandment of Moses for the sabbaths and for the new moons and for the appointed festivals three times in the year, at the festival of unfermented cakes and at the festival of the weeks and at the festival of the booths. [14] Further, he set the divisions of the priests over their services according to the rule of David his father, and the Levites at their posts of duty, to praise and to minister in front of the priests as a daily matter of course, and the gatekeepers in their divisions for the different gates, for such was the commandment of David the man of the true God. [15] And they did not turn aside from the king’s commandment to the priests and the Levites concerning any matter and concerning the supplies. [16] So Sol′o·mon’s work was all in a prepared state from the day of the foundation-laying of the house of Jehovah until it was finished. So the house of Jehovah was complete.

[17] It was then that Sol′o·mon went to E′zi·on-ge′ber and to E′loth upon the shore of the sea in the land of E′dom. [18] And Hi′ram regularly sent to him by means of his servants ships and servants having a knowledge of the sea, and they would come with Sol′o·mon’s servants to O′phir and take from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold and bring it to King Sol′o·mon.

9 And the queen of She′ba herself heard the report about Sol′o·mon, and she proceeded to come to test Sol′o·mon with perplexing questions at Jerusalem, along with a very impressive train and camels carrying balsam oil, and gold in great quantity, and precious stones. At length she came in to Sol′o·mon and spoke with him about everything that happened to be close to her heart. [2] Sol′o·mon, in turn, went on to tell her all her matters, and no matter was hidden from Sol′o·mon that he did not tell her.

[3] When the queen of She′ba got to see Sol′o·mon's wisdom and the house that he had built, [4] and the food of his table and the sitting of his servants and the table service of his waiters and their attire and his drinking service and their attire, and his burnt sacrifices that he regularly offered up at the house of Jehovah, then there proved to be no more spirit in her. [5] So she said to the king: "True was the word that I heard in my own land about your matters and about your wisdom. [6] And I did not put faith in their words until I had come that my own eyes might see; and, look! there has not been told me the half of the abundance of your wisdom. You have surpassed the report that I have heard. [7] Happy are your men, and happy are these servants of yours who are standing before you constantly and listening to your wisdom. [8] May Jehovah your God come to be blessed, who has taken delight in you by putting you upon his throne as king for Jehovah your God; because your God loved Israel, to make it stand to time indefinite, so that he put you over them as king to execute judicial decision and righteousness."

[9] Then she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and balsam oil in very great quantity, and precious stones; and there had not come to be the like of that balsam oil which the queen of She′ba gave to King Sol′o·mon.

10 And, besides, the servants of Hi′ram and the servants of Sol′o·mon who brought gold from O′phir brought timbers of algum trees and precious stones. 11 And the king proceeded to make out of the timbers of the algum trees stairs for the house of Jehovah and for the king’s house and also harps and stringed instruments for the singers, and the like of them had never been seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And King Sol′o·mon himself gave the queen of She′ba all her delight for which she had asked, besides the value of what she brought to the king. So she turned about and went to her own land, she together with her servants.

13 And the weight of the gold that came to Sol′o·mon in one year amounted to six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, 14 aside from the men of travel and the merchants who were bringing in and all the kings of the Arabs and the governors of the land who were bringing in gold and silver to Sol′o·mon.

15 And King Sol′o·mon went on to make two hundred large shields of alloyed gold (six hundred shekels of alloyed gold he proceeded to lay upon each large shield), 16 and three hundred bucklers of alloyed gold (three mi′nas of gold he proceeded to lay upon each buckler). Then the king put them in the House of the Forest of Leb′a·non.

17 Further, the king made a great ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold. 18 And there were six steps to the throne, and there was a footstool in gold to the throne (they were attached), and there were armrests on this side and on that side by the place of sitting, and two lions were standing beside the armrests. 19 And there were twelve lions standing there upon the six steps on this side and on that side. No other kingdom had any made just like it. [20] And all the drinking vessels of King Sol′o·mon were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Leb′a·non were of pure gold. There was nothing of silver; it was considered as nothing at all in the days of Sol′o·mon. [21] For ships belonging to the king were going to Tar′shish with the servants of Hi′ram. Once every three years ships of Tar′shish would come in, carrying gold and silver, ivory, and apes and peacocks.

[22] So King Sol′o·mon was greater than all the other kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. [23] And all the kings of the earth were seeking the face of Sol′o·mon to hear his wisdom, which the true God had put in his heart. [24] And they were bringing each his gift, articles of silver and articles of gold and garments, armor and balsam oil, horses and mules as a yearly matter of course. [25] And Sol′o·mon came to have four thousand stalls of horses and chariots and twelve thousand steeds, and he kept them stationed in the chariot cities and close by the king in Jerusalem. [26] And he came to be ruler over all the kings from the River down to the land of the Phi·lis′tines and down to the boundary of Egypt. [27] Furthermore, the king made the silver in Jerusalem like the stones; and cedarwood he made like the sycamore trees that are in the She·phe′lah for abundance. [28] And there were those bringing out horses to Sol′o·mon from Egypt and from all the other lands.

[29] As for the rest of the affairs of Sol′o·mon, the first and the last, are they not written among the words of Nathan the prophet and in the prophecy of A·hi′jah the Shi′lo·nite and in the record of visions of Id′do the visionary concerning Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat? [30] And Sol′o·mon continued to reign in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years. [31] Finally Sol′o·mon lay down with his forefathers. So they buried him in the City of David his father; and Re·ho·boʹam his son began to reign in place of him.

10 And Re·ho·bo′am proceeded to go to She′chem, for it was to She′chem that all the Israelites came to make him king. [2] And it came about that as soon as Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat heard of it while he was yet in Egypt, (because he had run away on account of Sol′o·mon the king,) Jer·o·bo′am immediately came back from Egypt. [3] So they sent and called him, and Jer·o·bo′am and all Israel came and spoke to Re·ho·bo′am, saying: [4] “Your father, for his part, made our yoke hard; and now make the hard service of your father and the heavy yoke that he put upon us lighter, and we shall serve you.”

[5] At this he said to them: “Let there be yet three days. Then return to me.” So the people went away. [6] And King Re·ho·bo′am began to take counsel with the older men that were continually attending upon Sol′o·mon his father while he continued alive, saying: “How are YOU advising to reply to this people?” [7] Accordingly they spoke to him, saying: “If you would prove yourself good to this people and actually be pleasing to them and indeed speak good words to them, they also will certainly become your servants always.”

[8] However, he left the counsel of the older men with which they had advised him, and he began to take counsel with the young men that had grown up with him, who were the ones attending upon him. [9] And he went on to say to them: “What is it that YOU are offering in counsel that we may reply to this people who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Make the yoke that your father put upon us lighter’?” [10] In turn the young men that had grown up with him spoke with him, saying: “This is what you should say to the people who have spoken to you, saying, ‘Your father, for his part, made our yoke heavy, but, as for you, make it lighter upon us’; this is what you should say to them, ‘My own little finger will certainly be thicker than my father’s hips. [11] And now my father, for his part, loaded upon YOU a heavy yoke, but I, for my part, shall add to YOUR yoke. My father, for his part, chastised YOU with whips, but I, for my part, with scourges.’”

[12] And Jer·o·bo′am and all the people proceeded to come to Re·ho·bo′am on the third day, just as the king had spoken, saying: “Return to me on the third day.” [13] And the king began to answer them harshly. Thus King Re·ho·bo′am left the counsel of the older men, [14] and he went on to speak to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying: “I shall make YOUR yoke heavier, and I, for my part, shall add to it. My father, for his part, chastised YOU with whips, but I, for my part, with scourges.” [15] And the king did not listen to the people; for it proved to be a turn of affairs from the true God in order that Jehovah might carry out his word that he had spoken by means of A·hi′jah the Shi′lo·nite to Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat.

[16] As for all Israel, because the king did not listen to them, the people now replied to the king, saying: “What share do we have in David? And there is no inheritance in the son of Jes′se. Each one to your gods, O Israel! Now see to your own house, O David.” With that all Israel began to go to its tents.

[17] As for the sons of Israel that were dwelling in the cities of Judah, Re·ho·bo′am continued to reign over them.

[18] Subsequently King Re·ho·bo′am sent Ha·do′ram, who was over those conscripted for forced labor, but the sons of Israel pelted him with stones, so that he died. And King Re·ho·bo′am himself managed to get up into his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. [19] And the Israelites kept up their revolt against the house of David down to this day.

11 When Re·ho·boʹam arrived at Jerusalem, he immediately congregated the house of Judah and Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand choice men able-bodied for war, to fight against Israel so as to bring the kingdom back to Re·ho·boʹam. [2] Then the word of Jehovah came to She·maiʹah the man of the true God, saying: [3] "Say to Re·ho·boʹam the son of Solʹo·mon the king of Judah and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, [4] 'This is what Jehovah has said: "YOU must not go up and fight against YOUR brothers. Return each one to his house, for it is at my own instance that this thing has been brought about."'" So they obeyed the word of Jehovah and returned from going against Jer·o·boʹam.

[5] And Re·ho·boʹam continued to dwell in Jerusalem and proceeded to build fortified cities in Judah. [6] Thus he rebuilt Bethʹle·hem and Eʹtam and Te·koʹa, [7] and Beth-zur and Soʹco and A·dulʹlam, [8] and Gath and Ma·reʹshah and Ziph, [9] and Ad·o·raʹim and Laʹchish and A·zeʹkah, [10] and Zoʹrah and Aiʹja·lon and Heʹbron, fortified cities, which were in Judah and Benjamin. [11] Further, he reinforced the fortified places and put leaders in them and supplies of food and oil and wine, [12] and in all the different cities large shields and lances; and he went on reinforcing them to a very great degree. And Judah and Benjamin continued his.

[13] And the priests and the Levites themselves that were in all Israel took their stand by him out of all their territories. [14] For the Levites left their pasture grounds and their possession and then came to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jer·o·boʹam and his sons had discharged them from acting as priests to Jehovah. [15] And he proceeded to put in office for himself priests for the high places and for the goat-shaped demons and for the calves that he had made. [16] And following them from all the tribes of Israel those that were giving their heart to seek Jehovah the God of Israel came themselves to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Jehovah the God of their forefathers. 17 And they kept strengthening the kingship of Judah and confirming Re·ho·boʹam the son of Solʹo·mon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Solʹo·mon for three years.

18 Then Re·ho·boʹam took as his wife Maʹha·lath the daughter of Jerʹi·moth the son of David, and of Abʹi·ha·il the daughter of E·liʹab the son of Jesʹse. 19 In time she bore him sons, Jeʹush and Shem·a·riʹah and Zaʹham. 20 And after her he took Maʹa·cah the granddaughter of Abʹsa·lom. In time she bore him A·biʹjah and Atʹtai and Ziʹza and She·loʹmith. 21 And Re·ho·boʹam was more in love with Maʹa·cah the granddaughter of Abʹsa·lom than all his other wives and his concubines; for there were eighteen wives that he had taken, also sixty concubines, so that he became father to twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters. 22 Consequently Re·ho·boʹam put A·biʹjah the son of Maʹa·cah in office as head, as leader among his brothers, for he thought of making him king. 23 However, he acted understandingly and distributed some out of all his sons to all the lands of Judah and of Benjamin, to all the fortified cities, and gave them food in abundance and procured a multitude of wives for them.

12 And it came about that, as soon as the kingship of Re·ho·boʹam was firmly established and as soon as he was strong, he left the law of Jehovah, and also all Israel with him. [2] And it came about in the fifth year of King Re·ho·boʹam that Shiʹshak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, (for they had behaved unfaithfully toward Jehovah,) [3] with twelve hundred chariots and with sixty thousand horsemen; and there was no number to the people that came with him out of Egypt—Libʹy·ans, Sukʹki·im and E·thi·oʹpi·ans. [4] And he got to capture the fortified cities that belonged to Judah and finally came as far as Jerusalem.

[5] Now as for She·maiʹah the prophet, he came to Re·ho·boʹam and the princes of Judah who had gathered themselves at Jerusalem because of Shiʹshak, and he proceeded to say to them: “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘YOU, for YOUR part, have left me, and I, too, for my part, have left YOU to the hand of Shiʹshak.’” [6] At that the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said: “Jehovah is righteous.” [7] And when Jehovah saw that they had humbled themselves, the word of Jehovah came to She·maiʹah, saying: “They have humbled themselves. I shall not bring them to ruin, and in a little while I shall certainly give them an escape, and my rage will not pour forth upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shiʹshak. [8] But they will become servants of his, that they may know the difference between my service and the service of the kingdoms of the lands.”

[9] So Shiʹshak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem and took the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king’s house. Everything he took; and so he took the gold shields that Solʹo·mon had made. [10] Consequently King Re·ho·boʹam made in their place copper shields, and he committed them to the control of the chiefs of the runners, the guards of the entrance of the king’s house. [11] And it would occur that as often as the king came to the house of Jehovah, the runners came in and carried them and returned them to the guard chamber of the runners. [12] And because he humbled himself, Jehovah’s anger turned back from him, and he did not think of bringing them to ruin completely. And, besides, there happened to be good things in Judah.

[13] And King Re·ho·boʹam continued to make his position strong in Jerusalem and kept reigning; for Re·ho·boʹam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and for seventeen years he reigned in Jerusalem, the city that Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there. And his mother’s name was Naʹa·mah the Amʹmon·it·ess. [14] But he did what was bad, for he had not firmly established his heart to search for Jehovah.

[15] As for Re·ho·boʹam’s affairs, the first and the last, are they not written among the words of She·maiʹah the prophet and of Idʹdo the visionary by genealogical enrollment? And there were wars between Re·ho·boʹam and Jer·o·boʹam all the time. [16] Finally Re·ho·boʹam lay down with his forefathers and was buried in the City of David; and A·biʹjah his son began to reign in place of him.

13 In the eighteenth year of King Jer·o·boʹam it was that A·biʹjah began to reign over Judah. [2] Three years he reigned in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Mi·caiʹah the daughter of U·riʹel of Gibʹe·ah. And war itself took place between A·biʹjah and Jer·o·boʹam.

[3] So A·biʹjah engaged in the war with a military force of four hundred thousand mighty men of war, chosen men. And Jer·o·boʹam himself drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, valiant, mighty men. [4] A·biʹjah now rose up upon Mount Zem·a·raʹim, which is in the mountainous region of Eʹphra·im, and said: "Hear me, O Jer·o·boʹam and all Israel. [5] Is it not for YOU to know that Jehovah the God of Israel himself gave a kingdom to David over Israel to time indefinite, to him and to his sons, by a covenant of salt? [6] And Jer·o·boʹam the son of Neʹbat, the servant of Solʹo·mon the son of David, proceeded to rise up and rebel against his lord. [7] And idle men, good-for-nothing fellows, kept collecting themselves together by him. Finally they proved superior to Re·ho·boʹam the son of Solʹo·mon, when Re·ho·boʹam himself happened to be young and fainthearted, and he did not hold his own against them.

[8] "And now YOU men are thinking of holding YOUR own against the kingdom of Jehovah in the hand of the sons of David, when YOU are a large crowd and there are with YOU the golden calves that Jer·o·boʹam made for YOU as gods. [9] Have YOU not driven out Jehovah's priests, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and do YOU not keep making priests for yourselves like the peoples of the lands? As for anyone that came and filled his hand with power by means of a young bull and seven rams, he became a priest of what are no gods. [10] As for us, Jehovah is our God, and we have not left him; but priests are ministering to Jehovah, the sons of Aaron, and also the Levites in the work. 11 And they are making burnt offerings smoke to Jehovah morning by morning and evening by evening and also perfumed incense; and the layers of bread are upon the table of pure gold, and there are the golden lampstand and its lamps to light up evening by evening; because we are keeping the obligation to Jehovah our God, but YOU yourselves have left him. 12 And, look! with us there is at the head the true God with his priests and the signal trumpets for sounding the battle alarm against YOU. O sons of Israel, do not fight against Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers, for YOU will not prove successful."

13 And Jer·o·boʹam, for his part, dispatched an ambush around to come behind them, so that they proved to be in front of Judah and the ambush behind them. 14 When those of Judah turned around, why, there they had the battle in front and behind. And they began to cry out to Jehovah, while the priests were loudly sounding the trumpets. 15 And the men of Judah broke out shouting a war cry. And it came about that, when the men of Judah shouted a war cry, then the true God himself defeated Jer·o·boʹam and all Israel before A·biʹjah and Judah. 16 And the sons of Israel took to flight from before Judah, and then God gave them into their hand. 17 And A·biʹjah and his people went striking them down with a vast slaughter; and the slain of Israel kept falling down, five hundred thousand chosen men. 18 Thus the sons of Israel were humbled at that time, but the sons of Judah proved superior because they leaned upon Jehovah the God of their forefathers. 19 And A·biʹjah kept chasing after Jer·o·boʹam and got to capture cities from him, Bethʹel and its dependent towns, and Jeshʹa·nah and its dependent towns, and Eʹphra·in and its dependent towns. 20 And Jer·o·boʹam did not retain any more power in the days of A·biʹjah; but Jehovah dealt him a blow, so that he died.

21 And A·biʹjah continued to strengthen himself. In time he got fourteen wives for himself, and became father to twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters. 22 And the rest of A·biʹjah’s affairs, even his ways and his words, are written in the exposition of the prophet Idʹdo.

14 Finally A·biʹjah lay down with his forefathers, and they buried him in the City of David; and Aʹsa his son began to reign in place of him. In his days the land had no disturbance for ten years.

[2] And Aʹsa proceeded to do what was good and right in the eyes of Jehovah his God. [3] So he removed the foreign altars and the high places and broke up the sacred pillars and cut down the sacred poles. [4] Further, he said to Judah to search for Jehovah the God of their forefathers and to do the law and the commandment. [5] Accordingly he removed from all the cities of Judah the high places and the incense stands; and the kingdom continued without disturbance before him. [6] And he went on to build fortified cities in Judah, for the land had no disturbance; and there was no war against him during these years, for Jehovah gave him rest. [7] So he said to Judah: “Let us build these cities and make walls around and towers, double doors and bars. For us the land is yet available, because we have searched for Jehovah our God. We have searched, and he gives us rest all around.” And they went building and proving successful.

[8] And Aʹsa came to have a military force bearing the large shield and lance, three hundred thousand out of Judah. And out of Benjamin those bearing the buckler and bending the bow were two hundred and eighty thousand. All these were valiant, mighty men.

[9] Later Zeʹrah the E·thi·oʹpi·an went out against them with a military force of a million men and three hundred chariots, and came as far as Ma·reʹshah. [10] Then Aʹsa went out against him and they drew up in battle formation in the valley of Zephʹa·thah at Ma·reʹshah. [11] And Aʹsa began to call to Jehovah his God and say: “O Jehovah, as to helping, it does not matter with you whether there are many or those with no power. Help us, O Jehovah our God, for upon you we do lean, and in your name we have come against this crowd. O Jehovah, you are our God. Do not let mortal man retain strength against you.”

12 At that Jehovah defeated the E·thi·o′pi·ans before A′sa and before Judah, and the E·thi·o′pi·ans took to flight. 13 And A′sa and the people that were with him kept pursuing them as far as Ge′rar, and those of the E·thi·o′pi·ans continued falling down till there was no one alive of them; for they were broken to pieces before Jehovah and before his camp. Afterward they carried off a very great deal of spoil. 14 Further, they struck all the cities round about Ge′rar, for the dread of Jehovah had come to be upon them; and they went plundering all the cities, for there happened to be much to plunder in them. 15 And even the tents with livestock they struck so that they took captive flocks in great number and camels, after which they returned to Jerusalem.

15 Now for Az·a·riʹah the son of Oʹded, the spirit of God came to be upon him. [2] Consequently he went out before Aʹsa and said to him: “Hear me, O Aʹsa and all Judah and Benjamin! Jehovah is with YOU as long as YOU prove to be with him; and if YOU search for him, he will let himself be found by YOU, but if YOU leave him he will leave YOU. [3] And many were the days that Israel had been without a true God and without a priest teaching and without Law. [4] But when in their distress they returned to Jehovah the God of Israel and looked for him, then he let himself be found by them. [5] And in those times there was no peace for one going out or for one coming in, because there were many disorders among all the inhabitants of the lands. [6] And they were crushed to pieces, nation against nation and city against city, because God himself kept them in disorder with every sort of distress. [7] And YOU, be courageous and do not let YOUR hands drop down, because there exists a reward for YOUR activity.”

[8] And as soon as Aʹsa heard these words and the prophecy of Oʹded the prophet, he took courage and proceeded to cause the disgusting things to vanish from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities that he had captured from the mountainous region of Eʹphra·im, and to renew Jehovah’s altar that was before the porch of Jehovah. [9] And he began to collect together all Judah and Benjamin and the alien residents with them from Eʹphra·im and Ma·nasʹseh and Simʹe·on, for they had deserted to him from Israel in great number when they saw that Jehovah his God was with him. [10] So they were collected together at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Aʹsa’s reign. [11] Then they sacrificed to Jehovah on that day from the spoil they had brought, seven hundred cattle and seven thousand sheep. [12] Furthermore, they entered into a covenant to search for Jehovah the God of their forefathers with all their heart and with all their soul; [13] that anyone that would not search for Jehovah the God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. [14] So they swore to Jehovah with a loud voice and with joyful shouting and with the trumpets and with horns. [15] And all Judah gave way to rejoicing over the thing sworn; for it was with all their heart that they had sworn and with full pleasure on their part that they had looked for him, so that he let himself be found by them; and Jehovah continued to give them rest all around.

[16] As for even Maʹa·cah his grandmother, Aʹsa the king himself removed her from being lady, because she had made a horrible idol for the sacred pole; and then Aʹsa cut down her horrible idol and pulverized it and burned it in the torrent valley of Kidʹron. [17] And the high places themselves did not disappear from Israel. Only Aʹsa’s heart itself proved to be complete all his days. [18] And he proceeded to bring the things made holy by his father and the things made holy by himself into the house of the true God, silver and gold and utensils. [19] As for war, it did not occur down to the thirty-fifth year of Aʹsa’s reign.

16 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of A′sa, Ba′a·sha the king of Israel came up against Judah and began to build Ra′mah, so as not to allow anyone to go out or come in to A′sa the king of Judah. [2] A′sa now brought out silver and gold from the treasures of Jehovah’s house and the king’s house and sent to Ben-ha′dad the king of Syria, who was dwelling at Damascus, saying: [3] “There is a covenant between me and you and between my father and your father. Here I do send you silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with Ba′a·sha the king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me.”

[4] So Ben-ha′dad listened to King A′sa and sent the chiefs of the military forces that were his against the cities of Israel, so that they struck I′jon and Dan and A′bel-ma′im and all the storage places of the cities of Naph′ta·li. [5] And it came about that as soon as Ba′a·sha heard of it, he immediately quit building Ra′mah and stopped his work. [6] As for A′sa the king, he took all Judah, and they proceeded to carry away the stones of Ra′mah and its timbers with which Ba′a·sha had built, and he began to build with them Ge′ba and Miz′pah.

[7] And at that time Ha·na′ni the seer came to A′sa the king of Judah and then said to him: “Because you leaned upon the king of Syria and did not lean upon Jehovah your God, for that reason the military force of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand. [8] Did not the E·thi·o′pi·ans and the Lib′y·ans themselves happen to be a very great military force in multitude, in chariots and in horsemen; and because of your leaning upon Jehovah did he not give them into your hand? [9] For, as regards Jehovah, his eyes are roving about through all the earth to show his strength in behalf of those whose heart is complete toward him. You have acted foolishly respecting this, for from now on there will exist wars against you.”

[10] However, A′sa became offended at the seer and put him in the house of the stocks, because he was in a rage at him over this. And A′sa began to crush some others of the people at that same time. [11] And, look! the affairs of A′sa, the first and the last, there they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and of Israel.

[12] And A′sa in the thirty-ninth year of his reign developed an ailment in his feet until he was very sick; and even in his sickness he searched not for Jehovah but for the healers. [13] Finally A′sa lay down with his forefathers and died in the forty-first year of his reigning. [14] So they buried him in his grand burial place that he had excavated for himself in the City of David; and they laid him in the bed that had been filled with balsam oil and different sorts of ointment mixed in an ointment of special make. Further, they made an extraordinarily great funeral burning for him.

17 And Je·hosh′a·phat his son began to reign in place of him and to make his position strong over Israel. [2] And he proceeded to put military forces in all the fortified cities of Judah and to put garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of E′phra·im that A′sa his father had captured. [3] And Jehovah continued with Je·hosh′a·phat, because he walked in the former ways of David his forefather and did not search for the Ba′als. [4] For it was for the God of his father that he searched and in his commandment he walked, and not according to the doing of Israel. [5] And Jehovah kept the kingdom firmly established in his hand; and all Judah continued to give presents to Je·hosh′a·phat, and he came to have riches and glory in abundance. [6] And his heart became bold in the ways of Jehovah, and he even removed the high places and the sacred poles from Judah.

[7] And in the third year of his reigning he sent for his princes, namely, Ben-ha′il and O·ba·di′ah and Zech·a·ri′ah and Ne·than′el and Mi·cai′ah, to teach in the cities of Judah, [8] and with them the Levites, She·mai′ah and Neth·a·ni′ah and Zeb·a·di′ah and As′a·hel and She·mir′a·moth and Je·hon′a·than and Ad·o·ni′jah and To·bi′jah and Tob-ad·o·ni′jah the Levites, and with them E·lish′a·ma and Je·ho′ram the priests. [9] And they began teaching in Judah, and with them there was the book of Jehovah’s law; and they kept going around through all the cities of Judah and teaching among the people.

[10] And the dread of Jehovah came to be upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were all around Judah, and they did not fight against Je·hosh′a·phat. [11] And from the Phi·lis′tines they were bringing to Je·hosh′a·phat presents and money as tribute. The Arabs also were bringing to him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred he-goats.

12 And Je·hosh′a·phat continued advancing and growing great to a superior degree; and he went on building fortified places and storage cities in Judah. 13 And there were many interests that became his in the cities of Judah; and warriors, valiant, mighty men, were in Jerusalem. 14 And these were their offices by the house of their forefathers: Of Judah the chiefs of thousands, Ad′nah the chief, and with him there were three hundred thousand valiant, mighty men. 15 And under his control there was Je·ho·ha′nan the chief, and with him there were two hundred and eighty thousand. 16 And under his control there was Am·a·si′ah the son of Zich′ri the volunteer for Jehovah, and with him there were two hundred thousand valiant, mighty men. 17 And out of Benjamin there was the valiant, mighty man E·li′a·da, and with him there were two hundred thousand men equipped with the bow and shield. 18 And under his control there was Je·hoz′a·bad, and with him there were a hundred and eighty thousand men outfitted for the army. 19 These were the ones ministering to the king apart from those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

18 And Je·hosh′a·phat came to have riches and glory in abundance; but he formed a marriage alliance with A′hab. [2] So years later he went down to A′hab at Sa·mar′i·a; and A′hab proceeded to sacrifice sheep and cattle in abundance for him and for the people that were with him. And he began to allure him to go up against Ra′moth-gil′e·ad. [3] And A′hab the king of Israel went on to say to Je·hosh′a·phat the king of Judah: “Will you go with me to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad?” At this he said to him: “I am the same as you are, and my people are like your people and with you in the war.”

[4] However, Je·hosh′a·phat said to the king of Israel: “Please, inquire first of all for the word of Jehovah.” [5] So the king of Israel collected the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them: “Shall we go against Ra′moth-gil′e·ad in war, or shall I refrain?” And they began to say: “Go up, and the true God will give it into the king’s hand.”

[6] But Je·hosh′a·phat said: “Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah still? Then let us inquire through him.” [7] At that the king of Israel said to Je·hosh′a·phat: “There is still one man through whom to inquire of Jehovah, but I myself certainly hate him, for he is prophesying concerning me, not for good, but, all his days, for bad. He is Mi·cai′ah the son of Im′lah.” However, Je·hosh′a·phat said: “Do not let the king say a thing like that.”

[8] Accordingly the king of Israel called a court official and said: “Bring Mi·cai′ah the son of Im′lah quickly.” [9] Now the king of Israel and Je·hosh′a·phat the king of Judah were sitting each one on his throne, clothed in garments, and were sitting in the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Sa·mar′i·a; and all the prophets were acting as prophets before them. 10 Then Zed·e·ki′ah the son of Che·na′a·nah made for himself horns of iron and said: “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘With these you will push the Syrians until you exterminate them.’” 11 And all the other prophets were prophesying the same as that, saying: “Go up to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad and prove successful, and Jehovah will certainly give it into the king’s hand.”

12 And the messenger that went to call Mi·cai′ah spoke to him, saying: “Look! The words of the prophets are unanimously of good to the king; and let your word, please, become like one of them and you must speak good.” 13 But Mi·cai′ah said: “As Jehovah is living, what my God will say, that is what I shall speak.” 14 Then he came in to the king, and the king proceeded to say to him: “Mi·cai′ah, shall we go to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad in war, or shall I refrain?” At once he said: “Go up and prove successful; and they will be given into YOUR hand.” 15 At that the king said to him: “For how many times am I putting you under oath that you should not speak to me anything but truth in the name of Jehovah?” 16 So he said: “I certainly see all the Israelites scattered upon the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd. And Jehovah went on to say: ‘These have no masters. Let them go back each one to his house in peace.’”

17 Then the king of Israel said to Je·hosh′a·phat: “Did I not say to you, ‘He will prophesy concerning me, not good things, but bad’?”

[23] Zed·e·ki′ah the son of Che·na′a·nah now approached and struck Mi·cai′ah on the cheek and said: “In just which way did the spirit of Jehovah pass along from me to speak with you?” [24] At that Mi·cai′ah said: “Look! You are seeing which way on that day when you will enter the innermost chamber to hide yourself.” [25] Then the king of Israel said: “TAKE Mi·cai′ah and turn him back to A′mon the chief of the city and to Jo′ash the king’s son. [26] And YOU men must say, ‘This is what the king has said: “PUT this fellow in the house of detention and feed him with a reduced allowance of bread and a reduced allowance of water until I return in peace.”’” [27] Upon that Mi·cai′ah said: “If you return at all in peace, Jehovah has not spoken with me.” And he added: “Hear, all YOU peoples.”

[28] And the king of Israel and Je·hosh′a·phat the king of Judah proceeded to go up to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad. [29] The king of Israel now said to Je·hosh′a·phat: “There will be a disguising and entering into the battle for me, but you, for your part, put on your garments.” Accordingly the king of Israel disguised himself, after which they entered into the battle. [30] As for the king of Syria, he had commanded the chiefs of the chariots that were his, saying: “YOU must fight, neither with the small nor with the great, but with the king of Israel alone.” [31] And it came about that, as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw Je·hoshʹa·phat, they, for their part, said to themselves: “It is the king of Israel.” So they turned around against him to fight; and Je·hoshʹa·phat began to cry for aid, and Jehovah himself helped him, and God at once allured them away from him. 32 And it came about that as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw that it did not prove to be the king of Israel, they immediately came back from following him.

33 And there was a man that bent the bow in his innocence, but he got to strike the king of Israel between the appendages and the coat of mail, so that he said to the charioteer: “Turn your hand around, and you must take me out from the camp, because I have been badly wounded.” 34 And the battle kept rising in intensity on that day, and the king of Israel himself had to be kept in a standing position in the chariot facing the Syrians until the evening; and gradually he died at the time of the setting of the sun.

19 Then Je·hosh′a·phat the king of Judah returned in peace to his own house at Jerusalem. [2] Je′hu the son of Ha·na′ni the visionary now went out before him and said to King Je·hosh′a·phat: “Is it to the wicked that help is to be given, and is it for those hating Jehovah that you should have love? And for this there is indignation against you from the person of Jehovah. [3] Nevertheless, there are good things that have been found with you, because you have cleared out the sacred poles from the land and you have prepared your heart to search for the true God.”

[4] And Je·hosh′a·phat continued dwelling in Jerusalem; and he began to go out again among the people from Be′er-she′ba to the mountainous region of E′phra·im, that he might bring them back to Jehovah the God of their forefathers. [5] And he proceeded to station judges throughout the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city. [6] And he went on to say to the judges: “See what YOU are doing, because it is not for man that YOU judge but it is for Jehovah; and he is with YOU in the matter of judgment. [7] And now let the dread of Jehovah come to be upon YOU. Be careful and act, for with Jehovah our God there is no unrighteousness or partiality or taking of a bribe.”

[8] And in Jerusalem also Je·hosh′a·phat stationed some of the Levites and the priests and some of the heads of the paternal houses of Israel for the judgment of Jehovah and for the legal cases of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [9] Further, he laid a command upon them, saying: “This is how YOU should do in the fear of Jehovah with faithfulness and with a complete heart. [10] As for every legal case that will come to YOU of YOUR brothers who are dwelling in their cities, involving the shedding of blood, involving law and commandment and regulations and judicial decisions, YOU must warn them that they may not do wrong against Jehovah and indignation may not have to take place against YOU and against YOUR brothers. This is how YOU should do that YOU may not incur guilt. 11 And here is Am·a·riʹah the chief priest over YOU for every matter of Jehovah; and Zeb·a·diʹah the son of Ishʹma·el the leader of the house of Judah for every matter of the king; and as officers the Levites are available for YOU. Be strong and act, and let Jehovah prove to be with what is good.”

20 And it came about afterward that the sons of Moʹab and the sons of Amʹmon and with them some of the Amʹmon·im came against Je·hoshʹa·phat in war. [2] So people came and told Je·hoshʹa·phat, saying: “There has come against you a large crowd from the region of the sea, from Eʹdom; and there they are in Hazʹa·zon-taʹmar, that is to say, En-geʹdi.” [3] At that Je·hoshʹa·phat became afraid and set his face to search for Jehovah. So he proclaimed a fast for all Judah. [4] Eventually those of Judah were collected together to inquire of Jehovah. Even from all the cities of Judah they came to consult Jehovah.

[5] Then Je·hoshʹa·phat stood up in the congregation of Judah and of Jerusalem in the house of Jehovah before the new courtyard, [6] and he proceeded to say:

“O Jehovah the God of our forefathers, are you not God in the heavens, and are you not dominating over all the kingdoms of the nations, and are there not in your hand power and mightiness, with no one to hold his ground against you? [7] Did not you yourself, O God of ours, drive away the inhabitants of this land from before your people Israel and then give it to the seed of Abraham, your lover, to time indefinite? [8] And they took up dwelling in it, and they proceeded to build in it for you a sanctuary for your name, saying, [9] ‘If there should come upon us calamity, sword, adverse judgment, or pestilence or famine, let us stand before this house and before you (for your name is in this house), that we may call to you for aid out of our distress, and may you hear and save.’ [10] And now here the sons of Amʹmon, and Moʹab and the mountainous region of Seʹir, whom you did not allow Israel to invade when they were coming out of the land of Egypt, but they turned away from them and did not annihilate them, [11] yes, here they are rewarding us by coming in to drive us out from your possession that you caused us to possess. [12] O our God, will you not execute judgment upon them? For in us there is no power before this large crowd that is coming against us; and we ourselves do not know what we ought to do, but our eyes are toward you.”

[13] All the while all those of Judah were standing before Jehovah, even their little ones, their wives and their sons.

[14] Now as for Ja·ha·zi′el the son of Zech·a·ri′ah the son of Be·nai′ah the son of Je·i′el the son of Mat·ta·ni′ah the Levite of the sons of A′saph, the spirit of Jehovah came to be upon him in the middle of the congregation. [15] Consequently he said: “Pay attention, all Judah and YOU inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Je·hosh′a·phat! Here is what Jehovah has said to YOU, ‘Do not YOU be afraid or be terrified because of this large crowd; for the battle is not YOURS, but God’s. [16] Tomorrow go down against them. There they are coming up by the pass of Ziz; and YOU will be certain to find them at the end of the torrent valley in front of the wilderness of Je·ru′el. [17] YOU will not need to fight in this instance. Take YOUR position, stand still and see the salvation of Jehovah in YOUR behalf. O Judah and Jerusalem, do not be afraid or be terrified. Tomorrow go out against them, and Jehovah will be with YOU.’”

[18] At once Je·hosh′a·phat bowed low with his face to the earth, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem themselves fell down before Jehovah to do obeisance to Jehovah. [19] Then the Levites of the sons of the Ko′hath·ites and of the sons of the Ko′rah·ites rose up to praise Jehovah the God of Israel with an extraordinarily loud voice.

[20] And they proceeded to rise early in the morning and go out to the wilderness of Te·koʹa. And as they went out, Je·hoshʹa·phat stood up and then said: “Hear me, O Judah and YOU inhabitants of Jerusalem! Put faith in Jehovah YOUR God that YOU may prove yourselves of long duration. Put faith in his prophets and so prove successful.”

[21] Further, he took counsel with the people and stationed singers to Jehovah and those offering praise in holy adornment as they went out ahead of the armed men, and saying: “GIVE praise to Jehovah, for to time indefinite is his loving-kindness.”

[22] And at the time that they started off with the joyful cry and praise, Jehovah set men in ambush against the sons of Amʹmon, Moʹab and the mountainous region of Seʹir who were coming into Judah, and they went smiting one another.
[23] And the sons of Amʹmon and Moʹab proceeded to stand up against the inhabitants of the mountainous region of Seʹir to devote them to destruction and annihilate them; and as soon as they finished with the inhabitants of Seʹir, they helped each one to bring his own fellow to ruin.

[24] But as for Judah, it came to the watchtower of the wilderness. When they turned their faces toward the crowd, why, there they were, their carcasses fallen to the earth without anyone escaping. [25] So Je·hoshʹa·phat and his people came to plunder the spoil on them, and they got to find among them in abundance both goods and clothing and desirable articles; and they went stripping them off for themselves until they could carry no more. And it came to be three days that they were plundering the spoil, for it was abundant. [26] And on the fourth day they congregated together at the low plain of Berʹa·cah, for there they blessed Jehovah. That is why they called the name of that place Low Plain of Berʹa·cah—until today.

[27] Then all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned, with Je·hoshʹa·phat at their head, to return to Jerusalem with rejoicing, for Jehovah had made them rejoice over their enemies. [28] So they came to Jerusalem with stringed instruments and with harps and with trumpets to the house of Jehovah. [29] And the dread of God came to be upon all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that Jehovah had fought against the enemies of Israel. [30] Thus the royal realm of Je·hoshʹa·phat had no disturbance, and his God continued to give him rest all around.

[31] And Je·hoshʹa·phat went on reigning over Judah. Thirty-five years old he was when he began to reign, and for twenty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was A·zuʹbah the daughter of Shilʹhi. [32] And he kept walking in the way of his father Aʹsa, and he did not turn aside from it, by doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes. [33] Only the high places themselves did not disappear; and the people themselves had not yet prepared their heart for the God of their forefathers.

[34] As for the rest of the affairs of Je·hoshʹa·phat, the first and the last, there they are written among the words of Jeʹhu the son of Ha·naʹni, which were inserted in the Book of the Kings of Israel. [35] And after this Je·hoshʹa·phat the king of Judah had partnership with A·ha·ziʹah the king of Israel, who acted wickedly. [36] So he made him a partner with himself in making ships to go to Tarʹshish and they made ships in Eʹzi·on-geʹber. [37] However, E·li·eʹzer the son of Dod·avʹa·hu of Ma·reʹsha spoke prophetically against Je·hoshʹa·phat, saying: "Inasmuch as you have had partnership with A·ha·ziʹah, Jehovah will certainly break down your works." Accordingly the ships were wrecked, and they did not retain strength to go to Tarʹshish.

[4] When Je·ho′ram rose up over the kingdom of his father he proceeded to make his position strong, and so he killed all his brothers with the sword and also some of the princes of Israel. [5] Thirty-two years old was Je·ho′ram when he began to reign, and for eight years he reigned in Jerusalem. [6] And he went on walking in the way of the kings of Israel, just as those of the house of A′hab had done; for A′hab’s own daughter had become his wife, and he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah’s eyes. [7] And Jehovah did not want to bring the house of David to ruin, for the sake of the covenant that he had concluded with David, and just as he had said he would give him and his sons a lamp always.

[8] In his days E′dom revolted from under the hand of Judah and then made a king to reign over them. [9] So Je·ho′ram together with his chiefs passed over and also all the chariots with him. And it came about that he rose up by night and went striking down the E′dom·ites that were surrounding him and also the chiefs of the chariots. [10] But E′dom kept up its revolt from under the hand of Judah down to this day. It was then that Lib′nah began to revolt at the same time from under his hand, because he had left Jehovah the God of his forefathers. [11] He himself also had made high places on the mountains of Judah, that he might cause the inhabitants of Jerusalem to have immoral intercourse, and that he might drive Judah away.

[12] Eventually there came a writing to him from E·li′jah the prophet, saying: “This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather has said, ‘Due to the fact that you have not walked in the ways of Je·hosh′a·phat your father or in the ways of A′sa the king of Judah, [13] but you walk in the way of the kings of Israel and cause Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to have immoral intercourse the same way that the house of A′hab caused the having of immoral intercourse, and even your own brothers, the household of your father, who were better than you, you have killed; [14] look! Jehovah is dealing a great blow to your people and to your sons and to your wives and to all your goods. [15] And you will be with many sicknesses, with a malady of your intestines, until your intestines have come out because of the sickness day by day.’”

[16] Accordingly Jehovah aroused against Je·ho′ram the spirit of the Phi·lis′tines and the Arabs that were by the side of the E·thi·o′pi·ans. [17] So they came up into Judah and forced it open and took captive all the goods that were to be found in the king’s house and also his sons and his wives, and there was not left to him a son but Je·ho′a·haz, his youngest son. [18] And after all this Jehovah plagued him in his intestines with a sickness for which there was no healing. [19] And it came about that in the days to come, even when the term of two full years had expired, his intestines came out during his sickness, and he gradually died in his bad maladies; and his people did not make a burning for him like the burning for his forefathers. [20] Thirty-two years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for eight years he reigned in Jerusalem. Finally he went away without being desired. So they buried him in the City of David, but not in the burial places of the kings.

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made A·ha·ziʹah his youngest son king in place of him, (for the marauder band that came with the Arabs to the camp had killed all the older ones,) and A·ha·ziʹah the son of Je·hoʹram began to reign as king of Judah. [2] Twenty-two years old was A·ha·ziʹah when he began to reign, and for one year he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ath·a·liʹah the granddaughter of Omʹri.

[3] He himself also walked in the ways of the house of Aʹhab, for his mother herself became his counselor in doing wickedly. [4] And he went on doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, the same as the house of Aʹhab, for they themselves became counselors to him after the death of his father, to his ruination. [5] It was also in their counsel that he walked, so that he went with Je·hoʹram the son of Aʹhab the king of Israel to the war against Hazʹa·el the king of Syria at Raʹmoth-gilʹe·ad, at which the shooters got to strike Je·hoʹram. [6] Hence he returned to get healed at Jezʹre·el from the wounds that they had inflicted upon him at Raʹmah when he fought Hazʹa·el the king of Syria.

As for Az·a·riʹah the son of Je·hoʹram the king of Judah, he went down to see Je·hoʹram the son of Aʹhab in Jezʹre·el, for he was sick. [7] But it was from God that the downfall of A·ha·ziʹah occurred by his coming to Je·hoʹram; and when he came, he went out with Je·hoʹram to Jeʹhu the grandson of Nimʹshi, whom Jehovah had anointed to cut off the house of Aʹhab. [8] And it came about that as soon as Jeʹhu had entered into controversy with the house of Aʹhab, he got to find the princes of Judah and the sons of the brothers of A·ha·ziʹah, ministers of A·ha·ziʹah, and he proceeded to kill them. [9] Then he went looking for A·ha·ziʹah, and they finally captured him, as he was hiding in Sa·marʹi·a, and brought him to Jeʹhu. Then they put him to death and buried him, for they said: “He is the grandson of Je·hoshʹa·phat, who searched for Jehovah with all his heart.” And there was no one of the house of A·ha·ziʹah to retain power for the kingdom.

10 As regards Ath·a·liʹah the mother of A·ha·ziʹah, she saw that her son had died. So she rose up and destroyed all the royal offspring of the house of Judah. 11 However, Je·ho·shabʹe·ath the daughter of the king took Je·hoʹash the son of A·ha·ziʹah and stole him away from among the sons of the king that were to be put to death, and put him and his nursing woman in the inner room for the couches. And Je·ho·shabʹe·ath the daughter of King Je·hoʹram, the wife of Je·hoiʹa·da the priest, (for she herself happened to be the sister of A·ha·ziʹah,) kept him concealed because of Ath·a·liʹah, and she did not put him to death. 12 And he continued with them in the house of the true God hidden for six years, while Ath·a·liʹah was ruling as queen over the land.

23 And in the seventh year Je·hoi′a·da showed himself courageous and proceeded to take the chiefs of hundreds, namely, Az·a·ri′ah the son of Je·ro′ham, and Ish′ma·el the son of Je·ho·ha′nan and Az·a·ri′ah the son of O′bed and Ma·a·sei′ah the son of A·dai′ah and E·li·sha′phat the son of Zich′ri, with him into the covenant. [2] Afterward they went around throughout Judah and collected together the Levites from all the cities of Judah and the heads of the paternal houses of Israel. So they came to Jerusalem. [3] Then all the congregation concluded a covenant with the king in the house of the true God, after which he said to them:

“Look! The son of the king himself will reign, just as Jehovah promised concerning the sons of David. [4] This is the thing that YOU will do: one third of YOU who are coming in on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, will be for doorkeepers; [5] and one third will be at the house of the king; and one third will be at the Gate of the Foundation; and all the people will be in the courtyards of the house of Jehovah. [6] And do not let anyone enter the house of Jehovah but the priests and those of the Levites ministering. These are the ones that will enter, because they are a holy group, and all the people themselves will keep the obligation to Jehovah. [7] And the Levites must encircle the king all around, each one with his weapons in his hands; and as for anyone coming into the house, he should be put to death. And continue with the king when he comes in and when he goes out.”

[8] And the Levites and all Judah proceeded to do according to all that Je·hoi′a·da the priest had commanded. So they took each one his men that were coming in on the sabbath together with those going out on the sabbath, for Je·hoi′a·da the priest had not set the divisions free from duty. [9] Further,

Je·hoiʹa·da the priest gave the chiefs of hundreds the spears and the shields and the circular shields that had belonged to King David, which were in the house of the true God. [10] And he went on to station all the people, even each one with his missile in his hand, from the right side of the house clear to the left side of the house, by the altar and by the house, all around near the king. [11] Then they brought the king's son out and put upon him the diadem and the Testimony and made him king, and so Je·hoiʹa·da and his sons anointed him and said: "Let the king live!"

[12] When Ath·a·liʹah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king, she at once came to the people at the house of Jehovah. [13] Then she saw, and there was the king standing by his pillar at the entry, and the princes and the trumpets by the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing the trumpets, and the singers with the instruments of song and those giving the signal for offering praise. Immediately Ath·a·liʹah ripped her garments apart and said: "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!" [14] But Je·hoiʹa·da the priest brought out the chiefs of hundreds, the appointed ones of the military force, and said to them: "Take her out from inside the rows; and as for anyone coming after her, he should be put to death with the sword!" For the priest had said: "YOU must not put her to death at the house of Jehovah." [15] So they laid their hands upon her. When she came to the entry of the horse gate of the king's house, they at once put her to death there.

[16] Then Je·hoiʹa·da concluded a covenant between himself and all the people and the king that they would continue as the people of Jehovah. [17] After that all the people came to the house of Baʹal and pulled it down; and his altars and his images they broke up, and Matʹtan the priest of Baʹal they killed before the altars. [18] Further, Je·hoiʹa·da put the offices of the house of Jehovah in the hand of the priests and the Levites, whom David had put in divisions over the house of Jehovah to offer up the burnt sacrifices of Jehovah according to what is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with song by the hands of David. [19] So he stationed the gatekeepers by the gates of the house of Jehovah that no one unclean in any respect might enter. [20] He now took the chiefs of hundreds and the lordly ones and the rulers over the people and all the people of the land and brought the king down from the house of Jehovah. Then they came right through the upper gate to the king’s house and seated the king upon the throne of the kingdom. [21] And all the people of the land continued to rejoice; and the city itself had no disturbance, and Ath·a·liʹah they had put to death with the sword.

24 Seven years old was Je·hoʹash when he began to reign, and for forty years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Zibʹi·ah from Beʹer-sheʹba. [2] And Je·hoʹash kept doing what was right in Jehovah’s eyes all the days of Je·hoiʹa·da the priest. [3] And Je·hoiʹa·da proceeded to get two wives for him, and he came to be father to sons and daughters.

[4] Now it occurred afterward that it became close to the heart of Je·hoʹash to renovate the house of Jehovah. [5] Accordingly he collected the priests and the Levites together and said to them: “Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair the house of YOUR God from year to year; and YOU, for YOUR part, should act quickly in the matter.” And the Levites did not act quickly. [6] So the king called Je·hoiʹa·da the head and said to him: “Why is it that you have not required an account of the Levites for bringing in from Judah and Jerusalem the sacred tax ordered by Moses the servant of Jehovah, even that of the congregation of Israel, for the tent of the Testimony? [7] For as regards Ath·a·liʹah the wicked woman, her sons themselves had broken into the house of the true God, and even all the holy things of the house of Jehovah they had rendered up to the Baʹals.” [8] Then the king said the word, and so they made a chest and put it outside at the gate of the house of Jehovah. [9] After that they issued a call throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to Jehovah the sacred tax ordered by Moses the servant of the true God upon Israel in the wilderness. [10] And all the princes and all the people began to rejoice, and they kept bringing and casting it into the chest until they all had given.

[11] And it came about at the proper time he would bring the chest to the care of the king by the hand of the Levites, and, as soon as they saw that there was plenty of money, the secretary of the king and the commissioner of the chief priest came and then emptied the chest and lifted it up and returned it to its place. That was the way they did from day to day, so that they gathered money in abundance. [12] Then the king and Je·hoiʹa·da would give it to the doers of the work of the service of Jehovah’s house, and they came to be hirers of the stonecutters and of the craftsmen for renovating Jehovah’s house, and also of the workers in iron and copper for repairing Jehovah’s house. [13] And the doers of the work began operations, and the repair work kept advancing by their hand, and finally they made the house of the true God stand as it structurally should and made it strong. [14] And as soon as they had finished they brought before the king and Je·hoiʹa·da the rest of the money, and they proceeded to make utensils for the house of Jehovah, utensils for the ministry and for making offerings and cups and utensils of gold and of silver; and they came to be offerers of burnt sacrifices in the house of Jehovah constantly all the days of Je·hoiʹa·da.

[15] And Je·hoiʹa·da got to be old and satisfied with years and gradually died, being a hundred and thirty years old at his death. [16] So they buried him in the City of David along with the kings, because he had done good in Israel and with the true God and His house.

[17] And after Je·hoiʹa·da’s death the princes of Judah came in and proceeded to bow down to the king. At that time the king listened to them. [18] And gradually they left the house of Jehovah the God of their forefathers and began serving the sacred poles and the idols, so that there came to be indignation against Judah and Jerusalem because of this guilt of theirs. [19] And he kept sending prophets among them to bring them back to Jehovah; and they kept bearing witness against them, but they did not give ear.

[20] And God’s spirit itself enveloped Zech·a·riʹah the son of Je·hoiʹa·da the priest, so that he stood up above the people and said to them: “This is what the true God has said, ‘Why are YOU overstepping the commandments of Jehovah, so that YOU cannot prove successful? Because YOU have left Jehovah, he will, in turn, leave YOU.’” [21] Finally they conspired against him and pelted him with stones at the king’s commandment in the courtyard of Jehovah’s house. [22] And Je·hoʹash the king did not remember the loving-kindness that Je·hoiʹa·da his father had exercised toward him, so that he killed his son, who, when he was at the point of dying, said: “Let Jehovah see to it and ask it back.”

[23] And it came about at the turn of the year a military force of Syria came up against him, and they began to invade Judah and Jerusalem. Then they brought all the princes of the people to ruin from among the people, and all their spoil they sent to the king of Damascus. [24] For it was with a small number of men that the military force of the Syrians made an invasion, and Jehovah himself gave into their hand a military force of very great number, because they had left Jehovah the God of their forefathers; and upon Je·hoʹash they executed acts of judgment. [25] And when they went away from him (for they left him with many diseases), his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the sons of Je·hoiʹa·da the priest; and they got to kill him upon his own couch, so that he died. Then they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the burial places of the kings.

[26] And these were the conspirators against him: Zaʹbad the son of Shimʹe·ath the Amʹmon·it·ess and Je·hozʹa·bad the son of Shim′rith the Mo′ab·i·tess. 27 As for his sons and the abundance of the pronouncement against him and the founding of the house of the true God, there they are written in the exposition of the Book of the Kings. And Am·a·zi′ah his son began to reign in place of him.

25 At the age of twenty-five years Am·a·ziʹah became king, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Je·ho·adʹdan of Jerusalem. [2] And he continued to do what was right in Jehovah’s eyes, only not with a complete heart. [3] And it came about that as soon as the kingdom had become strong upon him, he promptly killed his servants who had struck down the king his father. [4] And their sons he did not put to death, but did according to what is written in the law, in the book of Moses, that Jehovah commanded, saying: “Fathers should not die for sons, neither should sons themselves die for fathers; but it is each one for his own sin that they should die.”

[5] And Am·a·ziʹah proceeded to collect Judah together and to have them stand according to the house of the forefathers, by the chiefs of thousands and by the chiefs of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin; and he went on to register them from twenty years of age upward, and finally he found them to be three hundred thousand choice men going out to the army, handling lance and large shield. [6] Further, he hired from Israel a hundred thousand valiant, mighty men for a hundred silver talents. [7] And a certain man of the true God came to him, saying: “O king, do not let the army of Israel come with you, for Jehovah is not with Israel, that is, all the sons of Eʹphra·im. [8] But come you yourself, act, be courageous for the war. The true God could cause you to stumble before an enemy; for there exists power with God to help and to cause stumbling.” [9] At this Am·a·ziʹah said to the man of the true God: “But what is there to do about the hundred talents that I have given to the troops of Israel?” To this the man of the true God said: “There exists with Jehovah the means to give you much more than this.” [10] Accordingly Am·a·ziʹah separated them, namely, the troops that had come to him from E′phra·im, to go to their own place. However, their anger got very hot against Judah, so that they returned to their own place in the heat of anger.

[11] And Am·a·zi′ah, for his part, took courage and proceeded to lead his own people and go to the Valley of Salt; and he went striking down the sons of Se′ir, ten thousand of them. [12] And there were ten thousand that the sons of Judah captured alive. So they brought them to the top of the crag, and proceeded to throw them from the top of the crag; and they, one and all, burst apart. [13] As for the members of the troop whom Am·a·zi′ah had sent back from going with him to the war, they began making raids upon the cities of Judah, from Sa·mar′i·a clear to Beth-ho′ron, and went striking down three thousand of them and taking a great plunder.

[14] But it occurred after Am·a·zi′ah came from striking down the E′dom·ites that he now brought the gods of the sons of Se′ir and set them up for himself as gods, and before them he began to bow down, and to them he began to make sacrificial smoke. [15] Consequently Jehovah’s anger became hot against Am·a·zi′ah, and so he sent a prophet to him and said to him: “Why have you searched for the people’s gods that did not deliver their own people out of your hand?” [16] And it came about when he spoke to him that the king immediately said to him: “Was it a counselor of the king that we constituted you? Quit for your own sake. Why should they strike you down?” Accordingly the prophet quit, but he said: “I certainly know that God has resolved to bring you to ruin, because you have done this and you have not listened to my counsel.”

[17] Then Am·a·zi′ah the king of Judah took counsel and sent to Je·ho′ash the son of Je·ho′a·haz the son of Je′hu the king of Israel, saying: “Come! Let us look each other in the face.” [18] At that Je·ho′ash the king of Israel sent to Am·a·zi′ah the king of Judah, saying: “The thorny weed itself that was in Leb′a·non sent to the cedar that was in Leb′a·non, saying, ‘Do give your daughter to my son as a wife.’ However, a wild beast of the field that was in Leb′a·non passed by and trampled the thorny weed down. [19] You have said to yourself, Here you have struck down E′dom. And your heart has lifted you up to be glorified. Now do keep dwelling in your own house. Why should you engage in strife in a bad position and have to fall, you and Judah with you?”

[20] But Am·a·zi′ah did not listen; for it was from the true God for the purpose of giving them into his hand, because they had searched for the gods of E′dom. [21] So Je·ho′ash the king of Israel went up, and they proceeded to look each other in the face, he and Am·a·zi′ah the king of Judah, at Beth-she′mesh, which belongs to Judah. [22] And Judah came to be defeated before Israel, so that they took to flight each one to his tent. [23] And it was Am·a·zi′ah the king of Judah, the son of Je·ho′ash the son of Je·ho′a·haz, that Je·ho′ash the king of Israel seized at Beth-she′mesh, after which he brought him to Jerusalem and made a breach in the wall of Jerusalem, from the Gate of E′phra·im clear to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits. [24] And he took all the gold and the silver and all the articles that were to be found in the house of the true God with O′bed-e′dom and the treasures of the king’s house and the hostages, and then returned to Sa·mar′i·a.

[25] And Am·a·zi′ah the son of Je·ho′ash the king of Judah continued to live after the death of Je·ho′ash the son of Je·ho′a·haz the king of Israel fifteen years. [26] As for the rest of the affairs of Am·a·zi′ah, the first and the last, look! are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel? [27] And from the time that Am·a·zi′ah turned aside from following Jehovah, they proceeded to form a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem. At length he fled to La′chish; but they sent after him to La′chish and put him to death there.

28 So they carried him upon horses and buried him with his forefathers in the city of Judah.

26 Then all the people of Judah took Uz·ziʹah, he being sixteen years old, and they made him king in place of his father Am·a·ziʹah. [2] He it was that rebuilt Eʹloth and then restored it to Judah after the king had lain down with his forefathers. [3] Sixteen years old was Uz·ziʹah when he began to reign, and for fifty-two years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Je·co·liʹah of Jerusalem. [4] And he kept doing what was right in Jehovah’s eyes, according to all that Am·a·ziʹah his father had done. [5] And he continually tended to search for God in the days of Zech·a·riʹah, the instructor in the fear of the true God; and, in the days of his searching for Jehovah, the true God made him prosperous.

[6] And he proceeded to go out and fight against the Phi·lisʹtines and break through the wall of Gath and the wall of Jabʹneh and the wall of Ashʹdod, after which he built cities in Ashʹdod territory and among the Phi·lisʹtines. [7] And the true God continued to help him against the Phi·lisʹtines and against the Arabians that were dwelling in Gur·baʹal and the Me·uʹnim. [8] And the Amʹmon·ites began to give tribute to Uz·ziʹah. Eventually his fame went even as far as Egypt, for he displayed strength to an extraordinary degree. [9] Moreover, Uz·ziʹah built towers in Jerusalem by the Corner Gate and by the Valley Gate and by the Buttress, and made them strong. [10] Further, he built towers in the wilderness, and hewed out many cisterns (for there was a great deal of livestock that became his), and also in the She·pheʹlah and on the tableland. There were farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in Carʹmel, for a lover of agriculture he proved to be.

[11] Moreover, Uz·ziʹah came to have a force engaging in war, those going out on military service in troops, by the number of their registration by the hand of Je·iʹel the secretary and Ma·a·seiʹah the officer under the control of Han·a·niʹah of the king’s princes. [12] The entire number of the heads of the paternal houses, of the valiant, mighty men, was two thousand six hundred. [13] And under their control the army forces were three hundred and seven thousand five hundred men engaging in war with the power of a military force to help the king against the enemy. [14] And Uz·ziʹah continued to prepare for them, for the entire army, shields and lances and helmets and coats of mail and bows and slingstones. [15] Further, he made in Jerusalem engines of war, the invention of engineers, that they might come to be upon the towers and upon the corners, to shoot arrows and great stones. Consequently his fame went out to a great distance, for he was helped wonderfully until he was strong.

[16] However, as soon as he was strong, his heart became haughty even to the point of causing ruin, so that he acted unfaithfully against Jehovah his God and came into the temple of Jehovah to burn incense upon the altar of incense. [17] Immediately Az·a·riʹah the priest and with him priests of Jehovah, eighty valiant men, came in after him. [18] Then they stood up against Uz·ziʹah the king and said to him: “It is not your business, O Uz·ziʹah, to burn incense to Jehovah, but it is the business of the priests the sons of Aaron, the ones sanctified, to burn incense. Go out from the sanctuary; for you have acted unfaithfully, and it is not for any glory to you on the part of Jehovah God.”

[19] But Uz·ziʹah became enraged while in his hand there was a censer for burning incense, and, during his rage against the priests, leprosy itself flashed up in his forehead before the priests in the house of Jehovah beside the altar of incense. [20] When Az·a·riʹah the chief priest and all the priests turned toward him, why, there he was stricken with leprosy in his forehead! So they excitedly began to remove him from there, and he himself also hastened to go out, because Jehovah had smitten him.

21 And Uz·ziʹah the king continued to be a leper until the day of his death, and he kept dwelling in a house exempt from duties, as a leper; for he had been severed from the house of Jehovah, while Joʹtham his son was over the king’s house, judging the people of the land.

22 And the rest of the affairs of Uz·ziʹah, the first and the last, Isaiah the son of Aʹmoz the prophet has written. 23 Finally Uz·ziʹah lay down with his forefathers; and so they buried him with his forefathers, but in the burial field that belonged to the kings, for they said: “He is a leper.” And Joʹtham his son began to reign in place of him.

27 Twenty-five years old was Jo′tham when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Je·ru′shah the daughter of Za′dok. [2] And he kept doing what was right in Jehovah’s eyes, according to all that Uz·zi′ah his father had done. Only he did not invade the temple of Jehovah. However, the people were yet acting ruinously. [3] He himself built the upper gate of Jehovah’s house, and on the wall of O′phel he did a great deal of building. [4] And cities he built in the mountainous region of Judah, and in the woodlands he built fortified places and towers. [5] And he himself warred against the king of the sons of Am′mon and eventually proved stronger than they were, so that the sons of Am′mon gave him in that year a hundred silver talents and ten thousand cor measures of wheat and ten thousand of barley. This was what the sons of Am′mon paid to him, also in the second year and the third. [6] So Jo′tham kept strengthening himself, for he prepared his ways before Jehovah his God.

[7] As for the rest of the affairs of Jo′tham and all his wars and his ways, there they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and of Judah. [8] Twenty-five years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem. [9] Finally Jo′tham lay down with his forefathers, and they buried him in the City of David. And A′haz his son began to reign in place of him.

28 Twenty years old was A′haz when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem, and he did not do what was right in Jehovah’s eyes like David his forefather. [2] But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and even molten statues he made of the Ba′als. [3] And he himself made sacrificial smoke in the valley of the son of Hin′nom and proceeded to burn up his sons in the fire, according to the detestable things of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel. [4] And he regularly sacrificed and made sacrificial smoke on the high places and upon the hills and under every sort of luxuriant tree.

[5] Consequently Jehovah his God gave him into the hand of the king of Syria, so that they struck him and carried off from him a great number of captives and brought them to Damascus. And also into the hand of the king of Israel he was given, so that he struck him with a great slaughter. [6] Accordingly Pe′kah the son of Rem·a·li′ah killed in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all valiant men, because of their leaving Jehovah the God of their forefathers. [7] Further, Zich′ri, a mighty man of E′phra·im, killed Ma·a·sei′ah the son of the king and Az·ri′kam the leader of the household and El·ka′nah the one next to the king. [8] Moreover, the sons of Israel took two hundred thousand of their brothers captive, women, sons and daughters; and also a great deal of spoil they took from them as plunder, after which they brought the spoil to Sa·mar′i·a.

[9] And there happened to be a prophet of Jehovah there whose name was O′ded. So he went out before the army that was coming to Sa·mar′i·a and said to them: “Look! It was because of the rage of Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers against Judah that he gave them into YOUR hand, so that YOU did a killing among them with a raging that has reached clear to the heavens. [10] And now the sons of Judah and of Jerusalem YOU are thinking of reducing to menservants and maidservants for yourselves. Nevertheless, are there not with YOU yourselves cases of guilt against Jehovah YOUR God? [11] And now listen to me and return the captives that YOU have captured from YOUR brothers, for Jehovah's burning anger is against YOU."

[12] At that certain men of the heads of the sons of E′phra·im, Az·a·ri′ah the son of Je·ho·ha′nan, Ber·e·chi′ah the son of Me·shil′le·moth and Je·hiz·ki′ah the son of Shal′lum and A·ma′sa the son of Had′lai, rose up against those coming in from the military campaign, [13] and they said to them: "YOU must not bring in the captives here, for it will result in guilt against Jehovah on our part. YOU are thinking of adding to our sins and to our guilt, for abundant is the guilt we have, and there is burning anger against Israel." [14] Accordingly the armed men left the captives and the plunder before the princes and all the congregation. [15] Then the men that were designated by their names rose up and took hold of the captives, and all their naked ones they clothed from the spoil. So they clothed them and furnished them with sandals and fed them and gave them drink and greased them. Furthermore, in the case of anyone tottering, they gave them transportation on the asses and brought them to Jer′i·cho, the city of palm trees, beside their brothers. After that they returned to Sa·mar′i·a.

[16] At that time King A′haz sent to the kings of As·syr′i·a for them to help him. [17] And once again the E′dom·ites themselves came in and went striking down Judah and carrying off captives. [18] As for the Phi·lis′tines, they made a raid upon the cities of the She·phe′lah and the Neg′eb of Judah and got to capture Beth-she′mesh and Ai′ja·lon and Ge·deʹroth and Soʹco and its dependent towns and Timʹnah and its dependent towns and Gimʹzo and its dependent towns; and they took up dwelling there. [19] For Jehovah humbled Judah on account of Aʹhaz the king of Israel, because he let unrestraint grow in Judah, and there was an acting with great unfaithfulness toward Jehovah.

[20] Eventually Tilʹgath-pil·neʹser the king of As·syrʹi·a came against him and caused him distress, and did not strengthen him. [21] For Aʹhaz stripped the house of Jehovah and the house of the king and of the princes and thus made a gift to the king of As·syrʹi·a; but it was of no assistance to him. [22] However, at the time that he was causing him distress, he acted unfaithfully still more toward Jehovah, that is, King Aʹhaz did. [23] And he began to sacrifice to the gods of Damascus that were striking him, and he went on to say: “Because the gods of the kings of Syria are helping them, to them I shall sacrifice, that they may help me.” And they themselves became to him a cause for making him and all Israel stumble. [24] Furthermore, Aʹhaz gathered together the utensils of the house of the true God and cut to pieces the utensils of the house of the true God, and closed the doors of the house of Jehovah, and made altars for himself at every corner in Jerusalem. [25] And in all cities, even the cities of Judah, he made high places for making sacrificial smoke to other gods, so that he offended Jehovah the God of his forefathers.

[26] As for the rest of his affairs and all his ways, the first and the last, there they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and of Israel. [27] Finally Aʹhaz lay down with his forefathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not bring him into the burial places of the kings of Israel. And Hez·e·kiʹah his son began to reign in place of him.

29 Hez·e·ki′ah himself became king at the age of twenty-five years, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was A·bi′jah the daughter of Zech·a·ri′ah. [2] And he kept doing what was right in Jehovah’s eyes, according to all that David his forefather had done. [3] He himself, in the first year of his reigning, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of Jehovah and began to repair them. [4] Then he brought the priests and the Levites and gathered them to the open place to the east. [5] And he proceeded to say to them: “Listen to me, YOU Levites. Now sanctify yourselves and sanctify the house of Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers, and bring the impure thing out from the holy place. [6] For our fathers have acted unfaithfully and have done what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah our God, so that they left him and turned around their face away from the tabernacle of Jehovah and offered the back of the neck. [7] They also closed the doors of the porch and kept the lamps extinguished, and incense they did not burn, and burnt sacrifice they did not offer up in the holy place to the God of Israel. [8] And Jehovah’s indignation came to be against Judah and Jerusalem, so that he constituted them an object at which to quake, an object of astonishment and a cause for whistling, just as YOU are seeing with YOUR own eyes. [9] And here our forefathers fell by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives were in captivity for this. [10] Now it is close to my heart to conclude a covenant with Jehovah the God of Israel, that his burning anger may turn back from us. [11] Now, my sons, do not give yourselves up to rest, for YOU are the ones whom Jehovah has chosen to stand before him to minister to him and to continue as his ministers and makers of sacrificial smoke.”

[12] At that the Levites rose up, Maʹhath the son of A·maʹsai and Joel the son of Az·a·riʹah of the sons of the Koʹhath·ites; and from the sons of Me·rarʹi, Kish the son of Abʹdi and Az·a·riʹah the son of Je·halʹle·lel; and from the Gerʹshon·ites, Joʹah the son of Zimʹmah and Eʹden the son of Joʹah; [13] and from the sons of E·li·zaʹphan, Shimʹri and Je·uʹel; and from the sons of Aʹsaph, Zech·a·riʹah and Mat·ta·niʹah; [14] and from the sons of Heʹman, Je·hiʹel and Shimʹe·i; and from the sons of Je·duʹthun, She·maiʹah and Uzʹzi·el. [15] Then they gathered their brothers together and sanctified themselves and came according to the king’s commandment in the words of Jehovah, to cleanse the house of Jehovah. [16] The priests now came inside the house of Jehovah to do the cleansing and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Jehovah to the courtyard of the house of Jehovah. In turn the Levites received it to take it out to the torrent valley of Kidʹron outside. [17] Thus they got started on the first day of the first month at sanctifying, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of Jehovah; so that they sanctified the house of Jehovah in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

[18] After that they came inside to Hez·e·kiʹah the king and said: “We have cleansed the whole house of Jehovah, the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the table of the layer bread and all its utensils. [19] And all the utensils that King Aʹhaz removed from employment during his reign in his unfaithfulness we have prepared, and have sanctified them; and there they are before the altar of Jehovah.”

[20] And Hez·e·kiʹah the king proceeded to get up early and gather the princes of the city together and go up to the house of Jehovah. [21] And they came bringing seven bulls and seven rams and seven male lambs and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. So he said to the sons of Aaron the priests to offer them up upon the altar of Jehovah. [22] Accordingly they slaughtered the cattle and the priests received the blood and sprinkled it upon the altar; after which they slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood upon the altar, and they slaughtered the male lambs and sprinkled the blood upon the altar. [23] Then they brought the male goats of the sin offering near before the king and the congregation and laid their hands upon them. [24] The priests now slaughtered them and made a sin offering with their blood upon the altar, to make atonement for all Israel; because it was for all Israel that the king said the burnt offering and the sin offering should be.

[25] Meantime, he had the Levites stationed at the house of Jehovah, with cymbals, with stringed instruments and with harps, by the commandment of David and of Gad the king's visionary and of Nathan the prophet, for it was by the hand of Jehovah that the commandment was by means of his prophets. [26] So the Levites kept standing with the instruments of David, and also the priests with the trumpets.

[27] Then Hez·e·ki′ah said to offer up the burnt sacrifice on the altar; and at the time that the burnt offering started, the song of Jehovah started and also the trumpets, even under the direction of the instruments of David the king of Israel. [28] And all the congregation were bowing down while the song was resounding and the trumpets were blaring—all this until the burnt offering was finished. [29] And as soon as they finished offering it up, the king and all those found with him bowed low and prostrated themselves. [30] Hez·e·ki′ah the king and the princes now said to the Levites to praise Jehovah in the words of David and of A′saph the visionary. So they began to offer praise even with rejoicing, and they kept bending down and prostrating themselves.

[31] Finally Hez·e·kiʹah answered and said: “Now YOU have filled YOUR hand with power for Jehovah. Approach, and bring sacrifices and thanksgiving sacrifices to the house of Jehovah.” And the congregation began to bring sacrifices and thanksgiving sacrifices, and also every one willing of heart, burnt offerings. [32] And the number of the burnt offerings that the congregation brought came to be seventy cattle, a hundred rams, two hundred male lambs—all these as a burnt offering to Jehovah; [33] and also the holy offerings, six hundred cattle and three thousand of the flock. [34] Only the priests themselves happened to be too few, and they were not able to skin all the burnt offerings. So their brothers the Levites helped them out until the work was finished and until the priests could sanctify themselves, for the Levites were more upright of heart for sanctifying themselves than the priests. [35] And, too, the burnt offerings were in great quantity with the fat pieces of the communion sacrifices and with the drink offerings for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of Jehovah was prepared. [36] Consequently Hez·e·kiʹah and all the people rejoiced over the fact that the true God had made preparation for the people, because it was all of a sudden that the thing had occurred.

30 And Hez·e·ki′ah proceeded to send to all Israel and Judah, and even letters he wrote to E′phra·im and Ma·nas′seh, to come to the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem to hold the passover to Jehovah the God of Israel. [2] However, the king and his princes and all the congregation in Jerusalem resolved to hold the passover in the second month; [3] for they had not been able to hold it at that time, because not enough priests, on the one hand, had sanctified themselves and the people, on the other hand, had not gathered themselves to Jerusalem. [4] And the thing was right in the eyes of the king and in the eyes of all the congregation. [5] So they decided to have the call pass through all Israel, from Be′er-she′ba to Dan, to come and hold the passover to Jehovah the God of Israel at Jerusalem; for it was not as a multitude that they had done so according to what is written.

[6] Accordingly the runners with the letters from the hand of the king and of his princes went throughout all Israel and Judah, even according to the commandment of the king, saying: “YOU sons of Israel, return to Jehovah the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that he may return to the escaped ones that are left of YOU out of the palm of the kings of As·syr′i·a. [7] And do not become like YOUR forefathers and like YOUR brothers that acted unfaithfully toward Jehovah the God of their forefathers, so that he constituted them an object of astonishment, just as YOU are seeing. [8] Now do not stiffen YOUR neck as YOUR forefathers did. Give place to Jehovah and come to his sanctuary that he has sanctified to time indefinite and serve Jehovah YOUR God, that his burning anger may turn back from YOU. [9] For when YOU return to Jehovah, YOUR brothers and YOUR sons will be objects of mercy before those holding them captive, and be allowed to return to this land; for Jehovah YOUR God is gracious and merciful, and he will not turn away the face from YOU if YOU return to him.”

10 So the runners continued on, passing along from city to city throughout the land of E′phra·im and Ma·nas′seh, even to Zeb′u·lun; but they were continually speaking in mockery of them and deriding them. 11 Only individuals from Ash′er and Ma·nas′seh and from Zeb′u·lun humbled themselves so that they came to Jerusalem. 12 The hand of the true God proved to be also in Judah to give them one heart to perform the commandment of the king and the princes in the matter of Jehovah.

13 And they proceeded to gather themselves together at Jerusalem, a numerous people, to hold the festival of the unfermented cakes in the second month, a congregation very multitudinous. 14 Then they rose up and removed the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the incense altars they removed and then threw them into the torrent valley of Kid′ron. 15 After that they slaughtered the passover victim on the fourteenth day of the second month; and the priests and the Levites themselves had been humiliated, so that they sanctified themselves and brought burnt offerings to the house of Jehovah. 16 And they kept standing at their place according to their rule, according to the law of Moses the man of the true God, the priests sprinkling the blood received from the hand of the Levites. 17 For there were many in the congregation that had not sanctified themselves; and the Levites were in charge of slaughtering the passover victims for all that were not clean, to sanctify them to Jehovah. 18 For there was a great number of the people, many from E′phra·im and Ma·nas′seh, Is′sa·char and Zeb′u·lun, that had not cleansed themselves, for they did not eat the passover according to what is written; but Hez·e·ki′ah prayed for them, saying: “May the good Jehovah himself make allowance for [19] every one that has prepared his heart to search for the true God, Jehovah, the God of his forefathers, though without the purification for what is holy.” [20] Accordingly Jehovah listened to Hez·e·kiʹah and healed the people.

[21] So the sons of Israel that were found in Jerusalem held the festival of the unfermented cakes seven days with great rejoicing; and the Levites and the priests were offering praise to Jehovah day by day with loud instruments, even to Jehovah. [22] Moreover, Hez·e·kiʹah spoke to the heart of all the Levites who were acting with fine discretion toward Jehovah. And they proceeded to eat the appointed feast for seven days, sacrificing communion sacrifices and making confession to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.

[23] Then all the congregation decided to hold it for seven more days, and so they held it for seven days with rejoicing. [24] For Hez·e·kiʹah the king of Judah himself contributed for the congregation a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the princes themselves contributed for the congregation a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and priests kept sanctifying themselves in great number. [25] And all the congregation of Judah and the priests and the Levites and all the congregation that came from Israel and the alien residents that came from the land of Israel and those dwelling in Judah continued rejoicing. [26] And there came to be great rejoicing in Jerusalem, for from the days of Solʹo·mon the son of David the king of Israel there was none like this in Jerusalem. [27] Finally the priests, the Levites, stood up and blessed the people; and a hearing was granted to their voice, so that their prayer came to his holy dwelling, the heavens.

31 And as soon as they finished all this, all the Israelites that were found there went out to the cities of Judah, and they proceeded to break up the sacred pillars and cut down the sacred poles and pull down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin and in E′phra·im and Ma·nas′seh until they had finished; after which all the sons of Israel returned to their cities, each one to his own possession.

[2] Then Hez·e·ki′ah set the divisions of the priests and of the Levites in their divisions, each one in accordance with its service for the priests and for the Levites as regards the burnt offering and the communion sacrifices to minister and to give thanks and praise in the gates of the camps of Jehovah. [3] And there was a portion of the king from his own goods for the burnt offerings, for the burnt offerings of the morning and the evening, and also the burnt offerings for the sabbaths and for the new moons and for the festival seasons, according to what is written in the law of Jehovah.

[4] Furthermore, he said to the people, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to give the portion of the priests and of the Levites, in order that they might adhere strictly to the law of Jehovah. [5] And as soon as the word broke forth, the sons of Israel increased the firstfruits of the grain, new wine, and oil and honey and all the produce of the field, and the tenth of everything they brought in abundantly. [6] And the sons of Israel and of Judah that were dwelling in the cities of Judah, even they themselves brought in the tenth of cattle and sheep and the tenth of the holy things, the things sanctified to Jehovah their God. They brought in and so gave heaps upon heaps. [7] In the third month they started the heaps by laying the lowest layer, and in the seventh month they finished. [8] When Hez·e·kiʹah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they proceeded to bless Jehovah and his people Israel.

[9] In time Hez·e·kiʹah inquired of the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. [10] Then Az·a·riʹah the chief priest of the house of Zaʹdok said to him, yes, he said: “From the time they started to bring the contribution into the house of Jehovah there has been an eating and getting satisfied and having a surplus in abundance; for Jehovah himself has blessed his people, and what has been left over is this great plenty.”

[11] At this Hez·e·kiʹah said to prepare dining rooms in the house of Jehovah. Accordingly they prepared them. [12] And they kept bringing in the contribution and the tenth and the holy things in faithfulness; and Con·a·niʹah the Levite was in charge of them as leader, and Shimʹe·i his brother was second. [13] And Je·hiʹel and Az·a·ziʹah and Naʹhath and Asʹa·hel and Jerʹi·moth and Joʹza·bad and Eʹli·el and Is·ma·chiʹah and Maʹhath and Be·naiʹah were commissioners at the side of Con·a·niʹah and Shimʹe·i his brother, by the order of Hez·e·kiʹah the king, and Az·a·riʹah was the leading one of the house of the true God. [14] And Koʹre the son of Imʹnah the Levite was the gatekeeper to the east, in charge of the voluntary offerings of the true God, to give Jehovah’s contribution and the most holy things. [15] And under his control there were Eʹden and Mi·niʹa·min and Jeshʹu·a and She·maiʹah, Am·a·riʹah and Shec·a·niʹah, in the cities of the priests, in office of trust, to give to their brothers in the divisions, equally to great and small; [16] apart from their genealogical enrollment of the males from three years of age upward, of all those coming to the house of Jehovah as a daily matter of course, for their service by their obligations according to their divisions.

[17] This is the genealogical enrollment of the priests by the house of their fathers and also of the Levites, from the age of twenty years upward, by their obligations in their divisions; [18] both for the genealogical enrollment among all their little ones, their wives and their sons and their daughters, for all the congregation, because in their office of trust they proceeded to sanctify themselves for what was holy; [19] and for the sons of Aaron, the priests, in the fields of pasture ground of their cities. In all the different cities there were men that had been designated by their names, to give portions to every male among the priests and to the entire genealogical enrollment among the Levites.

[20] And Hez·e·ki′ah proceeded to do like this in all Judah, and he continued to do what was good and right and faithful before Jehovah his God. [21] And in every work that he started in the service of the house of the true God and in the law and in the commandment to search for his God, it was with all his heart that he acted, and he proved successful.

32 After these things and this faithful course Sen·nach′er·ib the king of As·syr′i·a came and proceeded to invade Judah and camp against the fortified cities, and kept thinking of making them his by a breakthrough.

[2] When Hez·e·ki′ah saw that Sen·nach′er·ib had come with his face set for war against Jerusalem, [3] then he decided with his princes and his mighty men to stop up the waters of the springs that were outside the city; and so they helped him. [4] Accordingly many people were collected together, and they went stopping up all the fountains and the torrent that floods through the middle of the land, saying: “Why should the kings of As·syr′i·a come and actually find a great deal of water?”

[5] Furthermore, he took courage and built up all the broken-down wall and raised towers upon it, and on the outside another wall, and repaired the Mound of the City of David, and made missiles in abundance and shields. [6] And he proceeded to put military chiefs over the people and collect them to him at the public square of the gate of the city and speak to the heart of them, saying: [7] “Be courageous and strong. Do not be afraid nor be terrified because of the king of As·syr′i·a and on account of all the crowd that is with him; for with us there are more than there are with him. [8] With him there is an arm of flesh, but with us there is Jehovah our God to help us and to fight our battles.” And the people began to brace themselves upon the words of Hez·e·ki′ah the king of Judah.

[9] It was after this that Sen·nach′er·ib the king of As·syr′i·a sent his servants to Jerusalem, while he was at La′chish and all his imperial might with him, to Hez·e·ki′ah the king of Judah and to all the Ju·de′ans that were in Jerusalem, saying:

[10] “This is what Sen·nach′er·ib the king of As·syr′i·a has said, ‘In what is it that YOU are trusting while sitting quiet under siege in Jerusalem? [11] Is not Hez·e·ki′ah alluring YOU so as to give YOU over to die by famine and by thirst, saying: “Jehovah our God himself will deliver us out of the palm of the king of As·syr′i·a”? [12] Is it not Hez·e·ki′ah himself that removed his high places and his altars and then said to Judah and to Jerusalem: “Before one altar YOU should bow and upon it YOU should make sacrificial smoke”? [13] Do YOU not know what I myself and my forefathers did to all the peoples of the lands? Did the gods of the nations of the lands at all prove able to deliver their land out of my hand? [14] Who was there among all the gods of these nations that my forefathers devoted to destruction that proved able to deliver his people out of my hand, so that YOUR God should be able to deliver YOU out of my hand? [15] And now do not let Hez·e·ki′ah deceive YOU or allure YOU like this and do not put faith in him, for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand and out of the hand of my forefathers. How much less, then, will YOUR own God deliver YOU out of my hand! ’”

[16] And his servants spoke yet further against Jehovah the true God and against Hez·e·ki′ah his servant. [17] Even letters he wrote to reproach Jehovah the God of Israel and to talk against him, saying: “Like the gods of the nations of the lands who did not deliver their people out of my hand, so the God of Hez·e·ki′ah will not deliver his people out of my hand.” [18] And they kept calling with a loud voice in the Jews’ language to the people of Jerusalem that were upon the wall, to make them afraid and to disturb them, in order that they might capture the city. [19] And they went on speaking against the God of Jerusalem the same way as against the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of man’s hands. [20] But Hez·e·kiʹah the king and Isaiah the son of Aʹmoz, the prophet, kept praying over this and crying to the heavens for aid.

[21] And Jehovah proceeded to send an angel and efface every valiant, mighty man and leader and chief in the camp of the king of As·syrʹi·a, so that he went back with shame of face to his own land. Later on he entered the house of his god and there certain ones that had come out of his own inward parts felled him with the sword. [22] Thus Jehovah saved Hez·e·kiʹah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of the hand of Sen·nachʹer·ib the king of As·syrʹi·a and out of the hand of all others and gave them rest all around. [23] And there were many bringing gifts to Jehovah at Jerusalem and choice things to Hez·e·kiʹah the king of Judah, and he came to be exalted in the eyes of all the nations after that.

[24] In those days Hez·e·kiʹah fell sick to the point of dying, and he began to pray to Jehovah. So He talked to him, and a portent He gave him. [25] But according to the benefit rendered him Hez·e·kiʹah made no return, for his heart became haughty and there came to be indignation against him and against Judah and Jerusalem. [26] However, Hez·e·kiʹah humbled himself for the haughtiness of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and Jehovah’s indignation did not come upon them in the days of Hez·e·kiʹah.

[27] And Hez·e·kiʹah came to have riches and glory to a very great amount; and storehouses he made for himself for silver and for gold and for precious stones and for balsam oil and for shields and for all the desirable articles; [28] and also storage places for the produce of grain and new wine and oil, and also stalls for all the different sorts of beasts and stalls for the droves. [29] And cities he acquired for himself, and also livestock of the flock and of the herd in abundance; for God gave him very many goods. [30] And Hez·e·kiʹah was the one that stopped up the upper source of the waters of Giʹhon and kept them directed straight along down to the west to the City of David, and Hez·e·kiʹah continued to prove successful in every work of his. [31] And thus it was that by the spokesmen of the princes of Babylon that were sent to him to inquire about the portent that had happened in the land, the true God left him to put him to the test, to get to know everything in his heart.

[32] As for the rest of the affairs of Hez·e·kiʹah and his acts of loving-kindness, there they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Aʹmoz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. [33] Finally Hez·e·kiʹah lay down with his forefathers, and they buried him in the ascent to the burial places of the sons of David; and honor was what all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem rendered to him at his death. And Ma·nasʹseh his son began to reign in place of him.

2 CHRONICLES

33 Twelve years old was Ma·nas′seh when he began to reign, and for fifty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem.

[2] And he proceeded to do what was bad in Jehovah’s eyes, according to the detestable things of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel. [3] So he built again the high places that Hez·e·ki′ah his father had pulled down, and set up altars to the Ba′als and made sacred poles, and he began to bow down to all the army of the heavens and serve them. [4] And he built altars in the house of Jehovah, respecting which Jehovah had said: “In Jerusalem my name will prove to be to time indefinite.” [5] And he went on to build altars to all the army of the heavens in two courtyards of the house of Jehovah. [6] And he himself made his own sons pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hin′nom, and practiced magic and used divination and practiced sorcery and made spiritistic mediums and professional foretellers of events. He did on a grand scale what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, to offend him.

[7] Furthermore, he put the carved image that he had made in the house of the true God, respecting which God had said to David and to Sol′o·mon his son: “In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel,
I shall put my name to time indefinite. [8] And I shall not remove the foot of Israel again from off the ground that I assigned to their forefathers, provided only that they take care to do all that I have commanded them concerning all the law and the regulations and the judicial decisions by the hand of Moses.” [9] And Ma·nas′seh kept seducing Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do worse than the nations that Jehovah had annihilated from before the sons of Israel.

[10] And Jehovah kept speaking to Ma·nas′seh and his people, but they paid no attention. [11] Finally Jehovah brought against them the chiefs of the army that belonged to the king of As·syr′i·a, and so they captured Ma·nas′seh in the hollows and bound him with two fetters of copper and took him to Babylon. [12] And as soon as it caused him distress, he softened the face of Jehovah his God and kept humbling himself greatly because of the God of his forefathers. [13] And he kept praying to Him, so that He let himself be entreated by him and He heard his request for favor and restored him to Jerusalem to his kingship; and Ma·nas′seh came to know that Jehovah is the true God.

[14] And after this he built an outer wall for the City of David to the west of Gi′hon in the torrent valley and as far as the Fish Gate, and he ran it around to O′phel and proceeded to make it very high. Further, he put chiefs of the military force in all the fortified cities in Judah. [15] And he proceeded to remove the foreign gods and the idol image from the house of Jehovah and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of the house of Jehovah and in Jerusalem and then had them thrown outside the city. [16] Moreover, he prepared the altar of Jehovah and began to sacrifice upon it communion sacrifices and thanksgiving sacrifices and went on to say to Judah to serve Jehovah the God of Israel. [17] Nevertheless, the people were still sacrificing upon the high places; only it was to Jehovah their God.

[18] As for the rest of the affairs of Ma·nas′seh and his prayer to his God and the words of the visionaries that kept speaking to him in the name of Jehovah the God of Israel, there they are among the affairs of the kings of Israel. [19] As for his prayer and how his entreaty was granted him and all his sin and his unfaithfulness and the locations in which he built high places and set up the sacred poles and the graven images before he humbled himself, there they are written among the words of his visionaries. [20] Finally Ma·nas′seh lay down with his forefathers, and they buried him at his house; and A′mon his son began to reign in place of him.

[21] Twenty-two years old was A′mon when he began to reign, and for two years he reigned in Jerusalem. [22] And he proceeded to do what was bad in Jehovah’s eyes, just as Ma·nas′seh his father had done; and to all the graven images that Ma·nas′seh his father had made A′mon sacrificed, and he continued serving them. [23] And he did not humble himself because of Jehovah the same as Ma·nas′seh his father humbled himself, for A′mon was one that made guiltiness increase. [24] Finally his servants conspired against him and put him to death in his own house. [25] But the people of the land struck down all the conspirators against King A′mon, and the people of the land then made Jo·si′ah his son king in place of him.

34 Eight years old was Jo·si′ah when he began to reign, and for thirty-one years he reigned in Jerusalem. [2] And he proceeded to do what was right in Jehovah’s eyes and walk in the ways of David his forefather; and he did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

[3] And in the eighth year of his reigning, while he was still a boy, he started to search for the God of David his forefather; and in the twelfth year he started to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem from the high places and the sacred poles and the graven images and the molten statues. [4] Further, they pulled down before him the altars of the Ba′als; and the incense stands that were up above he cut down from off them; and the sacred poles and the graven images and the molten statues he broke in pieces and reduced to powder, and then sprinkled it upon the surface of the burial places of those that used to sacrifice to them. [5] And the bones of priests he burned upon their altars. Thus he cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

[6] Also, in the cities of Ma·nas′seh and E′phra·im and Sim′e·on and clear to Naph′ta·li, in their devastated places all around, [7] he even went pulling down the altars and the sacred poles, and the graven images he crushed and reduced to powder; and all the incense stands he cut down in all the land of Israel, after which he returned to Jerusalem.

[8] And in the eighteenth year of his reigning, when he had cleansed the land and the house, he sent Sha′phan the son of Az·a·li′ah and Ma·a·sei′ah the chief of the city and Jo′ah the son of Jo′a·haz the recorder to repair the house of Jehovah his God. [9] And they proceeded to come to Hil·ki′ah the high priest and give the money that was being brought to the house of God, which the Levites the doorkeepers had gathered from the hand of Ma·nas′seh and E′phra·im and from all the rest of Israel and from all Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 10 Then they put it into the hand of the doers of the work that were appointed over the house of Jehovah. In turn the doers of the work who were active in the house of Jehovah applied it to mending and repairing the house. 11 So they gave it to the craftsmen and the builders to buy hewn stones and timbers for clamps and to build with beams the houses that the kings of Judah had brought to ruin.

12 And the men were acting in faithfulness in the work; and over them there were appointed Ja′hath and O·ba·di′ah the Levites, from the sons of Me·rar′i, and Zech·a·ri′ah and Me·shul′lam, from the sons of the Ko′hath·ites, to act as overseers. And the Levites, each of whom was expert with the instruments of song, 13 were over the burden bearers, and the overseers of all the doers of the work for the different services; and from the Levites there were secretaries and officers and gatekeepers.

14 Now while they were bringing out the money that was being brought to the house of Jehovah, Hil·ki′ah the priest found the book of Jehovah’s law by the hand of Moses. 15 So Hil·ki′ah answered and said to Sha′phan the secretary: “The very book of the law I have found in the house of Jehovah.” With that Hil·ki′ah gave the book to Sha′phan. 16 Then Sha′phan brought the book to the king and replied further to the king, saying: “All that has been put in the hand of your servants they are doing. 17 And they pour out the money that is found in the house of Jehovah and put it in the hand of the appointed men and into the hand of the doers of the work.” 18 And Sha′phan the secretary went on to report to the king, saying: “There is a book that Hil·ki′ah the priest gave me.” And Sha′phan began to read out of it before the king.

[19] And it came about that as soon as the king heard the words of the law, he immediately ripped his garments apart. [20] Then the king commanded Hil·ki′ah and A·hi′kam the son of Sha′phan and Ab′don the son of Mi′cah and Sha′phan the secretary and A·sai′ah the king’s servant, saying: [21] “Go, inquire of Jehovah in my own behalf and in behalf of what is left in Israel and in Judah concerning the words of the book that has been found, for great is Jehovah’s rage that must be poured out against us because of the fact that our forefathers did not keep the word of Jehovah by doing according to all that is written in this book.”

[22] Accordingly Hil·ki′ah along with those whom the king had said went to Hul′dah the prophetess, the wife of Shal′lum the son of Tik′vah the son of Har′has the caretaker of the garments, as she was dwelling in Jerusalem in the second quarter; and they proceeded to speak to her like this. [23] In turn she said to them:

“This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, ‘SAY to the man that sent YOU to me: [24] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am bringing calamity upon this place and its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book that they read before the king of Judah, [25] due to the fact that they have left me and gone making sacrificial smoke to other gods, in order to offend me with all the doings of their hands and that my rage may pour forth upon this place and not be extinguished.’” [26] And to the king of Judah, who is sending YOU to inquire of Jehovah, this is what YOU should say to him: “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, ‘As regards the words that you have heard, [27] for the reason that your heart was soft so that you humbled yourself because of God at your hearing his words concerning this place and its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before me and ripped your garments apart and wept before me, I, even I, have heard, is the utterance of Jehovah. [28] Here I am gathering you to your forefathers, and you will certainly be gathered to your graveyard in peace, and your eyes will not look upon all the calamity that I am bringing upon this place and its inhabitants.’”’”

Then they brought the reply to the king. [29] And the king proceeded to send and gather all the older men of Judah and of Jerusalem. [30] The king now went up to the house of Jehovah with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the priests and the Levites and all the people, the great as well as the small; and he began to read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant, which had been found at the house of Jehovah. [31] And the king kept standing in his place and proceeded to conclude the covenant before Jehovah to go following Jehovah and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his regulations with all his heart and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. [32] Furthermore, he had all those who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to take their stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem proceeded to do according to the covenant of God, the God of their forefathers. [33] After that Jo·si′ah removed all the detestable things out of all the lands that belonged to the sons of Israel, and he had all who were found in Israel take up service, to serve Jehovah their God. All his days they did not turn aside from following Jehovah the God of their forefathers.

35 Then Jo·si′ah held in Jerusalem a passover to Jehovah and they slaughtered the passover victim on the fourteenth day of the first month. [2] So he stationed the priests over the things under their care and encouraged them in the service of the house of Jehovah. [3] And he went on to say to the Levites, the instructors of all Israel, those holy to Jehovah: “Put the holy Ark in the house that Sol′o·mon the son of David the king of Israel built; it is not YOURS as a burden upon the shoulder. Now serve Jehovah YOUR God and his people Israel. [4] And make preparation by the house of YOUR forefathers according to YOUR divisions, by the writing of David the king of Israel and by the writing of Sol′o·mon his son. [5] And stand in the holy place by the classes of the house of the forefathers for YOUR brothers, the sons of the people, and the portion of a paternal house belonging to the Levites. [6] And slaughter the passover victim and sanctify yourselves and make preparation for YOUR brothers to do according to the word of Jehovah by means of Moses.”

[7] Jo·si′ah now contributed to the sons of the people flocks, male lambs and male kids, the whole for the passover victims for all who were to be found, to the number of thirty thousand, and cattle, three thousand. These were from the goods of the king. [8] And his princes themselves made a contribution as a voluntary offering for the people, for the priests and for the Levites. Hil·ki′ah and Zech·a·ri′ah and Je·hi′el themselves as leaders of the house of the true God gave to the priests for the passover victims two thousand six hundred, and three hundred cattle. [9] And Con·a·ni′ah and She·mai′ah and Ne·than′el his brothers and Hash·a·bi′ah and Je·i′el and Jo′za·bad, the chiefs of the Levites, contributed to the Levites for passover victims five thousand, and five hundred cattle.

[10] And the service was prepared and the priests kept standing at their places, and the Levites by their divisions, according to the king’s commandment. [11] And they proceeded to slaughter the passover victim and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hand, while the Levites were stripping the skins off. [12] Further, they prepared the burnt offerings so as to give them to the classes by the paternal house, to the sons of the people, so as to make a presentation to Jehovah according to what is written in the book of Moses; and thus also with the cattle. [13] And they went cooking the passover offering over the fire according to the custom; and the things made holy they cooked in cooking pots and in round-bottomed pots and in banquet bowls, after which they brought it quickly to all the sons of the people. [14] And afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests the sons of Aaron were engaged in offering up the burnt sacrifices and the fat pieces until night, and the Levites, for their part, prepared for themselves and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

[15] And the singers the sons of A′saph were at their office according to the commandment of David and of A′saph and of He′man and of Je·du′thun the visionary of the king; and the gatekeepers were at the different gates. There was no need for them to turn aside from their service, because their brothers the Levites themselves prepared for them. [16] And all the service of Jehovah was prepared on that day to hold the passover and to offer up the burnt offerings upon the altar of Jehovah, according to the commandment of King Jo·si′ah.

[17] And the sons of Israel that were to be found proceeded to hold the passover at that time and also the festival of the unfermented cakes for seven days. [18] And there had never been held a passover like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet, neither had any of the other kings of Israel themselves held a passover like that which Jo·si′ah and the priests and the Levites and all Judah and Israel that were to be found and the inhabitants of Jerusalem held. [19] In the eighteenth year of Jo·si′ah’s reign this passover was held.

[20] After all this when Jo·si′ah had prepared the house, Ne′cho the king of Egypt came up to fight at Car′che·mish by the Eu·phra′tes. Then Jo·si′ah went out to an encounter with him. [21] At that he sent messengers to him, saying: “What do I have to do with you, O king of Judah? It is not against you that I am coming today, but it is against another house that my fight is and that God himself said that I should cause disturbance. Refrain for your own sake because of God, who is with me, and do not let him bring you to ruin.” [22] And Jo·si′ah did not turn his face away from him, but to fight against him he disguised himself and did not listen to the words of Ne′cho from the mouth of God. So he came to fight in the valley plain of Me·gid′do.

[23] And the shooters got to shoot at King Jo·si′ah, so that the king said to his servants: “Take me down, for I have been very severely wounded.” [24] Accordingly his servants took him down from the chariot and had him ride in the second war chariot that was his and brought him to Jerusalem. Thus he died and was buried in the graveyard of his forefathers; and all Judah and Jerusalem were mourning over Jo·si′ah. [25] And Jeremiah began to chant over Jo·si′ah; and all the male singers and female singers keep talking about Jo·si′ah in their dirges down till today; and they have them set as a regulation over Israel, and there they are written among the dirges.

[26] As for the rest of the affairs of Jo·si′ah and his acts of loving-kindness, according to what is written in the law of Jehovah, [27] and his affairs, the first and the last, there they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

36 Then the people of the land took Je·hoʹa·haz the son of Jo·siʹah and made him king in the place of his father in Jerusalem. [2] Twenty-three years old was Je·hoʹa·haz when he began to reign, and for three months he reigned in Jerusalem. [3] However, the king of Egypt removed him in Jerusalem and fined the land a hundred silver talents and a gold talent. [4] Furthermore, the king of Egypt made E·liʹa·kim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed his name to Je·hoiʹa·kim; but his brother Je·hoʹa·haz, Neʹcho took and brought to Egypt.

[5] Twenty-five years old was Je·hoiʹa·kim when he began to reign, and for eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem; and he continued to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah his God. [6] Against him Neb·u·chad·nezʹzar the king of Babylon came up that he might bind him with two fetters of copper to carry him off to Babylon. [7] And some of the utensils of the house of Jehovah Neb·u·chad·nezʹzar brought to Babylon and then put them in his palace in Babylon. [8] As for the rest of the affairs of Je·hoiʹa·kim and his detestable things that he did and what was to be found against him, there they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah; and Je·hoiʹa·chin his son began to reign in place of him.

[9] Eighteen years old was Je·hoiʹa·chin when he began to reign, and for three months and ten days he reigned in Jerusalem; and he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah’s eyes. [10] And at the return of the year King Neb·u·chad·nezʹzar sent and proceeded to bring him to Babylon with desirable articles of the house of Jehovah. Further, he made Zed·e·kiʹah his father’s brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

[11] Twenty-one years old was Zed·e·ki′ah when he began to reign, and for eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem. [12] And he continued to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah his God. He did not humble himself on account of Jeremiah the prophet at the order of Jehovah. [13] And even against King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar he rebelled, who had made him swear by God; and he kept stiffening his neck and hardening his heart so as not to return to Jehovah the God of Israel. [14] Even all the chiefs of the priests and the people themselves committed unfaithfulness on a large scale, according to all the detestable things of the nations, so that they defiled the house of Jehovah which he had sanctified in Jerusalem.

[15] And Jehovah the God of their forefathers kept sending against them by means of his messengers, sending again and again, because he felt compassion for his people and for his dwelling. [16] But they were continually making jest at the messengers of the true God and despising his words and mocking at his prophets, until the rage of Jehovah came up against his people, until there was no healing.

[17] So he brought up against them the king of the Chal·de′ans, who proceeded to kill their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, neither did he feel compassion for young man or virgin, old or decrepit. Everything He gave into his hand. [18] And all the utensils, great and small, of the house of the true God and the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king and of his princes, everything he brought to Babylon. [19] And he proceeded to burn the house of the true God and pull down the wall of Jerusalem; and all its dwelling towers they burned with fire and also all its desirable articles, so as to cause ruin. [20] Furthermore, he carried off those remaining from the sword captive to Babylon, and they came to be servants to him and his sons until the royalty of Persia began to reign; [21] to fulfill Jehovah’s word by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had paid off its sabbaths. All the days of lying desolated it kept sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.

[22] And in the first year of Cyrus the king of Persia, that Jehovah’s word by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, Jehovah roused the spirit of Cyrus the king of Persia, so that he caused a cry to pass through all his kingdom, and also in writing, saying: [23] “This is what Cyrus the king of Persia has said, ‘All the kingdoms of the earth Jehovah the God of the heavens has given me, and he himself has commissioned me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among YOU of all his people, Jehovah his God be with him. So let him go up.’”

EZRA

1 And in the first year of Cyrus the king of Persia, that Jehovah’s word from the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, Jehovah roused the spirit of Cyrus the king of Persia so that he caused a cry to pass through all his realm, and also in writing, saying:

[2] “This is what Cyrus the king of Persia has said, ‘All the kingdoms of the earth Jehovah the God of the heavens has given me, and he himself has commissioned me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. [3] Whoever there is among YOU of all his people, may his God prove to be with him. So let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and rebuild the house of Jehovah the God of Israel—he is the true God—which was in Jerusalem. [4] As for anyone that is left from all the places where he is residing as an alien, let the men of his place assist him with silver and with gold and with goods and with domestic animals along with the voluntary offering for the house of the true God, which was in Jerusalem.’”

[5] Then the heads of the fathers of Judah and of Benjamin and the priests and the Levites rose up, even everyone whose spirit the true God had roused, to go up and rebuild the house of Jehovah, which was in Jerusalem. [6] As for all those round about them, they strengthened their hands with utensils of silver, with gold, with goods and with domestic animals and with choice things, besides all that which was voluntarily offered.

[7] Also, King Cyrus himself brought forth the utensils of the house of Jehovah, which Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had brought out from Jerusalem and then put in the house of his god. [8] And Cyrus the king of Persia proceeded to bring them forth under the control of Mith′re·dath the treasurer and to number them out to Shesh·baz′zar the chieftain of Judah.

[9] Now these are the numbers of them: thirty basket-shaped vessels of gold, a thousand basket-shaped vessels of silver, twenty-nine replacement vessels, [10] thirty small bowls of gold, four hundred and ten small secondary bowls of silver, a thousand other utensils. [11] All the utensils of gold and of silver were five thousand four hundred. Everything Shesh·baz′zar brought up, along with the bringing up of the exiled people out of Babylon to Jerusalem.

2 And these were the sons of the jurisdictional district that went up out of the captivity of the exiled people whom Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon had taken into exile at Babylon and who later returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each one to his own city; [2] those who came with Ze·rub′ba·bel, Jesh′u·a, Ne·he·mi′ah, Se·rai′ah, Re·el·ai′ah, Mor′de·cai, Bil′shan, Mis′par, Big′vai, Re′hum, Ba′a·nah.

The number of the men of the people of Israel: [3] The sons of Pa′rosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two; [4] the sons of Sheph·a·ti′ah, three hundred and seventy-two; [5] the sons of A′rah, seven hundred and seventy-five; [6] the sons of Pa′hath-mo′ab, of the sons of Jesh′u·a and Jo′ab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve; [7] the sons of E′lam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four; [8] the sons of Zat′tu, nine hundred and forty-five; [9] the sons of Zac′cai, seven hundred and sixty; [10] the sons of Ba′ni, six hundred and forty-two; [11] the sons of Be′bai, six hundred and twenty-three; [12] the sons of Az′gad, a thousand two hundred and twenty-two; [13] the sons of Ad·o·ni′kam, six hundred and sixty-six; [14] the sons of Big′vai, two thousand and fifty-six; [15] the sons of A′din, four hundred and fifty-four; [16] the sons of A′ter, of Hez·e·ki′ah, ninety-eight; [17] the sons of Be′zai, three hundred and twenty-three; [18] the sons of Jo′rah, a hundred and twelve; [19] the sons of Ha′shum, two hundred and twenty-three; [20] the sons of Gib′bar, ninety-five; [21] the sons of Beth′le·hem, a hundred and twenty-three; [22] the men of Ne·to′phah, fifty-six; [23] the men of An′a·thoth, a hundred and twenty-eight; [24] the sons of Az′ma·veth, forty-two; [25] the sons of Kir′i·ath-je′a·rim, Che·phi′rah and Be·er′oth, seven hundred and forty-three; [26] the sons of Ra′mah and Ge′ba, six hundred and twenty-one; [27] the men of Mich′mas, a hundred and twenty-two; [28] the men of Beth′el and A′i, two hundred and twenty-three; [29] the sons of Ne′bo, fifty-two; [30] the sons of Mag′bish, a hundred and fifty-six; [31] the sons of the other E′lam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four; [32] the sons of Ha′rim, three hundred and twenty; [33] the sons of Lod, Ha′did and O′no, seven hundred and twenty-five; [34] the sons of Jer′i·cho, three hundred and forty-five; [35] the sons of Se·na′ah, three thousand six hundred and thirty.

[36] The priests: The sons of Je·da′iah of the house of Jesh′u·a nine hundred and seventy-three; [37] the sons of Im′mer, a thousand and fifty-two; [38] the sons of Pash′hur, a thousand two hundred and forty-seven; [39] the sons of Ha′rim, a thousand and seventeen.

[40] The Levites: The sons of Jesh′u·a and Kad′mi·el, of the sons of Hod·a·vi′ah, seventy-four. [41] The singers, the sons of A′saph, a hundred and twenty-eight. [42] The sons of the gatekeepers, the sons of Shal′lum, the sons of A′ter, the sons of Tal′mon, the sons of Ak′kub, the sons of Ha·ti′ta, the sons of Sho′bai, all together, a hundred and thirty-nine.

[43] The Neth′i·nim: The sons of Zi′ha, the sons of Ha·su′pha, the sons of Tab·ba′oth, [44] the sons of Ke′ros, the sons of Si′a·ha, the sons of Pa′don, [45] the sons of Le·ba′nah, the sons of Hag′a·bah, the sons of Ak′kub, [46] the sons of Ha′gab, the sons of Sal′mai, the sons of Ha′nan, [47] the sons of Gid′del, the sons of Ga′har, the sons of Re·a′iah, [48] the sons of Re′zin, the sons of Ne·ko′da, the sons of Gaz′zam, [49] the sons of Uz′za, the sons of Pa·se′ah, the sons of Be′sai, [50] the sons of As′nah, the sons of Me·u′nim, the sons of Ne·phu′sim; [51] the sons of Bak′buk, the sons of Ha·ku′pha, the sons of Har′hur, [52] the sons of Baz′luth, the sons of Me·hi′da, the sons of Har′sha, [53] the sons of Bar′kos, the sons of Sis′e·ra, the sons of Te′mah, [54] the sons of Ne·zi′ah, the sons of Ha·ti′pha.

[55] The sons of the servants of Sol′o·mon: The sons of So′tai, the sons of So·phe′reth, the sons of Pe·ru′da, [56] the sons of Ja′a·lah, the sons of Dar′kon, the sons of Gid′del, [57] the sons of Sheph·a·ti′ah, the sons of Hat′til, the sons of Po′che·reth-haz·ze·ba′im, the sons of A′mi.

[58] All the Neth′i·nim and the sons of the servants of Sol′o·mon were three hundred and ninety-two.

[59] And these were the ones going up from Tel-me′lah, Tel-har′sha, Che′rub, Ad′don and Im′mer, and they proved unable to tell the house of their fathers and their origin, whether they were of Israel: [60] the sons of De·la′iah, the sons of To·bi′ah, the sons of Ne·ko′da, six hundred and fifty-two. [61] And of the sons of the priests: the sons of Ha·bai′ah, the sons of Hak′koz, the sons of Bar·zil′lai, who took a wife from the daughters of Bar·zil′lai the Gil′e·ad·ite and came to be called by their name. [62] These were the ones that looked for their register to establish their genealogy publicly, and they did not find themselves, so that they were barred as polluted from the priesthood. [63] Consequently the Tir·sha′tha said to them that they could not eat from the most holy things until a priest stood up with U′rim and Thum′mim.

[64] The entire congregation as one group was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty, [65] apart from their men slaves and their slave girls, these being seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred male singers and female singers. [66] Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five, [67] their camels four hundred and thirty-five, their asses six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

[68] And certain ones of the heads of the paternal houses, on coming to the house of Jehovah, which was in Jerusalem, made voluntary offerings to the house of the true God, to cause it to stand on its own site. [69] According to their power they gave gold for the working supplies, sixty-one thousand drachmas, and silver, five thousand mi′nas, and a hundred robes of priests. [70] And the priests and the Levites and some of the people, and the singers and the gatekeepers and the Neth′i·nim took up dwelling in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

3 When the seventh month arrived the sons of Israel were in their cities. And the people began to gather themselves as one man to Jerusalem. [2] And Jesh′u·a the son of Je·hoz′a·dak and his brothers the priests and Ze·rub′ba·bel the son of She·al′ti·el and his brothers proceeded to rise up and build the altar of the God of Israel, to offer up burnt sacrifices upon it, according to what is written in the law of Moses the man of the true God.

[3] So they established the altar firmly upon its own site, for fright came upon them because of the peoples of the lands, and they began offering up burnt sacrifices to Jehovah upon it, the burnt sacrifices of the morning and of the evening. [4] Then they held the festival of booths according to what is written, with the burnt sacrifices day by day in number according to the rule of what was due each day. [5] And afterward there was the constant burnt offering and that for the new moons and for all the sanctified festival seasons of Jehovah and for everyone that willingly offered a voluntary offering to Jehovah. [6] From the first day of the seventh month on they started to offer up burnt sacrifices to Jehovah, when the foundation of Jehovah’s temple itself had not yet been laid.

[7] And they proceeded to give money to the cutters and to the craftsmen, and eatables and drink and oil to the Si·do′ni·ans and the Tyr′i·ans, to bring cedar timbers from Leb′a·non to the sea at Jop′pa, according to the permission granted by Cyrus the king of Persia to them.

[8] And in the second year of their coming to the house of the true God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Ze·rub′ba·bel the son of She·al′ti·el and Jesh′u·a the son of Je·hoz′a·dak and the rest of their brothers, the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem started; and they now put in positions the Levites from twenty years of age upward to act as supervisors over the work of the house of Jehovah. [9] Accordingly Jeshʹu·a, his sons and his brothers, and Kadʹmi·el and his sons, the sons of Judah, stood up as one group to act as supervisors over the doers of the work in the house of the true God, also the sons of Henʹa·dad, their sons and their brothers, the Levites.

[10] When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of Jehovah, then the priests in official clothing, with the trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Aʹsaph, with the cymbals, stood up to praise Jehovah according to the direction of David the king of Israel. [11] And they began to respond by praising and giving thanks to Jehovah, “for he is good, for his loving-kindness toward Israel is to time indefinite.” As for all the people, they shouted with a loud shout in praising Jehovah over the laying of the foundation of the house of Jehovah. [12] And many of the priests and the Levites and the heads of the paternal houses, the old men that had seen the former house, were weeping with a loud voice at the laying of the foundation of this house before their eyes, while many others were raising the voice in shouting for joy. [13] Hence the people were not distinguishing the sound of the shout of rejoicing from the sound of the weeping of the people, for the people were shouting with a loud shout, and the sound itself was heard even to a great distance.

4 When the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons of the Exile were building a temple to Jehovah the God of Israel, [2] they immediately approached Ze·rub′ba·bel and the heads of the paternal houses and said to them: “Let us build along with YOU; for, just like YOU, we search for YOUR God and to him we are sacrificing since the days of E′sar-had′don the king of As·syr′i·a, who brought us up here.” [3] However, Ze·rub′ba·bel and Jesh′u·a and the rest of the heads of the paternal houses of Israel said to them: “YOU have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God, for we ourselves shall together build to Jehovah the God of Israel, just as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us.”

[4] At that the people of the land were continually weakening the hands of the people of Judah and disheartening them from building, [5] and hiring counselors against them to frustrate their counsel all the days of Cyrus the king of Persia down till the reign of Da·ri′us the king of Persia. [6] And in the reign of A·has·u·e′rus, at the start of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. [7] Also, in the days of Ar·ta·xerx′es, Bish′lam, Mith′re·dath, Tab′e·el and the rest of his colleagues wrote to Ar·ta·xerx′es the king of Persia, and the writing of the letter was written in Ar·a·ma′ic characters and translated into the Ar·a·ma′ic language.

[8] Re′hum the chief government official and Shim′shai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Ar·ta·xerx′es the king, as follows: [9] Then Re′hum the chief government official and Shim′shai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues, the judges and the lesser governors across the River, the secretaries, the people of E′rech, the Babylonians, the inhabitants of Su′sa, that is, the E′lam·ites, [10] and the rest of the nations whom the great and honorable As′e·nap·par took into exile and settled in the cities of Sa·mar′i·a, and the rest beyond the River, ——; and now [11] this is a copy of the letter that they sent concerning it:

“To Ar·ta·xerx′es the king your servants, the men beyond the River: And now [12] let it become known to the king that the Jews who came up here from you to us have come to Jerusalem. They are building the rebellious and bad city, and they proceed to finish the walls and to repair the foundations. [13] Now let it become known to the king that, if this city should be rebuilt and its walls be finished, neither tax nor tribute nor toll will they give, and it will cause loss to the treasuries of the kings. [14] Now inasmuch as we do eat the salt of the palace, and it is not proper for us to see the denuding of the king, on this account we have sent and made it known to the king, [15] that there may be an investigation of the book of records of your ancestors. Then you will find in the book of records and learn that that city is a city rebellious and causing loss to kings and jurisdictional districts, and within it there were movers of revolt from the days of old. For this reason that city has been laid waste. [16] We are making known to the king that, if that city should be rebuilt and its walls be finished, you also will certainly have no share beyond the River.”

[17] The king sent word to Re′hum the chief government official and Shim′shai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues who were dwelling in Sa·mar′i·a and the rest beyond the River:

“Greetings! And now [18] the official document that YOU have sent us has been distinctly read before me. [19] So an order has been put through by me, and they have investigated and found that that city has from the days of old been one rising up against kings and one in which rebellion and revolt have been carried on. [20] And there proved to be strong kings over Jerusalem and governing all beyond the River, and tax, tribute and toll were being given to them. [21] Now PUT an order through for these able-bodied men to stop, that that city may not be rebuilt until the order is put through by me. [22] So be careful that there be no negligence about acting in this regard, that the harm may not increase to the injury of kings.”

[23] Now after the copy of the official document of Ar·ta·xerx′es the king had been read before Re′hum and Shim′shai the scribe and their colleagues, they went in a hurry to Jerusalem to the Jews and stopped them by force of arms. [24] It was then that the work on the house of God, which was in Jerusalem, stopped; and it continued stopped until the second year of the reign of Da·ri′us the king of Persia.

5 And Hag′gai the prophet and Zech·a·ri′ah the grandson of Id′do the prophet prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and in Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel who was over them. [2] It was then that Ze·rub′ba·bel the son of She·al′ti·el and Jesh′u·a the son of Je·hoz′a·dak got up and started to rebuild the house of God, which was in Jerusalem; and with them there were God’s prophets giving them aid. [3] At that time Tat′te·nai the governor beyond the River and She′thar-boz′e·nai and their colleagues came to them, and this is what they were saying to them: “Who put an order through to YOU to build this house and to finish this beam structure?” [4] Then they said to them this: “What are the names of the able-bodied men that are building this building?” [5] And the eye of their God proved to be upon the older men of the Jews, and they did not stop them until the report could go to Da·ri′us and then an official document concerning this could be sent back.

[6] Here is a copy of the letter that Tat′te·nai the governor beyond the River and She′thar-boz′e·nai and his colleagues, the lesser governors that were beyond the River, sent to Da·ri′us the king; [7] they sent the word to him, and the writing in it was in this manner:

“To Da·ri′us the king:

“All peace! [8] Let it become known to the king that we went to the jurisdictional district of Judah to the house of the great God, and it is being built with stones rolled into place, and timbers are being laid in the walls; and that work is being eagerly done and is making progress in their hands. [9] Then we asked these older men. This is what we said to them: ‘Who put an order through to YOU to build this house and to finish this beam structure?’ [10] And we also asked them their names, so as to let you know, that we might write the names of the able-bodied men that are at their head.

[11] “And this is the word that they gave back to us, saying: ‘We are the servants of the God of the heavens and the earth, and we are rebuilding the house that had been built many years before this, which a great king of Israel built and finished. [12] However, because our fathers irritated the God of the heavens, he gave them into the hand of Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon, the Chal·de′an, and he demolished this house and took the people into exile at Babylon. [13] Nevertheless, in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, Cyrus the king put an order through to rebuild this house of God. [14] And also the gold and silver vessels of the house of God that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had taken out of the temple, which was in Jerusalem, and brought to the temple of Babylon, these Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were given to Shesh·baz′zar, the name of the one whom he made governor. [15] And he said to him: “Take these vessels. Go, deposit them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt upon its place.” [16] When that Shesh·baz′zar came he laid the foundations of the house of God, which is in Jerusalem; and from then until now it is being rebuilt but it has not been completed.’

[17] “And now if to the king it seems good, let there be an investigation in the king’s house of treasures that is there in Babylon, whether it is so that from Cyrus the king an order was put through to rebuild that house of God in Jerusalem; and the decision of the king concerning this let him send to us.”

6 It was then that Da·ri′us the king put an order through, and they made an investigation in the house of the records of the treasures deposited there in Babylon. [2] And at Ec·bat′a·na, in the fortified place that was in the jurisdictional district of Me′di·a, there was found a scroll, and the memorandum to this effect was written within it:

[3] "In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king put an order through concerning the house of God in Jerusalem: Let the house be rebuilt as the place where they are to offer sacrifices, and its foundations are to be fixed, its height being sixty cubits, its width sixty cubits, [4] with three layers of stones rolled into place and one layer of timbers; and let the expense be given from the king's house. [5] And also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon be returned, that they may reach the temple that is in Jerusalem at its place and be deposited in the house of God.

[6] "Now Tat′te·nai the governor beyond the River, She′thar-boz′e·nai and their colleagues, the lesser governors that are beyond the River, keep YOUR distance from there. [7] Let the work on that house of God alone. The governor of the Jews and the older men of the Jews will rebuild that house of God upon its place. [8] And by me an order has been put through as to what YOU will do with these older men of the Jews, for rebuilding that house of God; and from the royal treasury of the tax beyond the River the expense will promptly be given to these able-bodied men without cessation. [9] And what is needed, young bulls as well as rams and lambs for the burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine and oil, just as the priests that are in Jerusalem say, let there be given them continually day by day without fail; [10] that they may continually be presenting soothing offerings to the God of the heavens and praying for the life of the king and his sons. [11] And by me an order has been put through that, as for anybody that violates this decree, a timber will be pulled out of his house and he will be impaled upon it, and his house will be turned into a public privy on this account. [12] And may the God who has caused his name to reside there overthrow any king and people that thrusts his hand out to commit a violation and destroy that house of God, which is in Jerusalem. I, Da·ri′us, do put through an order. Let it be done promptly.”

[13] Then Tat′te·nai the governor beyond the River, She′thar-boz′e·nai and their colleagues, just as Da·ri′us the king had sent word, so they did promptly. [14] And the older men of the Jews were building and making progress under the prophesying of Hag′gai the prophet and Zech·a·ri′ah the grandson of Id′do, and they built and finished it due to the order of the God of Israel and due to the order of Cyrus and Da·ri′us and Ar·ta·xerx′es the king of Persia. [15] And they completed this house by the third day of the lunar month A′dar, that is, in the sixth year of the reign of Da·ri′us the king.

[16] And the sons of Israel, the priests and the Levites and the rest of the former exiles held the inauguration of this house of God with joy. [17] And they presented for the inauguration of this house of God a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. [18] And they appointed the priests in their classes and the Levites in their divisions, for the service of God which is in Jerusalem, according to the prescription of the book of Moses.

[19] And the former exiles proceeded to hold the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. [20] As the priests and the Levites had cleansed themselves as one group, they were all of them clean, and so they slaughtered the passover victim for all the former exiles and for their brothers the priests and for themselves. [21] Then the sons of Israel that had returned from the Exile ate, and everyone that had separated himself to them from the uncleanness of the nations of the land, to search for Jehovah the God of Israel. [22] And they went on to hold the festival of unfermented cakes seven days with rejoicing; for Jehovah caused them to rejoice, and he had turned the heart of the king of As·syr′i·a around toward them to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of the true God, the God of Israel.

7 And after these things in the reign of Ar·ta·xerx′es the king of Persia, Ez′ra the son of Se·rai′ah the son of Az·a·ri′ah the son of Hil·ki′ah [2] the son of Shal′lum the son of Za′dok the son of A·hi′tub [3] the son of Am·a·ri′ah the son of Az·a·ri′ah the son of Me·ra′ioth [4] the son of Zer·a·hi′ah the son of Uz′zi the son of Buk′ki [5] the son of Ab·i·shu′a the son of Phin′e·has the son of El·e·a′zar the son of Aaron the chief priest— [6] the said Ez′ra himself went up from Babylon; and he was a skilled copyist in the law of Moses, which Jehovah the God of Israel had given, so that the king granted him, according to the hand of Jehovah his God upon him, all his request.

[7] Consequently some of the sons of Israel and of the priests and the Levites and the singers and the gatekeepers and the Neth′i·nim went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of Ar·ta·xerx′es the king. [8] At length he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, that is, in the seventh year of the king. [9] For on the first day of the first month he himself appointed the going up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him. [10] For Ez′ra himself had prepared his heart to consult the law of Jehovah and to do it and to teach in Israel regulation and justice.

[11] And this is a copy of the letter that King Ar·ta·xerx′es gave Ez′ra the priest the copyist, a copyist of the words of the commandments of Jehovah and of his regulations toward Israel:

[12] “Ar·ta·xerx′es, the king of kings, to Ez′ra the priest, the copyist of the law of the God of the heavens: Peace be perfected. And now [13] by me an order has been put through that everyone in my realm of the people of Israel and their priests and Levites that is willing to go to Jerusalem with you should go. 14 Inasmuch as from before the king and his seven counselors an order was sent to investigate concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the law of your God that is in your hand, 15 and to bring the silver and the gold that the king and his counselors have voluntarily given to the God of Israel, whose residence is in Jerusalem, 16 with all the silver and the gold that you find in all the jurisdictional district of Babylon along with the gift of the people and the priests who are voluntarily giving to the house of their God, which is in Jerusalem; 17 accordingly you will promptly buy with this money bulls, rams, lambs and their grain offerings and their drink offerings and you will present them upon the altar of the house of YOUR God, which is in Jerusalem.

18 “And whatever it seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and gold, according to the will of YOUR God, YOU men will do. 19 And the vessels that are being given to you for the service of the house of your God deliver in full before God at Jerusalem. 20 And the rest of the necessities of the house of your God that it devolves upon you to give, you will give out of the king’s house of treasures.

21 “And by me myself, Ar·ta·xerx′es the king, an order has been put through to all the treasurers that are beyond the River, that everything that Ez′ra the priest, the copyist of the law of the God of the heavens, requests of YOU men it will be done promptly, 22 even to a hundred talents of silver and a hundred cor measures of wheat and a hundred bath measures of wine and a hundred bath measures of oil, and salt without limit. 23 Let all that is by the order of the God of the heavens be done with zeal for the house of the God of the heavens, that there may occur no wrath against the king’s realm and his sons. [24] And to YOU men it is being made known that, as respects any of the priests and the Levites, the musicians, the doorkeepers, the Neth′i·nim, and the workers of this house of God, no tax, tribute or toll is allowed to be imposed upon them.

[25] “And you, Ez′ra, according to the wisdom of your God that is in your hand appoint magistrates and judges that they may continually judge all the people that are beyond the River, even all those knowing the laws of your God; and anyone that has not known them YOU men will instruct. [26] And as for everyone that does not become a doer of the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be promptly executed upon him, whether for death or for banishment, or for money fine or for imprisonment.”

[27] Blessed be Jehovah the God of our forefathers, who has put such a thing into the heart of the king, to beautify the house of Jehovah, which is in Jerusalem! [28] And toward me he has extended loving-kindness before the king and his counselors and as respects all the mighty princes of the king. And I, for my part, strengthened myself according to the hand of Jehovah my God upon me, and I proceeded to collect out of Israel the head ones to go up with me.

8 Now these were the heads of their paternal houses and the genealogical enrollment of those going up with me during the reign of Ar·ta·xerx′es the king out of Babylon: [2] Of the sons of Phin′e·has, Ger′shom; of the sons of Ith′a·mar, Daniel; of the sons of David, Hat′tush; [3] of the sons of Shec·a·ni′ah, of the sons of Pa′rosh, Zech·a·ri′ah, and with him there was an enrollment of a hundred and fifty males; [4] of the sons of Pa′hath-mo′ab, El′ie·ho-e′nai the son of Zer·a·hi′ah, and with him two hundred males; [5] of the sons of Zat′tu, Shec·a·ni′ah the son of Ja·ha·zi′el, and with him three hundred males; [6] and of the sons of A′din, E′bed the son of Jon′a·than, and with him fifty males; [7] and of the sons of E′lam, Je·sha′iah the son of Ath·a·li′ah, and with him seventy males; [8] and of the sons of Sheph·a·ti′ah, Zeb·a·di′ah the son of Mi′cha·el, and with him eighty males; [9] of the sons of Jo′ab, O·ba·di′ah the son of Je·hi′el, and with him two hundred and eighteen males; [10] and of the sons of Ba′ni,
She·lo′mith the son of Jo·si·phi′ah, and with him a hundred and sixty males; [11] and of the sons of Be′bai, Zech·a·ri′ah the son of Be′bai, and with him twenty-eight males; [12] and of the sons of Az′gad, Jo·ha′nan the son of Hak′ka·tan, and with him a hundred and ten males; [13] and of the sons of Ad·o·ni′kam, those who were the last, and these were their names:
E·liph′e·let, Je·i′el and She·mai′ah, and with them sixty males; [14] and of the sons of Big′vai, U′thai and Zab′bud, and with them seventy males.

[15] And I proceeded to collect them at the river that comes to A·ha′va; and we kept encamped there three days, that I might scrutinize the people and the priests, but none of the sons of Le′vi did I find there. [16] Accordingly I sent for E·li·e′zer, Ar′i·el, She·mai′ah and El·na′than and Ja′rib and El·naʹthan and Nathan and Zech·a·riʹah and Me·shulʹlam, head ones, and for Joiʹa·rib and El·naʹthan, instructors. [17] Then I gave them a command concerning Idʹdo the head one in the place Ca·si·phiʹa, and I put in their mouth words to speak to Idʹdo and his brothers the Nethʹi·nim in the place Ca·si·phiʹa, to bring to us ministers for the house of our God. [18] So they brought to us, according to the good hand of our God upon us, a man of discretion from the sons of Mahʹli the grandson of Leʹvi the son of Israel, namely, She·re·biʹah and his sons and his brothers, eighteen; [19] and Hash·a·biʹah and with him Je·shaʹiah from the sons of Me·rarʹi, his brothers, and their sons, twenty. [20] And from the Nethʹi·nim, whom David and the princes gave to the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethʹi·nim, all of whom had been designated by their names.

[21] Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river A·haʹva, to humble ourselves before our God, to seek from him the right way for us and for our little ones and for all our goods. [22] For I felt ashamed to ask a military force and horsemen from the king to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had said to the king: “The hand of our God is over all those seeking him for good, but his strength and his anger are against all those leaving him.” [23] Therefore we fasted and made request of our God concerning this, so that he let himself be entreated by us.

[24] I now separated from the chiefs of the priests twelve, namely, She·re·biʹah, Hash·a·biʹah, and with them ten of their brothers. [25] And I proceeded to weigh out to them the silver and the gold and the utensils, the contribution to the house of our God that the king and his counselors and his princes and all the Israelites who were to be found had contributed. [26] Thus I weighed out into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver and a hundred silver utensils worth two talents, and gold a hundred talents, [27] and twenty small gold bowls worth a thousand darics and two utensils of good copper, gleaming red, as desirable as gold.

[28] Then I said to them: “YOU are something holy to Jehovah, and the utensils are something holy, and the silver and the gold are a voluntary offering to Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers. [29] Keep awake and be on guard until YOU weigh them out before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites and the princes of the fathers of Israel in Jerusalem, in the dining halls of the house of Jehovah.” [30] And the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold and the utensils, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

[31] Finally we pulled away from the river A·ha′va on the twelfth day of the first month to go to Jerusalem, and the very hand of our God proved to be over us, so that he delivered us out of the palm of the enemy and the ambush by the way. [32] So we came to Jerusalem and dwelt there three days. [33] And on the fourth day we proceeded to weigh out the silver and the gold and the utensils in the house of our God into the hand of Mer′e·moth the son of U·ri′jah the priest and with him El·e·a′zar the son of Phin′e·has and with them Jo′za·bad the son of Jesh′u·a and No·a·di′ah the son of Bin′nu·i the Levites, [34] by number and by weight for everything, after which all the weight was written down at that time. [35] Those coming out of the captivity, the former exiles, themselves presented burnt sacrifices to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven male lambs, twelve he-goats as a sin offering, everything as a burnt offering to Jehovah.

[36] Then we gave the laws of the king to the satraps of the king and the governors beyond the River, and they assisted the people and the house of the true God.

9 And as soon as these things were finished, the princes approached me, saying: “The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands as regards their detestable things, namely, the Ca′naan·ites, the Hit′tites, the Per′iz·zites, the Jeb′u·sites, the Am′mon·ites, the Mo′ab·ites, the Egyptians and the Am′or·ites. [2] For they have accepted some of their daughters for themselves and for their sons; and they, the holy seed, have become mingled with the peoples of the lands, and the hand of the princes and the deputy rulers has proved to be foremost in this unfaithfulness.”

[3] Now as soon as I heard of this thing I ripped apart my garment and my sleeveless coat, and I began to pull out some of the hair of my head and of my beard, and I kept sitting stunned. [4] Also to me they came gathering themselves, everyone trembling because of the words of the God of Israel against the unfaithfulness of the exiled people, while I was sitting stunned until the grain offering of the evening.

[5] And at the grain offering of the evening I stood up from my humiliation, with my garment and my sleeveless coat torn apart, and I proceeded to kneel upon my knees and spread out my palms to Jehovah my God. [6] And I went on to say: “O my God, I do feel ashamed and embarrassed to raise my face to you, O my God, for our errors themselves have multiplied over our head and our guiltiness has grown great even to the heavens. [7] From the days of our forefathers we have been in great guiltiness until this day; and because of our errors we have been given, we ourselves, our kings, our priests, into the hand of the kings of the lands with the sword, with the captivity and with the plunder and with shame of face, just as this day. [8] And now for a little moment favor from Jehovah our God has come by leaving over for us those who escape and by giving us a peg in his holy place, to make our eyes shine, O our God, and to give us a little reviving in our servitude. [9] For we are servants; and in our servitude our God has not left us, but he extends toward us loving-kindness before the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving so as to raise up the house of our God and to restore its desolated places and to give us a stone wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

[10] “And now what shall we say, O our God, after this? For we have left your commandments, [11] which you commanded by means of your servants the prophets, saying, ‘The land that YOU people are going in to take possession of is an impure land because of the impurity of the peoples of the lands, because of their detestable things with which they have filled it from end to end by their uncleanness. [12] And now YOUR daughters do not YOU people give to their sons, neither their daughters do YOU accept for YOUR sons; and to time indefinite YOU must not work for their peace and their prosperity, in order that YOU may grow strong and certainly eat the good of the land and indeed take possession of it for YOUR sons to time indefinite.’ [13] And after all that has come upon us for our bad deeds and our great guiltiness—for you yourself, O our God, have underestimated our error, and you have given us those who have escaped such as these— [14] shall we go breaking your commandments again and forming marriage alliances with the peoples of these detestable things? Will you not get incensed at us to the limit so that there will be none remaining and none escaping? [15] O Jehovah the God of Israel, you are righteous, because we have been left over as an escaped people as at this day. Here we are before you in our guiltiness, for it is impossible to stand before you on account of this.”

10 Now as soon as Ez′ra had prayed and he had made confession while weeping and lying prostrate before the house of the true God, those of Israel collected themselves together to him, a very large congregation, men and women and children, for the people had wept profusely. [2] Then Shec·a·ni′ah the son of Je·hi′el of the sons of E′lam answered and said to Ez′ra: “We—we have acted unfaithfully against our God, so that we gave a dwelling to foreign wives from the peoples of the land. Yet now there exists a hope for Israel concerning this. [3] And now let us conclude a covenant with our God to put away all the wives and those born from them according to the counsel of Jehovah and of those trembling at the commandment of our God, that it may be done according to the law. [4] Get up, for the matter devolves upon you, and we are with you. Be strong and act.”

[5] At that Ez′ra rose and had the chiefs of the priests, the Levites and all Israel take an oath to do according to this word. Accordingly they took an oath. [6] Ez′ra now rose from before the house of the true God and went to the dining hall of Je·ho·ha′nan the son of E·li′a·shib. Although he went there, he ate no bread and drank no water, for he was mourning over the unfaithfulness of the exiled people.

[7] Then they caused a call to pass throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the former exiles to collect themselves together at Jerusalem; [8] and anyone that did not come in three days’ time according to the counsel of the princes and the older men—all his goods would be put under a ban and he himself be separated from the congregation of the exiled people. [9] So all the men of Judah and Benjamin collected themselves together at Jerusalem within three days, that is, in the ninth month on the twentieth day of the month, and all the people kept sitting in the open place of the house of the true God, shivering because of the matter and on account of the showers of rain.

10 At length Ez′ra the priest rose and said to them: “YOU yourselves have acted unfaithfully in that YOU gave a dwelling to foreign wives so as to add to the guiltiness of Israel. 11 And now make confession to Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers and do his pleasure and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives.” 12 To this all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice: “Exactly according to your word it devolves upon us to do. 13 However, the people are many, and it is the season of showers of rain, and it is not possible to stand outside; and the business will not take one day or two, for we have rebelled to a great extent in this matter. 14 So, please, let our princes act representatively for all the congregation; and, as for all in our cities who have given a dwelling to foreign wives, let them come at the times appointed and along with them the older men of each individual city and its judges, until we have turned back the burning anger of our God from us, on account of this matter.”

15 (However, Jon′a·than the son of As′a·hel and Jah·zei′ah the son of Tik′vah themselves stood up against this, and Me·shul′lam and Shab′be·thai the Levites were the ones that helped them.) 16 And the former exiles proceeded to do that way; and Ez′ra the priest and the men that were the heads of the fathers for their paternal house, even all of them by their names, now separated themselves and began sitting on the first day of the tenth month to inquire into the matter; 17 and gradually they finished with all the men that had given a dwelling to foreign wives by the first day of the first month. 18 And some of the sons of the priests came to be found that had given a dwelling to foreign wives; of the sons of Jesh′u·a the son of Je·hoz′a·dak and his brothers, Ma·a·sei′ah and E·li·e′zer and Ja′rib and Ged·a·li′ah. [19] But they promised by shaking hands to put their wives away, and that, they being guilty, there should be a ram of the flock for their guiltiness.

[20] And of the sons of Im′mer there were Ha·na′ni and Zeb·a·di′ah; [21] and of the sons of Ha′rim, Ma·a·sei′ah and E·li′jah and She·mai′ah and Je·hi′el and Uz·zi′ah; [22] and of the sons of Pash′hur, Eli·o·e′nai, Ma·a·sei′ah, Ish′ma·el, Ne·than′el, Jo′za·bad and El·e·a′sah. [23] And of the Levites, Jo′za·bad and Shim′e·i and Ke·lai′ah (that is, Ke·li′ta), Peth·a·hi′ah, Judah and E·li·e′zer; [24] and of the singers, E·li′a·shib; and of the gatekeepers, Shal′lum and Te′lem and U′ri.

[25] And of Israel, of the sons of Pa′rosh there were Ra·mi′ah and Iz·zi′ah and Mal·chi′jah and Mij′a·min and El·e·a′zar and Mal·chi′jah and Be·nai′ah; [26] and of the sons of E′lam, Mat·ta·ni′ah, Zech·a·ri′ah and Je·hi′el and Ab′di and Jer′e·moth and E·li′jah; [27] and of the sons of Zat′tu, Eli·o·e′nai, E·li′a·shib, Mat·ta·ni′ah and Jer′e·moth and Za′bad and A·zi′za; [28] and of the sons of Be′bai, Je·ho·ha′nan, Han·a·ni′ah, Zab′bai, Ath′lai; [29] and of the sons of Ba′ni, Me·shul′lam, Mal′luch and A·dai′ah, Ja′shub and She′al and Jer′e·moth; [30] and of the sons of Pa′hath-mo′ab, Ad′na and Che′lal, Be·nai′ah, Ma·a·sei′ah, Mat·ta·ni′ah, Bez′al·el and Bin′nu·i and Ma·nas′seh; [31] and of the sons of Ha′rim, E·li·e′zer, Is·shi′jah, Mal·chi′jah, She·mai′ah, Shim′e·on, [32] Benjamin, Mal′luch and Shem·a·ri′ah; [33] of the sons of Ha′shum, Mat·te′nai, Mat′tat·tah, Za′bad, E·liph′e·let, Jer′e·mai, Ma·nas′seh and Shim′e·i; [34] of the sons of Ba′ni, Ma·a·da′i, Am′ram and U′el, [35] Be·nai′ah, Be·dei′ah, Chel′u·hi, [36] Va·ni′ah, Mer′e·moth, E·li′a·shib, [37] Mat·ta·ni′ah, Mat·te′nai and Ja′a·su; [38] and of the sons of Bin′nu·i, Shim′e·i [39] and Shel·e·mi′ah and Nathan and A·dai′ah, [40] Mach·nad′e·bai, Sha′shai, Sha′rai, [41] Az′ar·el and Shel·e·mi′ah, Shem·a·ri′ah, [42] Shal′lum, Am·a·ri′ah, Joseph; [43] of the sons of Ne′bo, Je·i′el, Mat·ti·thi′ah, Za′bad, Ze·bi′na, Jad′dai and Joel and Be·nai′ah.

[44] These all had accepted foreign wives, and they proceeded to send away wives along with sons.

NEHEMIAH

1 The words of Ne·he·miʹah the son of Hac·a·liʹah: Now it came about in the month Chisʹlev, in the twentieth year, that I myself happened to be in Shuʹshan the castle. [2] Then Ha·naʹni, one of my brothers, came in, he and other men from Judah, and I proceeded to ask them about the Jews, those who had escaped, who had been left over of the captivity, and also about Jerusalem. [3] Accordingly they said to me: “Those left over, who have been left over from the captivity, there in the jurisdictional district, are in a very bad plight and in reproach; and the wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its very gates have been burned with fire.”

[4] And it came about that, as soon as I heard these words, I sat down and began to weep and mourn for days, and I was continually fasting and praying before the God of the heavens. [5] And I went on to say: “Ah, Jehovah the God of the heavens, the God great and fear-inspiring, keeping the covenant and loving-kindness toward those loving him and keeping his commandments, [6] please, let your ear become attentive and your eyes opened, to listen to the prayer of your servant, which I am praying before you today, day and night, concerning the sons of Israel your servants, all the while making confession concerning the sins of the sons of Israel with which we have sinned against you. We have sinned, both I and the house of my father. [7] We have unquestionably acted corruptly against you and have not kept the commandments and the regulations and the judicial decisions that you gave in command to Moses your servant.

[8] “Remember, please, the word that you commanded Moses your servant, saying, ‘Should YOU, for YOUR part, act unfaithfully, I, for my part, shall scatter YOU among the peoples. [9] When YOU will have returned to me and kept my commandments and done them, though YOUR dispersed people should happen to be at the end of the heavens, from there I shall collect them and certainly bring them to the place that I have chosen to have my name reside there.’ [10] And they are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great power and by your strong hand. [11] Ah, Jehovah, please, let your ear become attentive to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer of your servants who take delight in fearing your name; and, please, do grant success to your servant today and make him an object of pity before this man.”

Now I myself happened to be cupbearer to the king.

2 And it came about in the month Ni′san, in the twentieth year of Ar·ta·xerx′es the king, that wine was before him, and I as usual took up the wine and gave it to the king. But never had I happened to be gloomy before him. [2] So the king said to me: “Why is your face gloomy when you yourself are not sick? This is nothing but a gloominess of heart.” At this I became very much afraid.

[3] Then I said to the king: “Let the king himself live to time indefinite! Why should not my face become gloomy when the city, the house of the burial places of my forefathers, is devastated, and its very gates have been eaten up with fire?” [4] In turn the king said to me: “What is this that you are seeking to secure?” At once I prayed to the God of the heavens. [5] After that I said to the king: “If to the king it does seem good, and if your servant seems good before you, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of the burial places of my forefathers, that I may rebuild it.” [6] At this the king said to me, as his queenly consort was sitting beside him: “How long will your journey come to be and when will you return?” So it seemed good before the king that he should send me, when I gave him the appointed time.

[7] And I went on to say to the king: “If to the king it does seem good, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass until I come to Judah; [8] also a letter to A′saph the keeper of the park that belongs to the king, that he may give me trees to build with timber the gates of the Castle that belongs to the house, and for the wall of the city and for the house into which I am to enter.” So the king gave them to me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

[9] Eventually I came to the governors beyond the River and gave them the letters of the king. Moreover, the king sent with me chiefs of the military force and horsemen. [10] When San·balʹlat the Horʹo·nite and To·biʹah the servant, the Amʹmon·ite, got to hear of it, then it seemed to them something very bad that a man had come to seek something good for the sons of Israel.

[11] At length I came to Jerusalem, and I continued there for three days. [12] Then I rose up by night, I and a few men with me, and I did not tell a man what my God was putting into my heart to do for Jerusalem, and there was no domestic animal with me except the domestic animal on which I was riding. [13] And I proceeded to go out by the Valley Gate by night and in front of the Fountain of the Big Snake and to the Gate of the Ash-heaps, and I was constantly examining the walls of Jerusalem, how they were broken down and the gates of it had been eaten up by fire. [14] And I went passing along to the Fountain Gate and to the King’s Pool, and there was no place for the domestic animal under me to pass along. [15] But I kept on ascending in the torrent valley by night, and I kept on examining the wall; after which I came back and entered by the Valley Gate, and so got back.

[16] And the deputy rulers themselves did not know where I had gone and what I was doing; and to the Jews and the priests and the nobles and the deputy rulers and the rest of the doers of the work I had not yet told anything. [17] Finally I said to them: “YOU are seeing the bad plight in which we are, how Jerusalem is devastated and its gates have been burned with fire. Come and let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer continue to be a reproach.” [18] And I went on to tell them of the hand of my God, how it was good upon me, and also of the king’s words that he had said to me. At this they said: “Let us get up, and we must build.” So they strengthened their hands for the good work.

[19] Now when San·bal′lat the Hor′o·nite and To·bi′ah the servant, the Am′mon·ite, and Ge′shem the Arabian heard of it, they began to deride us and look on us despisingly and say: “What is this thing that YOU are doing? Is it against the king that YOU are rebelling?” [20] However, I replied to them and said to them: “The God of the heavens is the One that will grant us success, and we ourselves, his servants, shall get up, and we must build; but YOU yourselves have no share, nor just claim, nor memorial in Jerusalem.”

3 And E·li′a·shib the high priest and his brothers, the priests, proceeded to get up and build the Sheep Gate. They themselves sanctified it and went setting up its doors; and as far as the Tower of Me′ah they sanctified it, as far as the Tower of Ha·nan′el. [2] And at their side the men of Jer′i·cho did building. And at their side Zac′cur the son of Im′ri did building.

[3] And the Fish Gate was what the sons of Has·se·na′ah built; they themselves timbered it and then set up its doors, its bolts and its bars. [4] And at their side Mer′e·moth the son of U·ri′jah the son of Hak′koz did repair work, and at their side Me·shul′lam the son of Ber·e·chi′ah the son of Me·shez′a·bel did repair work; and at their side Za′dok the son of Ba′a·na did repair work. [5] And at their side the Te·ko′ites did repair work; but their majestic ones themselves did not bring the back of their neck into the service of their masters.

[6] And the Gate of the Old City was what Joi′a·da the son of Pa·se′ah and Me·shul′lam the son of Bes·o·dei′ah repaired; they themselves timbered it and then set up its doors and its bolts and its bars. [7] And at their side Mel·a·ti′ah the Gib′e·on·ite and Ja′don the Me·ron′o·thite, did repair work, men of Gib′e·on and Miz′pah, belonging to the throne of the governor beyond the River. [8] At his side Uz′zi·el the son of Har·hai′ah, goldsmiths, did repair work; and at his side Han·a·ni′ah a member of the ointment mixers did repair work; and they proceeded to flagstone Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall. [9] And at their side Re·pha′iah the son of Hur, a prince of half the district of Jerusalem, did repair work. [10] And at their side Je·da′iah the son of Ha·ru′maph did repair work in front of his own house; and at his side Hat′tush the son of Hash·ab·nei′ah did repair work.

[11] Another measured section was what Mal·chiʹjah the son of Haʹrim and Hasʹshub the son of Paʹhath-moʹab repaired, and also the Tower of the Bake Ovens. [12] And at his side Shalʹlum the son of Hal·loʹhesh, a prince of half the district of Jerusalem, did repair work, he and his daughters.

[13] The Valley Gate was what Haʹnun and the inhabitants of Za·noʹah repaired; they themselves built it and then set up its doors, its bolts and its bars, also a thousand cubits in the wall as far as the Gate of the Ash-heaps. [14] And the Gate of the Ash-heaps was what Mal·chiʹjah the son of Reʹchab, a prince of the district of Beth-hac·cheʹrem, repaired; he himself went building it and setting up its doors, its bolts and its bars.

[15] And the Fountain Gate was what Shalʹlun the son of Col·hoʹzeh, a prince of the district of Mizʹpah, repaired; he himself proceeded to build it and to roof it over and to set up its doors, its bolts and its bars, and also the wall of the Pool of the Canal to the King’s Garden and as far as the Stairway that goes down from the City of David.

[16] After him Ne·he·miʹah the son of Azʹbuk, a prince of half the district of Beth-zur, did repair work as far as in front of the Burial Places of David and as far as the pool that had been made and as far as the House of the Mighty Ones.

[17] After him the Levites did repair work, Reʹhum the son of Baʹni; at his side Hash·a·biʹah, a prince of half the district of Keiʹlah, did repair work for his district. [18] After him their brothers did repair work, Bavʹvai the son of Henʹa·dad, a prince of half the district of Keiʹlah.

[19] And Eʹzer the son of Jeshʹu·a, a prince of Mizʹpah, proceeded at his side to repair another measured section in front of the going up to the Armory at the Buttress.

[20] After him Bar′uch the son of Zab′bai worked with fervor and repaired another measured section, from the Buttress as far as the entrance of the house of E·li′a·shib the high priest.

[21] After him Mer′e·moth the son of U·ri′jah the son of Hak′koz repaired another measured section, from the entrance of the house of E·li′a·shib as far as the end of E·li′a·shib’s house.

[22] And after him the priests, men of the Jordan District, did repair work. [23] After them Benjamin and Has′shub did repair work in front of their own house. After them Az·a·ri′ah the son of Ma·a·sei′ah the son of A·na·ni′ah did repair work close by his own house. [24] After him Bin′nu·i the son of Hen′a·dad repaired another measured section, from the house of Az·a·ri′ah as far as the Buttress and as far as the corner.

[25] After him Pa′lal the son of U′zai did repair work in front of the Buttress and the tower that goes out from the King’s House, the upper one that belongs to the Courtyard of the Guard. After him there was Pe·dai′ah the son of Pa′rosh.

[26] And the Neth′i·nim themselves happened to be dwellers in O′phel; they did repair work as far as in front of the Water Gate on the east and the protruding tower.

[27] After them the Te·ko′ites repaired another measured section, from in front of the great protruding tower as far as the wall of O′phel.

[28] Above the Horse Gate the priests did repair work, each one in front of his own house.

[29] After them Za′dok the son of Im′mer did repair work in front of his own house.

And after him She·mai′ah the son of Shec·a·ni′ah, the keeper of the East Gate, did repair work.

30 After him Han·a·niʹah the son of Shel·e·miʹah and Haʹnun the sixth son of Zaʹlaph repaired another measured section.

After him Me·shulʹlam the son of Ber·e·chiʹah did repair work in front of his own hall.

31 After him Mal·chiʹjah, a member of the goldsmith guild, did repair work as far as the house of the Nethʹi·nim and the traders, in front of the Inspection Gate and as far as the roof chamber of the corner.

32 And between the roof chamber of the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and the traders did repair work.

4 Now it came about that, as soon as San·balʹlat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and highly offended, and he kept deriding the Jews. [2] And he began to say before his brothers and the military force of Sa·marʹi·a, yes, he began to say: "What are the feeble Jews doing? Will they depend upon themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish up in a day? Will they bring the stones to life out of the heaps of dusty rubbish when they are burned?"

[3] Now To·biʹah the Amʹmon·ite was alongside him, and he went on to say: "Even what they are building, if a fox went up against it, he would certainly break down their wall of stones."

[4] Hear, O our God, for we have become an object of contempt; and make their reproach return upon their own head, and give them to the plunder in the land of captivity. [5] And do not cover over their error and their sin from before you. Let it not be wiped out, for they have committed offense against the builders.

[6] So we kept building the wall, and the entire wall came to be joined together clear to half its height, and the people continued to have a heart for working.

[7] Now it came about that, as soon as San·balʹlat and To·biʹah and the Arabians and the Amʹmon·ites and the Ashʹdod·ites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem had gone forward, for the gaps had started to be stopped up, they became very angry. [8] And all of them began to conspire together to come and fight against Jerusalem and cause me disturbance. [9] But we prayed to our God and kept a guard posted against them day and night on account of them.

10 And Judah began to say: “The power of the burden bearer has stumbled, and there is a great deal of rubbish; and we ourselves are not able to build on the wall.”

11 Moreover, our adversaries kept saying: “They will not know and they will not see until we come right in among them, and we shall certainly kill them and put a stop to the work.”

12 And it came about that, whenever the Jews dwelling close by them came in, they proceeded to say to us ten times: “They will come up from all the places where YOU people will return to us.”

13 So I kept men posted at the lowest parts of the place behind the wall at the open places, and I kept the people posted by families with their swords, their lances and their bows. 14 When I saw their fear I immediately rose and said to the nobles and the deputy rulers and the rest of the people: “Do not be afraid on their account. Jehovah the great and the fear-inspiring One keep in YOUR mind; and fight for YOUR brothers, YOUR sons and YOUR daughters, YOUR wives and YOUR homes.”

15 Now it came about that as soon as our enemies heard that it had become known to us, so that the true God had frustrated their counsel and we had all of us gone back to the wall, each one to his work, 16 yes, it came about that from that day forward half of my young men were active in the work and half of them were holding the lances, the shields and the bows and the coats of mail; and the princes were behind the whole house of Judah. 17 As for the builders on the wall and those who were carrying the burden of load bearers, each one was active in the work with his one hand while the other hand was holding the missile. 18 And the builders were girded, each one with his sword upon his hip, while building; and the one to blow the horn was alongside me.

19 And I proceeded to say to the nobles and the deputy rulers and the rest of the people: “The work is large and extensive, and we are spread about upon the wall far apart from one another. 20 In the place where YOU hear the sound of the horn, there is where YOU will collect yourselves together to us. Our God himself will fight for us.”

21 While we were active in the work, the other half of them also were holding the lances, from the ascending of the dawn until the stars came out. 22 Besides, at that time I said to the people: “Let the men spend the night, each one with his attendant, in the midst of Jerusalem, and they must become for us a guard by night and workers by day.” 23 As for me and my brothers and my attendants and the men of the guard who were behind me, we were not taking off our garments, each one having his missile in his right hand.

5 However, there came to be a great outcry of the people and their wives against their Jewish brothers. [2] And there were those who were saying: “Our sons and our daughters we are giving as security that we may get grain and eat and keep alive.” [3] And there were those who were saying: “Our fields and our vineyards and our houses we are giving as security that we may get grain during the food shortage.” [4] And there were those who were saying: “We have borrowed money for the king’s tribute on our fields and our vineyards. [5] And now our flesh is the same as the flesh of our brothers; our sons are the same as their sons, but here we are reducing our sons and our daughters to slaves, and there are some of our daughters already reduced; and there is no power in our hands while our fields and our vineyards belong to others.”

[6] Now I became very angry as soon as I heard their outcry and these words. [7] So my heart took consideration within me, and I began finding fault with the nobles and the deputy rulers, and went on to say to them: “Usury is what YOU are exacting, each one from his own brother.”

Further, I arranged a great assembly on their account. [8] And I proceeded to say to them: “We ourselves have bought back our own Jewish brothers who were sold to the nations, as far as it was in our power; and at the same time will YOU yourselves sell YOUR own brothers, and must they be sold to us?” At this they became speechless, and they did not find a word. [9] And I went on to say: “The thing that YOU are doing is not good. Is it not in the fear of our God that YOU should walk because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies? [10] And also I, my brothers and my attendants are giving money and grain on loan among them. Let us, please, leave off this lending on interest. [11] Please, restore to them on this day their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves and their houses, and the hundredth of the money and the grain, the new wine and the oil that YOU are exacting as interest from them.”

[12] To this they said: “We shall make restoration, and from them we shall ask nothing back. We shall do precisely as you are saying.” So I called the priests and made them swear to do according to this word. [13] Also, my bosom I shook out and then said: “In this manner may the true God shake out from his house and from his acquired property every man that does not carry out this word; and in this manner may he become shaken out and empty.” To this all the congregation said: “Amen!” And they began to praise Jehovah. And the people proceeded to do according to this word.

[14] Another thing: From the day that he commissioned me to become their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of Ar·ta·xerx′es the king, twelve years, I myself and my brothers did not eat the bread due the governor. [15] As for the former governors that were prior to me, they had made it heavy upon the people, and they kept taking from them for bread and wine daily forty silver shekels. Also, their attendants themselves domineered over the people. As for me, I did not do that way on account of the fear of God.

[16] And, what is more, in the work of this wall I took a hand, and not a field did we acquire; and all my attendants were collected together there for the work. [17] And the Jews and the deputy rulers, a hundred and fifty men, and those coming in to us from the nations that were around us were at my table. [18] As for that which happened to be made ready daily, one bull, six select sheep and birds were made ready for me, and once every ten days every sort of wine in abundance. And along with this the bread due the governor I did not demand, because the service upon this people was heavy. [19] Do remember for me, O my God, for good, all that I have done in behalf of this people.

6 Now it came about that, as soon as it was told to San·balʹlat and To·biʹah and to Geʹshem the Arabian and to the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall and there had not been left in it a gap (although up to that time the doors themselves I had not set up in the gates), [2] San·balʹlat and Geʹshem immediately sent to me, saying: “Do come, and let us meet together by appointment in the villages of the valley plain of Oʹno.” But they were scheming to do me harm. [3] So I sent messengers to them, saying: “It is a great work that I am doing, and I am not able to go down. Why should the work cease while I take off from it and have to go down to YOU?” [4] However, they sent me the same word four times, and I kept replying to them with the same word.

[5] Finally San·balʹlat sent his attendant to me with the same word a fifth time, with an open letter in his hand. [6] There was written in it: “Among the nations it has been heard, and Geʹshem is saying it, that you and the Jews are scheming to rebel. That is why you are building the wall; and you are becoming a king to them, according to these words. [7] And there are even prophets that you have appointed to call out concerning you throughout Jerusalem, saying, ‘There is a king in Judah!’ And now things like these will be told to the king. So now do come, and let us consult together.”

[8] However, I sent to him, saying: “Things such as you are saying have not been brought about, but it is out of your own heart that you are inventing them.” [9] For all of them were trying to make us afraid, saying: “Their hands will drop down from the work so that it will not be done.” But now strengthen my hands.

[10] And I myself entered the house of She·mai′ah the son of De·la′iah the son of Me·het′a·bel while he was shut up. And he proceeded to say: “Let us meet by appointment at the house of the true God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple; for they are coming in to kill you, even by night they are coming in to kill you.” [11] But I said: “Should a man like me run away? And who is there like me that could enter into the temple and live? I shall not enter!” [12] So I investigated, and here it was not God that had sent him, but he had spoken this prophecy against me as To·bi′ah and San·bal′lat themselves had hired him. [13] For this reason he had been hired in order that I might be afraid and do that way, and I should certainly sin and it should certainly become in their possession a bad reputation, in order that they might reproach me.

[14] Do remember, O my God, To·bi′ah and San·bal′lat, according to these deeds of each one, and also No·a·di′ah the prophetess and the rest of the prophets that were continually trying to make me afraid.

[15] At length the wall came to completion on the twenty-fifth day of E′lul, in fifty-two days.

[16] And it came about that, as soon as all our enemies heard of it and all the nations that were around us got to see it, they at once fell very much in their own eyes, and they got to know that it was from our God that this work had been done. [17] In those days also the nobles of Judah were making numerous their letters that were going to To·bi′ah and those of To·bi′ah that were coming in to them. [18] For many in Judah were sworn to him, for a son-in-law he was to Shec·a·ni′ah the son of A′rah; and Je·ho·ha′nan his son had himself taken the daughter of Me·shul′lam the son of Ber·e·chi′ah. [19] Also, good things about him they were continually saying before me. And my own words they were continually taking out to him. There were letters that To·biʹah sent to make me afraid.

7 And it came about that, as soon as the wall had been rebuilt, I at once set up the doors. Then there were appointed the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites. [2] And I went on to put in command of Jerusalem Ha·na′ni my brother and Han·a·ni′ah the prince of the Castle, for he was such a trustworthy man and feared the true God more than many others. [3] So I said to them: “The gates of Jerusalem should not be opened until the sun gets hot; and while they are standing by they should shut the doors and bolt them. And station guards of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each one at his own guardpost and each one in front of his own house.” [4] Now the city was wide and great, and there were few people inside it, and there were no houses built.

[5] But my God put it into my heart that I should collect together the nobles and the deputy rulers and the people to get themselves enrolled genealogically. Then I found the book of genealogical enrollment of those who came up at the first, and found written in it:

[6] These are the sons of the jurisdictional district who came up out of the captivity of the exiled people whom Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon had taken into exile and who later returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each to his own city; [7] those who came in with Ze·rub′ba·bel, Jesh′u·a, Ne·he·mi′ah, Az·a·ri′ah, Ra·a·mi′ah, Na·ham′a·ni, Mor′de·cai, Bil′shan, Mis′pe·reth, Big′vai, Ne′hum, Ba′a·nah.

The number of the men of the people of Israel: [8] The sons of Pa′rosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two; [9] the sons of Sheph·a·ti′ah, three hundred and seventy-two; [10] the sons of A′rah, six hundred and fifty-two; [11] the sons of Pa′hath-mo′ab, of the sons of Jesh′u·a and Jo′ab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen; 12 the sons of E′lam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four; 13 the sons of Zat′tu, eight hundred and forty-five; 14 the sons of Zac′cai, seven hundred and sixty; 15 the sons of Bin′nu·i, six hundred and forty-eight; 16 the sons of Be′bai, six hundred and twenty-eight; 17 the sons of Az′gad, two thousand three hundred and twenty-two; 18 the sons of Ad·o·ni′kam, six hundred and sixty-seven; 19 the sons of Big′vai, two thousand and sixty-seven; 20 the sons of A′din, six hundred and fifty-five; 21 the sons of A′ter, of Hez·e·ki′ah, ninety-eight; 22 the sons of Ha′shum, three hundred and twenty-eight; 23 the sons of Be′zai, three hundred and twenty-four; 24 the sons of Ha′riph, a hundred and twelve; 25 the sons of Gib′e·on, ninety-five; 26 the men of Beth′le·hem and Ne·to′phah, a hundred and eighty-eight; 27 the men of An′a·thoth, a hundred and twenty-eight; 28 the men of Beth-az′ma·veth, forty-two; 29 the men of Kir′i·ath-je′a·rim, Che·phi′rah and Be·er′oth, seven hundred and forty-three; 30 the men of Ra′mah and Ge′ba, six hundred and twenty-one; 31 the men of Mich′mas, a hundred and twenty-two; 32 the men of Beth′el and A′i, a hundred and twenty-three; 33 the men of the other Ne′bo, fifty-two; 34 the sons of the other E′lam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four; 35 the sons of Ha′rim, three hundred and twenty; 36 the sons of Jer′i·cho, three hundred and forty-five; 37 the sons of Lod, Ha′did and O′no, seven hundred and twenty-one; 38 the sons of Se·na′ah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.

[43] The Levites: The sons of Jesh′u·a, of Kad′mi·el, of the sons of Ho′de·vah, seventy-four. [44] The singers, the sons of A′saph, a hundred and forty-eight. [45] The gatekeepers, the sons of Shal′lum, the sons of A′ter, the sons of Tal′mon, the sons of Ak′kub, the sons of Ha·ti′ta, the sons of Sho′bai, a hundred and thirty-eight.

[46] The Neth′i·nim: The sons of Zi′ha, the sons of Ha·su′pha, the sons of Tab·ba′oth, [47] the sons of Ke′ros, the sons of Si′a, the sons of Pa′don, [48] the sons of Le·ba′nah, the sons of Hag′a·bah, the sons of Sal′mai, [49] the sons of Ha′nan, the sons of Gid′del, the sons of Ga′har, [50] the sons of Re·a′iah, the sons of Re′zin, the sons of Ne·ko′da, [51] the sons of Gaz′zam, the sons of Uz′za, the sons of Pa·se′ah, [52] the sons of Be′sai, the sons of Me·u′nim, the sons of Ne·phush′e·sim, [53] the sons of Bak′buk, the sons of Ha·ku′pha, the sons of Har′hur, [54] the sons of Baz′lith, the sons of Me·hi′da, the sons of Har′sha, [55] the sons of Bar′kos, the sons of Sis′e·ra, the sons of Te′mah, [56] the sons of Ne·zi′ah, the sons of Ha·ti′pha.

[57] The sons of the servants of Sol′o·mon: The sons of So′tai, the sons of So·phe′reth, the sons of Pe·ri′da, [58] the sons of Ja′a·la, the sons of Dar′kon, the sons of Gid′del, [59] the sons of Sheph·a·ti′ah, the sons of Hat′til, the sons of Po′che·reth-haz·ze·ba′im, the sons of A′mon. [60] All the Neth′i·nim and the sons of the servants of Sol′o·mon were three hundred and ninety-two.

[61] And these were the ones going up from Tel-me′lah, Tel-har′sha, Che′rub, Ad′don and Im′mer, and they were not able to tell the house of their fathers and their origin, whether they were of Israel: [62] the sons of De·la′iah, the sons of To·bi′ah, the sons of Ne·ko′da, six hundred and forty-two. [63] And of the priests: the sons of Ha·bai′ah, the sons of Hak′koz, the sons of Bar·zilʹlai, who took a wife from the daughters of Bar·zilʹlai the Gilʹe·ad·ite and came to be called by their name. [64] These were the ones that looked for their register, to establish their genealogy publicly, and it was not found, so that they were barred as polluted from the priesthood. [65] Consequently the Tir·shaʹtha said to them that they should not eat from the most holy things until the priest with Uʹrim and Thumʹmim stood up.

[66] The entire congregation as one group was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty, [67] apart from their men slaves and their slave girls, these being seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred and forty-five male singers and female singers. [68] Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five. [69] The camels were four hundred and thirty-five. The asses were six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

[70] And there was a part of the heads of the paternal houses that gave to the work. The Tir·shaʹtha himself gave to the treasure a thousand gold drachmas, fifty bowls, five hundred and thirty priests’ robes. [71] And there were some of the heads of the paternal houses that gave to the treasure for the work twenty thousand gold drachmas and two thousand two hundred silver miʹnas. [72] And what the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand gold drachmas and two thousand silver miʹnas and sixty-seven priests’ robes.

[73] And the priests and the Levites and the gatekeepers and the singers and some of the people and the Nethʹi·nim and all Israel took up dwelling in their cities. When the seventh month arrived, the sons of Israel were then in their cities.

8 And all the people proceeded to gather themselves as one man at the public square that was before the Water Gate. Then they said to Ez′ra the copyist to bring the book of the law of Moses, which Jehovah had commanded Israel. [2] Accordingly Ez′ra the priest brought the law before the congregation of men as well as of women and of all intelligent enough to listen, on the first day of the seventh month. [3] And he continued to read aloud from it before the public square that is before the Water Gate, from daybreak till midday, in front of the men and the women and the other intelligent ones; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. [4] And Ez′ra the copyist kept standing upon a wooden podium, which they had made for the occasion; and there were standing alongside him Mat·ti·thi′ah and She′ma and A·nai′ah and U·ri′ah and Hil·ki′ah and Ma·a·sei′ah to his right hand, and at his left Pe·dai′ah and Mish′a·el and Mal·chi′jah and Ha′shum and Hash-bad′da·nah, Zech·a·ri′ah and Me·shul′lam.

[5] And Ez′ra proceeded to open the book before the eyes of all the people, for he happened to be above all the people; and as he opened it all the people stood up. [6] Then Ez′ra blessed Jehovah the true God, the great One, at which all the people answered, “Amen! Amen! ” with the lifting up of their hands. They then bowed low and prostrated themselves to Jehovah with their faces to the earth. [7] And Jesh′u·a and Ba′ni and She·re·bi′ah, Ja′min, Ak′kub, Shab′be·thai, Ho·di′ah, Ma·a·sei′ah, Ke·li′ta, Az·a·ri′ah, Jo′za·bad, Ha′nan, Pe·la′iah, even the Levites, were explaining the law to the people, while the people were in a standing position. [8] And they continued reading aloud from the book, from the law of the true God, it being expounded, and there being a putting of meaning into it; and they continued giving understanding in the reading.

9 And Ne·he·miʹah, that is, the Tir·shaʹtha, and Ezʹra the priest, the copyist, and the Levites who were instructing the people proceeded to say to all the people: “This very day is holy to Jehovah YOUR God. Do not mourn or weep.” For all the people were weeping as they were hearing the words of the law. 10 And he went on to say to them: “Go, eat the fatty things and drink the sweet things, and send portions to the one for whom nothing has been prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord, and do not feel hurt, for the joy of Jehovah is YOUR stronghold.” 11 And the Levites were ordering all the people to be silent, saying: “Keep quiet! for this day is holy; and do not feel hurt.” 12 So all the people went away to eat and drink and to send out portions and to carry on a great rejoicing, for they had understood the words that had been made known to them.

13 And on the second day the heads of the fathers of all the people, the priests and the Levites, gathered themselves together to Ezʹra the copyist, even to gain insight into the words of the law. 14 Then they found written in the law that Jehovah had commanded by means of Moses that the sons of Israel should dwell in booths during the festival in the seventh month, 15 and that they should make proclamation and cause a call to pass throughout all their cities and throughout Jerusalem, saying: “Go out to the mountainous region and bring in olive leaves and the leaves of oil trees and myrtle leaves and palm leaves and the leaves of branchy trees to make booths, according to what is written.”

16 And the people proceeded to go out and bring them in and make booths for themselves, each one upon his own roof and in their courtyards and in the courtyards of the house of the true God and in the public square of the Water

Gate and in the public square of the Gate of E′phra·im. [17] Thus all the congregation of those who had come back from the captivity made booths and took up dwelling in the booths; for the sons of Israel had not done that way from the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day, so that there came to be very great rejoicing. [18] And there was a reading aloud of the book of the law of the true God day by day, from the first day until the last day; and they went on holding the festival seven days, and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, according to the rule.

9 And on the twenty-fourth day of this month the sons of Israel gathered themselves together with fasting and with sackcloth and dirt upon themselves. [2] And the seed of Israel proceeded to separate themselves from all the foreigners, and to stand and make confession of their own sins and the errors of their fathers. [3] Then they rose up at their place and they read aloud from the book of the law of Jehovah their God a fourth part of the day; and a fourth part they were making confession and bowing down to Jehovah their God.

[6] “You are Jehovah alone; you yourself have made the heavens, even the heaven of the heavens, and all their army, the earth and all that is upon it, the seas and all that is in them; and you are preserving all of them alive; and the army of the heavens are bowing down to you. [7] You are Jehovah the true God, who chose A′bram and brought him out of Ur of the Chal·de′ans and constituted his name Abraham. [8] And you found his heart faithful before you; so there was a contracting of the covenant with him to give him the land of the Ca′naan·ites, the Hit′tites, the Am′or·ites and the Per′iz·zites and the Jeb′u·sites and the Gir′ga·shites, to give it to his seed; and you proceeded to carry out your words, because you are righteous.

9 “So you saw the affliction of our forefathers in Egypt, and their outcry at the Red Sea you heard. 10 Then you gave signs and miracles against Pharʹaoh and all his servants and all the people of his land, for you knew that they acted presumptuously against them; and you proceeded to make a name for yourself as at this day. 11 And the sea you split before them, so that they crossed over through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their pursuers you hurled into the depths like a stone in the strong waters. 12 And by a pillar of cloud you led them by day, and by a pillar of fire by night, to light up for them the way in which they should go. 13 And upon Mount Siʹnai you came down and spoke with them out of heaven and went on to give them upright judicial decisions and laws of truth, good regulations and commandments. 14 And your holy sabbath you made known to them, and commandments and regulations and a law you commanded them by means of Moses your servant. 15 And bread from heaven you gave them for their hunger, and waters out of the crag you brought forth to them for their thirst, and you went on to say to them to enter and possess the land that you had lifted your hand in an oath to give to them.

16 “And they themselves, even our forefathers, acted presumptuously and proceeded to harden their neck, and they did not listen to your commandments. 17 So they refused to listen, and they did not remember your wonderful acts that you performed with them, but they hardened their neck and appointed a head to return to their servitude in Egypt. But you are a God of acts of forgiveness, gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abundant in loving-kindness, and you did not leave them. 18 Yes, when they had made for themselves a molten statue of a calf and began to say, ‘This is your God who led you up out of Egypt,’ and they went on to commit great acts of disrespect, 19 you, even you, in your abundant mercy did not leave them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud itself did not depart from over them by day to lead them in the way, nor the pillar of fire by night to light up for them the way in which they should go. 20 And your good spirit you gave to make them prudent, and your manna you did not hold back from their mouth, and water you gave them for their thirst. 21 And for forty years you provided them with food in the wilderness. They lacked nothing. Their very garments did not wear out, and their feet themselves did not become swollen.

22 “And you proceeded to give them kingdoms and peoples, and to apportion them piece by piece; so that they took possession of the land of Si′hon, even the land of the king of Hesh′bon, and the land of Og the king of Ba′shan. 23 And their sons you made as many as the stars of the heavens. Then you brought them into the land that you had promised to their forefathers that they should enter to take possession. 24 So their sons came in and took the land in possession, and you proceeded to subdue before them the inhabitants of the land, the Ca′naan·ites, and to give them into their hand, even their kings and the peoples of the land, to do with them according to their liking. 25 And they went capturing fortified cities and a fat soil and taking in possession houses full of all good things, cisterns hewn out, vineyards and olive groves and trees for food in abundance, and they began to eat and to be satisfied and to grow fat and to luxuriate in your great goodness.

26 “However, they became disobedient and rebelled against you and kept casting your law behind their back, and your own prophets they killed, who bore witness against them to bring them back to you; and they went on committing acts of great disrespect. 27 For this you gave them into the hand of their adversaries, who kept causing them distress; but in the time of their distress they would cry out to you, and you yourself would hear from the very heavens; and in accord with your abundant mercy you would give them saviors who would save them out of the hand of their adversaries.

[28] “But as soon as they were at rest, they would again do what is bad before you, and you would leave them to the hand of their enemies, who would tread them down. Then they would return and call to you for aid, and you yourself would hear from the very heavens and deliver them in accord with your abundant mercy, time and again. [29] Although you would bear witness against them to bring them back to your law, they themselves even acted presumptuously and did not listen to your commandments; and against your own judicial decisions they sinned, which, if a man will do, he must also live by means of them. And they kept giving a stubborn shoulder, and their neck they hardened, and they did not listen. [30] But you were indulgent with them for many years and kept bearing witness against them by your spirit by means of your prophets, and they did not give ear. Finally you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. [31] And in your abundant mercy you did not make an extermination of them or leave them; for you are a God gracious and merciful.

[32] “And now, O our God, the God great, mighty and fear-inspiring, keeping the covenant and loving-kindness, do not let all the hardship that has found us, our kings, our princes and our priests and our prophets and our forefathers and all your people from the days of the kings of As·syrʹi·a down to this day, seem little before you. [33] And you are righteous as regards all that has come upon us, for faithfully is how you have acted, but we are the ones that have done wickedly. [34] As for our kings, our princes, our priests and our forefathers, they have not performed your law, nor paid attention to your commandments or to your testimonies with which you bore witness against them. [35] And they themselves—during their kingdom and amid your abundant good things that you gave to them and in the broad and fat land that you made available for them, they did not serve you and did not turn back from their bad practices. 36 Look! We are today slaves; and as for the land that you gave to our forefathers to eat its fruitage and its good things, look! we are slaves upon it, 37 and its produce is abounding for the kings that you have put over us because of our sins, and over our bodies they are ruling and over our domestic animals, according to their liking, and we are in great distress.

38 “So in view of all this we are contracting a trustworthy arrangement, both in writing and attested by the seal of our princes, our Levites and our priests.”

10 Now attesting it by seal there were:

Ne·he·miʹah the Tir·shaʹtha, the son of Hac·a·liʹah,

And Zed·e·kiʹah, [2] Se·raiʹah, Az·a·riʹah, Jeremiah, [3] Pashʹhur, Am·a·riʹah, Mal·chiʹjah, [4] Hatʹtush, Sheb·a·niʹah, Malʹluch, [5] Haʹrim, Merʹe·moth, O·ba·diʹah, [6] Daniel, Ginʹne·thon, Barʹuch, [7] Me·shulʹlam, A·biʹjah, Mijʹa·min, [8] Ma·a·ziʹah, Bilʹgai and She·maiʹah, these being the priests.

[9] Also the Levites: Jeshʹu·a the son of Az·a·niʹah, Binʹnu·i of the sons of Henʹa·dad, Kadʹmi·el [10] and their brothers Sheb·a·niʹah, Ho·diʹah, Ke·liʹta, Pe·laʹiah, Haʹnan, [11] Miʹca, Reʹhob, Hash·a·biʹah, [12] Zacʹcur, She·re·biʹah, Sheb·a·niʹah, [13] Ho·diʹah, Baʹni and Be·niʹnu.

[14] The heads of the people: Paʹrosh, Paʹhath-moʹab, Eʹlam, Zatʹtu, Baʹni, [15] Bunʹni, Azʹgad, Beʹbai, [16] Ad·o·niʹjah, Bigʹvai, Aʹdin, [17] Aʹter, Hez·e·kiʹah, Azʹzur, [18] Ho·diʹah, Haʹshum, Beʹzai, [19] Haʹriph, Anʹa·thoth, Neʹbai, [20] Magʹpi·ash, Me·shulʹlam, Heʹzir, [21] Me·shezʹa·bel, Zaʹdok, Jadʹdu·a, [22] Pel·a·tiʹah, Haʹnan, A·naiʹah, [23] Ho·sheʹa, Han·a·niʹah, Hasʹshub, [24] Hal·loʹhesh, Pilʹha, Shoʹbek, [25] Reʹhum, Ha·shabʹnah, Ma·a·seiʹah, [26] and A·hiʹjah, Haʹnan, Aʹnan, [27] Malʹluch, Haʹrim, Baʹa·nah.

[28] As for the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethʹi·nim and everyone separating himself from the peoples of the lands to the law of the true God, their wives, their sons and their daughters, everyone having knowledge and understanding, [29] they were adhering to their brothers, their majestic ones, and coming into liability to a curse and into an oath, to walk in the law of the true God, which had been given by the hand of Moses the servant of the true God, and to keep and to perform all the commandments of Jehovah our Lord and his judicial decisions and his regulations; [30] and that we should not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, and their daughters we should not take for our sons.

[31] As for the peoples of the land who were bringing in wares and every kind of cereal on the sabbath day to sell, we should take nothing from them on the sabbath or on a holy day, and we should forego the seventh year and the debt of every hand.

[32] Also, we imposed upon ourselves commandments to give, each of us, a third of a shekel yearly for the service of the house of our God, [33] for the layer bread and the constant grain offering and the constant burnt offering of the sabbaths, the new moons, for the appointed feasts and for the holy things and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel and all the work of the house of our God.

[34] Also, the lots we cast concerning the supply of the wood that the priests, the Levites and the people should bring to the house of our God, by the house of our forefathers, at the appointed times, year by year, to burn upon the altar of Jehovah our God, according to what is written in the law; [35] and to bring the first ripe fruits of our ground and the first ripe fruits of all the fruitage of every sort of tree, year by year, to the house of Jehovah; [36] and the firstborn of our sons and of our domestic animals, according to what is written in the law, and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks, to bring them to the house of our God, to the priests that were ministering in the house of our God. [37] Also, the firstfruits of our coarse meal and our contributions and the fruitage of every sort of tree, new wine and oil we should bring to the priests to the dining halls of the house of our God, also the tenth from our soil to the Levites, as they, the Levites, are the ones receiving a tenth in all our agricultural cities.

38 And the priest, the son of Aaron, must prove to be with the Levites when the Levites receive a tenth; and the Levites themselves should offer up a tenth of the tenth to the house of our God to the dining halls of the supply house. 39 For it is to the dining halls that the sons of Israel and the sons of the Levites should bring the contribution of the grain, the new wine and the oil, and there is where the utensils of the sanctuary and the priests that were ministering, and the gatekeepers and the singers are; and we should not neglect the house of our God.

11 Now the princes of the people had their dwelling in Jerusalem; but as for the rest of the people, they cast lots to bring in one out of every ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and the nine other parts in the other cities. [2] Moreover, the people blessed all the men who volunteered to dwell in Jerusalem.

[3] And these are the heads of the jurisdictional district who dwelt in Jerusalem; but in the cities of Judah there dwelt, each one in his own possession, in their cities, Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the Neth′i·nim and the sons of the servants of Sol′o·mon.

[4] Also, in Jerusalem there dwelt some of the sons of Judah and some of the sons of Benjamin. Of the sons of Judah there were A·thai′ah the son of Uz·zi′ah the son of Zech·a·ri′ah the son of Am·a·ri′ah the son of Sheph·a·ti′ah the son of Ma·hal′a·lel of the sons of Pe′rez; [5] and Ma·a·sei′ah the son of Bar′uch the son of Col·ho′zeh the son of Ha·zai′ah the son of A·dai′ah the son of Joi′a·rib the son of Zech·a·ri′ah the son of the She·la′nite. [6] All the sons of Pe′rez who were dwelling in Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight, capable men.

[7] And these were the sons of Benjamin: Sal′lu the son of Me·shul′lam the son of Jo′ed the son of Pe·dai′ah the son of Ko·lai′ah the son of Ma·a·sei′ah the son of Ith′i·el the son of Je·sha′iah; [8] and after him Gab·ba′i and Sal·la′i, nine hundred and twenty-eight; [9] and Joel the son of Zich′ri, an overseer over them, and Judah the son of Has·se·nu′ah over the city as second.

[10] Of the priests: Je·da′iah the son of Joi′a·rib, Ja′chin, [11] Se·rai′ah the son of Hil·ki′ah the son of Me·shul′lam the son of Za′dok the son of Me·ra′ioth the son of A·hi′tub, a leader of the house of the true God; [12] and their brothers the doers of the work of the house, eight hundred and twenty-two; and A·dai′ah the son of Je·ro′ham the son of Pel·a·li′ah the son of Am′zi the son of Zech·a·ri′ah the son of Pash′hur the son of Mal·chi′jah, [13] and his brothers, heads of paternal houses, two hundred and forty-two, and A·mash′sai the son of Az′ar·el the son of Ah′zai the son of Me·shil′le·moth the son of Im′mer, [14] and their brothers, mighty men of valor, a hundred and twenty-eight, and there was an overseer over them, Zab′di·el the son of the great ones.

[15] And of the Levites: She·mai′ah the son of Has′shub the son of Az·ri′kam the son of Hash·a·bi′ah the son of Bun′ni, [16] and Shab′be·thai and Jo′za·bad, of the heads of the Levites, over the outside business of the house of the true God; [17] and Mat·ta·ni′ah himself, the son of Mi′cah the son of Zab′di the son of A′saph, the conductor of the praise singing, did the lauding at prayer, and Bak·bu·ki′ah was second of his brothers, and Ab′da the son of Sham·mu′a the son of Ga′lal the son of Je·du′thun. [18] All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four.

[19] And the gatekeepers were Ak′kub, Tal′mon and their brothers who were keeping guard in the gates, a hundred and seventy-two.

[20] And the rest of Israel, of the priests and of the Levites, were in all the other cities of Judah, each one in his own hereditary possession. [21] And the Neth′i·nim were dwelling in O′phel; and Zi′ha and Gish′pa were over the Neth′i·nim.

[22] And the overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uz′zi the son of Ba′ni the son of Hash·a·bi′ah the son of Mat·ta·ni′ah the son of Mi′ca of the sons of A′saph, the singers, concerning the work of the house of the true God. [23] For there was a commandment of the king in behalf of them, and there was a fixed provision for the singers as each day required. [24] And Peth·a·hiʹah the son of Me·shezʹa·bel of the sons of Zeʹrah the son of Judah was at the side of the king for every matter of the people.

[25] And as regards the settlements in their fields, there were some of the sons of Judah that dwelt in Kirʹi·ath-arʹba and its dependent towns and in Diʹbon and its dependent towns and in Je·kabʹze·el and its settlements, [26] and in Jeshʹu·a and in Mo·laʹdah and in Beth-pelʹet [27] and in Haʹzar-shuʹal and in Beʹer-sheʹba and its dependent towns [28] and in Zikʹlag and in Me·coʹnah and its dependent towns [29] and in En-rimʹmon and in Zoʹrah and in Jarʹmuth, [30] Za·noʹah, A·dulʹlam and their settlements, Laʹchish and its fields, A·zeʹkah and its dependent towns. And they took up camping from Beʹer-sheʹba clear to the valley of Hinʹnom.

[31] And the sons of Benjamin were from Geʹba, Michʹmash and Aiʹja and Bethʹel and its dependent towns, [32] Anʹa·thoth, Nob, A·na·niʹah, [33] Haʹzor, Raʹmah, Gitʹta·im, [34] Haʹdid, Ze·boʹim, Ne·balʹlat, [35] Lod and Oʹno, the valley of the craftsmen. [36] And of the Levites there were divisions of Judah for Benjamin.

12 And these were the priests and the Levites that went up with Ze·rub′ba·bel the son of She·al′ti·el and Jesh′u·a:
Se·rai′ah, Jeremiah, Ez′ra, [2] Am·a·ri′ah, Mal′luch, Hat′tush, [3]
Shec·a·ni′ah, Re′hum, Mer′e·moth, [4] Id′do, Gin′ne·thoi,
A·bi′jah, [5] Mij′a·min, Ma·a·di′ah, Bil′gah, [6] She·mai′ah, and Joi′a·rib, Je·da′iah, [7] Sal′lu, A′mok, Hil·ki′ah, Je·da′iah. These were the heads of the priests and their brothers in the days of Jesh′u·a.

[8] And the Levites were Jesh′u·a, Bin′nu·i, Kad′mi·el,
She·re·bi′ah, Judah, Mat·ta·ni′ah, over the giving of thanks, he and his brothers. [9] And Bak·bu·ki′ah and Un′ni their brothers were opposite them for guard duties. [10] Jesh′u·a himself became father to Joi′a·kim, and Joi′a·kim himself became father to E·li′a·shib, and E·li′a·shib to Joi′a·da. [11] And Joi′a·da himself became father to Jon′a·than, and Jon′a·than himself became father to Jad′du·a.

[12] And in the days of Joi′a·kim there happened to be priests, the heads of the paternal houses: for Se·rai′ah, Me·rai′ah; for Jeremiah, Han·a·ni′ah; [13] for Ez′ra, Me·shul′lam; for Am·a·ri′ah, Je·ho·ha′nan; [14] for Mal′lu·chi, Jon′a·than; for Sheb·a·ni′ah, Joseph; [15] for Ha′rim, Ad′na; for Me·ra′ioth, Hel′kai; [16] for Id′do, Zech·a·ri′ah; for Gin′ne·thon, Me·shul′lam; [17] for A·bi′jah, Zich′ri; for Mi·ni′a·min, ——; for Mo·a·di′ah, Pil′tai; [18] for Bil′gah, Sham·mu′a; for She·mai′ah, Je·hon′a·than; [19] and for Joi′a·rib, Mat·te′nai; for Je·da′iah, Uz′zi; [20] for Sal·la′i, Kal′lai; for A′mok, E′ber; [21] for Hil·ki′ah, Hash·a·bi′ah; for Je·da′iah, Ne·than′el.

[22] The Levites in the days of E·li′a·shib, Joi′a·da and Jo·ha′nan and Jad′du·a were recorded as heads of paternal houses, also the priests, down till the kingship of Da·ri′us the Persian.

[23] The sons of Le′vi as heads of the paternal houses were recorded in the book of the affairs of the times, even down till the days of Jo·ha′nan the son of E·li′a·shib. [24] And the heads of the Levites were Hash·a·bi′ah, She·re·bi′ah and Jesh′u·a the son of Kad′mi·el and their brothers opposite them to offer praise and give thanks according to the commandment of David the man of the true God, guard group corresponding with guard group. [25] Mat·ta·ni′ah and Bak·bu·ki′ah, O·ba·di′ah, Me·shul′lam, Tal′mon, Ak′kub were keeping guard as gatekeepers, a guard group by the stores of the gates. [26] These were in the days of Joi′a·kim the son of Jesh′u·a the son of Jo′za·dak and in the days of Ne·he·mi′ah the governor and Ez′ra the priest, the copyist.

[27] And at the inauguration of the wall of Jerusalem they looked for the Levites, to bring them out of all their places to Jerusalem to carry on an inauguration and a rejoicing even with thanksgivings and with song, cymbals and stringed instruments and with harps. [28] And the sons of the singers proceeded to gather themselves even from the District, from all around Jerusalem and from the settlements of the Ne·toph′a·thites, [29] and from Beth-gil′gal and from the fields of Ge′ba and Az′ma·veth, for there were settlements that the singers had built for themselves all around Jerusalem. [30] And the priests and the Levites proceeded to cleanse themselves and cleanse the people and the gates and the wall.

[31] Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall. Further, I appointed two large thanksgiving choirs and processions, and the one was walking to the right upon the wall to the Gate of the Ash-heaps. [32] And Ho·shai′ah and half of the princes of Judah began to walk behind them, [33] also Az·a·ri′ah, Ez′ra and Me·shul′lam, [34] Judah and Benjamin and She·mai′ah and Jeremiah; [35] also of the sons of the priests with the trumpets Zech·a·ri′ah the son of Jon′a·than the son of She·maiʹah the son of Mat·ta·niʹah the son of Mi·caiʹah the son of Zacʹcur the son of Aʹsaph, [36] and his brothers She·maiʹah and Azʹar·el, Milʹa·lai, Gilʹa·lai, Maʹai, Ne·thanʹel and Judah, Ha·naʹni, with the instruments of song of David the man of the true God; and Ezʹra the copyist before them. [37] And at the Fountain Gate and straight ahead of them they went up on the Stairway of the City of David by the ascent of the wall above the House of David and clear to the Water Gate to the east.

[38] And the other thanksgiving choir was walking in front, and I after it, also half of the people, upon the wall up over the Tower of the Bake Ovens and on to the Broad Wall, [39] and up over the Gate of Eʹphra·im and on to the Gate of the Old City and clear to the Fish Gate and the Tower of Ha·nanʹel and the Tower of Meʹah and on to the Sheep Gate; and they came to a stand at the Gate of the Guard.

[40] At length the two thanksgiving choirs came to a stand at the house of the true God, also I and half of the deputy rulers with me, [41] and the priests E·liʹa·kim, Ma·a·seiʹah, Mi·niʹa·min, Mi·caiʹah, Eli·o·eʹnai, Zech·a·riʹah, Han·a·niʹah with the trumpets, [42] and Ma·a·seiʹah and She·maiʹah, and El·e·aʹzar and Uzʹzi and Je·ho·haʹnan and Mal·chiʹjah and Eʹlam and Eʹzer. And the singers with Iz·ra·hiʹah the overseer kept making themselves heard.

[43] And they proceeded to sacrifice on that day great sacrifices and to rejoice, for the true God himself caused them to rejoice with great joy. And also the women and the children themselves rejoiced, so that the rejoicing of Jerusalem could be heard far away.

[44] Further, there were appointed on that day men over the halls for the stores, for the contributions, for the firstfruits and for the tenths, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions called for by the law for the priests and the Levites; for the rejoicing of Judah was because of the priests and of the Levites who were in attendance. 45 And they began taking care of the obligation of their God and the obligation of the purification, also the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the commandment of David and Sol′o·mon his son. 46 For in the days of David and A′saph in bygone time there were heads of the singers and the song of praise and thanksgivings to God. 47 And all Israel during the days of Ze·rub′ba·bel and during the days of Ne·he·mi′ah were giving the portions of the singers and of the gatekeepers according to the daily need and were sanctifying them to the Levites; and the Levites were sanctifying them to the sons of Aaron.

13 On that day there was a reading from the book of Moses in the ears of the people; and there was found written in it that the Am′mon·ite and the Mo′ab·ite should not come into the congregation of the true God to time indefinite, [2] for they had not met the sons of Israel with bread and with water, but went hiring against them Ba′laam to call down evil upon them. However, our God changed the malediction into a benediction. [3] So it came about that, as soon as they heard the law, they began to separate all the mixed company from Israel.

[4] Now before this, E·li′a·shib the priest in charge of a dining hall of the house of our God was a relative of To·bi′ah; [5] and he proceeded to make for him a large dining hall, where previously they were regularly putting the grain offering, the frankincense and the utensils and the tenth of the grain, the new wine and the oil, to which the Levites and the singers and the gatekeepers are entitled, and the contribution for the priests.

[6] And during all this time I did not happen to be in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Ar·ta·xerx′es the king of Babylon I came to the king, and sometime later I asked leave of absence from the king. [7] Then I came to Jerusalem and got to notice the badness that E·li′a·shib had committed for To·bi′ah by making for him a hall in the courtyard of the house of the true God. [8] And it seemed very bad to me. So I threw all the furniture of To·bi′ah’s house outside the dining hall. [9] After that I said the word and they cleansed the dining halls; and I proceeded to put back there the utensils of the house of the true God, with the grain offering and the frankincense.

10 And I got to find out that the very portions of the Levites had not been given them, so that the Levites and the singers doing the work went running off, each one to his own field. 11 And I began to find fault with the deputy rulers and say: “Why has the house of the true God been neglected?” Consequently I collected them together and stationed them at their standing place. 12 And all Judah, for their part, brought in the tenth of the grain and of the new wine and of the oil to the stores. 13 Then I put Shel·e·miʹah the priest and Zaʹdok the copyist and Pe·daiʹah of the Levites in charge of the stores; and under their control there was Haʹnan the son of Zacʹcur the son of Mat·ta·niʹah, for they were considered faithful; and upon them it devolved to do the distributing to their brothers.

14 Do remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my acts of loving-kindness that I have performed in connection with the house of my God and the guardianship of it.

15 In those days I saw in Judah people treading winepresses on the sabbath and bringing in grain heaps and loading them upon asses, and also wine, grapes and figs and every sort of burden, and bringing them into Jerusalem on the sabbath day; and I proceeded to bear witness against them on the day of their selling provisions. 16 And the Tyrʹi·ans themselves dwelt in the city, bringing in fish and every sort of merchandise and making sales on the sabbath to the sons of Judah and in Jerusalem. 17 So I began to find fault with the nobles of Judah and say to them: “What is this bad thing that YOU are doing, even profaning the sabbath day? 18 Was it not this way that YOUR forefathers did, so that our God brought upon us all this calamity, and also upon this city? Yet YOU are adding to the burning anger against Israel by profaning the sabbath.”

[19] And it came about that, as soon as the gates of Jerusalem had grown shadowy before the sabbath, I immediately said the word and the doors began to be closed. I said further that they should not open them until after the sabbath; and some of my own attendants I stationed at the gates that no burden might come in on the sabbath day. [20] Consequently the traders and the sellers of every sort of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem once and a second time. [21] Then I proceeded to bear witness against them and say to them: “Why are YOU spending the night in front of the wall? If YOU do it again, a hand I shall lay on YOU.” From that time on they did not come on the sabbath.

[22] And I went on to say to the Levites that they should be regularly purifying themselves and coming in, keeping guard of the gates to sanctify the sabbath day. This, also, do remember to my account, O my God, and do feel sorry for me according to the abundance of your loving-kindness.

[23] Also, in those days I saw the Jews that had given a dwelling to Ash′dod·ite, Am′mon·ite and Mo′ab·ite wives. [24] And as for their sons, half were speaking Ash′dod·ite, and there were none of them knowing how to speak Jewish, but in the tongue of the different peoples. [25] And I began to find fault with them and call down evil upon them and strike some men of them and pull out their hair and make them swear by God: “YOU should not give YOUR daughters to their sons, and YOU should not accept any of their daughters for YOUR sons or yourselves. [26] Was it not because of these that Sol′o·mon the king of Israel sinned? And among the many nations there proved to be no king like him; and loved of his God he happened to be, so that God constituted him king over all Israel. Even him the foreign wives caused to sin. [27] And is it not something unheard of for YOU to commit all this great badness in acting unfaithfully against our God by giving a dwelling to foreign wives?”

28 And one of the sons of Joiʹa·da the son of E·liʹa·shib the high priest was a son-in-law of San·balʹlat the Horʹo·nite. So I chased him away from me.

29 Do remember them, O my God, on account of the defilement of the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites.

30 And I purified them from everything foreign and proceeded to assign duties to the priests and to the Levites, each one in his own work, 31 even for the supply of the wood at appointed times and for the first ripe fruits.

Do remember me, O my God, for good.

ESTHER

1 Now it came about in the days of A·has·u·e′rus, that is, the A·has·u·e′rus who was ruling as king from In′di·a to E·thi·o′pi·a, over a hundred and twenty-seven jurisdictional districts, 2 that in those days as King A·has·u·e′rus was sitting upon his royal throne, which was in Shu′shan the castle, 3 in the third year of his reigning he held a banquet for all his princes and his servants, the military force of Persia and Me′di·a, the nobles and the princes of the jurisdictional districts before himself, 4 when he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor and the beauty of his greatness for many days, a hundred and eighty days. 5 And when these days had come to the full, the king held a banquet for seven days for all the people that were found in Shu′shan the castle, for the great as well as the small, in the courtyard of the garden of the king’s palace. 6 There were linen, fine cotton and blue held fast in ropes of fine fabric, and wool dyed reddish purple in silver rings and pillars of marble, couches of gold and silver upon a pavement of porphyry and marble and pearl and black marble.

7 And there was a passing of wine to drink in gold vessels; and the vessels were different from one another, and the royal wine was in great quantity, according to the means of the king. 8 As regards the time of drinking according to the law, there was no one compelling, for that was the way the king had arranged for every great man of his household, to do according to the liking of each and every one.

9 Also, Vash′ti the queen herself held a banquet for the women at the royal house that belonged to King A·has·u·e′rus.

[10] On the seventh day, when the king’s heart was in a merry mood with wine, he said to Me·hu′man, Biz′tha, Har·bo′na, Big′tha and A·bag′tha, Ze′thar and Car′kas, the seven court officials that were ministering to the person of King A·has·u·e′rus, [11] to bring Vash′ti the queen in the royal headdress before the king, to show the peoples and the princes her loveliness; for she was beautiful in appearance. [12] But Queen Vash′ti kept refusing to come at the king’s word that was conveyed by means of the court officials. At this the king grew highly indignant and his very rage flared up within him.

[13] And the king proceeded to say to the wise men having knowledge of the times (for in this way the king’s matter came before all those versed in law and legal cases, [14] and those closest to him were Car·she′na, She′thar, Ad·ma′tha, Tar′shish, Me′res, Mar·se′na, and Me·mu′can, seven princes of Persia and Me′di·a, having access to the king, and who were sitting first in the kingdom): [15] “According to law what is to be done with Queen Vash′ti because she has not performed the saying of King A·has·u·e′rus by means of the court officials?”

[16] To this Me·mu′can said before the king and the princes: “It is not against the king alone that Vash′ti the queen has done wrong, but against all the princes and against all the peoples that are in all the jurisdictional districts of King A·has·u·e′rus. [17] For the affair of the queen will go out to all the wives so that they will despise their owners in their own eyes, when they say, ‘King A·has·u·e′rus himself said to bring in Vash′ti the queen before him, and she did not come in.’ [18] And this day the princesses of Persia and Me′di·a, who have heard the affair of the queen, will talk to all the princes of the king, and there will be plenty of contempt and indignation. [19] If to the king it does seem good, let a royal word go out from his person, and let it be written among the laws of Persia and Me′di·a, that it may not pass away, that Vash′ti may not come in before King A·has·u·e′rus; and her royal dignity let the king give to a companion of hers, a woman better than she is. [20] And the decree of the king that he will make must be heard in all his realm (for it is vast), and all the wives themselves will give honor to their owners, the great as well as the small.”

[21] And the thing was pleasing in the eyes of the king and the princes, and the king proceeded to do according to the word of Me·mu′can. [22] So he sent written documents to all the king’s jurisdictional districts, to each jurisdictional district in its own style of writing and to each people in its own tongue, for every husband to be continually acting as prince in his own house and speaking in the tongue of his own people.

2 After these things, when the rage of King A·has·u·e′rus had subsided, he remembered Vash′ti and what she had done and what had been decided against her. [2] Then the king’s attendants, his ministers, said: “Let them seek young women, virgins, beautiful in appearance, for the king, [3] and let the king appoint commissioners in all the jurisdictional districts of his realm, and let them collect together all the young women, virgins, beautiful in appearance, at Shu′shan the castle, at the house of the women in charge of Heg′a·i the king’s eunuch, the guardian of the women; and let there be a giving of their massages. [4] And that young woman who seems pleasing in the king’s eyes will be queen instead of Vash′ti.” And the thing was pleasing in the king’s eyes, and he proceeded to do that way.

[5] A certain man, a Jew, happened to be in Shu′shan the castle, and his name was Mor′de·cai the son of Ja′ir the son of Shim′e·i the son of Kish a Ben′ja·min·ite, [6] who had been taken into exile from Jerusalem with the deported people who were taken into exile with Jec·o·ni′ah the king of Judah whom Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon took into exile. [7] And he came to be the caretaker of Ha·das′sah, that is, Esther, the daughter of his father’s brother, for she had neither father nor mother; and the young woman was pretty in form and beautiful in appearance, and at the death of her father and her mother Mor′de·cai took her as his daughter. [8] And it came about that, when the king’s word and his law were heard, and when many young women were collected together at Shu′shan the castle in charge of Heg′a·i, then Esther was taken to the king’s house in charge of Heg′a·i the guardian of the women.

[9] Now the young woman was pleasing in his eyes, so that she gained loving-kindness before him and he made haste to give her her massages and her appropriate food, and to give her seven selected young women from the king’s house, and he proceeded to transfer her and her young women to the best place of the house of the women. [10] Esther had not told about her people or about her relatives, for Mor′de·cai himself had laid the command upon her that she should not tell. [11] And day after day Mor′de·cai was walking before the courtyard of the house of the women to know of Esther’s welfare and what was being done with her.

[12] And when the turn of each young woman arrived to go in to King A·has·u·e′rus after it had happened to her according to the women’s regulation for twelve months, for that was the way the days of their massage procedure were gradually fulfilled, six months with oil of myrrh and six months with balsam oil and with the massages of the women; [13] then on these conditions the young woman herself came in to the king. Everything that she would mention would be given her, to come with her from the house of the women to the king’s house. [14] In the evening she herself came in, and in the morning she herself returned to the second house of the women in charge of Sha·ash′gaz the king’s eunuch, the guardian of the concubines. She would not come in anymore to the king unless the king had taken delight in her and she had been called by name.

[15] And when the turn of Esther the daughter of Ab′i·ha·il the uncle of Mor′de·cai, whom he had taken as his daughter, arrived to come in to the king, she did not request anything except what Heg′a·i the king’s eunuch, the guardian of the women, proceeded to mention (all the while Esther was continually gaining favor in the eyes of everyone seeing her). [16] Then Esther was taken to King A·has·u·e′rus at his royal house in the tenth month, that is, the month Te′beth, in the seventh year of his reign. [17] And the king came to love Esther more than all the other women, so that she gained more favor and loving-kindness before him than all the other virgins. And he proceeded to put the royal headdress upon her head and make her queen instead of Vash′ti. [18] And the king went on to hold a great banquet for all his princes and his servants, the banquet of Esther; and an amnesty for the jurisdictional districts he granted, and he kept giving presents according to the means of the king.

[19] Now when virgins were collected together a second time, Mor′de·cai was sitting in the king’s gate. [20] Esther was not telling about her relatives and her people, just as Mor′de·cai had laid the command upon her; and the saying of Mor′de·cai Esther was performing, just as when she happened to be under care by him.

[21] In those days while Mor′de·cai was sitting in the king’s gate, Big′than and Te′resh, two court officials of the king, doorkeepers, became indignant and kept seeking to lay hand on King A·has·u·e′rus. [22] And the thing came to be known to Mor′de·cai, and he immediately told Esther the queen. In turn Esther talked to the king in Mor′de·cai’s name. [23] So the matter was sought out and eventually found out, and both of them got to be hanged on a stake; after which it was written in the book of the affairs of the days before the king.

3 After these things King A·has·u·e′rus magnified Ha′man the son of Ham·me·da′tha the Ag′ag·ite and proceeded to exalt him and to put his throne above all the other princes that were with him. [2] And all the king’s servants that were in the king’s gate were bowing low and prostrating themselves to Ha′man, for so the king had commanded respecting him. But as for Mor′de·cai, he would neither bow low nor prostrate himself. [3] And the king’s servants who were in the king’s gate began to say to Mor′de·cai: “Why are you sidestepping the king’s commandment?” [4] And it came about that, as they talked to him day by day, and he did not listen to them, then they told Ha′man to see whether Mor′de·cai’s affairs would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

[5] Now Ha′man kept seeing that Mor′de·cai was not bowing low and prostrating himself to him, and Ha′man became filled with rage. [6] But it was despicable in his eyes to lay hand upon Mor′de·cai alone, for they had told him about Mor′de·cai’s people; and Ha′man began seeking to annihilate all the Jews who were in all the realm of A·has·u·e′rus, Mor′de·cai’s people.

[7] In the first month, that is, the month Ni′san, in the twelfth year of King A·has·u·e′rus, someone cast Pur, that is, the Lot, before Ha′man from day to day and from month to month, to the twelfth, that is, the month A′dar. [8] And Ha′man proceeded to say to King A·has·u·e′rus: “There is one certain people scattered and separated among the peoples in all the jurisdictional districts of your realm; and their laws are different from all other people’s, and the king’s own laws they are not performing, and for the king it is not appropriate to let them alone. [9] If to the king it does seem good, let there be a writing that they be destroyed; and ten thousand silver talents I shall pay into the hands of those doing the work by bringing it into the king’s treasury.”

10 At that the king removed his signet ring from his own hand and gave it to Ha′man the son of Ham·me·da′tha the Ag′ag·ite, the one showing hostility to the Jews. 11 And the king went on to say to Ha′man: “The silver is given to you, also the people, to do with them according to what is good in your own eyes.” 12 The king’s secretaries were then called in the first month on the thirteenth day of it, and writing went on according to all that Ha′man commanded the king’s satraps and the governors who were over the different jurisdictional districts, and the princes of the different peoples, of each jurisdictional district, in its own style of writing, and each people in its own tongue; in the name of King A·has·u·e′rus it was written and it was sealed with the king’s signet ring.

13 And there was a sending of the letters by means of couriers to all the king’s jurisdictional districts, to annihilate, to kill and to destroy all the Jews, young man as well as old man, little ones and women, on one day, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, that is, the month A′dar, and to plunder the spoil of them. 14 A copy of the writing to be given as law in all the different jurisdictional districts was being published to all the peoples, for them to become ready for this day. 15 The couriers themselves went out, being moved to speed because of the king’s word, and the law itself was given in Shu′shan the castle. As for the king and Ha′man, they sat down to drink; but as for the city of Shu′shan, it was in confusion.

4 And Mor′de·cai himself got knowledge of everything that had been done; and Mor′de·cai proceeded to rip his garments apart and put on sackcloth and ashes and go out into the middle of the city and cry out with a loud and bitter outcry. [2] Finally he came as far as in front of the king’s gate, for no one was to come into the king’s gate in clothing of sackcloth. [3] And in all the different jurisdictional districts, wherever the king’s word and his law were reaching, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting and weeping and wailing. Sackcloth and ashes themselves came to be spread out as a couch for many. [4] And Esther’s young women and her eunuchs began to come in and tell her. And the queen was very much pained. Then she sent garments to clothe Mor′de·cai and to remove his sackcloth off him. And he did not accept them. [5] At this Esther called Ha′thach, one of the king’s eunuchs, whom he had made to attend upon her, and she proceeded to give him a command concerning Mor′de·cai, to know what this meant and what this was all about.

[6] So Ha′thach went out to Mor′de·cai into the public square of the city that was before the king’s gate. [7] Then Mor′de·cai told him about all the things that had befallen him and the exact statement of the money that Ha′man had said to pay to the king’s treasury against the Jews, to destroy them. [8] And a copy of the writing of the law that had been given in Shu′shan to have them annihilated he gave him to show Esther and to tell her and to lay the command upon her to come in to the king and implore favor of him and make request directly before him for her own people.

[9] Ha′thach now came in and told Esther Mor′de·cai’s words. [10] Then Esther said to Ha′thach and commanded him concerning Mor′de·cai: [11] “All the king’s servants and the people of the king’s jurisdictional districts are aware that, as regards any man or woman that comes in to the king at the inner courtyard who is not called, his one law is to have him put to death; only in case the king holds out to him the golden scepter, he will also certainly stay alive. As for me, I have not been called to come in to the king now for thirty days.”

[12] And they proceeded to tell Mor′de·cai the words of Esther. [13] Then Mor′de·cai said to reply to Esther: “Do not imagine within your own soul that the king’s household will escape any more than all the other Jews. [14] For if you are altogether silent at this time, relief and deliverance themselves will stand up for the Jews from another place; but as for you and your father’s house, YOU people will perish. And who is there knowing whether it is for a time like this that you have attained to royal dignity?”

[15] Accordingly Esther said to reply to Mor′de·cai: [16] “Go, gather all the Jews that are to be found in Shu′shan and fast in my behalf and neither eat nor drink for three days, night and day. I too with my young women, I shall fast likewise, and upon that I shall come in to the king, which is not according to the law; and in case I must perish, I must perish.” [17] At this Mor′de·cai passed along and proceeded to do according to all that Esther had laid in command upon him.

5 And it came about on the third day that Esther went dressing up royally, after which she took her stand in the inner courtyard of the king’s house opposite the king’s house, while the king was sitting on his royal throne in the royal house opposite the entrance of the house. [2] And it came about that, as soon as the king saw Esther the queen standing in the courtyard, she gained favor in his eyes, so that the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. Esther now came near and touched the top of the scepter.

[3] Then the king said to her: “What do you have, O Esther the queen, and what is your request? To the half of the kingship—let it even be given to you! ” [4] In turn Esther said: “If to the king it does seem good, let the king with Ha′man come today to the banquet that I have made for him.” [5] Accordingly the king said: “YOU men, have Ha′man act quickly on the word of Esther.” Later the king and Ha′man came to the banquet that Esther had made.

[6] In time the king said to Esther during the banquet of wine: “What is your petition? Let it even be granted you! And what is your request? To the half of the kingship—let it even be done! ” [7] To this Esther answered and said: “My petition and my request is, [8] If I have found favor in the king’s eyes and if to the king it does seem good to grant my petition and to act on my request, let the king and Ha′man come to the banquet that I shall hold for them tomorrow, and tomorrow I shall do according to the king’s word.”

[9] Consequently Ha′man went out on that day joyful and merry of heart; but as soon as Ha′man saw Mor′de·cai in the king’s gate and that he did not rise and did not quake on account of him, Haʹman was immediately filled with rage against Morʹde·cai. [10] However, Haʹman kept control of himself and came into his house. Then he sent and had his friends and Zeʹresh his wife brought in; [11] and Haʹman proceeded to declare to them the glory of his riches and the large number of his sons and everything with which the king had magnified him and how he had exalted him over the princes and the servants of the king.

[12] And Haʹman went on to say: “What is more, Esther the queen brought in with the king to the banquet that she had made no one but me, and tomorrow also I am invited to her with the king. [13] But all this—none of it suits me as long as I am seeing Morʹde·cai the Jew sitting in the king’s gate.” [14] At that Zeʹresh his wife and all his friends said to him: “Let them make a stake fifty cubits high. Then in the morning say to the king that they should hang Morʹde·cai on it. Then go in with the king to the banquet joyful.” So the thing seemed good before Haʹman, and he proceeded to have the stake made.

6 During that night the king’s sleep fled. Therefore he said to bring the book of the records of the affairs of the times. Thus there came to be a reading of them before the king. [2] At length there was found written what Mor′de·cai had reported concerning Big·tha′na and Te′resh, two court officials of the king, doorkeepers, who had sought to lay hand on King A·has·u·e′rus. [3] Then the king said: “What honor and great thing has been done to Mor′de·cai for this?” To this the king’s attendants, his ministers, said: “Nothing has been done with him.”

[4] Later the king said: “Who is in the courtyard?” Now Ha′man himself had come into the outer courtyard of the king’s house to say to the king to hang Mor′de·cai on the stake that he had prepared for him. [5] Accordingly the king’s attendants said to him: “Here is Ha′man standing in the courtyard.” So the king said: “Let him come in.”

[6] When Ha′man came in, the king proceeded to say to him: “What is to be done to the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight?” At this Ha′man said in his heart: “To whom would the king take delight in rendering an honor more than me?” [7] So Ha′man said to the king: “As for the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight, [8] let them bring royal apparel with which the king does clothe himself and a horse upon which the king does ride and on the head of which the royal headdress has been put. [9] And let there be a putting of the apparel and the horse into the charge of one of the king’s noble princes; and they must clothe the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight, and they must make him ride on the horse in the public square of the city, and they must call out before him, ‘This is how it is done to the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight.’” [10] At once the king said to Ha′man: “Quickly, take the apparel and the horse, just as you have said, and do that way to Mor′de·cai the Jew who is sitting in the king’s gate. Do not let anything go unfulfilled of all that you have spoken.”

[11] And Ha′man proceeded to take the apparel and the horse and clothe Mor′de·cai and make him ride in the public square of the city and call out before him: “This is how it is done to the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight.” [12] Afterward Mor′de·cai returned to the king’s gate. As for Ha′man, he hurried to his house, mourning and with his head covered. [13] And Ha′man went on to relate to Ze′resh his wife and to all his friends everything that had befallen him. At that his wise men and Ze′resh his wife said to him: “If it is from the seed of the Jews that Mor′de·cai is before whom you have started to fall, you will not prevail against him, but you will without fail fall before him.”

[14] While they were yet speaking with him the king’s court officials themselves arrived and proceeded hastily to bring Ha′man to the banquet that Esther had made.

7 Then the king and Ha′man came in to banquet with Esther the queen. [2] The king now said to Esther also on the second day during the banquet of wine: “What is your petition, O Esther the queen? Let it even be given to you. And what is your request? To the half of the kingship—let it even be done! ” [3] At this Esther the queen answered and said: “If I have found favor in your eyes, O king, and if to the king it does seem good, let there be given me my own soul at my petition and my people at my request. [4] For we have been sold, I and my people, to be annihilated, killed and destroyed. Now if we had been sold for mere men slaves and for mere maidservants, I should have kept silent. But the distress is not appropriate when with damage to the king.”

[5] King A·has·u·e′rus now said, yes, he went on to say to Esther the queen: “Who is this, and just where is the one who has emboldened himself to do that way?” [6] Then Esther said: “The man, the adversary and enemy, is this bad Ha′man.”

As for Ha′man, he became terrified because of the king and the queen. [7] As for the king, he rose up in his rage from the banquet of wine to go to the garden of the palace; and Ha′man himself stood up to make request for his soul from Esther the queen, for he saw that bad had been determined against him by the king. [8] And the king himself returned from the garden of the palace to the house of the wine banquet; and Ha′man was fallen upon the couch on which Esther was. Consequently the king said: “Is there also to be a raping of the queen, with me in the house?” The word itself went out of the king’s mouth, and Ha′man’s face they covered. [9] Har·bo′na, one of the court officials before the king, now said: “Also, there is the stake that Ha′man made for Mor′de·cai, who had spoken good concerning the king, standing in Ha′man’s house—fifty cubits high.” At that the king said: “YOU men, hang him on it.” 10 And they proceeded to hang Ha′man on the stake that he had prepared for Mor′de·cai; and the king’s rage itself subsided.

8 On that day King A·has·u·e′rus gave to Esther the queen the house of Ha′man, the one showing hostility to the Jews; and Mor′de·cai himself came in before the king, because Esther had told what he was to her. [2] Then the king removed his signet ring that he had taken away from Ha′man and gave it to Mor′de·cai; and Esther went on to place Mor′de·cai over the house of Ha′man.

[3] Moreover, Esther spoke again before the king and fell down before his feet and wept and implored favor of him to turn away the badness of Ha′man the Ag′ag·ite and his scheme that he had schemed against the Jews. [4] Then the king held the golden scepter out to Esther, at which Esther rose and stood before the king. [5] She now said: “If to the king it does seem good, and if I have found favor before him and the thing is proper before the king and I am good in his eyes, let it be written to undo the written documents, the scheme of Ha′man the son of Ham·me·da′tha the Ag′ag·ite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews that are in all the king’s jurisdictional districts. [6] For how can I bear it when I must look upon the calamity that will find my people, and how can I bear it when I must look upon the destruction of my relatives?”

[7] So King A·has·u·e′rus said to Esther the queen and to Mor′de·cai the Jew: “Look! The house of Ha′man I have given to Esther, and him they have hanged on the stake, for the reason that he thrust out his hand against the Jews. [8] And YOU yourselves write in behalf of the Jews according to what is good in YOUR own eyes in the king’s name and seal it with the king’s signet ring; for a writing that is written in the king’s name and sealed with the king’s signet ring it is not possible to undo.”

[9] Accordingly the secretaries of the king were called at that time in the third month, that is, the month of Si′van, on the twenty-third day of it; and writing went on according to all that Mor′de·cai commanded to the Jews and to the satraps and the governors and the princes of the jurisdictional districts that were from In′di·a to E·thi·o′pi·a, a hundred and twenty-seven jurisdictional districts, to each jurisdictional district in its own style of writing and to each people in its own tongue, and to the Jews in their own style of writing and in their own tongue.

[10] And he proceeded to write in the name of King A·has·u·e′rus and do the sealing with the king's signet ring and send written documents by the hand of the couriers on horses, riding post-horses used in the royal service, sons of speedy mares, [11] that the king granted to the Jews that were in all the different cities to congregate themselves and stand for their souls, to annihilate and kill and destroy all the force of the people and jurisdictional district that were showing hostility to them, little ones and women, and to plunder their spoil, [12] on the one day in all the jurisdictional districts of King A·has·u·e′rus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, that is, the month of A′dar. [13] A copy of the writing was to be given as law throughout all the different jurisdictional districts, published to all the peoples, that the Jews should become ready for this day to avenge themselves upon their enemies. [14] The couriers themselves, riding post-horses used in the royal service, went forth, being urged forward and being moved with speed by the king's word; and the law itself was given out in Shu′shan the castle.

joyful. [16] For the Jews there occurred light and rejoicing and exultation and honor. [17] And in all the different jurisdictional districts and in all the different cities wherever the word of the king and his law were reaching there were rejoicing and exultation for the Jews, a banquet and a good day; and many of the peoples of the land were declaring themselves Jews, for the dread of the Jews had fallen upon them.

9 And in the twelfth month, that is, the month of A′dar, on the thirteenth day of it, when the king’s word and his law came due to be performed, on the day for which the enemies of the Jews had waited to domineer over them, there was even a turning to the contrary, in that the Jews themselves domineered over those hating them. [2] The Jews congregated themselves in their cities in all the jurisdictional districts of King A·has·u·e′rus to lay hand on those seeking their injury, and not a man stood his ground before them, for the dread of them had fallen upon all the peoples. [3] And all the princes of the jurisdictional districts and the satraps and the governors and the doers of the business that belonged to the king were assisting the Jews, for the dread of Mor′de·cai had fallen upon them. [4] For Mor′de·cai was great in the king’s house and his fame was traveling throughout all the jurisdictional districts, because the man Mor′de·cai was steadily growing greater.

[5] And the Jews went striking down all their enemies with a slaughter by the sword and with a killing and destruction, and they went doing to those hating them according to their liking. [6] And in Shu′shan the castle the Jews killed and there was a destroying of five hundred men. [7] Also, Par·shan·da′tha and Dal′phon and As·pa′tha [8] and Po·ra′tha and A·da′li·a and A·ri·da′tha [9] and Par·mash′ta and Ar′i·sai and Ar′i·dai and Vai·za′tha, [10] the ten sons of Ha′man the son of Ham·me·da′tha, the one showing hostility to the Jews, they killed; but on the plunder they did not lay their hand.

[11] On that day the number of those killed in Shu′shan the castle came before the king.

[12] And the king proceeded to say to Esther the queen: “In Shuʹshan the castle the Jews have killed, and there has been a destroying of five hundred men and the ten sons of Haʹman. In the rest of the jurisdictional districts of the king what have they done? And what is your petition? Let it even be given to you. And what is your further request? Let it even be done.” [13] Accordingly Esther said: “If to the king it does seem good, let it be granted tomorrow also to the Jews that are in Shuʹshan to do according to the law of today; and let the ten sons of Haʹman be hanged upon the stake.” [14] So the king said for it to be done that way. Then a law was given out in Shuʹshan, and the ten sons of Haʹman were hanged.

[15] And the Jews that were in Shuʹshan proceeded to congregate themselves also on the fourteenth day of the month Aʹdar, and they got to kill in Shuʹshan three hundred men; but on the plunder they did not lay their hand.

[16] As for the rest of the Jews that were in the jurisdictional districts of the king, they congregated themselves, and there was a stand for their souls, and there was an avenging of themselves upon their enemies and a killing among those hating them of seventy-five thousand; but on the plunder they did not lay their hand, [17] on the thirteenth day of the month Aʹdar; and there was a rest on the fourteenth day of it, and there was a making of it a day of banqueting and of rejoicing.

[18] As for the Jews that were in Shuʹshan, they congregated themselves on the thirteenth day of it and on the fourteenth day of it, and there was a rest on the fifteenth day of it, and there was a making of it a day of banqueting and of rejoicing. [19] That is why the country Jews, inhabiting the cities of the outlying districts, were making the fourteenth day of the month A′dar a rejoicing and a banqueting and a good day and a sending of portions to one another.

[20] And Mor′de·cai proceeded to write these things and send written documents to all the Jews that were in all the jurisdictional districts of King A·has·u·e′rus, the nearby and the distant ones, [21] to impose upon them the obligation to be regularly holding the fourteenth day of the month A′dar and the fifteenth day of it in each and every year, [22] according to the days on which the Jews had rested from their enemies and the month that was changed for them from grief to rejoicing and from mourning to a good day, to hold them as days of banqueting and rejoicing and sending of portions to one another and of gifts to the poor people.

[23] And the Jews accepted what they had started to do and what Mor′de·cai had written to them. [24] For Ha′man the son of Ham·me·da′tha, the Ag′ag·ite, the one showing hostility to all the Jews, had himself schemed against the Jews to destroy them, and he had had Pur, that is, the Lot, cast, to disquiet them and destroy them. [25] But when Esther came in before the king he said with the written document: “Let his bad scheme that he has schemed against the Jews come back upon his own head”; and they hanged him and his sons upon the stake. [26] That is why they called these days Pu′rim, by the name of the Pur. That is why, according to all the words of this letter and what they had seen as to this and what had come upon them, [27] the Jews imposed and accepted upon themselves and upon their offspring and upon all those joining themselves to them, that it should not pass away, the obligation to be regularly holding these two days according to what was written concerning them and according to their appointed time in each and every year. [28] And these days were to be remembered and held in each and every generation, each family, each jurisdictional district and each city, and these days of Pu′rim themselves should not pass away from the midst of the Jews and the commemoration itself of them not come to an end among their offspring.

[29] And Esther the queen, the daughter of Ab′i·ha·il, and Mor′de·cai the Jew proceeded to write with all forcefulness to confirm this second letter concerning Pu′rim. [30] Then he sent written documents to all the Jews in the one hundred and twenty-seven jurisdictional districts, the realm of A·has·u·e′rus, in words of peace and truth, [31] to confirm these days of Pu′rim at their appointed times, just as Mor′de·cai the Jew and Esther the queen had imposed upon them, and just as they had imposed upon their own soul and upon their offspring, the matters of the fasts and their cry for aid. [32] And the very saying of Esther confirmed these matters of Pu′rim, and it was written down in a book.

10 And King A·has·u·e′rus proceeded to lay forced labor upon the land and the isles of the sea.

[2] As for all his energetic work and his mightiness and the exact statement of Mor′de·cai’s greatness with which the king magnified him, are they not written in the Book of the affairs of the times of the kings of Me′di·a and Persia? [3] For Mor′de·cai the Jew was second to King A·has·u·e′rus and was great among the Jews and approved by the multitude of his brothers, working for the good of his people and speaking peace to all their offspring.

JOB

1 There happened to be a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job; and that man proved to be blameless and upright, and fearing God and turning aside from bad. [2] And seven sons and three daughters came to be born to him. [3] And his livestock got to be seven thousand sheep and three thousand camels and five hundred spans of cattle and five hundred she-asses, along with a very large body of servants; and that man came to be the greatest of all the Orientals.

[4] And his sons went and held a banquet at the house of each one on his own day; and they sent and invited their three sisters to eat and drink with them. [5] And it would occur that when the banquet days had gone round the circuit, Job would send and sanctify them; and he got up early in the morning and offered up burnt sacrifices according to the number of all of them; for, said Job, “maybe my sons have sinned and have cursed God in their heart.” That is the way Job would do always.

[6] Now it came to be the day when the sons of the true God entered to take their station before Jehovah, and even Satan proceeded to enter right among them.

[7] Then Jehovah said to Satan: “Where do you come from?” At that Satan answered Jehovah and said: “From roving about in the earth and from walking about in it.” [8] And Jehovah went on to say to Satan: “Have you set your heart upon my servant Job, that there is no one like him in the earth, a man blameless and upright, fearing God and turning aside from bad?” [9] At that Satan answered Jehovah and said: “Is it for nothing that Job has feared God? [10] Have not you yourself put up a hedge about him and about his house and about everything that he has all around? The work of his hands you have blessed, and his livestock itself has spread abroad in the earth. [11] But, for a change, thrust out your hand, please, and touch everything he has and see whether he will not curse you to your very face.” [12] Accordingly Jehovah said to Satan: “Look! Everything that he has is in your hand. Only against him himself do not thrust out your hand!” So Satan went out away from the person of Jehovah.

[13] Now it came to be the day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in the house of their brother the firstborn. [14] And there came a messenger to Job, and he proceeded to say: “The cattle themselves happened to be plowing and the she-asses were grazing at the side of them [15] when the Sa·beʹans came making a raid and taking them, and the attendants they struck down with the edge of the sword; and I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you.”

[16] While this one was yet speaking that one came and proceeded to say: “The very fire of God fell from the heavens and went blazing among the sheep and the attendants and eating them up; and I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you.”

[17] While that one was yet speaking another one came and proceeded to say: “The Chal·deʹans made up three bands and went dashing against the camels and taking them, and the attendants they struck down with the edge of the sword; and I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you.”

[18] While this other one was yet speaking, still another one came and proceeded to say: “Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in the house of their brother the firstborn. [19] And, look! there came a great wind from the region of the wilderness, and it went striking the four corners of the house, so that it fell upon the young people and they died. And I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you.”

20 And Job proceeded to get up and rip his sleeveless coat apart and cut the hair off his head and fall to the earth and bow down 21 and say:

“Naked I came out of my mother’s belly,
And naked shall I return there.
Jehovah himself has given, and Jehovah himself has taken away.
Let the name of Jehovah continue to be blessed.”

22 In all this Job did not sin or ascribe anything improper to God.

2 Afterward it came to be the day when the sons of the true God entered to take their station before Jehovah, and Satan also proceeded to enter right among them to take his station before Jehovah.

[2] Then Jehovah said to Satan: “Just where do you come from?” At that Satan answered Jehovah and said: “From roving about in the earth and from walking about in it.” [3] And Jehovah went on to say to Satan: “Have you set your heart upon my servant Job, that there is no one like him in the earth, a man blameless and upright, fearing God and turning aside from bad? Even yet he is holding fast his integrity, although you incite me against him to swallow him up without cause.” [4] But Satan answered Jehovah and said: “Skin in behalf of skin, and everything that a man has he will give in behalf of his soul. [5] For a change, thrust out your hand, please, and touch as far as his bone and his flesh and see whether he will not curse you to your very face.”

[6] Accordingly Jehovah said to Satan: “There he is in your hand! Only watch out for his soul itself!” [7] So Satan went out away from the person of Jehovah and struck Job with a malignant boil from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. [8] And he proceeded to take for himself a fragment of earthenware with which to scrape himself; and he was sitting in among the ashes.

[9] Finally his wife said to him: “Are you yet holding fast your integrity? Curse God and die!” [10] But he said to her: “As one of the senseless women speaks, you speak also. Shall we accept merely what is good from the true God and not accept also what is bad?” In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

11 And three companions of Job got to hear of all this calamity that had come upon him, and they proceeded to come, each one from his own place, El′i·phaz the Te′man·ite and Bil′dad the Shu′hite and Zo′phar the Na′a·ma·thite. So they met together by appointment to come and sympathize with him and comfort him. 12 When they raised their eyes from far off they did not then recognize him. And they proceeded to raise their voice and weep and rip each one his sleeveless coat apart and toss dust toward the heavens upon their heads. 13 And they kept sitting with him on the earth seven days and seven nights, and there was no one speaking a word to him, for they saw that the pain was very great.

3 It was after this that Job opened his mouth and began to call down evil upon his day. [2] Job now answered and said:

[3] “Let the day perish on which I came to be born,
Also the night that someone said, ‘An able-bodied man has been conceived!’

[4] As for that day, let it become darkness.
Let not God look for it from above,
Nor let daylight beam upon it.

[5] Let darkness and deep shadow reclaim it.
Let a rain cloud reside over it.
Let the things that darken a day terrorize it.

[6] That night—let gloom take it;
Let it not feel glad among the days of a year;
Among the number of the lunar months let it not enter.

[7] Look! That night—let it become sterile;
Let no joyful cry come in it.

[8] Let cursers of the day execrate it,
Those ready to awaken Le·viʹa·than.

[9] Let the stars of its twilight grow dark;
Let it wait for the light and there be none;
And let it not see the beams of dawn.

[10] For it did not close the doors of my mother’s belly,
And so conceal trouble from my eyes.

[11] Why from the womb did I not proceed to die?
Why did I not come forth from the belly itself and then expire?

[12] Why was it that knees confronted me,
And why breasts that I should take suck?

[13] For by now I should have lain down that I might be undisturbed;
I should have slept then; I should be at rest

[14] With kings and counselors of the earth,
Those building desolate places for themselves,

[15] Or with princes who have gold,
Those who fill their houses with silver;

[16] Or, like a hidden miscarriage, I should not come to be,
Like children that have seen no light.

[17] There the wicked themselves have ceased from agitation,
And there those weary in power are at rest.

[18] Together prisoners themselves are at ease;
They actually do not hear the voice of one driving them to work.

19 Small and great are there the same,
And the slave is set free from his master.
20 Why does he give light to one having trouble,
And life to those bitter of soul?
21 Why are there those waiting for death, and it is not,
Although they keep digging for it more than for hidden treasures?
22 Those who are rejoicing to gleefulness,
They exult because they find a burial place.
23 Why does he give light to able-bodied man, whose way has been concealed,
And whom God hedges in?
24 For before my food my sighing comes,
And like waters my roaring cries pour forth;
25 Because a dreadful thing I have dreaded, and it comes upon me;
And what I have been scared of comes to me.
26 I have not been carefree, nor have I been undisturbed, Nor been at rest, and yet agitation comes.”

4 And El′i·phaz the Te′man·ite proceeded to reply and say:

2 “If one does try out a word to you, will you become weary?
But to put a restraint on words who is able?
3 Look! You have corrected many,
And the weak hands you used to strengthen.
4 Anyone stumbling, your words would raise up;
And knees giving way you would make firm.
5 But this time it comes to you, and you become weary;
It touches even you, and you get disturbed.
6 Is not your reverence the basis of your confidence?
Is not your hope even the integrity of your ways?
7 Remember, please: Who that is innocent has ever perished?
And where have the upright ever been effaced?
8 According to what I have seen, those devising what is hurtful
And those sowing trouble will themselves reap it.
9 Through the breath of God they perish,
And through the spirit of his anger they come to an end.
10 There is the roaring of a lion, and the voice of a young lion,
But the teeth of maned young lions do get broken down.
11 A lion is perishing from there being no prey,
And the cubs of a lion are separated from one another.
12 Now to me a word was stealthily brought,
And my ear proceeded to get a whisper of it,
13 In disquieting thoughts from visions of the night,
When deep sleep falls upon men.
14 A dread came over me, and a trembling,
And the multitude of my bones it filled with dread.
15 And a spirit itself went passing over my face;
The hair of my flesh began to bristle.
16 It began to stand still,
But I did not recognize its appearance;
A form was in front of my eyes;
There was a calm, and I now heard a voice:
17 ‘Mortal man—can he be more just than God himself?
Or can able-bodied man be cleaner than his own Maker?’
18 Look! In his servants he has no faith,
And his messengers he charges with faultiness.

19 How much more so with those dwelling in houses of clay, Whose foundation is in the dust!
One crushes them more quickly than a moth.
20 From morning to evening they are crushed to pieces;
Without anyone’s taking it to heart they perish forever.
21 Has not their tent cord within them been pulled out?
They die for lack of wisdom.

5 “Call, please! Is there anyone answering you?
And to which one of the holy ones will you turn?
2 For the foolish one vexation will kill,
And the one easily enticed envying will put to death.
3 I myself have seen the foolish one taking root,
But suddenly I began to execrate his abiding place.
4 His sons remain far from salvation,
And they are crushed in the gate without a deliverer.
5 What he harvests the hungry one eats;
And even from butcher hooks one takes it,
And a snare actually snaps at their means of maintenance.
6 For not from mere dust does what is hurtful go forth,
And from mere ground trouble does not spring up.
7 For man himself is born for trouble,
As the very sparks fly upward.
8 However, I myself would apply to God,
And to God I would submit my cause,
9 To the One doing great things unsearchable, Wonderful things without number;
10 To the One giving rain upon the surface of the earth
And sending waters upon the open fields;
11 To the One putting those who are low on a high place,
So that those who are sad are high up in salvation;
12 To the One frustrating the schemes of the shrewd,
So that their hands do not work with effect;
13 To the One catching the wise in their own cunning,
So that the counsel of astute ones is carried headlong;
14 They encounter darkness even by day,
And they grope about at midday as if at night;
15 And to the One saving from the sword out of their mouth,
And from the hand of the strong one, a poor one,
16 So that for the lowly one there comes to be hope,
But unrighteousness actually shuts its mouth.
17 Look! Happy is the man whom God reproves;
And the discipline of the Almighty do not you reject!
18 For he himself causes pain, but binds up the wound;
He breaks to pieces, but his own hands do the healing.
19 In six distresses he will deliver you,

And in seven nothing injurious will touch you.
20 During famine he will certainly redeem you from death,
And during war from the power of a sword.
21 From the whip of a tongue you will be hidden,
And you will not be afraid of despoiling when it comes.
22 At despoiling and hunger you will laugh,
And of the wild beast of the earth you need not be afraid.
23 For with the stones of the field your covenant will be,
And the wild beast of the field himself will be made to live at peace with you.
24 And you will certainly know that peace itself is your tent,
And you will be bound to go and see your pasture ground, and you will miss nothing.
25 And you will certainly know that your offspring are many
And your descendants like the vegetation of the earth.
26 You will come in vigor to the burial place,
As when sheaves pile up in their time.
27 Look! This is what we have investigated. So is it.
Hear it, and you—know it for yourself.”

6 And Job proceeded to answer and say:

2 “O that my vexation were altogether weighed,
And that at the same time my adversity they would put on scales themselves!

3 For now it is heavier even than the sands of the seas.
That is why my own words have been wild talk.

4 For the arrows of the Almighty are with me,
The venom of which my spirit is drinking;
The terrors from God range themselves up against me.

5 Will a zebra cry out over grass,
Or a bull low over its fodder?

6 Will tasteless things be eaten without salt,
Or is there any taste in the slimy juice of marshmallow?

7 My soul has refused to touch anything.
They are like disease in my food.

8 O that my request would come
And that God would grant even my hope!

9 And that God would go ahead and crush me,
That he would release his hand and cut me off!

10 Even it would still be my comfort;
And I should leap for joy at my labor pains,
Though he would have no compassion, for I have not hidden the sayings of the Holy One.

11 What is my power, that I should keep waiting?
And what is my end, that I should keep prolonging my soul?

12 Is my power the power of stones?
Or is my flesh of copper?

13 Is it that self-assistance is not in me,
And effectual working itself has been chased away from me?

14 As regards anyone who withholds loving-kindness from his own fellow,
He will also leave off even the fear of the Almighty.

15 My own brothers have dealt treacherously, like a winter torrent,
Like the channel of winter torrents that keep passing away.

16 They are dark from ice,
Upon them snow hides itself.

17 In due season they become waterless, they have been silenced;
When it grows hot they are dried up from their place.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside;

They go up into the empty place and perish.
19 The caravans of Te′ma have looked,
The traveling company of Sa·be′ans have waited for them.
20 They certainly are ashamed because they had trusted;
They have come clear to the place and they get disappointed.
21 For now YOU men have amounted to nothing;
YOU see terror, and YOU become afraid.
22 Is it because I have said, ‘GIVE me something,
Or from some of the power of YOU men make a present in my behalf;
23 And rescue me out of the hand of an adversary,
And out of the hand of tyrants YOU men should redeem me’?
24 Instruct me, and I, for my part, shall be silent;
And what mistake I have committed make me understand.
25 The sayings of uprightness have been—O not painful!
But what does reproving on the part of YOU men reprove?
26 Is it to reprove words that YOU men scheme,
When the sayings of one in despair are for mere wind?
27 How much more will YOU cast lots even over someone fatherless,
And barter over YOUR companion!
28 And now GO ahead, pay attention to me,
And see whether I shall lie to YOUR very faces.
29 Return, please—let no unrighteousness arise—
Yes, return—my righteousness is yet in it.
30 Is there unrighteousness on my tongue,
Or does my own palate not discern adversity?

7 “Is there not a compulsory labor for mortal man on earth,
And are not his days like the days of a hired laborer?

2 Like a slave he pants for the shadow,
And like a hired laborer he waits for his wages.

3 Thus I have been made to possess worthless lunar months,
And nights of trouble they have counted out to me.

4 When I have lain down I have also said, ‘When shall I get up?’
And when evening actually goes its measure, I have also been glutted with restlessness until morning twilight.

5 My flesh has become clothed with maggots and lumps of dust;
My skin itself has formed crusts and dissolves.

6 My days themselves have become swifter than a weaver’s shuttle,
And they come to an end in hopelessness.

7 Remember that my life is wind;
That my eye will not see good again.

8 The eye of him that sees me will not behold me;
Your eyes will be upon me, but I shall not be.

9 The cloud certainly comes to its end and goes away;
So he that is going down to She′ol will not come up.

10 He will not return anymore to his house,
And his place will not acknowledge him anymore.

11 I, also, I shall not hold back my mouth.
I will speak in the distress of my spirit;
I will be concerned with the bitterness of my soul!

12 Am I a sea or a sea monster,
That you should set a guard over me?

13 When I said, ‘My divan will comfort me,
My bed will help carry my concern,’

14 You even have terrified me with dreams,
And by visions you make me start up in fright,

15 So that my soul chooses suffocation,
Death rather than my bones.

16 I have rejected it; to time indefinite I would not live.
Cease from me, for my days are an exhalation.

17 What is mortal man that you should rear him,
And that you should set your heart upon him,

18 And that you should pay attention to him every morning,
That every moment you should test him?

19 Why will you not turn your gaze from me,
Nor let me alone until I swallow my saliva?

20 If I have sinned, what can I accomplish against you, the Observer of mankind?
Why is it that you have set me as your target, so that I should become a burden to you?

21 And why do you not pardon my transgression
And overlook my error?
For now in dust I shall lie down;
And you will certainly look for me, and I shall not be.”

8 And Bil′dad the Shu′hite proceeded to answer and say:

2 “How long will you keep uttering these things,
When the sayings of your mouth are but a powerful wind?

3 Will God himself pervert judgment,
Or will the Almighty himself pervert righteousness?

4 If your own sons have sinned against him,
So that he lets them go into the hand of their revolt,

5 If you yourself will look for God,
And if of the Almighty you will implore favor,

6 If you are pure and upright,
By now he would awake for you
And he would certainly restore your righteous abiding place.

7 Also, your beginning may have proved to be a small thing,
But your own end afterward would grow very great.

8 Indeed, ask, please, of the former generation,
And direct your attention to the things searched out by their fathers.

9 For we were only yesterday, and we know nothing,
Because our days on earth are a shadow.

10 Will not they themselves instruct you, tell you,
And from their heart will they not bring forth words?

11 Will a papyrus plant grow tall without a swampy place?
Will a reed grow big without water?

12 While it is yet in its bud, not plucked off,
Even ahead of all other grass it will dry up.

13 Thus are the pathways of all those forgetting God,
And the very hope of an apostate will perish,

14 Whose confidence is cut off,
And whose trust is a spider’s house.

15 He will lean upon his house, but it will not keep standing;
He will take hold of it, but it will not last.

16 He is full of sap before the sun,
And in his garden his own twig goes forth.

17 In a stone heap his roots become interwoven,
A house of stones he beholds.

18 If one swallows him up from his place,
It will also certainly deny him, saying, ‘I have not seen you.’

19 Look! That is the dissolving of his way;

And from the dust others spring up.
20 Look! God himself will not reject anyone blameless,
Neither will he take hold of the hand of evildoers,
21 Until he fills your mouth with laughter,
And your lips with joyful shouting.
22 The very ones hating you will be clothed with shame,
And the tent of wicked ones will not be.”

9 And Job proceeded to answer and say:

2 “For a fact I do know that it is so.
But how can mortal man be in the right in a case with God?
3 If he should find delight in contending with him,
He cannot answer him once out of a thousand.
4 He is wise in heart and strong in power.
Who can show stubbornness to him and come off uninjured?
5 He is moving mountains away, so that people do not even know of them,
He who has overthrown them in his anger.
6 He is making the earth go quaking from its place,
So that its very pillars shudder.
7 He is saying to the sun that it should not shine forth,
And around stars he puts a seal,
8 Stretching out the heavens by himself
And treading upon the high waves of the sea;
9 Making the Ash constellation, the Ke′sil constellation,
And the Ki′mah constellation and the interior rooms of the South;
10 Doing great things unsearchable,
And wonderful things without number.
11 Look! He passes by me and I do not see him,
And he moves on and I do not discern him.
12 Look! He snatches away. Who can resist him?
Who will say to him, ‘What are you doing?’
13 God himself will not turn back his anger;
Beneath him the helpers of a stormer must bow down.
14 How much more so in case I myself answer him!
I will choose my words with him,
15 Whom I would not answer, even though I were really in the right.
Of my opponent-at-law I would implore favor.
16 If I called him, would he answer me?
I do not believe that he would give ear to my voice;
17 Who with a storm bruises me
And certainly makes my wounds many for no reason.
18 He will not grant me my taking of a fresh breath,
For he keeps glutting me with bitter things.
19 If in power anyone is strong, there he is;
And if in justice anyone is strong, O that I may be summoned!

20 If I were in the right, my own mouth would pronounce me wicked;
Were I blameless, then he would declare me crooked.
21 Were I blameless, I would not know my soul;
I would refuse my life.
22 One thing there is. That is why I do say,
‘One blameless, also a wicked one, he is bringing to their end.’
23 If a flash flood itself should cause death suddenly,
At the very despair of the innocent ones he would mock.
24 Earth itself has been given into the hand of the wicked one;
The face of its judges he covers.
If not, who, then, is it?
25 Also my own days have become swifter than a runner;
They have run away, they will certainly not see good.
26 They have moved on like reed boats,
Like an eagle that darts to and fro for something to eat.
27 If I have said, ‘Let me forget my concern,
Let me alter my countenance and brighten up,’
28 I have been scared of all my pains;
I do know that you will not hold me innocent.
29 I myself am to become wicked.
Why is it that I toil merely in vain?
30 If I actually washed myself in snow water,
And I actually cleansed my hands in potash,
31 Then in a pit you would dip me,
And my garments would certainly detest me.
32 For he is not a man like me that I should answer him,
That we should come together in judgment.
33 There exists no person to decide between us,
That he should put his hand upon both of us.
34 Let him remove his rod from upon me,
And his frightfulness, let it not terrify me.
35 Let me speak and not be afraid of him,
For I am not so disposed in myself.

10 “My soul certainly feels a loathing toward my life.
I will give vent to my concern about myself.
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul!
2 I shall say to God, ‘Do not pronounce me wicked.
Cause me to know why it is that you are contending with me.
3 Is it good for you that you should do wrong,
That you should reject the product of the hard work of your hands,
And that upon the counsel of wicked ones you should actually beam?
4 Do you have eyes of flesh,
Or is it as a mortal man sees that you see?
5 Are your days like the days of mortal man,
Or your years just like the days of an able-bodied man,
6 That you should try to find my error
And for my sin you should keep looking?
7 This in spite of your own knowledge that I am not in the wrong,
And there is no one delivering out of your own hand?
8 Your own hands have shaped me so that they made me
In entirety round about, and yet you would swallow me up.
9 Remember, please, that out of clay you have made me
And to dust you will make me return.
10 Did you not proceed to pour me out as milk itself
And like cheese to curdle me?
11 With skin and flesh you proceeded to clothe me
And with bones and sinews to weave me together.
12 Life and loving-kindness you have worked with me;
And your own care has guarded my spirit.
13 And these things you have concealed in your heart.
I well know that these things are with you.
14 If I have sinned and you have kept watching me
And of my error you do not hold me innocent;
15 If I am actually in the wrong, too bad for me!
And if I am actually in the right, I may not raise my head,
Glutted with dishonor and saturated with affliction.
16 And if it acts haughtily, like a young lion you will hunt for me,
And you will again show yourself marvelous in my case.
17 You will bring forth new witnesses of yours in front of me,
And you will make your vexation with me greater;
Hardship after hardship is with me.
18 So why from a womb did you bring me out?

Could I have expired, that not even an eye could see me, 19 There as though I had not come to be I should have become;
From the belly to the burial place I should have been brought.’
20 Are not my days few? Let him leave off,
Let him turn his gaze from me, that I may brighten up a little 21 Before I go away—and I shall not come back—
To the land of darkness and deep shadow,
22 To the land of obscurity like gloom, of deep shadow
And disorder, where it beams no more than gloom does.”

11 And Zoʹphar the Naʹa·ma·thite proceeded to answer and say:

2 “Will a multitude of words go unanswered,
Or will a mere boaster be in the right?

3 Will your empty talk itself put men to silence,
And will you keep deriding without having anyone rebuke you?

4 Also, you say, ‘My instruction is pure,
And I have proved really clean in your eyes.’

5 Yet O if only God himself would speak
And open his lips with you!

6 Then he would tell you the secrets of wisdom,
For the things of practical wisdom are manifold.
Also, you would know that God allows some of your error to be forgotten for you.

7 Can you find out the deep things of God,
Or can you find out to the very limit of the Almighty?

8 It is higher than heaven. What can you accomplish?
It is deeper than Sheʹol. What can you know?

9 It is longer than the earth in measure,
And broader than the sea.

10 If he moves on and hands someone over
And calls a court, then who can resist him?

11 For he himself well knows men who are untrue.
When he sees what is hurtful, will he not also show himself attentive?

12 Even a hollow-minded man himself will get good motive
As soon as an asinine zebra be born a man.

13 If you yourself will really prepare your heart
And actually spread out your palms to him,

14 If what is hurtful is in your hand, put it far away,
And let no unrighteousness dwell in your tents.

15 For then you will raise your face without defect
And you will certainly become established, and you will not fear.

16 For you—you will forget trouble itself;
As waters that have passed along you will remember it.

17 And brighter than midday will your life’s duration arise;
Darkness will become like the morning itself.

18 And you will be bound to trust because there exists hope;

And you will certainly look carefully around—in security you will lie down.
19 And you will indeed stretch yourself out, with no one to make you tremble.
And many people will certainly put you in a gentle mood;
20 And the very eyes of the wicked will fail;
And a place for flight will certainly perish from them,
And their hope will be an expiring of the soul.”

12 And Job proceeded to answer and say:

2 “For a fact YOU men are the people,
And with YOU wisdom will die out!
3 I too have a heart as well as YOU.
I am not inferior to YOU,
And with whom are there not things like these?
4 One who is a laughingstock to his fellowman I become,
One calling to God that he should answer him.
A laughingstock is the righteous, unblamable one.
5 In thought, the carefree one has contempt for extinction itself;
It is made ready for those of wobbling feet.
6 The tents of the despoilers are unworried,
And the ones enraging God have the safety
Belonging to one who has brought a god in his hand.
7 However, ask, please, the domestic animals, and they will instruct you;
Also the winged creatures of the heavens, and they will tell you.
8 Or show your concern to the earth, and it will instruct you;
And the fishes of the sea will declare it to you.
9 Who among all these does not well know
That the hand of Jehovah itself has done this,
10 In whose hand is the soul of everyone alive
And the spirit of all flesh of man?
11 Does not the ear itself test out words
As the palate tastes food?
12 Is there not wisdom among the aged
And understanding in length of days?
13 With him there are wisdom and mightiness;
He has counsel and understanding.
14 Look! He tears down, that there may be no building up;
He makes it shut to man, that it may not be opened up.
15 Look! He puts a restraint upon the waters and they dry up;
And he sends them, and they change the earth.
16 With him there are strength and practical wisdom;
To him belong the one making a mistake and the one leading astray;
17 He is making counselors go barefoot,
And he makes judges themselves go crazy.
18 The bonds of kings he actually loosens,
And he binds a belt upon their hips.

19 He is making priests walk barefoot,
And permanently seated ones he subverts;
20 He is removing speech from the faithful ones,
And the sensibleness of old men he takes away;
21 He is pouring out contempt upon nobles,
And the girdle of powerful ones he actually weakens;
22 He is uncovering deep things from the darkness,
And he brings forth to the light deep shadow;
23 Making the nations grow great, that he may destroy them;
Spreading out the nations, that he may lead them away;
24 Taking away the heart of the head ones of the people of the land,
That he may make them wander about in an empty place, where there is no way.
25 They grope in darkness, where there is no light,
That he may make them wander about like a drunken man.

13 “Look! All this my eye has seen,
My ear has heard and considers it.

2 What YOU men know I myself well know also;
I am not inferior to YOU.

3 However, I, for my part, would speak to the Almighty himself,
And in arguing with God I would find delight.

4 On the other hand, YOU men are smearers of falsehood;
All of YOU are physicians of no value.

5 If only YOU would absolutely keep silent,
That it might prove to be wisdom on YOUR part!

6 Hear, please, my counterarguments,
And to the pleadings of my lips pay attention.

7 Will YOU men speak unrighteousness for God himself,
And for him will YOU speak deceit?

8 Will YOU be treating him with partiality,
Or for the true God will YOU contend at law?

9 Would it be good that he sound YOU out?
Or as one trifles with mortal man will YOU trifle with him?

10 He will positively reprove YOU
If in secrecy YOU try to show partiality;

11 Will not his very dignity make YOU start up with fright,
And the very dread of him fall upon YOU?

12 YOUR memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes;
YOUR shield bosses are as shield bosses of clay.

13 KEEP silent before me, that I myself may speak.
Then let come upon me whatever it may be!

14 Why do I carry my flesh in my teeth
And place my own soul in my palm?

15 Even if he would slay me, would I not wait?
I would only argue to his face for my own ways.

16 He would also be my salvation,
For before him no apostate will come in.

17 HEAR my word clear through,
And let my declaration be in YOUR ears.

18 Look! Please, I have presented a case of justice;
I well know that I myself am in the right.

19 Who is the one that will contend with me?
For now were I to become silent I should simply expire!

20 Only two things do not do to me;
In that case I shall not conceal myself just on your account;
21 Put your own hand far away from upon me,
And the fright of you—may it not terrify me.
22 Either call that I myself may answer;
Or may I speak, and you return me answer.
23 In what way do I have errors and sins?
Make me to know my own revolt and my own sin.
24 Why do you conceal your very face
And regard me as an enemy of yours?
25 Will you make a mere leaf driven about quiver,
Or keep chasing after mere dry stubble?
26 For you keep writing against me bitter things
And you make me possess the consequences of the errors of my youth.
27 You also keep my feet put in the stocks,
And you watch all my paths;
For the soles of my feet you mark your own line.
28 And he is like something rotten that wears out;
Like a garment that a moth actually eats up.

14 “Man, born of woman,
Is short-lived and glutted with agitation.

2 Like a blossom he has come forth and is cut off,
And he runs away like the shadow and does not keep existing.

3 Yes, upon this one you have opened your eye,
And me you bring into judgment with you.

4 Who can produce someone clean out of someone unclean?
There is not one.

5 If his days are decided,
The number of his months is with you;
A decree for him you have made that he may not go beyond.

6 Turn your gaze from upon him that he may have rest,
Until he finds pleasure as a hired laborer does in his day.

7 For there exists hope for even a tree.
If it gets cut down, it will even sprout again,
And its own twig will not cease to be.

8 If its root grows old in the earth
And in the dust its stump dies,

9 At the scent of water it will sprout
And it will certainly produce a bough like a new plant.

10 But an able-bodied man dies and lies vanquished;
And an earthling man expires, and where is he?

11 Waters do disappear from a sea,
And a river itself drains off and dries up.

12 Man also has to lie down and does not get up.
Until heaven is no more they will not wake up,
Nor will they be aroused from their sleep.

13 O that in She′ol you would conceal me,
That you would keep me secret until your anger turns back,
That you would set a time limit for me and remember me!

14 If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?
All the days of my compulsory labor I shall wait, Until my relief comes.

15 You will call, and I myself shall answer you.
For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.

16 For now you keep counting my very steps;
You watch for nothing but my sin.

17 Sealed up in a bag is my revolt,
And you apply glue over my error.

18 However, a mountain itself, falling, will fade away,
And even a rock will be moved away from its place.

19 Water certainly rubs away even stones;
Its outpouring washes off earth’s dust.
So you have destroyed the very hope of mortal man.

20 You overpower him forever so that he goes away;
You are disfiguring his face so that you send him away.

21 His sons get honored, but he does not know it;
And they become insignificant, but he does not consider them.

22 Only his own flesh while upon him will keep aching,
And his own soul while within him will keep mourning.”

15 And El′i·phaz the Te′man·ite proceeded to answer and say:

2 “Will a wise person himself answer with windy knowledge,
Or will he fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Merely reproving with a word will be of no use,
And mere utterances will be of no benefit by themselves.

4 However, you yourself make fear before God to have no force,
And you diminish the having of any concern before God.

5 For your error trains your mouth,
And you choose the tongue of shrewd people.

6 Your mouth pronounces you wicked, and not I;
And your own lips answer against you.

7 Were you the very first man to be born,
Or before the hills were you brought forth with labor pains?

8 To the confidential talk of God do you listen,
And do you limit wisdom to yourself?

9 What do you actually know that we do not know?
What do you understand that is not also with us?

10 Both the gray-headed and the aged one are with us,
The one greater than your father in days.

11 Are the consolations of God not enough for you,
Or a word spoken gently with you?

12 Why does your heart carry you away,
And why do your eyes flash?

13 For you turn your spirit against God himself,
And you have caused words to go forth from your own mouth.

14 What is mortal man that he should be clean,
Or that anyone born of a woman should be in the right?

15 Look! In his holy ones he has no faith,
And the heavens themselves are actually not clean in his eyes.

16 How much less so when one is detestable and corrupt,
A man who is drinking in unrighteousness just like water!

17 I shall declare it to you. Listen to me!
Even this I have beheld, so let me relate it,

18 That which wise ones themselves tell
And which they did not hide, it being from their fathers.

19 To them alone the land was given,

And no stranger passed through the midst of them.
20 All his days a wicked one is suffering torture,
Even the very number of years that have been reserved for the tyrant.
21 The sound of dreadful things is in his ears;
During peace a despoiler himself comes upon him.
22 He does not believe that he will come back out of darkness,
And he is reserved for a sword.
23 He is straying about in search of bread—where is it?
He well knows that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.
24 Distress and anguish keep terrifying him;
They overpower him like a king in readiness for the assault.
25 Because he stretches out his hand against God himself,
And over the Almighty he tries to show himself superior;
26 Because he runs against him stiff-neckedly,
With the thick bosses of his shields;
27 Because he actually covers his face with his fattiness
And he puts on fat upon his loins,
28 He merely resides in cities that are to be effaced;
In houses in which people will not keep dwelling,
Which certainly prove destined for heaps of stones.
29 He will not grow rich and his wealth will not mount up,
Nor will he spread out the acquisition of them over the earth.
30 He will not turn away from darkness;
His twig a flame will dry up,
And he will turn aside by a blast of His mouth.
31 Let him put no faith in worthlessness, being led astray,
For mere worthlessness will prove to be what he gets in exchange;
32 Before his day will it be fulfilled.
And his shoot itself will certainly not grow luxuriantly.
33 He will thrust away his unripe grapes just like a vine,
And cast off his blossoms just like an olive tree.
34 For the assembly of apostates is sterile,
And fire itself must eat up the tents of bribery.
35 There is a conceiving of trouble and a giving birth to what is hurtful,
And their belly itself prepares deceit.”

16 And Job proceeded to answer and say:

2 “I have heard many things like these.
All of YOU are troublesome comforters!

3 Is there an end to windy words?
Or what galls you, that you answer?

4 I myself also could well speak as YOU men do.
If only YOUR souls existed where my soul is,
Would I be brilliant in words against YOU,
And would I wag my head against YOU?

5 I would strengthen YOU with the words of my mouth,
And the consolation of my own lips would hold back—.

6 If I do speak, my own pain is not held back,
And if I do cease doing so, what goes away from me?

7 Only now he has made me weary;
He has made all those assembling with me desolate.

8 You also seize me. It has become a witness,
So that my leanness rises up against me. In my face it testifies.

9 His very anger has torn me to pieces, and he harbors animosity against me.
He actually grinds his teeth against me.
My adversary himself sharpens his eyes against me.

10 They have opened their mouth wide against me,
With reproach they have struck my cheeks,
In large number they mass themselves against me.

11 God hands me over to young boys,
And into the hands of wicked ones he throws me headlong.

12 I had come to be at ease, but he proceeded to shake me up;
And he grabbed me by the back of the neck and proceeded to smash me,
And he sets me up as a target for himself.

13 His archers encircle me;
He splits open my kidneys and feels no compassion;
He pours out my gallbladder to the very earth.

14 He keeps breaking through me with breach after breach;
He runs at me like a mighty one.

15 Sackcloth I have sewed together over my skin,
And I have thrust my horn in the very dust.

16 My face itself has become reddened from weeping,
And upon my eyelids there is deep shadow,

17 Although there is no violence upon my palms,

And my prayer is pure.
18 O earth, do not cover my blood!
And let there prove to be no place for my outcry!
19 Also now, look! in the heavens is one testifying about me,
And my witness is in the heights.
20 My companions are spokesmen against me;
To God my eye has looked sleeplessly.
21 And the decision is to be made between an able-bodied man and God,
The same as between a son of man and his fellow.
22 For just a few years are to come,
And by the path by which I shall not return I shall go away.

17 “My very spirit has been broken, my own days have been extinguished;
The graveyard is for me.
2 Certainly there is mockery at me,
And amid their rebellious behavior my eye lodges.
3 Please, do put my security with yourself.
Who else is there that will shake hands with me in pledge?
4 For their heart you have closed to discretion.
That is why you do not exalt them.
5 He may tell companions to take their shares,
But the very eyes of his sons will fail.
6 And he has set me forth as a proverbial saying of peoples,
So that I become someone into whose face to spit.
7 And from vexation my eye grows dimmer
And my members are all of them like the shadow.
8 Upright people stare in amazement at this,
And even the innocent one gets excited over the apostate.
9 The righteous one keeps holding fast to his way,
And the one with clean hands keeps increasing in strength.
10 However, YOU men may all of YOU resume. So come on, please,
As I do not find anyone wise among YOU.
11 My own days have passed along, my own plans have been torn apart,
The wishes of my heart.
12 Night they keep putting for day:
‘Light is near on account of darkness.’
13 If I keep waiting, She′ol is my house;
In the darkness I shall have to spread out my lounge.
14 To the pit I shall have to call out, ‘You are my father!’
To the maggot, ‘My mother and my sister!’
15 So where, then, is my hope?
And my hope—who is it that beholds it?
16 To the bars of She′ol they will go down,
When we, all together, must descend to the very dust.”

18 And Bil′dad the Shu′hite proceeded to answer and say:

2 “How long will YOU people be at putting an end to words?
YOU should understand, that afterward we may speak.

3 Why should we be reckoned as beasts
And be regarded as unclean in YOUR eyes?

4 He is tearing his soul to pieces in his anger.
For your sake will the earth be abandoned,
Or a rock move away from its place?

5 The light also of wicked ones will be extinguished
And the spark of his fire will not shine.

6 A light itself will certainly grow dark in his tent,
And in it his own lamp will be extinguished.

7 His steps of vigor will become cramped.
Even his counsel will cast him off.

8 For he will indeed be let go into a net by his feet,
And onto a network he will walk.

9 A trap will seize him by the heel;
A snare keeps hold upon him.

10 A cord for him is hidden on the earth,
And a catching device for him on his pathway.

11 Round about, sudden terrors certainly make him start up in fright,
And indeed chase him at his feet.

12 His vigor becomes famished,
And disaster stands ready to make him limp.

13 It will eat the pieces of his skin;
The firstborn of death will eat his limbs.

14 His confidence will be torn away from his own tent
And it will march him to the king of terrors.

15 There will reside in his tent something that is not his;
Sulphur will be strewed upon his own abiding place.

16 Underneath will his very roots dry up,
And, up above, his bough will wither.

17 The very mentioning of him will certainly perish from the earth,
And he will have no name out in the street.

18 They will push him out of the light into the darkness,
And from the productive land they will chase him away.

19 He will have no posterity and no progeny among his people,

And there will be no survivor in his place of alien residence.
20 At his day the people in the West will indeed stare in amazement,
And a shudder will certainly seize even the people in the East.
21 Only these are the tabernacles of a wrongdoer,
And this is the place of one that has not known God.”

19 And Job proceeded to answer and say:

2 “How long will YOU men keep irritating my soul
And keep crushing me with words?

3 These ten times YOU proceeded to rebuke me;
YOU are not ashamed that YOU deal so hard with me.

4 And, granted that I have made a mistake,
It is with me that my mistake will lodge.

5 If for a fact against me YOU men do put on great airs,
And YOU show my reproach to be proper against me,

6 KNOW, then, that God himself has misled me,
And his hunting net he has closed in upon me.

7 Look! I keep crying out, ‘Violence!’ but I get no answer;
I keep crying for help, but there is no justice.

8 My very path he has blocked with a stone wall, and I cannot pass over;
And upon my roadways he puts darkness itself.

9 My own glory he has stripped from me,
And he takes away the crown of my head.

10 He pulls me down on all sides, and I go away;
And he pulls my hope out just like a tree.

11 His anger also grows hot against me,
And he keeps reckoning me as an adversary of his.

12 Unitedly his troops come and cast up their way against me,
And they camp round about my tent.

13 My own brothers he has put far away from me,
And the very ones knowing me have even turned aside from me.

14 My intimate acquaintances have ceased to be,
And those known by me have themselves forgotten me,

15 Those residing as aliens in my house; and my slave girls themselves reckon me as a stranger;
A real foreigner I have become in their eyes.

16 To my servant I have called, but he does not answer.
With my own mouth I keep imploring him for compassion.

17 My breath itself has become loathsome to my wife,
And I have become foul-smelling to the sons of my mother’s belly.

18 Also young boys themselves have rejected me;
Let me but rise up, and they begin to speak against me.

19 All the men of my intimate group detest me,

And those whom I loved have turned against me.
20 To my skin and to my flesh my bones actually cleave,
And I escape with the skin of my teeth.
21 Show me some favor, show me some favor, O YOU my companions,
For God’s own hand has touched me.
22 Why do YOU men keep persecuting me as God does,
And not become satisfied with my very flesh?
23 O that now my words were written down!
O that in a book they were even inscribed!
24 With an iron stylus and with lead,
Forever in the rock O that they were hewn!
25 And I myself well know that my redeemer is alive,
And that, coming after me, he will rise up over the dust.
26 And after my skin, which they have skinned off,—this!
Yet reduced in my flesh I shall behold God,
27 Whom even I shall behold for myself,
And whom my very eyes will certainly see, but not some stranger.
My kidneys have failed deep within me.
28 For YOU men say, ‘Why do we keep persecuting him?’
When the very root of the matter is found in me.
29 Be frightened for yourselves because of a sword,
For the sword means a raging against errors,
In order that YOU men may know there is a judge.”

20 And Zo′phar the Na′a·ma·thite proceeded to reply and say:

2 “Therefore do my own disquieting thoughts themselves answer me,
Even on account of my inward excitement.
3 An insulting exhortation to me I hear;
And a spirit without the understanding that I have replies to me.
4 Have you at all times known this very thing,
Since man was put upon the earth,
5 That the joyful cry of wicked people is short
And the rejoicing of an apostate is for a moment?
6 Although his excellency ascends to heaven itself
And his very head reaches to the clouds,
7 Like his manure cakes he perishes forever;
The very ones seeing him will say, ‘Where is he?’
8 Like a dream he will fly off, and they will not find him;
And he will be chased away like a vision of the night.
9 The eye that has caught sight of him will not do so again,
And no more will his place behold him.
10 His own sons will seek the favor of lowly people,
And his own hands will give back his valuable things.
11 His own bones have been full of his youthful vigor,
But with him it will lie down in mere dust.
12 If what is bad tastes sweet in his mouth,
If he causes it to melt away under his tongue,
13 If he has compassion upon it and does not leave it,
And if he keeps holding it back in the midst of his palate,
14 His food itself will certainly be changed in his own intestines;
It will be the gall of cobras within him.
15 Wealth he has swallowed down, but he will vomit it up;
God will drive it out from his very belly.
16 The venom of cobras he will suck;
The tongue of a viper will kill him.
17 He will never see the watercourses,
Torrential streams of honey and butter.
18 He will be giving back his acquired property and will not swallow it down;
Like wealth from his trade, but which he will not enjoy.
19 For he has crushed to pieces, he has left lowly ones;

He has snatched away a house itself that he did not proceed to build.
20 For he will certainly know no ease in his belly;
By means of his desirable things he will not escape.
21 There is nothing left over for him to devour;
That is why his well-being will not endure.
22 While his plenty is at its peak he will be feeling anxious;
All the power of misfortune itself will come against him.
23 Let it occur that, to fill his belly,
He will send his burning anger upon him
And will rain it upon him, into his bowels.
24 He will run away from armor of iron;
A bow of copper will cut him up.
25 A missile itself will even go out through his back,
And a glittering weapon out through his gall;
Frightful objects will go against him.
26 All darkness will be reserved for his treasured things;
A fire that no one fanned will eat him up;
It will go badly with a survivor in his tent.
27 Heaven will uncover his error,
And earth will be in revolt against him.
28 A heavy shower will roll his house away;
There will be things poured forth on the day of his anger.
29 This is the share of the wicked man from God,
Even his stated inheritance from God.”

21 And Job proceeded to answer and say:

2 “Listen, YOU men, attentively to my word,
And let this become YOUR consolation.

3 Put up with me, and I myself shall speak;
And after my speaking you may each deride.

4 As for me, is my concern expressed to man?
Or why is it that my spirit does not get impatient?

5 Turn YOUR faces to me and stare in amazement,
And put YOUR hand upon YOUR mouth.

6 And if I have remembered, I have also become disturbed,
And shuddering has taken hold of my flesh.

7 Why is it that the wicked themselves keep living,
Have grown old, also have become superior in wealth?

8 Their offspring are firmly established with them in their sight,
And their descendants before their eyes.

9 Their houses are peace itself, free from dread,
And the rod of God is not upon them.

10 His own bull actually impregnates, and it does not waste semen;
His cow brings forth and suffers no abortion.

11 They keep sending out their young boys just like a flock,
And their own male children go skipping about.

12 They continue raising their voice with the tambourine and harp,
And keep rejoicing at the sound of the pipe.

13 They spend their days in good times,
And in a moment down to She′ol they descend.

14 And they say to the true God, ‘Turn away from us!
And in the knowledge of your ways we have found no delight.

15 What does the Almighty amount to, that we should serve him,
And how do we benefit ourselves in that we have come in touch with him?’

16 Look! Their well-being is not in their own power.
The very counsel of wicked ones has kept far from me.

17 How many times is the lamp of the wicked ones extinguished,
And how many times does their disaster come upon them?

How many times in his anger does he apportion destruction?

18 Do they become like straw before a wind,
And like chaff that a storm wind has stolen away?

19 God himself will store up one’s hurtfulness for one’s own sons;
He will reward him that he may know it.
20 His eyes will see his decay,
And from the rage of the Almighty he will drink.
21 For what will his delight be in his house after him,
When the number of his months will really be cut in two?
22 Will he teach knowledge even to God,
When that One himself judges high ones?
23 This very one will die during his full self-sufficiency,
When he is altogether carefree and at ease;
24 When his own thighs have become full of fat
And the very marrow of his bones is being kept moist.
25 And this other one will die with a bitter soul
When he has not eaten of good things.
26 Together in the dust they will lie down
And maggots themselves will form a cover over them.
27 Look! I well know the thoughts of YOU men
And the schemes with which YOU would act violently against me.
28 For YOU say, ‘Where is the house of the noble one,
And where is the tent, the tabernacles of wicked ones?’
29 Have YOU not asked those traveling over the roads?
And do YOU not carefully inspect their very signs,
30 That at the day of disaster an evil one is spared,
At the day of fury he is delivered?
31 Who will tell him of his way to his very face?
And for what he himself has done who will reward him?
32 As for him, to the graveyard he will be brought,
And over a tomb a vigil will be kept.
33 To him the clods of earth of a torrent valley will certainly become sweet,
And after him he will drag all mankind,
And those before him were without number.
34 So how vainly YOU men try to comfort me,
And YOUR very replies do remain as unfaithfulness!”

22 And El′i·phaz the Te′man·ite proceeded to answer and say:

2 “Can an able-bodied man be of use to God himself,
That anyone having insight should be of use toward him?

3 Does the Almighty have any delight in that you are righteous,
Or any gain in that you make your way blameless?

4 For your reverence will he reprove you,
Will he come with you into the judgment?

5 Is not your own badness too much already,
And will there be no end to your errors?

6 For you seize a pledge from your brothers without cause,
And you strip off even the garments of naked people.

7 You do not give the tired one a drink of water,
And from the hungry one you hold back bread.

8 As for a man of strength, the land is his,
And one who is treated with partiality himself dwells in it.

9 Widows you have sent away empty-handed,
And the arms of fatherless boys are crushed.

10 That is why bird traps are all around you,
And sudden dread disturbs you;

11 Or darkness, so that you cannot see,
And a heaving mass of water itself covers you.

12 Is not God the height of heaven?
Also see the sum total of the stars, that they are high.

13 And yet you have said: ‘What does God really know?
Through thick gloom can he judge?

14 Clouds are a concealment place for him so that he does not see,
And on the vault of heaven he walks about.’

15 Will you keep to the very way of long ago
That hurtful men have trodden,

16 Men who have been snatched away before their time,
Whose foundation is poured away just as a river,

17 Who are saying to the true God: ‘Turn away from us!
And what can the Almighty accomplish against us?’

18 Yet he himself has filled their houses with good things;
And the very counsel of wicked ones has kept far from me.

19 The righteous ones will see and rejoice,

And the innocent one himself will hold them in derision:
20 ‘Truly our antagonists have been effaced;
And what is left of them a fire will certainly eat up.’
21 Acquaint yourself, please, with him, and keep peace;
Thereby good things will come to you.
22 Take, please, the law from his own mouth,
And put his sayings in your heart.
23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up;
If you will keep unrighteousness far from your tent,
24 And if there is a placing of precious ore in the dust
And gold of O′phir in the rock of torrent valleys,
25 The Almighty also will indeed become your precious ores,
And silver, the choicest, to you.
26 For then in the Almighty you will find your exquisite delight,
And you will raise your face to God himself.
27 You will make entreaty to him, and he will hear you;
And your vows you will pay.
28 And you will decide on something, and it will stand for you;
And upon your ways light will certainly shine.
29 For there must be a humiliation when you speak arrogantly;
But one with downcast eyes he will save.
30 He will rescue an innocent man,
And you will certainly be rescued for the cleanness of your hands.”

23 And Job proceeded to answer and say:

2 “Even today my state of concern is rebelliousness;
My own hand is heavy on account of my sighing.
3 O that I really knew where I might find him!
I would come clear to his fixed place.
4 I would present before him a case of justice,
And my mouth I would fill with counterarguments;
5 I would know the words with which he answers me,
And I would consider what he says to me.
6 Would he with an abundance of power contend with me?
O no! Surely he himself would pay heed to me.
7 There the upright one himself will certainly set matters straight with him,
And I would go safe forever from my judge.
8 Look! To the east I go, and he is not there;
And back again, and I cannot discern him;
9 To the left where he is working, but I cannot behold him;
He turns aside to the right, but I do not see him.
10 For he well knows the way I take.
After he has tested me out, I shall come forth as gold itself.
11 Of his steps my foot has laid hold;
His way I have kept, and I do not deviate.
12 From the commandment of his lips I do not move away.
I have treasured up the sayings of his mouth more than what is prescribed for me.
13 And he is in one mind, and who can resist him?
And his own soul has a desire, and he will do it.
14 For he will carry out completely what is prescribed for me,
And things like these are many with him.
15 That is why I feel disturbed because of him;
I show myself attentive and am in dread of him.
16 Even God himself has made my heart timid,
And the Almighty himself has disturbed me.
17 For I have not been put to silence because of darkness,
Nor because gloom has covered my own face.

24 “Why is it that times have not been stored up by the Almighty himself,
And the very ones knowing him have not beheld his days?

2 There are those who move back boundary marks;
A drove they have snatched away, that they may shepherd it.

3 They drive off even the male ass of fatherless boys;
They seize the widow’s bull as a pledge.

4 They turn aside the poor ones from the way;
At the same time the afflicted of the earth have kept themselves hidden.

5 Look! As zebras in the wilderness
They have gone forth in their activity, looking for food.
The desert plain gives to each one bread for the boys.

6 In the field its fodder they harvest,
And the vineyard of the wicked one they hastily despoil.

7 Naked, they pass the night without a garment,
And without any covering in the cold.

8 From the rainstorm of the mountains they get drenched,
And because there is no shelter they have to hug a rock.

9 They snatch away a fatherless boy even from the breast,
And what is on the afflicted one they take as a pledge.

10 Naked, they have to go about without a garment,
And, hungry, they have to carry the reaped ears.

11 Between the terrace walls they pass the noontime;
Winepresses they have to tread, and yet they go thirsty.

12 From out of the city the dying keep groaning,
And the soul of deadly wounded ones cries for help;
And God himself considers it not as anything improper.

13 As for them, they proved to be among the rebels against light;
They did not recognize its ways,
And they did not dwell in its roadways.

14 At daylight the murderer gets up,
He proceeds to slay the afflicted and the poor one;
And during the night he becomes a regular thief.

15 As for the eye of the adulterer, it has watched for evening darkness, Saying, ‘No eye will behold me!’
And over his face he puts a covering.

16 In the darkness he has dug into houses;
By day they must keep themselves locked in.
They have not known daylight.

17 For morning is the same as deep shadow for them,

For they recognize what the sudden terrors of deep shadow are.
18 He is swift on the surface of the waters.
Their tract of land will be cursed in the earth.
He will not turn toward the way of the vineyards.
19 The drought, also the heat, snatch away the snow waters;
So does She′ol those who have sinned!
20 The womb will forget him, the maggot will sweetly suck him,
He will be remembered no more.
And unrighteousness will be broken just like a tree.
21 He is having dealings with a barren woman who does not bear,
And with a widow, to whom he does no good.
22 And he will certainly draw away strong people by his power;
He will rise up and not be sure of his life.
23 He will grant him to become confident that he may support himself;
And his eyes will be upon their ways.
24 They have become high up a little while, then they are no more,
And they have been brought low; like everyone else they are plucked off,
And like the head of an ear of grain they are cut off.
25 So really now, who will make me out a liar
Or reduce my word to nothing?”

25 And Bil′dad the Shu′hite proceeded to answer and say:

2 “Rulership and dreadfulness are with him;
He is making peace on his heights.

3 Is there any number to his troops?
And upon whom does his light not rise?

4 So how can mortal man be in the right before God,
Or how can one born of a woman be clean?

5 Look! There is even the moon, and it is not bright;
And the stars themselves have not proved clean in his eyes.

6 How much less so mortal man, who is a maggot,
And a son of man, who is a worm!”

26 And Job proceeded to answer and say:

2 “O how much help you have been to one without power!
O how you have saved an arm that is without strength!
3 How much you have advised one that is without wisdom,
And you have made practical wisdom itself known to the multitude!
4 To whom have you told words,
And whose breath has come forth from you?
5 Those impotent in death keep trembling
Beneath the waters and those residing in them.
6 She′ol is naked in front of him,
And the place of destruction has no covering.
7 He is stretching out the north over the empty place,
Hanging the earth upon nothing;
8 Wrapping up the waters in his clouds,
So that the cloud mass is not split under them;
9 Enclosing the face of the throne,
Spreading out over it his cloud.
10 He has described a circle upon the face of the waters,
To where light ends in darkness.
11 The very pillars of heaven shake,
And they are amazed because of his rebuke.
12 By his power he has stirred up the sea,
And by his understanding he has broken the stormer to pieces.
13 By his wind he has polished up heaven itself,
His hand has pierced the gliding serpent.
14 Look! These are the fringes of his ways,
And what a whisper of a matter has been heard of him!
But of his mighty thunder who can show an understanding?”

27 And Job proceeded again to lift up his proverbial utterance and went on to say:

2 “As God lives, who has taken away my judgment,
And as the Almighty lives, who has made my soul bitter,

3 While my breath is yet whole within me,
And the spirit of God is in my nostrils,

4 My lips will speak no unrighteousness
And my own tongue will mutter no deceit!

5 It is unthinkable on my part that I should declare YOU men righteous!
Until I expire I shall not take away my integrity from myself!

6 On my justness I have laid hold, and I shall not let it go;
My heart will not taunt me for any of my days.

7 Let my enemy become in every way a wicked man,
And the one revolting against me really a wrongdoer.

8 For what is the hope of an apostate in case he cuts him off,
In case God carries off his soul from him?

9 Will God hear an outcry of his
In case distress comes upon him?

10 Or in the Almighty will he find exquisite delight?
Will he call to God at all times?

11 I shall instruct YOU men by the hand of God;
That which is with the Almighty I shall not hide.

12 Look! YOU yourselves have all of YOU seen visions;
So why is it that YOU show yourselves utterly vain?

13 This is the share of the wicked man from God;
And the inheritance of the tyrants they will receive from the Almighty himself.

14 If his sons become many, it is for a sword;
And his descendants themselves will not have enough food.

15 His own survivors will be buried during a deadly plague,
And their own widows will not weep.

16 If he should pile up silver like dust itself,
And he should prepare attire just as if clay,

17 He would prepare, but the righteous would be the one to clothe himself,
And in the silver the innocent would be the one to have a share.

18 He has built his house like a mere moth,
And like a booth that a watchman has made.

19 Rich he will lie down, but nothing will be gathered;
His eyes he has opened, but there will be nothing.
20 Like waters sudden terrors will overtake him;
At night a storm wind will certainly steal him away.
21 An east wind will carry him off and he will go away,
And it will whirl him away from his place.
22 And it will hurl itself at him and have no compassion;
From its power he will without fail try to run away.
23 One will clap his hands at him
And will whistle at him from his place.

28 “Indeed, for silver there exists a place to find it
And a place for gold that they refine;

2 Iron itself is taken from the very dust
And from stone copper is being poured out.

3 An end to the darkness he has set;
And to every limit he is searching out
Stone in the gloom and deep shadow.

4 He has sunk a shaft far from where people reside as aliens, Places forgotten far from the foot;
Some of mortal men have swung down, they have dangled.

5 As for the earth, out of it food goes forth;
But underneath it, it has been upturned as if by fire.

6 Its stones are the place of the sapphire,
And it has gold dust.

7 A pathway—no bird of prey has known it,
Nor has the eye of a black kite caught sight of it.

8 The majestic wild beasts have not trodden it down solid;
The young lion has not paced over it.

9 Upon the flint he has thrust out his hand;
He has overthrown mountains from their root;

10 Into the rocks he has channeled water-filled galleries,
And all precious things his eye has seen.

11 The places from which rivers trickled he has dammed up,
And the concealed thing he brings forth to the light.

12 But wisdom—where can it be found,
And where, now, is the place of understanding?

13 Mortal man has not come to know its valuation,
And it is not found in the land of those living.

14 The watery deep itself has said,
‘It is not in me!’
The sea too has said, ‘It is not with me!’

15 Pure gold cannot be given in exchange for it,
And silver cannot be weighed out as its price.

16 It cannot be paid for with gold of O′phir,
With the rare onyx stone and the sapphire.

17 Gold and glass cannot be compared to it,
Nor is any vessel of refined gold an exchange for it.

18 Coral and rock crystal themselves will not be mentioned,
But a bagful of wisdom is worth more than one full of pearls.

19 The topaz of Cush cannot be compared to it;
It cannot be paid for even with gold in its purity.

20 But wisdom itself—from where does it come,
And where, now, is the place of understanding?

21 It has been hidden even from the eyes of everyone alive,
And from the flying creatures of the heavens it has been concealed.

22 Destruction and death themselves have said,
‘With our ears we have heard a report of it.’

23 God is the One who has understood its way,
And he himself has known its place,

24 For he himself looks to the very ends of the earth;
Under the whole heavens he sees,

25 To make a weight for the wind,
While he has proportioned the waters themselves by a measure;

26 When he made for the rain a regulation,
And a way for the thunderous storm cloud,

27 Then it was that he saw wisdom and proceeded to tell about it;
He prepared it and also searched it through.

28 And he went on to say to man,
‘Look! The fear of Jehovah—that is wisdom,
And to turn away from bad is understanding.’”

29 And Job proceeded again to lift up his proverbial utterance and went on to say:

2 “O that I were as in the lunar months of long ago,
As in the days when God was guarding me;
3 When he caused his lamp to shine upon my head,
When I would walk through darkness by his light;
4 Just as I happened to be in the days of my prime,
When intimacy with God was at my tent;
5 When the Almighty was yet with me,
When my attendants were all around me!
6 When I washed my steps in butter,
And the rock kept pouring out streams of oil for me;
7 When I went forth to the gate by the town,
In the public square I would prepare my seat!
8 The boys saw me and hid themselves,
And even the aged ones rose up, they stood.
9 Princes themselves restrained words,
And the palm they would put upon their mouth.
10 The voice of the leaders themselves was hidden,
And their very tongue cleaved to their palate.
11 For the ear itself listened and proceeded to pronounce me happy,
And the eye itself saw and proceeded to bear witness for me.
12 For I would rescue the afflicted one crying for help,
And the fatherless boy and anyone that had no helper.
13 The blessing of the one about to perish—upon me it would come,
And the heart of the widow I would make glad.
14 With righteousness I clothed myself, and it was clothing me.
My justice was like a sleeveless coat—and a turban.
15 Eyes I became to the blind one;
And feet to the lame one I was.
16 I was a real father to the poor ones;
And the legal case of one whom I did not know—I would examine it.
17 And I would break the jawbones of the wrongdoer,
And from his teeth I would tear away the prey.
18 And I used to say, ‘Within my nest I shall expire,
And like the grains of sand I shall multiply my days.
19 My root is opened for the waters,

And dew itself will stay overnight upon my bough.
20 My glory is fresh with me,
And my bow in my hand will shoot repeatedly.’
21 To me they listened; and they waited,
And they would keep silent for my counsel.
22 After my word they would not speak again,
And upon them my word would drip.
23 And they waited for me as for the rain,
And their mouth they opened wide for the spring rain.
24 I would smile at them—they would not believe it—
And the light of my face they would not cast down.
25 I would choose the way for them, and I was sitting as head;
And I resided as a king among his troops,
As one who comforts the mourners.

30 “And now they have laughed at me,
Those younger in days than I am,
Whose fathers I would have refused
To place with the dogs of my flock.

2 Even the power of their hands—of what use was it to me?
In them vigor has perished.

3 Because of want and hunger they are sterile,
Gnawing at a waterless region,
Where yesterday there were storm and desolation.

4 They were plucking the salt herb by the bushes,
And the root of broom trees was their food.

5 From the community they would be driven away;
People would shout at them as at a thief.

6 They have to reside on the very slope of torrent valleys,
In holes of the dust and in rocks.

7 Among the bushes they would cry out;
Under the nettles they would huddle together.

8 Sons of the senseless one, also sons of the nameless one,
They have been scourged out of the land.

9 And now I have become even the theme of their song,
And I am to them for a byword.

10 They have detested me, they have kept themselves far from me;
And from my face they did not hold back their spit.

11 For he loosened my own bowstring and proceeded to humble me,
And the bridle they left loose on my account.

12 At my right hand they rise up as a brood;
My feet they have let go,
But they proceeded to cast up against me their disastrous barriers.

13 They have torn down my roadways;
They were beneficial only for adversity to me,
Without their having any helper.

14 As through a wide gap they proceed to come;
Under a storm they have rolled along.

15 Sudden terrors have been turned upon me;
My noble bearing is chased like the wind,
And like a cloud my salvation has passed away.

16 And now my soul is poured out within me;
Days of affliction take hold upon me.

17 At night my very bones have been bored through and dropped from off me,

And pains gnawing me do not take any rest.
18 By the abundance of power my garment takes on a change;
Like the collar of my long garment it engirdles me.
19 He has brought me down to the clay,
So that I show myself like dust and ashes.
20 I cry to you for help, but you do not answer me;
I have stood, that you might show yourself attentive to me.
21 You change yourself to become cruel to me;
With the full might of your hand you harbor animosity toward me.
22 You lift me to the wind, you cause me to ride it;
Then you dissolve me with a crash.
23 For I well know that to death you will make me turn back,
And to the house of meeting for everyone living.
24 Only no one thrusts his hand out against a mere heap of ruins, Nor during one’s decay is there a cry for help respecting those things.
25 Certainly I have wept for the one having a hard day;
My soul has grieved for the poor one.
26 Although for good I waited, yet bad came;
And I kept awaiting the light, but gloom came.
27 My own intestines were made to boil and did not keep silent;
Days of affliction confronted me.
28 Saddened I walked about when there was no sunlight;
I got up in the congregation, I kept crying for help.
29 A brother to jackals I became,
And a companion to the daughters of the ostrich.
30 My very skin became black and dropped off me,
And my very bones became hot from dryness.
31 And my harp came to be merely for mourning,
And my pipe for the voice of weeping ones.

31 “A covenant I have concluded with my eyes.
So how could I show myself attentive to a virgin?
2 And what portion is there from God above,
Or inheritance from the Almighty from on high?
3 Is there not disaster for a wrongdoer,
And misfortune for those practicing what is hurtful?
4 Does he not himself see my ways
And count even all my steps?
5 If I have walked with men of untruth,
And my foot hastens to deception,
6 He will weigh me in accurate scales
And God will get to know my integrity.
7 If my stepping deviates from the way,
Or my heart has walked merely after my eyes,
Or any defect has stuck in my own palms,
8 Let me sow seed and someone else eat,
And let my own descendants be rooted out.
9 If my heart has been enticed toward a woman,
And I kept lying in wait at the very entranceway of my companion,
10 Let my wife do the grinding for another man,
And over her let other men kneel down.
11 For that would be loose conduct,
And that would be an error for attention by the justices.
12 For that is a fire that would eat clear to destruction,
And among all my produce it would take root.
13 If I used to refuse the judgment of my slave man
Or of my slave girl in their case at law with me,
14 Then what can I do when God rises up?
And when he calls for an accounting, what can I answer him?
15 Did not the One making me in the belly make him,
And did not just One proceed to prepare us in the womb?
16 If I used to hold back the lowly ones from their delight,
And the eyes of the widow I would cause to fail,
17 And I used to eat my morsel by myself,
While the fatherless boy did not eat from it
18 (For from my youth he grew up with me as with a father,
And from the belly of my mother I kept leading her);
19 If I used to see anyone perishing from having no garment,

Or that the poor one had no covering;
20 If his loins did not bless me,
Nor from the shorn wool of my young rams he would warm himself;
21 If I waved my hand to and fro against the fatherless boy,
When I would see need of my assistance in the gate,
22 Let my own shoulder blade fall from its shoulder,
And let my own arm be broken from its upper bone.
23 For disaster from God was a dread to me,
And against his dignity I could not hold out.
24 If I have put gold as my confidence,
Or to gold I have said, ‘You are my trust!’
25 If I used to rejoice because my property was much,
And because my hand had found a lot of things;
26 If I used to see the light when it would flash forth,
Or the precious moon walking along,
27 And my heart began to be enticed in secrecy
And my hand proceeded to kiss my mouth,
28 That too would be an error for attention by the justices,
For I should have denied the true God above.
29 If I used to rejoice at the extinction of one intensely hating me,
Or I felt excited because evil had found him—
30 And I did not allow my palate to sin
By asking for an oath against his soul.
31 If the men of my tent did not say,
‘Who can produce anyone that has not been satisfied from food of his?’—
32 Outside no alien resident would spend the night;
My doors I kept open to the path.
33 If like an earthling man I covered over my transgressions
By hiding my error in my shirt pocket—
34 Because I would suffer a shock at a large crowd,
Or the contempt itself of families would terrorize me
And I would keep silent, I would not go out of the entrance.
35 O that I had someone listening to me,
That according to my signature the Almighty himself would answer me!
Or that the individual in the case at law with me had written a document itself!
36 Surely upon my shoulder I would carry it;
I would bind it around me like a grand crown.
37 The number of my steps I would tell him;
Like a leader I would approach him.
38 If against me my own ground would cry for aid,

And together its furrows themselves would weep;
39 If its fruitage I have eaten without money,
And the soul of its owners I have caused to pant,
40 Instead of wheat let the thorny weed go forth,
And instead of barley stinking weeds.”

The words of Job have come to an end.

32 So these three men ceased from answering Job, for he was righteous in his own eyes. [2] But the anger of E·li′hu the son of Bar′a·chel the Buz′ite of the family of Ram came to be hot. Against Job his anger blazed over his declaring his own soul righteous rather than God. [3] Also, against his three companions his anger blazed over the fact that they had not found an answer but they proceeded to pronounce God wicked. [4] And E·li′hu himself had waited for Job with words, because they were older than he was in days. [5] And E·li′hu gradually saw that there was no answer in the mouth of the three men, and his anger kept getting hotter. [6] And E·li′hu the son of Bar′a·chel the Buz′ite proceeded to answer and say:

“Young I am in days
And YOU men are aged.
That is why I drew back and was afraid
To declare my knowledge to YOU men.

[7] I said, ‘Days themselves should speak,
And a multitude of years are what should make wisdom known.’

[8] Surely it is the spirit in mortal men
And the breath of the Almighty that gives them understanding.

[9] It is not those merely abundant in days that prove wise,
Nor those just old that understand judgment.

[10] Therefore I said, ‘Do listen to me.
I shall declare my knowledge, even I.’

[11] Look! I have waited for the words of YOU men,
I kept giving ear to YOUR reasonings,
Until YOU could search for words to say.

[12] And to YOU I kept my attention turned,
And here there is no one reproving Job,
None of YOU answering his sayings,

[13] That YOU may not say, ‘We have found wisdom;
It is God that drives him away, not a man.’

[14] As he has not arrayed words against me,
So with the sayings of YOU men I shall not reply to him.

[15] They have been terrified, they have answered no more;

Words have moved away from them.
16 And I have waited, for they do not continue speaking;
For they stood still, they answered no more.
17 I shall give in answer my part, even I;
I shall declare my knowledge, even I;
18 For I have become full of words;
Spirit has brought pressure upon me in my belly.
19 Look! My belly is like wine that has no vent;
Like new skin bottles it wants to burst open.
20 Let me speak that it may be a relief to me.
I shall open my lips that I may answer.
21 Let me not, please, show partiality to a man;
And on an earthling man I shall not bestow a title;
22 For I certainly do not know how I can bestow a title;
Easily my Maker would carry me away.

33 “Now, however, O Job, please hear my words,
And to all my speaking do give ear.

2 Look, please! I have to open my mouth;
My tongue with my palate has to speak.

3 My sayings are the uprightness of my heart,
And knowledge is what my lips do utter sincerely.

4 God’s own spirit made me,
And the Almighty’s own breath proceeded to bring me to life.

5 If you are able, make reply to me,
Array words before me; do take your station.

6 Look! I am to the true God just what you are;
From the clay I was shaped, I too.

7 Look! No frightfulness in me will terrify you,
And no pressure by me will be heavy upon you.

8 Only you have said in my ears,
And the sound of your words I kept hearing,

9 ‘I am pure without transgression;
Clean I am, and I have no error.

10 Look! Occasions for opposition to me he finds,
He takes me for an enemy of his.

11 He puts my feet in the stocks,
He watches all my paths.’

12 Look! In this you have not been in the right, I answer you;
For God is much more than mortal man.

13 Why is it against him that you contended,
Because all your words he does not answer?

14 For God speaks once,
And twice—though one does not regard it—

15 In a dream, a vision of the night,
When deep sleep falls upon men,
During slumbers upon the bed.

16 It is then that he uncovers the ear of men,
And on exhortation to them he puts his seal,

17 To turn aside a man from his deed,
And that he may cover pride itself from an able-bodied man.

18 He keeps his soul back from the pit
And his life from passing away by a missile.

19 And he is actually reproved with pain upon his bed,

And the quarreling of his bones is continual.
20 And his life certainly makes bread loathsome,
And his own soul desirable food.
21 His flesh wastes away from sight,
And his bones that were not seen certainly grow bare.
22 And his soul draws near to the pit,
And his life to those inflicting death.
23 If there exists for him a messenger,
A spokesman, one out of a thousand,
To tell to man his uprightness,
24 Then he favors him and says,
'Let him off from going down into the pit!
I have found a ransom!
25 Let his flesh become fresher than in youth;
Let him return to the days of his youthful vigor.'
26 He will make entreaty to God that he may take pleasure in him,
And he will see his face with joyful shouting,
And He will restore His righteousness to mortal man.
27 He will sing to men and say,
'I have sinned; and what is upright I have perverted,
And it certainly was not the proper thing for me.
28 He has redeemed my soul from passing into the pit,
And my life itself will see the light.'
29 Look! All these things God performs,
Two times, three times, in the case of an able-bodied man,
30 To turn his soul back from the pit,
That he may be enlightened with the light of those living.
31 Pay attention, O Job! Listen to me!
Keep silent, and I myself shall continue speaking.
32 If there are any words to say, make reply to me;
Speak, for I have taken delight in your righteousness.
33 If there are none, you yourself listen to me;
Keep silent, and I shall teach you wisdom."

34 And E·liʹhu continued to answer and say:

2 “Listen, YOU wise ones, to my words;
And YOU who know, give ear to me.

3 For the ear itself makes a test of words,
Just as the palate tastes when eating.

4 Judgment let us choose for ourselves;
Let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 For Job has said, ‘I certainly am in the right,
But God himself has turned aside the judgment of me.

6 Against my own judgment do I tell lies?
My severe wound is incurable though there is no transgression.’

7 What able-bodied man is like Job,
Who drinks up derision like water?

8 And he is certainly on his way to companionship with practicers of what is hurtful
And to walking with men of wickedness.

9 For he has said, ‘An able-bodied man does not profit
By his taking pleasure in God.’

10 Therefore, YOU men of heart, listen to me.
Far be it from the true God to act wickedly,
And the Almighty to act unjustly!

11 For according to the way earthling man acts he will reward him,
And according to the path of man he will cause it to come upon him.

12 Yes, for a fact, God himself does not act wickedly,
And the Almighty himself does not pervert judgment.

13 Who has assigned to him the earth,
And who has appointed to him the productive land, even all of it?

14 If he sets his heart upon anyone,
If that one’s spirit and breath he gathers to himself,

15 All flesh will expire together,
And earthling man himself will return to the very dust.

16 So if you have understanding, do listen to this;
Do give ear to the sound of my words.

17 Really will anyone hating justice control,
And if a powerful one is righteous will you pronounce him wicked?

18 Shall one say to a king, ‘You are good for nothing’?
To nobles, ‘You are wicked’?

19 There is One who has not shown partiality to princes
And has not given more consideration to the noble one than to the lowly one,
For all of them are the work of his hands.

20 In a moment they die, even in the middle of the night;
The people shake back and forth and pass away,
And powerful ones depart by no hand.

21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man,
And all his steps he sees.

22 There is no darkness nor any deep shadow
For those practicing what is hurtful to conceal themselves there.

23 For he sets no appointed time for any man
To go to God in judgment.

24 He breaks powerful ones without any investigation,
And he makes others stand up instead of them.

25 Therefore he recognizes what their works are,
And he does overthrow them at night, and they get crushed.

26 As wicked ones he does slap them
In the place of onlookers;

27 For the reason that they have turned aside from following him,
And none of his ways have they considered,

28 So as to cause the outcry of the lowly one to come to him;
And so he hears the outcry of the afflicted ones.

29 When he himself causes quietness, who, then, can condemn?
And when he conceals his face, who can behold him,
Whether it is toward a nation or toward a man, it being the same thing?

30 So that an apostate man may not reign,
Nor there be snares of the people.

31 For will anyone actually say to God himself,
‘I have borne, although I do not act corruptly;

32 Although I behold nothing, instruct me yourself;
If any unrighteousness I have committed,
I shall not do it again’?

33 Will he make good for it from your standpoint because you do refuse judgment,
Because you yourself choose, and not I?
Even what you well know, speak.

34 Men of heart themselves will say to me—
Even a wise able-bodied man that is listening to me,

35 ‘Job himself speaks without knowledge,
And his words are without his having insight.’

36 My father, let Job be tested out to the limit

Over his replies among men of hurtfulness.
37 For on top of his sin he adds revolt;
Among us he claps his hands and multiplies his sayings against the true God! ”

35 And E·liʹhu continued answering and saying:

2 “Is this what you have regarded as justice?
You have said, ‘My righteousness is more than God’s.’

3 For you say, ‘Of what use is it to you?
What benefit do I have more than by my sinning?’

4 I myself shall reply to you
And to your companions with you.

5 Look up to heaven and see,
And behold the clouds, that they are indeed higher than you.

6 If you actually sin, what do you accomplish against him?
And if your revolts actually increase, what do you do to him?

7 If you are really in the right, what do you give him,
Or what does he receive from your own hand?

8 Your wickedness may be against a man like you,
And your righteousness to a son of earthling man.

9 Because of the multitude of oppressions they keep calling for aid;
They keep crying for help because of the arm of the great ones.

10 And yet no one has said, ‘Where is God my Grand Maker,
The One giving melodies in the night?’

11 He is the One teaching us more than the beasts of the earth,
And he makes us wiser than even the flying creatures of the heavens.

12 There they keep crying out, but he does not answer,
Because of the pride of the bad ones.

13 Only the untruth God does not hear,
And the Almighty himself does not behold it.

14 How much less, then, when you say you do not behold him!
The legal case is before him, and so you should wait anxiously for him.

15 And now because his anger has not called for an accounting,
He has also not taken note of the extreme rashness.

16 And Job himself opens his mouth wide simply for nothing;
Without knowledge he multiplies mere words.”

36 And E·li′hu proceeded to say further:

2 “Have patience with me a little while, and I shall declare to you
That there are yet words to say for God.

3 I shall carry my knowledge from far off,
And to my Fashioner I shall ascribe righteousness.

4 For my words are for a fact no falsehood;
The One perfect in knowledge is with you.

5 Look! God is mighty and will not reject;
He is mighty in power of heart;

6 He will not preserve anyone wicked alive,
But the judgment of the afflicted ones he will give.

7 He will not take away his eyes from anyone righteous;
Even kings on the throne—
He will also seat them forever, and they will be exalted.

8 And if they are bound in fetters,
They are captured with ropes of affliction.

9 Then he will tell them about the way they act
And their transgressions, because they take a superior air.

10 And he will uncover their ear to exhortation,
And he will say that they should turn back from what is hurtful.

11 If they obey and serve,
They will finish their days in what is good
And their years in pleasantness.

12 But if they do not obey, they will pass away even by a missile,
And they will expire without knowledge.

13 And those apostate in heart will themselves lay up anger.
They should not cry for help because he has bound them.

14 Their soul will die in youth itself,
And their life among male temple prostitutes.

15 He will rescue the afflicted one in his affliction,
And he will uncover their ear in the oppression.

16 And he will also certainly allure you from the mouth of distress!
Broader space, not constraint, will be in its place,
And the consolation of your table will be full of fatness.

17 With the judicial sentence upon the wicked one you will certainly be filled;
Judicial sentence and justice will themselves take hold.

18 For take care that rage does not allure you into spiteful handclapping,
And let not a large ransom itself lead you astray.

19 Will your cry for help take effect? No, nor in distress
Even all your powerful efforts.
20 Do not pant for the night,
For peoples to retreat from where they are.
21 Be on your guard that you do not turn to what is hurtful,
For this you have chosen rather than affliction.
22 Look! God himself acts exaltedly with his power;
Who is an instructor like him?
23 Who has called his way to account against him,
And who has said, ‘You have committed unrighteousness’?
24 Remember that you should magnify his activity
Of which men have sung.
25 All mankind themselves have gazed upon it;
Mortal man himself keeps looking from far off.
26 Behold! God is more exalted than we can know;
In number his years are beyond searching.
27 For he draws up the drops of water;
They filter as rain for his mist,
28 So that the clouds trickle,
They drip upon mankind abundantly.
29 Indeed, who can understand the cloud layers,
The crashings from his booth?
30 Look! He has spread out over it his light,
And the roots of the sea he has covered.
31 For by them he pleads the cause of peoples;
He gives food in abundance.
32 In his hands he has covered over the lightning,
And he lays a command upon it against an assailant.
33 His booming tells about him,
The livestock also concerning the one coming up.

37 “Indeed at this my heart begins to tremble,
And it leaps up from its place.

2 Listen attentively, YOU men, to the rumbling of his voice,
And the growling that goes forth from his mouth.

3 Under the whole heavens he lets it loose,
And his lightning is to the extremities of the earth.

4 After it a sound roars;
He thunders with the sound of his superiority,
And he does not hold them back when his voice is heard.

5 God thunders with his voice in a wonderful way,
Doing great things that we cannot know.

6 For to the snow he says, ‘Fall earthward,’
And to the downpour of rain, even to the downpour of his strong rains.

7 On the hand of every earthling man he puts a seal
For every mortal man to know his work.

8 And the wild beast comes into the ambush,
And in its hiding places it dwells.

9 Out of the interior room comes the storm wind
And out of the north winds the cold.

10 By the breath of God the ice is given
And the breadth of waters is under constraint.

11 Yes, with moisture he burdens the cloud,
His light scatters the cloud mass,

12 And it is being turned round about by his steering them for their performance
Wherever he commands them upon the face of the productive land of the earth.

13 Whether for a rod or for his land
Or for loving-kindness, he makes it produce effects.

14 Do give ear to this, O Job;
Stand still and show yourself attentive to the wonderful works of God.

15 Do you know when God laid an appointment upon them,
And when he caused the light of his cloud to beam?

16 Do you know about the poisings of the cloud,
The wonderful works of the One perfect in knowledge?

17 How your garments are hot
When the earth shows quietness from the south?

18 With him can you beat out the skies
Hard like a molten mirror?

19 Let us know what we should say to him;
We cannot produce words because of darkness.

20 Should it be related to him that I would speak?
Or has any man said that it will be communicated?

21 And now they do not really see the light;
It is brilliant in the skies,
When a wind itself has passed by and proceeded to cleanse them.

22 Out of the north golden splendor comes.
Upon God dignity is fear-inspiring.

23 As for the Almighty, we have not found him out;
He is exalted in power,
And justice and abundance of righteousness he will not belittle.

24 Therefore let men fear him.
He does not regard any who are wise in their own heart.”

38 And Jehovah proceeded to answer Job out of the windstorm and say:

2 “Who is this that is obscuring counsel
By words without knowledge?

3 Gird up your loins, please, like an able-bodied man,
And let me question you, and you inform me.

4 Where did you happen to be when I founded the earth?
Tell me, if you do know understanding.

5 Who set its measurements, in case you know,
Or who stretched out upon it the measuring line?

6 Into what have its socket pedestals been sunk down,
Or who laid its cornerstone,

7 When the morning stars joyfully cried out together,
And all the sons of God began shouting in applause?

8 And who barricaded the sea with doors,
Which began to go forth as when it burst out from the womb;

9 When I put the cloud as its garment
And thick gloom as its swaddling band,

10 And I proceeded to break up my regulation upon it
And to set a bar and doors,

11 And I went on to say, ‘This far you may come, and no farther;
And here your proud waves are limited’?

12 Was it from your days onward that you commanded the morning?
Did you cause the dawn to know its place,

13 To take hold on the extremities of the earth,
That the wicked ones might be shaken out from it?

14 It transforms itself like clay under a seal,
And things take their station as in clothing.

15 And from the wicked ones their light is held back,
And the high arm itself gets broken.

16 Have you come to the sources of the sea,
Or in search of the watery deep have you walked about?

17 Have the gates of death been uncovered to you,
Or the gates of deep shadow can you see?

18 Have you intelligently considered the broad spaces of the earth?
Tell, if you have come to know it all.

19 Where, now, is the way to where light resides?

As for darkness, where, now, is its place,
20 That you should take it to its boundary
And that you should understand the roadways to its house?
21 Have you come to know because at that time you were being born,
And because in number your days are many?
22 Have you entered into the storehouses of the snow,
Or do you see even the storehouses of the hail,
23 Which I have kept back for the time of distress,
For the day of fight and war?
24 Where, now, is the way by which the light distributes itself,
And the east wind scatters about upon the earth?
25 Who has divided a channel for the flood
And a way for the thunderous storm cloud,
26 To make it rain upon the land where there is no man,
Upon the wilderness in which there is no earthling man,
27 To satisfy storm-stricken and desolate places
And to cause the growth of grass to sprout?
28 Does there exist a father for the rain,
Or who gave birth to the dewdrops?
29 Out of whose belly does the ice actually come forth,
And as for the hoarfrost of heaven, who indeed brings it to birth?
30 The very waters keep themselves hidden as by stone,
And the surface of the watery deep makes itself compact.
31 Can you tie fast the bonds of the Ki′mah constellation,
Or can you loosen the very cords of the Ke′sil constellation?
32 Can you bring forth the Maz′za·roth constellation in its appointed time?
And as for the Ash constellation alongside its sons, can you conduct them?
33 Have you come to know the statutes of the heavens,
Or could you put its authority in the earth?
34 Can you raise your voice even to the cloud,
So that a heaving mass of water itself may cover you?
35 Can you send forth lightnings that they may go
And say to you, ‘Here we are!’?
36 Who put wisdom in the cloud layers,
Or who gave understanding to the sky phenomenon?
37 Who can exactly number the clouds in wisdom,
Or the water jars of heaven—who can tip them over,
38 When the dust pours out as into a molten mass,
And the clods of earth themselves get stuck together?
39 Can you hunt prey for a lion itself
And can you satisfy the lively appetite of young lions,

40 When they crouch in the hiding places,
Or keep lying in the covert for an ambush?
41 Who prepares for the raven its food
When its own young ones cry to God for help,
When they keep wandering about because there is nothing to eat?

39 “Have you come to know the appointed time for the mountain goats of the crag to give birth?
Do you observe just when the hinds bring forth with birth pangs?
2 Do you count the lunar months that they fulfill,
Or have you come to know the appointed time that they give birth?
3 They bow down when they cast forth their young ones,
When they get rid of their pangs.
4 Their sons become robust, they get big in the open field;
They actually go forth and do not return to them.
5 Who sent forth the zebra free,
And who loosened the very bands of the wild ass,
6 Whose house I have appointed the desert plain
And whose dwelling places the salt country?
7 It laughs at the turmoil of a town;
The noises of a stalker it does not hear.
8 It explores mountains for its pasturage
And after every sort of green plant it seeks.
9 Does a wild bull want to serve you,
Or will it spend the night by your manger?
10 Will you bind a wild bull fast with its ropes in the furrow,
Or will it harrow low plains after you?
11 Will you trust in it because its power is abundant,
And will you leave your toil to it?
12 Will you rely on it that it will bring back your seed
And that it will gather to your threshing floor?
13 Has the wing of the female ostrich flapped joyously,
Or has she the pinions of a stork and the plumage?
14 For she leaves her eggs to the earth itself
And in the dust she keeps them warm,
15 And she forgets that some foot may crush them
Or even a wild beast of the field may tread on them.
16 She does treat her sons roughly, as if not hers—
In vain is her toil because she has no dread.
17 For God has made her forget wisdom,
And he has not given her a share in understanding.
18 At the time she flaps her wings on high,
She laughs at the horse and at its rider.
19 Can you give to the horse mightiness?

Can you clothe its neck with a rustling mane?
20 Can you cause it to leap like a locust?
The dignity of its snorting is frightful.
21 It paws in the low plain and exults in power;
It goes forth to meet armor.
22 It laughs at dread, and is not terrified;
Nor does it turn back on account of a sword.
23 Against it a quiver rattles,
The blade of a spear and a javelin.
24 With pounding and excitement it swallows up the earth,
And it does not believe that it is the sound of a horn.
25 As soon as the horn blows it says Aha!
And from far off it smells the battle,
The uproar of chiefs and the war cry.
26 Is it owing to your understanding that the falcon soars up,
That it spreads its wings to the south wind?
27 Or is it at your order that an eagle flies upward
And that it builds its nest high up,
28 That on a crag it resides and stays during the night
Upon the tooth of a crag and an inaccessible place?
29 From there it has to search for food;
Far into the distance its eyes keep looking.
30 And its young ones themselves keep sipping up blood;
And where the slain are, there it is.”

40 And Jehovah proceeded to answer Job and say:

2 “Should there be any contending of a faultfinder with the Almighty?
Let the reprover of God himself answer it.”

3 And Job went on to answer Jehovah and say:

4 “Look! I have become of little account.
What shall I reply to you?
My hand I have put over my mouth.

5 Once have I spoken, and I will not answer;
And twice, and I will add nothing.”

6 And Jehovah went on to answer Job out of the windstorm and say:

7 “Gird up your loins, please, like an able-bodied man;
I shall question you, and you inform me.

8 Really, will you invalidate my justice?
Will you pronounce me wicked in order that you may be in the right?

9 Or do you have an arm like that of the true God,
And with a voice like his can you make it thunder?

10 Deck yourself, please, with superiority and highness;
And with dignity and splendor may you clothe yourself.

11 Let flow the furious outbursts of your anger,
And see every one haughty and bring him low.

12 See every one haughty, humble him,
And tread down the wicked right where they are.

13 Hide them together in the dust,
Bind their very faces in the hidden place,

14 And I, even I, shall commend you,
Because your right hand can save you.

15 Here, now, is Be·heʹmoth that I have made as well as you.
Green grass it eats just as a bull does.

16 Here, now, its power is in its hips,
And its dynamic energy in the tendons of its belly.

17 It bends down its tail like a cedar;
The sinews of its thighs are interwoven.

18 Its bones are tubes of copper;
Its strong bones are like wrought-iron rods.

19 It is the beginning of the ways of God;
Its Maker can bring near his sword.

20 For the mountains themselves bear their produce for it,
And all the wild beasts of the field themselves play there.

21 Under the thorny lotus trees it lies down,
In the concealed place of reeds and the swampy place.

22 The thorny lotus trees keep it blocked off with their shadow;
The poplars of the torrent valley surround it.

23 If the river acts violently, it does not run in panic.
It is confident, although the Jordan should burst forth against its mouth.

24 Before its eyes can anyone take it?
With snares can anyone bore its nose?

41 “Can you draw out Le·viʹa·than with a fishhook,
Or with a rope can you hold down its tongue?

2 Can you put a rush in its nostrils,
Or with a thorn can you bore its jaws?

3 Will it make many entreaties to you,
Or will it say soft words to you?

4 Will it conclude a covenant with you,
That you may take it as a slave to time indefinite?

5 Will you play with it as with a bird,
Or will you tie it for your young girls?

6 Will partners barter for it?
Will they divide it up among tradesmen?

7 Will you fill its skin with harpoons,
Or its head with fish spears?

8 Put your hand upon it.
Remember the battle. Do not do it again.

9 Look! One’s expectation about it will certainly be disappointed.
One will also be hurled down at the mere sight of it.

10 None is so audacious that he should stir it up.
And who is it that can hold his ground before me?

11 Who has given me something first, that I ought to reward him?
Under the whole heavens it is mine.

12 I shall not keep silent about its parts
Or the matter of its mightiness and the grace of its proportions.

13 Who has uncovered the face of its clothing?
Into its double jaw who will enter?

14 The doors of its face who has opened?
Its teeth round about are frightful.

15 Furrows of scales are its haughtiness,
Closed as with a tight seal.

16 One to the other they fit closely,
And not even air can come in between them.

17 Each one to the other they are stuck together;
They grasp one another and cannot be separated.

18 Its very sneezings flash forth light,
And its eyes are like the beams of dawn.

19 Out of its mouth there go lightning flashes,
Even sparks of fire make their escape.

20 Out of its nostrils smoke goes forth,
Like a furnace set aflame even with rushes.

21 Its soul itself sets coals ablaze,
And even a flame goes forth out of its mouth.

22 In its neck lodges strength,
And before it despair leaps.

23 The folds of its flesh do cling together;
They are as a casting upon it, immovable.

24 Its heart is cast like stone,
Yes, cast like a lower millstone.

25 Due to its rising up the strong get frightened;
Due to consternation they get bewildered.

26 Overtaking it, the sword itself does not prove equal,
Nor spear, dart or arrowhead.

27 It regards iron as mere straw,
Copper as mere rotten wood.

28 An arrow does not chase it away;
The slingstones have been changed for it into mere stubble.

29 A club has been regarded by it as mere stubble,
And it laughs at the rattling of a javelin.

30 As pointed earthenware fragments are its underparts;
It spreads out a threshing instrument upon the mire.

31 It causes the depths to boil just like a pot;
It makes the very sea like an ointment pot.

32 Behind itself it makes a pathway shine;
One would regard the watery deep as gray-headedness.

33 Upon the dust there is not the like of it,
The one made to be without terror.

34 Everything high it sees.
It is king over all majestic wild beasts.”

42 And Job proceeded to answer Jehovah and say:

[2] “I have come to know that you are able to do all things,
And there is no idea that is unattainable for you.

[3] ‘Who is this that is obscuring counsel without knowledge?’
Therefore I talked, but I was not understanding Things too wonderful for me, which I do not know.

[4] ‘Hear, please, and I myself shall speak.
I shall question you, and you inform me.’

[5] In hearsay I have heard about you,
But now my own eye does see you.

[6] That is why I make a retraction,
And I do repent in dust and ashes.”

[7] And it came about after Jehovah had spoken these words to Job, that Jehovah proceeded to say to El′i·phaz the Te′man·ite:

“My anger has grown hot against you and your two companions, for YOU men have not spoken concerning me what is truthful as has my servant Job. [8] And now take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job, and YOU men must offer up a burnt sacrifice in YOUR own behalf; and Job my servant will himself pray for YOU. His face only I shall accept so as not to commit disgraceful folly with YOU, for YOU have not spoken concerning me what is truthful, as has my servant Job.”

[9] Accordingly El′i·phaz the Te′man·ite and Bil′dad the Shu′hite and Zo′phar the Na′a·ma·thite went and did just as Jehovah had spoken to them; and so Jehovah accepted Job’s face.

[10] And Jehovah himself turned back the captive condition of Job when he prayed in behalf of his companions, and Jehovah began to give in addition all that had been Job’s, in double amount. [11] And there kept coming to him all his brothers and all his sisters and all those formerly knowing him, and they began to eat bread with him in his house and to sympathize with him and to comfort him over all the calamity that Jehovah had let come upon him; and they proceeded each one to give him a piece of money and each one a gold ring.

12 As for Jehovah, he blessed the end of Job afterward more than his beginning, so that he came to have fourteen thousand sheep and six thousand camels and a thousand spans of cattle and a thousand she-asses. 13 He also came to have seven sons and three daughters. 14 And he went calling the name of the first Je·miʹmah and the name of the second Ke·ziʹah and the name of the third Kerʹen-hapʹpuch. 15 And no women were found as pretty as Job’s daughters in all the land, and their father proceeded to give them an inheritance in among their brothers.

16 And Job continued living after this a hundred and forty years and came to see his sons and his grandsons—four generations. 17 And gradually Job died, old and satisfied with days.

BOOK ONE

(Psalms 1 – 41)

1 Happy is the man that has not walked in the counsel of the wicked ones,
And in the way of sinners has not stood,
And in the seat of ridiculers has not sat.

2 But his delight is in the law of Jehovah,
And in his law he reads in an undertone day and night.

3 And he will certainly become like a tree planted by streams of water,
That gives its own fruit in its season
And the foliage of which does not wither,
And everything he does will succeed.

4 The wicked are not like that,
But are like the chaff that the wind drives away.

5 That is why the wicked ones will not stand up in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the assembly of righteous ones.

6 For Jehovah is taking knowledge of the way of righteous ones,
But the very way of wicked ones will perish.

2 Why have the nations been in tumult
And the national groups themselves kept muttering an empty thing?

[2] The kings of earth take their stand
And high officials themselves have massed together as one Against Jehovah and against his anointed one,

[3] Saying: “Let us tear their bands apart
And cast their cords away from us!”

[4] The very One sitting in the heavens will laugh;
Jehovah himself will hold them in derision.

[5] At that time he will speak to them in his anger
And in his hot displeasure he will disturb them,

[6] Saying: “I, even I, have installed my king Upon Zion, my holy mountain.”

[7] Let me refer to the decree of Jehovah;
He has said to me: “You are my son;
I, today, I have become your father.

[8] Ask of me, that I may give nations as your inheritance
And the ends of the earth as your own possession.

[9] You will break them with an iron scepter,
As though a potter’s vessel you will dash them to pieces.”

[10] And now, O kings, exercise insight;
Let yourselves be corrected, O judges of the earth.

[11] Serve Jehovah with fear
And be joyful with trembling.

[12] Kiss the son, that He may not become incensed
And YOU may not perish from the way,
For his anger flares up easily.
Happy are all those taking refuge in him.

A melody of David when he was running away on account of Ab′sa·lom his son.

3 O Jehovah, why have my adversaries become many?
Why are many rising up against me?

2 Many are saying of my soul:
“There is no salvation for him by God.” Se′lah.

3 And yet you, O Jehovah, are a shield about me,
My glory and the One lifting up my head.

4 With my voice I shall call to Jehovah himself,
And he will answer me from his holy mountain. Se′lah.

5 As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep;
I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me.

6 I shall not be afraid of ten thousands of people
Who have set themselves in array against me round about.

7 Do arise, O Jehovah! Save me, O my God!
For you will have to strike all my enemies on the jaw.
The teeth of wicked ones you will have to break.

8 Salvation belongs to Jehovah.
Your blessing is upon your people. Se′lah.

To the director on stringed instruments. A melody of David.

4 When I call, answer me, O my righteous God.
In the distress you must make broad space for me.
Show me favor and hear my prayer.

2 YOU sons of men, how long must my glory be for insult,
While YOU keep loving empty things,
While YOU keep seeking to find a lie? Se′lah.

3 So take knowledge that Jehovah will certainly distinguish his loyal one;
Jehovah himself will hear when I call to him.

4 BE agitated, but do not sin.
Have YOUR say in YOUR heart, upon YOUR bed, and keep silent. Se′lah.

5 Sacrifice the sacrifices of righteousness,
And trust in Jehovah.

6 There are many saying: “Who will show us good?”
Lift up the light of your face upon us, O Jehovah.

7 You will certainly give a rejoicing in my heart
Greater than in the time when their grain and their new wine have abounded.

8 In peace I will both lie down and sleep,
For you yourself alone, O Jehovah, make me dwell in security.

To the director for Neʹhi·loth. A melody of David.

5 To my sayings do give ear, O Jehovah;
Do understand my sighing.

2 Do pay attention to the sound of my cry for help,
O my King and my God, because to you I pray.

3 O Jehovah, in the morning you will hear my voice;
In the morning I shall address myself to you and be on the watch.

4 For you are not a God taking delight in wickedness;
No one bad may reside for any time with you.

5 No boasters may take their stand in front of your eyes.
You do hate all those practicing what is hurtful;

6 You will destroy those speaking a lie.
A man of bloodshed and deception Jehovah detests.

7 As for me, in the abundance of your loving-kindness
I shall come into your house,
I shall bow down toward your holy temple in fear of you.

8 O Jehovah, lead me in your righteousness by reason of my foes;
Make your way smooth before me.

9 For in their mouth there is nothing trustworthy;
Their inward part is adversity indeed.
Their throat is an opened burial place;
A smooth tongue they use.

10 God will certainly hold them guilty;
They will fall due to their own counsels.
In the multitude of their transgressions let there be a dispersing of them,
Because they have rebelled against you.

11 But all those taking refuge in you will rejoice;
To time indefinite they will cry out joyfully.
And you will block approach to them,
And those loving your name will exult in you.

12 For you yourself will bless anyone righteous, O Jehovah;
As with a large shield, with approval you will surround them.

PSALMS

To the director on stringed instruments on the lower octave. A melody of David.

6 O Jehovah, do not in your anger reprove me,
And do not in your rage correct me.
2 Show me favor, O Jehovah, for I am fading away.
Heal me, O Jehovah, for my bones have been disturbed.
3 Yes, my own soul has been very much disturbed;
And you, O Jehovah—how long?
4 Do return, O Jehovah, do rescue my soul;
Save me for the sake of your loving-kindness.
5 For in death there is no mention of you;
In She′ol who will laud you?
6 I have grown weary with my sighing;
All night long I make my couch swim;
With my tears I make my own divan overflow.
7 From vexation my eye has become weak,
It has grown old because of all those showing hostility to me.
8 Get away from me, all YOU practicers of what is hurtful,
For Jehovah will certainly hear the sound of my weeping.
9 Jehovah will indeed hear my request for favor;
Jehovah himself will accept my own prayer.
10 All my enemies will be very much ashamed and disturbed;
They will turn back, they will be ashamed instantly.

A dirge of David that he sang to Jehovah concerning the words of Cush the Ben′ja·min·ite.

7 O Jehovah my God, in you I have taken refuge.
Save me from all those persecuting me and deliver me,
2 That no one may tear my soul to pieces as a lion does,
Snatching me away when there is no deliverer.
3 O Jehovah my God, if I have done this,
If there exists any injustice in my hands,
4 If I have repaid the one rewarding me with what is bad,
Or if I have despoiled anyone showing hostility to me without success,
5 Let an enemy pursue my soul
And let him overtake and trample my life down to the very earth
And cause my own glory to reside in the dust itself. Se′lah.
6 Do arise, O Jehovah, in your anger;
Lift yourself up at the outbursts of fury of those showing hostility to me,
And do awake for me, since you have given command for judgment itself.
7 And let the very assembly of national groups surround you,
And against it do you return on high.
8 Jehovah himself will pass sentence on the peoples.
Judge me, O Jehovah, according to my righteousness
And according to my integrity in me.
9 Please, may the badness of wicked ones come to an end,
And may you establish the righteous one;
And God as righteous is testing out heart and kidneys.
10 The shield for me is upon God, a Savior of those upright in heart.
11 God is a righteous Judge,
And God is hurling denunciations every day.
12 If anyone will not return, His sword he will sharpen,
His bow he will certainly bend, and he will make it ready for shooting.
13 And for himself he must prepare the instruments of death;
His arrows he will make flaming ones.
14 Look! There is one that is pregnant with what is hurtful,
And he has conceived trouble and is bound to give birth to falsehood.
15 A pit he has excavated, and he proceeded to dig it;
But he will fall into the hole that he went making.
16 His trouble will return upon his own head,
And upon the crown of his head his own violence will descend.
17 I shall laud Jehovah according to his righteousness,
And I will make melody to the name of Jehovah the Most High.

To the director upon the Gitʹtith. A melody of David.

8 O Jehovah our Lord, how majestic your name is in all the earth,
You whose dignity is recounted above the heavens!

2 Out of the mouth of children and sucklings you have founded strength,
On account of those showing hostility to you,
So as to make the enemy and the one taking his vengeance desist.

3 When I see your heavens, the works of your fingers,
The moon and the stars that you have prepared,

4 What is mortal man that you keep him in mind,
And the son of earthling man that you take care of him?

5 You also proceeded to make him a little less than godlike ones,
And with glory and splendor you then crowned him.

6 You make him dominate over the works of your hands;
Everything you have put under his feet:

7 Small cattle and oxen, all of them,
And also the beasts of the open field,

8 The birds of heaven and the fish of the sea,
Anything passing through the paths of the seas.

9 O Jehovah our Lord, how majestic your name is in all the earth!

To the director upon Muth-lab′ben. A melody of David.

א [’A′leph]

9 I will laud you, O Jehovah, with all my heart;
I will declare all your wonderful works.
2 I will rejoice and exult in you,
I will make melody to your name, O Most High.

ב [Behth]

3 When my enemies turn back,
They will stumble and perish from before you.
4 For you have executed my judgment and my cause;
You have sat on the throne judging with righteousness.

ג [Gi′mel]

5 You have rebuked nations, you have destroyed the wicked one.
Their name you have wiped out to time indefinite, even forever.
6 O you enemy, your desolations have come to their perpetual finish,
And the cities that you have uprooted.
The very mention of them will certainly perish.

ה [He’]

7 As for Jehovah, he will sit to time indefinite, Firmly establishing his throne for judgment itself.
8 And he himself will judge the productive land in righteousness;
He will judicially try national groups in uprightness.

ו [Waw]

9 And Jehovah will become a secure height for anyone crushed,
A secure height in times of distress.
10 And those knowing your name will trust in you,
For you will certainly not leave those looking for you, O Jehovah.

ז [Za′yin]

11 Make melody, YOU people, to Jehovah, who is dwelling in Zion;
Tell among the peoples his deeds.
12 For, when looking for bloodshed, he will certainly remember those very ones;
He is sure not to forget the outcry of the afflicted ones.

ח [Chehth]

13 Show me favor, O Jehovah; see my affliction by those hating me,
O you who are lifting me up from the gates of death,
14 In order that I may declare all your praiseworthy deeds
In the gates of the daughter of Zion,
That I may be joyful in your salvation.

ט [Tehth]

15 The nations have sunk down into the pit that they have made;
In the net that they hid, their own foot has been caught.
16 Jehovah is known by the judgment that he has executed.
By the activity of his own hands the wicked one has been ensnared.
Hig·ga′ion. Se′lah.

י [Yohdh]

17 Wicked people will turn back to She′ol,
Even all the nations forgetting God.
18 For not always will the poor one be forgotten,
Nor will the hope of the meek ones ever perish.

כ [Kaph]

19 Do arise, O Jehovah! Let not mortal man prove superior in strength.
Let the nations be judged before your face.
20 Do put fear into them, O Jehovah,
That the nations may know that they are but mortal men. Se′lah.

ל [La′medh]

10 Why, O Jehovah, do you keep standing afar off?
Why do you keep yourself hid in times of distress?

2 In his haughtiness the wicked one hotly pursues the afflicted one;
They get caught by the ideas that they have thought up.

3 For the wicked has praised himself over the selfish longing of his soul,
And the one making undue profit has blessed himself;

נ [Nun]

He has disrespected Jehovah.

4 The wicked one according to his superciliousness makes no search;
All his ideas are: “There is no God.”

5 His ways keep prospering all the time.
Your judicial decisions are high up out of his range;
As for all those showing hostility to him, he puffs at them.

6 He has said in his heart: “I shall not be made to totter;
For generation after generation I shall be one who is in no calamity.”

פ [Pe′]

7 His mouth is full of oaths and of deceptions and of oppression.
Under his tongue are trouble and what is hurtful.

8 He sits in an ambush of settlements;
From concealed places he will kill someone innocent.

ע [ʽA′yin]

His eyes are on the lookout for someone unfortunate.

9 He keeps lying in wait in the concealed place like a lion in his covert.
He keeps lying in wait to carry off some afflicted one by force.
He carries off the afflicted one by force when he draws his net shut.

10 He is crushed, he bows down,
And the army of dejected ones has to fall into his strong claws.

11 He has said in his heart: “God has forgotten.
He has concealed his face.
He will certainly never see it.”

ק [Qohph]

12 Do arise, O Jehovah. O God, lift up your hand.
Do not forget the afflicted ones.
13 Why is it that the wicked one has disrespected God?
He has said in his heart: “You will not require an accounting.”

ר [Rehsh]

14 For you yourself have seen trouble and vexation.
You keep looking on, to get them into your hand.
To you the unfortunate one, the fatherless boy, commits himself.
You yourself have become his helper.

ש [Shin]

15 Break the arm of the wicked and bad one.
May you search after his wickedness until you find no more.
16 Jehovah is King to time indefinite, even forever.
The nations have perished out of his earth.

ת [Taw]

17 The desire of the meek ones you will certainly hear, O Jehovah.
You will prepare their heart.
You will pay attention with your ear,
18 To judge the fatherless boy and the crushed one,
That mortal man who is of the earth may no more cause trembling.

To the director. Of David.

11 In Jehovah I have taken refuge.
How dare YOU men say to my soul:
“Flee as a bird to YOUR mountain!
2 For, look! the wicked ones themselves bend the bow,
They do make ready their arrow upon the bowstring,
To shoot in the gloom at the ones upright in heart.
3 When the foundations themselves are torn down,
What must anyone righteous do?”
4 Jehovah is in his holy temple.
Jehovah—in the heavens is his throne.
His own eyes behold, his own beaming eyes examine the sons of men.
5 Jehovah himself examines the righteous one as well as the wicked one,
And anyone loving violence His soul certainly hates.
6 He will rain down upon the wicked ones traps, fire and sulphur
And a scorching wind, as the portion of their cup.
7 For Jehovah is righteous; he does love righteous acts.
The upright are the ones that will behold his face.

To the director on the lower octave. A melody of David.

12 Do save me, O Jehovah, for the loyal one has come to an end;
For faithful people have vanished from the sons of men.

2 Untruth they keep speaking one to the other;
With a smooth lip they keep speaking even with a double heart.

3 Jehovah will cut off all smooth lips,
The tongue speaking great things,

4 Those who have said: “With our tongue we shall prevail.
Our lips are with us. Who will be a master to us?”

5 “Because of the despoiling of the afflicted ones, because of the sighing of the poor ones,
I shall at this time arise,” says Jehovah.
“I shall put him in safety from anyone that puffs at him.”

6 The sayings of Jehovah are pure sayings,
As silver refined in a smelting furnace of earth, clarified seven times.

7 You yourself, O Jehovah, will guard them;
You will preserve each one from this generation to time indefinite.

8 The wicked ones walk all around,
Because vileness is exalted among the sons of men.

To the director. A melody of David.

13 How long, O Jehovah, will you forget me? Forever?
How long will you conceal your face from me?

2 How long shall I set resistance in my soul,
Grief in my heart by day?
How long will my enemy be exalted over me?

3 Do look upon me; answer me, O Jehovah my God.
Do make my eyes shine, that I may not fall asleep in death,

4 That my enemy may not say: “I have won out over him!”
That my adversaries themselves may not be joyful because I am made to stagger.

5 As for me, in your loving-kindness I have trusted;
Let my heart be joyful in your salvation.

6 I will sing to Jehovah, for he has dealt rewardingly with me.

To the director. Of David.

14 The senseless one has said in his heart:
“There is no Jehovah.”
They have acted ruinously, they have acted detestably in their dealing.
There is no one doing good.

2 As for Jehovah, he has looked down from heaven itself upon the sons of men,
To see whether there exists anyone having insight, anyone seeking Jehovah.

3 They have all turned aside, they are all alike corrupt;
There is no one doing good,
Not even one.

4 Have none of the practicers of what is hurtful got knowledge,
Eating up my people as they have eaten bread?
They have not called even upon Jehovah.

5 There they were filled with a great dread,
For Jehovah is among the generation of the righteous one.

6 The counsel of the afflicted one YOU people would put to shame, Because Jehovah is his refuge.

7 O that out of Zion there were the salvation of Israel!
When Jehovah gathers back the captive ones of his people,
Let Jacob be joyful, let Israel rejoice.

A melody of David.

15 O Jehovah, who will be a guest in your tent?
Who will reside in your holy mountain?

2 He who is walking faultlessly and practicing righteousness
And speaking the truth in his heart.

3 He has not slandered with his tongue.
To his companion he has done nothing bad,
And no reproach has he taken up against his intimate acquaintance.

4 In his eyes anyone contemptible is certainly rejected,
But those fearing Jehovah he honors.
He has sworn to what is bad for himself, and yet he does not alter.

5 His money he has not given out on interest,
And a bribe against the innocent one he has not taken.
He that is doing these things will never be made to totter.

A mik′tam of David.

16 Keep me, O God, for I have taken refuge in you.

2 I have said to Jehovah: “You are Jehovah; my goodness is, not for your sake,

3 But to the holy ones that are in the earth.
They, even the majestic ones, are the ones in whom is all my delight.”

4 Pains become many to those who, when there is someone else, do hurry after him.
I shall not pour out their drink offerings of blood,
And I shall not carry their names upon my lips.

5 Jehovah is the portion of my allotted share and of my cup.
You are holding fast my lot.

6 The measuring lines themselves have fallen for me in pleasant places.
Really, my own possession has proved agreeable to me.

7 I shall bless Jehovah, who has given me advice.
Really, during the nights my kidneys have corrected me.

8 I have placed Jehovah in front of me constantly.
Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be made to totter.

9 Therefore my heart does rejoice, and my glory is inclined to be joyful.
Also, my own flesh will reside in security.

10 For you will not leave my soul in She′ol.
You will not allow your loyal one to see the pit.

11 You will cause me to know the path of life.
Rejoicing to satisfaction is with your face;
There is pleasantness at your right hand forever.

A prayer of David.

17 Do hear what is righteous, O Jehovah; do pay attention to my entreating cry;
Do give ear to my prayer without lips of deception.
2 From before you may my judgment go forth;
May your own eyes behold uprightness.
3 You have examined my heart, you have made inspection by night,
You have refined me; you will discover that I have not schemed.
My mouth will not transgress.
4 As for the activities of men,
By the word of your lips I myself have watched against the paths of the robber.
5 Let my steps take hold on your tracks,
In which my footsteps will certainly not be made to totter.
6 I myself do call upon you, because you will answer me, O God.
Incline your ear to me. Hear my saying.
7 Make your acts of loving-kindnesses wonderful, O Savior of those seeking refuge
From the revolters against your right hand.
8 Keep me as the pupil of the eyeball,
In the shadow of your wings may you conceal me,
9 Because of the wicked who have despoiled me.
The enemies against my soul themselves keep closing in upon me.
10 They have enclosed themselves with their own fat;
With their mouth they have spoken in haughtiness;
11 As regards our steps, now they have surrounded us;
They fix their eyes to incline to the earth.
12 His likeness is that of a lion that yearns to tear to pieces
And that of a young lion sitting in concealed places.
13 Do rise up, O Jehovah; do confront him to the face;
Make him bow down; do provide escape for my soul from the wicked one with your sword,
14 From men, by your hand, O Jehovah,
From men of this system of things, whose share is in this life,
And whose belly you fill with your concealed treasure,
Who are satisfied with sons
And who do lay up for their children what they leave over.
15 As for me, in righteousness I shall behold your face;
I will be satisfied when awakening to see your form.

To the director. Of Jehovah’s servant, of David, who spoke to Jehovah the words of this song in the day that Jehovah had delivered him out of the palm of all his enemies and out of the hand of Saul. And he proceeded to say:

18 I shall have affection for you, O Jehovah my strength.

2 Jehovah is my crag and my stronghold and the Provider of escape for me.
My God is my rock. I shall take refuge in him,
My shield and my horn of salvation, my secure height.

3 On the One to be praised, Jehovah, I shall call,
And from my enemies I shall be saved.

4 The ropes of death encircled me;
Flash floods of good-for-nothing men also kept terrifying me.

5 The very ropes of She′ol surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.

6 In my distress I kept calling upon Jehovah,
And to my God I kept crying for help.
Out of his temple he proceeded to hear my voice,
And my own cry before him for help now came into his ears.

7 And the earth began to shake and rock,
And the foundations of the mountains themselves became agitated,
And they kept shaking back and forth because he had been angered.

8 Smoke went up at his nostrils, and fire itself from his mouth kept devouring;
Coals themselves blazed forth from him.

9 And he proceeded to bend the heavens down and descend.
And thick gloom was beneath his feet.

10 And he came riding upon a cherub and came flying,
And he came darting upon the wings of a spirit.

11 He then made darkness his concealment place,
All around him as his booth,
Dark waters, thick clouds.

12 Out of the brightness in front of him there were his clouds that passed by,
Hail and burning coals of fire.

13 And in the heavens Jehovah began to thunder,
And the Most High himself began to give his voice,
Hail and burning coals of fire.

14 And he kept sending out his arrows, that he might scatter them;
And lightnings he shot out, that he might throw them into confusion.

15 And the streambeds of waters became visible,
And the foundations of the productive land became uncovered
From your rebuke, O Jehovah, from the blast of the breath of your nostrils.

16 He was sending from on high, he was taking me,
He was drawing me out of great waters.

17 He was delivering me from my strong enemy,
And from those hating me; because they were stronger than I was.

18 They kept confronting me in the day of my disaster,
But Jehovah came to be as a support for me.

19 And he proceeded to bring me out into a roomy place;
He was rescuing me, because he had found delight in me.

20 Jehovah rewards me according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands he repays me.

21 For I have kept the ways of Jehovah,
And I have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judicial decisions are in front of me,
And his statutes I shall not remove from myself.

23 And I will prove myself faultless with him,
And I shall keep myself from error on my part.

24 And let Jehovah repay me according to my righteousness,
According to the cleanness of my hands in front of his eyes.

25 With someone loyal you will act in loyalty;
With the faultless, able-bodied man you will deal faultlessly;

26 With the one keeping clean you will show yourself clean;
And with the crooked one you will show yourself tortuous;

27 Because the afflicted people you yourself will save;
But the haughty eyes you will abase.

28 For you yourself will light my lamp, O Jehovah;
My God himself will make my darkness shine.

29 For by you I can run against a marauder band;
And by my God I can climb a wall.

30 As for the true God, perfect is his way;
The saying of Jehovah is a refined one.
A shield he is to all those taking refuge in him.

31 For who is a God besides Jehovah?
And who is a rock except our God?

32 The true God is the One girding me closely with vital energy,
And he will grant my way to be perfect,

33 Making my feet like those of the hinds,
And upon places high for me he keeps me standing.

34 He is teaching my hands for warfare,
And my arms have pressed down a bow of copper.

35 And you will give me your shield of salvation,
And your own right hand will sustain me,

And your own humility will make me great.
36 You will make room large enough for my steps under me,
And my ankles will certainly not wobble.
37 I shall pursue my enemies and overtake them;
And I shall not return until they are exterminated.
38 I shall break them in pieces so that they will not be able to rise up;
They will fall under my feet.
39 And you will gird me with vital energy for warfare;
You will make those rising against me collapse under me.
40 And as for my enemies, you will certainly give me the back of their neck;
And as for those hating me intensely, I shall silence them.
41 They cry for help, but there is no savior,
To Jehovah, but he actually does not answer them.
42 And I shall pound them fine like dust before the wind;
Like the mire of the streets I shall pour them out.
43 You will provide me escape from the faultfinding of the people.
You will appoint me the head of the nations.
A people that I have not known—they will serve me.
44 At mere hearsay they will be obedient to me;
Foreigners themselves will come cringing to me.
45 Foreigners themselves will fade away,
And they will come quaking out from their bulwarks.
46 Jehovah is living, and blessed be my Rock,
And let the God of my salvation be exalted.
47 The true God is the Giver of acts of vengeance to me;
And he subdues the peoples under me.
48 He is providing escape for me from my angry enemies;
Above those who rise up against me you will lift me up,
From the man of violence you will deliver me.
49 That is why I shall laud you among the nations, O Jehovah,
And to your name I will make melody.
50 He is doing great acts of salvation for his king
And exercising loving-kindness to his anointed one,
To David and to his seed to time indefinite.

To the director. A melody of David.

19 The heavens are declaring the glory of God;
And of the work of his hands the expanse is telling.

2 One day after another day causes speech to bubble forth,
And one night after another night shows forth knowledge.

3 There is no speech, and there are no words;
No voice on their part is being heard.

4 Into all the earth their measuring line has gone out,
And to the extremity of the productive land their utterances.
In them he has set a tent for the sun,

5 And it is like a bridegroom when coming out of his nuptial chamber;
It exults as a mighty man does to run in a path.

6 From one extremity of the heavens is its going forth,
And its finished circuit is to their other extremities;
And there is nothing concealed from its heat.

7 The law of Jehovah is perfect, bringing back the soul.
The reminder of Jehovah is trustworthy, making the inexperienced one wise.

8 The orders from Jehovah are upright, causing the heart to rejoice;
The commandment of Jehovah is clean, making the eyes shine.

9 The fear of Jehovah is pure, standing forever.
The judicial decisions of Jehovah are true; they have proved altogether righteous.

10 They are more to be desired than gold, yes, than much refined gold;
And sweeter than honey and the flowing honey of the combs.

11 Also, your own servant has been warned by them;
In the keeping of them there is a large reward.

12 Mistakes—who can discern?
From concealed sins pronounce me innocent.

13 Also from presumptuous acts hold your servant back;
Do not let them dominate me.
In that case I shall be complete,
And I shall have remained innocent from much transgression.

14 Let the sayings of my mouth and the meditation of my heart Become pleasurable before you, O Jehovah my Rock and my Redeemer.

To the director. A melody of David.

20 May Jehovah answer you in the day of distress.
May the name of the God of Jacob protect you.

2 May he send your help out of the holy place,
And sustain you out of Zion itself.

3 May he remember all your gift offerings,
And may he accept your burnt offering as being fat. Se′lah.

4 May he give to you according to your heart,
And all your counsel may he fulfill.

5 We will cry out joyfully because of your salvation,
And in the name of our God we shall lift our banners.
May Jehovah fulfill all your requests.

6 Now I do know that Jehovah certainly saves his anointed one.
He answers him from his holy heavens
With the saving mighty acts of his right hand.

7 Some concerning chariots and others concerning horses,
But, as for us, concerning the name of Jehovah our God we shall make mention.

8 Those very ones have broken down and fallen;
But as for us, we have risen up, that we may be restored.

9 O Jehovah, do save the king!
He will answer us in the day that we call.

To the director. A melody of David.

21 O Jehovah, in your strength the king rejoices;
And in your salvation how very joyful he wants to be!

2 The desire of his heart you have given him,
And the wish of his lips you have not withheld. Se´lah.

3 For you proceeded to meet him with blessings of good,
And to place on his head a crown of refined gold.

4 Life he asked of you. You gave it to him,
Length of days to time indefinite, even forever.

5 His glory is great in your salvation.
Dignity and splendor you put upon him.

6 For you constitute him highly blessed forever;
You make him feel glad with the rejoicing at your face.

7 For the king is trusting in Jehovah,
Even in the loving-kindness of the Most High. He will not be caused to totter.

8 Your hand will find all your enemies;
Your own right hand will find those hating you.

9 You will constitute them as a fiery furnace at the appointed time for your attention.
Jehovah in his anger will swallow them up, and the fire will devour them.

10 Their fruitage you will destroy from the very earth,
And their offspring from the sons of men.

11 For they have directed against you what is bad;
They have thought out ideas that they are unable to carry out.

12 For you will make them turn their backs in flight
By your bowstrings that you make ready against their face.

13 O be exalted in your strength, O Jehovah.
We will sing and make melody to your mightiness.

To the director upon the Hind of the Dawn. A melody of David.

22 My God, my God, why have you left me?
Why are you far from saving me,
From the words of my roaring?

2 O my God, I keep calling by day, and you do not answer;
And by night, and there is no silence on my part.

3 But you are holy,
Inhabiting the praises of Israel.

4 In you our fathers trusted;
They trusted, and you kept providing them with escape.

5 To you they cried out, and they got away safe;
In you they trusted, and they did not come to shame.

6 But I am a worm, and not a man,
A reproach to men and despicable to the people.

7 As for all those seeing me, they hold me in derision;
They keep opening their mouths wide, they keep wagging their head:

8 “He committed himself to Jehovah. Let Him provide him with escape!
Let him deliver him, since he has taken delight in him!”

9 For you were the One drawing me forth from the belly,
The One making me trust while upon the breasts of my mother.

10 Upon you I have been thrown from the womb;
From the belly of my mother you have been my God.

11 Do not keep far off from me, because distress is nearby,
Because there is no other helper.

12 Many young bulls have surrounded me;
The powerful ones of Ba′shan themselves have got around me.

13 They have opened against me their mouth,
As a lion tearing in pieces and roaring.

14 Like water I have been poured out,
And all my bones have been separated from one another.
My heart has become like wax;
It has melted deep in my inward parts.

15 My power has dried up just like a fragment of earthenware,
And my tongue is made to stick to my gums;
And in the dust of death you are setting me.

16 For dogs have surrounded me;
The assembly of evildoers themselves have enclosed me.
Like a lion they are at my hands and my feet.

17 I can count all my bones.
They themselves look, they gaze upon me.

18 They apportion my garments among themselves,
And upon my clothing they cast lots.

19 But you, O Jehovah, O do not keep far off.
O you my strength, do make haste to my assistance.

20 Do deliver from the sword my soul,
My only one from the very paw of the dog;

21 Save me from the mouth of the lion,
And from the horns of wild bulls you must answer and save me.

22 I will declare your name to my brothers;
In the middle of the congregation I shall praise you.

23 YOU fearers of Jehovah, praise him!
All YOU the seed of Jacob, glorify him!
And be frightened at him, all YOU the seed of Israel.

24 For he has neither despised
Nor loathed the affliction of the afflicted one;
And he has not concealed his face from him,
And when he cried to him for help he heard.

25 From you my praise will be in the large congregation;
My vows I shall pay in front of those fearing him.

26 The meek ones will eat and be satisfied;
Those seeking him will praise Jehovah.
May YOUR hearts live forever.

27 All the ends of the earth will remember and turn back to Jehovah.
And all the families of the nations will bow down before you.

28 For the kingship belongs to Jehovah,
And he is dominating the nations.

29 All the fat ones of the earth shall eat and will bow down;
Before him all those going down to the dust will bend down,
And no one will ever preserve his own soul alive.

30 A seed itself will serve him;
It will be declared concerning Jehovah to the generation.

31 They will come and tell of his righteousness
To the people that is to be born, that he has done this.

A melody of David.

23 Jehovah is my Shepherd.
I shall lack nothing.

2 In grassy pastures he makes me lie down;
By well-watered resting-places he conducts me.

3 My soul he refreshes.
He leads me in the tracks of righteousness for his name’s sake.

4 Even though I walk in the valley of deep shadow,
I fear nothing bad,
For you are with me;
Your rod and your staff are the things that comfort me.

5 You arrange before me a table in front of those showing hostility to me.
With oil you have greased my head;
My cup is well filled.

6 Surely goodness and loving-kindness themselves will pursue me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of Jehovah to the length of days.

Of David. A melody.

24 To Jehovah belong the earth and that which fills it,
The productive land and those dwelling in it.

2 For upon the seas he himself has solidly fixed it,
And upon the rivers he keeps it firmly established.

3 Who may ascend into the mountain of Jehovah,
And who may rise up in his holy place?

4 Anyone innocent in his hands and clean in heart,
Who has not carried My soul to sheer worthlessness,
Nor taken an oath deceitfully.

5 He will carry away blessing from Jehovah
And righteousness from his God of salvation.

6 This is the generation of those seeking him,
Of those searching for your face, O God of Jacob. Se´lah.

7 “Raise YOUR heads, O YOU gates,
And raise yourselves up, O YOU long-lasting entrances,
That the glorious King may come in! ”

8 “Who, then, is this glorious King?”
“Jehovah strong and mighty,
Jehovah mighty in battle.”

9 “Raise YOUR heads, O YOU gates;
Yes, raise them up, O YOU long-lasting entrances,
That the glorious King may come in! ”

10 “Who, then, is he, this glorious King?”
“Jehovah of armies—he is the glorious King.” Se´lah.

Of David.

Of David.

26 Judge me, O Jehovah, for I myself have walked in my own integrity,
And in Jehovah I have trusted, that I may not wobble.

2 Examine me, O Jehovah, and put me to the test;
Refine my kidneys and my heart.

3 For your loving-kindness is in front of my eyes,
And I have walked in your truth.

4 I have not sat with men of untruth;
And with those who hide what they are I do not come in.

5 I have hated the congregation of evildoers,
And with the wicked ones I do not sit.

6 I shall wash my hands in innocency itself,
And I will march around your altar, O Jehovah,

7 To cause thanksgiving to be heard aloud,
And to declare all your wonderful works.

8 Jehovah, I have loved the dwelling of your house
And the place of the residing of your glory.

9 Do not take away my soul along with sinners,
Nor my life along with bloodguilty men,

10 In whose hands there is loose conduct,
And whose right hand is full of bribery.

11 As for me, in my integrity I shall walk.
O redeem me and show me favor.

12 My own foot will certainly stand on a level place;
Among the congregated throngs I shall bless Jehovah.

Of David.

27 Jehovah is my light and my salvation.
Of whom shall I be in fear?
Jehovah is the stronghold of my life.
Of whom shall I be in dread?

2 When the evildoers approached against me to eat up my flesh,
They being my adversaries and my enemies personally,
They themselves stumbled and fell.

3 Though against me an encampment should pitch tent,
My heart will not fear.
Though against me war should rise,
Even then I shall be trusting.

4 One thing I have asked from Jehovah—
It is what I shall look for,
That I may dwell in the house of Jehovah all the days of my life,
To behold the pleasantness of Jehovah
And to look with appreciation upon his temple.

5 For he will hide me in his covert in the day of calamity;
He will conceal me in the secret place of his tent;
High on a rock he will put me.

6 And now my head will be high above my enemies all around me;
And I will sacrifice at his tent sacrifices of joyful shouting;
I will sing and make melody to Jehovah.

7 Hear, O Jehovah, when I call with my voice,
And show me favor and answer me.

8 Concerning you my heart has said: “Seek to find my face, YOU people.”
Your face, O Jehovah, I shall seek to find.

9 Do not conceal your face from me.
Do not in anger turn your servant away.
My assistance you must become.
Do not forsake me and do not leave me, O my God of salvation.

10 In case my own father and my own mother did leave me,
Even Jehovah himself would take me up.

11 Instruct me, O Jehovah, in your way,
And lead me in the path of uprightness on account of my foes.

12 Do not give me over to the soul of my adversaries;
For against me false witnesses have risen up,
And he who launches forth violence.

13 If I had not had faith in seeing the goodness of Jehovah in the land of those alive—!
14 Hope in Jehovah; be courageous and let your heart be strong.
Yes, hope in Jehovah.

Of David.

28 To you, O Jehovah, I keep calling.
O my Rock, do not be deaf to me,
That you may not keep still toward me
And I do not have to become like those going down to the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my entreaties when I cry to you for help,
When I raise my hands to the innermost room of your holy place.

3 Do not draw me along with wicked people and with practicers of what is hurtful,
Those who are speaking peace with their companions but in whose hearts is what is bad.

4 Give to them according to their acting
And according to the badness of their practices.
According to the work of their hands do you give to them.
Pay back to them their own doing.

5 For they have no regard for the activities of Jehovah,
Nor for the work of his hands.
He will tear them down and not build them up.

6 Blessed be Jehovah, for he has heard the voice of my entreaties.

7 Jehovah is my strength and my shield.
In him my heart has trusted,
And I have been helped, so that my heart exults,
And with my song I shall laud him.

8 Jehovah is a strength to his people,
And he is a stronghold of the grand salvation of his anointed one.

9 Do save your people, and bless your inheritance;
And shepherd them and carry them to time indefinite.

A melody of David.

29 Ascribe to Jehovah, O YOU sons of strong ones,
Ascribe to Jehovah glory and strength.

2 Ascribe to Jehovah the glory of his name.
Bow down to Jehovah in holy adornment.

3 The voice of Jehovah is over the waters;
The glorious God himself has thundered.
Jehovah is over many waters.

4 The voice of Jehovah is powerful;
The voice of Jehovah is splendid.

5 The voice of Jehovah is breaking the cedars;
Yes, Jehovah breaks the cedars of Leb′a·non in pieces,

6 And he makes them skip about like a calf,
Leb′a·non and Sir′i·on like the sons of wild bulls.

7 The voice of Jehovah is hewing with the flames of fire;

8 The voice of Jehovah itself makes the wilderness writhe,
Jehovah makes the wilderness of Ka′desh writhe.

9 The voice of Jehovah itself makes the hinds writhe with birth pains
And strips bare the forests.
And in his temple each one is saying: “Glory!”

10 Upon the deluge Jehovah has seated himself;
And Jehovah sits as king to time indefinite.

11 Jehovah himself will give strength indeed to his people.
Jehovah himself will bless his people with peace.

A melody. A song of inauguration of the house. Of David.

30 I shall exalt you, O Jehovah, for you have drawn me up
And you have not let my enemies rejoice over me.

2 O Jehovah my God, I cried to you for help, and you proceeded to heal me.

3 O Jehovah, you have brought up my soul from She′ol itself;
You have kept me alive, that I should not go down into the pit.

4 Make melody to Jehovah, O YOU loyal ones of his,
Give thanks to his holy memorial;

5 Because being under his anger is for a moment,
Being under his goodwill is for a lifetime.
In the evening weeping may take up lodging, but in the morning there is a joyful cry.

6 As for me, I have said in my ease:
“Never shall I be made to totter.”

7 O Jehovah, in your goodwill you have made my mountain to stand in strength.
You concealed your face; I became one that is disturbed.

8 To you, O Jehovah, I kept calling;
And to Jehovah I kept making entreaty for favor.

9 What profit is there in my blood when I go down to the pit?
Will the dust laud you? Will it tell of your trueness?

10 Hear, O Jehovah, and show me favor.
O Jehovah, prove yourself my helper.

11 You have changed my mourning into dancing for me;
You have loosened my sackcloth, and you keep me girded with rejoicing,

12 In order that my glory may make melody to you and not keep silent.
O Jehovah my God, to time indefinite I will laud you.

To the director. A melody of David.

31 In you, O Jehovah, have I taken refuge.
O may I never be ashamed.
In your righteousness provide escape for me.

2 Incline to me your ear.
Deliver me speedily.
Become for me a rocky stronghold,
A house of strongholds to save me.

3 For you are my crag and my stronghold;
And for the sake of your name you will lead me and conduct me.

4 You will bring me out of the net that they have hidden for me,
For you are my fortress.

5 Into your hand I entrust my spirit.
You have redeemed me, O Jehovah the God of truth.

6 I do hate those paying regard to worthless, vain idols;
But as for me, in Jehovah I do trust.

7 I will be joyful and rejoice in your loving-kindness,
In that you have seen my affliction;
You have known about the distresses of my soul,

8 And you have not surrendered me into the hand of the enemy.
You have made my feet stand in a roomy place.

9 Show me favor, O Jehovah, for I am in sore straits.
With vexation my eye has become weak, my soul and my belly.

10 For with grief my life has come to an end,
And my years in sighing.
Because of my error my power has stumbled,
And my very bones have become weak.

11 From the standpoint of all those showing hostility to me I have become a reproach,
And to my neighbors very much so,
And a dread to my acquaintances.
When seeing me out of doors, they have fled from me.

12 Like someone dead and not in the heart, I have been forgotten;
I have become like a damaged vessel;

13 For I have heard the bad report by many,
Fright being on all sides.
When they mass together as one against me,
It is to take away my soul that they do scheme.

14 But I—in you I have put my trust, O Jehovah.

I have said: “You are my God.”
15 My times are in your hand.
Deliver me from the hand of my enemies and from those pursuing me.
16 Do cause your face to shine upon your servant.
Save me in your loving-kindness.
17 O Jehovah, may I not be ashamed, for I have called on you.
May the wicked ones be ashamed;
May they keep silent in She′ol.
18 May false lips become speechless,
That are speaking against the righteous one, unrestrainedly in haughtiness and contempt.
19 How abundant your goodness is, which you have treasured up for those fearing you!
Which you have rendered to those taking refuge in you,
In front of the sons of men.
20 You will conceal them in the secret place of your person
From the banding together of men.
You will hide them in your booth from the quarreling of tongues.
21 Blessed be Jehovah,
For he has rendered wonderful loving-kindness to me in a city under stress.
22 As for me, I said when I became panicky:
“I shall certainly be exterminated from in front of your eyes.”
Surely you have heard the voice of my entreaties when I cried to you for help.
23 O love Jehovah, all YOU loyal ones of his.
The faithful ones Jehovah is safeguarding,
But he is rewarding exceedingly anyone showing haughtiness.
24 Be courageous, and may YOUR heart be strong,
All YOU who are waiting for Jehovah.

Of David. Mas′kil.

32 Happy is the one whose revolt is pardoned, whose sin is covered.

2 Happy is the man to whose account Jehovah does not put error,
And in whose spirit there is no deceit.

3 When I kept silent my bones wore out through my groaning all day long.

4 For day and night your hand was heavy upon me.
My life’s moisture has been changed as in the dry heat of summer. Se′lah.

5 My sin I finally confessed to you, and my error I did not cover.
I said: “I shall make confession over my transgressions to Jehovah.”
And you yourself pardoned the error of my sins. Se′lah.

6 On this account every loyal one will pray to you
At such a time only as you may be found.
As for the flood of many waters, they will not touch him himself.

7 You are a place of concealment for me; you will safeguard me from distress itself.
With joyful cries at providing escape you will surround me. Se′lah.

8 “I shall make you have insight and instruct you in the way you should go.
I will give advice with my eye upon you.

9 Do not make yourselves like a horse or mule without understanding,
Whose spiritedness is to be curbed even by bridle or halter
Before they will come near to you.”

10 Many are the pains that the wicked one has;
But as for the one trusting in Jehovah, loving-kindness itself surrounds him.

11 Rejoice in Jehovah and be joyful, YOU righteous ones;
And cry out joyfully, all YOU who are upright in heart.

33 Cry out joyfully, O YOU righteous ones, because of Jehovah.
On the part of the upright ones praise is fitting.

2 Give thanks to Jehovah on the harp;
On an instrument of ten strings make melody to him.

3 Sing to him a new song;
Do YOUR best at playing on the strings along with joyful shouting.

4 For the word of Jehovah is upright,
And all his work is in faithfulness.

5 He is a lover of righteousness and justice.
With the loving-kindness of Jehovah the earth is filled.

6 By the word of Jehovah the heavens themselves were made,
And by the spirit of his mouth all their army.

7 He is gathering as by a dam the waters of the sea,
Putting in storehouses the surging waters.

8 Let all those of the earth be in fear of Jehovah.
At him let all the inhabitants of the productive land be frightened.

9 For he himself said, and it came to be;
He himself commanded, and it proceeded to stand so.

10 Jehovah himself has broken up the counsel of the nations;
He has thwarted the thoughts of the peoples.

11 To time indefinite the very counsel of Jehovah will stand;
The thoughts of his heart are to one generation after another generation.

12 Happy is the nation whose God is Jehovah,
The people whom he has chosen as his inheritance.

13 From the heavens Jehovah has looked,
He has seen all the sons of men.

14 From the established place where he dwells
He has gazed at all those dwelling on the earth.

15 He is forming their hearts all together;
He is considering all their works.

16 There is no king saved by the abundance of military forces;
A mighty man himself is not delivered by the abundance of power.

17 The horse is a deception for salvation,
And by the abundance of its vital energy it does not afford escape.

18 Look! The eye of Jehovah is toward those fearing him,
To those waiting for his loving-kindness,

19 To deliver their soul from death itself,
And to preserve them alive in famine.

20 Our very soul has been in expectation of Jehovah.
Our helper and our shield he is.
21 For in him our heart rejoices;
For in his holy name we have put our trust.
22 Let your loving-kindness, O Jehovah, prove to be upon us,
Even as we have kept waiting for you.

Of David, at the time of his disguising his sanity before A·bim′e·lech, so that he drove him out, and he went away.

א [’A′leph]

34 I will bless Jehovah at all times;
Constantly his praise will be in my mouth.

ב [Behth]

[2] In Jehovah my soul will make its boast;
The meek ones will hear and will rejoice.

ג [Gi′mel]

[3] O magnify Jehovah with me, YOU people,
And let us exalt his name together.

ד [Da′leth]

[4] I inquired of Jehovah, and he answered me,
And out of all my frights he delivered me.

ה [He’]

[5] They looked to him and became radiant,
And their very faces could not possibly be ashamed.

ז [Za′yin]

[6] This afflicted one called, and Jehovah himself heard.
And out of all his distresses He saved him.

ח [Chehth]

[7] The angel of Jehovah is camping all around those fearing him,
And he rescues them.

ט [Tehth]

8 Taste and see that Jehovah is good, O YOU people;
Happy is the able-bodied man that takes refuge in him.

י [Yohdh]

9 Fear Jehovah, YOU holy ones of his,
For there is no lack to those fearing him.

כ [Kaph]

10 The maned young lions themselves have had little on hand and gone hungry;
But as for those seeking Jehovah, they will not lack anything good.

ל [La´medh]

11 Come, YOU sons, listen to me;
The fear of Jehovah is what I shall teach YOU.

מ [Mem]

12 Who is the man that is delighting in life,
That is loving enough days to see what is good?

נ [Nun]

13 Safeguard your tongue against what is bad,
And your lips against speaking deception.

ס [Sa´mekh]

14 Turn away from what is bad, and do what is good;
Seek to find peace, and pursue it.

ע [ʽA´yin]

15 The eyes of Jehovah are toward the righteous ones,
And his ears are toward their cry for help.

פ [Pe´]

16 The face of Jehovah is against those doing what is bad,
To cut off the mention of them from the very earth.

צ [Tsa·dheh′]

17 They cried out, and Jehovah himself heard,
And out of all their distresses he delivered them.

ק [Qohph]

18 Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart;
And those who are crushed in spirit he saves.

ר [Rehsh]

19 Many are the calamities of the righteous one,
But out of them all Jehovah delivers him.

ש [Shin]

20 He is guarding all the bones of that one;
Not one of them has been broken.

ת [Taw]

21 Calamity will put the wicked one himself to death;
And the very ones hating the righteous one will be held guilty.
22 Jehovah is redeeming the soul of his servants;
And none of those taking refuge in him will be held guilty.

Of David.

35 Do conduct my case, O Jehovah, against my opponents;
War against those warring against me.

2 Take hold of buckler and large shield,
And do rise up in assistance of me,

3 And draw spear and double ax to meet those pursuing me.
Say to my soul: “I am your salvation.”

4 May those be shamed and humiliated who are hunting for my soul.
May those be turned back and be abashed who are scheming calamity for me.

5 May they become like chaff before the wind,
And let Jehovah’s angel be pushing them along.

6 Let their way become darkness and slippery places,
And let Jehovah’s angel be pursuing them.

7 For without cause they have hid for me their netted pit;
Without cause they have dug it for my soul.

8 Let ruin come upon him without his knowing,
And let his own net that he hid catch him;
With ruin let him fall into it.

9 But let my own soul be joyful in Jehovah;
Let it exult in his salvation.

10 Let all my bones themselves say:
“O Jehovah, who is there like you,
Delivering the afflicted one from one stronger than he is,
And the afflicted and poor one from the one robbing him?”

11 Violent witnesses rise up;
What I have not known they ask me.

12 They reward me with bad for good,
Bereavement to my soul.

13 As for me, when they became ill, my clothing was sackcloth,
With fasting I afflicted my soul,
And upon my bosom my own prayer would return.

14 As for a companion, as for a brother of mine,
I walked about like one mourning for a mother.
Saddened, I bowed down.

15 But at my limping they rejoiced and gathered together;
They gathered together against me,
Striking me down when I did not know it;
They ripped me to pieces and did not keep silent.

16 Among the apostate mockers for a cake
There was a grinding of their teeth even against me.

17 O Jehovah, how long will you keep seeing it?
Do bring back my soul from their ravages,
Even my only one from the maned young lions.

18 I will laud you in the big congregation;
Among a numerous people I shall praise you.

19 O may those who for no reason are my enemies not rejoice over me;
As for those hating me without cause, let them not wink the eye.

20 For it is not peace that they speak;
But against the quiet ones of the earth
Things of deception they keep scheming.

21 And they open wide their mouth even against me.
They have said: “Aha! Aha! our eye has seen it.”

22 You have seen, O Jehovah. Do not keep silent.
O Jehovah, do not keep yourself far from me.

23 Do arouse yourself and awake to my judgment,
O my God, even Jehovah, to my case at law.

24 Judge me according to your righteousness, O Jehovah my God,
And may they not rejoice over me.

25 O may they not say in their heart: “Aha, our soul!”
May they not say: “We have swallowed him up.”

26 Let those be ashamed and abashed all together
Who are joyful at my calamity.
Let those be clothed with shame and humiliation who are assuming great airs against me.

27 Let those cry out joyfully and rejoice who are delighting in my righteousness,
And let them say constantly:
“Let Jehovah be magnified, who takes delight in the peace of his servant.”

28 And let my own tongue utter in an undertone your righteousness,
All day long your praise.

To the director. Of Jehovah’s servant, David.

36 The utterance of transgression to the wicked one is in the midst of his heart;
There is no dread of God in front of his eyes.

2 For he has acted too smoothly to himself in his own eyes
To find out his error so as to hate it.

3 The words of his mouth are hurtfulness and deception;
He has ceased to have insight for doing good.

4 Hurtfulness is what he keeps scheming upon his bed.
He stations himself on a way that is not good.
What is bad he does not reject.

5 O Jehovah, your loving-kindness is in the heavens;
Your faithfulness is up to the clouds.

6 Your righteousness is like mountains of God;
Your judicial decision is a vast watery deep.
Man and beast you save, O Jehovah.

7 How precious your loving-kindness is, O God!
And in the shadow of your wings the sons of men themselves take refuge.

8 They drink their fill of the fatness of your house;
And of the torrent of your pleasures you cause them to drink.

9 For with you is the source of life;
By light from you we can see light.

10 Continue your loving-kindness to those knowing you,
And your righteousness to those upright in heart.

11 O may not the foot of haughtiness come against me;
As for the hand of wicked people, let it not make me a wanderer.

12 There the practicers of hurtfulness have fallen;
They have been pushed down and have been unable to get up.

Of David.

א [ʼAʹleph]

37 Do not show yourself heated up because of the evildoers.
Do not be envious of those doing unrighteousness.
2 For like grass they will speedily wither,
And like green new grass they will fade away.

ב [Behth]

3 Trust in Jehovah and do good;
Reside in the earth, and deal with faithfulness.
4 Also take exquisite delight in Jehovah,
And he will give you the requests of your heart.

ג [Giʹmel]

5 Roll upon Jehovah your way,
And rely upon him, and he himself will act.
6 And he will certainly bring forth your righteousness as the light itself,
And your justice as the midday.

ד [Daʹleth]

7 Keep silent before Jehovah
And wait longingly for him.
Do not show yourself heated up at anyone making his way successful,
At the man carrying out his ideas.

ה [He']

8 Let anger alone and leave rage;
Do not show yourself heated up only to do evil.
9 For evildoers themselves will be cut off,
But those hoping in Jehovah are the ones that will possess the earth.

ו [Waw]

10 And just a little while longer, and the wicked one will be no more;

And you will certainly give attention to his place, and he will not be.
11 But the meek ones themselves will possess the earth,
And they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace.

ז [Za′yin]

12 The wicked one is plotting against the righteous one,
And at him he is grinding his teeth.
13 Jehovah himself will laugh at him,
For he certainly sees that his day will come.

ח [Chehth]

14 The wicked ones have drawn a sword itself and have bent their bow,
To cause the afflicted and poor one to fall,
To slaughter those who are upright in their way.
15 Their own sword will enter into their heart,
And their own bows will be broken.

ט [Tehth]

16 Better is the little of the righteous one
Than the abundance of the many wicked ones.
17 For the very arms of the wicked ones will be broken,
But Jehovah will be supporting the righteous ones.

י [Yohdh]

18 Jehovah is aware of the days of the faultless ones,
And their very inheritance will continue even to time indefinite.
19 They will not be ashamed in the time of calamity,
And in the days of famine they will be satisfied.

כ [Kaph]

20 For the wicked themselves will perish,
And the enemies of Jehovah will be like the preciousness of pastures;
They must come to their end. In smoke they must come to their end.

ל [La′medh]

21 The wicked one is borrowing and does not pay back,
But the righteous one is showing favor and is making gifts.

22 For those being blessed by him will themselves possess the earth,
But those upon whom evil is called by him will be cut off.

מ [Mem]

23 By Jehovah the very steps of an able-bodied man have been made ready,
And in his way He takes delight.

24 Although he may fall, he will not be hurled down,
For Jehovah is supporting his hand.

נ [Nun]

25 A young man I used to be, I have also grown old,
And yet I have not seen anyone righteous left entirely,
Nor his offspring looking for bread.

26 All day long he is showing favor and lending,
And so his offspring are in line for a blessing.

ס [Saʹmekh]

27 Turn away from what is bad and do what is good,
And so reside to time indefinite.

28 For Jehovah is a lover of justice,
And he will not leave his loyal ones.

ע [ʽAʹyin]

To time indefinite they will certainly be guarded;
But as for the offspring of the wicked ones, they will indeed be cut off.

29 The righteous themselves will possess the earth,
And they will reside forever upon it.

פ [Peʹ]

30 The mouth of the righteous is the one that utters wisdom in an undertone,
And his is the tongue that speaks justly.

31 The law of his God is in his heart;
His steps will not wobble.

צ [Tsa·dhehʹ]

32 The wicked one is keeping on the watch for the righteous
And is seeking to put him to death.

33 As for Jehovah, he will not leave him to the hand of that one,
And he will not pronounce him wicked when he is being judged.

ק [Qohph]

34 Hope in Jehovah and keep his way,
And he will exalt you to take possession of the earth.
When the wicked ones are cut off, you will see it.

ר [Rehsh]

35 I have seen the wicked a tyrant
And spreading himself as a luxuriant tree in native soil.
36 And yet he proceeded to pass away, and there he was not;
And I kept seeking him, and he was not found.

ש [Shin]

37 Watch the blameless one and keep the upright one in sight,
For the future of that man will be peaceful.
38 But the transgressors themselves will certainly be annihilated together;
The future of wicked people will indeed be cut off.

ת [Taw]

39 And the salvation of the righteous ones is from Jehovah;
He is their fortress in the time of distress.
40 And Jehovah will help them and provide them with escape.
He will provide them with escape from wicked people and save them,
Because they have taken refuge in him.

A melody of David, to bring to remembrance.

38 O Jehovah, do not in your indignation reprove me,
Nor in your rage correct me.
2 For your own arrows have sunk themselves deep into me,
And upon me your hand is come down.
3 There is no sound spot in my flesh because of your denunciation.
There is no peace in my bones on account of my sin.
4 For my own errors have passed over my head;
Like a heavy load they are too heavy for me.
5 My wounds have become stinky, they have festered,
Because of my foolishness.
6 I have become disconcerted, I have bowed low to an extreme degree;
All day long I have walked about sad.
7 For my very loins have become full of burning,
And there is no sound spot in my flesh.
8 I have grown numb and become crushed to an extreme degree;
I have roared due to the groaning of my heart.
9 O Jehovah, in front of you is all my desire,
And from you my sighing itself has not been concealed.
10 My own heart has palpitated heavily, my power has left me,
And the light of my own eyes also is not with me.
11 As for my lovers and my companions, they keep standing away from my plague,
And my close acquaintances themselves have stood off at a distance.
12 But those seeking my soul lay out traps,
And those working for a calamity to me have spoken of adversities,
And deceptions they keep muttering all day long.
13 As for me, like someone deaf, I would not listen;
And like someone speechless, I would not open my mouth.
14 And I came to be like a man that was not hearing,
And in my mouth there were no counterarguments.
15 For on you, O Jehovah, I waited;
You yourself proceeded to answer, O Jehovah my God.
16 For I said: “Otherwise they would rejoice at me;
When my foot moved unsteadily, they would certainly assume great airs against me.”
17 For I was ready to limp,
And my pain was in front of me constantly.

18 For I proceeded to tell about my own error;
I began to be anxious over my sin.
19 And my enemies who are alive became mighty,
And those hating me for no reason became many.
20 And they were rewarding me with bad for good;
They kept resisting me in return for my pursuing what is good.
21 Do not leave me, O Jehovah.
O my God, do not keep far away from me.
22 Do make haste to my assistance,
O Jehovah my salvation.

To the director of Je·du′thun. A melody of David.

39 I said: “I will guard my ways
To keep from sinning with my tongue.
I will set a muzzle as a guard to my own mouth,
As long as anyone wicked is in front of me.”

2 I became speechless with silence;
I kept quiet from what is good,
And my being pained was ostracized.

3 My heart grew hot inside me;
During my sighing the fire kept burning.
I spoke with my tongue:

4 “Cause me, O Jehovah, to know my end,
And the measure of my days—what it is,
That I may know how transient I am.

5 Look! You have made my days just a few;
And my life’s duration is as nothing in front of you.
Surely every earthling man, though standing firm, is nothing but an exhalation. Se′lah.

6 Surely in a semblance man walks about.
Surely they are boisterous in vain.
One piles up things and does not know who will be gathering them.

7 And now for what have I hoped, O Jehovah?
My expectation is toward you.

8 From all my transgressions deliver me.
Do not set me as a reproach of the senseless one.

9 I kept speechless; I could not open my mouth,
For you yourself acted.

10 Remove from off me your plague.
Due to the hostility of your hand I myself have come to an end.

11 By reproofs against error you have corrected man,
And you consume his desirable things just as a moth does.
Surely every earthling man is an exhalation. Se′lah.

12 Do hear my prayer, O Jehovah,
And to my cry for help do give ear.
At my tears do not keep silent.
For I am but an alien resident with you,
A settler the same as all my forefathers.

13 Look away from me, that I may brighten up Before I go away and I am not.”

To the director. Of David, a melody.

40 I earnestly hoped in Jehovah,
And so he inclined his ear to me and heard my cry for help.

2 He also proceeded to bring me up out of a roaring pit,
Out of the mire of the sediment.
Then he raised up my feet upon a crag;
He firmly established my steps.

3 Further, he put in my mouth a new song,
Praise to our God.
Many will see it and will fear,
And they will trust in Jehovah.

4 Happy is the able-bodied man that has put Jehovah as his trust
And that has not turned his face to defiant people,
Nor to those falling away to lies.

5 Many things you yourself have done,
O Jehovah my God, even your wonderful works and your thoughts toward us;
There is none to be compared to you.
Were I inclined to tell and speak of them,
They have become more numerous than I can recount.

6 Sacrifice and offering you did not delight in;
These ears of mine you opened up.
Burnt offering and sin offering you did not ask for.

7 In view of that, I said: “Here I have come,
In the roll of the book it being written about me.

8 To do your will, O my God, I have delighted,
And your law is within my inward parts.

9 I have told the good news of righteousness in the big congregation.
Look! My lips I do not restrain.
O Jehovah, you yourself know that well.

10 Your righteousness I have not covered over within my heart.
Your faithfulness and your salvation I have declared.
I have not hidden your loving-kindness and your trueness in the big congregation.”

11 You yourself, O Jehovah, do not restrain your pity from me.
Let your loving-kindness and your trueness themselves constantly safeguard me.

12 For calamities encircled me until there was no numbering of them.
More errors of mine overtook me than I was able to see;
They became more numerous than the hairs of my head,

And my own heart left me.
13 Be pleased, O Jehovah, to deliver me.
O Jehovah, to my assistance do make haste.
14 May those be ashamed and abashed all together
Who are seeking my soul to sweep it away.
May those turn back and be humiliated who are delighting in my calamity.
15 Let those stare in amazement in consequence of their shame
Who are saying to me: “Aha! Aha!”
16 Let those exult and rejoice in you,
All those who are seeking you.
Let those say constantly: “May Jehovah be magnified,”
Those who are loving salvation by you.
17 But I am afflicted and poor.
Jehovah himself takes account of me.
You are my assistance and the Provider of escape for me.
O my God, do not be too late.

To the director. A melody of David.

41 Happy is anyone acting with consideration toward the lowly one;
In the day of calamity Jehovah will provide escape for him.

2 Jehovah himself will guard him and preserve him alive.
He will be pronounced happy in the earth;
And you cannot possibly give him over to the soul of his enemies.

3 Jehovah himself will sustain him upon a divan of illness;
All his bed you will certainly change during his sickness.

4 As for me, I said: “O Jehovah, show me favor.
Do heal my soul, for I have sinned against you.”

5 As for my enemies, they say what is bad concerning me:
“When will he die and his name actually perish?”

6 And if one does come to see me, untruth is what his heart will speak;
He will gather up for himself something hurtful;
He will go out; on the outside he will speak of it.

7 Unitedly against me all those hating me whisper to one another;
Against me they keep scheming something bad for me:

8 “A good-for-nothing thing is poured out upon him;
Now that he has lain down, he will not get up again.”

9 Also the man at peace with me, in whom I trusted,
Who was eating my bread, has magnified his heel against me.

10 As for you, O Jehovah, show me favor and cause me to get up,
That I may pay them back.

11 By this I do know that you have found delight in me,
Because my enemy does not shout in triumph over me.

12 As for me, because of my integrity you have upheld me,
And you will set me before your face to time indefinite.

13 Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel
From time indefinite even to time indefinite.
Amen and Amen.

BOOK TWO

(Psalms 42 – 72)

To the director. Mas′kil for the sons of Ko′rah.

42 As the hind that longs for the water streams,
So my very soul longs for you, O God.

2 My soul indeed thirsts for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and appear before God?

3 To me my tears have become food day and night,
While they say to me all day long: “Where is your God?”

4 These things I will remember, and I will pour out my soul within me.
For I used to pass along with the throng,
I used to walk slowly before them to the house of God,
With the voice of a joyful cry and thanksgiving,
Of a crowd celebrating a festival.

5 Why are you in despair, O my soul,
And why are you boisterous within me?
Wait for God,
For I shall yet laud him as the grand salvation of my person.

6 O my God, within me my very soul is in despair.
That is why I remember you,
From the land of Jordan and the peaks of Her′mon,
From the little mountain.

7 Watery deep to watery deep is calling
At the sound of your waterspouts.
All your breakers and your waves—
Over me they have passed.

8 By day Jehovah will command his loving-kindness,
And by night his song will be with me;
There will be prayer to the God of my life.

9 I will say to God my crag:
“Why have you forgotten me?
Why do I walk sad because of the oppression of the enemy?”

10 With murder against my bones those showing hostility to me have reproached me,
While they say to me all day long: “Where is your God?”

11 Why are you in despair, O my soul,

And why are you boisterous within me?
Wait for God,
For I shall yet laud him as the grand salvation of my person and as my God.

43 Judge me, O God,
And do conduct my legal case against a nation not loyal.
From the man of deception and unrighteousness may you provide me with escape.

2 For you are the God of my fortress.
Why have you cast me off?
Why do I walk about sad because of the oppression by the enemy?

3 Send out your light and your truth.
May these themselves lead me.
May they bring me to your holy mountain and to your grand tabernacle.

4 And I will come to the altar of God,
To God, my exultant rejoicing.
And I will laud you on the harp, O God, my God.

5 Why are you in despair, O my soul,
And why are you boisterous within me?
Wait for God,
For I shall yet laud him as the grand salvation of my person and as my God.

To the director. Of the sons of Ko′rah. Mas′kil.

44 O God, with our ears we have heard,
Our forefathers themselves have recounted to us
The activity that you performed in their days,
In the days of long ago.

2 You yourself by your hand drove away even nations,
And you proceeded to plant them instead.
You went breaking national groups and sending them away.

3 For it was not by their own sword that they took possession of the land,
And their own arm was not what brought them salvation.
For it was your right hand and your arm and the light of your face,
Because you took pleasure in them.

4 You yourself are my King, O God.
Command grand salvation for Jacob.

5 By you we shall push our adversaries themselves;
In your name we shall tread down those rising up against us.

6 For it was not in my bow that I kept trusting
And it was not my sword that was saving me.

7 For you saved us from our adversaries,
And those intensely hating us you put to shame.

8 In God we will offer praise all day long,
And to time indefinite your name we shall laud. Se′lah.

9 But now you have cast off and keep humiliating us,
And you do not go forth with our armies.

10 You keep making us turn back from the adversary,
And the very ones intensely hating us have pillaged for themselves.

11 You give us up like sheep, as something to eat,
And among the nations you have scattered us.

12 You sell your people for no value at all,
And you have made no wealth by the price for them.

13 You set us as a reproach to our neighbors,
A derision and jeering to those all around us.

14 You set us as a proverbial saying among the nations,
A shaking of the head among the national groups.

15 All day long my humiliation is in front of me,
And the shame of my own face has covered me,

16 Due to the voice of the one reproaching and speaking abusively,
Because of the enemy and the one taking his revenge.

17 All this is what has come upon us, and we have not forgotten you,
And we have not acted falsely in your covenant.
18 Our heart has not turned faithlessly back,
Nor do our footsteps deviate from your path.
19 For you have crushed us in the place of jackals,
And you cover us over with deep shadow.
20 If we have forgotten the name of our God,
Or we spread out our palms to a strange god,
21 Will not God himself search this out?
For he is aware of the secrets of the heart.
22 But for your sake we have been killed all day long;
We have been accounted as sheep for slaughtering.
23 Do arouse yourself. Why do you keep sleeping, O Jehovah?
Do awake. Do not keep casting off forever.
24 Why do you keep your very face concealed?
Why do you forget our affliction and our oppression?
25 For our soul has bowed down to the dust itself;
Our belly has clung to the very earth.
26 Do arise in assistance to us
And redeem us for the sake of your loving-kindness.

To the director upon The Lilies. Of the sons of Koʹrah. Masʹkil. A song of the beloved women.

45 My heart has become astir with a goodly matter.
I am saying: “My works are concerning a king.”
May my tongue be the stylus of a skilled copyist.

2 You are indeed more handsome than the sons of men.
Charm has been poured out upon your lips.
That is why God has blessed you to time indefinite.

3 Gird your sword upon your thigh, O mighty one,
With your dignity and your splendor.

4 And in your splendor go on to success;
Ride in the cause of truth and humility and righteousness,
And your right hand will instruct you in fear-inspiring things.

5 Your arrows are sharp—under you peoples keep falling—
In the heart of the enemies of the king.

6 God is your throne to time indefinite, even forever;
The scepter of your kingship is a scepter of uprightness.

7 You have loved righteousness and you hate wickedness.
That is why God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of exultation more than your partners.

8 All your garments are myrrh and aloeswood and cassia;
Out from the grand ivory palace stringed instruments themselves have made you rejoice.

9 The daughters of kings are among your precious women.
The queenly consort has taken her stand at your right hand in gold of Oʹphir.

10 Listen, O daughter, and see, and incline your ear;
And forget your people and your father’s house.

11 And the king will long for your prettiness,
For he is your lord,
So bow down to him.

12 The daughter of Tyre also with a gift—
The rich ones of the people will soften your own face.

13 The king’s daughter is all glorious within the house;
Her clothing is with settings of gold.

14 In woven apparel she will be brought to the king.
The virgins in her train as her companions are being brought in to you.

15 They will be brought with rejoicing and joyfulness;
They will enter into the palace of the king.

16 In place of your forefathers there will come to be your sons,

Whom you will appoint as princes in all the earth.
17 I will make mention of your name throughout all generations to come.
That is why peoples themselves will laud you to time indefinite, even forever.

To the director. Of the sons of Ko′rah upon The Maidens. A song.

46 God is for us a refuge and strength,
A help that is readily to be found during distresses.

2 That is why we shall not fear, though the earth undergo change
And though the mountains totter into the heart of the vast sea;

3 Though its waters be boisterous, foam over,
Though the mountains rock at its uproar. Se′lah.

4 There is a river the streams of which make the city of God rejoice,
The holiest grand tabernacle of the Most High.

5 God is in the midst of the city; it will not be made to totter.
God will help it at the appearance of morning.

6 The nations became boisterous, the kingdoms tottered;
He sounded with his voice, the earth proceeded to melt.

7 Jehovah of armies is with us;
The God of Jacob is a secure height for us. Se′lah.

8 Come, YOU people, behold the activities of Jehovah,
How he has set astonishing events on the earth.

9 He is making wars to cease to the extremity of the earth.
The bow he breaks apart and does cut the spear in pieces;
The wagons he burns in the fire.

10 “Give in, YOU people, and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth.”

11 Jehovah of armies is with us;
The God of Jacob is a secure height for us. Se′lah.

To the director. Of the sons of Ko′rah. A melody.

47 All YOU peoples, clap YOUR hands.
Shout in triumph to God with the sound of a joyful cry.
2 For Jehovah, the Most High, is fear-inspiring,
A great King over all the earth.
3 He will subdue peoples under us
And national groups under our feet.
4 He will choose for us our inheritance,
The pride of Jacob, whom he has loved. Se′lah.
5 God has ascended with joyful shouting,
Jehovah with the sound of the horn.
6 MAKE melody to God, make melody.
Make melody to our King, make melody.
7 For God is King of all the earth;
MAKE melody, acting with discretion.
8 God has become king over the nations.
God himself has taken his seat upon his holy throne.
9 The nobles of the peoples themselves have gathered together,
With the people of the God of Abraham.
For to God the shields of the earth belong.
He is very high in his ascent.

A song. A melody of the sons of Koʹrah.

48 Jehovah is great and much to be praised
In the city of our God, in his holy mountain.

2 Pretty for loftiness, the exultation of the whole earth,
Is Mount Zion on the remote sides of the north,
The town of the Grand King.

3 In her dwelling towers God himself has become known as a secure height.

4 For, look! the kings themselves have met by appointment,
They have passed by together.

5 They themselves saw; and so they were amazed.
They got disturbed, they were sent running in panic.

6 Trembling itself took hold of them there,
Birth pangs like those of a woman giving birth.

7 With an east wind you wreck the ships of Tarʹshish.

8 Just as we have heard, so we have seen
In the city of Jehovah of armies, in the city of our God.
God himself will firmly establish it to time indefinite. Seʹlah.

9 We have pondered, O God, over your loving-kindness
In the midst of your temple.

10 Like your name, O God, so your praise is
To the borders of the earth.
Your right hand is full of righteousness itself.

11 May Mount Zion rejoice,
May the dependent towns of Judah be joyful, on account of your judicial decisions.

12 March around Zion, YOU people, and go about it, Count its towers.

13 Set YOUR hearts upon its rampart.
Inspect its dwelling towers,
In order that YOU may recount it to the future generation.

14 For this God is our God to time indefinite, even forever.
He himself will guide us until we die.

To the director. Of the sons of Ko′rah. A melody.

49 Hear this, all YOU peoples.
Give ear, all YOU inhabitants of the system of things,
2 YOU sons of humankind as well as YOU sons of man,
You rich one and you poor one together.
3 My own mouth will speak things of wisdom,
And the meditation of my heart will be of things of understanding.
4 To a proverbial utterance I shall incline my ear;
On a harp I shall open up my riddle.
5 Why should I be afraid in the days of evil,
When the very error of my supplanters surrounds me?
6 Those who are trusting in their means of maintenance,
And who keep boasting about the abundance of their riches,
7 Not one of them can by any means redeem even a brother,
Nor give to God a ransom for him;
8 (And the redemption price of their soul is so precious
That it has ceased to time indefinite)
9 That he should still live forever and not see the pit.
10 For he sees that even the wise ones die,
Together the stupid one and the unreasoning one perish,
And they must leave to others their means of maintenance.
11 Their inward wish is that their houses may be to time indefinite,
Their tabernacles to generation after generation.
They have called their landed estates by their names.
12 And yet earthling man, though in honor, cannot keep lodging;
He is indeed comparable with the beasts that have been destroyed.
13 This is the way of those who have stupidity,
And of those coming after them who take pleasure in their very mouthings.
Se′lah.
14 Like sheep they have been appointed to She′ol itself;
Death itself will shepherd them;
And the upright ones will have them in subjection in the morning,
And their forms are due to wear away;
She′ol rather than a lofty abode is for each one.
15 However, God himself will redeem my soul from the hand of She′ol,
For he will receive me. Se′lah.
16 Do not be afraid because some man gains riches,
Because the glory of his house increases,

17 For at his death he cannot take along anything at all;
His glory will not go down along with him himself.
18 For during his lifetime he kept blessing his own soul;
(And people will laud you because you do well for yourself)
19 His soul finally comes only as far as the generation of his forefathers.
Nevermore will they see the light.
20 Earthling man, although in honor, who does not understand,
Is indeed comparable with the beasts that have been destroyed.

A melody of A′saph.

50 The Divine One, God, Jehovah, has himself spoken,
And he proceeds to call the earth,
From the rising of the sun until its setting.

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of prettiness, God himself has beamed forth.

3 Our God will come and cannot possibly keep silent.
Before him there devours a fire,
And all around him it has become exceedingly stormy weather.

4 He calls to the heavens above and to the earth
So as to execute judgment on his people:

5 “Gather to me my loyal ones,
Those concluding my covenant over sacrifice.”

6 And the heavens tell of his righteousness,
For God himself is Judge. Se′lah.

7 “Do listen, O my people, and I will speak,
O Israel, and I will bear witness against you.
I am God, your God.

8 Not concerning your sacrifices do I reprove you,
Nor concerning your whole burnt offerings that are in front of me constantly.

9 I will not take out of your house a bull,
Out of your pens he-goats.

10 For to me belongs every wild animal of the forest,
The beasts upon a thousand mountains.

11 I well know every winged creature of the mountains,
And the animal throngs of the open field are with me.

12 If I were hungry, I would not say it to you;
For to me the productive land and its fullness belong.

13 Shall I eat the flesh of powerful bulls,
And the blood of he-goats shall I drink?

14 Offer thanksgiving as your sacrifice to God,
And pay to the Most High your vows;

15 And call me in the day of distress.
I shall rescue you, and you will glorify me.”

16 But to the wicked one God will have to say:
“What right do you have to enumerate my regulations,
And that you may bear my covenant in your mouth?

17 Why, you—you have hated discipline,
And you keep throwing my words behind you.

18 Whenever you saw a thief, you were even pleased with him;
And your sharing was with adulterers.

19 Your mouth you have let loose to what is bad,
And your tongue you keep attached to deception.

20 You sit and speak against your own brother,
Against the son of your mother you give away a fault.

21 These things you have done, and I kept silent.
You imagined that I would positively become like you.
I am going to reprove you, and I will set things in order before your eyes.

22 Understand this, please, YOU forgetters of God,
That I may not tear YOU to pieces without there being any deliverer.

23 The one offering thanksgiving as his sacrifice is the one that glorifies me;
And as for the one keeping a set way,
I will cause him to see salvation by God.”

To the director. A melody of David. When Nathan the prophet came in to him after he had had relations with Bath-sheʹba.

51 Show me favor, O God, according to your loving-kindness.
According to the abundance of your mercies wipe out my transgressions.

2 Thoroughly wash me from my error,
And cleanse me even from my sin.

3 For my transgressions I myself know,
And my sin is in front of me constantly.

4 Against you, you alone, I have sinned,
And what is bad in your eyes I have done,
In order that you may prove to be righteous when you speak,
That you may be in the clear when you judge.

5 Look! With error I was brought forth with birth pains,
And in sin my mother conceived me.

6 Look! You have taken delight in truthfulness itself in the inward parts;
And in the secret self may you cause me to know sheer wisdom.

7 May you purify me from sin with hyssop, that I may be clean;
May you wash me, that I may become whiter even than snow.

8 May you cause me to hear exultation and rejoicing,
That the bones that you have crushed may be joyful.

9 Conceal your face from my sins,
And wipe out even all my errors.

10 Create in me even a pure heart, O God,
And put within me a new spirit, a steadfast one.

11 Do not throw me away from before your face;
And your holy spirit O do not take away from me.

12 Do restore to me the exultation of salvation by you,
And may you support me even with a willing spirit.

13 I will teach transgressors your ways,
That sinners themselves may turn right back to you.

14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God the God of my salvation,
That my tongue may joyfully tell about your righteousness.

15 O Jehovah, may you open these lips of mine,
That my own mouth may tell forth your praise.

16 For you do not take delight in sacrifice—otherwise I would give it;
In whole burnt offering you do not find pleasure.

17 The sacrifices to God are a broken spirit;
A heart broken and crushed, O God, you will not despise.

18 In your goodwill do deal well with Zion;
May you build the walls of Jerusalem.
19 In that case you will be delighted with sacrifices of righteousness,
With burnt sacrifice and whole offering;
In that case bulls will be offered up on your very own altar.

To the director. Mas′kil. Of David, when Do′eg the E′dom·ite came and proceeded to tell Saul and say to him that David had come to the house of A·him′e·lech.

52 Why do you make your boast over what is bad, O you mighty one?
The loving-kindness of God is all day long.

2 Adversities your tongue schemes up, sharpened like a razor,
Working deceitfully.

3 You have loved what is bad more than what is good,
Falsehood more than speaking righteousness. Se′lah.

4 You have loved all devouring words,
O you deceitful tongue.

5 God himself will also pull you down forever;
He will knock you down and tear you away from your tent,
And he will certainly root you out of the land of the living ones. Se′lah.

6 And the righteous ones will see it and will be afraid,
And over him they will laugh.

7 Here is the able-bodied man that does not put God as his fortress,
But that trusts in the abundance of his riches,
That takes shelter in adversities by him.

8 But I shall be like a luxuriant olive tree in God’s house;
I do trust in the loving-kindness of God to time indefinite, even forever.

9 I will laud you to time indefinite, for you have taken action;
And I shall hope in your name, because it is good, in front of your loyal ones.

To the director over Ma′ha·lath. Mas′kil. Of David.

53 The senseless one has said in his heart:
"There is no Jehovah."
They have acted ruinously and have acted detestably in unrighteousness;
There is no one doing good.

2 As for God, he has looked down from heaven itself upon the sons of men,
To see whether there exists anyone having insight, anyone seeking Jehovah.

3 They have all of them turned back, they are all alike corrupt;
There is no one doing good,
Not even one.

4 Have none of the practicers of what is hurtful got knowledge,
Eating up my people as they have eaten bread?
They have not called even upon Jehovah.

5 There they were filled with a great dread,
Where there had proved to be no dread;
For God himself will certainly scatter the bones of anyone camping against you.
You will certainly put them to shame, for Jehovah himself has rejected them.

6 O that out of Zion there were the grand salvation of Israel!
When Jehovah gathers back the captive ones of his people,
Let Jacob be joyful, let Israel rejoice.

To the director on stringed instruments. Mas′kil. Of David. When the Ziph′ites came in and proceeded to say to Saul: “Is not David concealing himself with us?”

54 O God, by your name save me,
And with your mightiness may you plead my cause.
2 O God, hear my prayer;
Do give ear to the sayings of my mouth.
3 For there are strangers that have risen up against me,
And tyrants that do seek my soul.
They have not set God in front of them. Se′lah.
4 Look! God is my helper;
Jehovah is among those supporting my soul.
5 He will repay the bad to my foes;
In your trueness silence them.
6 In willingness I will sacrifice to you.
I shall laud your name, O Jehovah, for it is good.
7 For out of every distress he delivered me,
And upon my enemies my eye has looked.

To the director on stringed instruments. Mas′kil. Of David.

55 Do give ear, O God, to my prayer;
And do not hide yourself from my request for favor.

2 Do pay attention to me and answer me.
I am driven restlessly about by my concern,
And I cannot but show disquietude,

3 Due to the voice of the enemy, because of the pressure of the wicked one.
For they keep dropping upon me what is hurtful,
And in anger they harbor animosity against me.

4 My very heart is in severe pain within me,
And the frights of death itself have fallen upon me.

5 Fear, yes, trembling itself enters into me,
And shuddering covers me.

6 And I keep saying: “O that I had wings as a dove has!
I would fly away and reside.

7 Look! I would go far away in flight;
I would lodge in the wilderness.—Se′lah—

8 I would hasten to a place of escape for me
From the rushing wind, from the tempest.”

9 Confuse, O Jehovah, divide their tongue,
For I have seen violence and disputing in the city.

10 Day and night they go round about it upon its walls;
And hurtfulness and trouble are within it.

11 Adversities are within it;
And from its public square oppression and deception have not moved away.

12 For it was not an enemy that proceeded to reproach me;
Otherwise I could put up with it.
It was not an intense hater of me that assumed great airs against me;
Otherwise I could conceal myself from him.

13 But it was you, a mortal man who was as my equal,
One familiar to me and my acquaintance,

14 Because we used to enjoy sweet intimacy together;
Into the house of God we used to walk with the throng.

15 Desolations be upon them!
Let them go down into She′ol alive;
For during their alien residence bad things have been within them.

16 As for me, to God I shall call out;
And Jehovah himself will save me.

17 Evening and morning and noontime I cannot but show concern and I moan,
And he hears my voice.

18 He will certainly redeem and put my soul in peace from the fight that is against me,
For in multitudes they have come to be against me.

19 God will hear and answer them,
Even He that is sitting enthroned as in the past—Se′lah—
Those with whom there are no changings
And who have not feared God.

20 He has thrust out his hands against those at peace with him;
He has profaned his covenant.

21 Smoother than butter are the words of his mouth,
But his heart is disposed to fight.
His words are softer than oil,
But they are drawn swords.

22 Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself,
And he himself will sustain you.
Never will he allow the righteous one to totter.

23 But you yourself, O God, will bring them down to the lowest pit.
As for bloodguilty and deceitful men, they will not live out half their days.
But as for me, I shall trust in you.

To the director on the Silent Dove among those far away. Of David. Mik′tam. When the Phi·lis′tines laid hold of him in Gath.

56 Show me favor, O God, because mortal man has snapped at me.
Warring all day long, he keeps oppressing me.

2 My foes have kept snapping all day long,
For there are many warring against me high-mindedly.

3 Whatever day I get afraid, I, for my part, shall trust even in you.

4 In union with God I shall praise his word.
In God I have put my trust; I shall not be afraid.
What can flesh do to me?

5 All day long they keep hurting my personal affairs;
All their thoughts are against me for bad.

6 They attack, they conceal themselves,
They, for their part, keep observing my very steps,
While they have waited for my soul.

7 On account of their hurtfulness cast them forth.
In anger bring down even the peoples, O God.

8 My being a fugitive you yourself have reported.
Do put my tears in your skin bottle.
Are they not in your book?

9 At that time my enemies will turn back, on the day that I call;
This I well know, that God is for me.

10 In union with God I shall praise his word;
In union with Jehovah I shall praise his word.

11 In God I have put my trust. I shall not be afraid.
What can earthling man do to me?

12 Upon me, O God, there are vows to you.
I shall render expressions of thanksgiving to you.

13 For you have delivered my soul from death—
Have you not delivered my feet from stumbling?—
That I may walk about before God in the light of those alive.

To the director. “Do not bring to ruin.” Of David. Mik′tam. When he ran away because of Saul, into the cave.

57 Show me favor, O God, show me favor,
For in you my soul has taken refuge;
And in the shadow of your wings I take refuge until the adversities pass over.

2 I call to God the Most High, to the true God who is bringing them to an end on my account.

3 He will send from heaven and save me.
He will certainly confuse the one snapping at me. Se′lah.
God will send his loving-kindness and his trueness.

4 My soul is in the middle of lions;
I cannot but lie down among devourers, even the sons of men,
Whose teeth are spears and arrows,
And whose tongue is a sharp sword.

5 O be exalted above the heavens, O God;
Let your glory be above all the earth.

6 A net they have prepared for my steps;
My soul has become bowed down.
They excavated before me a pitfall;
They have fallen into the midst of it. Se′lah.

7 My heart is steadfast, O God,
My heart is steadfast.
I will sing and make melody.

8 Do awake, O my glory;
Do awake, O stringed instrument; you too, O harp.

I will awaken the dawn.

9 I shall laud you among the peoples, O Jehovah;
I shall make melody to you among the national groups.

10 For your loving-kindness is great up to the heavens,
And your trueness up to the skies.

11 Do be exalted above the heavens, O God;
Let your glory be above all the earth.

To the director. “Do not bring to ruin.” Of David. Mik′tam.

58 In YOUR silence can YOU really speak about righteousness itself?
Can YOU judge in uprightness itself, O YOU sons of men?

2 How much, rather, do YOU with the heart practice outright unrighteousness in the earth,
And prepare the road for the very violence of YOUR hands!

3 The wicked ones have been perverts from the womb;
They have wandered about from the belly onward;
They are speaking lies.

4 The venom of theirs is like the venom of the serpent,
Deaf like the cobra that stops up its ear,

5 That will not listen to the voice of charmers,
Though someone wise is binding with spells.

6 O God, knock out their teeth in their mouth.
Break down the very jawbones of maned young lions, O Jehovah.

7 May they dissolve as into waters that go their way;
May he bend the bow for his arrows as they collapse.

8 Like a snail melting away he walks;
Like a miscarriage of a woman they will certainly not behold the sun.

9 Before YOUR pots feel the kindled bramble,
The live green as well as the burning, he will carry them off as a stormy wind.

10 The righteous one will rejoice because he has beheld the vengeance.
His steps he will bathe in the blood of the wicked one.

11 And mankind will say: “Surely there is fruitage for the righteous one.
Surely there exists a God that is judging in the earth.”

To the director. “Do not bring to ruin.” Of David. Mik′tam. When Saul sent, and they kept watching the house, to put him to death.

59 Deliver me from my enemies, O my God;
From those rising up against me may you protect me.

2 Deliver me from the practicers of what is hurtful,
And from bloodguilty men save me.

3 For, look! they have lain in wait for my soul;
Strong ones make an attack upon me,
For no revolt on my part, nor any sin on my part, O Jehovah.

4 Though there is no error, they run and get themselves ready.
Do rouse yourself at my calling and see.

5 And you, O Jehovah God of armies, are the God of Israel.
Do wake up to turn your attention to all the nations.
Do not show favor to any hurtful traitors. Se′lah.

6 They keep returning at evening time;
They keep barking like a dog and go all around the city.

7 Look! They make a bubbling forth with their mouth;
Swords are on their lips,
For who is listening?

8 But you yourself, O Jehovah, will laugh at them;
You will hold all the nations in derision.

9 O my Strength, toward you I will keep watch;
For God is my secure height.

10 The God of loving-kindness to me will himself confront me;
God himself will cause me to look upon my foes.

11 Do not kill them, that my people may not forget.
By your vital energy make them wander about,
And bring them down, O our shield Jehovah,

12 For the sin of their mouth, the word of their lips;
And may they be caught in their pride,
Even for the cursing and the deception that they rehearse.

13 Bring them to an end in rage;
Bring them to an end, that they may not be;
And may they know that God is ruling in Jacob to the ends of the earth. Se′lah.

14 And let them return at evening time;
Let them bark like a dog and go all around the city.

15 Let those very ones wander about for something to eat;
Let them not be satisfied or stay overnight.

16 But as for me, I shall sing of your strength,
And in the morning I shall joyfully tell about your loving-kindness.
For you have proved to be a secure height for me
And a place to which to flee in the day of my distress.
17 O my Strength, to you I will make melody,
For God is my secure height, the God of loving-kindness to me.

To the director on The Lily of Reminder. Mik′tam. Of David. For teaching. When he engaged in a struggle with A′ram-na·ha·ra′im and A′ram-Zo′bah, and Jo′ab proceeded to return and strike down E′dom in the Valley of Salt, even twelve thousand.

60 O God, you have cast us off, you have broken through us,
You have become incensed. You should restore us.

2 You have caused the earth to rock, you have split it open.
Heal its breaches, for it has tottered.

3 You have caused your people to see hardship.
You have made us drink wine sending us reeling.

4 You have given to those fearing you a signal
To flee zigzag on account of the bow. Se′lah.

5 In order that your beloved ones may be rescued,
O do save with your right hand and answer us.

6 God himself has spoken in his holiness:
“I will exult, I will give out She′chem as a portion;
And the low plain of Suc′coth I shall measure off.

7 Gil′e·ad belongs to me and Ma·nas′seh belongs to me,
And E′phra·im is the fortress of my head one;
Judah is my commander’s staff.

8 Mo′ab is my washing pot.
Over E′dom I shall throw my sandal.
Over Phi·lis′ti·a I shall shout in triumph.”

9 Who will bring me to the besieged city?
Who will certainly lead me as far as E′dom?

10 Is it not you, O God, who have cast us off
And who do not go forth with our armies as God?

11 Do give us assistance from distress,
As salvation by earthling man is worthless.

12 By God we shall gain vital energy,
And he himself will tread down our adversaries.

To the director on stringed instruments. Of David.

61 Do hear, O God, my entreating cry.
Do pay attention to my prayer.

2 From the extremity of the earth I shall cry, even to you, when my heart grows feeble.
Onto a rock that is higher than I am may you lead me.

3 For you have proved to be a refuge for me,
A strong tower in the face of the enemy.

4 I will be a guest in your tent for times indefinite;
I will take refuge in the concealment of your wings. Se′lah.

5 For you yourself, O God, have listened to my vows.
You have given me the possession of those fearing your name.

6 Days you will add to the days of the king;
His years will be like generation after generation.

7 He will dwell to time indefinite before God;
O assign loving-kindness and trueness, that these may safeguard him.

8 So I will make melody to your name forever,
That I may pay my vows day after day.

To the director of Je·du′thun. A melody of David.

62 Indeed toward God is my soul waiting in silence.
From him my salvation is.

2 Indeed he is my rock and my salvation, my secure height;
I shall not be made to totter very much.

3 How long will YOU carry on frantically against the man whom YOU would murder?
All of YOU are like a leaning wall, a stone wall that is being pushed in.

4 Indeed they give advice so as to allure from one’s own dignity;
They take pleasure in a lie.
With their mouth they bless, but inside themselves they call down evil. Se′lah.

5 Indeed toward God wait silently, O my soul,
Because from him is my hope.

6 Indeed he is my rock and my salvation, my secure height;
I shall not be made to totter.

7 Upon God are my salvation and my glory.
My strong rock, my refuge is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times, O people.
Before him pour out YOUR heart.
God is a refuge for us. Se′lah.

9 Indeed the sons of earthling man are an exhalation,
The sons of mankind are a lie.
When laid upon the scales they are all together lighter than an exhalation.

10 Do not put YOUR trust in defrauding,
Nor become vain in sheer robbery.
In case the means of maintenance should thrive, do not set YOUR heart on them.

11 Once God has spoken, twice I have heard even this,
That strength belongs to God.

12 Also loving-kindness belongs to you, O Jehovah,
For you yourself pay back to each one according to his work.

A melody of David, when he happened to be in the wilderness of Judah.

63 O God, you are my God, I keep looking for you.
My soul does thirst for you.
For you my flesh has grown faint with longing
In a land dry and exhausted, where there is no water.

2 Thus I have beheld you in the holy place,
At seeing your strength and your glory.

3 Because your loving-kindness is better than life,
My own lips will commend you.

4 Thus I shall bless you during my lifetime;
In your name I shall raise my palms.

5 As with the best part, even fatness, my soul is satisfied,
And with lips of joyful cries my mouth offers praise.

6 When I have remembered you upon my lounge,
During the night watches I meditate on you.

7 For you have proved to be of assistance to me,
And in the shadow of your wings I cry out joyfully.

8 My soul has closely followed you;
On me your right hand keeps fast hold.

9 As for those who keep seeking my soul for its ruin,
They will come into the lowest parts of the earth.

10 They will be delivered over to the power of the sword;
They will become a mere portion for foxes.

11 And the king himself will rejoice in God.
Every one swearing by him will boast,
For the mouth of those speaking falsehood will be stopped up.

To the director. A melody of David.

64 Hear, O God, my voice in my concern.
From the dreadfulness of the enemy may you safeguard my life.

2 May you conceal me from the confidential talk of evildoers,
From the tumult of practicers of hurtfulness,

3 Who have sharpened their tongue just like a sword,
Who have aimed their arrow, bitter speech,

4 To shoot from concealed places at someone blameless.
All of a sudden they shoot at him and do not fear.

5 They hold themselves down to bad speech;
They make statements about hiding traps.
They have said: “Who sees them?”

6 They keep searching out unrighteous things;
They have hidden a shrewd device well searched out,
And the inward part of each one, even his heart, is deep.

7 But God will shoot at them with an arrow suddenly.
Wounds have resulted to them,

8 And they cause one to stumble.
But their tongue is against their own selves.
All those looking upon them will shake their head,

9 And all earthling men will become afraid;
And they will tell of the activity of God,
And they will certainly have insight into his work.

10 And the righteous one will rejoice in Jehovah and will indeed take refuge in him;
And all the upright in heart will boast.

To the director. A melody of David. A song.

65 For you there is praise—silence—, O God, in Zion;
And to you the vow will be paid.

2 O Hearer of prayer, even to you people of all flesh will come.

3 Things of error have proved mightier than I am.
As for our transgressions, you yourself will cover them.

4 Happy is the one you choose and cause to approach,
That he may reside in your courtyards.
We will certainly be satisfied with the goodness of your house,
The holy place of your temple.

5 With fear-inspiring things in righteousness you will answer us,
O God of our salvation,
The Trust of all the borders of the earth and those far away on the sea.

6 He is firmly establishing the mountains with his power;
He is indeed girded with mightiness.

7 He is stilling the noise of the seas,
The noise of their waves and the turmoil of the national groups.

8 And the inhabitants of the uttermost parts will be afraid of your signs;
The goings forth of the morning and evening you cause to cry out joyfully.

9 You have turned your attention to the earth, that you may give it abundance;
You enrich it very much.
The stream from God is full of water.
You prepare their grain,
For that is the way you prepare the earth.

10 There is a drenching of its furrows, a leveling off of its clods;
With copious showers you soften it; you bless its very sprouts.

11 You have crowned the year with your goodness,
And your very tracks drip with fatness.

12 The pasture grounds of the wilderness keep dripping,
And with joyfulness the very hills gird themselves.

13 The pastures have become clothed with flocks,
And the low plains themselves are enveloped with grain.
They shout in triumph, yes, they sing.

To the director. A song, a melody.

66 Shout in triumph to God, all YOU people of the earth.

2 Make melody to the glory of his name.
Render his praise glorious.

3 Say to God: “How fear-inspiring your works are!
Because of the abundance of your strength your enemies will come cringing to you.

4 All people of the earth will bow down to you,
And they will make melody to you, they will make melody to your name.” Se´lah.

5 Come, YOU people, and see the activities of God.
His dealing with the sons of men is fear-inspiring.

6 He has changed the sea into dry land;
Through the river they went crossing over on foot.
There we began to rejoice in him.

7 He is ruling by his mightiness to time indefinite.
Upon the nations his own eyes keep watch.
As for those who are stubborn, let them not be exalted in themselves. Se´lah.

8 Bless our God, O YOU peoples,
And cause the voice of praise to him to be heard.

9 He is setting our soul in life,
And he has not allowed our foot to totter.

10 For you have examined us, O God;
You have refined us as when refining silver.

11 You have brought us into a hunting net;
You have put pressure on our hips.

12 You have made mortal man to ride over our head;
We have come through fire and through water,
And you proceeded to bring us forth to relief.

13 I shall come into your house with whole burnt offerings;
I shall pay to you my vows

14 That my lips have opened up to say
And that my mouth has spoken when I was in sore straits.

15 Whole burnt offerings of fatlings I shall offer up to you,
With the sacrificial smoke of rams.
I shall render up a bull with he-goats. Se´lah.

16 Come, listen, all YOU who fear God, and I will relate
What he has done for my soul.

17 To him I called with my mouth,
And there was an extolling with my tongue.
18 If I have regarded anything hurtful in my heart,
Jehovah will not hear me.
19 Truly God has heard;
He has paid attention to the voice of my prayer.
20 Blessed be God, who has not turned aside my prayer,
Nor his loving-kindness from me.

To the director on stringed instruments. A melody, a song.

67 God himself will show us favor and bless us;
He will make his face shine upon us—Se′lah—
2 That your way may be known in the earth,
Your salvation even among all the nations.
3 Let peoples laud you, O God;
Let the peoples, all of them, laud you.
4 Let national groups rejoice and cry out joyfully,
For you will judge the peoples with uprightness;
And as for national groups, on the earth you will lead them. Se′lah.
5 Let peoples laud you, O God;
Let peoples, all of them, laud you.
6 The earth itself will certainly give its produce;
God, our God, will bless us.
7 God will bless us,
And all the ends of the earth will fear him.

To the director. Of David. A melody, a song.

68 Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered,
And let those who intensely hate him flee because of him.

2 As smoke is driven away, may you drive them away;
As wax melts because of the fire,
Let the wicked ones perish from before God.

3 But as for the righteous, let them rejoice,
Let them be elated before God,
And let them exult with rejoicing.

4 Sing YOU to God, make melody to his name;
Raise up a song to the One riding through the desert plains
As Jah, which is his name; and jubilate before him;

5 A father of fatherless boys and a judge of widows
Is God in his holy dwelling.

6 God is causing the solitary ones to dwell in a house;
He is bringing forth prisoners into full prosperity.
However, as for the stubborn, they have to reside in a scorched land.

7 O God, when you went forth before your people,
When you marched through the desert—Seʹlah—

8 The earth itself rocked,
Heaven itself also dripped because of God;
This Siʹnai rocked because of God, the God of Israel.

9 A copious downpour you began causing to fall, O God;
Your inheritance, even when it was weary—you yourself reinvigorated it.

10 Your tent community—they have dwelt in it;
With your goodness you proceeded to make it ready for the afflicted one, O God.

11 Jehovah himself gives the saying;
The women telling the good news are a large army.

12 Even the kings of armies flee, they flee.
As for her who abides at home, she shares in the spoil.

13 Although YOU men kept lying between the camp ash heaps,
There will be the wings of a dove covered with silver
And its pinions with yellowish-green gold.

14 When the Almighty One scattered abroad the kings in it,
It began to snow in Zalʹmon.

15 The mountainous region of Baʹshan is a mountain of God;
The mountainous region of Baʹshan is a mountain of peaks.

16 Why do YOU, O YOU mountains of peaks, keep watching enviously
The mountain that God has desired for himself to dwell in?
Even Jehovah himself will reside there forever.

17 The war chariots of God are in tens of thousands, thousands over and over again.
Jehovah himself has come from Si′nai into the holy place.

18 You have ascended on high;
You have carried away captives;
You have taken gifts in the form of men,
Yes, even the stubborn ones, to reside among them, O Jah God.

19 Blessed be Jehovah, who daily carries the load for us,
The true God of our salvation. Se′lah.

20 The true God is for us a God of saving acts;
And to Jehovah the Sovereign Lord belong the ways out from death.

21 Indeed God himself will break the head of his enemies in pieces,
The hairy crown of the head of anyone walking about in his guiltiness.

22 Jehovah has said: “From Ba′shan I shall bring back,
I shall bring them back from the depths of the sea,

23 In order that you may wash your foot in blood,
That the tongue of your dogs may have its portion from the enemies.”

24 They have seen your processions, O God,
The processions of my God, my King, into the holy place.

25 The singers went in front, the players on stringed instruments after them;
In between were the maidens beating tambourines.

26 In congregated throngs bless God,
Jehovah, O YOU who are from the Source of Israel.

27 There is little Benjamin subduing them,
The princes of Judah with their shouting crowd,
The princes of Zeb′u·lun, the princes of Naph′ta·li.

28 Your God has laid command upon your strength.
Do show strength, O God, you who have acted for us.

29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem,
Kings will bring gifts to you yourself.

30 Rebuke the wild beast of the reeds, the assembly of bulls,
With the calves of the peoples, each one stamping down on pieces of silver.
He has scattered the peoples that take delight in fights.

31 Bronzeware things will come out of Egypt;
Cush itself will quickly stretch out its hands with gifts to God.

32 O YOU kingdoms of the earth, sing to God,
Make melody to Jehovah—Se′lah—

33 To the One riding on the ancient heaven of heavens.
Lo! He sounds with his voice, a strong voice.

34 ASCRIBE strength to God.
Over Israel his eminence is and his strength is in the clouds.
35 God is fear-inspiring out of your grand sanctuary.
The God of Israel he is, giving strength, even might to the people.
Blessed be God.

To the director on The Lilies. Of David.

69 Save me, O God, for the waters have come clear to the soul.
[2] I have sunk down in deep mire, where there is no standing ground.
I have come into profound waters,
And a flowing stream itself has washed me away.
[3] I have become tired by my calling out;
My throat has become hoarse.
My eyes have failed while waiting for my God.
[4] Those hating me without a cause have become even more than the hairs of my head.
Those bringing me to silence, being my enemies for no reason, have become numerous.
What I had not taken by robbery I then proceeded to give back.
[5] O God, you yourself have come to know my foolishness,
And from you my own guiltiness has not been hidden.
[6] O may those hoping in you not be ashamed because of me,
O Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies.
O may those seeking you not be humiliated because of me,
O God of Israel.
[7] For on your account I have borne reproach,
Humiliation has covered my face.
[8] I have become one estranged to my brothers,
And a foreigner to the sons of my mother.
[9] For sheer zeal for your house has eaten me up,
And the very reproaches of those reproaching you have fallen upon me.
[10] And I proceeded to weep with the fasting of my soul,
But it came to be for reproaches to me.
[11] When I made sackcloth my clothing,
Then I became to them a proverbial saying.
[12] Those sitting in the gate began concerning themselves about me,
And I was the subject of the songs of drinkers of intoxicating liquor.
[13] But as for me, my prayer was to you, O Jehovah,
At an acceptable time, O God.
In the abundance of your loving-kindness answer me with the truth of salvation by you.
[14] Deliver me from the mire, that I may not sink down.
O may I be delivered from those hating me and from the deep waters.
[15] O may not the flowing stream of waters wash me away,
Nor the depth swallow me up,

Nor the well close its mouth over me.
16 Answer me, O Jehovah, for your loving-kindness is good.
According to the multitude of your mercies turn to me,
17 And do not conceal your face from your servant.
Because I am in sore straits, answer me quickly.
18 Do come near to my soul, reclaim it;
On account of my enemies redeem me.
19 You yourself have come to know my reproach and my shame and my humiliation.
All those showing hostility to me are in front of you.
20 Reproach itself has broken my heart, and the wound is incurable.
And I kept hoping for someone to show sympathy, but there was none;
And for comforters, but I found none.
21 But for food they gave me a poisonous plant,
And for my thirst they tried to make me drink vinegar.
22 Let their table before them become a trap,
And what is for their welfare a snare.
23 Let their eyes become darkened so as not to see;
And cause their very hips to wobble constantly.
24 Pour out upon them your denunciation,
And may your own burning anger overtake them.
25 Let their walled camp become desolate;
In their tents may there come to be no dweller.
26 For the one whom you yourself have struck they have pursued,
And the pains of those pierced by you they keep recounting.
27 Do give error upon their error,
And may they not come into your righteousness.
28 Let them be wiped out of the book of the living ones,
And with the righteous ones may they not be written in.
29 But I am afflicted and aching.
May your own salvation, O God, protect me.
30 I will praise the name of God with song,
And I will magnify him with thanksgiving.
31 This will also be more pleasing to Jehovah than a bull,
Than a young bull displaying horns, splitting the hoof.
32 The meek ones will certainly see it; they will rejoice.
YOU who are seeking God, let YOUR heart also keep alive.
33 For Jehovah is listening to the poor ones,
And he will indeed not despise his very own prisoners.
34 Let heaven and earth praise him,
The seas and everything moving about in them.

35 For God himself will save Zion
And will build the cities of Judah;
And they will certainly dwell there and take possession of it.
36 And the offspring of his servants themselves will inherit it,
And those loving his name will be the ones to reside in it.

To the director. Of David, to bring to remembrance.

70 O God, to deliver me,
O Jehovah, to my assistance do make haste.

2 May those be ashamed and abashed who are seeking my soul.
May those turn back and be humiliated who are taking delight in my calamity.

3 May those go back by reason of their shame who are saying: “Aha, aha!”

4 May those exult and rejoice in you, all of whom are seeking you,
And may they say constantly: “God be magnified!”—those loving your salvation.

5 But I am afflicted and poor.
O God, do act quickly for me.
You are my help and the Provider of escape for me.
O Jehovah, do not be too late.

71 In you, O Jehovah, I have taken refuge.
O may I never be ashamed.

2 In your righteousness may you deliver me and provide me with escape.
Incline to me your ear and save me.

3 Become to me a rock fortress into which to enter constantly.
You must command to save me,
For you are my crag and my stronghold.

4 O my God, provide me with escape from the hand of the wicked one,
From the palm of the one acting unjustly and oppressively.

5 For you are my hope, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, my confidence from my youth.

6 Upon you I have supported myself from the belly;
You are the One severing me even from the inward parts of my mother.
In you my praise is constantly.

7 I have become just like a miracle to many people;
But you are my strong refuge.

8 My mouth is filled with your praise,
All day long with your beauty.

9 Do not throw me away in the time of old age;
Just when my power is failing, do not leave me.

10 For my enemies have said in regard to me,
And the very ones keeping watch for my soul have jointly exchanged counsel,

11 Saying: “God himself has left him.
Pursue and catch him, for there is no deliverer.”

12 O God, do not keep far away from me.
O my God, do hurry to my assistance.

13 May those be ashamed, may those come to their end, who are resisting my soul.
May those cover themselves with reproach and humiliation who are seeking calamity for me.

14 But as for me, I shall wait constantly,
And I will add to all your praise.

15 My own mouth will recount your righteousness,
All day long your salvation,
For I have not come to know the numbers of them.

16 I shall come in grand mightiness, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah;
I shall mention your righteousness, yours alone.

17 O God, you have taught me from my youth on, And until now I keep telling about your wonderful works.

18 And even until old age and gray-headedness, O God, do not leave me,
Until I may tell about your arm to the generation,
To all those who are to come, about your mightiness.

19 Your righteousness, O God, is up to the height;
As respects the great things that you have done,
O God, who is like you?

20 Because you have made me see many distresses and calamities,
May you revive me again;
And from the watery deeps of the earth may you again bring me up.

21 May you enlarge my greatness,
And may you surround and comfort me.

22 I too, I shall laud you on an instrument of a stringed sort,
As regards your trueness, O my God.
I will make melody to you on the harp, O Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips will cry out joyfully when I am inclined to make melody to you,
Even my soul that you have redeemed.

24 Also, my own tongue, all day long, will utter in an undertone your righteousness,
For they have become ashamed, for they have become abashed, who are seeking calamity for me.

Regarding Solomon.

72 O God, give your own judicial decisions to the king,
And your righteousness to the son of the king.

2 May he plead the cause of your people with righteousness
And of your afflicted ones with judicial decision.

3 Let the mountains carry peace to the people,
Also the hills, through righteousness.

4 Let him judge the afflicted ones of the people,
Let him save the sons of the poor one,
And let him crush the defrauder.

5 They will fear you as long as there is a sun,
And before the moon for generation after generation.

6 He will descend like the rain upon the mown grass,
Like copious showers that wet the earth.

7 In his days the righteous one will sprout,
And the abundance of peace until the moon is no more.

8 And he will have subjects from sea to sea
And from the River to the ends of the earth.

9 Before him the inhabitants of waterless regions will bow down,
And his very enemies will lick the dust itself.

10 The kings of Tar′shish and of the islands—
Tribute they will pay.
The kings of She′ba and of Se′ba—
A gift they will present.

11 And to him all the kings will prostrate themselves;
All the nations, for their part, will serve him.

12 For he will deliver the poor one crying for help,
Also the afflicted one and whoever has no helper.

13 He will feel sorry for the lowly one and the poor one,
And the souls of the poor ones he will save.

14 From oppression and from violence he will redeem their soul,
And their blood will be precious in his eyes.

15 And let him live, and to him let some of the gold of She′ba be given.
And in his behalf let prayer be made constantly;
All day long let him be blessed.

16 There will come to be plenty of grain on the earth;
On the top of the mountains there will be an overflow.
His fruit will be as in Leb′a·non,

And those who are from the city will blossom like the vegetation of the earth.
17 Let his name prove to be to time indefinite;
Before the sun let his name have increase,
And by means of him let them bless themselves;
Let all nations pronounce him happy.
18 Blessed be Jehovah God, Israel’s God,
Who alone is doing wonderful works.
19 And blessed be his glorious name to time indefinite,
And let his glory fill the whole earth.
Amen and Amen.
20 The prayers of David, the son of Jes′se, have come to their end.

BOOK THREE

(Psalms 73 – 89)

A melody of A′saph.

73 God is indeed good to Israel, to those clean in heart.
2 As for me, my feet had almost turned aside,
My steps had nearly been made to slip.
3 For I became envious of the boasters,
When I would see the very peace of wicked people.
4 For they have no deathly pangs;
And their paunch is fat.
5 They are not even in the trouble of mortal man,
And they are not plagued the same as other men.
6 Therefore haughtiness has served as a necklace to them;
Violence envelops them as a garment.
7 Their eye has bulged from fatness;
They have exceeded the imaginations of the heart.
8 They scoff and speak about what is bad;
About defrauding they speak in an elevated style.
9 They have put their mouth in the very heavens,
And their tongue itself walks about in the earth.
10 Therefore he brings his people back hither,
And the waters of what is full are drained out for them.
11 And they have said: “How has God come to know?
And does there exist knowledge in the Most High?”
12 Look! These are the wicked, who are at ease indefinitely.
They have increased their means of maintenance.
13 Surely it is in vain that I have cleansed my heart
And that I wash my hands in innocence itself.
14 And I came to be plagued all day long,
And my correction is every morning.
15 If I had said: “I will tell a story like that,”
Look! against the generation of your sons
I should have acted treacherously.
16 And I kept considering so as to know this;

It was a trouble in my eyes,
17 Until I proceeded to come into the grand sanctuary of God.
I wanted to discern their future.
18 Surely on slippery ground is where you place them.
You have made them fall to ruins.
19 O how they have become an object of astonishment as in a moment!
How they have reached their end, have been brought to their finish through sudden terrors!
20 Like a dream after awaking, O Jehovah,
So when arousing yourself you will despise their very image.
21 For my heart was soured
And in my kidneys I was sharply pained,
22 And I was unreasoning and I could not know;
I became as mere beasts from your standpoint.
23 But I am constantly with you;
You have taken hold of my right hand.
24 With your counsel you will lead me,
And afterward you will take me even to glory.
25 Whom do I have in the heavens?
And besides you I do have no other delight on the earth.
26 My organism and my heart have failed.
God is the rock of my heart and my share to time indefinite.
27 For, look! the very ones keeping away from you will perish.
You will certainly silence every one immorally leaving you.
28 But as for me, the drawing near to God is good for me.
In the Sovereign Lord Jehovah I have placed my refuge,
To declare all your works.

A masʹkil. Of Aʹsaph.

74 Why, O God, have you cast off forever?
Why does your anger keep smoking against the flock of your pasturage?

2 Remember your assembly that you acquired long ago,
The tribe that you redeemed as your inheritance,
This Mount Zion in which you have resided.

3 Do lift up your steps to the long-lasting desolations.
Everything the enemy has treated badly in the holy place.

4 Those showing hostility to you have roared in the middle of your meeting place.
They have set their own signs as the signs.

5 One is notorious in being like him that brings up axes on high against a thicket of trees.

6 And now the very engravings of it, one and all, they strike even with hatchet and iron-tipped beams.

7 They have thrust your sanctuary into the fire itself.
They have profaned the tabernacle of your name to the very earth.

8 They, even their offspring, have said together in their own heart:
“All the meeting places of God must be burned in the land.”

9 Our signs we have not seen; there is no prophet anymore,
And there is no one with us knowing how long.

10 How long, O God, will the adversary keep reproaching?
Will the enemy keep treating your name with disrespect forever?

11 Why do you keep your hand, even your right hand, withdrawn
From the midst of your bosom to make an end of us?

12 And yet God is my King from long ago,
The One performing grand salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 You yourself stirred up the sea with your own strength;
You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.

14 You yourself crushed to pieces the heads of Le·viʹa·than.
You proceeded to give it as food to the people, to those inhabiting the waterless regions.

15 You were the One that split the spring and the torrent;
You yourself dried up ever-flowing rivers.

16 To you the day belongs; also, to you the night belongs.
You yourself prepared the luminary, even the sun.

17 It was you that set up all the boundaries of the earth;
Summer and winter—you yourself formed them.

18 Remember this: The enemy himself has reproached, O Jehovah,
And a senseless people have treated your name with disrespect.
19 Do not give to the wild beast the soul of your turtledove.
Do not forget the very life of your afflicted ones forever.
20 Take a look at the covenant,
For the dark places of the earth have become full of the abodes of violence.
21 O may the crushed one not return humiliated.
May the afflicted one and the poor one praise your name.
22 Do arise, O God, do conduct your own case at law.
Remember your reproach from the senseless one all day long.
23 Do not forget the voice of those showing hostility to you.
The noise of those rising up against you is ascending constantly.

To the director. “Do not bring to ruin.” A melody. Of A′saph. A song.

75 We give thanks to you, O God; we give thanks to you,
And your name is near.
Men have to declare your wondrous works.

2 “For I proceeded to take a set time;
I myself began judging with uprightness.

3 The earth and all its inhabitants being dissolved,
It was I that adjusted its pillars.” Se′lah.

4 I said to the foolish ones: “Do not be foolish,”
And to the wicked ones: “Do not exalt the horn.

5 Do not exalt YOUR horn on high.
Do not speak with an arrogant neck.

6 For neither from the east nor from the west,
Nor from the south is there an exalting.

7 For God is the judge.
This one he abases, and that one he exalts.

8 For there is a cup in the hand of Jehovah,
And the wine is foaming, it is full of mixture.
And he will surely pour out its dregs from it;
All the wicked ones of the earth will drain them out, drink them.”

9 But as for me, I shall tell of it to time indefinite;
I will make melody to the God of Jacob.

10 “And all the horns of the wicked ones I shall cut down.”
The horns of the righteous one will be exalted.

To the director on stringed instruments. A melody. Of A′saph. A song.

76 God is known in Judah;
In Israel his name is great.

2 And his covert proves to be in Sa′lem itself,
And his dwelling place in Zion.

3 There he broke the flaming shafts of the bow,
The shield and the sword and the battle. Se′lah.

4 You are enveloped with light, more majestic than the mountains of prey.

5 The ones powerful in heart have been despoiled,
They have drowsed away to their sleep,
And none of all the valiant men have found their hands.

6 From your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the charioteer and the horse have fallen fast asleep.

7 You—fear-inspiring you are,
And who can stand before you because of the strength of your anger?

8 From heaven you caused the legal contest to be heard;
The earth itself feared and kept quiet

9 When God rose up to judgment,
To save all the meek of the earth. Se′lah.

10 For the very rage of man will laud you;
The remainder of raging you will gird upon yourself.

11 Vow and pay to Jehovah YOUR God, all YOU who are round about him.
Let them bring a gift in fear.

12 He will humble the spirit of leaders;
Fear-inspiring he is to the kings of the earth.

PSALMS

To the director on Je·du′thun. Of A′saph. A melody.

77 With my voice I will even cry out to God himself,
With my voice to God, and he will certainly give ear to me.

2 In the day of my distress I have searched for Jehovah himself.
At night my very hand has been stretched out and does not grow numb;
My soul has refused to be comforted.

3 I will remember God and be boisterous;
I will show concern, that my spirit may faint away. Se′lah.

4 You have seized hold of my eyelids;
I have become agitated, and I cannot speak.

5 I have thought upon the days of long ago,
On the years in the indefinite past.

6 I will remember my string music in the night;
With my heart I will show concern,
And my spirit will carefully search.

7 Will it be to times indefinite that Jehovah keeps casting off,
And will he no more be pleased again?

8 Has his loving-kindness terminated forever?
Has his saying come to nothing for generation after generation?

9 Has God forgotten to be favorable,
Or has he shut off his mercies in anger? Se′lah.

10 And shall I keep saying: “This is what pierces me through,
The changing of the right hand of the Most High”?

11 I shall remember the practices of Jah;
For I will remember your marvelous doing of long ago.

12 And I shall certainly meditate on all your activity,
And with your dealings I will concern myself.

13 O God, your way is in the holy place.
Who is a great God like God?

14 You are the true God, doing marvelously.
Among the peoples you have made your strength known.

15 With your arm you have recovered your people,
The sons of Jacob and of Joseph. Se′lah.

16 The waters have seen you, O God,
The waters have seen you; they began to be in severe pains.
Also, the watery deeps began to be agitated.

17 The clouds have thunderously poured down water;
A sound the cloudy skies have given forth.

Also, your own arrows proceeded to go here and there.
18 The sound of your thunder was like chariot wheels;
Lightnings have lighted up the productive land;
The earth became agitated and began to rock.
19 Through the sea your way was,
And your path was through many waters;
And your very footprints have not come to be known.
20 You have led your people just like a flock,
By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Mas′kil. Of A′saph.

78 Do give ear, O my people, to my law;
Incline YOUR ear to the sayings of my mouth.

2 In a proverbial saying I will open my mouth;
I will cause riddles of long ago to bubble forth,

3 Which we have heard and know,
And which our own fathers have related to us;

4 Which we do not hide from their sons,
Relating them even to the generation to come,
The praises of Jehovah and his strength
And his wonderful things that he has done.

5 And he proceeded to raise up a reminder in Jacob,
And a law he set in Israel,
Things that he commanded our forefathers,
To make them known to their sons;

6 In order that the generation to come, the sons that were to be born, might know them,
That they might rise up and relate them to their sons,

7 And that they might set their confidence in God himself
And not forget the practices of God but observe his own commandments.

8 And they should not become like their forefathers,
A generation stubborn and rebellious,
A generation who had not prepared their heart
And whose spirit was not trustworthy with God.

9 The sons of E′phra·im, though armed shooters of the bow, Retreated in the day of fight.

10 They did not keep the covenant of God,
And in his law they refused to walk.

11 They also began to forget his dealings
And his wonderful works that he caused them to see.

12 In front of their forefathers he had done marvelously
In the land of Egypt, the field of Zo′an.

13 He split the sea, that he might let them pass over,
And he caused the waters to stand like a dam.

14 And he continued to lead them with a cloud by day
And the whole night with a light of fire.

15 He proceeded to split rocks in the wilderness,
That he might cause them to drink an abundance just like watery deeps.

16 And he went bringing forth streams out of a crag
And causing waters to descend just like rivers.

17 And they kept sinning still more against him
By rebelling against the Most High in the waterless region;

18 And they proceeded to test God in their heart
By asking for something to eat for their soul.

19 So they began to speak against God.
They said: “Is God able to arrange a table in the wilderness?”

20 Look! He struck a rock
That waters might flow and torrents themselves might flood forth.
“Is he able also to give bread itself,
Or can he prepare sustenance for his people?”

21 That was why Jehovah heard and began to be furious;
And fire itself was kindled against Jacob,
And anger also ascended against Israel.

22 For they did not put faith in God,
And they did not trust in salvation by him.

23 And he proceeded to command the cloudy skies above,
And he opened the very doors of heaven.

24 And he kept raining upon them manna to eat,
And the grain of heaven he gave to them.

25 Men ate the very bread of powerful ones;
Provisions he sent them to satisfaction.

26 He began making an east wind burst forth in the heavens
And making a south wind blow by his own strength.

27 And he proceeded to make sustenance rain upon them just like dust, Even winged flying creatures just like the sand grains of the seas.

28 And he kept making them fall in the middle of his camp,
All around his tabernacles.

29 And they went eating and satisfying themselves very much,
And what they desired he proceeded to bring to them.

30 They had not turned aside from their desire,
While their food was yet in their mouth,

31 When God’s wrath itself ascended against them.
And he went killing among their stout ones;
And the young men of Israel he made collapse.

32 Despite all this they sinned some more
And did not put faith in his wonderful works.

33 So he brought their days to an end as if a mere exhalation,
And their years by the disturbance.

34 As often as he killed them, they also inquired for him,

And they returned and looked for God.
35 And they began to remember that God was their Rock,
And that God the Most High was their Avenger.
36 And they tried to fool him with their mouth;
And with their tongue they tried to lie to him.
37 And their heart was not steadfast with him;
And they did not prove faithful in his covenant.
38 But he was merciful; he would cover the error and not bring ruin.
And many times he made his anger turn back,
And he would not rouse up all his rage.
39 And he kept remembering that they were flesh,
That the spirit is going forth and does not come back.
40 How often they would rebel against him in the wilderness,
They would make him feel hurt in the desert!
41 And again and again they would put God to the test,
And they pained even the Holy One of Israel.
42 They did not remember his hand,
The day that he redeemed them from the adversary,
43 How he put his signs in Egypt itself
And his miracles in the field of Zoʹan;
44 And how he began changing to blood their Nile canals,
So that they could not drink from their own streams.
45 He proceeded to send upon them gadflies, that these might eat them up;
And frogs, that these might bring them to ruin.
46 And he began to give to the cockroaches their yield,
And their toil to the locusts.
47 He went killing their vine even by the hail
And their sycamore trees by hailstones.
48 And he proceeded to hand over their beasts of burden even to the hail
And their livestock to the flaming fever.
49 He went sending upon them his burning anger,
Fury and denunciation and distress,
Deputations of angels bringing calamity.
50 He proceeded to prepare a pathway for his anger.
He did not hold back their soul from death itself;
And their life he handed over even to the pestilence.
51 Finally he struck down all the firstborn in Egypt,
The beginning of their generative power in the tents of Ham.
52 Afterward he caused his people to depart just like a flock,
And conducted them like a drove in the wilderness.
53 And he kept leading them in security, and they felt no dread;

And the sea covered their enemies themselves.
54 And he proceeded to bring them to his holy territory,
This mountainous region that his right hand acquired.
55 And because of them he gradually drove out the nations,
And by the measuring line he went allotting them an inheritance,
So that he caused the tribes of Israel to reside in their own homes.
56 And they began to test and rebel against God the Most High,
And his reminders they did not keep.
57 They also kept turning back and acting treacherously like their forefathers;
They turned around like a loose bow.
58 And they kept offending him with their high places,
And with their graven images they kept inciting him to jealousy.
59 God heard and got to be furious,
And so he contemned Israel very much.
60 And he finally forsook the tabernacle of Shi′loh,
The tent in which he resided among earthling men.
61 And he proceeded to give his strength even to captivity
And his beauty into the hand of the adversary.
62 And he kept handing over his people to the sword itself,
And against his inheritance he became furious.
63 His young men a fire ate up,
And his virgins were not praised.
64 As for his priests, they fell by the very sword,
And their own widows did not give way to weeping.
65 Then Jehovah began to awake as from sleeping,
Like a mighty one sobering up from wine.
66 And he went striking down his adversaries from behind;
A reproach of indefinite duration he gave to them.
67 And he proceeded to reject the tent of Joseph;
And the tribe of E′phra·im he did not choose.
68 But he chose the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion, which he loved.
69 And he began to build his sanctuary just like the heights,
Like the earth that he has founded to time indefinite.
70 And so he chose David his servant
And took him from the pens of the flock.
71 From following the females giving suck
He brought him in to be a shepherd over Jacob his people
And over Israel his inheritance.
72 And he began to shepherd them according to the integrity of his heart,
And with the skillfulness of his hands he began leading them.

A melody of A′saph.

79 O God, the nations have come into your inheritance;
They have defiled your holy temple;
They have laid Jerusalem in a heap of ruins.

2 They have given the dead body of your servants as food to the fowls of the heavens,
The flesh of your loyal ones to the wild beasts of the earth.

3 They have poured out their blood like water
All around Jerusalem, and there is no one to do the burying.

4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors,
A derision and a jeering to those round about us.

5 How long, O Jehovah, will you be incensed? Forever?
How long will your ardor burn just like fire?

6 Pour out your rage upon the nations that have not known you,
And upon the kingdoms that have not called upon your own name.

7 For they have eaten up Jacob,
And they have caused his own abiding place to be desolated.

8 Do not remember against us the errors of ancestors.
Hurry! Let your mercies confront us,
For we have become greatly impoverished.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation,
For the sake of the glory of your name;
And deliver us and cover over our sins on account of your name.

10 Why should the nations say: “Where is their God?”
Among the nations let there be known before our eyes
The avenging of the blood of your servants that has been shed.

11 May the sighing of the prisoner come in even before you.
According to the greatness of your arm preserve those appointed to death.

12 And repay to our neighbors seven times into their bosom
Their reproach with which they have reproached you, O Jehovah.

13 As for us your people and the flock of your pasturage,
We shall give thanks to you to time indefinite;
From generation to generation we shall declare your praise.

To the director upon The Lilies. A reminder. Of A′saph. A melody.

80 O Shepherd of Israel, do give ear,
You who are conducting Joseph just like a flock.
O you who are sitting upon the cherubs, do beam forth.

2 Before E′phra·im and Benjamin and Ma·nas′seh do rouse up your mightiness,
And do come to our salvation.

3 O God, bring us back;
And light up your face, that we may be saved.

4 O Jehovah God of armies, how long must you fume against the prayer of your people?

5 You have made them eat the bread of tears,
And you keep making them drink tears upon tears in great measure.

6 You set us for strife to our neighbors,
And our very enemies keep deriding as they please.

7 O God of armies, bring us back;
And light up your face, that we may be saved.

8 You proceeded to make a vine depart from Egypt.
You kept driving out the nations, that you might plant it.

9 You made a clearing before it, that it might take root and fill the land.

10 The mountains were covered with its shadow,
And the cedars of God with its boughs.

11 It gradually sent forth its boughs as far as the sea,
And to the River its twigs.

12 Why have you broken down its stone walls,
And why have all those passing by on the road plucked at it?

13 A boar out of the woods keeps eating it away,
And the animal throngs of the open field keep feeding upon it.

14 O God of armies, return, please;
Look down from heaven and see and take care of this vine,

15 And the stock that your right hand has planted,
And look upon the son whom you have made strong for yourself.

16 It is burned with fire, cut off.
From the rebuke of your face they perish.

17 Let your hand prove to be upon the man of your right hand,
Upon the son of mankind whom you have made strong for yourself,

18 And we shall not turn back from you.
May you preserve us alive, that we may call upon your own name.

19 O Jehovah God of armies, bring us back;
Light up your face, that we may be saved.

To the director upon the Git′tith. Of A′saph.

81 O cry out joyfully, YOU people, to God our strength;
Shout in triumph to the God of Jacob.

2 Strike up a melody and take a tambourine,
The pleasant harp together with the stringed instrument.

3 On the new moon, BLOW the horn;
On the full moon, for the day of our festival.

4 For it is a regulation for Israel,
A judicial decision of the God of Jacob.

5 As a reminder he laid it upon Joseph himself,
When he was going forth over the land of Egypt.
A language that I did not know I kept hearing.

6 “I turned aside his shoulder even from the burden;
His own hands got to be free even from the basket.

7 In distress you called, and I proceeded to rescue you;
I began to answer you in the concealed place of thunder.
I went examining you at the waters of Mer′i·bah. Se′lah.

8 Hear, O my people, and I will bear witness against you,
O Israel, if you will listen to me.

9 Among you there will prove to be no strange god;
And you will not bow down to a foreign god.

10 I, Jehovah, am your God,
The One bringing you up out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I shall fill it.

11 But my people has not listened to my voice;
And Israel itself has not showed any willingness toward me.

12 And so I let them go in the stubbornness of their heart;
They went walking in their own counsels.

13 O that my people were listening to me,
O that Israel itself would walk in my very ways!

14 Their enemies I would easily subdue,
And against their adversaries I would turn my hand.

15 As for those intensely hating Jehovah, they will come cringing to him,
And their time will prove to be to time indefinite.

16 And he will keep feeding him off the fat of the wheat,
And out of the rock I shall satisfy you with honey itself.”

A melody of A′saph.

82 God is stationing himself in the assembly of the Divine One;
In the middle of the gods he judges:
2 “How long will YOU keep on judging with injustice
And showing partiality to the wicked themselves? Se′lah.
3 Be judges for the lowly one and the fatherless boy.
To the afflicted one and the one of little means do justice.
4 Provide escape for the lowly one and the poor one;
Out of the hand of the wicked ones deliver them.”
5 They have not known, and they do not understand;
In darkness they keep walking about;
All the foundations of the earth are made to totter.
6 “I myself have said, ‘YOU are gods,
And all of YOU are sons of the Most High.
7 Surely YOU will die just as men do;
And like any one of the princes YOU will fall! ’”
8 Do rise up, O God, do judge the earth;
For you yourself should take possession of all the nations.

A song. A melody of A′saph.

83 O God, let there be no silence on your part;
Do not keep speechless, and do not stay quiet, O Divine One.

2 For, look! your very enemies are in an uproar;
And the very ones intensely hating you have raised their head.

3 Against your people they cunningly carry on their confidential talk;
And they conspire against your concealed ones.

4 They have said: “Come and let us efface them from being a nation,
That the name of Israel may be remembered no more.”

5 For with the heart they have unitedly exchanged counsel;
Against you they proceeded to conclude even a covenant,

6 The tents of E′dom and the Ish′ma·el·ites, Mo′ab and the Hag′rites,

7 Ge′bal and Am′mon and Am′a·lek,
Phi·lis′ti·a together with the inhabitants of Tyre.

8 Also, As·syr′i·a itself has become joined with them;
They have become an arm to the sons of Lot. Se′lah.

9 Do to them as to Mid′i·an, as to Sis′e·ra,
As to Ja′bin at the torrent valley of Ki′shon.

10 They were annihilated at En-dor;
They became manure for the ground.

11 As for their nobles, make these like O′reb and like Ze′eb,
And like Ze′bah and like Zal·mun′na all their dukes,

12 Who have said: “Let us take possession of the abiding places of God for ourselves.”

13 O my God, make them like a thistle whirl,
Like stubble before a wind.

14 Like a fire that burns up the forest
And like a flame that scorches the mountains,

15 In just that way may you pursue them with your tempest
And may you disturb them with your own storm wind.

16 Fill their faces with dishonor,
That people may search for your name, O Jehovah.

17 O may they be ashamed and be disturbed for all times,
And may they become abashed and perish;

18 That people may know that you, whose name is Jehovah,
You alone are the Most High over all the earth.

For the director upon the Git′tith. Of the sons of Ko′rah. A melody.

84 How lovely your grand tabernacle is,
O Jehovah of armies!

2 My soul has yearned and also pined away for the courtyards of Jehovah.
My own heart and my very flesh cry out joyfully to the living God.

3 Even the bird itself has found a house,
And the swallow a nest for herself,
Where she has put her young ones—
Your grand altar, O Jehovah of armies, my King and my God!

4 Happy are those dwelling in your house!
They still keep on praising you. Se′lah.

5 Happy are the men whose strength is in you,
In whose heart are the highways.

6 Passing along through the low plain of the ba′ca bushes,
They turn it into a spring itself;
Even with blessings the instructor enwraps himself.

7 They will walk on from vital energy to vital energy;
Each one appears to God in Zion.

8 O Jehovah God of armies, do hear my prayer;
Do give ear, O God of Jacob. Se′lah.

9 O shield of ours, see, O God,
And look upon the face of your anointed one.

10 For a day in your courtyards is better than a thousand elsewhere.
I have chosen to stand at the threshold in the house of my God
Rather than to move around in the tents of wickedness.

11 For Jehovah God is a sun and a shield;
Favor and glory are what he gives.
Jehovah himself will not hold back anything good from those walking in faultlessness.

12 O Jehovah of armies, happy is the man that is trusting in you.

For the director. Of the sons of Ko′rah. A melody.

85 You have taken pleasure, O Jehovah, in your land;
You have brought back the ones taken captive of Jacob.

[2] You have pardoned the error of your people;
You have covered all their sin. Se′lah.

[3] You have controlled all your fury;
You have turned back from the heat of your anger.

[4] Gather us back, O God of our salvation,
And break off your vexation with us.

[5] Is it to time indefinite that you will be incensed at us?
Will you draw out your anger to generation after generation?

[6] Will you yourself not enliven us again,
That your people themselves may rejoice in you?

[7] Show us, O Jehovah, your loving-kindness,
And your salvation may you give to us.

[8] I will hear what the true God Jehovah will speak,
For he will speak peace to his people and to his loyal ones,
But let them not return to self-confidence.

[9] Surely his salvation is near to those fearing him,
For glory to reside in our land.

[10] As for loving-kindness and trueness, they have met each other;
Righteousness and peace—they have kissed each other.

[11] Trueness itself will sprout out of the very earth,
And righteousness itself will look down from the very heavens.

[12] Also, Jehovah, for his part, will give what is good,
And our own land will give its yield.

[13] Before him righteousness itself will walk,
And it will make a way by his steppings.

A prayer of David.

86 Incline, O Jehovah, your ear. Answer me,
For I am afflicted and poor.

2 O do guard my soul, for I am loyal.
Save your servant—you are my God—that is trusting in you.

3 Show me favor, O Jehovah,
For to you I keep calling all day long.

4 Make the soul of your servant rejoice,
For to you, O Jehovah, I lift up my very soul.

5 For you, O Jehovah, are good and ready to forgive;
And the loving-kindness to all those calling upon you is abundant.

6 Do give ear, O Jehovah, to my prayer;
And do pay attention to the voice of my entreaties.

7 In the day of my distress I will call upon you,
For you will answer me.

8 There is none like you among the gods, O Jehovah,
Neither are there any works like yours.

9 All the nations whom you have made will themselves come,
And they will bow down before you, O Jehovah,
And will give glory to your name.

10 For you are great and are doing wondrous things;
You are God, you alone.

11 Instruct me, O Jehovah, about your way.
I shall walk in your truth.
Unify my heart to fear your name.

12 I laud you, O Jehovah my God, with all my heart,
And I will glorify your name to time indefinite,

13 For your loving-kindness is great toward me,
And you have delivered my soul out of She′ol, its lowest place.

14 O God, the presumptuous ones themselves have risen up against me;
And the very assembly of tyrannical ones have looked for my soul,
And they have not set you in front of themselves.

15 But you, O Jehovah, are a God merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger and abundant in loving-kindness and trueness.

16 Turn to me and show me favor.
Do give your strength to your servant,
And do save the son of your slave girl.

17 Work out with me a sign meaning goodness,

That those hating me may see it and be ashamed.
For you yourself, O Jehovah, have helped me and comforted me.

Of the sons of Ko′rah. A melody, a song.

87 His foundation is in the holy mountains.

2 Jehovah is more in love with the gates of Zion
Than with all the tabernacles of Jacob.

3 Glorious things are being spoken about you, O city of the true God. Se′lah.

4 I shall make mention of Ra′hab and Babylon as among those knowing me;
Here are Phi·lis′ti·a and Tyre, together with Cush:
“This is one who was born there.”

5 And respecting Zion it will be said:
“Each and every one was born in her.”
And the Most High himself will firmly establish her.

6 Jehovah himself will declare, when recording the peoples:
“This is one who was born there.” Se′lah.

7 There will also be singers as well as dancers of circle dances:
“All my springs are in you.”

A song, a melody of the sons of Ko′rah. To the director over Ma′ha·lath for making responses. Mas′kil of He′man the Ez′ra·hite.

88 O Jehovah, the God of my salvation,
By day I have cried out,
In the night also in front of you.

2 Before you my prayer will come.
Incline your ear to my entreating cry.

3 For my soul has had enough of calamities,
And my very life has come in touch even with She′ol.

4 I have been reckoned in among those going down to the pit;
I have become like an able-bodied man without strength,

5 Set free among the dead themselves,
Like slain ones lying in the burial place,
Whom you have remembered no longer
And who have been severed from your own helping hand.

6 You have put me in a pit of the lowest depths,
In dark places, in a large abyss.

7 Upon me your rage has thrown itself,
And with all your breaking waves you have afflicted me. Se′lah.

8 You have put my acquaintances far away from me;
You have set me as something very detestable to them.
I am under restraint and cannot go forth.

9 My own eye has languished because of my affliction.
I have called on you, O Jehovah, all day long;
To you I have spread out my palms.

10 For those who are dead will you do a marvel?
Or will those impotent in death themselves arise,
Will they laud you? Se′lah.

11 Will your loving-kindness be declared in the burial place itself,
Your faithfulness in the place of destruction?

12 Will a marvel by you be known in the darkness itself,
Or your righteousness in the land of oblivion?

13 And yet to you, O Jehovah, I myself have cried for help,
And in the morning my own prayer keeps confronting you.

14 Why is it, O Jehovah, that you cast off my soul?
Why do you keep your face concealed from me?

15 I am afflicted and about to expire from boyhood on;
I have borne frightful things from you very much.

16 Over me your flashes of burning anger have passed;
Terrors from you yourself have brought me to silence.
17 They have surrounded me like waters all day long;
They have closed in upon me all at one time.
18 You have put far away from me friend and companion;
My acquaintances are a dark place.

Mas′kil. Of E′than the Ez′ra·hite.

89 Jehovah’s expressions of loving-kindness I will sing about even to time indefinite.
For generation after generation I shall make your faithfulness known with my mouth.

2 For I have said: “Loving-kindness will stay built even to time indefinite;
As for the heavens, you keep your faithfulness firmly established in them.”

3 “I have concluded a covenant toward my chosen one;
I have sworn to David my servant,

4 ‘Even to time indefinite I shall firmly establish your seed,
And I will build your throne to generation after generation.’” Se′lah.

5 And the heavens will laud your marvelous act, O Jehovah,
Yes, your faithfulness in the congregation of the holy ones.

6 For who in the skies can be compared to Jehovah?
Who can resemble Jehovah among the sons of God?

7 God is to be held in awe among the intimate group of holy ones;
He is grand and fear-inspiring over all who are round about him.

8 O Jehovah God of armies,
Who is vigorous like you, O Jah?
And your faithfulness is all around you.

9 You are ruling over the swelling of the sea;
When it raises up its waves you yourself calm them.

10 You yourself have crushed Ra′hab, even as someone slain.
By the arm of your strength you have scattered your enemies.

11 Heaven is yours, the earth also is yours;
The productive land and what fills it—you yourself have founded them.

12 The north and the south—you yourself created them;
Ta′bor and Her′mon—in your name they cry out joyfully.

13 An arm with mightiness is yours,
Your hand is strong,
Your right hand is exalted.

14 Righteousness and judgment are the established place of your throne;
Loving-kindness and trueness themselves come in before your face.

15 Happy are the people knowing the joyful shouting.
O Jehovah, in the light of your face they keep walking.

16 In your name they are joyful all day long
And in your righteousness they are exalted.

17 For you are the beauty of their strength;

And by your goodwill our horn is exalted.
18 For our shield belongs to Jehovah,
And our king belongs to the Holy One of Israel.
19 At that time you spoke in a vision to your loyal ones,
And you proceeded to say:
“I have placed help upon a mighty one;
I have exalted a chosen one from among the people.
20 I have found David my servant;
With my holy oil I have anointed him,
21 With whom my own hand will be firm,
Whom my own arm also will strengthen.
22 No enemy will make exactions upon him,
Neither will any son of unrighteousness afflict him.
23 And from before him I crushed his adversaries to pieces,
And to those intensely hating him I kept dealing out blows.
24 And my faithfulness and my loving-kindness are with him,
And in my name his horn is exalted.
25 And on the sea I have put his hand
And on the rivers his right hand.
26 He himself calls out to me, ‘You are my Father,
My God and the Rock of my salvation.’
27 Also, I myself shall place him as firstborn,
The most high of the kings of the earth.
28 To time indefinite I shall preserve my loving-kindness toward him,
And my covenant will be faithful to him.
29 And I shall certainly set up his seed forever
And his throne as the days of heaven.
30 If his sons leave my law
And in my judicial decisions they do not walk,
31 If they profane my own statutes
And they do not keep my own commandments,
32 I must also turn my attention to their transgression even with a rod
And to their error even with strokes.
33 But my loving-kindness I shall not break off from him,
Nor shall I prove false with regard to my faithfulness.
34 I shall not profane my covenant,
And the expression out of my lips I shall not change.
35 Once I have sworn in my holiness,
To David I will not tell lies.
36 His seed itself will prove to be even to time indefinite,
And his throne as the sun in front of me.

37 As the moon it will be firmly established for time indefinite,
And as a faithful witness in the skies.” Se′lah.

38 But you—you have cast off and you keep contemning;
You have become furious toward your anointed one.

39 You have spurned the covenant of your servant;
You have profaned his diadem to the very earth.

40 You have broken down all his stone pens;
You have laid his fortifications in ruin.

41 All those passing along the way have pillaged him;
He has become a reproach to his neighbors.

42 You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries;
You have caused all his enemies to rejoice.

43 What is more, you again treat his sword as a foe,
And you have caused him not to gain ground in the battle.

44 You have made him cease from his luster,
And his throne you have hurled to the very earth.

45 You have shortened the days of his youth;
You have enwrapped him with shame. Se′lah.

46 How long, O Jehovah, will you keep yourself concealed? For all time?
Will your rage keep on burning just like a fire?

47 Remember of what duration of life I am.
Is it all in vain that you have created all the sons of men?

48 What able-bodied man is there alive who will not see death?
Can he provide escape for his soul from the hand of She′ol? Se′lah.

49 Where are your former acts of loving-kindness, O Jehovah,
About which you swore to David in your faithfulness?

50 Remember, O Jehovah, the reproach upon your servants,
My carrying in my bosom the reproach of all the many peoples,

51 How your enemies have reproached, O Jehovah,
How they have reproached the footprints of your anointed one.

52 Blessed be Jehovah to time indefinite. Amen and Amen.

BOOK FOUR

(Psalms 90 – 106)

A prayer of Moses, the man of the true God.

90 O Jehovah, you yourself have proved to be a real dwelling for us
During generation after generation.
2 Before the mountains themselves were born,
Or you proceeded to bring forth as with labor pains the earth and the productive land,
Even from time indefinite to time indefinite you are God.
3 You make mortal man go back to crushed matter,
And you say: “GO back, YOU sons of men.”
4 For a thousand years are in your eyes but as yesterday when it is past,
And as a watch during the night.
5 You have swept them away; they become a mere sleep;
In the morning they are just like green grass that changes.
6 In the morning it puts forth blossoms and must change;
At evening it withers and certainly dries up.
7 For we have come to an end in your anger,
And by your rage we have been disturbed.
8 You have set our errors right in front of you,
Our hidden things before your bright face.
9 For all our days have come to their decline in your fury;
We have finished our years just like a whisper.
10 In themselves the days of our years are seventy years;
And if because of special mightiness they are eighty years,
Yet their insistence is on trouble and hurtful things;
For it must quickly pass by, and away we fly.
11 Who is there knowing the strength of your anger
And your fury according to the fear of you?
12 Show us just how to count our days in such a way
That we may bring a heart of wisdom in.
13 Do return, O Jehovah! How long will it be?
And feel regret over your servants.
14 Satisfy us in the morning with your loving-kindness,
That we may cry out joyfully and may rejoice during all our days.

15 Make us rejoice correspondingly to the days that you have afflicted us,
The years that we have seen calamity.
16 May your activity appear to your own servants
And your splendor upon their sons.
17 And let the pleasantness of Jehovah our God prove to be upon us,
And the work of our hands do you firmly establish upon us.
Yes, the work of our hands, do you firmly establish it.

91 Anyone dwelling in the secret place of the Most High
Will procure himself lodging under the very shadow of the Almighty One.
[2] I will say to Jehovah: “You are my refuge and my stronghold,
My God, in whom I will trust.”
[3] For he himself will deliver you from the trap of the birdcatcher,
From the pestilence causing adversities.
[4] With his pinions he will block approach to you,
And under his wings you will take refuge.
His trueness will be a large shield and bulwark.
[5] You will not be afraid of anything dreadful by night,
Nor of the arrow that flies by day,
[6] Nor of the pestilence that walks in the gloom,
Nor of the destruction that despoils at midday.
[7] A thousand will fall at your very side
And ten thousand at your right hand;
To you it will not come near.
[8] Only with your eyes will you look on
And see the retribution itself of the wicked ones.
[9] Because you said: “Jehovah is my refuge,”
You have made the Most High himself your dwelling;
[10] No calamity will befall you,
And not even a plague will draw near to your tent.
[11] For he will give his own angels a command concerning you,
To guard you in all your ways.
[12] Upon their hands they will carry you,
That you may not strike your foot against any stone.
[13] Upon the young lion and the cobra you will tread;
You will trample down the maned young lion and the big snake.
[14] Because on me he has set his affection,
I shall also provide him with escape.
I shall protect him because he has come to know my name.
[15] He will call upon me, and I shall answer him.
I shall be with him in distress.
I shall rescue him and glorify him.
[16] With length of days I shall satisfy him,
And I shall cause him to see salvation by me.

A melody, a song, for the sabbath day.

92 It is good to give thanks to Jehovah
And to make melody to your name, O Most High;
2 To tell in the morning about your loving-kindness
And about your faithfulness during the nights,
3 Upon a ten-stringed instrument and upon the lute,
By resounding music on the harp.
4 For you have made me rejoice, O Jehovah, because of your activity;
Because of the works of your hands I cry out joyfully.
5 How great your works are, O Jehovah!
Very deep your thoughts are.
6 No unreasoning man himself can know them,
And no one stupid can understand this.
7 When the wicked ones sprout as the vegetation
And all the practicers of what is hurtful blossom forth,
It is that they may be annihilated forever.
8 But you are on high to time indefinite, O Jehovah.
9 For, look! your enemies, O Jehovah,
For, look! your own enemies will perish;
All the practicers of what is hurtful will be separated from one another.
10 But you will exalt my horn like that of a wild bull;
I shall moisten myself with fresh oil.
11 And my eye will look on my foes;
My ears will hear about the very ones who rise up against me, the evildoers.
12 The righteous himself will blossom forth as a palm tree does;
As a cedar in Leb′a·non does, he will grow big.
13 Those who are planted in the house of Jehovah,
In the courtyards of our God, they will blossom forth.
14 They will still keep on thriving during gray-headedness, Fat and fresh they will continue to be,
15 To tell that Jehovah is upright.
He is my Rock, in whom there is no unrighteousness.

93 Jehovah himself has become king!
With eminence he is clothed;
Jehovah is clothed—with strength he has girded himself.
The productive land also becomes firmly established so that it cannot be made to totter.

2 Your throne is firmly established from long ago;
You are from time indefinite.

3 The rivers have raised, O Jehovah,
The rivers have raised their sound;
The rivers keep raising their pounding.

4 Above the sounds of vast waters, the majestic breaking waves of the sea, Jehovah is majestic in the height.

5 Your own reminders have proved very trustworthy.
Holiness is befitting to your own house, O Jehovah, for length of days.

94 O God of acts of vengeance, Jehovah,
O God of acts of vengeance, beam forth!

2 Raise yourself up, O Judge of the earth.
Bring back a retribution upon the haughty ones.

3 How long are the wicked, O Jehovah,
How long are the wicked themselves going to exult?

4 They keep bubbling forth, they keep speaking unrestrained;
All the practicers of what is hurtful keep bragging about themselves.

5 Your people, O Jehovah, they keep crushing,
And your inheritance they keep afflicting.

6 The widow and the alien resident they kill,
And the fatherless boys they murder.

7 And they keep saying: “Jah does not see;
And the God of Jacob does not understand it.”

8 Understand, YOU who are unreasoning among the people;
And as for YOU stupid ones, when will YOU have any insight?

9 The One planting the ear, can he not hear?
Or the One forming the eye, can he not look?

10 The One correcting the nations, can he not reprove,
Even the One teaching men knowledge?

11 Jehovah is knowing the thoughts of men, that they are as an exhalation.

12 Happy is the able-bodied man whom you correct, O Jah,
And whom you teach out of your own law,

13 To give him quietness from days of calamity,
Until for the wicked one a pit is excavated.

14 For Jehovah will not forsake his people,
Nor will he leave his own inheritance.

15 For judicial decision will return even to righteousness,
And all the upright in heart will follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers?
Who will take his stand for me against the practicers of hurtfulness?

17 Unless Jehovah had been of assistance to me,
In a little while my soul would have resided in silence.

18 When I said: “My foot will certainly move unsteadily,”
Your own loving-kindness, O Jehovah, kept sustaining me.

19 When my disquieting thoughts became many inside of me,
Your own consolations began to fondle my soul.

20 Will the throne causing adversities be allied with you

While it is framing trouble by decree?
21 They make sharp attacks on the soul of the righteous one
And pronounce wicked even the blood of the innocent one.
22 But Jehovah will become a secure height for me,
And my God the rock of my refuge.
23 And he will turn back upon them their hurtfulness
And will silence them with their own calamity.
Jehovah our God will silence them.

95 O come let us cry out joyfully to Jehovah!
Let us shout in triumph to our Rock of salvation.

2 Let us come before his person with thanksgiving;
Let us with melodies shout in triumph to him.

3 For Jehovah is a great God
And a great King over all other gods,

4 He in whose hand are the inmost depths of the earth
And to whom the peaks of the mountains belong;

5 To whom the sea, which he himself made, belongs
And whose own hands formed the dry land itself.

6 O come in, let us worship and bow down;
Let us kneel before Jehovah our Maker.

7 For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasturage and the sheep of his hand.
Today if YOU people listen to his own voice,

8 Do not harden YOUR heart as at Mer′i·bah,
As in the day of Mas′sah in the wilderness,

9 When YOUR forefathers put me to the proof;
They examined me, they also saw my activity.

10 For forty years I kept feeling a loathing toward that generation,
And I proceeded to say:
“They are a people wayward at heart,
And they themselves have not come to know my ways”;

11 Concerning whom I swore in my anger:
“They shall not enter into my resting-place.”

96 Sing to Jehovah a new song.
Sing to Jehovah, all YOU people of the earth.

2 Sing to Jehovah, bless his name.
From day to day tell the good news of salvation by him.

3 Declare among the nations his glory,
Among all the peoples his wonderful works.

4 For Jehovah is great and very much to be praised.
He is fear-inspiring above all other gods.

5 For all the gods of the peoples are valueless gods;
But as for Jehovah, he has made the very heavens.

6 Dignity and splendor are before him;
Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

7 Ascribe to Jehovah, O YOU families of the peoples,
Ascribe to Jehovah glory and strength.

8 Ascribe to Jehovah the glory belonging to his name;
Carry a gift and come into his courtyards.

9 Bow down to Jehovah in holy adornment;
Be in severe pains because of him, all YOU people of the earth.

10 Say among the nations: “Jehovah himself has become king.
The productive land also becomes firmly established so that it cannot be made to totter.
He will plead the cause of the peoples in uprightness.”

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be joyful.
Let the sea thunder and that which fills it.

12 Let the open field exult and all that is in it.
At the same time let all the trees of the forest break out joyfully

13 Before Jehovah. For he has come;
For he has come to judge the earth.
He will judge the productive land with righteousness
And the peoples with his faithfulness.

97 Jehovah himself has become king! Let the earth be joyful.
Let the many islands rejoice.

2 Clouds and thick gloom are all around him;
Righteousness and judgment are the established place of his throne.

3 Before him a very fire goes,
And it consumes his adversaries all around.

4 His lightnings lighted up the productive land;
The earth saw and came to be in severe pains.

5 The mountains themselves proceeded to melt just like wax on account of Jehovah,
On account of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heavens have told forth his righteousness,
And all the peoples have seen his glory.

7 Let all those serving any carved image be ashamed,
Those who are making their boast in valueless gods.
Bow down to him, all YOU gods.

8 Zion heard and began to rejoice,
And the dependent towns of Judah began to be joyful
By reason of your judicial decisions, O Jehovah.

9 For you, O Jehovah, are the Most High over all the earth;
You are very high in your ascent over all other gods.

10 O YOU lovers of Jehovah, hate what is bad.
He is guarding the souls of his loyal ones;
Out of the hand of the wicked ones he delivers them.

11 Light itself has flashed up for the righteous one,
And rejoicing even for the ones upright in heart.

12 Rejoice in Jehovah, O YOU righteous ones,
And give thanks to his holy memorial.

A melody.

98 SING to Jehovah a new song,
For wonderful are the things that he has done.
His right hand, even his holy arm, has gained salvation for him.

2 Jehovah has made his salvation known;
In the eyes of the nations he has revealed his righteousness.

3 He has remembered his loving-kindness and his faithfulness to the house of Israel.
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation by our God.

4 Shout in triumph to Jehovah, all YOU people of the earth.
Be cheerful and cry out joyfully and make melody.

5 Make melody to Jehovah with the harp,
With the harp and the voice of melody.

6 With the trumpets and the sound of the horn
Shout in triumph before the King, Jehovah.

7 Let the sea thunder and that which fills it,
The productive land and those dwelling in it.

8 Let the rivers themselves clap their hands;
All together let the very mountains cry out joyfully

9 Before Jehovah, for he has come to judge the earth.
He will judge the productive land with righteousness
And the peoples with uprightness.

99 Jehovah himself has become king. Let the peoples be agitated.
He is sitting upon the cherubs. Let the earth quiver.

2 Jehovah is great in Zion,
And he is high over all the peoples.

3 Let them laud your name.
Great and fear-inspiring, holy it is.

4 And with the strength of a king judgment he has loved.
You yourself have firmly established uprightness.
Judgment and righteousness in Jacob are what you yourself have effected.

5 Exalt Jehovah our God and bow down yourselves at his footstool;
He is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron were among his priests,
And Samuel was among those calling upon his name.
They were calling to Jehovah, and he himself kept answering them.

7 In the pillar of cloud he continued speaking to them.
They kept his reminders and the regulation that he gave to them.

8 O Jehovah our God, you yourself answered them.
A God granting pardon you proved to be to them,
And executing vengeance against their notorious deeds.

9 Exalt Jehovah our God
And bow down yourselves at his holy mountain.
For Jehovah our God is holy.

A melody of thanksgiving.

100 Shout in triumph to Jehovah, all YOU people of the earth.

2 Serve Jehovah with rejoicing.
Come in before him with a joyful cry.

3 Know that Jehovah is God.
It is he that has made us, and not we ourselves.
We are his people and the sheep of his pasturage.

4 Come into his gates with thanksgiving,
Into his courtyards with praise.
Give thanks to him, bless his name.

5 For Jehovah is good;
His loving-kindness is to time indefinite,
And his faithfulness to generation after generation.

Of David. A melody.

101 About loving-kindness and judgment I will sing.
To you, O Jehovah, I will make melody.

2 I will act with discretion in a faultless way.
When will you come to me?
I shall walk about in the integrity of my heart inside my house.

3 I shall not set in front of my eyes any good-for-nothing thing.
The doing of those who fall away I have hated;
It does not cling to me.

4 A crooked heart departs from me;
Nothing bad do I know.

5 Anyone slandering his companion in secrecy,
Him I silence.
Anyone of haughty eyes and of arrogant heart,
Him I cannot endure.

6 My eyes are upon the faithful ones of the earth,
That they may dwell with me.
The one walking in a faultless way,
He it is who will minister to me.

7 There will dwell inside my house no worker of trickiness.
As for anyone speaking falsehoods, he will not be firmly established
In front of my eyes.

8 Every morning I shall silence all the wicked ones of the earth,
To cut off from the city of Jehovah all the practicers of what is hurtful.

A prayer of the afflicted in case he grows feeble and pours out his concern before Jehovah himself.

102 O Jehovah, do hear my prayer;
And to you may my own cry for help come.

2 Do not conceal your face from me on the day that I am in sore straits.
Incline to me your ear;
On the day that I call, hurry, answer me.

3 For my days have come to an end just like smoke,
And my very bones have been made red-hot just like a fireplace.

4 My heart has been struck just like vegetation and is dried up,
For I have forgotten to eat my food.

5 Because of the sound of my sighing
My bones have stuck to my flesh.

6 I do resemble the pelican of the wilderness.
I have become like a little owl of desolated places.

7 I have grown emaciated,
And I am become like a bird isolated upon a roof.

8 All day long my enemies have reproached me.
Those making a fool of me have sworn even by me.

9 For I have eaten ashes themselves just like bread;
And the things I drink I have mingled even with weeping,

10 Because of your denunciation and your indignation;
For you have lifted me up, that you might throw me away.

11 My days are like a shadow that has declined,
And I myself am dried up like mere vegetation.

12 As for you, O Jehovah, to time indefinite you will dwell,
And your memorial will be for generation after generation.

13 You yourself will arise, you will have mercy on Zion,
For it is the season to be favorable to her,
For the appointed time has come.

14 For your servants have found pleasure in her stones,
And to her dust they direct their favor.

15 And the nations will fear the name of Jehovah,
And all the kings of the earth your glory.

16 For Jehovah will certainly build up Zion;
He must appear in his glory.

17 He will certainly turn to the prayer of those stripped of everything,
And not despise their prayer.

18 This is written for the future generation;

And the people that is to be created will praise Jah.
19 For he has looked down from his holy height,
From the very heavens Jehovah himself has looked even at the earth,
20 To hear the sighing of the prisoner,
To loosen those appointed to death;
21 For the name of Jehovah to be declared in Zion
And his praise in Jerusalem,
22 When the peoples are collected all together,
And the kingdoms to serve Jehovah.
23 On the way he afflicted my power,
He cut short my days.
24 I proceeded to say: “O my God,
Do not take me off at the half of my days;
Your years are throughout all generations.
25 Long ago you laid the foundations of the earth itself,
And the heavens are the work of your hands.
26 They themselves will perish, but you yourself will keep standing;
And just like a garment they will all of them wear out.
Just like clothing you will replace them, and they will finish their turn.
27 But you are the same, and your own years will not be completed.
28 The sons of your servants will continue residing;
And before you their own offspring will be firmly established.”

Of David.

103 Bless Jehovah, O my soul,
Even everything within me, his holy name.
2 Bless Jehovah, O my soul,
And do not forget all his doings,
3 Him who is forgiving all your error,
Who is healing all your maladies,
4 Who is reclaiming your life from the very pit,
Who is crowning you with loving-kindness and mercies,
5 Who is satisfying your lifetime with what is good;
Your youth keeps renewing itself just like that of an eagle.
6 Jehovah is executing acts of righteousness
And judicial decisions for all those being defrauded.
7 He made known his ways to Moses,
His dealings even to the sons of Israel.
8 Jehovah is merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger and abundant in loving-kindness.
9 He will not for all time keep finding fault,
Neither will he to time indefinite keep resentful.
10 He has not done to us even according to our sins;
Nor according to our errors has he brought upon us what we deserve.
11 For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
His loving-kindness is superior toward those fearing him.
12 As far off as the sunrise is from the sunset,
So far off from us he has put our transgressions.
13 As a father shows mercy to his sons,
Jehovah has shown mercy to those fearing him.
14 For he himself well knows the formation of us,
Remembering that we are dust.
15 As for mortal man, his days are like those of green grass;
Like a blossom of the field is the way he blossoms forth.
16 For a mere wind has to pass over it, and it is no more;
And its place will acknowledge it no further.
17 But the loving-kindness of Jehovah is from time indefinite even to time indefinite Toward those fearing him,
And his righteousness to the sons of sons,
18 Toward those keeping his covenant

And toward those remembering his orders so as to carry them out.
19 Jehovah himself has firmly established his throne in the very heavens;
And over everything his own kingship has held domination.
20 Bless Jehovah, O YOU angels of his, mighty in power, carrying out his word,
By listening to the voice of his word.
21 Bless Jehovah, all YOU armies of his,
YOU ministers of his, doing his will.
22 Bless Jehovah, all YOU his works,
In all places of his domination.
Bless Jehovah, O my soul.

104 Bless Jehovah, O my soul.
O Jehovah my God, you have proved very great.
With dignity and splendor you have clothed yourself,

2 Enwrapping yourself with light as with a garment,
Stretching out the heavens like a tent cloth,

3 The One building his upper chambers with beams in the very waters,
Making the clouds his chariot,
Walking upon the wings of the wind,

4 Making his angels spirits,
His ministers a devouring fire.

5 He has founded the earth upon its established places;
It will not be made to totter to time indefinite, or forever.

6 With a watery deep just like a garment you covered it.
The waters were standing above the very mountains.

7 At your rebuke they began to flee;
At the sound of your thunder they were sent running in panic—

8 Mountains proceeded to ascend,
Valley plains proceeded to descend—
To the place that you have founded for them.

9 A boundary you set, beyond which they should not pass,
That they should not again cover the earth.

10 He is sending springs into the torrent valleys;
Between the mountains they keep going on.

11 They continually give drink to all the wild beasts of the open field;
The zebras regularly quench their thirst.

12 Above them roost the flying creatures of the heavens;
From among the thick foliage they keep giving forth sound.

13 He is watering the mountains from his upper chambers.
With the fruitage of your works the earth is satisfied.

14 He is making green grass sprout for the beasts,
And vegetation for the service of mankind,
To cause food to go forth from the earth,

15 And wine that makes the heart of mortal man rejoice,
To make the face shine with oil,
And bread that sustains the very heart of mortal man.

16 The trees of Jehovah are satisfied,
The cedars of Leb′a·non that he planted,

17 Where the birds themselves make nests.
As for the stork, the juniper trees are its house.

18 The high mountains are for the mountain goats;
The crags are a refuge for the rock badgers.

19 He has made the moon for appointed times;
The sun itself knows well where it sets.

20 You cause darkness, that it may become night;
In it all the wild animals of the forest move forth.

21 The maned young lions are roaring for the prey
And for seeking their food from God himself.

22 The sun begins to shine—they withdraw
And they lie down in their own hiding places.

23 Man goes forth to his activity
And to his service until evening.

24 How many your works are, O Jehovah!
All of them in wisdom you have made.
The earth is full of your productions.

25 As for this sea so great and wide,
There there are moving things without number,
Living creatures, small as well as great.

26 There the ships go;
As for Le·viʹa·than, him you have formed to play about in it.

27 All of them—for you they keep waiting
To give them their food in its season.

28 What you give them they pick up.
You open your hand—they get satisfied with good things.

29 If you conceal your face, they get disturbed.
If you take away their spirit, they expire,
And back to their dust they go.

30 If you send forth your spirit, they are created;
And you make the face of the ground new.

31 The glory of Jehovah will prove to be to time indefinite.
Jehovah will rejoice in his works.

32 He is looking at the earth, and it trembles;
He touches the mountains, and they smoke.

33 I will sing to Jehovah throughout my life;
I will make melody to my God as long as I am.

34 Let my musing about him be pleasurable.
I, for my part, shall rejoice in Jehovah.

35 The sinners will be finished off from the earth;
And as for the wicked, they will be no longer.
Bless Jehovah, O my soul. Praise Jah, YOU people!

105 GIVE thanks to Jehovah, call upon his name,
Make known among the peoples his dealings.

2 Sing to him, make melody to him,
Concern yourselves with all his wonderful works.

3 Make YOUR boast in his holy name.
Let the heart of those seeking Jehovah rejoice.

4 Search for Jehovah and his strength.
Seek his face constantly.

5 Remember his wonderful works that he has performed,
His miracles and the judicial decisions of his mouth,

6 O YOU seed of Abraham his servant,
YOU sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.

7 He is Jehovah our God.
His judicial decisions are in all the earth.

8 He has remembered his covenant even to time indefinite,
The word that he commanded, to a thousand generations,

9 Which covenant he concluded with Abraham,
And his sworn statement to Isaac,

10 And which statement he kept standing as a regulation even to Jacob,
As an indefinitely lasting covenant even to Israel,

11 Saying: “To you I shall give the land of Ca′naan
As the allotment of YOUR inheritance.”

12 This was when they happened to be few in number,
Yes, very few, and alien residents in it.

13 And they kept walking about from nation to nation,
From one kingdom to another people.

14 He did not allow any human to defraud them,
But on their account he reproved kings,

15 Saying: “Do not YOU men touch my anointed ones,
And to my prophets do nothing bad.”

16 And he proceeded to call for a famine upon the land;
He broke every rod around which ring-shaped loaves were suspended.

17 He sent ahead of them a man
Who was sold to be a slave, Joseph.

18 With fetters they afflicted his feet,
Into irons his soul came;

19 Until the time that his word came,
The saying of Jehovah itself refined him.

20 The king sent that he might release him,
The ruler of the peoples, that he might let him loose.
21 He set him as master to his household
And as ruler over all his property,
22 To bind his princes agreeably to his soul
And that he might teach wisdom to even his elderly men.
23 And Israel proceeded to come into Egypt,
And Jacob himself resided as an alien in the land of Ham.
24 And he kept making his people very fruitful,
And gradually made them mightier than their adversaries.
25 He let their heart change to hate his people,
To behave cunningly against his servants.
26 He sent Moses his servant,
Aaron whom he had chosen.
27 They set among them the matters of his signs,
And the miracles in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkness and so made it dark;
And they did not rebel against his words.
29 He changed their waters into blood,
And proceeded to put their fish to death.
30 Their land swarmed with frogs,
In the interior rooms of their kings.
31 He said that the gadflies should come in,
Gnats in all their territories.
32 He made their downpours hail,
A flaming fire on their land.
33 And he proceeded to strike their vines and their fig trees
And to break the trees of their territory.
34 He said that the locusts should come in,
And a species of locust, even without number.
35 And they went eating all the vegetation in their land;
They also went eating the fruitage of their ground.
36 And he proceeded to strike down every firstborn in their land,
The beginning of all their generative power.
37 And he began to bring them out with silver and gold;
And among his tribes there was no one stumbling along.
38 Egypt rejoiced when they went out,
For the dread of them had fallen upon them.
39 He spread out a cloud for a screen,
And fire to give light by night.
40 They asked, and he proceeded to bring quails,

And with bread from heaven he kept satisfying them.
41 He opened a rock, and waters began to flow out;
These went through the waterless regions as a river.
42 For he remembered his holy word with Abraham his servant.
43 So he brought out his people with exultation,
His chosen ones even with a joyful cry.
44 And gradually he gave them the lands of the nations,
And they kept taking possession of the product of the hard work of national groups,
45 To the end that they might keep his regulations
And observe his own laws.
Praise Jah, YOU people!

106 Praise Jah, YOU people!
Give thanks to Jehovah, for he is good;
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite.

2 Who can utter the mighty performances of Jehovah,
Or can make all his praise to be heard?

3 Happy are those observing justice,
Doing righteousness all the time.

4 Remember me, O Jehovah, with the goodwill toward your people.
Take care of me with your salvation,

5 That I may see the goodness to your chosen ones,
That I may rejoice with the rejoicing of your nation,
That I may make my boast with your inheritance.

6 We have sinned just the same as our forefathers;
We have done wrong; we have acted wickedly.

7 As for our forefathers in Egypt,
They did not show any insight into your wonderful works.
They did not remember the abundance of your grand loving-kindness,
But they behaved rebelliously at the sea, by the Red Sea.

8 And he proceeded to save them for the sake of his name,
So as to make his mightiness known.

9 Accordingly he rebuked the Red Sea, and it was gradually dried up;
And he went walking them through the watery deep as through the wilderness;

10 And so he saved them from the hand of the hater
And reclaimed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And the waters came covering their adversaries;
Not one of them was left.

12 Then they had faith in his word;
They began to sing his praise.

13 Quickly they forgot his works;
They did not wait for his counsel.

14 But they showed their selfish desire in the wilderness
And went putting God to the proof in the desert.

15 And he proceeded to give them their request
And to send a wasting disease into their soul.

16 And they began to envy Moses in the camp,
Even Aaron the holy one of Jehovah.

17 The earth then opened up and swallowed down Da′than,
And covered over the assembly of A·bi′ram.

18 And a fire went burning among their assembly;
A flame itself went devouring the wicked ones.
19 Furthermore, they made a calf in Ho′reb
And bowed down to a molten image,
20 So that they exchanged my glory
For a representation of a bull, an eater of vegetation.
21 They forgot God their Savior,
The Doer of great things in Egypt,
22 Wonderful works in the land of Ham,
Fear-inspiring things at the Red Sea.
23 And he was about to say to annihilate them,
If it had not been for Moses his chosen one,
Who stood in the gap before him,
To turn back his rage from bringing them to ruin.
24 And they got to contemning the desirable land;
They had no faith in his word.
25 And they kept grumbling in their tents;
They did not listen to the voice of Jehovah.
26 So he proceeded to raise his hand in an oath concerning them,
That he would make them fall in the wilderness,
27 And that he would make their offspring fall among the nations,
And that he would scatter them among the lands.
28 And they began to attach themselves to Ba′al of Pe′or
And to eat the sacrifices of the dead ones.
29 As they were causing offense by their dealings,
A scourge now broke out among them.
30 When Phin′e·has stood up and intervened,
Then the scourge was halted.
31 And it came to be counted to him as righteousness
For generation after generation to time indefinite.
32 Further, they caused provocation at the waters of Mer′i·bah,
So that it went badly with Moses by reason of them.
33 For they embittered his spirit
And he began to speak rashly with his lips.
34 They did not annihilate the peoples,
As Jehovah had said to them.
35 And they went mingling with the nations
And took up learning their works.
36 And they kept serving their idols,
And these came to be a snare to them.
37 And they would sacrifice their sons

And their daughters to demons.

38 So they kept spilling innocent blood,
The blood of their sons and their daughters,
Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Caʹnaan;
And the land came to be polluted with bloodshed.

39 And they got to be unclean by their works
And kept having immoral intercourse by their dealings.

40 And the anger of Jehovah began to blaze against his people,
And he came to detest his inheritance.

41 And he repeatedly gave them into the hand of the nations,
That those hating them might rule over them,

42 And that their enemies might oppress them,
And that they might be subdued under their hand.

43 Many times he would deliver them,
But they themselves would behave rebelliously in their disobedient course,
And they would be brought low for their error.

44 And he would see the distress of theirs
When he heard their entreating cry.

45 And he would remember concerning them his covenant,
And he would feel regret according to the abundance of his grand loving-kindness.

46 And he would grant them to be objects of pity
Before all those holding them captive.

47 Save us, O Jehovah our God,
And collect us together from the nations
To give thanks to your holy name,
To speak exultingly in your praise.

48 Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel
From time indefinite even to time indefinite;
And all the people must say Amen.
Praise Jah, YOU people!

BOOK FIVE

(Psalms 107 – 150)

107 O give thanks to Jehovah, YOU people, for he is good;
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite.
2 Let the reclaimed ones of Jehovah say so,
Whom he has reclaimed from the hand of the adversary,
3 And whom he has collected together even from the lands,
From the sunrise and from the sunset,
From the north and from the south.
4 They wandered about in the wilderness, in the desert;
They did not find any way to a city of habitation.
5 They were hungry, also thirsty;
Their very soul within them began to faint away.
6 And they kept crying out to Jehovah in their distress;
Out of the stresses upon them he proceeded to deliver them,
7 And to have them walk in the right way,
So as to come to a city of habitation.
8 O let people give thanks to Jehovah for his loving-kindness
And for his wonderful works to the sons of men.
9 For he has satisfied the dried-out soul;
And the hungry soul he has filled with good things.
10 There were those dwelling in darkness and deep shadow,
Prisoners in affliction and irons.
11 For they had behaved rebelliously against the sayings of God;
And the counsel of the Most High they had disrespected.
12 So with trouble he proceeded to subdue their heart;
They stumbled, and there was no one helping.
13 And they began calling to Jehovah for help in their distress;
Out of the stresses upon them he as usual saved them.
14 He went bringing them out from darkness and deep shadow,
And tearing even their bands apart.
15 O let people give thanks to Jehovah for his loving-kindness
And for his wonderful works to the sons of men.
16 For he has broken the doors of copper,
And he has cut down even the bars of iron.

17 Those who were foolish, due to the way of their transgression
And due to their errors, finally caused themselves affliction.
18 Their soul got to detest even every sort of food,
And they were arriving at the gates of death.
19 And they began calling to Jehovah for help in their distress;
Out of the stresses upon them he as usual saved them.
20 He proceeded to send his word and heal them
And to provide them escape out of their pits.
21 O let people give thanks to Jehovah for his loving-kindness
And for his wonderful works to the sons of men.
22 And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving
And declare his works with a joyful cry.
23 Those going down to the sea in the ships,
Doing business on vast waters,
24 They are the ones that have seen the works of Jehovah
And his wonderful works in the depths;
25 How he says the word and causes a tempestuous wind to arise,
So that it lifts up its waves.
26 They go up to the heavens,
They go down to the bottoms.
Because of the calamity their very soul finds itself melting.
27 They reel and move unsteadily like a drunken man,
And even all their wisdom proves confused.
28 And they begin crying out to Jehovah in their distress,
And out of the stresses upon them he brings them forth.
29 He causes the windstorm to stand at a calm,
So that the waves of the sea keep quiet.
30 And they rejoice because these become still,
And he leads them to the haven of their delight.
31 O let people give thanks to Jehovah for his loving-kindness
And for his wonderful works to the sons of men.
32 And let them extol him in the congregation of the people;
And in the seat of the elderly men let them praise him.
33 He converts rivers into a wilderness,
And the outflows of water into thirsty ground,
34 Fruitful land into salt country,
Owing to the badness of those dwelling in it.
35 He converts a wilderness into a reedy pool of water,
And the land of a waterless region into outflows of water.
36 And there he causes the hungry ones to dwell,
So that they firmly establish a city of habitation.

37 And they sow fields and plant vineyards,
That they may yield fruitful crops.

38 And he blesses them so that they become very many;
And he does not let their cattle become few.

39 Again they become few and crouch down
Owing to restraint, calamity and grief.

40 He is pouring out contempt upon nobles,
So that he makes them wander about in a featureless place, where there is no way.

41 But he protects the poor one from affliction
And converts him into families just like a flock.

42 The upright ones see and rejoice;
But as for all unrighteousness, it has to shut its mouth.

43 Who is wise? He will both observe these things
And show himself attentive toward Jehovah’s acts of loving-kindness.

A song. A melody of David.

108 My heart is steadfast, O God.
I will sing and make melody,
Even my glory.

2 Do awake, O stringed instrument; you too, O harp.
I will awaken the dawn.

3 I shall laud you among the peoples, O Jehovah;
And I shall make melody to you among the national groups.

4 For your loving-kindness is great up to the heavens,
And your trueness up to the skies.

5 O be exalted above the heavens, O God;
And let your glory be above all the earth.

6 In order that your beloved ones may be rescued,
O do save with your right hand and answer me.

7 God himself has spoken in his holiness:
“I will exult, I will give out She′chem as a portion;
And the low plain of Suc′coth I shall measure off.

8 Gil′e·ad belongs to me; Ma·nas′seh belongs to me;
And E′phra·im is the fortress of my head one;
Judah is my commander’s staff.

9 Mo′ab is my washing pot.
Over E′dom I shall throw my sandal.
Over Phi·lis′ti·a I shall shout in triumph.”

10 Who will bring me to the fortified city?
Who will actually lead me as far as E′dom?

11 Is it not you, O God, who have cast us off
And who do not go forth with our armies as God?

12 Do give us assistance from distress,
As salvation by earthling man is worthless.

13 By God we shall gain vital energy,
And he himself will tread down our adversaries.

To the director. Of David. A melody.

109 O God of my praise, do not keep silent.
[2] For the mouth of the wicked one and the mouth of deception have opened against me.
They have spoken about me with the tongue of falsehood;
[3] And with words of hatred they have surrounded me,
And they keep fighting against me without cause.
[4] For my love they keep resisting me;
But on my part there is prayer.
[5] And they render to me bad for good
And hatred for my love.
[6] Appoint over him someone wicked,
And may a resister himself keep standing at his right hand.
[7] When he is judged, let him go forth as someone wicked;
And let his very prayer become a sin.
[8] Let his days prove to be few;
His office of oversight let someone else take.
[9] Let his sons become fatherless boys
And his wife be a widow.
[10] And without fail let his sons go wandering about;
And they must do begging,
And they must look for food from their desolate places.
[11] Let the usurer lay out traps for all that he has,
And let strangers make plunder of his product of toil.
[12] May he come to have no one extending loving-kindness,
And may there prove to be no one showing favor to his fatherless boys.
[13] Let his posterity be for cutting off.
In the following generation let their name be wiped out.
[14] Let the error of his forefathers be remembered to Jehovah,
And the sin of his mother—may it not be wiped out.
[15] Let them prove to be in front of Jehovah constantly;
And may he cut off the remembrance of them from the very earth;
[16] For the reason that he did not remember to exercise loving-kindness,
But he kept pursuing the afflicted and poor man
And the one dejected at heart, to put him to death.
[17] And he kept loving the malediction, so that it came upon him;
And he did not take delight in the blessing,
So that it became far away from him;

18 And he came to be clothed with malediction as his garment.
So it came like waters into the midst of him
And like oil into his bones.

19 May it prove to be for him like a garment with which he enwraps himself
And as a girdle that he keeps girded about himself constantly.

20 This is the wages from Jehovah of the one resisting me
And of those speaking evil against my soul.

21 But you are Jehovah the Sovereign Lord.
Deal with me for the sake of your name.
Because your loving-kindness is good, deliver me.

22 For I am afflicted and poor,
And my heart itself has been pierced within me.

23 Like a shadow when it declines, I am obliged to go away;
I have been shaken off like a locust.

24 My knees themselves have swayed from fasting,
And my very flesh has grown lean, without any oil.

25 And to them I myself have become something reproachable.
They see me—they begin wagging their head.

26 Help me, O Jehovah my God;
Save me according to your loving-kindness.

27 And may they know that this is your hand;
That you yourself, O Jehovah, have done it.

28 Let them, for their part, pronounce a malediction,
But may you, for your part, pronounce a blessing.
They have risen up, but let them be ashamed,
And let your own servant rejoice.

29 Let those resisting me be clothed with humiliation,
And let them enwrap themselves with their shame just as with a sleeveless coat.

30 I shall laud Jehovah very much with my mouth,
And in among many people I shall praise him.

31 For he will stand at the right hand of the poor,
To save him from those judging his soul.

Of David. A melody.

110 The utterance of Jehovah to my Lord is:
“Sit at my right hand
Until I place your enemies as a stool for your feet.”

2 The rod of your strength Jehovah will send out of Zion, saying:
“Go subduing in the midst of your enemies.”

3 Your people will offer themselves willingly on the day of your military force.
In the splendors of holiness, from the womb of the dawn,
You have your company of young men just like dewdrops.

4 Jehovah has sworn (and he will feel no regret):
“You are a priest to time indefinite According to the manner of Mel·chiz′e·dek!”

5 Jehovah himself at your right hand
Will certainly break kings to pieces on the day of his anger.

6 He will execute judgment among the nations;
He will cause a fullness of dead bodies.
He will certainly break to pieces the head one over a populous land.

7 From the torrent valley in the way he will drink.
That is why he will raise high his head.

113 Praise Jah, YOU people!
Offer praise, O YOU servants of Jehovah,
Praise the name of Jehovah.

2 May Jehovah’s name become blessed
From now on and to time indefinite.

3 From the rising of the sun until its setting
Jehovah’s name is to be praised.

4 Jehovah has become high above all the nations;
His glory is above the heavens.

5 Who is like Jehovah our God,
Him who is making his dwelling on high?

6 He is condescending to look on heaven and earth,

7 Raising up the lowly one from the very dust;
He exalts the poor one from the ashpit itself,

8 To make him sit with nobles,
With the nobles of his people.

9 He is causing the barren woman to dwell in a house
As a joyful mother of sons.
Praise Jah, YOU people!

114 When Israel went forth from Egypt,
The house of Jacob from a people speaking unintelligibly,
2 Judah became his holy place,
Israel his grand dominion.
3 The sea itself saw and took to flight;
As for the Jordan, it began to turn back.
4 The mountains themselves skipped about like rams,
The hills like lambs.
5 What was the matter with you, O sea, that you took to flight,
O Jordan, that you began to turn back?
6 O mountains, that YOU went skipping about like rams;
O hills, like lambs?
7 Because of the Lord be in severe pains, O earth,
Because of the God of Jacob,
8 Who is changing the rock into a reedy pool of water,
A flinty rock into a spring of water.

115 To us belongs nothing, O Jehovah, to us belongs nothing,
But to your name give glory
According to your loving-kindness, according to your trueness.

[2] Why should the nations say:
“Where, now, is their God?”

[3] But our God is in the heavens;
Everything that he delighted to do he has done.

[4] Their idols are silver and gold,
The work of the hands of earthling man.

[5] A mouth they have, but they cannot speak;
Eyes they have, but they cannot see;

[6] Ears they have, but they cannot hear.
A nose they have, but they cannot smell.

[7] Hands are theirs, but they cannot feel.
Feet are theirs, but they cannot walk;
They utter no sound with their throat.

[8] Those making them will become just like them,
All those who are trusting in them.

[9] O Israel, trust in Jehovah;
He is their help and their shield.

[10] O house of Aaron, put YOUR trust in Jehovah;
He is their help and their shield.

[11] YOU that fear Jehovah, trust in Jehovah;
He is their help and their shield.

[12] Jehovah himself has remembered us; he will bless,
He will bless the house of Israel,
He will bless the house of Aaron.

[13] He will bless those fearing Jehovah,
The small ones as well as the great ones.

[14] Jehovah will give increase to YOU,
To YOU and to YOUR sons.

[15] YOU are the ones blessed by Jehovah,
The Maker of heaven and earth.

[16] As regards the heavens, to Jehovah the heavens belong,
But the earth he has given to the sons of men.

[17] The dead themselves do not praise Jah,
Nor do any going down into silence.

[18] But we ourselves will bless Jah
From now on and to time indefinite.

Praise Jah, YOU people!

116 I do love, because Jehovah hears
My voice, my entreaties.

2 For he has inclined his ear to me,
And throughout my days I shall call.

3 The ropes of death encircled me
And the distressing circumstances of She′ol themselves found me.
Distress and grief I kept finding.

4 But upon the name of Jehovah I proceeded to call:
“Ah, Jehovah, do provide my soul with escape!”

5 Jehovah is gracious and righteous;
And our God is One showing mercy.

6 Jehovah is guarding the inexperienced ones.
I was impoverished, and he proceeded to save even me.

7 Return to your resting-place, O my soul,
For Jehovah himself has acted appropriately toward you.

8 For you have rescued my soul from death,
My eye from tears, my foot from stumbling.

9 I will walk before Jehovah in the lands of those living.

10 I had faith, for I proceeded to speak.
I myself was very much afflicted.

11 I, for my part, said, when I became panicky:
“Every man is a liar.”

12 What shall I repay to Jehovah
For all his benefits to me?

13 The cup of grand salvation I shall take up,
And on the name of Jehovah I shall call.

14 My vows I shall pay to Jehovah,
Yes, in front of all his people.

15 Precious in the eyes of Jehovah
Is the death of his loyal ones.

16 Ah, now, O Jehovah,
For I am your servant.
I am your servant, the son of your slave girl.
You have loosened my bands.

17 To you I shall offer the sacrifice of thanksgiving,
And on the name of Jehovah I shall call.

18 My vows I shall pay to Jehovah,
Yes, in front of all his people,

19 In the courtyards of the house of Jehovah,
In the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Praise Jah, YOU people!

117 Praise Jehovah, all YOU nations;
Commend him, all YOU clans.
[2] For toward us his loving-kindness has proved mighty;
And the trueness of Jehovah is to time indefinite.
Praise Jah, YOU people!

118 Give thanks to Jehovah, YOU people, for he is good;
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite.

2 Let Israel now say:
“For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite.”

3 Let those of the house of Aaron now say:
“For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite.”

4 Let those fearing Jehovah now say:
“For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite.”

5 Out of the distressing circumstances I called upon Jah;
Jah answered and put me into a roomy place.

6 Jehovah is on my side; I shall not fear.
What can earthling man do to me?

7 Jehovah is on my side among those helping me,
So that I myself shall look upon those hating me.

8 It is better to take refuge in Jehovah
Than to trust in earthling man.

9 It is better to take refuge in Jehovah
Than to trust in nobles.

10 All the nations themselves surrounded me.
It was in the name of Jehovah that I kept holding them off.

11 They surrounded me, yes, they had me surrounded.
It was in the name of Jehovah that I kept holding them off.

12 They surrounded me like bees;
They were extinguished like a fire of thornbushes.
It was in the name of Jehovah that I kept holding them off.

13 You pushed me hard that I should fall,
But Jehovah himself helped me.

14 Jah is my shelter and my might,
And to me he becomes salvation.

15 The voice of a joyful cry and salvation
Is in the tents of the righteous ones.

The right hand of Jehovah is demonstrating vital energy.

16 The right hand of Jehovah is exalting itself;
The right hand of Jehovah is demonstrating vital energy.

17 I shall not die, but I shall keep living,
That I may declare the works of Jah.

18 Jah corrected me severely,

But he did not give me over to death itself.
19 Open to me the gates of righteousness, YOU people.
I shall go into them; I shall laud Jah.
20 This is the gate of Jehovah.
The righteous themselves will go into it.
21 I shall laud you, for you answered me
And you came to be my salvation.
22 The stone that the builders rejected
Has become the head of the corner.
23 This has come to be from Jehovah himself;
It is wonderful in our eyes.
24 This is the day that Jehovah has made;
We will be joyful and rejoice in it.
25 Ah, now, Jehovah, do save, please!
Ah, now, Jehovah, do grant success, please!
26 Blessed be the One coming in the name of Jehovah;
We have blessed YOU people out of the house of Jehovah.
27 Jehovah is the Divine One,
And he gives us light.
Bind the festival procession with boughs, O YOU people,
As far as the horns of the altar.
28 You are my Divine One, and I shall laud you;
My God—I shall exalt you.
29 Give thanks to Jehovah, YOU people, for he is good;
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite.

א [ʼAʹleph]

119 Happy are the ones faultless in their way,
The ones walking in the law of Jehovah.
2 Happy are those observing his reminders;
With all the heart they keep searching for him.
3 Really they have practiced no unrighteousness.
In his ways they have walked.
4 You yourself have commandingly given your orders
To be carefully kept.
5 O that my ways were firmly established
To keep your regulations!
6 In that case I should not be ashamed,
When I look to all your commandments.
7 I shall laud you in uprightness of heart,
When I learn your righteous judicial decisions.
8 Your regulations I continue to keep.
O do not leave me entirely.

ב [Behth]

9 How will a young man cleanse his path?
By keeping on guard according to your word.
10 With my whole heart I have searched for you.
Do not cause me to go astray from your commandments.
11 In my heart I have treasured up your saying,
In order that I may not sin against you.
12 Blessed you are, O Jehovah.
Teach me your regulations.
13 With my lips I have declared
All the judicial decisions of your mouth.
14 In the way of your reminders I have exulted,
Just as over all other valuable things.
15 With your orders I will concern myself,
And I will look to your paths.
16 For your statutes I shall show a fondness.
I shall not forget your word.

ג [Gi′mel]

17 Act appropriately toward your servant, that I may live
And that I may keep your word.
18 Uncover my eyes, that I may look
At the wonderful things out of your law.
19 I am but an alien resident in the land.
Do not conceal from me your commandments.
20 My soul is crushed with longing
For your judicial decisions all the time.
21 You have rebuked the cursed presumptuous ones,
Who are straying from your commandments.
22 Roll off me reproach and contempt,
For I have observed your own reminders.
23 Even princes have sat; against me they have spoken with one another.
As for your servant, he concerns himself with your regulations.
24 Also, your reminders are what I am fond of,
As men of my counsel.

ד [Da′leth]

25 My soul has been cleaving to the very dust.
Preserve me alive according to your word.
26 I have declared my own ways, that you may answer me.
Teach me your regulations.
27 Make me understand the way of your own orders,
That I may concern myself with your wonderful works.
28 My soul has been sleepless from grief.
Raise me up according to your word.
29 Remove from me even the false way,
And favor me with your own law.
30 The way of faithfulness I have chosen.
Your judicial decisions I have considered appropriate.
31 I have cleaved to your reminders.
O Jehovah, do not put me to shame.
32 I shall run the very way of your commandments,
Because you make my heart have the room.

ה [He’]

33 Instruct me, O Jehovah, in the way of your regulations,

That I may observe it down to the last.
34 Make me understand, that I may observe your law
And that I may keep it with the whole heart.
35 Cause me to tread in the pathway of your commandments,
For in it I have taken delight.
36 Incline my heart to your reminders,
And not to profits.
37 Make my eyes pass on from seeing what is worthless;
Preserve me alive in your own way.
38 Carry out to your servant your saying
That tends to the fear of you.
39 Make my reproach pass away, of which I have been scared,
For your judicial decisions are good.
40 Look! I have longed for your orders.
In your righteousness preserve me alive.

ו [Waw]

41 And may your loving-kindnesses come to me, O Jehovah,
Your salvation according to your saying,
42 That I may answer the one reproaching me with a word,
For I have trusted in your word.
43 And do not take away from my mouth the word of truth entirely,
For I have waited for your own judicial decision.
44 And I will keep your law constantly,
To time indefinite, even forever.
45 And I will walk about in a roomy place,
For I have searched even for your orders.
46 I will also speak about your reminders in front of kings,
And I shall not be ashamed.
47 And I shall show a fondness for your commandments
That I have loved.
48 And I shall raise my palms to your commandments that I have loved,
And I will concern myself with your regulations.

ז [Za′yin]

49 Remember the word to your servant,
For which you have made me wait.
50 This is my comfort in my affliction,
For your own saying has preserved me alive.

51 The presumptuous ones themselves have derided me to the extreme.
From your law I have not deviated.
52 I have remembered your judicial decisions from time indefinite, O Jehovah,
And I find comfort for myself.
53 A raging heat itself has taken hold of me because of the wicked,
Who are leaving your law.
54 Melodies your regulations have become to me
In the house of my alien residences.

That I may keep your law.
56 Even this has become mine,
Because your orders I have observed.

Teach me your own regulations.

But now I have kept your very saying.

Teach me your regulations.

As for me, with all my heart I shall observe your orders.
70 Their heart has become unfeeling just like fat.
I, for my part, have been fond of your own law.
71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted,
In order that I may learn your regulations.
72 The law of your mouth is good for me,
More so than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

Make me understand, that I may learn your commandments.
74 Those fearing you are the ones that see me and rejoice,

In order that I may not be ashamed.

כ [Kaph]

81 For your salvation my soul has pined away;
For your word I have waited.
82 My eyes have pined away for your saying,
While I say: “When will you comfort me?”
83 For I have become like a skin bottle in the smoke.
Your regulations I have not forgotten.
84 How many are the days of your servant?
When will you execute judgment against those persecuting me?
85 The presumptuous have excavated pitfalls to get me,
Those who are not in accord with your law.

86 All your commandments are faithfulness itself.
Without cause they have persecuted me. O help me.
87 In a little while they would have exterminated me in the earth;
But I myself did not leave your orders.
88 According to your loving-kindness preserve me alive,
That I may keep the reminder of your mouth.

ל [La´medh]

89 To time indefinite, O Jehovah,
Your word is stationed in the heavens.

Your commandment is very broad.

מ [Mem]

All day long it is my concern.
98 Wiser than my enemies your commandment makes me,
Because to time indefinite it is mine.
99 More insight than all my teachers I have come to have,
Because your reminders are a concern to me.
100 With more understanding than older men I behave,
Because I have observed your own orders.
101 From every bad path I have restrained my feet,
For the purpose that I may keep your word.
102 From your judicial decisions I have not turned aside,
For you yourself have instructed me.
103 How smooth to my palate your sayings have been,

More so than honey to my mouth!
104 Owing to your orders I behave with understanding.
That is why I have hated every false path.

נ [Nun]

105 Your word is a lamp to my foot,
And a light to my roadway.

For your word I have waited.
115 Get away from me, YOU evildoers,
That I may observe the commandments of my God.
116 Support me according to your saying, that I may keep living,
And do not put me to shame for my hope.
117 Sustain me, that I may be saved,
And I shall gaze upon your regulations constantly.
118 You have tossed away all those straying from your regulations;
For their trickiness is falsehood.
119 As scummy dross you have made all the wicked ones of the earth to cease.
Therefore I have loved your reminders.
120 From the dread of you my flesh has had a creepy feeling;
And because of your judicial decisions I have been afraid.

ע [ʽAʹyin]

O do not abandon me to those defrauding me!

122 Act as a surety for your servant for what is good.
May the presumptuous ones not defraud me.

And for your righteous saying.

That I may know your reminders.

126 It is the time for Jehovah to act.
They have broken your law.

127 That is why I have loved your commandments
More than gold, even refined gold.

128 That is why I have considered all orders regarding all things to be right;
Every false path I have hated.

פ [Peʹ]

129 Your reminders are wonderful.
That is why my soul has observed them.

130 The very disclosure of your words gives light,
Making the inexperienced ones understand.

131 My mouth I have opened wide, that I may pant,
Because for your commandments I have longed.

132 Turn to me and show me favor,
According to your judicial decision toward those loving your name.

133 Fix my own steps solidly in your saying,
And may no kind of hurtful thing domineer over me.

134 Redeem me from any defrauder of mankind,
And I will keep your orders.

135 Make your own face shine upon your servant,
And teach me your regulations.

136 Streams of water have run down my eyes
Over the fact that they have not kept your law.

O Jehovah, according to your judicial decision preserve me alive.

And all your commandments are truth.

For to time indefinite you have founded them.

ר [Rehsh]

For they have not searched for your own regulations.
156 Many are your mercies, O Jehovah.
According to your judicial decisions, O preserve me alive.
157 My persecutors and my adversaries are many.
From your reminders I have not deviated.
158 I have seen those who are treacherous in dealing,
And I do feel a loathing, because they have not kept your own saying.
159 O see that I have loved your own orders.
O Jehovah, according to your loving-kindness preserve me alive.
160 The substance of your word is truth,
And every righteous judicial decision of yours is to time indefinite.

ש [Sin] or [Shin]

161 Princes themselves have persecuted me for no cause,
But my heart has been in dread of your own words.
162 I am exulting over your saying
Just as one does when finding much spoil.
163 Falsehood I have hated, and I do keep detesting it.
Your law I have loved.
164 Seven times in the day I have praised you
Because of your righteous judicial decisions.
165 Abundant peace belongs to those loving your law,
And for them there is no stumbling block.
166 I have hoped for your salvation, O Jehovah,
And I have done your own commandments.
167 My soul has kept your reminders,
And I love them exceedingly.
168 I have kept your orders and your reminders,
For all my ways are in front of you.

ת [Taw]

169 May my entreating cry come near before you, O Jehovah.
According to your word, O make me understand.
170 May my request for favor enter in before you.
According to your saying, O deliver me.
171 May my lips bubble forth praise,
For you teach me your regulations.
172 May my tongue sing forth your saying,

For all your commandments are righteousness.
173 May your hand serve to help me,
Because your orders I have chosen.
174 I have longed for your salvation, O Jehovah,
And your law I am fond of.
175 May my soul keep living and praising you,
And may your own judicial decisions help me.
176 I have wandered like a lost sheep. O look for your servant,
For I have not forgotten your own commandments.

A Song of the Ascents.

120 To Jehovah I called in the distress of mine,
And he proceeded to answer me.
2 O Jehovah, do deliver my soul from false lips,
From the tricky tongue.
3 What will one give to you, and what will one add to you,
O you tricky tongue?
4 Sharpened arrows of a mighty man,
Along with burning coals of the broom trees.
5 Woe to me, for I have resided as an alien in Meʹshech!
I have tabernacled together with the tents of Keʹdar.
6 For too long a time my soul has tabernacled
With the haters of peace.
7 I stand for peace; but when I speak,
They are for war.

A Song for the Ascents.

121 I shall raise my eyes to the mountains.
From where will my help come?

2 My help is from Jehovah,
The Maker of heaven and earth.

3 He cannot possibly allow your foot to totter.
The One guarding you cannot possibly be drowsy.

4 Look! He will not be drowsy nor go to sleep,
He that is guarding Israel.

5 Jehovah is guarding you.
Jehovah is your shade on your right hand.

6 By day the sun itself will not strike you,
Nor the moon by night.

7 Jehovah himself will guard you against all calamity.
He will guard your soul.

8 Jehovah himself will guard your going out and your coming in
From now on and to time indefinite.

A Song of the Ascents. Of David.

122 I rejoiced when they were saying to me:
“To the house of Jehovah let us go.”

2 Our feet proved to be standing
Within your gates, O Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem is one that is built like a city
That has been joined together in oneness,

4 To which the tribes have gone up,
The tribes of Jah,
As a reminder to Israel
To give thanks to the name of Jehovah.

5 For there the thrones for judgment have been sitting,
Thrones for the house of David.

6 Ask, O YOU people, for the peace of Jerusalem.
Those loving you, O city, will be free from care.

7 May peace continue within your rampart,
Freedom from care within your dwelling towers.

8 For the sake of my brothers and my companions I will now speak:
“May there be peace within you.”

9 For the sake of the house of Jehovah our God
I will keep seeking good for you.

A Song of the Ascents.

123 To you I have raised my eyes,
O You who are dwelling in the heavens.

2 Look! As the eyes of servants are toward the hand of their master,
As the eyes of a maidservant are toward the hand of her mistress,
So our eyes are toward Jehovah our God
Until he shows us favor.

3 Show us favor, O Jehovah, show us favor;
For to an abundance we have been glutted with contempt.

4 Abundantly our soul has been glutted with the derision of those who are at ease,
Of the contempt on the part of the arrogant ones.

A Song of the Ascents. Of David.

124 “Had it not been that Jehovah proved to be for us,”
Let Israel now say,

2 “Had it not been that Jehovah proved to be for us
When men rose up against us,

3 Then they would have swallowed us up even alive,
When their anger was burning against us.

4 Then the very waters would have washed us away,
The torrent itself would have passed over our soul.

5 Then there would have passed over our soul
The waters of presumptuousness.

6 Blessed be Jehovah, who has not given us
As a prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul is like a bird that is escaped
From the trap of baiters.
The trap is broken,
And we ourselves have escaped.

8 Our help is in the name of Jehovah,
The Maker of heaven and earth.”

A Song of the Ascents.

125 Those trusting in Jehovah
Are like Mount Zion, which cannot be made to totter, but dwells even to time indefinite.

2 Jerusalem—as mountains are all around it,
So Jehovah is all around his people
From now on and to time indefinite.

3 For the scepter of wickedness will not keep resting upon the lot of the righteous ones,
In order that the righteous ones may not thrust out their hand upon any wrongdoing.

4 O do good, O Jehovah, to the good ones,
Even to the ones upright in their hearts.

5 As for those turning aside to their crooked ways,
Jehovah will make them go away with the practicers of what is hurtful.
There will be peace upon Israel.

A Song of the Ascents.

126 When Jehovah gathered back the captive ones of Zion,
We became like those who were dreaming.

2 At that time our mouth came to be filled with laughter,
And our tongue with a joyful cry.
At that time they proceeded to say among the nations:
“Jehovah has done a great thing in what he has done with them.”

3 Jehovah has done a great thing in what he has done with us.
We have become joyful.

4 Do gather back, O Jehovah, our company of captives,
Like streambeds in the Negʹeb.

5 Those sowing seed with tears
Will reap even with a joyful cry.

6 The one that without fail goes forth, even weeping,
Carrying along a bagful of seed,
Will without fail come in with a joyful cry,
Carrying along his sheaves.

A Song of the Ascents. Of Solomon.

127 Unless Jehovah himself builds the house,
It is to no avail that its builders have worked hard on it.
Unless Jehovah himself guards the city,
It is to no avail that the guard has kept awake.

2 To no avail it is for YOU men that YOU are rising up early,
That YOU are sitting down late,
That YOU are eating food with pains.
Just like this he gives sleep even to his beloved one.

3 Look! Sons are an inheritance from Jehovah;
The fruitage of the belly is a reward.

4 Like arrows in the hand of a mighty man,
So are the sons of youth.

5 Happy is the able-bodied man that has filled his quiver with them.
They will not be ashamed,
For they will speak with enemies in the gate.

A Song of the Ascents.

128 Happy is everyone fearing Jehovah,
Who is walking in his ways.

2 For you will eat the toil of your own hands.
Happy you will be and it will be well with you.

3 Your wife will be like a fruit-bearing vine
In the innermost parts of your house.
Your sons will be like slips of olive trees all around your table.

4 Look! That is how the able-bodied man will be blessed Who fears Jehovah.

5 Jehovah will bless you out of Zion.
See also the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life,

6 And see the sons of your sons.
May there be peace upon Israel.

A Song of the Ascents.

129 “Long enough they have shown hostility to me from my youth,”
Let Israel now say,

2 “Long enough they have shown hostility to me from my youth;
Yet they have not prevailed over me.

3 Plowmen have plowed upon my very back;
They have lengthened their furrows.”

4 Jehovah is righteous.
He has cut in pieces the ropes of the wicked ones.

5 They will be ashamed and turn themselves back,
All those hating Zion.

6 They will become like green grass of the roofs,
Which before it has been torn out has dried up,

7 With which the reaper has not filled his own hand,
Nor anyone gathering sheaves his own bosom.

8 Nor have those passing by said:
“The blessing of Jehovah be upon YOU men.
We have blessed YOU in the name of Jehovah.”

A Song of the Ascents.

130 Out of the depths I have called upon you, O Jehovah.
2 O Jehovah, do hear my voice.
May your ears prove to be attentive to the voice of my entreaties.
3 If errors were what you watch, O Jah,
O Jehovah, who could stand?
4 For there is the true forgiveness with you,
In order that you may be feared.
5 I have hoped, O Jehovah, my soul has hoped,
And for his word I have waited.
6 My soul has waited for Jehovah
More than watchmen for the morning,
Watching for the morning.
7 Let Israel keep waiting for Jehovah.
For there is loving-kindness with Jehovah,
And abundantly so is there redemption with him.
8 And he himself will redeem Israel out of all his errors.

A Song of the Ascents. Of David.

131 O Jehovah, my heart has not been haughty,
Nor have my eyes been lofty;
Nor have I walked in things too great,
Nor in things too wonderful for me.

2 Surely I have soothed and quieted my soul
Like a weanling upon his mother.
My soul is like a weanling upon me.

3 Let Israel wait for Jehovah
From now on and to time indefinite.

A Song of the Ascents.

132 Remember, O Jehovah, concerning David
All his humiliations;

2 How he swore to Jehovah,
How he vowed to the Powerful One of Jacob:

3 “I will not go into the tent of my house.
I will not go up on the divan of my grand lounge,

4 I will not give sleep to my eyes,
Nor slumber to my own beaming eyes,

5 Until I find a place for Jehovah,
A grand tabernacle for the Powerful One of Jacob.”

6 Look! We have heard it in Eph′ra·thah,
We have found it in the fields of the forest.

7 Let us come into his grand tabernacle;
Let us bow down at his footstool.

8 Do arise, O Jehovah, to your resting-place,
You and the Ark of your strength.

9 Let your priests themselves be clothed with righteousness,
And let your own loyal ones cry out joyfully.

10 On account of David your servant,
Do not turn back the face of your anointed one.

11 Jehovah has sworn to David,
Truly he will not draw back from it:
“Of the fruitage of your belly
I shall set on your throne.

12 If your sons will keep my covenant
And my reminders that I shall teach them,
Their sons also forever
Will sit upon your throne.”

13 For Jehovah has chosen Zion;
He has longed for it as a dwelling for himself:

14 “This is my resting-place forever;
Here I shall dwell, for I have longed for it.

15 Its provisions I shall bless without fail.
Its poor ones I shall satisfy with bread.

16 And its priests I shall clothe with salvation;
And its loyal ones will without fail cry out joyfully.

17 There I shall cause the horn of David to grow.

I have set in order a lamp for my anointed one.
18 His enemies I shall clothe with shame;
But upon him his diadem will flourish.”

A Song of the Ascents. Of David.

133 Look! How good and how pleasant it is For brothers to dwell together in unity!

2 It is like the good oil upon the head,
That is running down upon the beard,
Aaron’s beard,
That is running down to the collar of his garments.

3 It is like the dew of Her′mon
That is descending upon the mountains of Zion.
For there Jehovah commanded the blessing to be,
Even life to time indefinite.

A Song of the Ascents.

134 O bless Jehovah,
All YOU servants of Jehovah,
YOU who are standing in the house of Jehovah during the nights.

2 Raise YOUR hands in holiness
And bless Jehovah.

3 May Jehovah bless you out of Zion,
He the Maker of heaven and earth.

135 Praise Jah, YOU people!
Praise the name of Jehovah,
Offer praise, O servants of Jehovah,

2 YOU who are standing in the house of Jehovah,
In the courtyards of the house of our God.

3 Praise Jah, for Jehovah is good.
Make melody to his name, for it is pleasant.

4 For Jah has chosen even Jacob for himself,
Israel for his special property.

5 For I myself well know that Jehovah is great,
And our Lord is more than all other gods.

6 Everything that Jehovah delighted to do he has done
In the heavens and in the earth, in the seas and all the watery deeps.

7 He is causing vapors to ascend from the extremity of the earth;
He has made even sluices for the rain;
He is bringing forth the wind from his storehouses,

8 He who struck down the firstborn ones of Egypt,
Both man and beast.

9 He sent signs and miracles into the midst of you, O Egypt,
Upon Phar′aoh and upon all his servants;

10 He who struck down many nations
And killed potent kings,

11 Even Si′hon the king of the Am′or·ites
And Og the king of Ba′shan
And all the kingdoms of Ca′naan,

12 And who gave their land as an inheritance,
An inheritance to Israel his people.

13 O Jehovah, your name is to time indefinite.
O Jehovah, your memorial is to generation after generation.

14 For Jehovah will plead the cause of his people,
And he will feel regret even over his servants.

15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
The work of the hands of earthling man.

16 A mouth they have, but they can speak nothing;
Eyes they have, but they can see nothing;

17 Ears they have, but they can give ear to nothing.
Also there exists no spirit in their mouth.

18 Those making them will become just like them,
Everyone who is trusting in them.

19 O house of Israel, do YOU men bless Jehovah.
O house of Aaron, do YOU men bless Jehovah.
20 O house of Le′vi, do YOU men bless Jehovah.
YOU fearers of Jehovah, bless Jehovah.
21 Blessed out of Zion be Jehovah,
Who is residing in Jerusalem.
Praise Jah, YOU people!

136 Give thanks to Jehovah, O YOU people, for he is good:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

2 Give thanks to the God of the gods:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

3 Give thanks to the Lord of the lords:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

4 To the Doer of wonderful, great things by himself:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

5 To the One making the heavens with understanding:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

6 To the One laying out the earth above the waters:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

7 To the One making the great lights:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

8 Even the sun for dominion by day:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

9 The moon and the stars for combined dominion by night:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

10 To the One striking down Egypt in their firstborn ones:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

11 And the One bringing Israel out of the midst of them:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

12 By a strong hand and by an arm stretched out:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

13 To the One severing the Red Sea into parts:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

14 And who caused Israel to pass through the middle of it:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

15 And who shook off Phar′aoh and his military force into the Red Sea:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

16 To the One making his people walk through the wilderness:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

17 To the One striking down great kings:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

18 And who proceeded to kill majestic kings:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

19 Even Si′hon the king of the Am′or·ites:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;

20 And Og the king of Baʹshan:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;
21 And who gave their land as an inheritance:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;
22 An inheritance to Israel his servant:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;
23 Who during our low condition remembered us:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;
24 And who repeatedly tore us away from our adversaries:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;
25 The One giving food to all flesh:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite;
26 Give thanks to the God of the heavens:
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite.

137 By the rivers of Babylon—there we sat down.
We also wept when we remembered Zion.

[2] Upon the poplar trees in the midst of her
We hung our harps.

[3] For there those holding us captive asked us for the words of a song,
And those mocking us—for rejoicing:
“SING for us one of the songs of Zion.”

[4] How can we sing the song of Jehovah
Upon foreign ground?

[5] If I should forget you, O Jerusalem,
Let my right hand be forgetful.

[6] Let my tongue stick to my palate,
If I were not to remember you,
If I were not to make Jerusalem ascend
Above my chief cause for rejoicing.

[7] Remember, O Jehovah, regarding the sons of E′dom the day of Jerusalem,
Who were saying: “Lay it bare! Lay it bare to the foundation within it!”

[8] O daughter of Babylon, who are to be despoiled,
Happy will he be that rewards you
With your own treatment with which you treated us.

[9] Happy will he be that grabs ahold and does dash to pieces
Your children against the crag.

Of David.

138 I shall laud you with all my heart.
In front of other gods I shall make melody to you.

2 I shall bow down toward your holy temple,
And I shall laud your name,
Because of your loving-kindness and because of your trueness.
For you have magnified your saying even above all your name.

3 On the day that I called, you also proceeded to answer me;
You began to make me bold in my soul with strength.

4 All the kings of the earth will laud you, O Jehovah,
For they will have heard the sayings of your mouth.

5 And they will sing about the ways of Jehovah,
For the glory of Jehovah is great.

6 For Jehovah is high, and yet the humble one he sees;
But the lofty one he knows only from a distance.

7 If I should walk in the midst of distress, you will preserve me alive.
Because of the anger of my enemies you will thrust out your hand,
And your right hand will save me.

8 Jehovah himself will complete what is in my behalf.
O Jehovah, to time indefinite is your loving-kindness.
Do not desert the works of your own hands.

For the director. Of David. A melody.

139 O Jehovah, you have searched through me, and you know me.
2 You yourself have come to know my sitting down and my rising up.
You have considered my thought from far off.
3 My journeying and my lying outstretched you have measured off,
And you have become familiar even with all my ways.
4 For there is not a word on my tongue,
But, look! O Jehovah, you already know it all.
5 Behind and before, you have besieged me;
And you place your hand upon me.
6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me.
It is so high up that I cannot attain to it.
7 Where can I go from your spirit,
And where can I run away from your face?
8 If I should ascend to heaven, there you would be;
And if I should spread out my couch in She′ol, look! you would be there.
9 Were I to take the wings of the dawn,
That I might reside in the most remote sea,
10 There, also, your own hand would lead me
And your right hand would lay hold of me.
11 And were I to say: “Surely darkness itself will hastily seize me!”
Then night would be light about me.
12 Even the darkness itself would not prove too dark for you,
But night itself would shine just as the day does;
The darkness might just as well be the light.
13 For you yourself produced my kidneys;
You kept me screened off in the belly of my mother.
14 I shall laud you because in a fear-inspiring way I am wonderfully made.
Your works are wonderful,
As my soul is very well aware.
15 My bones were not hidden from you
When I was made in secret,
When I was woven in the lowest parts of the earth.
16 Your eyes saw even the embryo of me,
And in your book all its parts were down in writing,
As regards the days when they were formed
And there was not yet one among them.
17 So, to me how precious your thoughts are!

O God, how much does the grand sum of them amount to!
18 Were I to try to count them, they are more than even the grains of sand.
I have awaked, and yet I am still with you.
19 O that you, O God, would slay the wicked one!
Then even the bloodguilty men will certainly depart from me,
20 Who say things about you according to their idea;
They have taken up your name in a worthless way—your adversaries.
21 Do I not hate those who are intensely hating you, O Jehovah,
And do I not feel a loathing for those revolting against you?
22 With a complete hatred I do hate them.
They have become to me real enemies.
23 Search through me, O God, and know my heart.
Examine me, and know my disquieting thoughts,
24 And see whether there is in me any painful way,
And lead me in the way of time indefinite.

For the director. A melody of David.

140 Rescue me, O Jehovah, from bad men;
May you safeguard me even from the man of deeds of violence,
2 Those who have schemed bad things in their heart,
Who all day long keep attacking as in wars.
3 They have sharpened their tongue like that of a serpent;
The venom of the horned viper is under their lips. Seʹlah.
4 Keep me, O Jehovah, from the hands of the wicked one;
May you safeguard me even from the man of deeds of violence,
Those who have schemed to push my steps.
5 The self-exalted ones have hidden a trap for me;
And ropes they have spread out as a net at the side of the track.
Snares they have set for me. Seʹlah.
6 I have said to Jehovah: “You are my God.
Do give ear, O Jehovah, to the voice of my entreaties.”
7 O Jehovah the Sovereign Lord, the strength of my salvation,
You have screened over my head in the day of the armed force.
8 Do not grant, O Jehovah, the cravings of the wicked one.
Do not promote his plotting, that they may not be exalted. Seʹlah.
9 As for the heads of those surrounding me,
May the trouble of their own lips cover them.
10 May burning coals be dropped upon them.
Let them be made to fall into the fire, into watery pits, that they may not get up.
11 The big talker—let him not be firmly established in the earth.
The man of violence—let evil itself hunt him with repeated thrusts.
12 I well know that Jehovah will execute
The legal claim of the afflicted one, the judgment of the poor ones.
13 Surely the righteous themselves will give thanks to your name;
The upright ones will dwell before your face.

A melody of David.

141 O Jehovah, I have called upon you.
Do make haste to me.
Do give ear to my voice when I call to you.

2 May my prayer be prepared as incense before you,
The raising up of my palms as the evening grain offering.

3 Do set a guard, O Jehovah, for my mouth;
Do set a watch over the door of my lips.

4 Do not incline my heart to anything bad,
So as to carry on notorious deeds in wickedness
With men who are practicing what is hurtful,
That I may not feed myself on their dainties.

5 Should the righteous one strike me, it would be a loving-kindness;
And should he reprove me, it would be oil upon the head,
Which my head would not want to refuse.
For still there would be even my prayer during their calamities.

6 Their judges have been thrown down by the sides of the crag,
But they have heard my sayings, that they are pleasant.

7 As when one is doing cleaving and splitting on the earth,
Our bones have been scattered at the mouth of She′ol.

8 However, my eyes are to you, O Jehovah the Sovereign Lord.
In you I have taken refuge.
Do not pour out my soul.

9 Keep me from the clutches of the trap that they have laid for me
And from the snares of those practicing what is hurtful.

10 The wicked will fall into their own nets all together,
While I, for my part, pass by.

Mas′kil. Of David, when he happened to be in the cave. A prayer.

142 With my voice, to Jehovah I proceeded to call for aid;
With my voice, to Jehovah I began to cry for favor.

2 Before him I kept pouring out my concern;
Before him I continued to tell about my own distress,

3 When my spirit fainted away within me.
Then you yourself knew my roadway.
In the path in which I walk
They have hidden a trap for me.

4 Look to the right hand and see
That there is no one giving any recognition to me.
My place for flight has perished from me;
There is no one inquiring for my soul.

5 I called to you, O Jehovah, for aid.
I said: “You are my refuge,
My share in the land of the living ones.”

6 Do pay attention to my entreating cry,
For I have become very much impoverished.
Deliver me from my persecutors,
For they are stronger than I am.

7 Do bring my soul out of the very dungeon
To laud your name.
Around me let the righteous ones gather,
Because you deal appropriately with me.

A melody of David.

143 O Jehovah, hear my prayer;
Do give ear to my entreaty.
In your faithfulness answer me in your righteousness.

2 And do not enter into judgment with your servant;
For before you no one alive can be righteous.

3 For the enemy has pursued my soul;
He has crushed my life to the very earth.
He has caused me to dwell in dark places like those dead for time indefinite.

4 And my spirit faints away within me;
In the midst of me my heart shows itself numbed.

5 I have remembered days of long ago;
I have meditated on all your activity;
I willingly kept myself concerned with the work of your own hands.

6 I have spread out my hands to you;
My soul is like an exhausted land to you. Seʹlah.

7 O hurry, answer me, O Jehovah.
My spirit has come to an end.
Do not conceal your face from me,
Or else I must become comparable with those going down into the pit.

8 In the morning cause me to hear your loving-kindness,
For in you I have put my trust.
Make known to me the way in which I should walk,
For to you I have lifted up my soul.

9 Deliver me from my enemies, O Jehovah.
I have taken cover even with you.

10 Teach me to do your will,
For you are my God.
Your spirit is good;
May it lead me in the land of uprightness.

11 For the sake of your name, O Jehovah, may you preserve me alive.
In your righteousness may you bring forth my soul out of distress.

12 And in your loving-kindness may you silence my enemies;
And you must destroy all those showing hostility to my soul,
For I am your servant.

Of David.

144 Blessed be Jehovah my Rock,
Who is teaching my hands for fighting,
My fingers for warfare;

2 My loving-kindness and my stronghold,
My secure height and my Provider of escape for me,
My shield and the One in whom I have taken refuge,
The One subduing peoples under me.

3 O Jehovah, what is man that you should notice him,
The son of mortal man that you should take account of him?

4 Man himself bears resemblance to a mere exhalation;
His days are like a passing shadow.

5 O Jehovah, bend down your heavens that you may descend;
Touch the mountains that they may smoke.

6 Lighten with lightning that you may scatter them;
Send out your arrows that you may throw them into confusion.

7 Thrust your hands out from the height;
Set me free and deliver me from the many waters,
From the hand of the foreigners,

8 Whose mouth has spoken what is untrue
And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

9 O God, a new song I will sing to you.
On an instrument of ten strings I will make melody to you,

10 The One giving salvation to kings,
The One setting David his servant free from the injurious sword.

11 Set me free and deliver me from the hand of the foreigners,
Whose mouth has spoken what is untrue
And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood,

12 Who say: “Our sons are like little plants grown up in their youth,
Our daughters like corners carved in palace style,

13 Our garners full, furnishing products of one sort after another,
Our flocks multiplying by thousands, ten thousand to one, in our streets,

14 Our cattle loaded down, without any rupture and with no abortion,
And with no outcry in our public squares.

15 Happy is the people for whom it is just like that!”
Happy is the people whose God is Jehovah!

A praise, of David.

Praise Jehovah, O my soul.

2 I will praise Jehovah during my lifetime.
I will make melody to my God as long as I am.

3 Do not put YOUR trust in nobles,
Nor in the son of earthling man, to whom no salvation belongs.

4 His spirit goes out, he goes back to his ground;
In that day his thoughts do perish.

5 Happy is the one who has the God of Jacob for his help,
Whose hope is in Jehovah his God,

6 The Maker of heaven and earth,

The One preparing rain for the earth,
The One making the mountains to sprout green grass.

To the young ravens that keep calling.

Let them cry out joyfully on their beds.
6 Let the songs extolling God be in their throat,
And a two-edged sword be in their hand,
7 To execute vengeance upon the nations,
Rebukes upon the national groups,
8 To bind their kings with shackles
And their glorified ones with fetters of iron,
9 To execute upon them the judicial decision written.
Such splendor belongs to all his loyal ones.
Praise Jah, YOU people!

150 Praise Jah, YOU people!
Praise God in his holy place.
Praise him in the expanse of his strength.

2 Praise him for his works of mightiness.
Praise him according to the abundance of his greatness.

3 Praise him with the blowing of the horn.
Praise him with the stringed instrument and the harp.

4 Praise him with the tambourine and the circle dance.
Praise him with strings and the pipe.

5 Praise him with the cymbals of melodious sound.
Praise him with the clashing cymbals.

6 Every breathing thing—let it praise Jah.
Praise Jah, YOU people!

PROVERBS

1 The proverbs of Sol′o·mon the son of David, the king of Israel, [2] for one to know wisdom and discipline, to discern the sayings of understanding, [3] to receive the discipline that gives insight, righteousness and judgment and uprightness, [4] to give to the inexperienced ones shrewdness, to a young man knowledge and thinking ability.

[5] A wise person will listen and take in more instruction, and a man of understanding is the one who acquires skillful direction, [6] to understand a proverb and a puzzling saying, the words of wise persons and their riddles.

[7] The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of knowledge. Wisdom and discipline are what mere fools have despised.

[8] Listen, my son, to the discipline of your father, and do not forsake the law of your mother. [9] For they are a wreath of attractiveness to your head and a fine necklace to your throat.

[10] My son, if sinners try to seduce you, do not consent. [11] If they keep saying: “Do go with us. Do let us lie in ambush for blood. Do let us lie in concealment for the innocent men without any cause. [12] Let us swallow them down alive just like She′ol, even whole, like those going down into a pit. [13] Let us find all sorts of precious valuables. Let us fill our houses with spoil. [14] Your lot you ought to cast in among us. Let there come to be just one bag belonging to all of us”— [15] my son, do not go in the way with them. Hold back your foot from their roadway. [16] For their feet are those that run to sheer badness, and they keep hastening to shed blood. [17] For it is for nothing that the net is spread before the eyes of anything owning wings. [18] Consequently they themselves lie in ambush for the very blood of these; they lie in concealment for their souls. [19] Thus are the paths of everyone making unjust profit. It takes away the very soul of its owners.

[20] True wisdom itself keeps crying aloud in the very street. In the public squares it keeps giving forth its voice. [21] At the upper end of the noisy streets it calls out. At the entrances of the gates into the city it says its own sayings:

[22] “How long will YOU inexperienced ones keep loving inexperience, and how long must YOU ridiculers desire for yourselves outright ridicule, and how long will YOU stupid ones keep hating knowledge? [23] Turn back at my reproof. Then to YOU I will cause my spirit to bubble forth; I will make my words known to YOU. [24] Because I have called out but YOU keep refusing, I have stretched out my hand but there is no one paying attention, [25] and YOU keep neglecting all my counsel, and my reproof YOU have not accepted, [26] I also, for my part, shall laugh at YOUR own disaster, I shall mock when what YOU dread comes, [27] when what YOU dread comes just like a storm, and YOUR own disaster gets here just like a storm wind, when distress and hard times come upon YOU. [28] At that time they will keep calling me, but I shall not answer; they will keep looking for me, but they will not find me, [29] for the reason that they hated knowledge, and the fear of Jehovah they did not choose. [30] They did not consent to my counsel; they disrespected all my reproof. [31] So they will eat from the fruitage of their way, and they will be glutted with their own counsels. [32] For the renegading of the inexperienced ones is what will kill them, and the easygoingness of the stupid is what will destroy them. [33] As for the one listening to me, he will reside in security and be undisturbed from dread of calamity.”

2 My son, if you will receive my sayings and treasure up my own commandments with yourself, [2] so as to pay attention to wisdom with your ear, that you may incline your heart to discernment; [3] if, moreover, you call out for understanding itself and you give forth your voice for discernment itself, [4] if you keep seeking for it as for silver, and as for hid treasures you keep searching for it, [5] in that case you will understand the fear of Jehovah, and you will find the very knowledge of God. [6] For Jehovah himself gives wisdom; out of his mouth there are knowledge and discernment. [7] And for the upright ones he will treasure up practical wisdom; for those walking in integrity he is a shield, [8] by observing the paths of judgment, and he will guard the very way of his loyal ones. [9] In that case you will understand righteousness and judgment and uprightness, the entire course of what is good.

[10] When wisdom enters into your heart and knowledge itself becomes pleasant to your very soul, [11] thinking ability itself will keep guard over you, discernment itself will safeguard you, [12] to deliver you from the bad way, from the man speaking perverse things, [13] from those leaving the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness, [14] from those who are rejoicing in doing bad, who are joyful in the perverse things of badness; [15] those whose paths are crooked and who are devious in their general course; [16] to deliver you from the strange woman, from the foreign woman who has made her own sayings smooth, [17] who is leaving the confidential friend of her youth and who has forgotten the very covenant of her God. [18] For down to death her house does sink and down to those impotent in death her tracks. [19] None of those having relations with her will come back, nor will they regain the paths of those living.

[20] The purpose is that you may walk in the way of good people and that the paths of the righteous ones you may keep. [21] For the upright are the ones that will reside in the earth, and the blameless are the ones that will be left over in it. [22] As regards the wicked, they will be cut off from the very earth; and as for the treacherous, they will be torn away from it.

3 My son, my law do not forget, and my commandments may your heart observe, [2] because length of days and years of life and peace will be added to you. [3] May loving-kindness and trueness themselves not leave you. Tie them about your throat. Write them upon the tablet of your heart, [4] and so find favor and good insight in the eyes of God and of earthling man. [5] Trust in Jehovah with all your heart and do not lean upon your own understanding. [6] In all your ways take notice of him, and he himself will make your paths straight.

[7] Do not become wise in your own eyes. Fear Jehovah and turn away from bad. [8] May it become a healing to your navel and a refreshment to your bones.

[9] Honor Jehovah with your valuable things and with the firstfruits of all your produce. [10] Then your stores of supply will be filled with plenty; and with new wine your own press vats will overflow.

[11] The discipline of Jehovah, O my son, do not reject; and do not abhor his reproof, [12] because the one whom Jehovah loves he reproves, even as a father does a son in whom he finds pleasure.

[13] Happy is the man that has found wisdom, and the man that gets discernment, [14] for having it as gain is better than having silver as gain and having it as produce than gold itself. [15] It is more precious than corals, and all other delights of yours cannot be made equal to it. [16] Length of days is in its right hand; in its left hand there are riches and glory. [17]
Its ways are ways of pleasantness, and all its roadways are peace. [18] It is a tree of life to those taking hold of it, and those keeping fast hold of it are to be called happy.

[19] Jehovah himself in wisdom founded the earth. He solidly fixed the heavens in discernment. [20] By his knowledge the watery deeps themselves were split apart, and the cloudy skies keep dripping down light rain. [21] My son, may they not get away from your eyes. Safeguard practical wisdom and thinking ability, [22] and they will prove to be life to your soul and charm to your throat. [23] In that case you will walk in security on your way, and even your foot will not strike against anything. [24] Whenever you lie down you will feel no dread; and you will certainly lie down, and your sleep must be pleasurable. [25] You will not need to be afraid of any sudden dreadful thing, nor of the storm upon the wicked ones, because it is coming. [26] For Jehovah himself will prove to be, in effect, your confidence, and he will certainly keep your foot against capture.

[27] Do not hold back good from those to whom it is owing, when it happens to be in the power of your hand to do it. [28] Do not say to your fellowman: “Go, and come back and tomorrow I shall give,” when there is something with you. [29] Do not fabricate against your fellowman anything bad, when he is dwelling in a sense of security with you. [30] Do not quarrel with a man without cause, if he has rendered no bad to you.

[31] Do not become envious of the man of violence, nor choose any of his ways. [32] For the devious person is a detestable thing to Jehovah, but His intimacy is with the upright ones. [33] The curse of Jehovah is on the house of the wicked one, but the abiding place of the righteous ones he blesses. [34] If it has to do with ridiculers, he himself will deride; but to the meek ones he will show favor. [35] Honor is what the wise ones will come to possess, but the stupid ones are exalting dishonor.

4 Listen, O sons, to the discipline of a father and pay attention, so as to know understanding. [2] For good instruction is what I certainly shall give to YOU. My law DO not leave. [3] For I proved to be a real son to my father, tender and the only one before my mother. [4] And he would instruct me and say to me: “May your heart keep fast hold of my words. Keep my commandments and continue living. [5] Acquire wisdom, acquire understanding. Do not forget, and do not turn aside from the sayings of my mouth. [6] Do not leave it, and it will keep you. Love it, and it will safeguard you. [7] Wisdom is the prime thing. Acquire wisdom; and with all that you acquire, acquire understanding. [8] Highly esteem it, and it will exalt you. It will glorify you because you embrace it. [9] To your head it will give a wreath of charm; a crown of beauty it will bestow upon you.”

[10] Hear, my son, and accept my sayings. Then for you the years of life will become many. [11] I will instruct you even in the way of wisdom; I will cause you to tread in the tracks of uprightness. [12] When you walk, your pace will not be cramped; and if you run, you will not stumble. [13] Take hold on discipline; do not let go. Safeguard it, for it itself is your life.

[14] Into the path of the wicked ones do not enter, and do not walk straight on into the way of the bad ones. [15] Shun it, do not pass along by it; turn aside from it, and pass along. [16] For they do not sleep unless they do badness, and their sleep has been snatched away unless they cause someone to stumble. [17] For they have fed themselves with the bread of wickedness, and the wine of acts of violence is what they drink. [18] But the path of the righteous ones is like the bright light that is getting lighter and lighter until the day is firmly established. [19] The way of the wicked ones is like the gloom; they have not known at what they keep stumbling.

[20] My son, to my words do pay attention. To my sayings incline your ear. [21] May they not get away from your eyes. Keep them in the midst of your heart. [22] For they are life to those finding them and health to all their flesh. [23] More than all else that is to be guarded, safeguard your heart, for out of it are the sources of life. [24] Remove from yourself the crookedness of speech; and the deviousness of lips put far away from yourself. [25] As for your eyes, straight ahead they should look, yes, your own beaming eyes should gaze straight in front of you. [26] Smooth out the course of your foot, and may all your own ways be firmly established. [27] Do not incline to the right hand or to the left. Remove your foot from what is bad.

5 My son, to my wisdom O do pay attention. To my discernment incline your ears, [2] so as to guard thinking abilities; and may your own lips safeguard knowledge itself.

[3] For as a honeycomb the lips of a strange woman keep dripping, and her palate is smoother than oil. [4] But the aftereffect from her is as bitter as wormwood; it is as sharp as a two-edged sword. [5] Her feet are descending to death. Her very steps take hold on She′ol itself. [6] The path of life she does not contemplate. Her tracks have wandered she does not know where. [7] So now, O sons, listen to me and do not turn away from the sayings of my mouth. [8] Keep your way far off from alongside her, and do not get near to the entrance of her house, [9] that you may not give to others your dignity, nor your years to what is cruel; [10] that strangers may not satisfy themselves with your power, nor the things you got by pain be in the house of a foreigner, [11] nor you have to groan in your future when your flesh and your organism come to an end. [12] And you will have to say: “How I have hated discipline and my heart has disrespected even reproof! [13] And I have not listened to the voice of my instructors, and to my teachers I have not inclined my ear. [14] Easily I have come to be in every sort of badness in the midst of the congregation and of the assembly.”

[15] Drink water out of your own cistern, and tricklings out of the midst of your own well. [16] Should your springs be scattered out of doors, your streams of water in the public squares themselves? [17] Let them prove to be for you alone, and not for strangers with you. [18] Let your water source prove to be blessed, and rejoice with the wife of your youth, [19] a lovable hind and a charming mountain goat. Let her own breasts intoxicate you at all times. With her love may you be in an ecstasy constantly. [20] So why should you, my son, be in an ecstasy with a strange woman or embrace the bosom of a foreign woman? [21] For the ways of man are in front of the eyes of Jehovah, and he is contemplating all his tracks. [22] His own errors will catch the wicked one, and in the ropes of his own sin he will be taken hold of. [23] He will be the one to die because there is no discipline, and because in the abundance of his foolishness he goes astray.

6 My son, if you have gone surety for your fellowman, if you have given your handshake even to the stranger, [2] if you have been ensnared by the sayings of your mouth, if you have been caught by the sayings of your mouth, [3] take this action then, my son, and deliver yourself, for you have come into the palm of your fellowman: Go humble yourself and storm your fellowman with importunities. [4] Do not give any sleep to your eyes, nor any slumber to your beaming eyes. [5] Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hand and like a bird from the hand of the birdcatcher.

[6] Go to the ant, you lazy one; see its ways and become wise. [7] Although it has no commander, officer or ruler, [8] it prepares its food even in the summer; it has gathered its food supplies even in the harvest. [9] How long, you lazy one, will you keep lying down? When will you rise up from your sleep? [10] A little more sleep, a little more slumbering, a little more folding of the hands in lying down, [11] and your poverty will certainly come just like some rover, and your want like an armed man.

[12] A good-for-nothing man, a man of hurtfulness, is walking with crookedness of speech, [13] winking with his eye, making signs with his foot, making indications with his fingers. [14] Perverseness is in his heart. He is fabricating something bad all the time. He keeps sending out merely contentions. [15] That is why suddenly there will come his disaster; in an instant he will be broken, and there will be no healing.

[16] There are six things that Jehovah does hate; yes, seven are things detestable to his soul: [17] lofty eyes, a false tongue, and hands that are shedding innocent blood, [18] a heart fabricating hurtful schemes, feet that are in a hurry to run to badness, [19] a false witness that launches forth lies, and anyone sending forth contentions among brothers.

[20] Observe, O my son, the commandment of your father, and do not forsake the law of your mother. [21] Tie them upon your heart constantly; bind them upon your throat. [22] When you walk about, it will lead you; when you lie down, it will stand guard over you; and when you have waked up, it itself will make you its concern. [23] For the commandment is a lamp, and a light the law is, and the reproofs of discipline are the way of life, [24] to guard you against the bad woman, against the smoothness of the tongue of the foreign woman. [25] Do not desire her prettiness in your heart, and may she not take you with her lustrous eyes, [26] because in behalf of a woman prostitute one comes down to a round loaf of bread; but as regards another man's wife, she hunts even for a precious soul. [27] Can a man rake together fire into his bosom and yet his very garments not be burned? [28] Or can a man walk upon the coals and his feet themselves not be scorched? [29] Likewise with anyone having relations with the wife of his fellowman, no one touching her will remain unpunishable. [30] People do not despise a thief just because he commits thievery to fill his soul when he is hungry. [31] But, when found, he will make it good with seven times as much; all the valuables of his house he will give. [32] Anyone committing adultery with a woman is in want of heart; he that does it is bringing his own soul to ruin. [33] A plague and dishonor he will find, and his reproach itself will not be wiped out. [34] For the rage of an able-bodied man is jealousy, and he will not show compassion in the day of vengeance. [35] He will have no consideration for any sort of ransom, neither will he show willingness, no matter how large you make the present.

7 My son, keep my sayings, and may you treasure up my own commandments with you. [2] Keep my commandments and continue living, and my law like the pupil of your eyes. [3] Tie them upon your fingers, and write them upon the tablet of your heart. [4] Say to wisdom: “You are my sister”; and may you call understanding itself “Kinswoman,” [5] to guard you against the woman stranger, against the foreigner who has made her own sayings smooth. [6] For at the window of my house, through my lattice I looked down, [7] that I might peer upon the inexperienced ones. I was interested in discerning among the sons a young man in want of heart, [8] passing along on the street near her corner, and in the way to her house he marches, [9] in the twilight, in the evening of the day, at the approach of the night and the gloom. [10] And, look! there was a woman to meet him, with the garment of a prostitute and cunning of heart. [11] She is boisterous and stubborn. In her house her feet do not keep residing. [12] Now she is outdoors, now she is in the public squares, and near every corner she lies in wait. [13] And she has grabbed hold of him and given him a kiss. She has put on a bold face, and she begins to say to him:

[14] “Communion sacrifices were incumbent upon me. Today I have paid my vows. [15] That is why I have come out to meet you, to look for your face, that I may find you. [16] With coverlets I have bedecked my divan, with many-colored things, linen of Egypt. [17] I have besprinkled my bed with myrrh, aloes and cinnamon. [18] Do come, let us drink our fill of love until the morning; do let us enjoy each other with love expressions. [19] For the husband is not in his house; he has gone traveling on a way of some distance. [20] A bag of money he has taken in his hand. On the day of the full moon he will come to his house.”

21 She has misled him by the abundance of her persuasiveness. By the smoothness of her lips she seduces him. 22 All of a sudden he is going after her, like a bull that comes even to the slaughter, and just as if fettered for the discipline of a foolish man, 23 until an arrow cleaves open his liver, just as a bird hastens into the trap, and he has not known that it involves his very soul.

24 And now, O sons, listen to me and pay attention to the sayings of my mouth. 25 May your heart not turn aside to her ways. Do not wander into her roadways. 26 For many are the ones she has caused to fall down slain, and all those being killed by her are numerous. 27 The ways to She′ol her house is; they are descending to the interior rooms of death.

8 Does not wisdom keep calling out, and discernment keep giving forth its voice? [2] On top of the heights, by the way, at the crossing of the roadways it has stationed itself. [3] At the side of the gates, at the mouth of the town, at the going in of the entrances it keeps crying loudly:

[4] "To YOU, O men, I am calling, and my voice is to the sons of men. [5] O inexperienced ones, understand shrewdness; and YOU stupid ones, understand heart. [6] Listen, for it is about the foremost things that I speak, and the opening of my lips is about uprightness. [7] For my palate in low tones utters truth itself; and wickedness is something detestable to my lips. [8] All the sayings of my mouth are in righteousness. Among them there is nothing twisted or crooked. [9] All of them are straight to the discerning one, and upright to the ones finding knowledge. [10] TAKE my discipline and not silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold. [11] For wisdom is better than corals, and all other delights themselves cannot be made equal to it.

[12] "I, wisdom, I have resided with shrewdness and I find even the knowledge of thinking abilities. [13] The fear of Jehovah means the hating of bad. Self-exaltation and pride and the bad way and the perverse mouth I have hated. [14] I have counsel and practical wisdom. I—understanding; I have mightiness. [15] By me kings themselves keep reigning, and high officials themselves keep decreeing righteousness. [16] By me princes themselves keep ruling as princes, and nobles are all judging in righteousness. [17] Those loving me I myself love, and those looking for me are the ones that find me. [18] Riches and glory are with me, hereditary values and righteousness. [19] My fruitage is better than gold, even than refined gold, and my produce than choice silver. [20] In the path of righteousness I walk, in the middle of the roadways of judgment, [21] to cause those loving me to take possession of substance; and their storehouses I keep filled.

[22] “Jehovah himself produced me as the beginning of his way, the earliest of his achievements of long ago. [23] From time indefinite I was installed, from the start, from times earlier than the earth. [24] When there were no watery deeps I was brought forth as with labor pains, when there were no springs heavily charged with water. [25] Before the mountains themselves had been settled down, ahead of the hills, I was brought forth as with labor pains, [26] when as yet he had not made the earth and the open spaces and the first part of the dust masses of the productive land. [27] When he prepared the heavens I was there; when he decreed a circle upon the face of the watery deep, [28] when he made firm the cloud masses above, when he caused the fountains of the watery deep to be strong, [29] when he set for the sea his decree that the waters themselves should not pass beyond his order, when he decreed the foundations of the earth, [30] then I came to be beside him as a master worker, and I came to be the one he was specially fond of day by day, I being glad before him all the time, [31] being glad at the productive land of his earth, and the things I was fond of were with the sons of men.

[32] “And now, O sons, listen to me; yes, happy are the ones that keep my very ways. [33] Listen to discipline and become wise, and do not show any neglect. [34] Happy is the man that is listening to me by keeping awake at my doors day by day, by watching at the posts of my entrances. [35] For the one finding me will certainly find life, and gets goodwill from Jehovah. [36] But the one missing me is doing violence to his soul; all those intensely hating me are the ones that do love death.”

9 True wisdom has built its house; it has hewn out its seven pillars. [2] It has organized its meat slaughtering; it has mixed its wine; more than that, it has set in order its table. [3] It has sent forth its lady attendants, that it may call out on top of the heights of the town: [4] “Whoever is inexperienced, let him turn aside here.” Whoever is in want of heart—she has said to him: [5] “Come, feed yourselves with my bread and share in drinking the wine that I have mixed. [6] Leave the inexperienced ones and keep living, and walk straight in the way of understanding.”

[7] He that is correcting the ridiculer is taking to himself dishonor, and he that is giving a reproof to someone wicked —a defect in him. [8] Do not reprove a ridiculer, that he may not hate you. Give a reproof to a wise person and he will love you. [9] Give to a wise person and he will become still wiser. Impart knowledge to someone righteous and he will increase in learning.

[10] The fear of Jehovah is the start of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Most Holy One is what understanding is. [11] For by me your days will become many, and to you years of life will be added. [12] If you have become wise, you have become wise in your own behalf; and if you have ridiculed, you will bear it, just you alone.

[13] A woman of stupidity is boisterous. She is simplemindedness itself and has come to know nothing whatever. [14] And she has seated herself at the entrance of her house, upon a seat, in the high places of the town, [15] to call out to those passing along the way, those who are going straight ahead on their paths: [16] “Whoever is inexperienced, let him turn aside here.” And whoever is in want of heart—she has also said to him: [17] “Stolen waters themselves are sweet, and bread eaten in secrecy—it is pleasant.” [18] But he has not come to know that those impotent in death are there, that those called in by her are in the low places of She′ol.

[18] A man that is wanting in heart shakes hands, going full surety before his companion.

[19] Anyone loving transgression is loving a struggle. Anyone making his entryway high is seeking a crash.

[20] He that is crooked at heart will not find good, and he that is turned around in his tongue will fall into calamity.

[21] Anyone becoming father to a stupid child—it is a grief to him; and the father of a senseless child does not rejoice.

[22] A heart that is joyful does good as a curer, but a spirit that is stricken makes the bones dry.

[23] One who is wicked will take even a bribe from the bosom to bend the paths of judgment.

[24] Wisdom is before the face of the understanding one, but the eyes of the stupid one are at the extremity of the earth.

[25] A stupid son is a vexation to his father and a bitterness to her that gave him birth.

[26] Furthermore, the laying of a fine upon the righteous one is not good. To strike nobles is against what is upright.

[27] Anyone holding back his sayings is possessed of knowledge, and a man of discernment is cool of spirit.

[28] Even anyone foolish, when keeping silent, will be regarded as wise; anyone closing up his own lips, as having understanding.

18 One isolating himself will seek his own selfish longing; against all practical wisdom he will break forth.

[2] Anyone stupid finds no delight in discernment, except that his heart should uncover itself.

[3] When a wicked one comes in, contempt also must come in; and along with dishonor there is reproach.

[4] The words of a man’s mouth are deep waters. The well of wisdom is a torrent bubbling forth.

[5] The showing of partiality to the wicked one is not good, nor the turning aside of the righteous one in judgment.

[6] The lips of one who is stupid enter into quarreling, and his very mouth calls even for strokes.

[7] The mouth of the stupid one is the ruin of him, and his lips are a snare for his soul.

[8] The words of the slanderer are like things to be swallowed greedily, which do go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

[9] Also, the one showing himself slack in his work—he is a brother to the one causing ruin.

[10] The name of Jehovah is a strong tower. Into it the righteous runs and is given protection.

[11] The valuable things of the rich are his strong town, and they are like a protective wall in his imagination.

[12] Before a crash the heart of a man is lofty, and before glory there is humility.

13 When anyone is replying to a matter before he hears it, that is foolishness on his part and a humiliation.

14 The spirit of a man can put up with his malady; but as for a stricken spirit, who can bear it?

15 The heart of the understanding one acquires knowledge, and the ear of wise ones seeks to find knowledge.

16 A man’s gift will make a large opening for him, and it will lead him even before great people.

17 The one first in his legal case is righteous; his fellow comes in and certainly searches him through.

18 The lot puts even contentions to rest, and it separates even the mighty from one another.

19 A brother who is transgressed against is more than a strong town; and there are contentions that are like the bar of a dwelling tower.

20 From the fruitage of a man’s mouth his belly will be satisfied; he will be satisfied even with the produce of his lips.

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and he that is loving it will eat its fruitage.

22 Has one found a good wife? One has found a good thing, and one gets goodwill from Jehovah.

23 Entreaties the one of little means speaks out, but one that is rich answers in a strong way.

24 There exist companions disposed to break one another to pieces, but there exists a friend sticking closer than a brother.

19 Anyone of little means who is walking in his integrity is better than the one crooked in his lips, and the one that is stupid.

[2] Also, that the soul should be without knowledge is not good, and he that is hastening with his feet is sinning.

[3] It is the foolishness of an earthling man that distorts his way, and so his heart becomes enraged against Jehovah himself.

[4] Wealth is what adds many companions, but one that is lowly gets separated even from his companion.

[5] A false witness will not be free from punishment, and he that launches forth lies will not escape.

[6] Many are those who soften the face of a noble, and everybody is a companion to the man making gifts.

[7] The brothers of one of little means have all hated him. How much farther have his personal friends kept away from him! He is pursuing with things to say; they are not.

[8] He that is acquiring heart is loving his own soul. He that is guarding discernment is going to find good.

[9] The false witness will not be free from punishment, and he that launches forth lies will perish.

[10] Luxury is not fitting for anyone stupid. How much less for a servant to rule over princes!

[11] The insight of a man certainly slows down his anger, and it is beauty on his part to pass over transgression.

12 The raging of a king is a growling like that of a maned young lion, but his goodwill is like the dew upon the vegetation.

13 A stupid son means adversities to his father, and the contentions of a wife are as a leaking roof that drives one away.

14 The inheritance from fathers is a house and wealth, but a discreet wife is from Jehovah.

15 Laziness causes a deep sleep to fall, and a slack soul goes hungry.

16 He that is keeping the commandment is keeping his soul; he that is despising his ways will be put to death.

17 He that is showing favor to the lowly one is lending to Jehovah, and his treatment He will repay to him.

18 Chastise your son while there exists hope; and to the putting of him to death do not lift up your soulful desire.

19 He that is of great rage will be bearing the fine; for if you would deliver him, you will also keep doing it again and again.

20 Listen to counsel and accept discipline, in order that you may become wise in your future.

21 Many are the plans in the heart of a man, but the counsel of Jehovah is what will stand.

22 The desirable thing in earthling man is his loving-kindness; and one of little means is better than a lying man.

23 The fear of Jehovah tends toward life, and one will spend the night satisfied; one will not be visited with what is bad.

[24] The lazy one has hidden his hand in the banquet bowl; he cannot bring it back even to his own mouth.

[25] The ridiculer you should strike, that the inexperienced one may become shrewd; and there should be a reproving of the understanding one, that he may discern knowledge.

[26] He that is maltreating a father and that chases a mother away is a son acting shamefully and disgracefully.

[27] Cease, my son, to listen to discipline and it will mean to stray from the sayings of knowledge.

[28] A good-for-nothing witness derides justice, and the very mouth of wicked people swallows down what is hurtful.

[29] Judgments have been firmly established for ridiculers, and strokes for the back of stupid ones.

20 Wine is a ridiculer, intoxicating liquor is boisterous, and everyone going astray by it is not wise.

[2] The frightfulness of a king is a growling like that of a maned young lion. Anyone drawing his fury against himself is sinning against his own soul.

[3] It is a glory for a man to desist from disputing, but everyone foolish will burst out in it.

[4] Because of winter the lazy one will not plow; he will be begging in reaping time, but there will be nothing.

[5] Counsel in the heart of a man is as deep waters, but the man of discernment is one that will draw it up.

[6] A multitude of men will proclaim each one his own loving-kindness, but a faithful man who can find?

[7] The righteous is walking in his integrity. Happy are his sons after him.

[8] The king is sitting upon the throne of judgment, scattering all badness with his own eyes.

[9] Who can say: “I have cleansed my heart; I have become pure from my sin”?

[10] Two sorts of weights and two sorts of e′phah measures—they are both of them together something detestable to Jehovah.

[11] Even by his practices a boy makes himself recognized as to whether his activity is pure and upright.

12 The hearing ear and the seeing eye—Jehovah himself has made even both of them.

13 Do not love sleep, that you may not come to poverty. Open your eyes; be satisfied with bread.

14 “It is bad, bad! ” says the buyer, and he is going his way. Then it is that he boasts about himself.

15 There exists gold, also an abundance of corals; but the lips of knowledge are precious vessels.

16 Take one’s garment, in case one has gone surety for a stranger; and in the instance of a foreign woman, seize from him a pledge.

17 Bread gained by falsehood is pleasurable to a man, but afterward his mouth will be filled with gravel.

18 By counsel plans themselves are firmly established, and by skillful direction carry on your war.

19 He that is going about as a slanderer is uncovering confidential talk; and with one that is enticed with his lips you must have no fellowship.

20 As for anyone calling down evil upon his father and his mother, his lamp will be extinguished at the approach of darkness.

21 An inheritance is being got by greed at first, but its own future will not be blessed.

22 Do not say: “I will pay back evil! ” Hope in Jehovah, and he will save you.

23 Two sorts of weights are something detestable to Jehovah, and a cheating pair of scales is not good.

[24] From Jehovah are the steppings of an able-bodied man. As regards earthling man, how can he discern his way?

[25] It is a snare when earthling man has rashly cried out, “Holy! ” and after vows he is disposed to make examination.

[26] A wise king is scattering wicked people, and he turns around upon them a wheel.

[27] The breath of earthling man is the lamp of Jehovah, carefully searching all the innermost parts of the belly.

[28] Loving-kindness and trueness—they safeguard the king; and by loving-kindness he has sustained his throne.

[29] The beauty of young men is their power, and the splendor of old men is their gray-headedness.

[30] Bruising wounds are what scours away the bad; and strokes, the innermost parts of the belly.

21 A king’s heart is as streams of water in the hand of Jehovah. Everywhere that he delights to, he turns it.

[2] Every way of a man is upright in his own eyes, but Jehovah is making an estimate of hearts.

[3] To carry on righteousness and judgment is more preferable to Jehovah than sacrifice.

[4] Haughty eyes and an arrogant heart, the lamp of the wicked ones, are sin.

[5] The plans of the diligent one surely make for advantage, but everyone that is hasty surely heads for want.

[6] The getting of treasures by a false tongue is an exhalation driven away, in the case of those seeking death.

[7] The very despoiling by the wicked ones will drag them away, for they have refused to do justice.

[8] A man, even a stranger, is crooked in his way; but the pure one is upright in his activity.

[9] Better is it to dwell upon a corner of a roof than with a contentious wife, although in a house in common.

[10] The very soul of the wicked one has craved what is bad; his fellow will be shown no favor in his eyes.

[11] By the laying of a fine on the ridiculer the inexperienced becomes wise; and by one’s giving insight to a wise person he gets knowledge.

[12] The Righteous One is giving consideration to the house of the wicked one, subverting the wicked ones to their calamity.

[13] As for anyone stopping up his ear from the complaining cry of the lowly one, he himself also will call and not be answered.

[14] A gift made in secrecy subdues anger; and a bribe in the bosom, strong rage.

[15] It is a rejoicing for the righteous one to do justice, but there is something terrible for those practicing what is hurtful.

[16] As for a man wandering from the way of insight, he will rest in the very congregation of those impotent in death.

[17] He that is loving merriment will be an individual in want; he that is loving wine and oil will not gain riches.

[18] The wicked is a ransom for the righteous one; and the one dealing treacherously takes the place of the upright ones.

[19] Better is it to dwell in a wilderness land than with a contentious wife along with vexation.

[20] Desirable treasure and oil are in the abode of the wise one, but the man that is stupid will swallow it up.

[21] He that is pursuing righteousness and loving-kindness will find life, righteousness and glory.

[22] A wise one has scaled even the city of mighty men, that he might bring down the strength of its confidence.

[23] He that is keeping his mouth and his tongue is keeping his soul from distresses.

[24] Presumptuous, self-assuming braggart is the name of the one who is acting in a fury of presumptuousness.

[25] The very craving of the lazy will put him to death, for his hands have refused to work. [26] All the day he has shown himself eagerly craving, but the righteous one gives and holds nothing back.

[27] The sacrifice of the wicked ones is something detestable. How much more so when one brings it along with loose conduct.

[28] A lying witness will perish, but the man that is listening will speak even forever.

[29] A wicked man has put on a bold face, but the upright is the one that will firmly establish his ways.

[30] There is no wisdom, nor any discernment, nor any counsel in opposition to Jehovah.

[31] The horse is something prepared for the day of battle, but salvation belongs to Jehovah.

22 A name is to be chosen rather than abundant riches; favor is better than even silver and gold.

[2] The rich one and the one of little means have met each other. The Maker of them all is Jehovah.

[3] Shrewd is the one that has seen the calamity and proceeds to conceal himself, but the inexperienced have passed along and must suffer the penalty.

[4] The result of humility and the fear of Jehovah is riches and glory and life.

[5] Thorns and traps are in the way of the crooked one; he that is guarding his soul keeps far away from them.

[6] Train up a boy according to the way for him; even when he grows old he will not turn aside from it.

[7] The rich is the one that rules over those of little means, and the borrower is servant to the man doing the lending.

[8] He that is sowing unrighteousness will reap what is hurtful, but the very rod of his fury will come to its end.

[9] He that is kindly in eye will be blessed, for he has given of his food to the lowly one.

[10] Drive away the ridiculer, that contention may go out and that legal contest and dishonor may cease.

[11] The one loving purity of heart—for the charm of his lips the king will be his companion.

[12] The eyes of Jehovah himself have safeguarded knowledge, but he subverts the words of the treacherous one.

[13] The lazy one has said: “There is a lion outside! In the midst of the public squares I shall be murdered!”

[14] The mouth of strange women is a deep pit. The one denounced by Jehovah will fall into it.

[15] Foolishness is tied up with the heart of a boy; the rod of discipline is what will remove it far from him.

[16] He that is defrauding the lowly one to supply many things to himself, he also that is giving to the rich one, is surely destined for want.

[17] Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise ones, that you may apply your very heart to my knowledge. [18] For it is pleasant that you should keep them in your belly, that they may be firmly established together upon your lips.

[19] For your confidence to come to be in Jehovah himself I have given you knowledge today, even you.

[20] Have I not written you heretofore with counselings and knowledge, [21] to show you the truthfulness of true sayings, so as to return sayings that are the truth—to the one sending you forth?

[22] Do not rob the lowly one because he is lowly, and do not crush the afflicted one in the gate. [23] For Jehovah himself will plead their cause, and he will certainly rob of soul those robbing them.

[24] Do not have companionship with anyone given to anger; and with a man having fits of rage you must not enter in, [25] that you may not get familiar with his paths and certainly take a snare for your soul.

[26] Do not get to be among those striking hands, among those who go security for loans. [27] If you have nothing to pay, why should he take your bed from under you?

[28] Do not move back a boundary of long ago, which your forefathers have made.

[29] Have you beheld a man skillful in his work? Before kings is where he will station himself; he will not station himself before commonplace men.

23 In case you should sit down to feed yourself with a king, you should diligently consider what is before you, [2] and you must put a knife to your throat if you are the owner of soulful desire. [3] Do not show yourself craving his tasty dishes, as it is the food of lies.

[4] Do not toil to gain riches. Cease from your own understanding. [5] Have you caused your eyes to glance at it, when it is nothing? For without fail it makes wings for itself like those of an eagle and flies away toward the heavens.

[6] Do not feed yourself with the food of anyone of ungenerous eye, nor show yourself craving his tasty dishes. [7] For as one that has calculated within his soul, so he is. “Eat and drink,” he says to you, but his heart itself is not with you. [8] Your morsel that you have eaten, you will vomit it out, and you will have wasted your pleasant words.

[9] Into the ears of a stupid one do not speak, for he will despise your discreet words.

[10] Do not move back the boundary of long ago, and into the field of fatherless boys do not enter. [11] For their Redeemer is strong; he himself will plead their cause with you.

[12] Do bring your heart to discipline and your ear to the sayings of knowledge.

[13] Do not hold back discipline from the mere boy. In case you beat him with the rod, he will not die. [14] With the rod you yourself should beat him, that you may deliver his very soul from She′ol itself.

[15] My son, if your heart has become wise, my heart will rejoice, even mine. [16] And my kidneys will exult when your lips speak uprightness.

[17] Let your heart not be envious of sinners, but be in the fear of Jehovah all day long. [18] For in that case there will exist a future, and your own hope will not be cut off.

[19] You, O my son, hear and become wise, and lead your heart on in the way.

[20] Do not come to be among heavy drinkers of wine, among those who are gluttonous eaters of flesh. [21] For a drunkard and a glutton will come to poverty, and drowsiness will clothe one with mere rags.

[22] Listen to your father who caused your birth, and do not despise your mother just because she has grown old. [23] Buy truth itself and do not sell it—wisdom and discipline and understanding. [24] The father of a righteous one will without fail be joyful; the one becoming father to a wise one will also rejoice in him. [25] Your father and your mother will rejoice, and she that gave birth to you will be joyful.

[26] My son, do give your heart to me, and may those eyes of yours take pleasure in my own ways. [27] For a prostitute is a deep pit and a foreign woman is a narrow well. [28] Surely she, just like a robber, lies in wait; and among men she increases the treacherous ones.

[29] Who has woe? Who has uneasiness? Who has contentions? Who has concern? Who has wounds for no reason? Who has dullness of eyes? [30] Those staying a long time with the wine, those coming in to search out mixed wine. [31] Do not look at wine when it exhibits a red color, when it gives off its sparkle in the cup, when it goes with a slickness. 32 At its end it bites just like a serpent, and it secretes poison just like a viper. 33 Your own eyes will see strange things, and your own heart will speak perverse things. 34 And you will certainly become like one lying down in the heart of the sea, even like one lying down at the top of a mast. 35 “They have struck me, but I did not become sick; they have smitten me, but I did not know it. When shall I wake up? I shall seek it yet some more.”

24 Do not be envious of bad men, and do not show yourself craving to get in with them. [2] For despoiling is what their heart keeps meditating, and trouble is what their own lips keep speaking.

[3] By wisdom a household will be built up, and by discernment it will prove firmly established. [4] And by knowledge will the interior rooms be filled with all precious and pleasant things of value.

[5] One wise in strength is an able-bodied man, and a man of knowledge is reinforcing power. [6] For by skillful direction you will carry on your war, and in the multitude of counselors there is salvation.

[7] For a foolish one true wisdom is too high; in the gate he will not open his mouth.

[8] As for anyone scheming to do bad, he will be called a mere master at evil ideas.

[9] The loose conduct of foolishness is sin, and a ridiculer is something detestable to mankind.

[10] Have you shown yourself discouraged in the day of distress? Your power will be scanty.

[11] Deliver those who are being taken away to death; and those staggering to the slaughter, O may you hold them back. [12] In case you should say: “Look! We did not know of this,” will not he himself that is making an estimate of hearts discern it, and he himself that is observing your soul know and certainly pay back to earthling man according to his activity?

[13] My son, eat honey, for it is good; and let sweet comb honey be upon your palate. [14] In the same way, do know wisdom for your soul. If you have found it, then there exists a future, and your own hope will not be cut off.

[15] Do not, as a wicked one, lie in wait for the abiding place of the righteous one; do not despoil his resting-place. [16] For the righteous one may fall even seven times, and he will certainly get up; but the wicked ones will be made to stumble by calamity.

[17] When your enemy falls, do not rejoice; and when he is caused to stumble, may your heart not be joyful, [18] that Jehovah may not see and it be bad in his eyes and he certainly turn back his anger from against him.

[19] Do not show yourself heated up at evildoers. Do not become envious of wicked people. [20] For there will prove to be no future for anyone bad; the very lamp of wicked people will be extinguished.

[21] My son, fear Jehovah and the king. With those who are for a change, do not intermeddle. [22] For their disaster will arise so suddenly, that who is aware of the extinction of those who are for a change?

[23] These sayings also are for the wise ones: The showing of partiality in judgment is not good.

[24] He that is saying to the wicked one: “You are righteous,” the peoples will execrate him, national groups will denounce him. [25] But for those reproving him it will be pleasant, and upon them there will come the blessing of good. [26] Lips will he kiss who is replying in a straightforward way.

[27] Prepare your work out of doors, and make it ready for yourself in the field. Afterward you must also build up your household.

[28] Do not become a witness against your fellowman without grounds. Then you would have to be foolish with your lips. [29] Do not say: “Just as he did to me, so I am going to do to him. I shall repay to each one according to his acting.”

[30] I passed along by the field of the lazy individual and by the vineyard of the man in need of heart. [31] And, look! all of it produced weeds. Nettles covered its very surface, and its stone wall itself had been torn down.

[32] So I proceeded to behold, I myself; I began taking it to heart; I saw, I took the discipline: [33] A little sleeping, a little slumbering, a little folding of the hands to lie down, [34] and as a highwayman your poverty will certainly come and your neediness as an armed man.

25 These also are the proverbs of Sol′o·mon that the men of Hez·e·ki′ah the king of Judah transcribed:

[2] The glory of God is the keeping of a matter secret, and the glory of kings is the searching through a matter.

[3] The heavens for height and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings, that is unsearchable.

[4] Let there be a removing of scummy dross from the silver, and all of it will come forth refined.

[5] Let there be the removing of the wicked one before the king, and his throne will be firmly established by righteousness itself.

[6] Do not do yourself honor before the king, and in the place of great ones do not stand. [7] For it is better for him to say to you: “Come up here,” than to abase you before a noble whom your eyes have seen.

[8] Do not go forth to conduct a legal case hastily, that it may not be a question of what you will do in the culmination of it when your fellowman now humiliates you. [9] Plead your own cause with your fellowman, and do not reveal the confidential talk of another; [10] that the one listening may not put you to shame and the bad report by you can have no recall.

[11] As apples of gold in silver carvings is a word spoken at the right time for it.

[12] An earring of gold, and an ornament of special gold, is a wise reprover upon the hearing ear.

[13] Just like the coolness of snow in the day of harvest is the faithful envoy to those sending him, for he restores the very soul of his masters.

[14] As vaporous clouds and a wind without any downpour is a man boasting himself about a gift in falsehood.

[15] By patience a commander is induced, and a mild tongue itself can break a bone.

[16] Is it honey that you have found? Eat what is sufficient for you, that you may not take too much of it and have to vomit it up.

[17] Make your foot rare at the house of your fellowman, that he may not have his sufficiency of you and certainly hate you.

[18] As a war club and a sword and a sharpened arrow is a man testifying against his fellowman as a false witness.

[19] As a broken tooth and a wobbling foot is the confidence in one proving treacherous in the day of distress.

[20] He that is removing a garment on a cold day is as vinegar upon alkali and as a singer with songs upon a gloomy heart.

[21] If the one hating you is hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink. [22] For coals are what you are raking together upon his head, and Jehovah himself will reward you.

[23] The wind from the north brings forth as with labor pains a downpour; and a tongue giving away a secret, a denounced face.

[24] Better is it to dwell upon a corner of a roof than with a contentious wife, although in a house in common.

25 As cold water upon a tired soul, so is a good report from a distant land.

26 A fouled spring and a ruined well is the righteous one when staggering before the wicked one.

27 The eating of too much honey is not good; and for people to search out their own glory, is it glory?

28 As a city broken through, without a wall, is the man that has no restraint for his spirit.

26 Like snow in summer and like rain in harvesttime, so glory is not fitting for a stupid one.

[2] Just as a bird has cause for fleeing and just as a swallow for flying, so a malediction itself does not come without real cause.

[3] A whip is for the horse, a bridle is for the ass, and the rod is for the back of stupid people.

[4] Do not answer anyone stupid according to his foolishness, that you yourself also may not become equal to him.

[5] Answer someone stupid according to his foolishness, that he may not become someone wise in his own eyes.

[6] As one that is mutilating his feet, as one that is drinking mere violence, is he that is thrusting matters into the hand of someone stupid.

[7] Have the legs of the lame one drawn up water? Then there is a proverb in the mouth of stupid people.

[8] Like one shutting up a stone in a heap of stones, so is the one giving glory to a mere stupid one.

[9] As a thorny weed has come up into the hand of a drunkard, so a proverb into the mouth of stupid people.

[10] As an archer piercing everything is the one hiring someone stupid or the one hiring passersby.

[11] Just like a dog returning to its vomit, the stupid one is repeating his foolishness.

[12] Have you seen a man wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for the stupid one than for him.

[13] The lazy one has said: “There is a young lion in the way, a lion in among the public squares.”

[14] A door keeps turning upon its pivot, and the lazy one upon his couch.

[15] The lazy one has hidden his hand in the banquet bowl; he has become too weary to bring it back to his mouth.

[16] The lazy one is wiser in his own eyes than seven giving a sensible reply.

[17] As one grabbing hold of the ears of a dog is anyone passing by that is becoming furious at the quarrel that is not his.

[18] Just like someone mad that is shooting fiery missiles, arrows and death, [19] so is the man that has tricked his fellowman and has said: “Was I not having fun?”

[20] Where there is no wood the fire goes out, and where there is no slanderer contention grows still.

[21] As charcoal for the embers and wood for the fire, so is a contentious man for causing a quarrel to glow.

[22] The words of a slanderer are like things to be swallowed greedily, which do go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

[23] As a silver glazing overlaid upon a fragment of earthenware are fervent lips along with a bad heart.

[24] With his lips the hater makes himself unrecognizable, but inside of him he puts deception. [25] Although he makes his voice gracious, do not believe in him, for there are seven detestable things in his heart. [26] Hatred is covered over by deceit. His badness will be uncovered in the congregation.

[27] He that is excavating a pit will fall into the same, and he that is rolling away a stone—back to him it will return.

[28] A tongue that is false hates the one crushed by it, and a flattering mouth causes an overthrow.

27 Do not make your boast about the next day, for you do not know what a day will give birth to.

[2] May a stranger, and not your own mouth, praise you; may a foreigner, and not your own lips, do so.

[3] The heaviness of a stone and a load of sand—but the vexation by someone foolish is heavier than both of them.

[4] There is the cruelty of rage, also the flood of anger, but who can stand before jealousy?

[5] Better is a revealed reproof than a concealed love.

[6] The wounds inflicted by a lover are faithful, but the kisses of a hater are things to be entreated.

[7] A soul that is satisfied will tread down comb honey, but to a hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

[8] Just like a bird fleeing away from its nest, so is a man fleeing away from his place.

[9] Oil and incense are what make the heart rejoice, also the sweetness of one’s companion due to the counsel of the soul.

[10] Do not leave your own companion or the companion of your father, and do not enter the house of your own brother on the day of your disaster. Better is a neighbor that is near than a brother that is far away.

[11] Be wise, my son, and make my heart rejoice, that I may make a reply to him that is taunting me.

[12] The shrewd one that has seen the calamity has concealed himself; the inexperienced that have passed along have suffered the penalty.

[13] Take one’s garment, in case one has gone surety for a stranger; and in the instance of a foreign woman, seize from him a pledge.

[14] He that is blessing his fellowman with a loud voice early in the morning, as a malediction it will be accounted on his part.

[15] A leaking roof that drives one away in the day of a steady rain and a contentious wife are comparable. [16] Anyone sheltering her has sheltered the wind, and oil is what his right hand encounters.

[17] By iron, iron itself is sharpened. So one man sharpens the face of another.

[18] He that is safeguarding the fig tree will himself eat its fruit, and he that is guarding his master will be honored.

[19] As in water face corresponds with face, so the heart of a man with that of a man.

[20] She′ol and the place of destruction themselves do not get satisfied; neither do the eyes of a man get satisfied.

[21] The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace is for gold; and an individual is according to his praise.

[22] Even if you should pound the foolish one fine with a pestle in a mortar, in among cracked grain, his foolishness will not depart from him.

[23] You ought to know positively the appearance of your flock. Set your heart to your droves; [24] for treasure will not be to time indefinite, nor a diadem for all generations.

[25] The green grass has departed, and the new grass has appeared, and the vegetation of the mountains has been gathered. [26] The young rams are for your clothing, and the he-goats are the price of the field. [27] And there is a sufficiency of goats’ milk for your food, for the food of your household, and the means of life for your girls.

28 The wicked do flee when there is no pursuer, but the righteous are like a young lion that is confident.

[2] Because of the transgression of a land many are its successive princes, but by a discerning man having knowledge of right the prince will remain long.

[3] An able-bodied man that is of little means and that is defrauding the lowly ones is as a rain that washes away so that there is no food.

[4] Those who are leaving the law praise the wicked one, but those who are keeping the law excite themselves against them.

[5] Men given to badness cannot understand judgment, but those who are seeking Jehovah can understand everything.

[6] Better is the one of little means who is walking in his integrity than anyone crooked in his ways, although he is rich.

[7] An understanding son is observing the law, but one having companionship with gluttons humiliates his father.

[8] He that is multiplying his valuables by interest and usury collects them merely for the one showing favor to the lowly ones.

[9] He that is turning his ear away from hearing the law—even his prayer is something detestable.

[10] He that is causing the upright ones to go astray into the bad way will himself fall into his own pit, but the faultless ones themselves will come into possession of good.

[11] A rich man is wise in his own eyes, but the lowly one who is discerning searches him through.

[12] When the righteous ones are exulting, there is abundant beauty; but when the wicked ones rise up, a man disguises himself.

[13] He that is covering over his transgressions will not succeed, but he that is confessing and leaving them will be shown mercy.

[14] Happy is the man that is feeling dread constantly, but he that is hardening his heart will fall into calamity.

[15] As a growling lion and an onrushing bear is a wicked ruler over a lowly people.

[16] A leader that is in want of true discernment is also abundant in fraudulent practices, but he that is hating unjust profit will prolong his days.

[17] A man burdened with the bloodguilt for a soul will himself flee even to the pit. Let them not get hold of him.

[18] He that is walking faultlessly will be saved, but he that is made crooked in his ways will fall at once.

[19] He that is cultivating his own ground will have his sufficiency of bread, and he that is pursuing valueless things will have his sufficiency of poverty.

[20] A man of faithful acts will get many blessings, but he that is hastening to gain riches will not remain innocent.

[21] The showing of partiality is not good, nor that an able-bodied man should transgress over a mere piece of bread.

[22] A man of envious eye is bestirring himself after valuable things, but he does not know that want itself will come upon him.

[23] He that is reproving a man will afterward find more favor than he will that is flattering with his tongue.

[24] He that is robbing his father and his mother and is saying: “It is no transgression,” is a partner of a man causing ruination.

[25] He that is arrogant in soul stirs up contention, but he that is relying upon Jehovah will be made fat.

[26] He that is trusting in his own heart is stupid, but he that is walking in wisdom is the one that will escape.

[27] He that is giving to the one of little means will have no want, but he that is hiding his eyes will get many curses.

[28] When the wicked rise up, a man conceals himself; but when they perish, the righteous become many.

29 A man repeatedly reproved but making his neck hard will suddenly be broken, and that without healing.

[2] When the righteous become many, the people rejoice; but when anyone wicked bears rule, the people sigh.

[3] A man that is loving wisdom makes his father rejoice, but he that is having companionship with prostitutes destroys valuable things.

[4] By justice a king makes a land keep standing, but a man out for bribes tears it down.

[5] An able-bodied man that is flattering his companion is spreading out a mere net for his steps.

[6] In the transgression of a bad man there is a snare, but he that is righteous cries out joyfully and is glad.

[7] The righteous one is knowing the legal claim of the lowly ones. He that is wicked does not consider such knowledge.

[8] Men of boastful talk inflame a town, but those who are wise turn back anger.

[9] A wise man having entered into judgment with a foolish man—he has become excited and has also laughed, and there is no rest.

[10] Bloodthirsty men hate anyone blameless; and as for the upright ones, they keep seeking for the soul of each one.

[11] All his spirit is what a stupid one lets out, but he that is wise keeps it calm to the last.

[12] Where a ruler is paying attention to false speech, all those waiting on him will be wicked.

[13] The one of little means and the man of oppressions have met each other; but Jehovah is lighting up the eyes of them both.

[14] Where a king is judging the lowly ones in trueness, his throne will be firmly established for all time.

[15] The rod and reproof are what give wisdom; but a boy let on the loose will be causing his mother shame.

[16] When the wicked become many, transgression abounds; but those who are righteous will look on their very downfall.

[17] Chastise your son and he will bring you rest and give much pleasure to your soul.

[18] Where there is no vision the people go unrestrained, but happy are they that are keeping the law.

[19] A servant will not let himself be corrected by mere words, for he understands but he is paying no heed.

[20] Have you beheld a man hasty with his words? There is more hope for someone stupid than for him.

[21] If one is pampering one’s servant from youth on, in his later life he will even become a thankless one.

[22] A man given to anger stirs up contention, and anyone disposed to rage has many a transgression.

[23] The very haughtiness of earthling man will humble him, but he that is humble in spirit will take hold of glory.

[24] He that is partner with a thief is hating his own soul. An oath involving a curse he may hear, but he reports nothing.

25 Trembling at men is what lays a snare, but he that is trusting in Jehovah will be protected.

26 Many are those seeking the face of a ruler, but the judgment of a man is from Jehovah.

27 A man of injustice is something detestable to the righteous ones, and one who is upright in his way is something detestable to a wicked one.

30 The words of A′gur the son of Ja′keh, the weighty message. The utterance of the able-bodied man to Ith′i·el, to Ith′i·el and U′cal.

[2] For I am more unreasoning than anyone else, and I do not have the understanding of mankind; [3] and I have not learned wisdom; and the knowledge of the Most Holy One I do not know.

[4] Who has ascended to heaven that he may descend? Who has gathered the wind in the hollow of both hands? Who has wrapped up the waters in a mantle? Who has made all the ends of the earth to rise? What is his name and what the name of his son, in case you know?

[5] Every saying of God is refined. He is a shield to those taking refuge in him. [6] Add nothing to his words, that he may not reprove you, and that you may not have to be proved a liar.

[7] Two things I have asked of you. Do not withhold them from me before I die. [8] Untruth and the lying word put far away from me. Give me neither poverty nor riches. Let me devour the food prescribed for me, [9] that I may not become satisfied and I actually deny you and say: “Who is Jehovah?” and that I may not come to poverty and I actually steal and assail the name of my God.

[10] Do not slander a servant to his master, that he may not call down evil upon you, and that you may not have to be held guilty.

[11] There is a generation that calls down evil even upon its father and that does not bless even its mother.

[12] There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes but that has not been washed from its own excrement.

[13] There is a generation whose eyes have become O how lofty! and whose beaming eyes are lifted up.

[14] There is a generation whose teeth are swords and whose jawbones are slaughtering knives, to eat up the afflicted ones off the earth and the poor ones from among mankind.

[15] The leeches have two daughters that cry: “Give! Give!” There are three things that do not get satisfied, four that have not said: “Enough!” [16] She′ol and a restrained womb, a land that has not been satisfied with water, and fire that has not said: “Enough!”

[17] The eye that holds a father in derision and that despises obedience to a mother—the ravens of the torrent valley will pick it out and the sons of the eagle will eat it up.

[18] There are three things that have proved too wonderful for me, and four that I have not come to know: [19] the way of an eagle in the heavens, the way of a serpent on a rock, the way of a ship in the heart of the sea and the way of an able-bodied man with a maiden.

[20] Here is the way of an adulterous woman: she has eaten and has wiped her mouth and she has said: “I have committed no wrong.”

[21] Under three things the earth has been agitated, and under four it is not able to endure: [22] under a slave when he rules as king, and someone senseless when he has his sufficiency of food; [23] under a hated woman when she is taken possession of as a wife, and a maidservant when she dispossesses her mistress.

[24] There are four things that are the smallest of the earth, but they are instinctively wise: [25] the ants are a people not strong, and yet in the summer they prepare their food; [26] the rock badgers are a people not mighty, and yet upon a crag is where they put their house; [27] the locusts have no king, and yet they go forth all of them divided into groups; [28] the gecko lizard takes hold with its own hands and it is in the grand palace of a king.

[29] There are three that do well in their pacing, and four that do well in their moving along: [30] the lion, which is the mightiest among the beasts and which does not turn back from before anyone; [31] the greyhound or the he-goat, and a king of a band of soldiers of his own people.

[32] If you have acted senselessly by lifting yourself up, and if you have fixed your thought upon it, put the hand to the mouth. [33] For the churning of milk is what brings forth butter, and the squeezing of the nose is what brings forth blood, and the squeezing out of anger is what brings forth quarreling.

31 The words of Lem′u·el the king, the weighty message that his mother gave to him in correction:

[2] What am I saying, O son of mine, and what, O son of my belly, and what, O son of my vows?

[3] Do not give your vital energy to women, nor your ways to what leads to wiping out kings.

[4] It is not for kings, O Lem′u·el, it is not for kings to drink wine or for high officials to say: “Where is intoxicating liquor?” [5] that one may not drink and forget what is decreed and pervert the cause of any of the sons of affliction. [6] Give intoxicating liquor, YOU people, to the one about to perish and wine to those who are bitter of soul. [7] Let one drink and forget one’s poverty, and let one remember one’s own trouble no more.

[8] Open your mouth for the speechless one, in the cause of all those passing away. [9] Open your mouth, judge righteously and plead the cause of the afflicted one and the poor one.

ECCLESIASTES

1 The words of the congregator, the son of David the king in Jerusalem. [2] “The greatest vanity! ” the congregator has said, “the greatest vanity! Everything is vanity! ” [3] What profit does a man have in all his hard work at which he works hard under the sun? [4] A generation is going, and a generation is coming; but the earth is standing even to time indefinite. [5] And the sun also has flashed forth, and the sun has set, and it is coming panting to its place where it is going to flash forth.

[6] The wind is going to the south, and it is circling around to the north. Round and round it is continually circling, and right back to its circlings the wind is returning.

[7] All the winter torrents are going forth to the sea, yet the sea itself is not full. To the place where the winter torrents are going forth, there they are returning so as to go forth. [8] All things are wearisome; no one is able to speak of it. The eye is not satisfied at seeing, neither is the ear filled from hearing. [9] That which has come to be, that is what will come to be; and that which has been done, that is what will be done; and so there is nothing new under the sun. [10] Does anything exist of which one may say: “See this; it is new”? It has already had existence for time indefinite; what has come into existence is from time prior to us. [11] There is no remembrance of people of former times, nor will there be of those also who will come to be later. There will prove to be no remembrance even of them among those who will come to be still later on.

[12] I, the congregator, happened to be king over Israel in Jerusalem. [13] And I set my heart to seek and explore wisdom in relation to everything that has been done under the heavens—the calamitous occupation that God has given to the sons of mankind in which to be occupied. [14] I saw all the works that were done under the sun, and, look! everything was vanity and a striving after wind.

[15] That which is made crooked cannot be made straight, and that which is wanting cannot possibly be counted. [16] I, even I, spoke with my heart, saying: “Look! I myself have greatly increased in wisdom more than anyone that happened to be before me in Jerusalem, and my own heart saw a great deal of wisdom and knowledge.” [17] And I proceeded to give my heart to knowing wisdom and to knowing madness, and I have come to know folly, that this too is a striving after wind. [18] For in the abundance of wisdom there is an abundance of vexation, so that he that increases knowledge increases pain.

2 I said, even I, in my heart: “Do come now, let me try you out with rejoicing. Also, see good.” And, look! that too was vanity. [2] I said to laughter: “Insanity! ” and to rejoicing: “What is this doing?”

[3] I explored with my heart by cheering my flesh even with wine, while I was leading my heart with wisdom, even to lay hold on folly until I could see what good there was to the sons of mankind in what they did under the heavens for the number of the days of their life. [4] I engaged in greater works. I built houses for myself; I planted vineyards for myself. [5] I made gardens and parks for myself, and I planted in them fruit trees of all sorts. [6] I made pools of water for myself, to irrigate with them the forest, springing up with trees. [7] I acquired menservants and maidservants, and I came to have sons of the household. Also, livestock, cattle and flocks in great quantity I came to have, more so than all those who happened to be before me in Jerusalem. [8] I accumulated also silver and gold for myself, and property peculiar to kings and the jurisdictional districts. I made male singers and female singers for myself and the exquisite delights of the sons of mankind, a lady, even ladies. [9] And I became greater and increased more than anyone that happened to be before me in Jerusalem. Moreover, my own wisdom remained mine.

[10] And anything that my eyes asked for I did not keep away from them. I did not hold back my heart from any sort of rejoicing, for my heart was joyful because of all my hard work, and this came to be my portion from all my hard work. [11] And I, even I, turned toward all the works of mine that my hands had done and toward the hard work that I had worked hard to accomplish, and, look! everything was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was nothing of advantage under the sun.

[12] And I, even I, turned to see wisdom and madness and folly; for what can the earthling man do who comes in after the king? The thing that people have already done. [13] And I saw, even I, that there exists more advantage for wisdom than for folly, just as there is more advantage for light than for darkness.

[14] As regards anyone wise, his eyes are in his head; but the stupid one is walking on in sheer darkness. And I have come to know, I too, that there is one eventuality that eventuates to them all. [15] And I myself said in my heart: “An eventuality like that upon the stupid one will eventuate to me, yes, me.” Why, then, had I become wise, I overmuch so at that time? And I spoke in my heart: “This too is vanity.” [16] For there is no more remembrance of the wise one than of the stupid one to time indefinite. In the days that are already coming in, everyone is certainly forgotten; and how will the wise one die? Along with the stupid one.

[17] And I hated life, because the work that has been done under the sun was calamitous from my standpoint, for everything was vanity and a striving after wind. [18] And I, even I, hated all my hard work at which I was working hard under the sun, that I would leave behind for the man who would come to be after me. [19] And who is there knowing whether he will prove to be wise or foolish? Yet he will take control over all my hard work at which I worked hard and at which I showed wisdom under the sun. This too is vanity. [20] And I myself turned around toward making my heart despair over all the hard work at which I had worked hard under the sun. [21] For there exists the man whose hard work has been with wisdom and with knowledge and with proficiency, but to a man that has not worked hard at such a thing will be given the portion of that one. This too is vanity and a big calamity.

[22] For what does a man come to have for all his hard work and for the striving of his heart with which he is working hard under the sun? [23] For all his days his occupation means pains and vexation, also during the night his heart just does not lie down. This too is mere vanity.

[24] With a man there is nothing better than that he should eat and indeed drink and cause his soul to see good because of his hard work. This too I have seen, even I, that this is from the hand of the true God. [25] For who eats and who drinks better than I do?

[26] For to the man that is good before him he has given wisdom and knowledge and rejoicing, but to the sinner he has given the occupation of gathering and bringing together merely to give to the one that is good before the true God. This too is vanity and a striving after wind.

3 For everything there is an appointed time, even a time for every affair under the heavens: [2] a time for birth and a time to die; a time to plant and a time to uproot what was planted; [3] a time to kill and a time to heal; a time to break down and a time to build; [4] a time to weep and a time to laugh; a time to wail and a time to skip about; [5] a time to throw stones away and a time to bring stones together; a time to embrace and a time to keep away from embracing; [6] a time to seek and a time to give up as lost; a time to keep and a time to throw away; [7] a time to rip apart and a time to sew together; a time to keep quiet and a time to speak; [8] a time to love and a time to hate; a time for war and a time for peace. [9] What advantage is there for the doer in what he is working hard at?

[10] I have seen the occupation that God has given to the sons of mankind in which to be occupied. [11] Everything he has made pretty in its time. Even time indefinite he has put in their heart, that mankind may never find out the work that the true God has made from the start to the finish. [12] I have come to know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and to do good during one’s life; [13] and also that every man should eat and indeed drink and see good for all his hard work. It is the gift of God.

[14] I have come to know that everything that the true God makes, it will prove to be to time indefinite. To it there is nothing to add and from it there is nothing to subtract; but the true God himself has made it, that people may be afraid on account of him.

[15] What has happened to be, it had already been, and what is to come to be has already proved to be; and the true God himself keeps seeking that which is pursued.

[16] And I have further seen under the sun the place of justice where there was wickedness and the place of righteousness where wickedness was. [17] I myself have said in my heart: “The true God will judge both the righteous one and the wicked one, for there is a time for every affair and concerning every work there.”

[18] I, even I, have said in my heart with regard to the sons of mankind that the true God is going to select them, that they may see that they themselves are beasts. [19] For there is an eventuality as respects the sons of mankind and an eventuality as respects the beast, and they have the same eventuality. As the one dies, so the other dies; and they all have but one spirit, so that there is no superiority of the man over the beast, for everything is vanity. [20] All are going to one place. They have all come to be from the dust, and they are all returning to the dust. [21] Who is there knowing the spirit of the sons of mankind, whether it is ascending upward; and the spirit of the beast, whether it is descending downward to the earth? [22] And I have seen that there is nothing better than that the man should rejoice in his works, for that is his portion; because who will bring him in to look on what is going to be after him?

4 And I myself returned that I might see all the acts of oppression that are being done under the sun, and, look! the tears of those being oppressed, but they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power, so that they had no comforter. [2] And I congratulated the dead who had already died rather than the living who were still alive. [3] So better than both of them is the one who has not yet come to be, who has not seen the calamitous work that is being done under the sun.

[4] And I myself have seen all the hard work and all the proficiency in work, that it means the rivalry of one toward another; this also is vanity and a striving after the wind.

[5] The stupid one is folding his hands and is eating his own flesh.

[6] Better is a handful of rest than a double handful of hard work and striving after the wind.

[7] I myself returned that I might see the vanity under the sun:
[8] There exists one, but not a second one; also no son or brother does he have, but there is no end to all his hard work. Also, his eyes themselves are not satisfied with riches: “And for whom am I working hard and causing my soul to lack in good things?” This too is vanity, and it is a calamitous occupation.

[9] Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their hard work. [10] For if one of them should fall, the other one can raise his partner up. But how will it be with just the one who falls when there is not another to raise him up?

[11] Moreover, if two lie down together, they also will certainly get warm; but how can just one keep warm? [12] And if somebody could overpower one alone, two together could make a stand against him. And a threefold cord cannot quickly be torn in two.

[13] Better is a needy but wise child than an old but stupid king, who has not come to know enough to be warned any longer. [14] For he has gone forth from the prison house itself to become king, although in the kingship of this one he had been born as one of little means. [15] I have seen all those alive who are walking about under the sun, how it goes with the child, who is second, that stands up in the other one’s place. [16] There is no end to all the people, to all those before whom he happened to be; neither will people afterward rejoice in him, for this too is vanity and a striving after the wind.

5 Guard your feet whenever you go to the house of the true God; and let there be a drawing near to hear, rather than to give a sacrifice as the stupid ones do, for they are not aware of doing what is bad.

[2] Do not hurry yourself as regards your mouth; and as for your heart, let it not be hasty to bring forth a word before the true God. For the true God is in the heavens but you are on the earth. That is why your words should prove to be few. [3] For a dream certainly comes in because of abundance of occupation, and the voice of a stupid one because of the abundance of words. [4] Whenever you vow a vow to God, do not hesitate to pay it, for there is no delight in the stupid ones. What you vow, pay. [5] Better is it that you vow not than that you vow and do not pay. [6] Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin, neither say before the angel that it was a mistake. Why should the true God become indignant on account of your voice and have to wreck the work of your hands? [7] For because of abundance of occupation there are dreams, and there are vanities and words in abundance. But fear the true God himself.

[8] If you see any oppression of the one of little means and the violent taking away of judgment and of righteousness in a jurisdictional district, do not be amazed over the affair, for one that is higher than the high one is watching, and there are those who are high above them.

[9] Also, the profit of the earth is among them all; for a field the king himself has been served.

[10] A mere lover of silver will not be satisfied with silver, neither any lover of wealth with income. This too is vanity.

[11] When good things become many, those eating them certainly become many. And what advantage is there to the grand owner of them, except looking at them with his eyes?

[12] Sweet is the sleep of the one serving, regardless of whether it is little or much that he eats; but the plenty belonging to the rich one is not permitting him to sleep.

[13] There exists a grave calamity that I have seen under the sun: riches being kept for their grand owner to his calamity.
[14] And those riches have perished because of a calamitous occupation, and he has become father to a son when there is nothing at all in his hand.

[15] Just as one has come forth from his mother’s belly, naked will one go away again, just as one came; and nothing at all can one carry away for his hard work, which he can take along with his hand.

[16] And this too is a grave calamity: exactly as one has come, so one will go away; and what profit is there to the one who keeps working hard for the wind? [17] Also, all his days he eats in darkness itself, with a great deal of vexation, with sickness on his part and cause for indignation.

[18] Look! The best thing that I myself have seen, which is pretty, is that one should eat and drink and see good for all his hard work with which he works hard under the sun for the number of the days of his life that the true God has given him, for that is his portion. [19] Also every man to whom the true God has given riches and material possessions, he has even empowered him to eat from it and to carry off his portion and to rejoice in his hard work. This is the gift of God. [20] For not often will he remember the days of his life, because the true God is preoccupying him with the rejoicing of his heart.

6 There exists a calamity that I have seen under the sun, and it is frequent among mankind: [2] a man to whom the true God gives riches and material possessions and glory and who, for his soul, is in no need of anything that he shows himself longing for, and yet the true God does not enable him to eat from it, although a mere foreigner may eat it. This is vanity and it is a bad sickness. [3] If a man should become a father a hundred times, and he should live many years, so that numerous the days of his years should become, yet his own soul is not satisfied with good things and even the grave has not become his, I must say that one prematurely born is better off than he is. [4] For in vain has this one come and in darkness he goes away, and with darkness his own name will be covered. [5] Even the sun itself he has not seen, neither known. This one has rest rather than the former one. [6] Even supposing that he has lived a thousand years twice over and yet he has not seen what is good, is it not to just one place that everyone is going?

[7] All the hard work of mankind is for their mouth, but even their own soul does not get filled. [8] For what advantage does the wise have over the stupid one? What does the afflicted one have in knowing how to walk in front of the living ones? [9] Better is the seeing by the eyes than the walking about of the soul. This too is vanity and a striving after the wind.

[10] Whatever has come to be, its name has already been pronounced, and it has become known what man is; and he is not able to plead his cause with one that is more powerful than he is.

[11] Because there exist many things that are causing much vanity, what advantage does a man have? [12] For who is there knowing what good a man has in life for the number of the days of his vain life, when he spends them like a shadow? For who can tell man what will happen after him under the sun?

7 A name is better than good oil, and the day of death than the day of one’s being born. [2] Better is it to go to the house of mourning than to go to the banquet house, because that is the end of all mankind; and the one alive should take it to his heart. [3] Better is vexation than laughter, for by the crossness of the face the heart becomes better. [4] The heart of the wise ones is in the house of mourning, but the heart of the stupid ones is in the house of rejoicing.

[5] Better is it to hear the rebuke of someone wise than to be the man hearing the song of the stupid ones. [6] For as the sound of thorns under the pot, so is the laughter of the stupid one; and this too is vanity. [7] For mere oppression may make a wise one act crazy, and a gift can destroy the heart.

[8] Better is the end afterward of a matter than its beginning. Better is one who is patient than one who is haughty in spirit. [9] Do not hurry yourself in your spirit to become offended, for the taking of offense is what rests in the bosom of the stupid ones.

[10] Do not say: “Why has it happened that the former days proved to be better than these?” for it is not due to wisdom that you have asked about this.

[11] Wisdom along with an inheritance is good and is advantageous for those seeing the sun. [12] For wisdom is for a protection the same as money is for a protection; but the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom itself preserves alive its owners.

[13] See the work of the true God, for who is able to make straight what he has made crooked? [14] On a good day prove yourself to be in goodness, and on a calamitous day see that the true God has made even this exactly as that, to the intent that mankind may not discover anything at all after them.

[15] Everything I have seen during my vain days. There exists the righteous one perishing in his righteousness, and there exists the wicked one continuing long in his badness.

[16] Do not become righteous overmuch, nor show yourself excessively wise. Why should you cause desolation to yourself? [17] Do not be wicked overmuch, nor become foolish. Why should you die when it is not your time? [18] It is better that you should take hold of the one, but from the other also do not withdraw your hand; for he that fears God will go forth with them all.

[19] Wisdom itself is stronger for the wise one than ten men in power who happened to be in a city. [20] For there is no man righteous in the earth that keeps doing good and does not sin.

[21] Also, do not give your heart to all the words that people may speak, that you may not hear your servant calling down evil upon you. [22] For your own heart well knows even many times that you, even you, have called down evil upon others.

[23] All this I have tested with wisdom. I said: “I will become wise.” But it was far from me. [24] What has come to be is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out? [25] I myself turned around, even my heart did, to know and to explore and to search for wisdom and the reason of things, and to know about the wickedness of stupidity and the foolishness of madness; [26] and I was finding out: More bitter than death I found the woman who is herself nets for hunting and whose heart is dragnets and whose hands are fetters. One is good before the true God if one escapes from her, but one is sinning if one is captured by her.

27 “See! This I have found,” said the congregator, “one thing taken after another, to find out the sum-up, 28 which my soul has continuously sought, but I have not found. One man out of a thousand I have found, but a woman among all these I have not found. 29 See! This only I have found, that the true God made mankind upright, but they themselves have sought out many plans.”

8 Who is there like the wise one? And who is there knowing the interpretation of a thing? The wisdom of a man itself causes his face to shine, and even the sternness of his face is changed for the better.

[2] I say: “Keep the very order of the king, and that out of regard for the oath of God. [3] Do not hurry yourself, that you may go out from before him. Do not stand in a bad thing. For all that he delights to do he will do, [4] because the word of the king is the power of control; and who may say to him: ‘What are you doing?’”

[5] He that is keeping the commandment will not know any calamitous thing, and the wise heart will know both time and judgment. [6] For there exists a time and judgment even for every affair, because the calamity of mankind is abundant upon them. [7] For there is no one knowing what will come to be, because who can tell him just how it will come to be?

[8] There is no man having power over the spirit to restrain the spirit; neither is there any power of control in the day of death; nor is there any discharge in the war. And wickedness will provide no escape for those indulging in it.

[9] All this I have seen, and there was an applying of my heart to every work that has been done under the sun, during the time that man has dominated man to his injury. [10] But, though this is so, I have seen the wicked ones being buried, how they came in and how they would go away from the holy place itself and be forgotten in the city where they acted that way. This too is vanity.

[11] Because sentence against a bad work has not been executed speedily, that is why the heart of the sons of men has become fully set in them to do bad. [12] Although a sinner may be doing bad a hundred times and continuing a long time as he pleases, yet I am also aware that it will turn out well with those fearing the true God, because they were in fear of him. [13] But it will not turn out well at all with the wicked one, neither will he prolong his days that are like a shadow, because he is not in fear of God.

[14] There exists a vanity that is carried out on the earth, that there exist righteous ones to whom it is happening as if for the work of the wicked ones, and there exist wicked ones to whom it is happening as if for the work of the righteous ones. I said that this too is vanity.

[15] And I myself commended rejoicing, because mankind have nothing better under the sun than to eat and drink and rejoice, and that it should accompany them in their hard work for the days of their life, which the true God has given them under the sun. [16] In accord with this I applied my heart to know wisdom and to see the occupation that is carried on in the earth, because there is one seeing no sleep with his eyes, either by day or by night.

[17] And I saw all the work of the true God, how mankind are not able to find out the work that has been done under the sun; however much mankind keep working hard to seek, yet they do not find out. And even if they should say they are wise enough to know, they would be unable to find out.

9 For I took all this to my heart, even to search out all this, that the righteous ones and the wise ones and their works are in the hand of the true God. Mankind are not aware of either the love or the hate that were all prior to them. [2] All are the same in what all have. One eventuality there is to the righteous one and the wicked one, the good one and the clean one and the unclean one, and the one sacrificing and the one that is not sacrificing. The good one is the same as the sinner; the one swearing is the same as whoever has been afraid of a sworn oath. [3] This is what is calamitous in all that has been done under the sun, that, because there is one eventuality to all, the heart of the sons of men is also full of bad; and there is madness in their heart during their lifetime, and after it—to the dead ones!

[4] For as respects whoever is joined to all the living there exists confidence, because a live dog is better off than a dead lion. [5] For the living are conscious that they will die; but as for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all, neither do they anymore have wages, because the remembrance of them has been forgotten. [6] Also, their love and their hate and their jealousy have already perished, and they have no portion anymore to time indefinite in anything that has to be done under the sun.

[7] Go, eat your food with rejoicing and drink your wine with a good heart, because already the true God has found pleasure in your works. [8] On every occasion let your garments prove to be white, and let oil not be lacking upon your head. [9] See life with the wife whom you love all the days of your vain life that He has given you under the sun, all the days of your vanity, for that is your portion in life and in your hard work with which you are working hard under the sun. [10] All that your hand finds to do, do with your very power, for there is no work nor devising nor knowledge nor wisdom in She′ol, the place to which you are going.

[11] I returned to see under the sun that the swift do not have the race, nor the mighty ones the battle, nor do the wise also have the food, nor do the understanding ones also have the riches, nor do even those having knowledge have the favor; because time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all. [12] For man also does not know his time. Just like fishes that are being taken in an evil net, and like birds that are being taken in a trap, so the sons of men themselves are being ensnared at a calamitous time, when it falls upon them suddenly.

[13] Also this I saw as respects wisdom under the sun—and it was great to me: [14] There was a little city, and the men in it were few; and there came to it a great king, and he surrounded it and built against it great strongholds. [15] And there was found in it a man, needy but wise, and that one provided escape for the city by his wisdom. But no man remembered that needy man. [16] And I myself said: “Wisdom is better than mightiness; yet the wisdom of the needy one is despised, and his words are not listened to.”

[17] The words of the wise ones in quietness are more to be heard than the cry of one ruling among stupid people.

[18] Wisdom is better than implements for fighting, and merely one sinner can destroy much good.

10 Dead flies are what cause the oil of the ointment maker to stink, to bubble forth. So a little foolishness does to one who is precious for wisdom and glory.

[2] The heart of the wise is at his right hand, but the heart of the stupid at his left hand. [3] And also in whatever way the foolish one is walking, his own heart is lacking, and he certainly says to everybody that he is foolish.

[4] If the spirit of a ruler should mount up against you, do not leave your own place, for calmness itself allays great sins.

[5] There exists something calamitous that I have seen under the sun, as when there is a mistake going forth on account of the one in power: [6] Foolishness has been put in many high positions, but the rich ones themselves keep dwelling merely in a low condition.

[7] I have seen servants on horses but princes walking on the earth just like servants.

[8] He that is digging a pit will himself fall right into it; and he that is breaking through a stone wall, a serpent will bite him.

[9] He that is quarrying out stones will hurt himself with them. He that is splitting logs will have to be careful with them.

[10] If an iron tool has become blunt and someone has not whetted its edge, then he will exert his own vital energies. So the using of wisdom to success means advantage.

[11] If the serpent bites when no charming results, then there is no advantage to the one indulging in the tongue.

[12] The words of the mouth of the wise one mean favor, but the lips of the stupid one swallow him up. [13] The start of the words of his mouth is foolishness, and the end afterward of his mouth is calamitous madness. [14] And the foolish one speaks many words.

Man does not know what will come to be; and that which will come to be after him, who can tell him?

[15] The hard work of the stupid ones makes them weary, because not one has come to know how to go to the city.

[16] How will it be with you, O land, when your king is a boy and your own princes keep eating even in the morning? [17] Happy are you, O land, when your king is the son of noble ones and your own princes eat at the proper time for mightiness, not for mere drinking.

[18] Through great laziness the beamwork sinks in, and through the letting down of the hands the house leaks.

[19] Bread is for the laughter of the workers, and wine itself makes life rejoice; but money is what meets a response in all things.

[20] Even in your bedroom do not call down evil upon the king himself, and in the interior rooms where you lie down do not call down evil upon anyone rich; for a flying creature of the heavens will convey the sound and something owning wings will tell the matter.

11 Send out your bread upon the surface of the waters, for in the course of many days you will find it again. [2] Give a portion to seven, or even to eight, for you do not know what calamity will occur on the earth.

[3] If the clouds are filled with water, they empty out a sheer downpour upon the earth; and if a tree falls to the south or if to the north, in the place where the tree falls there it will prove to be.

[4] He that is watching the wind will not sow seed; and he that is looking at the clouds will not reap.

[5] Just as you are not aware of what is the way of the spirit in the bones in the belly of her that is pregnant, in like manner you do not know the work of the true God, who does all things.

[6] In the morning sow your seed and until the evening do not let your hand rest; for you are not knowing where this will have success, either here or there, or whether both of them will alike be good.

[7] The light is also sweet, and it is good for the eyes to see the sun; [8] for if a man should live even many years, in all of them let him rejoice. And let him remember the days of darkness, though they could be many; every day that has come in is vanity.

[9] Rejoice, young man, in your youth, and let your heart do you good in the days of your young manhood, and walk in the ways of your heart and in the things seen by your eyes. But know that on account of all these the true God will bring you into judgment. [10] So remove vexation from your heart, and ward off calamity from your flesh; for youth and the prime of life are vanity.

12 Remember, now, your Grand Creator in the days of your young manhood, before the calamitous days proceed to come, or the years have arrived when you will say: “I have no delight in them”; [2] before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars grow dark, and the clouds have returned, afterward the downpour; [3] in the day when the keepers of the house tremble, and the men of vital energy have bent themselves, and the grinding women have quit working because they have become few, and the ladies seeing at the windows have found it dark; [4] and the doors onto the street have been closed, when the sound of the grinding mill becomes low, and one gets up at the sound of a bird, and all the daughters of song sound low. [5] Also, they have become afraid merely at what is high, and there are terrors in the way. And the almond tree carries blossoms, and the grasshopper drags itself along, and the caper berry bursts, because man is walking to his long-lasting house and the wailers have marched around in the street; [6] before the silver cord is removed, and the golden bowl gets crushed, and the jar at the spring is broken, and the waterwheel for the cistern has been crushed. [7] Then the dust returns to the earth just as it happened to be and the spirit itself returns to the true God who gave it.

[8] “The greatest vanity! ” said the congregator, “Everything is vanity.”

[9] And besides the fact that the congregator had become wise, he also taught the people knowledge continually, and he pondered and made a thorough search, that he might arrange many proverbs in order. [10] The congregator sought to find the delightful words and the writing of correct words of truth.

[11] The words of the wise ones are like oxgoads, and just like nails driven in are those indulging in collections of sentences; they have been given from one shepherd. [12] As regards anything besides these, my son, take a warning: To the making of many books there is no end, and much devotion to them is wearisome to the flesh.

[13] The conclusion of the matter, everything having been heard, is: Fear the true God and keep his commandments. For this is the whole obligation of man. [14] For the true God himself will bring every sort of work into the judgment in relation to every hidden thing, as to whether it is good or bad.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON

1 The superlative song, which is Solʹo·mon’s: [2] “May he kiss me with the kisses of his mouth, for your expressions of endearment are better than wine. [3] For fragrance your oils are good. Like an oil that is poured out is your name. That is why maidens themselves have loved you. [4] Draw me with you; let us run. The king has brought me into his interior rooms! Do let us be joyful and rejoice in you. Do let us mention your expressions of endearment more than wine. Deservedly they have loved you.

[5] “A black girl I am, but comely, O YOU daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Keʹdar, yet like the tent cloths of Solʹo·mon. [6] Do not YOU look at me because I am swarthy, because the sun has caught sight of me. The sons of my own mother grew angry with me; they appointed me the keeper of the vineyards, although my vineyard, one that was mine, I did not keep.

[7] “Do tell me, O you whom my soul has loved, where you do shepherding, where you make the flock lie down at midday. Just why should I become like a woman wrapped in mourning among the droves of your partners?”

[8] “If you do not know for yourself, O you most beautiful one among women, go out yourself in the footprints of the flock and pasture your kids of the goats alongside the tabernacles of the shepherds.”

[9] “To a mare of mine in the chariots of Pharʹaoh I have likened you, O girl companion of mine. [10] Your cheeks are comely among the hair braids, your neck in a string of beads. [11] Circlets of gold we shall make for you, along with studs of silver.”

[12] “As long as the king is at his round table my own spikenard has given out its fragrance. [13] As a bag of myrrh my dear one is to me; between my breasts he will spend the night. [14] As a cluster of henna my dear one is to me, among the vineyards of En-geʹdi.”

[15] “Look! You are beautiful, O girl companion of mine. Look! You are beautiful. Your eyes are those of doves.”

[16] “Look! You are beautiful, my dear one, also pleasant. Our divan also is one of foliage. [17] The beams of our grand house are cedars, our rafters juniper trees.

2 “A mere saffron of the coastal plain I am, a lily of the low plains.”

[2] “Like a lily among thorny weeds, so is my girl companion among the daughters.”

[3] “Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest, so is my dear one among the sons. His shade I have passionately desired, and there I have sat down, and his fruit has been sweet to my palate. [4] He brought me into the house of wine, and his banner over me was love. [5] Do YOU people refresh me with cakes of raisins, sustain me with apples; for I am lovesick. [6] His left hand is under my head; and his right hand—it embraces me. [7] I have put YOU under oath, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the female gazelles or by the hinds of the field, that YOU try not to awaken or arouse love in me until it feels inclined.

[8] “The sound of my dear one! Look! This one is coming, climbing upon the mountains, leaping upon the hills. [9] My dear one is resembling a gazelle or the young of the stags. Look! This one is standing behind our wall, gazing through the windows, glancing through the lattices. [10] My dear one has answered and said to me, ‘Rise up, you girl companion of mine, my beautiful one, and come away. [11] For, look! the rainy season itself has passed, the downpour itself is over, it has gone its way. [12] Blossoms themselves have appeared in the land, the very time of vine trimming has arrived, and the voice of the turtledove itself has been heard in our land. [13] As for the fig tree, it has gained a mature color for its early figs; and the vines are abloom, they have given their fragrance. Rise up, come, O girl companion of mine, my beautiful one, and come away. [14] O my dove in the retreats of the crag, in the concealed place of the steep way, show me your form, let me hear your voice, for your voice is pleasurable and your form is comely.’”

[15] “Do YOU people grab hold of the foxes for us, the little foxes that are making spoil of the vineyards, as our vineyards are abloom.”

[16] “My dear one is mine and I am his. He is shepherding among the lilies. [17] Until the day breathes and the shadows have fled, turn around, O my dear one; be like the gazelle or like the young of the stags upon the mountains of separation.

3 “On my bed during the nights I have sought the one whom my soul has loved. I sought him, but I did not find him. [2] Let me rise up, please, and go round about in the city; in the streets and in the public squares let me seek the one whom my soul has loved. I sought him, but I did not find him. [3] The watchmen who were going around in the city found me, ‘The one whom my soul has loved have YOU men seen?’ [4] Hardly had I passed on from them until I found the one whom my soul has loved. I grabbed hold of him, and I would not let go of him, until I had brought him into my mother’s house and into the interior room of her that had been pregnant with me. [5] I have put YOU under oath, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the female gazelles or by the hinds of the field, that YOU try not to awaken or arouse love in me until it feels inclined.”

[6] “What is this thing that is coming up from the wilderness like columns of smoke, being perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, even with every sort of scent powder of a trader?”

[7] “Look! It is his couch, the one belonging to Sol′o·mon. Sixty mighty men are all around it, from the mighty men of Israel, [8] all of them in possession of a sword, being taught in warfare, each one with his sword upon his thigh because of dread during the nights.”

[9] “It is the litter that King Sol′o·mon has made for himself from the trees of Leb′a·non. [10] Its pillars he has made of silver, its supports of gold. Its seat is of wool dyed reddish purple, its interior being fitted out lovingly by the daughters of Jerusalem.”

11 “Go out and look, O YOU daughters of Zion, on King Sol′o·mon with the wreath that his mother wove for him on the day of his marriage and on the day of the rejoicing of his heart.”

4 “Look! You are beautiful, O girl companion of mine. Look! You are beautiful. Your eyes are those of doves, behind your veil. Your hair is like a drove of goats that have hopped down from the mountainous region of Gilʹe·ad. [2] Your teeth are like a drove of freshly shorn ewes that have gone up from the washing, all of which are bearing twins, with none among them having lost its young ones. [3] Your lips are just like a scarlet thread, and your speaking is agreeable. Like a segment of pomegranate are your temples behind your veil. [4] Your neck is like the tower of David, built in courses of stone, upon which are hung a thousand shields, all the circular shields of the mighty men. [5] Your two breasts are like two young ones, the twins of a female gazelle, that are feeding among the lilies.”

[6] “Until the day breathes and the shadows have fled, I shall go my way to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.”

[7] “You are altogether beautiful, O girl companion of mine, and there is no defect in you. [8] With me from Lebʹa·non, O bride, with me from Lebʹa·non may you come. May you descend from the top of Anti-Lebʹa·non, from the top of Seʹnir, even Herʹmon, from the lairs of lions, from the mountains of leopards. [9] You have made my heart beat, O my sister, my bride, you have made my heart beat by one of your eyes, by one pendant of your necklace. [10] How beautiful your expressions of endearment are, O my sister, my bride! How much better your expressions of endearment are than wine and the fragrance of your oils than all sorts of perfume! [11] With comb honey your lips keep dripping, O my bride. Honey and milk are under your tongue, and the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebʹa·non.

[12] A garden barred in is my sister, my bride, a garden barred in, a spring sealed up. [13] Your skin is a paradise of pomegranates, with the choicest fruits, henna plants along with spikenard plants; [14] spikenard and saffron, cane and cinnamon, along with all sorts of trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes, along with all the finest perfumes; [15] and a spring of gardens, a well of fresh water, and trickling streams from Lebʹa·non. [16] Awake, O north wind, and come in, O south wind. Breathe upon my garden. Let its perfumes trickle.”

“Let my dear one come into his garden and eat its choicest fruits.”

5 “I have come into my garden, O my sister, my bride. I have plucked my myrrh along with my spice. I have eaten my honeycomb along with my honey; I have drunk my wine along with my milk.”

“Eat, O companions! Drink and become drunk with expressions of endearment!”

[2] “I am asleep, but my heart is awake. There is the sound of my dear one knocking!”

“Open to me, O my sister, my girl companion, my dove, my blameless one! For my head is filled with dew, the locks of my hair with the drops of the night.”

[3] “‘I have put off my robe. How can I put it back on? I have washed my feet. How can I soil them?’ [4] My dear one himself pulled back his hand from the hole of the door, and my inward parts themselves became boisterous within me. [5] I got up, even I, to open to my dear one, and my own hands dripped with myrrh and my fingers with liquid myrrh, upon the hollows of the lock. [6] I opened, even I, to my dear one, but my dear one himself had turned away, he had passed along. My very soul had gone out of me when he spoke. I sought him, but I did not find him. I called him, but he did not answer me. [7] The watchmen that were going about in the city found me. They struck me, they wounded me. The watchmen of the walls lifted my wide wrap off me.

[8] “I have put YOU under oath, O daughters of Jerusalem, that, if YOU find my dear one, YOU should tell him that I am lovesick.”

[9] “How is your dear one more than any other dear one, O you most beautiful one among women? How is your dear one more than any other dear one, that you have put us under such an oath as this?”

[10] “My dear one is dazzling and ruddy, the most conspicuous of ten thousand. [11] His head is gold, refined gold. The locks of his hair are date clusters. His black hair is like the raven. [12] His eyes are like doves by the channels of water, which are bathing themselves in milk, sitting within the rims. [13] His cheeks are like a garden bed of spice, towers of scented herbs. His lips are lilies, dripping with liquid myrrh. [14] His hands are cylinders of gold, filled with chrys′o·lite. His abdomen is an ivory plate covered with sapphires. [15] His legs are pillars of marble based on socket pedestals of refined gold. His appearance is like Leb′a·non, choice like the cedars. [16] His palate is sheer sweetness, and everything about him is altogether desirable. This is my dear one, and this is my boy companion, O daughters of Jerusalem.”

6 “Where has your dear one gone, O most beautiful one among women? Where has your dear one turned, that we may seek him with you?”

[2] “My own dear one has gone down to his garden, to the garden beds of spice plants, to shepherd among the gardens, and to pick lilies. [3] I am my dear one’s, and my dear one is mine. He is shepherding among the lilies.”

[4] “You are beautiful, O girl companion of mine, like Pleasant City, comely like Jerusalem, awesome as companies gathered around banners. [5] Turn your eyes away from in front of me, for they themselves have alarmed me. Your hair is like a drove of goats that have hopped down from Gilʹe·ad. [6] Your teeth are like a drove of ewes that have come up from the washing, all of which are bearing twins, none among them having lost its young ones. [7] Like a segment of pomegranate are your temples behind your veil. [8] There may be sixty queens and eighty concubines and maidens without number. [9] One there is who is my dove, my blameless one. One there is who belongs to her mother. She is the pure one of the one giving birth to her. The daughters have seen her, and they proceeded to pronounce her happy; queens and concubines, and they proceeded to praise her, [10] ‘Who is this woman that is looking down like the dawn, beautiful like the full moon, pure like the glowing sun, awesome as companies gathered around banners?’”

[11] “To the garden of nut trees I had gone down, to see the buds in the torrent valley, to see whether the vine had sprouted, whether the pomegranate trees had blossomed. [12] Before I knew it, my own soul had put me at the chariots of my willing people.”

[13] “Come back, come back, O Shu′lam·mite! Come back, come back, that we may behold you!”

“What do YOU people behold in the Shu′lam·mite?”

“Something like the dance of two camps!”

7 “How beautiful your steps have become in your sandals, O willing daughter! The curvings of your thighs are like ornaments, the work of an artisan’s hands. [2] Your navel roll is a round bowl. Let not the mixed wine be lacking from it. Your belly is a heap of wheat, fenced about with lilies. [3] Your two breasts are like two young ones, the twins of a female gazelle. [4] Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are like the pools in Hesh′bon, by the gate of Bath-rab′bim. Your nose is like the tower of Leb′a·non, which is looking out toward Damascus. [5] Your head upon you is like Car′mel, and the tresses of your head are like wool dyed reddish purple. The king is held bound by the flowings. [6] How beautiful you are, and how pleasant you are, O beloved girl, among exquisite delights! [7] This stature of yours does resemble a palm tree, and your breasts, date clusters. [8] I have said, ‘I shall go up on the palm tree, that I may take hold of its fruit stalks of dates.’ And, please, may your breasts become like clusters of the vine, and the fragrance of your nose like apples, [9] and your palate like the best wine that is going with a slickness for my dear one, softly flowing over the lips of sleeping ones.”

[10] “I am my dear one’s, and toward me is his craving. [11] Do come, O my dear one, let us go forth to the field; do let us lodge among the henna plants. [12] Do let us rise early and go to the vineyards, that we may see whether the vine has sprouted, the blossom has burst open, the pomegranate trees have bloomed. There I shall give my expressions of endearment to you. [13] The mandrakes themselves have given their fragrance, and by our entranceways there are all sorts of the choicest fruits. The new ones as well as the old, O my dear one, I have treasured up for you.

8 “O that you were like a brother of mine, sucking the breasts of my mother! Should I find you outside, I would kiss you. People would not even despise me. [2] I would lead you, I would bring you into the house of my mother, who used to teach me. I would give you a drink of spiced wine, the fresh juice of pomegranates. [3] His left hand would be under my head; and his right hand—it would embrace me.

[4] “I have put YOU under oath, O daughters of Jerusalem, that YOU try not to awaken or arouse love in me until it feels inclined.”

[5] “Who is this woman coming up from the wilderness, leaning upon her dear one?”

“Under the apple tree I aroused you. There your mother was in birth pangs with you. There she that was giving birth to you experienced birth pangs.

[6] “Place me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm; because love is as strong as death is, insistence on exclusive devotion is as unyielding as She′ol is. Its blazings are the blazings of a fire, the flame of Jah. [7] Many waters themselves are not able to extinguish love, nor can rivers themselves wash it away. If a man would give all the valuable things of his house for love, persons would positively despise them.”

[8] “We have a little sister that does not have any breasts. What shall we do for our sister on the day that she will be spoken for?”

[9] “If she should be a wall, we shall build upon her a battlement of silver; but if she should be a door, we shall block her up with a cedar plank.”

10 “I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers. In this case I have become in his eyes like her that is finding peace.

11 “There was a vineyard that Sol′o·mon happened to have in Ba′al-ha′mon. He gave the vineyard over to the keepers. Each one would bring in for its fruitage a thousand silver pieces.

12 “My vineyard, which belongs to me, is at my disposal. The thousand belong to you, O Sol′o·mon, and two hundred to those keeping its fruitage.”

13 “O you who are dwelling in the gardens, the partners are paying attention to your voice. Let me hear it.”

14 “Run away, my dear one, and make yourself like a gazelle or like a young one of the stags upon the mountains of spices.”

ISAIAH

1 The vision of Isaiah the son of A′moz that he visioned concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uz·zi′ah, Jo′tham, A′haz and Hez·e·ki′ah, kings of Judah:

[2] Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken: “Sons I have brought up and raised, but they themselves have revolted against me. [3] A bull well knows its buyer, and the ass the manger of its owner; Israel itself has not known, my own people have not behaved understandingly.”

[4] Woe to the sinful nation, the people heavy with error, an evildoing seed, ruinous sons! They have left Jehovah, they have treated the Holy One of Israel with disrespect, they have turned backwards. [5] Where else will YOU be struck still more, in that YOU add more revolt? The whole head is in a sick condition, and the whole heart is feeble. [6] From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no sound spot in it. Wounds and bruises and fresh stripes—they have not been squeezed out or bound up, nor has there been a softening with oil. [7] YOUR land is a desolation, YOUR cities are burned with fire; YOUR ground—right in front of YOU strangers are eating it up, and the desolation is like an overthrow by strangers. [8] And the daughter of Zion has been left remaining like a booth in a vineyard, like a lookout hut in a field of cucumbers, like a blockaded city. [9] Unless Jehovah of armies himself had left remaining to us just a few survivors, we should have become just like Sod′om, we should have resembled Go·mor′rah itself.

[10] Hear the word of Jehovah, YOU dictators of Sod′om. Give ear to the law of our God, YOU people of Go·mor′rah. [11] “Of what benefit to me is the multitude of YOUR sacrifices?” says Jehovah. “I have had enough of whole burnt offerings of rams and the fat of well-fed animals; and in the blood of young bulls and male lambs and he-goats I have taken no delight. 12 When YOU people keep coming in to see my face, who is it that has required this from YOUR hand, to trample my courtyards? 13 Stop bringing in any more valueless grain offerings. Incense—it is something detestable to me. New moon and sabbath, the calling of a convention—I cannot put up with the use of uncanny power along with the solemn assembly. 14 YOUR new moons and YOUR festal seasons my soul has hated. To me they have become a burden; I have become tired of bearing them. 15 And when YOU spread out YOUR palms, I hide my eyes from YOU. Even though YOU make many prayers, I am not listening; with bloodshed YOUR very hands have become filled. 16 Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the badness of YOUR dealings from in front of my eyes; cease to do bad. 17 Learn to do good; search for justice; set right the oppressor; render judgment for the fatherless boy; plead the cause of the widow.”

18 “Come, now, YOU people, and let us set matters straight between us,” says Jehovah. “Though the sins of YOU people should prove to be as scarlet, they will be made white just like snow; though they should be red like crimson cloth, they will become even like wool. 19 If YOU people show willingness and do listen, the good of the land YOU will eat. 20 But if YOU people refuse and are actually rebellious, with a sword YOU will be eaten up; for the very mouth of Jehovah has spoken it.”

21 O how the faithful town has become a prostitute! She was full of justice; righteousness itself used to lodge in her, but now murderers. 22 Your silver itself has become scummy dross. Your wheat beer is diluted with water. [23] Your princes are stubborn and partners with thieves. Every one of them is a lover of a bribe and a chaser after gifts. For a fatherless boy they do not render judgment; and even the legal case of a widow does not get admittance to them.

[24] Therefore the utterance of the true Lord, Jehovah of armies, the Powerful One of Israel, is: “Aha! I shall relieve myself of my adversaries, and I will avenge myself on my enemies. [25] And I will turn back my hand upon you, and I shall smelt away your scummy dross as with lye, and I will remove all your waste products. [26] And I will bring back again judges for you as at the first, and counselors for you as at the start. After this you will be called City of Righteousness, Faithful Town. [27] With justice Zion herself will be redeemed, and those returning of her, with righteousness. [28] And the crash of revolters and that of sinful ones will be at the same time, and those leaving Jehovah will come to their finish. [29] For they will be ashamed of the mighty trees that YOU people desired, and YOU will be abashed because of the gardens that YOU have chosen. [30] For YOU will become like a big tree the foliage of which is withering, and like a garden that has no water. [31] And the vigorous man will certainly become tow, and the product of his activity a spark; and both of them will certainly go up in flames at the same time, with no one to do the extinguishing.”

2 The thing that Isaiah the son of A′moz visioned concerning Judah and Jerusalem: [2] And it must occur in the final part of the days that the mountain of the house of Jehovah will become firmly established above the top of the mountains, and it will certainly be lifted up above the hills; and to it all the nations must stream. [3] And many peoples will certainly go and say: “Come, YOU people, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will instruct us about his ways, and we will walk in his paths.” For out of Zion law will go forth, and the word of Jehovah out of Jerusalem. [4] And he will certainly render judgment among the nations and set matters straight respecting many peoples. And they will have to beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning shears. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war anymore.

[5] O men of the house of Jacob, come and let us walk in the light of Jehovah.

[6] For you have forsaken your people, the house of Jacob. For they have become full of what is from the East, and they are practicers of magic like the Phi·lis′tines, and with the children of foreigners they abound. [7] And their land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no limit to their treasures. And their land is filled with horses, and there is no limit to their chariots. [8] And their land is filled with valueless gods. To the work of one’s hands they bow down, to that which one’s fingers have made. [9] And earthling man bows down, and man becomes low, and you cannot possibly pardon them.

[10] Enter into the rock and hide yourself in the dust because of the dreadfulness of Jehovah, and from his splendid superiority. [11] The haughty eyes of earthling man must become low, and the loftiness of men must bow down; and Jehovah alone must be put on high in that day. [12] For it is the day belonging to Jehovah of armies. It is upon everyone self-exalted and lofty and upon everyone lifted up or low; [13] and upon all the cedars of Leb′a·non that are lofty and lifted up and upon all the massive trees of Ba′shan; [14] and upon all the lofty mountains and upon all the hills that are lifted up; [15] and upon every high tower and upon every fortified wall; [16] and upon all the ships of Tar′shish and upon all desirable boats. [17] And the haughtiness of the earthling man must bow down, and the loftiness of men must become low; and Jehovah alone must be put on high in that day.

[18] And the valueless gods themselves will pass away completely. [19] And people will enter into the caves of the rocks and into the holes of the dust because of the dreadfulness of Jehovah and from his splendid superiority, when he rises up for the earth to suffer shocks. [20] In that day the earthling man will throw his worthless gods of silver and his valueless gods of gold that they had made for him to bow before to the shrewmice and to the bats, [21] in order to enter into the holes in the rocks and into the clefts of the crags, because of the dreadfulness of Jehovah and from his splendid superiority, when he rises up for the earth to suffer shocks. [22] For YOUR own sakes, hold off from the earthling man, whose breath is in his nostrils, for on what basis is he himself to be taken into account?

3 For, look! the true Lord, Jehovah of armies, is removing from Jerusalem and from Judah support and stay, the whole support of bread and the whole support of water, [2] mighty man and warrior, judge and prophet, and practicer of divination and elderly man, [3] chief of fifty and highly respected man and counselor and expert in magical arts, and the skilled charmer. [4] And I shall certainly make boys their princes, and mere arbitrary power will rule over them. [5] And the people will actually tyrannize one over the other, even each one over his fellowman. They will storm, the boy against the old man, and the lightly esteemed one against the one to be honored. [6] For each one will lay hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying: “You have a mantle. A dictator you ought to become to us, and this overthrown mass should be under your hand.” [7] He will raise his voice in that day, saying: “I shall not become a wound dresser; and in my house there is neither bread nor a mantle. YOU men must not set me as dictator over the people.”

[8] For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah itself has fallen, because their tongue and their dealings are against Jehovah, in behaving rebelliously in the eyes of his glory. [9] The very expression of their faces actually testifies against them, and of their sin like that of Sod′om they do tell. They have not hidden it. Woe to their soul! For they have dealt out to themselves calamity.

[10] Say, YOU men, that it will be well with the righteous one, for they will eat the very fruitage of their dealings. [11] Woe to the wicked one!—Calamity; for the treatment rendered by his own hands will be rendered to him! [12] As for my people, its task assigners are dealing severely, and mere women actually rule over it. O my people, those leading you on are causing you to wander, and the way of your paths they have confused.

[13] Jehovah is stationing himself to contend and is standing up to pass sentence upon peoples. [14] Jehovah himself will enter into judgment with the elderly ones of his people and its princes.

“And YOU yourselves have burned down the vineyard. What was taken by robbery from the afflicted one is in YOUR houses. [15] What do YOU men mean in that YOU crush my people, and that YOU grind the very faces of the afflicted ones?” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies.

[16] And Jehovah says: “For the reason that the daughters of Zion have become haughty and they walk with their throats stretched forth and ogling with their eyes, they go walking with tripping steps, and with their feet they make a tinkling sound, [17] Jehovah also will actually make the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion scabby, and Jehovah himself will lay their very forehead bare. [18] In that day Jehovah will take away the beauty of the bangles and the headbands and the moon-shaped ornaments, [19] the eardrops and the bracelets and the veils, [20] the headdresses and the step chains and the breastbands and the ‘houses of the soul’ and the ornamental humming shells, [21] the finger rings and the nose rings, [22] the robes of state and the overtunics and the cloaks and the purses, [23] and the hand mirrors and the undergarments and the turbans and the large veils.

[24] “And it must occur that instead of balsam oil there will come to be merely a musty smell; and instead of a belt, a rope; and instead of an artistic hair arrangement, baldness; and instead of a rich garment, a girding of sackcloth; a brand mark instead of prettiness. [25] By the sword your own men will fall, and your mightiness by war. [26] And her entrances will have to mourn and express sorrow, and she will certainly be cleaned out. She will sit down on the very earth.”

4 And seven women will actually grab hold of one man in that day, saying: “We shall eat our own bread and wear our own mantles; only may we be called by your name to take away our reproach.”

[2] In that day what Jehovah makes sprout will come to be for decoration and for glory, and the fruitage of the land will be something to be proud of and something beautiful for those of Israel who have escaped. [3] And it must occur that the ones remaining in Zion and the ones left over in Jerusalem will be said to be holy to him, everyone written down for life in Jerusalem.

[4] When Jehovah will have washed away the excrement of the daughters of Zion and he will rinse away even the bloodshed of Jerusalem from within her by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning down, [5] Jehovah will also certainly create over every established place of Mount Zion and over her convention place a cloud by day and a smoke, and the brightness of a flaming fire by night; because over all the glory there will be a shelter. [6] And there will come to be a booth for a shade by day from the dry heat, and for a refuge and for a hiding place from the rainstorm and from the precipitation.

5 Let me sing, please, to my beloved one a song of my loved one concerning his vineyard. There was a vineyard that my beloved one came to have on a fruitful hillside. [2] And he proceeded to dig it up and to rid it of stones and to plant it with a choice red vine, and to build a tower in the middle of it. And there was also a winepress that he hewed out in it. And he kept hoping for it to produce grapes, but it gradually produced wild grapes.

[3] “And now, O YOU inhabitants of Jerusalem and YOU men of Judah, please judge between me and my vineyard. [4] What is there yet to do for my vineyard that I have not already done in it? Why is it that I hoped for it to produce grapes, but it gradually produced wild grapes? [5] And now, please, may I make known to YOU men what I am doing to my vineyard: There will be a removing of its hedge, and it must be destined for burning down. There must be a breaking down of its stone wall, and it must be destined for a place of trampling. [6] And I shall set it as a thing destroyed. It will not be pruned, nor will it be hoed. And it must come up with the thornbush and weeds; and upon the clouds I shall lay a command to keep from precipitating any rain upon it. [7] For the vineyard of Jehovah of armies is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are the plantation of which he was fond. And he kept hoping for judgment, but, look! the breaking of law; for righteousness, but, look! an outcry.”

[8] Woe to the ones joining house to house, and those who annex field to field until there is no more room and YOU men have been made to dwell all by yourselves in the midst of the land! [9] In my ears Jehovah of armies has sworn that many houses, though great and good, will become an outright object of astonishment, without an inhabitant. [10]

For even ten acres of vineyard will produce but one bath measure, and even a hoʹmer measure of seed will produce but an eʹphah measure.

[11] Woe to those who are getting up early in the morning that they may seek just intoxicating liquor, who are lingering till late in the evening darkness so that wine itself inflames them! [12] And there must prove to be harp and stringed instrument, tambourine and flute, and wine at their feasts; but the activity of Jehovah they do not look at, and the work of his hands they have not seen.

[13] Therefore my people will have to go into exile for lack of knowledge; and their glory will be famished men, and their crowd will be parched with thirst. [14] Therefore Sheʹol has made its soul spacious and has opened its mouth wide beyond bounds; and what is splendid in her, also her crowd and her uproar and the exultant one, will certainly go down into it. [15] And earthling man will bow down, and man will become low, and even the eyes of the high ones will become low. [16] And Jehovah of armies will become high through judgment, and the true God, the Holy One, will certainly sanctify himself through righteousness. [17] And the male lambs will actually graze as in their pasture; and the desolate places of well-fed animals alien residents will eat.

[18] Woe to those drawing error with ropes of untruth, and as with wagon cords sin; [19] those who are saying: “Let his work hasten; do let it come quickly, in order that we may see it; and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, that we may know it!”

[20] Woe to those who are saying that good is bad and bad is good, those who are putting darkness for light and light for darkness, those who are putting bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe to those wise in their own eyes and discreet even in front of their own faces!

22 Woe to those who are mighty in drinking wine, and to the men with vital energy for mixing intoxicating liquor, 23 those who are pronouncing the wicked one righteous in consideration of a bribe, and who take away even the righteousness of the righteous one from him!

24 Therefore just as a tongue of fire eats up the stubble and into the flames mere dried grass sinks down, their very rootstock will become just like a musty smell, and their blossom itself will go up just like powder, because they have rejected the law of Jehovah of armies, and the saying of the Holy One of Israel they have disrespected. 25 That is why the anger of Jehovah has grown hot against his people, and he will stretch out his hand against them and strike them. And the mountains will be agitated, and their dead bodies will become like the offal in the midst of the streets.

In view of all this his anger has not turned back, but his hand is stretched out still. 26 And he has raised up a signal to a great nation far away, and he has whistled to it at the extremity of the earth; and, look! in haste it will swiftly come in. 27 There is no one tired nor is anyone stumbling among them. No one is drowsy and no one sleeps. And the belt around their loins will certainly not be opened, nor the laces of their sandals be torn in two; 28 because their arrows are sharpened and all their bows are bent. The very hoofs of their horses will have to be accounted as flint itself, and their wheels as a storm wind. 29 The roaring of theirs is like that of a lion, and they roar like maned young lions. And they will growl and grab hold of the prey and bring it safely away, and there will be no deliverer. 30 And they will growl over it in that day as with the growling of the sea. And one will actually gaze at the land, and, look! there is distressing darkness; and even the light has grown dark because of the drops falling on it.

6 In the year that King Uz·ziʹah died I, however, got to see Jehovah, sitting on a throne lofty and lifted up, and his skirts were filling the temple. [2] Seraphs were standing above him. Each one had six wings. With two he kept his face covered, and with two he kept his feet covered, and with two he would fly about. [3] And this one called to that one and said: “Holy, holy, holy is Jehovah of armies. The fullness of all the earth is his glory.” [4] And the pivots of the thresholds began to quiver at the voice of the one calling, and the house itself gradually filled with smoke.

[5] And I proceeded to say: “Woe to me! For I am as good as brought to silence, because a man unclean in lips I am, and in among a people unclean in lips I am dwelling; for my eyes have seen the King, Jehovah of armies, himself!”

[6] At that, one of the seraphs flew to me, and in his hand there was a glowing coal that he had taken with tongs off the altar. [7] And he proceeded to touch my mouth and to say: “Look! This has touched your lips, and your error has departed and your sin itself is atoned for.”

[8] And I began to hear the voice of Jehovah saying: “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I proceeded to say: “Here I am! Send me.” [9] And he went on to say: “Go, and you must say to this people, ‘Hear again and again, O men, but do not understand; and see again and again, but do not get any knowledge.’ [10] Make the heart of this people unreceptive, and make their very ears unresponsive, and paste their very eyes together, that they may not see with their eyes and with their ears they may not hear, and that their own heart may not understand and that they may not actually turn back and get healing for themselves.”

[11] At this I said: “How long, O Jehovah?” Then he said: “Until the cities actually crash in ruins, to be without an inhabitant, and the houses be without earthling man, and the ground itself is ruined into a desolation; [12] and Jehovah actually removes earthling men far away, and the deserted condition does become very extensive in the midst of the land. [13] And there will still be in it a tenth, and it must again become something for burning down, like a big tree and like a massive tree in which, when there is a cutting down of them, there is a stump; a holy seed will be the stump of it.”

7 Now it came about in the days of A′haz the son of Jo′tham the son of Uz·zi′ah, the king of Judah, that Re′zin the king of Syria and Pe′kah the son of Rem·a·li′ah, the king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem for war against it, and he proved unable to war against it. [2] And a report was made to the house of David, saying: “Syria has leaned upon E′phra·im.”

And his heart and the heart of his people began to quiver, like the quivering of the trees of the forest because of a wind.

[3] And Jehovah proceeded to say to Isaiah: “Go out, please, to meet A′haz, you and She′ar-ja′shub your son, to the end of the conduit of the upper pool by the highway of the laundryman’s field. [4] And you must say to him, ‘Watch yourself and keep undisturbed. Do not be afraid, and do not let your heart itself be timid because of the two tail ends of these smoking logs, because of the hot anger of Re′zin and Syria and the son of Rem·a·li′ah, [5] for the reason that Syria with E′phra·im and the son of Rem·a·li′ah has advised what is bad against you, saying: [6] “Let us go up against Judah and tear it apart and by breakthroughs take it for ourselves; and let us make another king reign inside it, the son of Tab′e·el.”

[7] “‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “It will not stand, neither will it take place. [8] For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Re′zin; and within just sixty-five years E′phra·im will be shattered to pieces so as not to be a people. [9] And the head of E′phra·im is Sa·mar′i·a, and the head of Sa·mar′i·a is the son of Rem·a·li′ah. Unless YOU people have faith, YOU will in that case not be of long duration.”’”

[10] And Jehovah went on speaking some more to A′haz, saying: [11] “Ask for yourself a sign from Jehovah your God, making it as deep as She′ol or making it high as the upper regions.” [12] But A′haz said: “I shall not ask, neither shall I put Jehovah to the test.”

[13] And he proceeded to say: “Listen, please, O house of David. Is it such a little thing for YOU to tire out men, that YOU should also tire out my God? [14] Therefore Jehovah himself will give YOU men a sign: Look! The maiden herself will actually become pregnant, and she is giving birth to a son, and she will certainly call his name Im·man′u·el. [15] Butter and honey he will eat by the time that he knows how to reject the bad and choose the good. [16] For before the boy will know how to reject the bad and choose the good, the ground of whose two kings you are feeling a sickening dread will be left entirely. [17] Jehovah will bring against you and against your people and against the house of your father days such as have not come since the day of E′phra·im’s turning away from alongside Judah, namely, the king of As·syr′i·a.

[18] “And it must occur in that day that Jehovah will whistle for the flies that are at the extremity of the Nile canals of Egypt and for the bees that are in the land of As·syr′i·a, [19] and they will certainly come in and settle down, all of them, upon the precipitous torrent valleys and upon the clefts of the crags and upon all the thorn thickets and upon all the watering places.

[20] “In that day, by means of a hired razor in the region of the River, even by means of the king of As·syr′i·a, Jehovah will shave the head and the hair of the feet, and it will sweep away even the beard itself.

[21] “And it must occur in that day that an individual will preserve alive a young cow of the herd and two sheep. [22] And it must occur that, due to the abundance of the producing of milk, he will eat butter; because butter and honey are what everyone left remaining in the midst of the land will eat.

[23] “And it must occur in that day that every place where there used to be a thousand vines, worth a thousand pieces of silver, will come to be—for the thornbushes and for the weeds it will come to be. [24] With arrows and the bow he will come there, because all the land will become mere thornbushes and weeds. [25] And all the mountains that used to be cleared of troublesome plants with a hoe—you will not come there for fear of thornbushes and weeds; and it will certainly become a place for letting bulls loose and a trampling ground of sheep.”

8 And Jehovah proceeded to say to me: “Take for yourself a large tablet and write upon it with the stylus of mortal man, ‘Ma′her-shal′al-hash-baz.’ [2] And let me have attestation for myself by faithful witnesses, U·ri′ah the priest and Zech·a·ri′ah the son of Je·ber·e·chi′ah.”

[3] Then I went near to the prophetess, and she came to be pregnant and in time gave birth to a son. Jehovah now said to me: “Call his name Ma′her-shal′al-hash-baz, [4] for before the boy will know how to call out, ‘My father!’ and ‘My mother!’ one will carry away the resources of Damascus and the spoil of Sa·mar′i·a before the king of As·syr′i·a.”

[5] And Jehovah proceeded to speak yet further to me, saying: [6] “For the reason that this people has rejected the waters of the Shi·lo′ah that are going gently, and there is exultation over Re′zin and the son of Rem·a·li′ah; [7] even therefore, look! Jehovah is bringing up against them the mighty and the many waters of the River, the king of As·syr′i·a and all his glory. And he will certainly come up over all his streambeds and go over all his banks [8] and move on through Judah. He will actually flood and pass over. Up to the neck he will reach. And the outspreading of his wings must occur to fill the breadth of your land, O Im·man′u·el!”

[9] Be injurious, O YOU peoples, and be shattered to pieces; and give ear, all YOU in distant parts of the earth! Gird yourselves, and be shattered to pieces! Gird yourselves, and be shattered to pieces! [10] Plan out a scheme, and it will be broken up! Speak any word, and it will not stand, for God is with us! [11] For this is what Jehovah has said to me with strongness of the hand, that he may make me turn aside from walking in the way of this people, saying: [12] “YOU men must not say, ‘A conspiracy! ’ respecting all that of which this people keep saying, ‘A conspiracy! ’ and the object of their fear YOU men must not fear, nor must YOU tremble at it. [13] Jehovah of armies—he is the One whom YOU should treat as holy, and he should be the object of YOUR fear, and he should be the One causing YOU to tremble.”

[14] And he must become as a sacred place; but as a stone to strike against and as a rock over which to stumble to both the houses of Israel, as a trap and as a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [15] And many among them will be certain to stumble and to fall and be broken, and to be snared and caught.

[16] Wrap up the attestation, put a seal about the law among my disciples! [17] And I will keep in expectation of Jehovah, who is concealing his face from the house of Jacob, and I will hope in him.

[18] Look! I and the children whom Jehovah has given me are as signs and as miracles in Israel from Jehovah of armies, who is residing in Mount Zion.

[19] And in case they should say to YOU people: “Apply to the spiritistic mediums or to those having a spirit of prediction who are chirping and making utterances in low tones,” is it not to its God that any people should apply? Should there be application to dead persons in behalf of living persons? [20] To the law and to the attestation!

Surely they will keep saying what is according to this statement that will have no light of dawn. [21] And each one will certainly pass through the land hard pressed and hungry; and it must occur that because he is hungry and has made himself feel indignant, he will actually call down evil upon his king and upon his God and will certainly peer upward. [22] And to the earth he will look, and, lo! distress and darkness, obscurity, hard times and gloominess with no brightness.

9 However, the obscureness will not be as when the land had stress, as at the former time when one treated with contempt the land of Zeb′u·lun and the land of Naph′ta·li and when at the later time one caused it to be honored—the way by the sea, in the region of the Jordan, Gal′i·lee of the nations. [2] The people that were walking in the darkness have seen a great light. As for those dwelling in the land of deep shadow, light itself has shone upon them. [3] You have made the nation populous; for it you have made the rejoicing great. They have rejoiced before you as with the rejoicing in the harvesttime, as those who are joyful when they divide up the spoil.

[4] For the yoke of their load and the rod upon their shoulders, the staff of the one driving them to work, you have shattered to pieces as in the day of Mid′i·an. [5] For every boot of the one tramping with tremors and the mantle rolled in blood have even come to be for burning as food for fire. [6] For there has been a child born to us, there has been a son given to us; and the princely rule will come to be upon his shoulder. And his name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace. [7] To the abundance of the princely rule and to peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David and upon his kingdom in order to establish it firmly and to sustain it by means of justice and by means of righteousness, from now on and to time indefinite. The very zeal of Jehovah of armies will do this.

[8] There was a word that Jehovah sent against Jacob, and it fell upon Israel. [9] And the people will certainly know it, even all of them, E′phra·im and the inhabitant of Sa·mar′i·a, because of their haughtiness and because of their insolence of heart in saying: [10] “Bricks are what have fallen, but with hewn stone we shall build. Sycamore trees are what have been cut down, but with cedars we shall make replacement.” [11] And Jehovah will set the adversaries of Re′zin on high against him, and the enemies of that one he will goad on, [12] Syria from the east and the Phi·lis′tines from behind, and they will eat up Israel with open mouth. In view of all this his anger has not turned back, but his hand is stretched out still.

[13] And the people themselves have not returned to the One striking them, and Jehovah of armies they have not sought. [14] And Jehovah will cut off from Israel head and tail, shoot and rush, in one day. [15] The aged and highly respected one is the head, and the prophet giving false instruction is the tail. [16] And those who are leading this people on prove to be the ones causing them to wander; and those of them who are being led on, the ones who are being confused. [17] That is why Jehovah will not rejoice even over their young men, and upon their fatherless boys and upon their widows he will have no mercy; because all of them are apostates and evildoers and every mouth is speaking senselessness. In view of all this his anger has not turned back, but his hand is stretched out still.

[18] For wickedness has become aflame just like a fire; thornbushes and weeds it will eat up. And it will catch fire in the thickets of the forest, and they will be borne aloft as the billowing of smoke. [19] In the fury of Jehovah of armies the land has been set afire, and the people will become as food for the fire. No one will show compassion even on his brother. [20] And one will cut down on the right and will certainly be hungry; and one will eat on the left, and they will certainly not be satisfied. They will each one eat the flesh of his own arm, [21] Ma·nas′seh E′phra·im, and E′phra·im Ma·nas′seh. Together they will be against Judah. In view of all this his anger has not turned back, but his hand is stretched out still.

10 Woe to those who are enacting harmful regulations and those who, constantly writing, have written out sheer trouble, [2] in order to push away the lowly ones from a legal case and to wrest away justice from the afflicted ones of my people, for the widows to become their spoil, and that they may plunder even the fatherless boys! [3] And what will YOU men do at the day of being given attention and at the ruin, when it comes from far away? Toward whom will YOU flee for assistance, and where will YOU leave YOUR glory, [4] except it be that one must bow down under the prisoners and that people keep falling under those who have been killed? In view of all this his anger has not turned back, but his hand is stretched out still.

[5] “Aha, the As·syr′i·an, the rod for my anger, and the stick that is in their hand for my denunciation! [6] Against an apostate nation I shall send him, and against the people of my fury I shall issue a command to him, to take much spoil and to take much plunder and to make it a trampling place like the clay of the streets. [7] Though he may not be that way, he will feel inclined; though his heart may not be that way, he will scheme, because to annihilate is in his heart, and to cut off nations not a few. [8] For he will say, ‘Are not my princes at the same time kings? [9] Is not Cal′no just like Car′che·mish? Is not Ha′math just like Ar′pad? Is not Sa·mar′i·a just like Damascus? [10] Whenever my hand has reached the kingdoms of the valueless god whose graven images are more than those at Jerusalem and at Sa·mar′i·a, [11] will it not be that just as I shall have done to Sa·mar′i·a and to her valueless gods, even so I shall do to Jerusalem and to her idols?’

[12] “And it must occur that when Jehovah terminates all his work in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, I shall make an accounting for the fruitage of the insolence of the heart of the king of As·syrʹi·a and for the self-importance of his loftiness of eyes. [13] For he has said, ‘With the power of my hand I shall certainly act, and with my wisdom, for I do have understanding; and I shall remove the boundaries of peoples, and their things stored up I shall certainly pillage, and I shall bring down the inhabitants just like a powerful one. [14] And just as if a nest, my hand will reach the resources of the peoples; and just as when one gathers eggs that have been left, I myself will gather up even all the earth, and there will certainly be no one fluttering his wings or opening his mouth or chirping.’”

[15] Will the ax enhance itself over the one chopping with it, or the saw magnify itself over the one moving it back and forth, as though the staff moved back and forth the ones raising it on high, as though the rod raised on high the one who is not wood? [16] Therefore the true Lord, Jehovah of armies, will keep sending upon his fat ones a wasting disease, and under his glory a burning will keep burning away like the burning of a fire. [17] And Israel’s Light must become a fire, and his Holy One a flame; and it must blaze up and eat up his weeds and his thornbushes in one day. [18] And the glory of his forest and of his orchard He will bring to an end, even from the soul clear to the flesh, and it must become like the melting away of one that is ailing. [19] And the rest of the trees of his forest—they will become such a number that a mere boy will be able to write them down.

[20] And it will certainly occur in that day that those remaining over of Israel and those who have escaped of the house of Jacob will never again support themselves upon the one striking them, and they will certainly support themselves upon Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, in trueness. [21] A mere remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the Mighty God. [22] For although your people, O Israel, would prove to be like the grains of sand of the sea, a mere remnant among them will return. An extermination decided upon will be flooding through in righteousness, [23] because an exterminating and a strict decision the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, will be executing in the midst of the whole land.

[24] Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, has said: “Do not be afraid, O my people who are dwelling in Zion, because of the As·syr′i·an, who with the rod used to strike you and who used to lift up his own staff against you in the way that Egypt did. [25] For yet a very little while—and the denunciation will have come to an end, and my anger, in their wearing away. [26] And Jehovah of armies will certainly brandish against him a whip as at the defeat of Mid′i·an by the rock O′reb; and his staff will be upon the sea, and he will certainly lift it up in the way that he did with Egypt.

[27] “And it must occur in that day that his load will depart from upon your shoulder, and his yoke from upon your neck, and the yoke will certainly be wrecked because of the oil.”

[28] He has come upon Ai′ath; he has passed along through Mig′ron; at Mich′mash he deposits his articles. [29] They have passed over the ford, Ge′ba is a place for them to spend the night, Ra′mah has trembled, Gib′e·ah of Saul itself has fled. [30] Let your voice out in shrill cries, O daughter of Gal′lim. Pay attention, O La′i·shah. O you afflicted one, An′a·thoth! [31] Mad·me′nah has run away. The inhabitants of Ge′bim themselves have taken to shelter. [32] It is yet day in Nob to make a halt. He waves his hand threateningly at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33 Look! The true Lord, Jehovah of armies, is lopping off boughs with a terrible crash; and those tall in growth are being cut down, and the high ones themselves become low.
34 And he has struck down the thickets of the forest with an iron tool, and by a powerful one Leb′a·non itself will fall.

11 And there must go forth a twig out of the stump of Jes′se; and out of his roots a sprout will be fruitful. [2] And upon him the spirit of Jehovah must settle down, the spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the spirit of counsel and of mightiness, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Jehovah; [3] and there will be enjoyment by him in the fear of Jehovah.

And he will not judge by any mere appearance to his eyes, nor reprove simply according to the thing heard by his ears. [4] And with righteousness he must judge the lowly ones, and with uprightness he must give reproof in behalf of the meek ones of the earth. And he must strike the earth with the rod of his mouth; and with the spirit of his lips he will put the wicked one to death. [5] And righteousness must prove to be the belt of his hips, and faithfulness the belt of his loins.

[6] And the wolf will actually reside for a while with the male lamb, and with the kid the leopard itself will lie down, and the calf and the maned young lion and the well-fed animal all together; and a mere little boy will be leader over them. [7] And the cow and the bear themselves will feed; together their young ones will lie down. And even the lion will eat straw just like the bull. [8] And the sucking child will certainly play upon the hole of the cobra; and upon the light aperture of a poisonous snake will a weaned child actually put his own hand. [9] They will not do any harm or cause any ruin in all my holy mountain; because the earth will certainly be filled with the knowledge of Jehovah as the waters are covering the very sea.

[10] And it must occur in that day that there will be the root of Jes′se that will be standing up as a signal for the peoples. To him even the nations will turn inquiringly, and his resting-place must become glorious.

[11] And it must occur in that day that Jehovah will again offer his hand, a second time, to acquire the remnant of his people who will remain over from As·syr′i·a and from Egypt and from Path′ros and from Cush and from E′lam and from Shi′nar and from Ha′math and from the islands of the sea. [12] And he will certainly raise up a signal for the nations and gather the dispersed ones of Israel; and the scattered ones of Judah he will collect together from the four extremities of the earth.

[13] And the jealousy of E′phra·im must depart, and even those showing hostility to Judah will be cut off. E′phra·im itself will not be jealous of Judah, nor will Judah show hostility toward E′phra·im. [14] And they must fly at the shoulder of the Phi·lis′tines to the west; together they will plunder the sons of the East. E′dom and Mo′ab will be those upon whom they will thrust out their hand, and the sons of Am′mon will be their subjects. [15] And Jehovah will certainly cut off the tongue of the Egyptian sea, and wave his hand at the River in the glow of his spirit. And he must strike it in its seven torrents, and he will actually cause people to walk in their sandals. [16] And there must come to be a highway out of As·syr′i·a for the remnant of his people who will remain over, just as there came to be one for Israel in the day of his coming up out of the land of Egypt.

12 And in that day you will be sure to say: “I shall thank you, O Jehovah, for although you got incensed at me, your anger gradually turned back, and you proceeded to comfort me. [2] Look! God is my salvation. I shall trust and be in no dread; for Jah Jehovah is my strength and my might, and he came to be the salvation of me.”

[3] With exultation YOU people will be certain to draw water out of the springs of salvation. [4] And in that day YOU will certainly say: “Give thanks to Jehovah, YOU people! Call upon his name. Make known among the peoples his dealings. Make mention that his name is put on high. [5] Make melody to Jehovah, for he has done surpassingly. This is made known in all the earth.

[6] “Cry out shrilly and shout for joy, O you inhabitress of Zion, for great in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.”

13 The pronouncement against Babylon that Isaiah the son of A′moz saw in vision: [2] “Upon a mountain of bare rocks raise up a signal, YOU men. Lift up the voice to them, wave the hand, that they may come into the entrances of the nobles. [3] I myself have issued the command to my sanctified ones. I have also called my mighty ones for expressing my anger, my eminently exultant ones. [4] Listen! A crowd in the mountains, something like a numerous people! Listen! The uproar of kingdoms, of nations gathered together! Jehovah of armies is mustering the army of war. [5] They are coming from the land far away, from the extremity of the heavens, Jehovah and the weapons of his denunciation, to wreck all the earth.

[6] “Howl, YOU people, for the day of Jehovah is near! As a despoiling from the Almighty it will come. [7] That is why all hands themselves will drop down, and the whole heart itself of mortal man will melt. [8] And people have become disturbed. Convulsions and birth pains themselves grab hold; like a woman that is giving birth they have labor pains. They look at each other in amazement. Their faces are inflamed faces.

[9] “Look! The day of Jehovah itself is coming, cruel both with fury and with burning anger, in order to make the land an object of astonishment, and that it may annihilate the land’s sinners out of it. [10] For the very stars of the heavens and their constellations of Ke′sil will not flash forth their light; the sun will actually grow dark at its going forth, and the moon itself will not cause its light to shine. [11] And I shall certainly bring home its own badness upon the productive land, and their own error upon the wicked themselves. And I shall actually cause the pride of the presumptuous ones to cease, and the haughtiness of the tyrants I shall abase. [12] I shall make mortal man rarer than refined gold, and earthling man rarer than the gold of O′phir. [13] That is why I shall cause heaven itself to become agitated, and the earth will rock out of its place at the fury of Jehovah of armies and at the day of his burning anger. [14] And it must occur that, like a gazelle chased away and like a flock without anyone to collect them together, they will turn, each one to his own people; and they will flee, each one to his own land. [15] Every one that is found will be pierced through, and every one that is caught in the sweep will fall by the sword; [16] and their very children will be dashed to pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be pillaged, and their own wives will be raped.

[17] “Here I am arousing against them the Medes, who account silver itself as nothing and who, as respects gold, take no delight in it. [18] And their bows will dash even young men to pieces. And the fruitage of the belly they will not pity; for sons their eye will not feel sorry. [19] And Babylon, the decoration of kingdoms, the beauty of the pride of the Chal·de′ans, must become as when God overthrew Sod′om and Go·mor′rah. [20] She will never be inhabited, nor will she reside for generation after generation. And there the Arab will not pitch his tent, and no shepherds will let their flocks lie down there. [21] And there the haunters of waterless regions will certainly lie down, and their houses must be filled with eagle owls. And there the ostriches must reside, and goat-shaped demons themselves will go skipping about there. [22] And jackals must howl in her dwelling towers, and the big snake will be in the palaces of exquisite delight. And the season for her is near to come, and her days themselves will not be postponed.”

14 For Jehovah will show mercy to Jacob, and he is yet certain to choose Israel; and he will actually give them rest upon their soil, and the alien resident must be joined to them, and they must attach themselves to the house of Jacob. [2] And peoples will actually take them and bring them to their own place, and the house of Israel must take them to themselves as a possession upon the soil of Jehovah as menservants and as maidservants; and they must become the captors of those holding them captive, and they must have in subjection those who were driving them to work.

[3] And it must occur in the day when Jehovah gives you rest from your pain and from your agitation and from the hard slavery in which you were made a slave, [4] that you must raise up this proverbial saying against the king of Babylon and say:

“How has the one driving others to work come to a stop, the oppression come to a stop! [5] Jehovah has broken the rod of the wicked ones, the staff of the ruling ones, [6] the one striking peoples in fury with a stroke incessantly, the one subduing nations in sheer anger with a persecution without restraint. [7] The whole earth has come to rest, has become free of disturbance. People have become cheerful with joyful cries. [8] Even the juniper trees have also rejoiced at you, the cedars of Leb′a·non, saying, ‘Ever since you have lain down, no woodcutter comes up against us.’

[9] “Even She′ol underneath has become agitated at you in order to meet you on coming in. At you it has awakened those impotent in death, all the goatlike leaders of the earth. It has made all the kings of the nations get up from their thrones. [10] All of them speak up and say to you, ‘Have you yourself also been made weak like us? Is it to us that you have been made comparable? [11] Down to She′ol your pride has been brought, the din of your stringed instruments. Beneath you, maggots are spread out as a couch; and worms are your covering.’

[12] “O how you have fallen from heaven, you shining one, son of the dawn! How you have been cut down to the earth, you who were disabling the nations! [13] As for you, you have said in your heart, ‘To the heavens I shall go up. Above the stars of God I shall lift up my throne, and I shall sit down upon the mountain of meeting, in the remotest parts of the north. [14] I shall go up above the high places of the clouds; I shall make myself resemble the Most High.’

[15] “However, down to She′ol you will be brought, to the remotest parts of the pit. [16] Those seeing you will gaze even at you; they will give close examination even to you, saying, ‘Is this the man that was agitating the earth, that was making kingdoms rock, [17] that made the productive land like the wilderness and that overthrew its very cities, that did not open the way homeward even for his prisoners?’ [18] All other kings of the nations, yes, all of them, have lain down in glory, each one in his own house. [19] But as for you, you have been thrown away without a burial place for you, like a detested sprout, clothed with killed men stabbed with the sword that are going down to the stones of a pit, like a carcass trodden down. [20] You will not become united with them in a grave, because you brought your own land to ruin, you killed your own people. To time indefinite the offspring of evildoers will not be named.

[21] “Make ready, YOU men, a slaughtering block for his own sons because of the error of their forefathers, that they may not rise up and actually take possession of the earth and fill the face of the productive land with cities.”

22 “And I will rise up against them,” is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.

“And I will cut off from Babylon name and remnant and progeny and posterity,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

23 “And I will make her a possession of porcupines and reedy pools of water, and I will sweep her with the broom of annihilation,” is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.

24 Jehovah of armies has sworn, saying: “Surely just as I have figured, so it must occur; and just as I have counseled, that is what will come true, 25 in order to break the As·syr′i·an in my land and that I may tread him down on my own mountains; and that his yoke may actually depart from upon them and that his very load may depart from upon their shoulder.”

26 This is the counsel that is counseled against all the earth, and this is the hand that is stretched out against all the nations. 27 For Jehovah of armies himself has counseled, and who can break it up? And his hand is the one stretched out, and who can turn it back?

28 In the year that King A′haz died this pronouncement occurred: 29 “Do not rejoice, O Phi·lis′ti·a, any one of you, just because the staff of the one striking you has been broken. For out of the root of the serpent there will come forth a poisonous snake, and its fruit will be a flying fiery snake. 30 And the firstborn ones of the lowly ones will certainly feed, and in security the poor ones themselves will lie down. And with famine I will put your root to death, and what remains over of you will be killed. 31 Howl, O gate! Cry out, O city! All of you must become disheartened, O Phi·lis′ti·a! For out of the north a smoke is coming, and there is no one getting isolated from his ranks.”

32 And what will anyone say in answer to the messengers of the nation? That Jehovah himself has laid the foundation of Zion, and in her the afflicted ones of his people will take refuge.

15 The pronouncement against Moʹab: Because in the night it has been despoiled, Ar of Moʹab itself has been silenced. Because in the night it has been despoiled, Kir of Moʹab itself has been silenced. [2] He has gone up to The House and to Diʹbon, to the high places, to a weeping. Over Neʹbo and over Medʹe·ba Moʹab itself howls. On all heads in it there is baldness; every beard is clipped. [3] In its streets they have girded on sackcloth. Upon the roofs thereof and in the public squares thereof everyone thereof howls, going down with weeping. [4] And Heshʹbon and E·le·aʹleh cry out. As far as Jaʹhaz their voice has been heard. That is why the armed men of Moʹab themselves keep shouting. His very soul has quivered within him.

[5] My own heart cries out over Moʹab himself. The runaways thereof are as far along as Zoʹar and Egʹlath-she·liʹshi·yah. For on the ascent of Luʹhith—with weeping each one goes up on it; for on the way to Hor·o·naʹim they arouse the outcry about the catastrophe. [6] For the very waters of Nimʹrim become sheer desolations. For the green grass has dried up, the grass has come to an end; nothing has become green. [7] That is why the leftovers and their stored goods that they have put up, they keep carrying them away right over the torrent valley of the poplars. [8] For the outcry has gone around the territory of Moʹab. The howling thereof is clear to Eg·laʹim; the howling thereof is clear to Beʹer-eʹlim, [9] because the very waters of Diʹmon have become full of blood. For upon Diʹmon I shall place additional things, such as a lion for the escapees of Moʹab who escape and for the remaining ones of the ground.

16 Send a ram, YOU men, to the ruler of the land, from Se′la toward the wilderness, to the mountain of the daughter of Zion.

[2] And it must occur that like a fleeing winged creature, chased away from its nest, the daughters of Mo′ab will become at the fords of Ar′non.

[3] “Bring in counsel, YOU men, execute the decision.

“Make your shadow just like the night in the midst of noontime. Conceal the dispersed ones; do not betray anyone fleeing. [4] May my dispersed ones reside as aliens even in you, O Mo′ab. Become a place of concealment to them because of the despoiler. For the oppressor has reached his end; the despoiling has terminated; those trampling down others have been finished off the earth.

[5] “And in loving-kindness a throne will certainly be firmly established; and one must sit down upon it in trueness in the tent of David, judging and seeking justice and being prompt in righteousness.”

[6] We have heard of the pride of Mo′ab, that he is very proud; his haughtiness and his pride and his fury—his empty talk will not be so. [7] Therefore Mo′ab will howl for Mo′ab; even all of it will howl. For the raisin cakes of Kir-har′e·seth the stricken ones indeed will moan, [8] because the terraces themselves of Hesh′bon have withered. The vine of Sib′mah—the owners of the nations themselves have smitten down its bright-red branches. As far as Ja′zer they had reached; they had wandered about in the wilderness. Its own shoots had been left to luxuriate for themselves; they had gone over to the sea.

[9] That is why I shall weep with the weeping of Jaʹzer over the vine of Sibʹmah. With my tears I shall drench you, O Heshʹbon and E·le·aʹleh, because shouting even over your summer and over your harvest has fallen down. [10] And rejoicing and joyfulness have been taken away from the orchard; and in the vineyards there is no joyful crying out, there is no shouting done. No wine in the presses does the treader tread out. Shouting I have caused to cease.

[11] That is why my very inwards are boisterous just like a harp even over Moʹab, and the midst of me over Kir-harʹe·seth.

[12] And it occurred that it was seen that Moʹab was made weary upon the high place; and he came to his sanctuary to pray, and he could not accomplish anything.

[13] This is the word that Jehovah spoke concerning Moʹab formerly. [14] And now Jehovah has spoken, saying: “Within three years, according to the years of a hired laborer, the glory of Moʹab must also be disgraced with much commotion of every sort, and those who remain over will be a trifling few, not mighty.”

17 The pronouncement against Damascus: “Look! Damascus removed from being a city, and she has become a heap, a decaying ruin. [2] The cities of A·roʹer that have been left behind become mere places for droves, where they actually lie down, with no one to make them tremble. [3] And the fortified city has been made to cease out of Eʹphra·im, and the kingdom out of Damascus; and those of Syria remaining over will become just like the glory of the sons of Israel,” is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.

[4] “And it must occur in that day that the glory of Jacob will become lowly, and even the fatness of his flesh will be made lean. [5] And it must occur that when the harvester is gathering the standing grain and his own arm harvests the ears of grain, he must even become like one gleaning ears of grain in the low plain of Rephʹa·im. [6] And there must remain in it a gleaning as when there is a beating off of the olive tree: two or three ripe olives in the top of the branch; four or five on the fruit-bearing boughs thereof,” is the utterance of Jehovah the God of Israel.

[7] In that day earthling man will look up to his Maker, and his own eyes will gaze at the Holy One of Israel himself. [8] And he will not look to the altars, the work of his hands; and at what his fingers have made he will not gaze, either at the sacred poles or at the incense stands. [9] In that day his fortress cities will become like a place left entirely in the woodland, even the branch that they have left entirely on account of the sons of Israel; and it must become a desolate waste. [10] For you have forgotten the God of your salvation; and the Rock of your fortress you have not remembered. That is why you plant pleasant plantations, and with the shoot of a stranger you set it. [11] In the day you may carefully fence about the plantation of yours, and in the morning you may cause the seed of yours to sprout, but the harvest will certainly flee in the day of the disease and incurable pain.

12 Ha for the commotion of many peoples, who are boisterous as with the boisterousness of the seas! And for the noise of national groups, who make a din just like the noise of mighty waters! 13 The national groups themselves will make a din just like the noise of many waters. And He will certainly rebuke it, and it must flee far away and be chased like the chaff of the mountains before a wind and like a thistle whirl before a storm wind. 14 At evening time, why, look! there is sudden terror. Before morning—it is no more. This is the share of those pillaging us, and the lot belonging to those plundering us.

18 Ha for the land of the whirring insects with wings, which is in the region of the rivers of E·thi·o′pi·a! [2] It is the one sending forth envoys by means of the sea, and by means of vessels of papyrus upon the surface of the waters, saying: “Go, YOU swift messengers, to a nation drawn out and scoured, to a people fear-inspiring everywhere, a nation of tensile strength and of treading down, whose land the rivers have washed away.”

[3] All YOU inhabitants of the productive land and YOU residents of the earth, YOU will see a sight just as when there is the raising up of a signal upon the mountains, and YOU will hear a sound just as when there is the blowing of a horn. [4] For this is what Jehovah has said to me: “I will keep undisturbed and look upon my established place, like the dazzling heat along with the light, like the cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. [5] For before the harvest, when the blossom comes to perfection and the bloom becomes a ripening grape, one must also cut off the sprigs with pruning shears and must remove the tendrils, must lop them off. [6] They will be left all together for the bird of prey of the mountains and for the beast of the earth. And upon it the bird of prey will certainly pass the summer, and upon it even every beast of the earth will pass the harvesttime.

[7] “In that time a gift will be brought to Jehovah of armies, from a people drawn out and scoured, even from a people fear-inspiring everywhere, a nation of tensile strength and of treading down, whose land the rivers have washed away, to the place of the name of Jehovah of armies, Mount Zion.”

19 The pronouncement against Egypt: Look! Jehovah is riding on a swift cloud and coming into Egypt. And the valueless gods of Egypt will certainly quiver because of him, and the very heart of Egypt will melt in the midst of it.

[2] “And I will goad Egyptians against Egyptians, and they will certainly war each one against his brother, and each one against his companion, city against city, kingdom against kingdom. [3] And the spirit of Egypt must become bewildered in the midst of it, and I shall confuse its own counsel. And they will be certain to resort to the valueless gods and to the charmers and to the spirit mediums and to the professional foretellers of events. [4] And I will deliver up Egypt into the hand of a hard master, and strong will be the king that will rule over them,” is the utterance of the true Lord, Jehovah of armies.

[5] And the water will certainly be dried up from the sea, and the river itself will become parched and actually run dry. [6] And the rivers must stink; the Nile canals of Egypt must become low and parched. The reed and the rush themselves must molder. [7] The bare places by the Nile River, at the mouth of the Nile River, and every seedland of the Nile River will dry up. It will certainly be driven away, and it will be no more. [8] And the fishers will have to mourn, and all those casting fishhooks into the Nile River must express sorrow, and even those spreading fishing nets upon the surface of the water will actually fade away. [9] And the workers in carded flax must become ashamed; also the loom workers on white fabrics. [10] And her weavers must become crushed, all the wage workers grieved in soul.

[11] The princes of Zoʹan are indeed foolish. As regards the wise ones of Pharʹaoh’s counselors, their counsel is something unreasonable. How will YOU men say to Pharʹaoh: “I am the son of wise ones, the son of kings of ancient time”? [12] Where, then, are they—the wise men of yours—that they may now tell you and that they may know what Jehovah of armies has counseled concerning Egypt? [13] The princes of Zoʹan have acted foolishly, the princes of Noph have been deceived, the keymen of her tribes have caused Egypt to wander about. [14] Jehovah himself has mingled in the midst of her the spirit of disconcertedness; and they have caused Egypt to wander about in all its work, just as someone drunk is made to wander about in his vomit. [15] And Egypt will not come to have any work that the head or the tail, the shoot or the rush, can do.

[16] In that day Egypt will become like women, and it will certainly tremble and be in dread because of the waving of the hand of Jehovah of armies which he is waving against it. [17] And the ground of Judah must become to Egypt a cause for reeling. Everybody to whom one mentions it is in dread because of the counsel of Jehovah of armies that he is counseling against him.

[18] In that day there will prove to be five cities in the land of Egypt speaking the language of Caʹnaan and swearing to Jehovah of armies. The City of Tearing Down will one city be called.

[19] In that day there will prove to be an altar to Jehovah in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to Jehovah beside its boundary. [20] And it must prove to be for a sign and for a witness to Jehovah of armies in the land of Egypt; for they will cry out to Jehovah because of the oppressors, and he will send them a savior, even a grand one, who will actually deliver them. [21] And Jehovah will certainly become known to the Egyptians; and the Egyptians must know Jehovah in that day, and they must render sacrifice and gift and must make a vow to Jehovah and pay it. [22] And Jehovah will certainly deal Egypt a blow. There will be a dealing of a blow and a healing; and they must return to Jehovah, and he must let himself be entreated by them and must heal them.

[23] In that day there will come to be a highway out of Egypt to As·syr′i·a, and As·syr′i·a will actually come into Egypt, and Egypt into As·syr′i·a; and they will certainly render service, Egypt with As·syr′i·a. [24] In that day Israel will come to be the third with Egypt and with As·syr′i·a, namely, a blessing in the midst of the earth, [25] because Jehovah of armies will have blessed it, saying: “Blessed be my people, Egypt, and the work of my hands, As·syr′i·a, and my inheritance, Israel.”

20 In the year that Tar′tan came to Ash′dod, when Sar′gon the king of As·syr′i·a sent him, and he proceeded to war against Ash′dod and to capture it; [2] at that time Jehovah spoke by the hand of Isaiah the son of A′moz, saying: “Go, and you must loosen the sackcloth from off your hips; and your sandals you should draw from off your feet.” And he proceeded to do so, walking about naked and barefoot.

[3] And Jehovah went on to say: “Just as my servant Isaiah has walked about naked and barefoot three years as a sign and a portent against Egypt and against E·thi·o′pi·a, [4] so the king of As·syr′i·a will lead the body of captives of Egypt and the exiles of E·thi·o′pi·a, boys and old men, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks stripped, the nakedness of Egypt. [5] And they will certainly be terrified and be ashamed of E·thi·o′pi·a their looked-for hope and of Egypt their beauty. [6] And the inhabitant of this coastland will be certain to say in that day, ‘There is how our looked-for hope is, to which we fled for assistance, in order to be delivered because of the king of As·syr′i·a! And how shall we ourselves escape?’”

21 The pronouncement against the wilderness of the sea: Like storm winds in the south in moving onward, from the wilderness it is coming, from a fear-inspiring land. [2] There is a hard vision that has been told to me: The treacherous dealer is dealing treacherously, and the despoiler is despoiling. Go up, O E′lam! Lay siege, O Me′di·a! All sighing due to her I have caused to cease. [3] That is why my hips have become full of severe pains. Convulsions themselves have grabbed hold of me, like the convulsions of a woman that is giving birth. I have become disconcerted so that I do not hear; I have become disturbed so that I do not see. [4] My heart has wandered about; a shuddering itself has terrified me. The twilight for which I had an attachment has been made for me a trembling.

[5] Let there be a setting of the table in order, an arranging of the location of seats, an eating, a drinking! Get up, YOU princes, anoint the shield. [6] For this is what Jehovah has said to me:

“Go, post a lookout that he may tell just what he sees.”

[7] And he saw a war chariot with a span of steeds, a war chariot of asses, a war chariot of camels. And he paid strict attention, with much attentiveness. [8] And he proceeded to call out like a lion: “Upon the watchtower, O Jehovah, I am standing constantly by day, and at my guardpost I am stationed all the nights. [9] And here, now, there is coming a war chariot of men, with a span of steeds!”

And he began to speak up and say: “She has fallen! Babylon has fallen, and all the graven images of her gods he has broken to the earth!”

[10] O my threshed ones and the son of my threshing floor, what I have heard from Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, I have reported to YOU people.

[11] The pronouncement against Du′mah: To me there is one calling out from Se′ir: “Watchman, what about the night? Watchman, what about the night?” [12] The watchman said: “The morning has to come, and also the night. If YOU people would inquire, inquire. Come again!”

[13] The pronouncement against the desert plain: In the forest in the desert plain YOU will spend the night, O caravans of men of De′dan. [14] To meet the thirsty one BRING water. O YOU inhabitants of the land of Te′ma, confront the one fleeing away with bread for him. [15] For because of the swords they have fled away, because of the drawn sword, and because of the bent bow and because of the heaviness of the war.

[16] For this is what Jehovah has said to me: “Within yet a year, according to the years of a hired laborer, all the glory of Ke′dar must even come to its end. [17] And the ones remaining over of the number of bowmen, the mighty men of the sons of Ke′dar, will become few, for Jehovah himself, the God of Israel, has spoken it.”

22 The pronouncement of the valley of the vision: What is the matter with you, then, that you have gone up in your entirety to the roofs? [2] With turmoil you were full, a boisterous city, an exultant town. Your slain ones are not those slain with the sword, nor those dead in battle. [3] All your dictators themselves have fled at one time. Without need of a bow they have been taken prisoner. All those of you who have been found have been taken prisoner together. Far off they had run away.

[4] That is why I have said: “Turn YOUR gaze away from me. I will show bitterness in weeping. Do not YOU people insist on comforting me over the despoiling of the daughter of my people. [5] For it is the day of confusion and of downtreading and of confounding that the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, has in the valley of the vision. There is the demolisher of the wall, and the cry to the mountain. [6] And E′lam itself has taken up the quiver, in the war chariot of earthling man, with steeds; and Kir itself has uncovered the shield. [7] And it will occur that the choicest of your low plains must become full of war chariots, and the very steeds must without fail set themselves in position at the gate, [8] and one will remove the screen of Judah. And you will look in that day toward the armory of the house of the forest, [9] and YOU people will certainly see the very breaches of the City of David, for they will actually be many. And YOU will collect the waters of the lower pool. [10] And the houses of Jerusalem YOU will actually count. YOU will also pull down the houses to make the wall unattainable. [11] And there will be a collecting basin that YOU must make between the two walls for the waters of the old pool. And YOU will certainly not look at the Grand Maker of it, and the one forming it long ago YOU will certainly not see.

[12] “And the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, will call in that day for weeping and for mourning and for baldness and for girding on sackcloth. [13] But, look! exultation and rejoicing, the killing of cattle and the slaughtering of sheep, the eating of flesh and the drinking of wine, ‘Let there be eating and drinking, for tomorrow we shall die.’”

[14] And in my ears Jehovah of armies has revealed himself: “‘This error will not be atoned for in YOUR behalf until YOU people die,’ the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, has said.”

[15] This is what the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, has said: “Go, enter in to this steward, to Sheb′na, who is over the house, [16] ‘What is there of interest to you here, and who is there of interest to you here, that you have hewed out for yourself here a burial place?’ On a height he is hewing out his burial place; in a crag he is cutting out a residence for himself. [17] ‘Look! Jehovah is hurling you down with violent hurling, O able-bodied man, and grasping you forcibly. [18] Without fail he will wrap you up tightly, like a ball for a wide land. There you will die, and there the chariots of your glory will be the dishonor of the house of your master. [19] And I will push you away from your position; and from your official standing one will tear you down.

[20] “‘And it must occur in that day that I will call my servant, namely, E·li′a·kim the son of Hil·ki′ah. [21] And I will clothe him with your robe, and your sash I shall firmly bind about him, and your dominion I shall give into his hand; and he must become a father to the inhabitant of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. [22] And I will put the key of the house of David upon his shoulder, and he must open without anyone’s shutting, and he must shut without anyone’s opening. [23] And I will drive him in as a peg in a lasting place, and he must become as a throne of glory to the house of his father. [24] And they must hang upon him all the glory of the house of his father, the descendants and the offshoots, all the vessels of the small sort, the vessels of the bowl sort as well as all the vessels of the large jars.

[25] “‘In that day,’ is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, ‘the peg that is driven in a lasting place will be removed, and it must be hewn down and fall, and the load that is upon it must be cut off, for Jehovah himself has spoken it.’”

23 The pronouncement of Tyre: Howl, YOU ships of Tar′shish! for it has been despoiled from being a port, from being a place to enter in. From the land of Kit′tim it has been revealed to them. [2] Be silent, YOU inhabitants of the coastland. The merchants from Si′don, the ones crossing over the sea—they have filled you. [3] And on many waters has been the seed of Shi′hor, the harvest of the Nile, her revenue; and it came to be the profit of the nations.

[4] Be ashamed, O Si′don; because the sea, O you stronghold of the sea, has said: “I have not had birth pains, and I have not given birth, nor have I brought up young men, raised up virgins.” [5] Just as at the report pertaining to Egypt, people will likewise be in severe pains at the report on Tyre. [6] Cross over to Tar′shish; howl, YOU inhabitants of the coastland. [7] Is this YOUR city that was exultant from days of long ago, from her early times? Her feet used to bring her far away to reside as an alien.

[8] Who is it that has given this counsel against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, whose merchants were princes, whose tradesmen were the honorable ones of the earth?

[9] Jehovah of armies himself has given this counsel, to profane the pride of all beauty, to treat with contempt all the honorable ones of the earth.

[10] Cross over your land like the Nile River, O daughter of Tar′shish. There is no shipyard any longer. [11] His hand he has stretched out over the sea; he has caused kingdoms to be agitated. Jehovah himself has given a command against Phoe·ni′cia, to annihilate her strongholds. [12] And he says: “You must never again exult, O oppressed one, the virgin daughter of Si′don. Get up, cross over to Kit′tim itself. Even there it will not be restful for you.”

13 Look! The land of the Chal·de′ans. This is the people—As·syr′i·a did not prove to be the one—they founded her for the desert haunters. They have erected their siege towers; they have stripped bare her dwelling towers; one has set her as a crumbling ruin.

14 Howl, YOU ships of Tar′shish, for YOUR stronghold has been despoiled.

15 And it must occur in that day that Tyre must be forgotten seventy years, the same as the days of one king. At the end of seventy years it will happen to Tyre as in the song of a prostitute: 16 “Take a harp, go around the city, O forgotten prostitute. Do your best at playing on the strings; make your songs many, in order that you may be remembered.”

17 And it must occur at the end of seventy years that Jehovah will turn his attention to Tyre, and she must return to her hire and commit prostitution with all the kingdoms of the earth upon the surface of the ground. 18 And her profit and her hire must become something holy to Jehovah. It will not be stored up, nor be laid up, because her hire will come to be for those dwelling before Jehovah, for eating to satisfaction and for elegant covering.

24 Look! Jehovah is emptying the land and laying it waste, and he has twisted the face of it and scattered its inhabitants. [2] And it must come to be the same for the people as for the priest; the same for the servant as for his master; the same for the maidservant as for her mistress; the same for the buyer as for the seller; the same for the lender as for the borrower; the same for the interest taker as for the one paying the interest. [3] Without fail the land will be emptied, and without fail it will be plundered, for Jehovah himself has spoken this word. [4] The land has gone to mourning, has faded away. The productive land has withered, has faded away. The high ones of the people of the land have withered. [5] And the very land has been polluted under its inhabitants, for they have bypassed the laws, changed the regulation, broken the indefinitely lasting covenant. [6] That is why the curse itself has eaten up the land, and those inhabiting it are held guilty. That is why the inhabitants of the land have decreased in number, and very few mortal men have remained over.

[7] The new wine has gone to mourning, the vine has withered, all those glad at heart have gone to sighing. [8] The exultation of the tambourines has ceased, the noise of the highly elated ones has discontinued, the exultation of the harp has ceased. [9] It is with no song that they drink wine; the intoxicating liquor becomes bitter to those drinking it. [10] The deserted town has been broken down; every house has been shut up from entering. [11] There is an outcry in the streets for want of wine. All rejoicing has passed away; the exultation of the land has departed. [12] In the city an astonishing condition has been left behind; the gate has been crushed to a mere rubble heap.

[13] For thus it will become in the midst of the land, in among the peoples, like the beating off of the olive tree, like the gleaning when the grape gathering has come to an end. [14] They themselves will raise their voice, they will cry out joyfully. In the superiority of Jehovah they will certainly cry out shrilly from the sea. [15] That is why in the region of light they must glorify Jehovah, in the islands of the sea the name of Jehovah, the God of Israel. [16] From the extremity of the land there are melodies that we have heard: “Decoration to the Righteous One! ”

But I say: “For me there is leanness, for me there is leanness! Woe to me! The treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously. Even with treachery the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously.”

[17] Dread and the hollow and the trap are upon you, you inhabitant of the land. [18] And it must occur that anyone fleeing from the sound of the dreaded thing will fall into the hollow, and anyone coming up from inside the hollow will be caught in the trap. For the very floodgates on high will actually be opened, and the foundations of the land will rock. [19] The land has absolutely burst apart, the land has absolutely been shaken up, the land has absolutely been sent staggering. [20] The land absolutely moves unsteadily like a drunken man, and it has swayed to and fro like a lookout hut. And its transgression has become heavy upon it, and it must fall, so that it will not rise up again.

[21] And it must occur in that day that Jehovah will turn his attention upon the army of the height in the height, and upon the kings of the ground upon the ground. [22] And they will certainly be gathered with a gathering as of prisoners into the pit, and be shut up in the dungeon; and after an abundance of days they will be given attention. [23] And the full moon has become abashed, and the glowing sun has become ashamed, for Jehovah of armies has become king in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem and in front of his elderly men with glory.

25 O Jehovah, you are my God. I exalt you, I laud your name, for you have done wonderful things, counsels from early times, in faithfulness, in trustworthiness. [2] For you have made a city a pile of stones, a fortified town a crumbling ruin, a dwelling tower of strangers to be no city, which will not be rebuilt even to time indefinite. [3] That is why those who are a strong people will glorify you; the town of the tyrannical nations, they will fear you. [4] For you have become a stronghold to the lowly one, a stronghold to the poor one in the distress that he has, a refuge from the rainstorm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the tyrannical ones is like a rainstorm against a wall. [5] Like the heat in a waterless country, the noise of strangers you subdue, the heat with the shadow of a cloud. The melody itself of the tyrannical ones becomes suppressed.

[6] And Jehovah of armies will certainly make for all the peoples, in this mountain, a banquet of well-oiled dishes, a banquet of wine kept on the dregs, of well-oiled dishes filled with marrow, of wine kept on the dregs, filtered. [7] And in this mountain he will certainly swallow up the face of the envelopment that is enveloping over all the peoples, and the woven work that is interwoven upon all the nations. [8] He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken it.

[9] And in that day one will certainly say: “Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.”

[10] For the hand of Jehovah will settle down on this mountain, and Moʹab must be trodden down in its place as when a straw heap is trodden down in a manure place. [11] And he must slap out his hands in the midst of it as when a swimmer slaps them out to swim, and he must abase its haughtiness with the tricky movements of his hands. [12] And the fortified city, with your high walls of security, he must lay low; he must abase it, bring it into contact with the earth, to the dust.

26 In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: “We have a strong city. He sets salvation itself for walls and rampart. [2] Open the gates, YOU men, that the righteous nation that is keeping faithful conduct may enter. [3] The inclination that is well supported you will safeguard in continuous peace, because it is in you that one is made to trust. [4] Trust in Jehovah, YOU people, for all times, for in Jah Jehovah is the Rock of times indefinite.

[5] “For he has laid low those inhabiting the height, the elevated town. He abases it, he abases it to the earth; he brings it in touch with the dust. [6] The foot will trample it down, the feet of the afflicted one, the steps of the lowly ones.”

[7] The path of the righteous one is uprightness. You being upright, you will smooth out the very course of a righteous one. [8] Yes, for the path of your judgments, O Jehovah, we have hoped in you. For your name and for your memorial the desire of the soul has been. [9] With my soul I have desired you in the night; yes, with my spirit within me I keep looking for you; because, when there are judgments from you for the earth, righteousness is what the inhabitants of the productive land will certainly learn. [10] Though the wicked one should be shown favor, he simply will not learn righteousness. In the land of straightforwardness he will act unjustly and will not see the eminence of Jehovah.

[11] O Jehovah, your hand has become high, but they do not behold it. They will behold and be ashamed at the zeal for your people. Yes, the very fire for your own adversaries will eat them up. [12] O Jehovah, you will adjudge peace to us, because even all our works you have performed for us. [13] O

Jehovah our God, other masters besides you have acted as owners of us. By you only shall we make mention of your name. [14] They are dead; they will not live. Impotent in death, they will not rise up. Therefore you have turned your attention that you might annihilate them and destroy all mention of them.

[15] You have added to the nation; O Jehovah, you have added to the nation; you have glorified yourself. You have extended afar all the borders of the land. [16] O Jehovah, during distress they have turned their attention to you; they have poured out a whisper of prayer when they had your disciplining. [17] Just as a pregnant woman draws near to giving birth, has labor pains, cries out in her birth pangs, so we have become because of you, O Jehovah. [18] We have become pregnant, we have had labor pains; as it were, we have given birth to wind. No real salvation do we accomplish as regards the land, and no inhabitants for the productive land proceed to fall in birth.

[19] “Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine—they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop in birth.

[20] “Go, my people, enter into your interior rooms, and shut your doors behind you. Hide yourself for but a moment until the denunciation passes over. [21] For, look! Jehovah is coming forth from his place to call to account the error of the inhabitant of the land against him, and the land will certainly expose her bloodshed and will no longer cover over her killed ones.”

27 In that day Jehovah, with his hard and great and strong sword, will turn his attention to Le·vi′a·than, the gliding serpent, even to Le·vi′a·than, the crooked serpent, and he will certainly kill the sea monster that is in the sea.

[2] In that day sing to her, YOU people: “A vineyard of foaming wine! [3] I, Jehovah, am safeguarding her. Every moment I shall water her. In order that no one may turn his attention against her, I shall safeguard her even night and day. [4] There is no rage that I have. Who will give me thornbushes and weeds in the battle? I will step on such. I will set such on fire at the same time. [5] Otherwise let him take hold of my stronghold, let him make peace with me; peace let him make with me.”

[6] In the coming days Jacob will take root, Israel will put forth blossoms and actually sprout; and they will simply fill the surface of the productive land with produce.

[7] As with the stroke of one striking him does one have to strike him? Or as with the slaughter of his killed ones does he have to be killed? [8] With a scare cry you will contend with her when sending her forth. He must expel her with his blast, a hard one in the day of the east wind. [9] Therefore by this means the error of Jacob will be atoned for, and this is all the fruit when he takes away his sin, when he makes all the stones of the altar like chalkstones that have been pulverized, so that the sacred poles and the incense stands will not rise up. [10] For the fortified city will be solitary, the pasture ground will be left to itself and abandoned like a wilderness. There the calf will graze, and there it will lie down; and he will actually consume her boughs. [11] When her sprigs have dried up, women coming in will break them off, lighting them up. For it is not a people of keen understanding. That is why its Maker will show it no mercy, and its own Former will show it no favor.

12 And it must occur in that day that Jehovah will beat off the fruit, from the flowing stream of the River to the torrent valley of Egypt, and so YOU yourselves will be picked up one after the other, O sons of Israel. 13 And it must occur in that day that there will be a blowing on a great horn, and those who are perishing in the land of As·syrʹi·a and those who are dispersed in the land of Egypt will certainly come and bow down to Jehovah in the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

28 Woe to the eminent crown of the drunkards of E′phra·im, and the fading blossom of its decoration of beauty that is upon the head of the fertile valley of those overpowered by wine! [2] Look! Jehovah has someone strong and vigorous. Like a thunderous storm of hail, a destructive storm, like a thunderous storm of powerful, flooding waters, he will certainly do a casting down to the earth with force. [3] With the feet the eminent crowns of the drunkards of E′phra·im will be trampled down. [4] And the fading flower of its decoration of beauty that is upon the head of the fertile valley must become like the early fig before summer, that, when the seer sees it, while it is yet in his palm, he swallows it down.

[5] In that day Jehovah of armies will become as a crown of decoration and as a garland of beauty to the ones remaining over of his people, [6] and as a spirit of justice to the one sitting in the judgment, and as mightiness to those turning away the battle from the gate.

[7] And these also—because of wine they have gone astray and because of intoxicating liquor they have wandered about. Priest and prophet—they have gone astray because of intoxicating liquor, they have become confused as a result of the wine, they have wandered about as a result of the intoxicating liquor; they have gone astray in their seeing, they have reeled as to decision. [8] For the tables themselves have all become full of filthy vomit—there is no place without it.

[9] Whom will one instruct in knowledge, and whom will one make understand what has been heard? Those who have been weaned from the milk, those moved away from the breasts? 10 For it is “command upon command, command upon command, measuring line upon measuring line, measuring line upon measuring line, here a little, there a little.” 11 For by those stammering with their lips and by a different tongue he will speak to this people, 12 those to whom he has said: “This is the resting-place. GIVE rest to the weary one. And this is the place of ease,” but who were not willing to hear. 13 And to them the word of Jehovah will certainly become “command upon command, command upon command, measuring line upon measuring line, measuring line upon measuring line, here a little, there a little,” in order that they may go and certainly stumble backwards and actually be broken and ensnared and caught.

14 Therefore hear the word of Jehovah, YOU braggarts, YOU rulers of this people who are in Jerusalem: 15 Because YOU men have said: “We have concluded a covenant with Death; and with She′ol we have effected a vision; the overflowing flash flood, in case it should pass through, will not come to us, for we have made a lie our refuge and in falsehood we have concealed ourselves”; 16 therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am laying as a foundation in Zion a stone, a tried stone, the precious corner of a sure foundation. No one exercising faith will get panicky. 17 And I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the leveling instrument; and the hail must sweep away the refuge of a lie, and the waters themselves will flood out the very place of concealment. 18 And YOUR covenant with Death will certainly be dissolved, and that vision of YOURS with She′ol will not stand. The overflowing flash flood, when it passes through—YOU must also become for it a trampling place. 19 As often as it passes through, it will take YOU men away, because morning by morning it will pass through, during the day and during the night; and it must become nothing but a reason for quaking to make others understand what has been heard.”

[20] For the couch has proved too short for stretching oneself on, and the woven sheet itself is too narrow when wrapping oneself up. [21] For Jehovah will rise up just as at Mount Pe·ra′zim, he will be agitated just as in the low plain near Gib′e·on, that he may do his deed—his deed is strange—and that he may work his work—his work is unusual. [22] And now do not show yourselves scoffers, in order that YOUR bands may not grow strong, for there is an extermination, even something decided upon, that I have heard of from the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, for all the land.

[23] Give ear, YOU men, and listen to my voice; pay attention and listen to my saying. [24] Is it all day long that the plower plows in order to sow seed, that he loosens and harrows his ground? [25] Does he not, when he has smoothed out its surface, then scatter black cumin and sprinkle the cumin, and must he not put in wheat, millet, and barley in the appointed place, and spelt as his boundary? [26] And one corrects him according to what is right. His own God instructs him. [27] For it is not with a threshing instrument that black cumin is given a treading; and upon cumin no wheel of a wagon is turned. For it is with a rod that black cumin is generally beaten out, and cumin with a staff. [28] Is breadstuff itself generally crushed? For never does one incessantly keep treading it out. And he must set the roller of his wagon in motion, and his own steeds, but he will not crush it. [29] This also is what has come forth from Jehovah of armies himself, who has been wonderful in counsel, who has done greatly in effectual working.

29 “Woe to Ar′i·el, to Ar′i·el, the town where David encamped! Add year upon year, YOU people; let the festivals run the round. [2] And I have to make things tight for Ar′i·el, and there must come to be mourning and lamentation, and she must become to me as the altar hearth of God. [3] And I must encamp on all sides against you, and I must lay siege to you with a palisade and raise up against you siegeworks. [4] And you must become low so that you will speak from the very earth, and as from the dust your saying will sound low. And like a spirit medium your voice must become even from the earth, and from the dust your own saying will chirp. [5] And the crowd of those strange to you must become just like fine powder, and the crowd of the tyrants just like the chaff that is passing away. And it must occur in an instant, suddenly. [6] From Jehovah of armies you will have attention with thunder and with quaking and with a great sound, storm wind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire.”

[7] And it must occur just as in a dream, in a vision of the night, regarding the crowd of all the nations that are waging war against Ar′i·el, even all those waging war against her, and the siege towers against her and those making things tight for her. [8] Yes, it must occur just as when someone hungry dreams and here he is eating, and he actually awakes and his soul is empty; and just as when someone thirsty dreams and here he is drinking, and he actually awakes and here he is tired and his soul is dried out; thus it will occur with the crowd of all the nations that are waging war against Mount Zion.

[9] Linger, YOU men, and be amazed; blind yourselves, and be blinded. They have become intoxicated, but not with wine; they have moved unsteadily, but not because of intoxicating liquor.

10 For upon YOU men Jehovah has poured a spirit of deep sleep; and he closes YOUR eyes, the prophets, and he has covered even YOUR heads, the visionaries. 11 And for YOU men the vision of everything becomes like the words of the book that has been sealed up, which they give to someone knowing the writing, saying: “Read this out loud, please,” and he has to say: “I am unable, for it is sealed up”; 12 and the book must be given to someone that does not know writing, somebody saying: “Read this out loud, please,” and he has to say: “I do not know writing at all.”

13 And Jehovah says: “For the reason that this people have come near with their mouth, and they have glorified me merely with their lips, and they have removed their heart itself far away from me, and their fear toward me becomes men’s commandment that is being taught, 14 therefore here I am, the One that will act wonderfully again with this people, in a wonderful manner and with something wonderful; and the wisdom of their wise men must perish, and the very understanding of their discreet men will conceal itself.”

15 Woe to those who are going very deep in concealing counsel from Jehovah himself, and whose deeds have occurred in a dark place, while they say: “Who is seeing us, and who is knowing of us?” 16 The perversity of YOU men! Should the potter himself be accounted just like the clay? For should the thing made say respecting its maker: “He did not make me”? And does the very thing formed actually say respecting its former: “He showed no understanding”?

17 Is it not yet but a very little time and Leb′a·non must be turned into an orchard and the orchard itself will be accounted just as a forest? [18] And in that day the deaf ones will certainly hear the words of the book, and out of the gloom and out of the darkness even the eyes of the blind ones will see. [19] And the meek ones will certainly increase their rejoicing in Jehovah himself, and even the poor ones of mankind will be joyful in the Holy One of Israel himself, [20] because the tyrant must reach his end, and the bragger must come to his finish, and all those keeping alert to do harm must be cut off, [21] those bringing a man into sin by his word, and those who lay bait even for the one reproving in the gate, and those who push aside the righteous one with empty arguments.

[22] Therefore this is what Jehovah has said to the house of Jacob, he that redeemed Abraham: “Jacob will not now be ashamed, nor will his own face now grow pale; [23] for when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him, they will sanctify my name, and they will certainly sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and the God of Israel they will regard with awe. [24] And those who are erring in their spirit will actually get to know understanding, and even those who are grumbling will learn instruction.”

30 “Woe to the stubborn sons,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “those disposed to carry out counsel, but not that from me; and to pour out a libation, but not with my spirit, in order to add sin to sin; [2] those who are setting out to go down to Egypt and who have not inquired of my own mouth, to take shelter in the stronghold of Pharʹaoh and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt! [3] And the stronghold of Pharʹaoh must become even for YOU men a reason for shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt a cause for humiliation. [4] For his princes have come to be in Zoʹan itself, and his own envoys reach even Haʹnes. [5] Every one will certainly become ashamed of a people that bring no benefit to one, that are of no help and bring no benefit, but are a reason for shame and also a cause for reproach.”

[6] The pronouncement against the beasts of the south: Through the land of distress and hard conditions, of the lion and the leopard growling, of the viper and the flying fiery snake, on the shoulders of full-grown asses they carry their resources, and on the humps of camels their supplies. In behalf of the people they will prove of no benefit. [7] And the Egyptians are mere vanity, and they will help simply for nothing. Therefore I have called this one: “Raʹhab—they are for sitting still.”

[8] “Now come, write it upon a tablet with them, and inscribe it even in a book, that it may serve for a future day, for a witness to time indefinite. [9] For it is a rebellious people, untruthful sons, sons who have been unwilling to hear the law of Jehovah; [10] who have said to the ones seeing, ‘YOU must not see,’ and to the ones having visions, ‘YOU must not envision for us any straightforward things. Speak to us smooth things; envision deceptive things. [11] Turn aside from the way; deviate from the path. Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease just on account of us.'"

12 Therefore this is what the Holy One of Israel has said: "In view of YOUR rejecting of this word, and since YOU men trust in defrauding and in what is devious and YOU support yourselves on it, 13 therefore for YOU this error will become like a broken section about to fall down, a swelling out in a highly raised wall, the breakdown of which may come suddenly, in an instant. 14 And one will certainly break it as in the breaking of a large jar of the potters, crushed to pieces without one's sparing it, so that there cannot be found among its crushed pieces a fragment of earthenware with which to rake the fire from the fireplace or to skim water from a marshy place."

15 For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, has said: "By coming back and resting YOU people will be saved. YOUR mightiness will prove to be simply in keeping undisturbed and in trustfulness." But YOU were not willing. 16 And YOU proceeded to say: "No, but on horses we shall flee! " That is why YOU will flee. "And on swift horses we shall ride! " That is why those pursuing YOU will show themselves swift. 17 A thousand will tremble on account of the rebuke of one; on account of the rebuke of five YOU will flee until YOU will have remained over like a mast on the top of a mountain and like a signal on a hill.

18 And therefore Jehovah will keep in expectation of showing YOU favor, and therefore he will rise up to show YOU mercy. For Jehovah is a God of judgment. Happy are all those keeping in expectation of him. 19 When the very people in Zion will dwell in Jerusalem, you will by no means weep. He will without fail show you favor at the sound of your outcry; as soon as he hears it he will actually answer you. 20 And Jehovah will certainly give YOU people bread in the form of distress and water in the form of oppression; yet your Grand Instructor will no longer hide himself, and your eyes must become eyes seeing your Grand Instructor. [21] And your own ears will hear a word behind you saying: “This is the way. Walk in it, YOU people,” in case YOU people should go to the right or in case YOU should go to the left.

[22] And YOU people must defile the overlaying of your graven images of silver and the close-fitting covering of your molten statue of gold. You will scatter them. Like a menstruating woman, you will say to it: “Mere dirt! ” [23] And he will certainly give the rain for your seed with which you sow the ground, and as the produce of the ground bread, which must become fat and oily. Your livestock will graze in that day in a spacious pasture. [24] And the cattle and the full-grown asses cultivating the ground will eat fodder seasoned with sorrel, which was winnowed with the shovel and with the fork. [25] And upon every high mountain and upon every elevated hill there must come to be streams, water ditches, in the day of the big slaughter when the towers fall. [26] And the light of the full moon must become as the light of the glowing sun; and the very light of the glowing sun will become seven times as much, like the light of seven days, in the day that Jehovah binds up the breakdown of his people and heals even the severe wound resulting from the stroke by him.

[27] Look! The name of Jehovah is coming from far away, burning with his anger and with heavy clouds. As for his lips, they have become full of denunciation, and his tongue is like a devouring fire. [28] And his spirit is like a flooding torrent that reaches clear to the neck, to swing the nations to and fro with a sieve of worthlessness; and a bridle that causes one to wander about will be in the jaws of the peoples. [29] YOU people will come to have a song like that in the night that one sanctifies oneself for a festival, and rejoicing of heart like that of one walking with a flute to enter into the mountain of Jehovah, to the Rock of Israel.

30 And Jehovah will certainly make the dignity of his voice to be heard and will make the descending of his arm to be seen, in the raging of anger and the flame of a devouring fire and cloudburst and rainstorm and hailstones. 31 For because of the voice of Jehovah As·syr′i·a will be struck with terror; he will strike it even with a staff. 32 And every swing of his rod of chastisement that Jehovah will cause to settle down upon As·syr′i·a will certainly prove to be with tambourines and with harps; and with battles of brandishing he will actually fight against them. 33 For his To′pheth is set in order from recent times; it is also prepared for the king himself. He has made its pile deep. Fire and wood are in abundance. The breath of Jehovah, like a torrent of sulphur, is burning against it.

31 Woe to those going down to Egypt for assistance, those who rely on mere horses, and who put their trust in war chariots, because they are numerous, and in steeds, because they are very mighty, but who have not looked to the Holy One of Israel and have not searched for Jehovah himself. [2] And he is also wise and will bring in what is calamitous, and he has not called back his own words; and he will certainly rise up against the house of evildoers and against the assistance of those practicing what is hurtful.

[3] The Egyptians, though, are earthling men, and not God; and their horses are flesh, and not spirit. And Jehovah himself will stretch out his hand, and he that is offering help will have to stumble, and he that is being helped will have to fall, and at the same time they will all of them come to an end.

[4] For this is what Jehovah has said to me: “Just as the lion growls, even the maned young lion, over its prey, when there is called out against it a full number of shepherds, and in spite of their voice he will not be terrified and in spite of their commotion he will not stoop; in the same way Jehovah of armies will come down to wage war over Mount Zion and over her hill. [5] Like birds flying, Jehovah of armies will in the same way defend Jerusalem. Defending her, he will also certainly deliver her. Sparing her, he must also cause her to escape.”

[6] “Return, YOU people, to the One against whom the sons of Israel have gone deep in their revolt. [7] For in that day they will reject each one his worthless gods of silver and his valueless gods of gold, that YOUR hands have made for yourselves as a sin. [8] And the As·syr′i·an must fall by the sword, not that of a man; and a sword, not that of earthling man, will devour him. And he must flee because of the sword, and his own young men will come to be for forced labor itself. [9] And his own crag will pass away out of sheer fright, and because of the signal his princes must be terrified,” is the utterance of Jehovah, whose light is in Zion and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

32 Look! A king will reign for righteousness itself; and as respects princes, they will rule as princes for justice itself. [2] And each one must prove to be like a hiding place from the wind and a place of concealment from the rainstorm, like streams of water in a waterless country, like the shadow of a heavy crag in an exhausted land.

[3] And the eyes of those seeing will not be pasted together, and the very ears of those hearing will pay attention. [4] And the heart itself of those who are overhasty will consider knowledge, and even the tongue of the stammerers will be quick in speaking clear things. [5] The senseless one will no longer be called generous; and as for the unprincipled man, he will not be said to be noble; [6] because the senseless one himself will speak mere senselessness, and his very heart will work at what is hurtful, to work at apostasy and to speak against Jehovah what is wayward, to cause the soul of the hungry one to go empty, and he causes even the thirsty one to go without drink itself. [7] As for the unprincipled man, his instruments are bad; he himself has given counsel for acts of loose conduct, to wreck the afflicted ones with false sayings, even when someone poor speaks what is right.

[8] As regards the generous one, it is for generous things that he has given counsel; and in favor of generous things he himself will rise up.

[9] “YOU women who are at ease, rise up, listen to my voice! YOU careless daughters, give ear to my saying! [10] Within a year and some days YOU careless ones will be agitated, because the grape picking will have come to an end but no fruit gathering will come in. [11] Tremble, YOU women who are at ease! Be agitated, YOU careless ones! Undress and make yourselves naked, and gird sackcloth upon the loins. [12] Beat yourselves upon the breasts in lamentation over the desirable fields, over the fruit-bearing vine. [13] Upon the ground of my people merely thorns, spiny bushes come up, for they are upon all the houses of exultation, yes, the highly elated town. [14] For the dwelling tower itself has been forsaken, the very hubbub of the city has been abandoned; O′phel and the watchtower themselves have become bare fields, for time indefinite the exultation of zebras, the pasture of droves; [15] until upon us the spirit is poured out from on high, and the wilderness will have become an orchard, and the orchard itself is accounted as a real forest.

[16] “And in the wilderness justice will certainly reside, and in the orchard righteousness itself will dwell. [17] And the work of the true righteousness must become peace; and the service of the true righteousness, quietness and security to time indefinite. [18] And my people must dwell in a peaceful abiding place and in residences of full confidence and in undisturbed resting-places. [19] And it will certainly hail when the forest goes down and the city becomes low in an abased state.

33 Woe to you who are despoiling, without you yourself being despoiled, and to you who are dealing treacherously, without others having dealt treacherously with you! As soon as you have finished as a despoiler, you will be despoiled. As soon as you have done with dealing treacherously, they will deal treacherously with you.

[2] O Jehovah, show us favor. In you we have hoped. Become our arm every morning, yes, our salvation in the time of distress. [3] At the sound of turmoil peoples have fled. At your arising nations have been dispersed. [4] And the spoil of YOU people will actually be gathered like the cockroaches when gathering in, like the onrush of locust swarms that is rushing against one. [5] Jehovah will certainly be put on high, for he is residing in the height. He must fill Zion with justice and righteousness. [6] And the trustworthiness of your times must prove to be a wealth of salvations—wisdom and knowledge, the fear of Jehovah, which is his treasure.

[7] Look! Their very heroes have cried out in the street; the very messengers of peace will weep bitterly. [8] The highways have been made desolate; the one passing over the path has ceased. He has broken the covenant; he has contemned the cities; he has taken no account of mortal man. [9] The land has gone mourning, has withered away. Leb′a·non has become abashed; it has moldered. Shar′on has become like the desert plain; and Ba′shan and Car′mel are shaking off their leaves.

[10] “Now I will rise up,” says Jehovah, “now I will exalt myself; now I will lift myself up. [11] YOU people conceive dried grass; YOU will give birth to stubble. YOUR own spirit, as a fire, will eat YOU up. [12] And peoples must become as the burnings of lime. As thorns cut away, they will be set ablaze even with fire. [13] Hear, YOU men who are far away, what I must do! And know, YOU who are nearby, my mightiness. [14] In Zion the sinners have come to be in dread; shivering has grabbed hold of the apostates: ‘Who of us can reside for any time with a devouring fire? Who of us can reside for any time with long-lasting conflagrations?’

[15] “There is one who is walking in continual righteousness and speaking what is upright, who is rejecting the unjust gain from frauds, who is shaking his hands clear from taking hold on a bribe, who is stopping up his ear from listening to bloodshed, and who is closing his eyes so as not to see what is bad. [16] He is the one that will reside on the heights themselves; his secure height will be craggy places difficult to approach. His own bread will certainly be given him; his water supply will be unfailing.”

[17] A king in his handsomeness is what your eyes will behold; they will see a land far away. [18] Your own heart will comment in low tones on a frightful thing: “Where is the secretary? Where is the one that does the paying out? Where is the one counting the towers?” [19] No insolent people will you see, a people too deep in language to listen to, of a stammering tongue without your understanding. [20] Behold Zion, the town of our festal occasions! Your own eyes will see Jerusalem an undisturbed abiding place, a tent that no one will pack up. Never will its tent pins be pulled out, and none of its ropes will be torn in two. [21] But there the Majestic One, Jehovah, will be for us a place of rivers, of wide canals. On it no galley fleet will go, and no majestic ship will pass over it. [22] For Jehovah is our Judge, Jehovah is our Statute-giver, Jehovah is our King; he himself will save us.

[23] Your ropes must hang loose; their mast they will not hold firmly erect; they have not spread a sail.

At that time even spoil in abundance will have to be divided up; the lame ones themselves will actually take a big plunder. [24] And no resident will say: “I am sick.” The people that are dwelling in the land will be those pardoned for their error.

34 Come up close, YOU nations, to hear; and YOU national groups, pay attention. Let the earth and that which fills it listen, the productive land and all its produce. [2] For Jehovah has indignation against all the nations, and rage against all their army. He must devote them to destruction; he must give them to the slaughter. [3] And their slain ones will be thrown out; and as for their carcasses, their stink will ascend; and the mountains must melt because of their blood. [4] And all those of the army of the heavens must rot away. And the heavens must be rolled up, just like a book scroll; and their army will all shrivel away, just as the leafage shrivels off the vine and like a shriveled fig off the fig tree.

[5] “For in the heavens my sword will certainly be drenched. Look! Upon E′dom it will descend, and upon the people devoted by me to destruction in justice. [6] Jehovah has a sword; it must be filled with blood; it must be made greasy with the fat, with the blood of young rams and he-goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For Jehovah has a sacrifice in Boz′rah, and a great slaughtering in the land of E′dom. [7] And the wild bulls must come down with them, and young bulls with the powerful ones; and their land must be drenched with blood, and their very dust will be made greasy with the fat.”

[8] For Jehovah has a day of vengeance, a year of retributions for the legal case over Zion.

[9] And her torrents must be changed into pitch, and her dust into sulphur; and her land must become as burning pitch. [10] By night or by day it will not be extinguished; to time indefinite its smoke will keep ascending. From generation to generation she will be parched; forever and ever no one will be passing across her. 11 And the pelican and the porcupine must take possession of her, and long-eared owls and ravens themselves will reside in her; and he must stretch out over her the measuring line of emptiness and the stones of wasteness. 12 Her nobles—there are none there whom they will call to the kingship itself, and her very princes will all become nothing. 13 On her dwelling towers thorns must come up, nettles and thorny weeds in her fortified places; and she must become an abiding place of jackals, the courtyard for the ostriches. 14 And haunters of waterless regions must meet up with howling animals, and even the goat-shaped demon will call to its companion. Yes, there the nightjar will certainly take its ease and find for itself a resting-place. 15 There the arrow snake has made its nest and lays eggs, and it must hatch them and gather them together under its shadow. Yes, there the gledes must collect themselves together, each one with her mate.

16 Search for yourselves in the book of Jehovah and read out loud: not one has been missing of them; they actually do not fail to have each one her mate, for it is the mouth of Jehovah that has given the command, and it is his spirit that has collected them together. 17 And it is He that has cast for them the lot, and his own hand has apportioned the place to them by the measuring line. To time indefinite they will take possession of it; for generation after generation they will reside in it.

35 The wilderness and the waterless region will exult, and the desert plain will be joyful and blossom as the saffron. [2] Without fail it will blossom, and it will really be joyful with joyousness and with glad crying out. The glory of Leb′a·non itself must be given to it, the splendor of Car′mel and of Shar′on. There will be those who will see the glory of Jehovah, the splendor of our God.

[3] Strengthen the weak hands, YOU people, and make the knees that are wobbling firm. [4] Say to those who are anxious at heart: “Be strong. Do not be afraid. Look! YOUR own God will come with vengeance itself, God even with a repayment. He himself will come and save YOU people.”

[5] At that time the eyes of the blind ones will be opened, and the very ears of the deaf ones will be unstopped. [6] At that time the lame one will climb up just as a stag does, and the tongue of the speechless one will cry out in gladness. For in the wilderness waters will have burst out, and torrents in the desert plain. [7] And the heat-parched ground will have become as a reedy pool, and the thirsty ground as springs of water. In the abiding place of jackals, a resting-place for them, there will be green grass with reeds and papyrus plants.

[8] And there will certainly come to be a highway there, even a way; and the Way of Holiness it will be called. The unclean one will not pass over it. And it will be for the one walking on the way, and no foolish ones will wander about on it. [9] No lion will prove to be there, and the rapacious sort of wild beasts will not come up on it. None will be found there; and the repurchased ones must walk there. [10] And the very ones redeemed by Jehovah will return and certainly come to Zion with a joyful cry; and rejoicing to time indefinite will be upon their head. To exultation and rejoicing they will attain, and grief and sighing must flee away.

36 Now it came about in the fourteenth year of King Hez·e·ki′ah that Sen·nach′er·ib the king of As·syr′i·a came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and proceeded to seize them. [2] And the king of As·syr′i·a finally sent Rab′sha·keh from La′chish to Jerusalem, to King Hez·e·ki′ah, with a heavy military force, and he proceeded to stand still by the conduit of the upper pool at the highway of the laundryman’s field. [3] Then there came out to him E·li′a·kim the son of Hil·ki′ah, who was over the household, and Sheb′na the secretary and Jo′ah the son of A′saph the recorder.

[4] Accordingly Rab′sha·keh said to them: “Please, say to Hez·e·ki′ah, ‘This is what the great king, the king of As·syr′i·a, has said: “What is this confidence in which you have trusted? [5] You have said (but it is the word of lips), ‘There are counsel and mightiness for the war.’ Now in whom have you put trust, that you have rebelled against me? [6] Look! You have trusted in the support of this crushed reed, in Egypt, which, if a man should brace himself upon it, would certainly enter into his palm and pierce it. That is the way Phar′aoh the king of Egypt is to all those putting their trust in him. [7] And in case you should say to me, ‘It is Jehovah our God in whom we have trusted,’ is he not the one whose high places and whose altars Hez·e·ki′ah has removed, while he says to Judah and Jerusalem, ‘Before this altar YOU should bow down’?”’ [8] Now, then, make a wager, please, with my lord the king of As·syr′i·a, and let me give you two thousand horses to see whether you are able, on your part, to put riders upon them. [9] How, then, could you turn back the face of one governor of the smallest servants of my lord, while you, for your part, put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? [10] And now is it without authorization from Jehovah that I have come up against this land to bring it to ruin? Jehovah himself said to me, ‘Go up against this land, and you must bring it to ruin.’”

[11] At this E·li′a·kim and Sheb′na and Jo′ah said to Rab′sha·keh: “Speak, please, to your servants in the Syrian language, for we are listening; and do not speak to us in the Jews’ language in the ears of the people that are on the wall.” [12] But Rab′sha·keh said: “Is it to your lord and to you that my lord has sent me to speak these words? Is it not to the men sitting upon the wall, that they may eat their own excrement and drink their own urine with YOU men?”

[13] And Rab′sha·keh continued to stand and call out in a loud voice in the Jews’ language, and he went on to say: “HEAR the words of the great king, the king of As·syr′i·a. [14] This is what the king has said, ‘Do not let Hez·e·ki′ah deceive YOU people, for he is not able to deliver YOU. [15] And do not let Hez·e·ki′ah cause YOU to trust in Jehovah, saying: “Without fail Jehovah will deliver us. This city will not be given into the hand of the king of As·syr′i·a.” [16] Do not listen to Hez·e·ki′ah, for this is what the king of As·syr′i·a has said: “Make a capitulation to me and come out to me and eat each one from his own vine and each one from his own fig tree and drink each one the water of his own cistern, [17] until I come and actually take YOU to a land like YOUR own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards; [18] in order that Hez·e·ki′ah may not allure YOU, saying, ‘Jehovah himself will deliver us.’ Have the gods of the nations delivered each one his own land out of the hand of the king of As·syr′i·a? [19] Where are the gods of Ha′math and Ar′pad? Where are the gods of Seph·ar·va′im? And have they delivered Sa·mar′i·a out of my hand? [20] Who are there among all the gods of these lands that have delivered their land out of my hand so that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?”’”

[21] And they continued to keep silent and did not answer him a word, for the commandment of the king was, saying: “YOU must not answer him.” [22] But E·li′a·kim the son of Hil·ki′ah, who was over the household, and Sheb′na the secretary and Jo′ah the son of A′saph the recorder came to Hez·e·ki′ah with their garments ripped apart, and told him the words of Rab′sha·keh.

37 And it came about that as soon as King Hez·e·ki′ah heard, he immediately ripped his garments apart and covered himself with sackcloth and came into the house of Jehovah. [2] Further, he sent E·li′a·kim, who was over the household, and Sheb′na the secretary and the older men of the priests covered with sackcloth to Isaiah the son of A′moz the prophet. [3] And they proceeded to say to him: “This is what Hez·e·ki′ah has said, ‘This day is a day of distress and of rebuke and of scornful insolence, for the sons have come as far as the womb’s mouth, and there is no power to give birth. [4] Perhaps Jehovah your God will hear the words of Rab′sha·keh, whom the king of As·syr′i·a his lord sent to taunt the living God, and he will actually call him to account for the words that Jehovah your God has heard. And you must lift up prayer in behalf of the remnant that are to be found.’”

[5] So the servants of King Hez·e·ki′ah came in to Isaiah. [6] Then Isaiah said to them: “This is what YOU should say to YOUR lord, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard with which the attendants of the king of As·syr′i·a spoke abusively of me. [7] Here I am putting a spirit in him, and he must hear a report and return to his own land; and I shall certainly cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.”’”

[8] After that Rab′sha·keh returned and found the king of As·syr′i·a fighting against Lib′nah, for he had heard that he had pulled away from La′chish. [9] Now he heard it said concerning Tir·ha′kah the king of E·thi·o′pi·a: “He has come out to fight against you.” When he heard, he at once sent messengers to Hez·e·ki′ah, saying: [10] “This is what YOU men should say to Hez·e·ki′ah the king of Judah, ‘Do not let your God in whom you are trusting deceive you, saying: “Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of As·syrʹi·a.” 11 Look! You yourself have heard what the kings of As·syrʹi·a did to all the lands by devoting them to destruction, and will you yourself be delivered? 12 Have the gods of the nations that my forefathers brought to ruin delivered them, even Goʹzan and Haʹran and Reʹzeph and the sons of Eʹden that were in Tel-asʹsar? 13 Where is the king of Haʹmath and the king of Arʹpad and the king of the city of Seph·ar·vaʹim—of Heʹna and of Ivʹvah?’”

14 Then Hez·e·kiʹah took the letters out of the hand of the messengers and read them, after which Hez·e·kiʹah went up to the house of Jehovah and spread it out before Jehovah. 15 And Hez·e·kiʹah began to pray to Jehovah, saying: 16 “O Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, sitting upon the cherubs, you alone are the true God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You yourself have made the heavens and the earth. 17 Incline your ear, O Jehovah, and hear. Open your eyes, O Jehovah, and see, and hear all the words of Sen·nachʹer·ib that he has sent to taunt the living God. 18 It is a fact, O Jehovah, that the kings of As·syrʹi·a have devastated all the lands, and their own land. 19 And there was a consigning of their gods to the fire, because they were no gods, but the workmanship of man’s hands, wood and stone, so that they destroyed them. 20 And now, O Jehovah our God, save us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, O Jehovah, are God alone.”

21 And Isaiah the son of Aʹmoz proceeded to send to Hez·e·kiʹah, saying: “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, ‘Because you have prayed to me concerning Sen·nachʹer·ib the king of As·syrʹi·a, 22 this is the word that Jehovah has spoken against him:

> “The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you, she has held you in derision.
> Behind you the daughter of Jerusalem has wagged her head.

23 Whom have you taunted and spoken of abusively?
And against whom have you lifted up your voice
And do you raise your eyes on high?
It is against the Holy One of Israel!

24 By means of your servants you have taunted Jehovah and you say,
‘With the multitude of my war chariots I myself—
I shall certainly ascend the height of mountainous regions,
The remotest parts of Leb′a·non;
And I shall cut down its lofty cedars, its choice juniper trees.
And I shall enter its final height, the forest of its orchard.

25 I myself shall certainly dig and drink waters,
And I shall dry up with the soles of my feet all the Nile canals of Egypt.’

26 Have you not heard? From remote times it is what I will do.
From bygone days I have even formed it. Now I will bring it in.
And you will serve to make fortified cities become desolate as piles of ruins.

27 And their inhabitants will be feeble-handed;
They will simply be terrified and ashamed.
They must become as vegetation of the field and green tender grass,
Grass of the roofs and of the terrace before the east wind.

28 And your sitting quiet and your going out and your coming in I well know,
And your exciting yourself against me,

29 Because your exciting yourself against me and your roaring have come up into my ears.
And I shall certainly put my hook in your nose and my bridle between your lips,
And I shall indeed lead you back by the way by which you have come.”

30 “‘And this will be the sign for you: There will be an eating this year of the growth from spilled kernels, and in the second year grain that shoots up of itself; but in the third year sow seed, YOU people, and reap, and plant vineyards and eat their fruitage. 31 And those who escape of the house of Judah, those who are left remaining, will certainly take root downward and produce fruitage upward. 32 For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go forth and those who escape out of Mount Zion. The very zeal of Jehovah of armies will do this.

33 “‘Therefore this is what Jehovah has said concerning the king of As·syr′i·a: “He will not come into this city, nor will he shoot an arrow there, nor confront it with a shield, nor cast up a siege rampart against it.”’

[34] “‘By the way by which he came he will return, and into this city he will not come,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. [35] ‘And I shall certainly defend this city to save it for my own sake and for the sake of David my servant.’”

[36] And the angel of Jehovah proceeded to go forth and strike down a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the As·syr′i·ans. When people rose up early in the morning, why, there all of them were dead carcasses. [37] Hence Sen·nach′er·ib the king of As·syr′i·a pulled away and went and returned and took up dwelling in Nin′e·veh. [38] And it came about that as he was bowing down at the house of Nis′roch his god, A·dram′me·lech and Shar·e′zer, his own sons, struck him down with the sword, and they themselves escaped to the land of Ar′a·rat. And E′sar-had′don his son began to reign in place of him.

38 In those days Hez·e·kiʹah got sick to the point of dying. Accordingly Isaiah the son of Aʹmoz the prophet came in to him and said to him: “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘Give commands to your household, for you yourself will indeed die and will not live.’” [2] At that Hez·e·kiʹah turned his face to the wall and began to pray to Jehovah [3] and to say: “I beseech you, O Jehovah, remember, please, how I have walked before you in truthfulness and with a complete heart, and what was good in your eyes I have done.” And Hez·e·kiʹah began to weep profusely.

[4] And the word of Jehovah now occurred to Isaiah, saying: [5] “Go, and you must say to Hez·e·kiʹah, ‘This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather has said: “I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Here I am adding onto your days fifteen years; [6] and out of the palm of the king of As·syrʹi·a I shall deliver you and this city, and I will defend this city. [7] And this is the sign for you from Jehovah that Jehovah will perform this word that he has spoken: [8] Here I am making the shadow of the steps that had gone down on the steps of the stairs of Aʹhaz by the sun retrace backward ten steps.”’” And the sun gradually went back ten steps on the steps of the stairs that it had gone down.

[9] A writing of Hez·e·kiʹah the king of Judah, when he got sick and revived from his sickness.

[10] I myself said: “In the midst of my days I will go into the gates of Sheʹol.
I must be deprived of the remainder of my years.”
[11] I have said: “I shall not see Jah, even Jah, in the land of the living ones.
I shall no more look on mankind—with the inhabitants of the land of cessation.
[12] My own habitation has been pulled out and removed from me like the tent of shepherds.
I have rolled up my life just like a loom worker;

One proceeds to cut me off from the very threads of the warp.
From daylight till night you keep handing me over.

13 I have soothed myself until the morning.
Like a lion, so he keeps breaking all my bones;
From daylight till night you keep handing me over.

14 Like the swift, the bulbul, so I keep chirping;
I keep cooing like the dove.
My eyes have looked languishingly to the height:
‘O Jehovah, I am under oppression. Stand good for me.’

15 What shall I speak, and what will he actually say to me?
He himself has also acted.
I keep walking solemnly all my years in the bitterness of my soul.

16 ‘O Jehovah, on that account they keep living; and as with everybody, thereby is the life of my spirit.
And you will restore me to health and certainly preserve me alive.

17 Look! For peace I had what was bitter, yes, bitter;
And you yourself have become attached to my soul and kept it from the pit of disintegration.
For you have thrown behind your back all my sins.

18 For it is not She′ol that can laud you; death itself cannot praise you.
Those going down into the pit cannot look hopefully to your trueness.

19 The living, the living, he is the one that can laud you,
Just as I can this day.
The father himself can give knowledge to his own sons concerning your trueness.

20 O Jehovah, undertake to save me, and we shall play my string selections
All the days of our life at the house of Jehovah.’”

21 And Isaiah proceeded to say: “Let them take a cake of pressed dried figs and rub it in upon the boil, that he may revive.” 22 Meantime, Hez·e·ki′ah said: “What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of Jehovah?”

39 At that time Mer′o·dach-bal′a·dan the son of Bal′a·dan the king of Babylon sent letters and a gift to Hez·e·ki′ah, after he heard that he had been sick but was strong again. [2] So Hez·e·ki′ah began to rejoice over them and proceeded to show them his treasure-house, the silver and the gold and the balsam oil and the good oil and all his armory and all that was to be found in his treasures. There proved to be nothing that Hez·e·ki′ah did not show them in his own house and in all his dominion.

[3] After that Isaiah the prophet came in to King Hez·e·ki′ah and said to him: “What did these men say, and from where did they proceed to come to you?” So Hez·e·ki′ah said: “From a distant land they came to me, from Babylon.” [4] And he went on to say: “What did they see in your house?” To this Hez·e·ki′ah said: “Everything that is in my house they saw. There proved to be nothing that I did not show them in my treasures.” [5] Isaiah now said to Hez·e·ki′ah: “Hear the word of Jehovah of armies, [6] ‘Look! Days are coming, and all that is in your own house and that your forefathers have stored up down to this day will actually be carried to Babylon.’ ‘Nothing will be left,’ Jehovah has said. [7] ‘And some of your own sons that will come forth from you, to whom you will become father, will themselves be taken and actually become court officials in the palace of the king of Babylon.’”

[8] At that Hez·e·ki′ah said to Isaiah: “The word of Jehovah that you have spoken is good.” And he went on to say: “Because peace and truth will continue in my own days.”

40 “COMFORT, comfort my people,” says the God of YOU men. [2] “SPEAK to the heart of Jerusalem and call out to her that her military service has been fulfilled, that her error has been paid off. For from the hand of Jehovah she has received a full amount for all her sins.”

[3] Listen! Someone is calling out in the wilderness: “Clear up the way of Jehovah, YOU people! MAKE the highway for our God through the desert plain straight. [4] Let every valley be raised up, and every mountain and hill be made low. And the knobby ground must become level land, and the rugged ground a valley plain. [5] And the glory of Jehovah will certainly be revealed, and all flesh must see it together, for the very mouth of Jehovah has spoken it.”

[6] Listen! Someone is saying: “Call out!” And one said: “What shall I call out?”

“All flesh is green grass, and all their loving-kindness is like the blossom of the field. [7] The green grass has dried up, the blossom has withered, because the very spirit of Jehovah has blown upon it. Surely the people are green grass. [8] The green grass has dried up, the blossom has withered; but as for the word of our God, it will last to time indefinite.”

[9] Make your way up even onto a high mountain, you woman bringing good news for Zion. Raise your voice even with power, you woman bringing good news for Jerusalem. Raise it. Do not be afraid. Say to the cities of Judah: “Here is YOUR God.” [10] Look! The Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself will come even as a strong one, and his arm will be ruling for him. Look! His reward is with him, and the wage he pays is before him. [11] Like a shepherd he will shepherd his own drove. With his arm he will collect together the lambs; and in his bosom he will carry them. Those giving suck he will conduct with care.

12 Who has measured the waters in the mere hollow of his hand, and taken the proportions of the heavens themselves with a mere span and included in a measure the dust of the earth, or weighed with an indicator the mountains, and the hills in the scales? 13 Who has taken the proportions of the spirit of Jehovah, and who as his man of counsel can make him know anything? 14 With whom did he consult together that one might make him understand, or who teaches him in the path of justice, or teaches him knowledge, or makes him know the very way of real understanding?

15 Look! The nations are as a drop from a bucket; and as the film of dust on the scales they have been accounted. Look! He lifts the islands themselves as mere fine dust. 16 Even Leb′a·non is not sufficient for keeping a fire burning, and its wild animals are not sufficient for a burnt offering. 17 All the nations are as something nonexistent in front of him; as nothing and an unreality they have been accounted to him.

18 And to whom can YOU people liken God, and what likeness can YOU put alongside him? 19 The craftsman has cast a mere molten image, and with gold the metalworker overlays it, and silver chains he is forging. 20 A certain tree as a contribution, a tree that is not rotten, he chooses. A skillful craftsman he searches out for himself, to prepare a carved image that may not be made to totter.

21 Do YOU people not know? Do YOU not hear? Has it not been told to YOU from the outset? Have YOU not applied understanding from the foundations of the earth? 22 There is One who is dwelling above the circle of the earth, the dwellers in which are as grasshoppers, the One who is stretching out the heavens just as a fine gauze, who spreads them out like a tent in which to dwell, [23] the One who is reducing high officials to nothing, who has made the very judges of the earth as a mere unreality.

[24] Never yet have they been planted; never yet have they been sown; never yet has their stump taken root in the earth. And one has only to blow upon them and they dry up; and like stubble the windstorm itself will carry them away.

[25] “But to whom can YOU people liken me so that I should be made his equal?” says the Holy One. [26] “Raise YOUR eyes high up and see. Who has created these things? It is the One who is bringing forth the army of them even by number, all of whom he calls even by name. Due to the abundance of dynamic energy, he also being vigorous in power, not one of them is missing.

[27] “For what reason do you say, O Jacob, and do you speak out, O Israel, ‘My way has been concealed from Jehovah, and justice to me eludes my God himself’? [28] Have you not come to know or have you not heard? Jehovah, the Creator of the extremities of the earth, is a God to time indefinite. He does not tire out or grow weary. There is no searching out of his understanding. [29] He is giving to the tired one power; and to the one without dynamic energy he makes full might abound. [30] Boys will both tire out and grow weary, and young men themselves will without fail stumble, [31] but those who are hoping in Jehovah will regain power. They will mount up with wings like eagles. They will run and not grow weary; they will walk and not tire out.”

41 “Attend to me in silence, YOU islands; and let national groups themselves regain power. Let them approach. At that time let them speak. Let us come up close together for the judgment itself.

[2] “Who has roused up someone from the sunrise? Who proceeded in righteousness to call him to His feet, to give before him the nations, and to make him go subduing even kings? Who kept giving them like dust to his sword, so that they have been driven about like mere stubble with his bow? [3] Who kept pursuing them, kept peacefully passing along on his feet over the path by which he did not proceed to come? [4] Who has been active and has done this, calling out the generations from the start?

“I, Jehovah, the First One; and with the last ones I am the same.”

[5] The islands saw and began to fear. The very extremities of the earth began trembling. They drew near and kept coming. [6] They went helping each one his companion, and one would say to his brother: “Be strong.” [7] So the craftsman went strengthening the metalworker; the one doing the smoothing out with the forge hammer him that is hammering away at the anvil, saying regarding the soldering: “It is good.” Finally one fastened it with nails that it could not be made to totter.

[8] “But you, O Israel, are my servant, you, O Jacob, whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend; [9] you, whom I have taken hold of from the extremities of the earth, and you, whom I have called even from the remote parts of it. And so I said to you, ‘You are my servant; I have chosen you, and I have not rejected you. [10] Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will really help you. I will really keep fast hold of you with my right hand of righteousness.’

[11] “Look! All those getting heated up against you will become ashamed and be humiliated. The men in a quarrel with you will become as nothing and will perish. [12] You will search for them, but you will not find them, those men in a struggle with you. They will become as something nonexistent and as nothing, those men at war with you. [13] For I, Jehovah your God, am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, ‘Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.’

[14] “Do not be afraid, you worm Jacob, YOU men of Israel. I myself will help you,” is the utterance of Jehovah, even your Repurchaser, the Holy One of Israel. [15] “Look! I have made you a threshing sledge, a new threshing instrument having double-edged teeth. You will tread down the mountains and crush them; and the hills you will make just like the chaff. [16] You will winnow them, and a wind itself will carry them away, and a windstorm itself will drive them different ways. And you yourself will be joyful in Jehovah. In the Holy One of Israel you will boast about yourself.”

[17] “The afflicted ones and the poor ones are seeking for water, but there is none. Because of thirst their very tongue has become dry. I myself, Jehovah, shall answer them. I, the God of Israel, shall not leave them. [18] Upon bare hills I shall open up rivers, and in the midst of the valley plains, springs. I shall make the wilderness into a reedy pool of water, and the waterless land into sources of water. [19] In the wilderness I shall set the cedar tree, the acacia and the myrtle and the oil tree. In the desert plain I shall place the juniper tree, the ash and the cypress at the same time; [20] in order that people may see and know and pay heed and have insight at the same time, that the very hand of Jehovah has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has himself created it.”

[21] “Bring YOUR controversial case forward,” says Jehovah. “Produce YOUR arguments,” says the King of Jacob. [22] “Produce and tell to us the things that are going to happen. The first things—what they were—do tell, that we may apply our heart and know the future of them. Or cause us to hear even the things that are coming. [23] Tell the things that are to come afterward, that we may know that YOU are gods. Yes, YOU ought to do good or do bad, that we may gaze about and see it at the same time. [24] Look! YOU are something nonexistent, and YOUR achievement is nothing. A detestable thing is anyone that chooses YOU.

[25] “I have roused up someone from the north, and he will come. From the rising of the sun he will call upon my name. And he will come upon deputy rulers as if they were clay and just as a potter that tramples down the moist material.

[26] “Who has told anything from the start, that we may know, or from times past, that we may say, ‘He is right’? Really there is no one telling. Really there is no one causing one to hear. Really there is no one that is hearing any sayings of YOU men.”

[27] There is one first, saying to Zion: “Look! Here they are!” and to Jerusalem I shall give a bringer of good news.

[28] And I kept seeing, and there was not a man; and out of these there was also no one that was giving counsel. And I kept asking them, that they might make a reply. [29] Look! All of them are something nonexistent. Their works are nothing. Their molten images are wind and unreality.

42 Look! My servant, on whom I keep fast hold! My chosen one, whom my soul has approved! I have put my spirit in him. Justice to the nations is what he will bring forth. [2] He will not cry out or raise his voice, and in the street he will not let his voice be heard. [3] No crushed reed will he break; and as for a dim flaxen wick, he will not extinguish it. In trueness he will bring forth justice. [4] He will not grow dim nor be crushed until he sets justice in the earth itself; and for his law the islands themselves will keep waiting.

[5] This is what the true God, Jehovah, has said, the Creator of the heavens and the Grand One stretching them out; the One laying out the earth and its produce, the One giving breath to the people on it, and spirit to those walking in it: [6] “I myself, Jehovah, have called you in righteousness, and I proceeded to take hold of your hand. And I shall safeguard you and give you as a covenant of the people, as a light of the nations, [7] for you to open the blind eyes, to bring forth out of the dungeon the prisoner, out of the house of detention those sitting in darkness.

[8] “I am Jehovah. That is my name; and to no one else shall I give my own glory, neither my praise to graven images.

[9] “The first things—here they have come, but new things I am telling out. Before they begin to spring up, I cause YOU people to hear them.”

[10] Sing to Jehovah a new song, his praise from the extremity of the earth, YOU men that are going down to the sea and to that which fills it, YOU islands and YOU inhabiting them. [11] Let the wilderness and its cities raise their voice, the settlements that Keʹdar inhabits. Let the inhabitants of the crag cry out in joy. From the top of the mountains let people cry aloud. [12] Let them attribute to Jehovah glory, and in the islands let them tell forth even his praise.

[13] Like a mighty man Jehovah himself will go forth. Like a warrior he will awaken zeal. He will shout, yes, he will let out a war cry; over his enemies he will show himself mightier.

[14] “I have kept quiet for a long time. I continued silent. I kept exercising self-control. Like a woman giving birth I am going to groan, pant, and gasp at the same time. [15] I shall devastate mountains and hills, and all their vegetation I shall dry up. And I will turn rivers into islands, and reedy pools I shall dry up. [16] And I will make the blind ones walk in a way that they have not known; in a roadway that they have not known I shall cause them to tread. I shall turn a dark place before them into light, and rugged terrain into level land. These are the things that I will do for them, and I will not leave them.”

[17] They must be turned back, they will be very much ashamed, those who are putting trust in the carved image, those who are saying to a molten image: “YOU are our gods.”

[18] Hear, YOU deaf ones; and look forth to see, YOU blind ones. [19] Who is blind, if not my servant, and who is deaf as my messenger whom I send? Who is blind as the one rewarded, or blind as the servant of Jehovah? [20] It was a case of seeing many things, but you did not keep watching. It was a case of opening the ears, but you did not keep listening. [21] Jehovah himself for the sake of his righteousness has taken a delight in that he should magnify the law and make it majestic. [22] But it is a people plundered and pillaged, all of them being trapped in the holes, and in the houses of detention they have been kept hidden. They have come to be for plunder without a deliverer, for pillage without anyone to say: “Bring back! ”

[23] Who among YOU people will give ear to this? Who will pay attention and listen for later times? [24] Who has given Jacob for mere pillage, and Israel to the plunderers? Is it not Jehovah, the One against whom we have sinned, and in whose ways they did not want to walk and to whose law they did not listen? [25] So He kept pouring out upon him rage, his anger, and the strength of war. And it kept consuming him all around, but he took no note; and it kept blazing up against him, but he would lay nothing to heart.

43 And now this is what Jehovah has said, your Creator, O Jacob, and your Former, O Israel: “Do not be afraid, for I have repurchased you. I have called you by your name. You are mine. [2] In case you should pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they will not flood over you. In case you should walk through the fire, you will not be scorched, neither will the flame itself singe you. [3] For I am Jehovah your God, the Holy One of Israel your Savior. I have given Egypt as a ransom for you, E·thi·o′pi·a and Se′ba in place of you. [4] Owing to the fact that you have been precious in my eyes, you have been considered honorable, and I myself have loved you. And I shall give men in place of you, and national groups in place of your soul.

[5] “Do not be afraid, for I am with you. From the sunrising I shall bring your seed, and from the sunset I shall collect you together. [6] I shall say to the north, ‘Give up!’ and to the south, ‘Do not keep back. Bring my sons from far off, and my daughters from the extremity of the earth, [7] everyone that is called by my name and that I have created for my own glory, that I have formed, yes, that I have made.’

[8] “Bring forth a people blind though eyes themselves exist, and the ones deaf though they have ears. [9] Let the nations all be collected together at one place, and let national groups be gathered together. Who is there among them that can tell this? Or can they cause us to hear even the first things? Let them furnish their witnesses, that they may be declared righteous, or let them hear and say, ‘It is the truth!’”

[10] “YOU are my witnesses,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “even my servant whom I have chosen, in order that YOU may know and have faith in me, and that YOU may understand that I am the same One. Before me there was no God formed, and after me there continued to be none. [11] I—I am Jehovah, and besides me there is no savior.”

[12] “I myself have told forth and have saved and have caused it to be heard, when there was among YOU no strange god. So YOU are my witnesses,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and I am God. [13] Also, all the time I am the same One; and there is no one effecting deliverance out of my own hand. I shall get active, and who can turn it back?”

[14] This is what Jehovah has said, the Repurchaser of YOU people, the Holy One of Israel: “For YOUR sakes I will send to Babylon and cause the bars of the prisons to come down, and the Chal·de′ans in the ships with whining cries on their part. [15] I am Jehovah YOUR Holy One, the Creator of Israel, YOUR King.”

[16] This is what Jehovah has said, the One making a way through the sea itself and a roadway even through strong waters, [17] the One bringing forth the war chariot and the horse, the military force and the strong ones at the same time: “They will lie down. They will not get up. They will certainly be extinguished. Like a flaxen wick they must be put out.”

[18] “Do not remember the first things, and to the former things do not turn YOUR consideration. [19] Look! I am doing something new. Now it will spring up. YOU people will know it, will YOU not? Really, through the wilderness I shall set a way, through the desert rivers. [20] The wild beast of the field will glorify me, the jackals and the ostriches; because I shall have given water even in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to cause my people, my chosen one, to drink, [21] the people whom I have formed for myself, that they should recount the praise of me.

22 “But you have not called even me, O Jacob, because you have grown weary of me, O Israel. 23 You have not brought me the sheep of your whole burnt offerings, and with your sacrifices you have not glorified me. I have not compelled you to serve me with a gift, nor have I made you weary with frankincense. 24 For me you have bought no sweet cane with any money; and with the fat of your sacrifices you have not saturated me. In reality you have compelled me to serve because of your sins; you have made me weary with your errors.

25 “I—I am the One that is wiping out your transgressions for my own sake, and your sins I shall not remember. 26 Remind me; let us put ourselves on judgment together; tell your own account of it in order that you may be in the right. 27 Your own father, the first one, has sinned, and your own spokesmen have transgressed against me. 28 So I shall profane the princes of the holy place, and I will give Jacob over as a man devoted to destruction and Israel over to words of abuse.

44 “And now listen, O Jacob my servant, and you, O Israel, whom I have chosen. [2] This is what Jehovah has said, your Maker and your Former, who kept helping you even from the belly, ‘Do not be afraid, O my servant Jacob, and you, Jesh′u·run, whom I have chosen. [3] For I shall pour out water upon the thirsty one, and trickling streams upon the dry place. I shall pour out my spirit upon your seed, and my blessing upon your descendants. [4] And they will certainly spring up as among the green grass, like poplars by the water ditches. [5] This one will say: “I belong to Jehovah.” And that one will call himself by the name of Jacob, and another will write upon his hand: “Belonging to Jehovah.” And by the name of Israel one will betitle himself.’

[6] “This is what Jehovah has said, the King of Israel and the Repurchaser of him, Jehovah of armies, ‘I am the first and I am the last, and besides me there is no God. [7] And who is there like me? Let him call out, that he may tell it and present it to me. From when I appointed the people of long ago, both the things coming and the things that will enter in let them tell on their part. [8] Do not be in dread, YOU people, and do not become stupefied. Have I not from that time on caused you individually to hear and told it out? And YOU are my witnesses. Does there exist a God besides me? No, there is no Rock. I have recognized none.’”

[9] The formers of the carved image are all of them an unreality, and their darlings themselves will be of no benefit; and as their witnesses they see nothing and know nothing, in order that they may be ashamed. [10] Who has formed a god or cast a mere molten image? Of no benefit at all has it been. [11] Look! All his partners themselves will be ashamed, and the craftsmen are from earthling men. They will all of them collect themselves together. They will stand still. They will be in dread. They will be ashamed at the same time.

12 As for the carver of iron with the billhook, he has been busy at it with the coals; and with the hammers he proceeds to form it, and he keeps busy at it with his powerful arm. Also, he has become hungry, and so without power. He has not drunk water; so he gets tired.

13 As for the wood carver, he has stretched out the measuring line; he traces it out with red chalk; he works it up with a wood scraper; and with a compass he keeps tracing it out, and gradually he makes it like the representation of a man, like the beauty of mankind, to sit in a house.

14 There is one whose business is to cut down cedars; and he takes a certain species of tree, even a massive tree, and he lets it become strong for himself among the trees of the forest. He planted the laurel tree, and the pouring rain itself keeps making it get big. 15 And it has become something for man to keep a fire burning. So he takes part of it that he may warm himself. In fact he builds a fire and actually bakes bread. He also works on a god to which he may bow down. He has made it into a carved image, and he prostrates himself to it. 16 Half of it he actually burns up in a fire. Upon half of it he roasts well the flesh that he eats, and he becomes satisfied. He also warms himself and says: “Aha! I have warmed myself. I have seen the firelight.” 17 But the remainder of it he actually makes into a god itself, into his carved image. He prostrates himself to it and bows down and prays to it and says: “Deliver me, for you are my god.”

18 They have not come to know, nor do they understand, because their eyes have been besmeared so as not to see, their heart so as to have no insight. 19 And no one recalls to his heart or has knowledge or understanding, saying: “The half of it I have burned up in a fire, and upon its coals I have also baked bread; I roast flesh and eat. But the rest of it shall I make into a mere detestable thing? To the dried-out wood of a tree shall I prostrate myself?” 20 He is feeding on ashes. His own heart that has been trifled with has led him astray. And he does not deliver his soul, nor does he say: “Is there not a falsehood in my right hand?”

21 “Remember these things, O Jacob, and you, O Israel, because you are my servant. I have formed you. You are a servant belonging to me. O Israel, you will not be forgotten on my part. 22 I will wipe out your transgressions just as with a cloud, and your sins just as with a cloud mass. Do return to me, for I will repurchase you.

23 “Joyfully cry out, YOU heavens, for Jehovah has taken action! Shout in triumph, YOU lowest parts of the earth! Become cheerful, YOU mountains, with joyful outcry, you forest and all YOU trees in it! For Jehovah has repurchased Jacob, and on Israel he shows his beauty.”

24 This is what Jehovah has said, your Repurchaser and the Former of you from the belly: “I, Jehovah, am doing everything, stretching out the heavens by myself, laying out the earth. Who was with me? 25 I am frustrating the signs of the empty talkers, and I am the One that makes diviners themselves act crazily; the One turning wise men backwards, and the One that turns even their knowledge into foolishness; 26 the One making the word of his servant come true, and the One that carries out completely the counsel of his own messengers; the One saying of Jerusalem, ‘She will be inhabited,’ and of the cities of Judah, ‘They will be rebuilt, and her desolated places I shall raise up’; 27 the One saying to the watery deep, ‘Be evaporated; and all your rivers I shall dry up’; 28 the One saying of Cyrus, ‘He is my shepherd, and all that I delight in he will completely carry out'; even in my saying of Jerusalem, 'She will be rebuilt,' and of the temple, 'You will have your foundation laid.'"

45 This is what Jehovah has said to his anointed one, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have taken hold of, to subdue before him nations, so that I may ungird even the hips of kings; to open before him the two-leaved doors, so that even the gates will not be shut: [2] “Before you I myself shall go, and the swells of land I shall straighten out. The copper doors I shall break in pieces, and the iron bars I shall cut down. [3] And I will give you the treasures in the darkness and the hidden treasures in the concealment places, in order that you may know that I am Jehovah, the One calling you by your name, the God of Israel. [4] For the sake of my servant Jacob and of Israel my chosen one, I even proceeded to call you by your name; I proceeded to give you a name of honor, although you did not know me. [5] I am Jehovah, and there is no one else. With the exception of me there is no God. I shall closely gird you, although you have not known me, [6] in order that people may know from the rising of the sun and from its setting that there is none besides me. I am Jehovah, and there is no one else. [7] Forming light and creating darkness, making peace and creating calamity, I, Jehovah, am doing all these things.

[8] “O YOU heavens, cause a dripping from above; and let the cloudy skies themselves trickle with righteousness. Let the earth open up, and let it be fruitful with salvation, and let it cause righteousness itself to spring up at the same time. I myself, Jehovah, have created it.”

[9] Woe to the one that has contended with his Former, as an earthenware fragment with the other earthenware fragments of the ground! Should the clay say to its former: “What do you make?” And your achievement say: “He has no hands”? [10] Woe to the one saying to a father: “What do you become father to?” and to the wife: “What are you in birth pains with?”

11 This is what Jehovah has said, the Holy One of Israel and the Former of him: “Ask me even about the things that are coming concerning my sons; and concerning the activity of my hands YOU people should command me. 12 I myself have made the earth and have created even man upon it. I—my own hands have stretched out the heavens, and all the army of them I have commanded.”

13 “I myself have roused up someone in righteousness, and all his ways I shall straighten out. He is the one that will build my city, and those of mine in exile he will let go, not for a price nor for bribery,” Jehovah of armies has said.

14 This is what Jehovah has said: “The unpaid laborers of Egypt and the merchants of E·thi·o′pi·a and the Sa·be′ans, tall men, will themselves come over even to you, and yours they will become. Behind you they will walk; in fetters they will come over, and to you they will bow down. To you they will pray, saying, ‘Indeed God is in union with you, and there is no one else; there is no other God.’”

15 Truly you are a God keeping yourself concealed, the God of Israel, a Savior. 16 They will certainly be ashamed and even be humiliated, all of them. Together in humiliation the manufacturers of idol forms will have to walk. 17 As for Israel, he will certainly be saved in union with Jehovah with a salvation for times indefinite. YOU people will not be ashamed, nor will YOU be humiliated for the indefinite times of eternity.

18 For this is what Jehovah has said, the Creator of the heavens, He the true God, the Former of the earth and the Maker of it, He the One who firmly established it, who did not create it simply for nothing, who formed it even to be inhabited: “I am Jehovah, and there is no one else. [19] In a place of concealment I spoke not, in a dark place of the earth; nor said I to the seed of Jacob, ‘Seek me simply for nothing, YOU people.’ I am Jehovah, speaking what is righteous, telling what is upright.

[20] “Collect yourselves and come. Bring yourselves up close together, YOU escapees from the nations. Those carrying the wood of their carved image have not come to any knowledge, neither have those praying to a god that cannot save. [21] Make YOUR report and YOUR presentation. Yes, let them consult together in unity. Who has caused this to be heard from a long time ago? Who has reported it from that very time? Is it not I, Jehovah, besides whom there is no other God; a righteous God and a Savior, there being none excepting me?

[22] “Turn to me and be saved, all YOU at the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no one else. [23] By my own self I have sworn—out of my own mouth in righteousness the word has gone forth, so that it will not return—that to me every knee will bend down, every tongue will swear, [24] saying, ‘Surely in Jehovah there are full righteousness and strength. All those getting heated up against him will come straight to him and be ashamed. [25] In Jehovah all the seed of Israel will prove to be right and will boast about themselves.’”

46 Bel has bent down, Ne′bo is stooping over; their idols have come to be for the wild beasts and for the domestic animals, their loads, pieces of luggage, a burden for the tired animals. [2] They must stoop over; they must each alike bend down; they are simply unable to furnish escape for the burden, but into captivity their own soul must go.

[3] “Listen to me, O house of Jacob, and all YOU remaining ones of the house of Israel, YOU the ones conveyed by me from the belly, the ones carried from the womb. [4] Even to one’s old age I am the same One; and to one’s gray-headedness I myself shall keep bearing up. I myself shall certainly act, that I myself may carry and that I myself may bear up and furnish escape.

[5] “To whom will YOU people liken me or make me equal or compare me that we may resemble each other? [6] There are those who are lavishing out the gold from the purse, and with the scale beam they weigh out the silver. They hire a metalworker, and he makes it into a god. They prostrate themselves, yes, they bow down. [7] They carry it upon the shoulder, they bear it and deposit it in its place that it may stand still. From its standing place it does not move away. One even cries out to it, but it does not answer; out of one’s distress it does not save one.

[8] “Remember this, that YOU people may muster up courage. Lay it to heart, YOU transgressors. [9] Remember the first things of a long time ago, that I am the Divine One and there is no other God, nor anyone like me; [10] the One telling from the beginning the finale, and from long ago the things that have not been done; the One saying, ‘My own counsel will stand, and everything that is my delight I shall do’; [11] the One calling from the sunrising a bird of prey, from a distant land the man to execute my counsel. I have even spoken it; I shall also bring it in. I have formed it, I shall also do it.

12 “Listen to me, YOU the ones powerful at heart, YOU the ones far away from righteousness. 13 I have brought near my righteousness. It is not far away, and my own salvation will not be late. And I will give in Zion salvation, to Israel my beauty.”

47 Come down and sit down in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon. Sit down on the earth where there is no throne, O daughter of the Chal·de′ans. For you will not experience again that people call you delicate and dainty. [2] Take a hand mill and grind out flour. Uncover your veil. Strip off the flowing skirt. Uncover the leg. Cross over the rivers. [3] You ought to uncover your nakedness. Also, your reproach ought to be seen. Vengeance is what I shall take, and I shall not meet any man kindly.

[4] “There is One repurchasing us. Jehovah of armies is his name, the Holy One of Israel.”

[5] Sit down silently and come into the darkness, O daughter of the Chal·de′ans; for you will not experience again that people call you Mistress of Kingdoms. [6] I grew indignant at my people. I profaned my inheritance, and I proceeded to give them into your hand. You showed them no mercies. Upon the old man you made your yoke very heavy. [7] And you kept saying: “To time indefinite I shall prove to be Mistress, forever.” You did not take these things to your heart; you did not remember the finale of the matter.

[8] And now hear this, you pleasure-given woman, the one sitting in security, the one saying in her heart: “I am, and there is nobody else. I shall not sit as a widow, and I shall not know the loss of children.” [9] But to you these two things will come suddenly, in one day: loss of children and widowhood. In their complete measure they must come upon you, for the abundance of your sorceries, for the full might of your spells —exceedingly. [10] And you kept trusting in your badness. You have said: “There is no one seeing me.” Your wisdom and your knowledge—this is what has led you away; and you keep saying in your heart: “I am, and there is nobody else.”

[11] And upon you calamity must come; you will know no charming against it. And upon you adversity will fall; you will not be able to avert it. And upon you there will suddenly come a ruin that you are not accustomed to know.

[12] Stand still, now, with your spells and with the abundance of your sorceries, in which you have toiled from your youth; that perhaps you might be able to benefit, that perhaps you might strike people with awe. [13] You have grown weary with the multitude of your counselors. Let them stand up, now, and save you, the worshipers of the heavens, the lookers at the stars, those giving out knowledge at the new moons concerning the things that will come upon you. [14] Look! They have become like stubble. A fire itself will certainly burn them up. They will not deliver their soul from the power of the flame. There will be no glow of charcoals for people to warm themselves, no firelight in front of which to sit down.
[15] Thus they will certainly become to you, with whom you have toiled as your charmers from your youth. They will actually wander, each one to his own region. There will be no one to save you.

48 Hear this, O house of Jacob, YOU who are calling yourselves by the name of Israel and who have come forth from the very waters of Judah, YOU who are swearing by the name of Jehovah and who make mention even of the God of Israel, not in truth and not in righteousness. [2] For they have called themselves as being from the holy city, and upon the God of Israel they have supported themselves, Jehovah of armies being his name.

[3] "The first things I have told even from that time, and out of my own mouth they went forth, and I kept making them heard. Suddenly I acted, and the things proceeded to come in. [4] Due to my knowing that you are hard and that your neck is an iron sinew and your forehead is copper, [5] I also kept telling you from that time. Before it could come in, I caused you to hear it, that you might not say, 'My own idol has done them, and my own carved image and my own molten image have commanded them.' [6] You have heard. Behold it all. As for YOU people, will YOU not tell it? I have made you hear new things from the present time, even things kept in reserve, that you have not known. [7] At the present time they must be created, and not from that time, even things that before today you have not heard, that you may not say, 'Look! I have already known them.'

[8] "Moreover, you have not heard, neither have you known, nor from that time on has your ear been opened. For I well know that without fail you kept dealing treacherously, and a 'transgressor from the belly' you have been called. [9] For the sake of my name I shall check my anger, and for my praise I shall restrain myself toward you that there may be no cutting you off. [10] Look! I have refined you, but not in the form of silver. I have made choice of you in the smelting furnace of affliction. [11] For my own sake, for my own sake I shall act, for how could one let oneself be profaned? And to no one else shall I give my own glory.

[12] “Listen to me, O Jacob, and you Israel my called one. I am the same One. I am the first. Moreover, I am the last. [13] Moreover, my own hand laid the foundation of the earth, and my own right hand extended out the heavens. I am calling to them, that they may keep standing together.

[14] “Be collected together, all YOU people, and hear. Who among them has told these things? Jehovah himself has loved him. He will do what is his delight upon Babylon, and his own arm will be upon the Chal·deʹans. [15] I—I myself have spoken. Moreover, I have called him. I have brought him in, and there will be a making of his way successful.

[16] “Come near to me, YOU people. Hear this. From the start I have spoken in no place of concealment at all. From the time of its occurring I have been there.”

And now the Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself has sent me, even his spirit. [17] This is what Jehovah has said, your Repurchaser, the Holy One of Israel: “I, Jehovah, am your God, the One teaching you to benefit yourself, the One causing you to tread in the way in which you should walk. [18] O if only you would actually pay attention to my commandments! Then your peace would become just like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea. [19] And your offspring would become just like the sand, and the descendants from your inward parts like the grains of it. One’s name would not be cut off or be annihilated from before me.”

[20] Go forth, YOU people, out of Babylon! Run away from the Chal·deʹans. Tell forth even with the sound of a joyful cry, cause this to be heard. Make it to go forth to the extremity of the earth. Say: “Jehovah has repurchased his servant Jacob.

21 And they did not get thirsty when he was making them walk even through devastated places. Water out of the rock he caused to flow forth for them, and he proceeded to split a rock that the water might stream forth.”

22 “There is no peace,” Jehovah has said, “for the wicked ones.”

49 Listen to me, O YOU islands, and pay attention, YOU national groups far away. Jehovah himself has called me even from the belly. From the inward parts of my mother he has made mention of my name. [2] And he proceeded to make my mouth like a sharp sword. In the shadow of his hand he has hidden me. And he gradually made me a polished arrow. He concealed me in his own quiver. [3] And he went on to say to me: “You are my servant, O Israel, you the one in whom I shall show my beauty.”

[4] But as for me, I said: “It is for nothing that I have toiled. For unreality and vanity I have used up my own power. Truly my judgment is with Jehovah, and my wages with my God.” [5] And now Jehovah, the One forming me from the belly as a servant belonging to him, has said for me to bring back Jacob to him, in order that to him Israel itself may be gathered. And I shall be glorified in the eyes of Jehovah, and my own God will have become my strength. [6] And he proceeded to say: “It has been more than a trivial matter for you to become my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to bring back even the safeguarded ones of Israel; I also have given you for a light of the nations, that my salvation may come to be to the extremity of the earth.”

[7] This is what Jehovah, the Repurchaser of Israel, his Holy One, has said to him that is despised in soul, to him that is detested by the nation, to the servant of rulers: “Kings themselves will see and certainly rise up, and princes, and they will bow down, by reason of Jehovah, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who chooses you.”

[8] This is what Jehovah has said: “In a time of goodwill I have answered you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you; and I kept safeguarding you that I might give you as a covenant for the people, to rehabilitate the land, to bring about the repossessing of the desolated hereditary possessions, [9] to say to the prisoners, ‘Come out!’ to those who are in the darkness, ‘Reveal yourselves!’ By the ways they will pasture, and on all beaten paths their pasturing will be. [10] They will not go hungry, neither will they go thirsty, nor will parching heat or sun strike them. For the One who is having pity upon them will lead them, and by the springs of water he will conduct them. [11] And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways themselves will be on an elevation. [12] Look! These will come even from far away, and, look! these from the north and from the west, and these from the land of Si′nim.”

[13] Give a glad cry, YOU heavens, and be joyful, you earth. Let the mountains become cheerful with a glad outcry. For Jehovah has comforted his people, and he shows pity upon his own afflicted ones.

[14] But Zion kept saying: “Jehovah has left me, and Jehovah himself has forgotten me.” [15] Can a wife forget her suckling so that she should not pity the son of her belly? Even these women can forget, yet I myself shall not forget you. [16] Look! Upon my palms I have engraved you. Your walls are in front of me constantly. [17] Your sons have hurried up. The very ones tearing you down and devastating you will go forth even from you. [18] Raise your eyes all around and see. They have all of them been collected together. They have come to you. “As I am living,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “with all of them you will clothe yourself just as with ornaments, and you will bind them on yourself like a bride. [19] Although there are your devastated places and your desolated places and the land of your ruins, although now you are too cramped to be dwelling, and those swallowing you down have been far away, [20] yet in your own ears the sons of your bereaved state will say, ‘The place has become too cramped for me. Do make room for me, that I may dwell.’ [21] And you will for certain say in your heart, ‘Who has become father to these for me, since I am a woman bereaved of children and sterile, gone into exile and taken prisoner? As for these, who has brought them up? Look! I myself had been left behind alone. These—where have they been?’”

[22] This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Look! I shall raise up my hand even to the nations, and to the peoples I shall lift up my signal. And they will bring your sons in the bosom, and upon the shoulder they will carry your own daughters. [23] And kings must become caretakers for you, and their princesses nursing women for you. With faces to the earth they will bow down to you, and the dust of your feet they will lick up; and you will have to know that I am Jehovah, of whom those hoping in me will not be ashamed.”

[24] Can those already taken be taken from a mighty man himself, or can the body of captives of the tyrant make their escape? [25] But this is what Jehovah has said: “Even the body of captives of the mighty man will be taken away, and those already taken by the tyrant himself will make their escape. And against anyone contending against you I myself shall contend, and your own sons I myself shall save. [26] And I will make those maltreating you eat their own flesh; and as with the sweet wine they will become drunk with their own blood. And all flesh will have to know that I, Jehovah, am your Savior and your Repurchaser, the Powerful One of Jacob.”

50 This is what Jehovah has said: “Where, then, is the divorce certificate of the mother of YOU people, whom I sent away? Or which one of my creditors is it to whom I have sold YOU people? Look! Because of YOUR own errors YOU have been sold, and because of YOUR own transgressions YOUR mother has been sent away. [2] Why is it that, when I came in, there was no one? When I called, there was nobody answering? Has my hand become in fact so short that it cannot redeem, or is there in me no power to deliver? Look! With my rebuke I dry up the sea; I make rivers a wilderness. Their fish stink due to there being no water, and they die because of thirst. [3] I clothe the heavens with obscurity, and I make sackcloth itself their covering.”

[4] The Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself has given me the tongue of the taught ones, that I may know how to answer the tired one with a word. He awakens morning by morning; he awakens my ear to hear like the taught ones. [5] The Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself has opened my ear, and I, for my part, was not rebellious. I did not turn in the opposite direction. [6] My back I gave to the strikers, and my cheeks to those plucking off the hair. My face I did not conceal from humiliating things and spit.

[7] But the Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself will help me. That is why I shall not have to feel humiliated. That is why I have set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. [8] The One declaring me righteous is near. Who can contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who is my judicial antagonist? Let him approach me. [9] Look! The Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself will help me. Who is there that can pronounce me wicked? Look! All of them, like a garment, will wear out. A mere moth will eat them up.

[10] Who among YOU people is in fear of Jehovah, listening to the voice of his servant, who has walked in continual darkness and for whom there has been no brightness? Let him trust in the name of Jehovah and support himself upon his God.

[11] “Look! All YOU who are igniting a fire, making sparks light up, walk in the light of YOUR fire, and amid the sparks that YOU have set ablaze. From my hand YOU will certainly come to have this: In sheer pain YOU will lie down.

51 “Listen to me, YOU people who are pursuing after righteousness, YOU who are seeking to find Jehovah. Look to the rock from which YOU were hewn out, and to the hollow of the pit from which YOU were dug out. [2] Look to Abraham YOUR father and to Sarah who gradually brought YOU forth with childbirth pains. For he was one when I called him, and I proceeded to bless him and to make him many. [3] For Jehovah will certainly comfort Zion. He will for certain comfort all her devastated places, and he will make her wilderness like E′den and her desert plain like the garden of Jehovah. Exultation and rejoicing themselves will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of melody.

[4] “Pay attention to me, O my people; and you national group of mine, to me give ear. For from me a law itself will go forth, and my judicial decision I shall cause to repose even as a light to the peoples. [5] My righteousness is near. My salvation will certainly go forth, and my own arms will judge even the peoples. In me the islands themselves will hope, and for my arm they will wait.

[6] “Raise YOUR eyes to the heavens themselves, and look at the earth beneath. For the very heavens must be dispersed in fragments just like smoke, and like a garment the earth itself will wear out, and its inhabitants themselves will die like a mere gnat. But as for my salvation, it will prove to be even to time indefinite, and my own righteousness will not be shattered.

[7] “Listen to me, YOU the ones knowing righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law. Do not be afraid of the reproach of mortal men, and do not be struck with terror just because of their abusive words. [8] For the moth will eat them up just as if a garment, and the clothes moth will eat them up just as if wool. But as for my righteousness, it will prove to be even to time indefinite, and my salvation to unnumbered generations.”

[9] Awake, awake, clothe yourself with strength, O arm of Jehovah! Awake as in the days of long ago, as during the generations of times long past. Are you not the one that broke Raʹhab to pieces, that pierced the sea monster? [10] Are you not the one that dried up the sea, the waters of the vast deep? The one that made the depths of the sea a way for the repurchased ones to go across? [11] Then the redeemed ones of Jehovah themselves will return and must come to Zion with a joyful outcry, and rejoicing to time indefinite will be upon their head. To exultation and rejoicing they will attain. Grief and sighing will certainly flee away.

[12] “I—I myself am the One that is comforting YOU people.

“Who are you that you should be afraid of a mortal man that will die, and of a son of mankind that will be rendered as mere green grass? [13] And that you should forget Jehovah your Maker, the One stretching out the heavens and laying the foundation of the earth, so that you were in dread constantly the whole day long on account of the rage of the one hemming you in, as though he was all set to bring you to ruin? And where is the rage of the one hemming you in?

[14] “The one stooping in chains will certainly be loosened speedily, that he may not go in death to the pit and that his bread may not be lacking.

[15] “But I, Jehovah, am your God, the One stirring up the sea that its waves may be boisterous. Jehovah of armies is his name. [16] And I shall put my words in your mouth, and with the shadow of my hand I shall certainly cover you, in order to plant the heavens and lay the foundation of the earth and say to Zion, ‘You are my people.’

[17] “Rouse yourself, rouse yourself, rise up, O Jerusalem, you who have drunk at the hand of Jehovah his cup of rage. The goblet, the cup causing reeling, you have drunk, you have drained out. [18] There was none of all the sons that she brought to birth conducting her, and there was none of all the sons that she brought up taking hold of her hand. [19] Those two things were befalling you. Who will sympathize with you? Despoiling and breakdown, and hunger and sword! Who will comfort you? [20] Your own sons have swooned away. They have lain down at the head of all the streets like the wild sheep in the net, as those who are full of the rage of Jehovah, the rebuke of your God.”

[21] Therefore listen to this, please, O woman afflicted and drunk, but not with wine. [22] This is what your Lord, Jehovah, even your God, who contends for his people, has said: “Look! I will take away from your hand the cup causing reeling. The goblet, my cup of rage—you will not repeat the drinking of it anymore. [23] And I will put it in the hand of the ones irritating you, who have said to your soul, ‘Bow down that we may cross over,’ so that you used to make your back just like the earth, and like the street for those crossing over.”

52 Wake up, wake up, put on your strength, O Zion! Put on your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city! For no more will there come again into you the uncircumcised and unclean one. [2] Shake yourself free from the dust, rise up, take a seat, O Jerusalem. Loosen for yourself the bands on your neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

[3] For this is what Jehovah has said: “It was for nothing that YOU people were sold, and it will be without money that YOU will be repurchased.”

[4] For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “It was to Egypt that my people went down in the first instance to reside there as aliens; and without cause As·syr′i·a, for its part, oppressed them.”

[5] “And now, what interest do I have here?” is the utterance of Jehovah. “For my people were taken for nothing. The very ones ruling over them kept howling,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and constantly, all day long, my name was being treated with disrespect. [6] For that reason my people will know my name, even for that reason in that day, because I am the One that is speaking. Look! It is I.”

[7] How comely upon the mountains are the feet of the one bringing good news, the one publishing peace, the one bringing good news of something better, the one publishing salvation, the one saying to Zion: “Your God has become king!”

[8] Listen! Your own watchmen have raised their voice. In unison they keep crying out joyfully; for it will be eye into eye that they will see when Jehovah gathers back Zion.

[9] Become cheerful, cry out joyfully in unison, YOU devastated places of Jerusalem, for Jehovah has comforted his people; he has repurchased Jerusalem. [10] Jehovah has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth must see the salvation of our God.

[11] Turn away, turn away, get out of there, touch nothing unclean; get out from the midst of her, keep yourselves clean, YOU who are carrying the utensils of Jehovah. [12] For YOU people will get out in no panic, and YOU will go in no flight. For Jehovah will be going even before YOU, and the God of Israel will be YOUR rear guard.

[13] Look! My servant will act with insight. He will be in high station and will certainly be elevated and exalted very much. [14] To the extent that many have stared at him in amazement—so much was the disfigurement as respects his appearance more than that of any other man and as respects his stately form more than that of the sons of mankind— [15] he will likewise startle many nations. At him kings will shut their mouth, because what had not been recounted to them they will actually see, and to what they had not heard they must turn their consideration.

53 Who has put faith in the thing heard by us? And as for the arm of Jehovah, to whom has it been revealed? [2] And he will come up like a twig before one, and like a root out of waterless land. No stately form does he have, nor any splendor; and when we shall see him, there is not the appearance so that we should desire him.

[3] He was despised and was avoided by men, a man meant for pains and for having acquaintance with sickness. And there was as if the concealing of one’s face from us. He was despised, and we held him as of no account. [4] Truly our sicknesses were what he himself carried; and as for our pains, he bore them. But we ourselves accounted him as plagued, stricken by God and afflicted. [5] But he was being pierced for our transgression; he was being crushed for our errors. The chastisement meant for our peace was upon him, and because of his wounds there has been a healing for us. [6] Like sheep we have all of us wandered about; it was each one to his own way that we have turned; and Jehovah himself has caused the error of us all to meet up with that one. [7] He was hard pressed, and he was letting himself be afflicted; yet he would not open his mouth. He was being brought just like a sheep to the slaughtering; and like a ewe that before her shearers has become mute, he also would not open his mouth.

[8] Because of restraint and of judgment he was taken away; and who will concern himself even with the details of his generation? For he was severed from the land of the living ones. Because of the transgression of my people he had the stroke. [9] And he will make his burial place even with the wicked ones, and with the rich class in his death, despite the fact that he had done no violence and there was no deception in his mouth.

[10] But Jehovah himself took delight in crushing him; he made him sick. If you will set his soul as a guilt offering, he will see his offspring, he will prolong his days, and in his hand what is the delight of Jehovah will succeed. [11] Because of the trouble of his soul he will see, he will be satisfied. By means of his knowledge the righteous one, my servant, will bring a righteous standing to many people; and their errors he himself will bear. [12] For that reason I shall deal him a portion among the many, and it will be with the mighty ones that he will apportion the spoil, due to the fact that he poured out his soul to the very death, and it was with the transgressors that he was counted in; and he himself carried the very sin of many people, and for the transgressors he proceeded to interpose.

54 “Cry out joyfully, you barren woman that did not give birth! Become cheerful with a joyful outcry and cry shrilly, you that had no childbirth pains, for the sons of the desolated one are more numerous than the sons of the woman with a husbandly owner,” Jehovah has said. [2] “Make the place of your tent more spacious. And let them stretch out the tent cloths of your grand tabernacle. Do not hold back. Lengthen out your tent cords, and make those tent pins of yours strong. [3] For to the right and to the left you will break forth, and your own offspring will take possession even of nations, and they will inhabit even the desolated cities. [4] Do not be afraid, for you will not be put to shame; and do not feel humiliated, for you will not be disappointed. For you will forget even the shame of your time of youth, and the reproach of your continuous widowhood you will remember no more.”

[5] “For your Grand Maker is your husbandly owner, Jehovah of armies being his name; and the Holy One of Israel is your Repurchaser. The God of the whole earth he will be called. [6] For Jehovah called you as if you were a wife left entirely and hurt in spirit, and as a wife of the time of youth who was then rejected,” your God has said.

[7] “For a little moment I left you entirely, but with great mercies I shall collect you together. [8] With a flood of indignation I concealed my face from you for but a moment, but with loving-kindness to time indefinite I will have mercy upon you,” your Repurchaser, Jehovah, has said.

[9] “This is just as the days of Noah to me. Just as I have sworn that the waters of Noah shall no more pass over the earth, so I have sworn that I will not become indignant toward you nor rebuke you. [10] For the mountains themselves may be removed, and the very hills may stagger, but my loving-kindness itself will not be removed from you, nor will my covenant of peace itself stagger,” Jehovah, the One having mercy upon you, has said.

[11] “O woman afflicted, tempest-tossed, uncomforted, here I am laying with hard mortar your stones, and I will lay your foundation with sapphires. [12] And I will make your battlements of rubies, and your gates of fiery glowing stones, and all your boundaries of delightsome stones. [13] And all your sons will be persons taught by Jehovah, and the peace of your sons will be abundant. [14] You will prove to be firmly established in righteousness itself. You will be far away from oppression—for you will fear none—and from anything terrifying, for it will not come near you. [15] If anyone should at all make an attack, it will not be at my orders. Whoever is making an attack upon you will fall even on account of you.”

[16] “Look! I myself have created the craftsman, the one blowing upon the fire of charcoal and bringing forth a weapon as his workmanship. I myself, too, have created the ruinous man for wrecking work. [17] Any weapon whatever that will be formed against you will have no success, and any tongue at all that will rise up against you in the judgment you will condemn. This is the hereditary possession of the servants of Jehovah, and their righteousness is from me,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

55 Hey there, all YOU thirsty ones! Come to the water. And the ones that have no money! Come, buy and eat. Yes, come, buy wine and milk even without money and without price. [2] Why do YOU people keep paying out money for what is not bread, and why is YOUR toil for what results in no satisfaction? Listen intently to me, and eat what is good, and let YOUR soul find its exquisite delight in fatness itself. [3] Incline YOUR ear and come to me. Listen, and YOUR soul will keep alive, and I shall readily conclude with YOU people an indefinitely lasting covenant respecting the loving-kindnesses to David that are faithful. [4] Look! As a witness to the national groups I have given him, as a leader and commander to the national groups.

[5] Look! A nation that you do not know you will call, and those of a nation who have not known you will run even to you, for the sake of Jehovah your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he will have beautified you.

[6] Search for Jehovah, YOU people, while he may be found. Call to him while he proves to be near. [7] Let the wicked man leave his way, and the harmful man his thoughts; and let him return to Jehovah, who will have mercy upon him, and to our God, for he will forgive in a large way.

[8] “For the thoughts of YOU people are not my thoughts, nor are my ways YOUR ways,” is the utterance of Jehovah. [9] “For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so my ways are higher than YOUR ways, and my thoughts than YOUR thoughts. [10] For just as the pouring rain descends, and the snow, from the heavens and does not return to that place, unless it actually saturates the earth and makes it produce and sprout, and seed is actually given to the sower and bread to the eater, [11] so my word that goes forth from my mouth will prove to be. It will not return to me without results, but it will certainly do that in which I have delighted, and it will have certain success in that for which I have sent it.

[12] “For with rejoicing YOU people will go forth, and with peace YOU will be brought in. The mountains and the hills themselves will become cheerful before YOU with a joyful outcry, and the very trees of the field will all clap their hands. [13] Instead of the thicket of thorns the juniper tree will come up. Instead of the stinging nettle the myrtle tree will come up. And it must become for Jehovah something famous, a sign to time indefinite that will not be cut off.”

56 This is what Jehovah has said: “Keep justice, YOU people, and do what is righteous. For my salvation is at hand to come in, and my righteousness to be revealed. [2] Happy is the mortal man that does this, and the son of mankind that lays hold of it, keeping the sabbath in order not to profane it, and keeping his hand in order not to do any kind of badness. [3] And let not the foreigner that has joined himself to Jehovah say, ‘Without doubt Jehovah will divide me off from his people.’ Neither let the eunuch say, ‘Look! I am a dry tree.’”

[4] For this is what Jehovah has said to the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths and that have chosen what I have delighted in and that are laying hold of my covenant: [5] “I will even give to them in my house and within my walls a monument and a name, something better than sons and daughters. A name to time indefinite I shall give them, one that will not be cut off.

[6] “And the foreigners that have joined themselves to Jehovah to minister to him and to love the name of Jehovah, in order to become servants to him, all those keeping the sabbath in order not to profane it and laying hold of my covenant, [7] I will also bring them to my holy mountain and make them rejoice inside my house of prayer. Their whole burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be for acceptance upon my altar. For my own house will be called even a house of prayer for all the peoples.”

[8] The utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, who is collecting together the dispersed ones of Israel, is: “I shall collect together to him others besides those already collected together of his.”

[9] All YOU wild animals of the open field, come to eat, all YOU wild animals in the forest. [10] His watchmen are blind. None of them have taken note. All of them are speechless dogs; they are not able to bark, panting, lying down, loving to slumber. [11] They are even dogs strong in soulful desire; they have known no satisfaction. They are also shepherds that have not known how to understand. They have all of them turned to their own way, each one for his unjust gain from his own border: [12] “Come, men! Let me take some wine; and let us drink intoxicating liquor to the limit. And tomorrow will certainly turn out just as today, great in a very much larger way.”

57 The righteous one himself has perished, but there is no one taking it to heart. And men of loving-kindness are being gathered to the dead, while no one discerns that it is because of the calamity that the righteous one has been gathered away. [2] He enters into peace; they take rest upon their beds, each one that is walking straightforwardly.

[3] “As for YOU men, come up close here, YOU sons of a soothsaying woman, the seed of an adulterous person and of a woman that commits prostitution: [4] Over whom is it that YOU have a jolly good time? Against whom do YOU keep opening wide the mouth, keep sticking out the tongue? Are YOU not the children of transgression, the seed of falsehood, [5] those who are working up passion among big trees, under every luxuriant tree, slaughtering the children in the torrent valleys under the clefts of the crags?

[6] “With the smooth stones of the torrent valley was your portion. They—they were your lot. Moreover, to them you poured out a drink offering, you offered up a gift. For these things shall I comfort myself? [7] Upon a mountain high and lifted up you set your bed. There also you went up to offer sacrifice. [8] And behind the door and the doorpost you set your memorial. For apart from me you uncovered yourself and proceeded to go up; you made your bed spacious. And for yourself you went concluding a covenant with them. You loved a bed with them. The male organ you beheld. [9] And you proceeded to descend toward Melʹech with oil, and kept making your ointments abundant. And you continued sending your envoys far off, so that you lowered matters to Sheʹol. [10] In the multitude of your ways you have toiled. You have not said, ‘It is hopeless!’ You have found a revival of your own power. That is why you have not grown sick.

[11] “Whom did you become frightened at and begin to fear, so that you took up lying? But I was not the one that you remembered. You took nothing to your heart. Was I not keeping silent and hiding matters? So you were in no fear even of me. [12] I myself shall tell forth your righteousness and your works, that they will not benefit you. [13] When you cry for aid your collection of things will not deliver you, but a wind will carry even all of them away. An exhalation will take them away, but the one taking refuge in me will inherit the land and will take possession of my holy mountain. [14] And one will certainly say, ‘Bank up, YOU people, bank up! Clear the way. Remove any obstacle from the way of my people.’”

[15] For this is what the High and Lofty One, who is residing forever and whose name is holy, has said: “In the height and in the holy place is where I reside, also with the one crushed and lowly in spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly ones and to revive the heart of the ones being crushed. [16] For it will not be to time indefinite that I shall contend, nor perpetually that I shall be indignant; for because of me the spirit itself would grow feeble, even the breathing creatures that I myself have made.

[17] “At the erroneousness of his unjust gain I grew indignant, and I proceeded to strike him, concealing my face, while I was indignant. But he kept walking as a renegade in the way of his heart. [18] I have seen his very ways; and I began to heal him and conduct him and make compensation with comfort to him and to his mourning ones.”

[19] “I am creating the fruit of the lips. Continuous peace there will be to the one that is far away and to the one that is near,” Jehovah has said, “and I will heal him.”

[20] “But the wicked are like the sea that is being tossed, when it is unable to calm down, the waters of which keep tossing up seaweed and mire. [21] There is no peace,” my God has said, “for the wicked ones.”

58 “Call out full-throated; do not hold back. Raise your voice just like a horn, and tell my people their revolt, and the house of Jacob their sins. [2] Yet day after day it was I whom they kept seeking, and it was in the knowledge of my ways that they would express delight, like a nation that carried on righteousness itself and that had not left the very justice of their God, in that they kept asking me for righteous judgments, drawing near to God in whom they had delight,

[3] “‘For what reason did we fast and you did not see, and did we afflict our soul and you would take no note?’

“Indeed YOU people were finding delight in the very day of YOUR fasting, when there were all YOUR toilers that YOU kept driving to work. [4] Indeed for quarreling and struggle YOU would fast, and for striking with the fist of wickedness. Did YOU not keep fasting as in the day for making YOUR voice to be heard in the height? [5] Should the fast that I choose become like this, as a day for earthling man to afflict his soul? For bowing down his head just like a rush, and that he should spread out mere sackcloth and ashes as his couch? Is it this that you call a fast and a day acceptable to Jehovah?

[6] “Is not this the fast that I choose? To loosen the fetters of wickedness, to release the bands of the yoke bar, and to send away the crushed ones free, and that YOU people should tear in two every yoke bar? [7] Is it not the dividing of your bread out to the hungry one, and that you should bring the afflicted, homeless people into your house? That, in case you should see someone naked, you must cover him, and that you should not hide yourself from your own flesh?

[8] “In that case your light would break forth just like the dawn; and speedily would recuperation spring up for you. And before you your righteousness would certainly walk; the very glory of Jehovah would be your rear guard. [9] In that case you would call, and Jehovah himself would answer; you would cry for help, and he would say, ‘Here I am!’

“If you will remove from your midst the yoke bar, the poking out of the finger and the speaking of what is hurtful; [10] and you will grant to the hungry one your own soulful desire, and you will satisfy the soul that is being afflicted, your light also will certainly flash up even in the darkness, and your gloom will be like midday. [11] And Jehovah will be bound to lead you constantly and to satisfy your soul even in a scorched land, and he will invigorate your very bones; and you must become like a well-watered garden, and like the source of water, the waters of which do not lie. [12] And at your instance men will certainly build up the places devastated a long time; you will raise up even the foundations of continuous generations. And you will actually be called the repairer of the gap, the restorer of roadways by which to dwell.

[13] “If in view of the sabbath you will turn back your foot as regards doing your own delights on my holy day, and will actually call the sabbath an exquisite delight, a holy day of Jehovah, one being glorified, and will actually glorify it rather than doing your own ways, rather than finding what delights you and speaking a word; [14] you will in that case find your exquisite delight in Jehovah, and I will make you ride upon the high places of the earth; and I will cause you to eat from the hereditary possession of Jacob your forefather, for the mouth of Jehovah itself has spoken it.”

59 Look! The hand of Jehovah has not become too short that it cannot save, nor has his ear become too heavy that it cannot hear. [2] No, but the very errors of YOU people have become the things causing division between YOU and YOUR God, and YOUR own sins have caused the concealing of his face from YOU to keep from hearing. [3] For YOUR own palms have become polluted with blood, and YOUR fingers with error. YOUR own lips have spoken falsehood. YOUR own tongue kept muttering sheer unrighteousness. [4] There is no one calling out in righteousness, and no one at all has gone to court in faithfulness. There has been a trusting in unreality, and a speaking of worthlessness. There has been a conceiving of trouble, and a bringing of what is hurtful to birth.

[5] The eggs of a poisonous snake are what they have hatched, and they kept weaving the mere cobweb of a spider. Anyone eating some of their eggs would die, and the egg that was smashed would be hatched into a viper. [6] Their mere cobweb will not serve as a garment, nor will they cover themselves with their works. Their works are hurtful works, and the activity of violence is in their palms. [7] Their own feet keep running to sheer badness, and they are in a hurry to shed innocent blood. Their thoughts are hurtful thoughts; despoiling and breakdown are in their highways. [8] The way of peace they have ignored, and there is no justice in their tracks. Their roadways they have made crooked for themselves. No one at all treading in them will actually know peace.

[9] That is why justice has come to be far away from us, and righteousness does not catch up with us. We keep hoping for light, but, look! darkness; for brightness, but in continuous gloom we kept walking. [10] We keep groping for the wall just like blind men, and like those without eyes we keep groping. We have stumbled at high noon just as in evening darkness; among the stout ones we are just like dead people. [11] We keep groaning, all of us, just like bears; and like doves we mournfully keep cooing. We kept hoping for justice, but there was none; for salvation, but it has stayed far away from us. [12] For our revolts have become many in front of you; and as for our sins, each one has testified against us. For our revolts are with us; and as for our errors, we well know them. [13] There have been transgressing and a denying of Jehovah; and there was a moving back from our God, a speaking of oppression and revolt, a conceiving and a muttering of words of falsehood from the very heart. [14] And justice was forced to move back, and righteousness itself kept standing simply far off. For truth has stumbled even in the public square, and what is straightforward is unable to enter. [15] And the truth proves to be missing, and anyone turning away from badness is being despoiled.

And Jehovah got to see, and it was bad in his eyes that there was no justice. [16] And when he saw that there was no man, he began to show himself astonished that there was no one interposing. And his arm proceeded to save for him, and his own righteousness was the thing that supported him. [17] Then he put on righteousness as a coat of mail, and the helmet of salvation upon his head. Furthermore, he put on the garments of vengeance as raiment and enwrapped himself with zeal as if a sleeveless coat. [18] In accordance with the dealings he will reward correspondingly, rage to his adversaries, due treatment to his enemies. To the islands he will recompense due treatment. [19] And from the sunset they will begin to fear the name of Jehovah, and from the rising of the sun the glory of him, for he will come in like a distressing river, which the very spirit of Jehovah has driven along.

20 “And to Zion the Repurchaser will certainly come, and to those turning from transgression in Jacob,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

21 “And as for me, this is my covenant with them,” Jehovah has said.

“My spirit that is upon you and my words that I have put in your mouth—they will not be removed from your mouth or from the mouth of your offspring or from the mouth of the offspring of your offspring,” Jehovah has said, “from now on even to time indefinite.”

60 “Arise, O woman, shed forth light, for your light has come and upon you the very glory of Jehovah has shone forth. [2] For, look! darkness itself will cover the earth, and thick gloom the national groups; but upon you Jehovah will shine forth, and upon you his own glory will be seen. [3] And nations will certainly go to your light, and kings to the brightness of your shining forth.

[4] “Raise your eyes all around and see! They have all of them been collected together; they have come to you. From far away your own sons keep coming, and your daughters who will be taken care of on the flank. [5] At that time you will see and certainly become radiant, and your heart will actually quiver and expand, because to you the wealthiness of the sea will direct itself; the very resources of the nations will come to you. [6] The heaving mass of camels itself will cover you, the young male camels of Mid′i·an and of E′phah. All those from She′ba—they will come. Gold and frankincense they will carry. And the praises of Jehovah they will announce. [7] All the flocks of Ke′dar—they will be collected together to you. The rams of Ne·ba′ioth—they will minister to you. With approval they will come up upon my altar, and I shall beautify my own house of beauty.

[8] “Who are these that come flying just like a cloud, and like doves to their birdhouse holes? [9] For in me the islands themselves will keep hoping, the ships of Tar′shish also as at the first, in order to bring your sons from far away, their silver and their gold being with them, to the name of Jehovah your God and to the Holy One of Israel, for he will have beautified you. [10] And foreigners will actually build your walls, and their own kings will minister to you; for in my indignation I shall have struck you, but in my goodwill I shall certainly have mercy upon you.

[11] “And your gates will actually be kept open constantly; they will not be closed even by day or by night, in order to bring to you the resources of the nations, and their kings will be taking the lead. [12] For any nation and any kingdom that will not serve you will perish; and the nations themselves will without fail come to devastation.

[13] “To you the very glory of Leb′a·non will come, the juniper tree, the ash tree and the cypress at the same time, in order to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I shall glorify the very place of my feet.

[14] “And to you the sons of those afflicting you must go, bowing down; and all those treating you disrespectfully must bend down at the very soles of your feet, and they will have to call you the city of Jehovah, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

[15] “Instead of your proving to be one left entirely and hated, with nobody passing through, I will even set you as a thing of pride to time indefinite, an exultation for generation after generation. [16] And you will actually suck the milk of nations, and the breast of kings you will suck; and you will be certain to know that I, Jehovah, am your Savior, and the Powerful One of Jacob is your Repurchaser. [17] Instead of the copper I shall bring in gold, and instead of the iron I shall bring in silver, and instead of the wood, copper, and instead of the stones, iron; and I will appoint peace as your overseers and righteousness as your task assigners.

[18] “No more will violence be heard in your land, despoiling or breakdown within your boundaries. And you will certainly call your own walls Salvation and your gates Praise. [19] For you the sun will no more prove to be a light by day, and for brightness the moon itself will no more give you light. And Jehovah must become to you an indefinitely lasting light, and your God your beauty. [20] No more will your sun set, nor will your moon go on the wane; for Jehovah himself will become for you an indefinitely lasting light, and the days of your mourning will have come to completion. [21] And as for your people, all of them will be righteous; to time indefinite they will hold possession of the land, the sprout of my planting, the work of my hands, for me to be beautified. [22] The little one himself will become a thousand, and the small one a mighty nation. I myself, Jehovah, shall speed it up in its own time.”

61 The spirit of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah is upon me, for the reason that Jehovah has anointed me to tell good news to the meek ones. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to those taken captive and the wide opening of the eyes even to the prisoners; [2] to proclaim the year of goodwill on the part of Jehovah and the day of vengeance on the part of our God; to comfort all the mourning ones; [3] to assign to those mourning over Zion, to give them a headdress instead of ashes, the oil of exultation instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of the downhearted spirit; and they must be called big trees of righteousness, the planting of Jehovah, for him to be beautified. [4] And they must rebuild the long-standing devastated places; they will raise up even the desolated places of former times, and they will certainly make anew the devastated cities, the places desolate for generation after generation.

[5] “And strangers will actually stand and shepherd the flocks of YOU people, and the foreigners will be YOUR farmers and YOUR vinedressers. [6] And as for YOU, the priests of Jehovah YOU will be called; the ministers of our God YOU will be said to be. The resources of the nations YOU people will eat, and in their glory YOU will speak elatedly about yourselves. [7] Instead of YOUR shame there will be a double portion, and instead of humiliation they will cry out joyfully over their share. Therefore in their land they will take possession of even a double portion. Rejoicing to time indefinite is what will come to be theirs. [8] For I, Jehovah, am loving justice, hating robbery along with unrighteousness. And I will give their wages in trueness, and an indefinitely lasting covenant I shall conclude toward them. [9] And their offspring will actually be known even among the nations, and their descendants in among the peoples. All those seeing them will recognize them, that they are the offspring whom Jehovah has blessed.”

[10] Without fail I shall exult in Jehovah. My soul will be joyful in my God. For he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; with the sleeveless coat of righteousness he has enwrapped me, like the bridegroom who, in a priestly way, puts on a headdress, and like the bride who decks herself with her ornamental things. [11] For as the earth itself brings forth its sprout, and as the garden itself makes the things that are sown in it sprout, in like manner the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will cause the sprouting of righteousness and of praise in front of all the nations.

62 For the sake of Zion I shall not keep still, and for the sake of Jerusalem I shall not stay quiet until her righteousness goes forth just like the brightness, and her salvation like a torch that burns.

[2] “And the nations will certainly see your righteousness, O woman, and all kings your glory. And you will actually be called by a new name, which the very mouth of Jehovah will designate. [3] And you must become a crown of beauty in the hand of Jehovah, and a kingly turban in the palm of your God. [4] No more will you be said to be a woman left entirely; and your own land will no more be said to be desolate; but you yourself will be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Owned as a Wife. For Jehovah will have taken delight in you, and your own land will be owned as a wife. [5] For just as a young man takes ownership of a virgin as his wife, your sons will take ownership of you as a wife. And with the exultation of a bridegroom over a bride, your God will exult even over you. [6] Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have commissioned watchmen. All day long and all night long, constantly, let them not keep still.

“YOU who are making mention of Jehovah, let there be no silence on YOUR part, [7] and do not give him any silence until he fixes solidly, yes, until he sets Jerusalem as a praise in the earth.”

[8] Jehovah has sworn with his right hand and with his strong arm: “I will no more give your grain as food to your enemies, nor will foreigners drink your new wine, for which you have toiled. [9] But the very ones gathering it will eat it, and they will be certain to praise Jehovah; and the very ones collecting it will drink it in my holy courtyards.”

[10] Pass out, pass out through the gates, YOU men. Clear the way of the people. Bank up, bank up the highway. Rid it of stones. Raise up a signal for the peoples.

[11] Look! Jehovah himself has caused it to be heard to the farthest part of the earth: “Say, YOU people, to the daughter of Zion, ‘Look! Your salvation is coming. Look! The reward he gives is with him, and the wages he pays are before him.’”

[12] And men will certainly call them the holy people, those repurchased by Jehovah; and you yourself will be called Searched For, a City Not Left Entirely.

63 Who is this one coming from E′dom, the one with garments of glowing colors from Boz′rah, this one who is honorable in his clothing, marching in the abundance of his power?

“I, the One speaking in righteousness, the One abounding in power to save.”

[2] Why is it that your clothing is red, and your garments are like those of one treading in the winepress?

[3] “The wine trough I have trodden by myself, while there was no man with me from the peoples. And I kept treading them in my anger, and I kept trampling them down in my rage. And their spurting blood kept spattering upon my garments, and all my clothing I have polluted. [4] For the day of vengeance is in my heart, and the very year of my repurchased ones has come. [5] And I kept looking, but there was no helper; and I began to show myself astonished, but there was no one offering support. So my arm furnished me salvation, and my rage was what supported me. [6] And I kept stamping down peoples in my anger, and I proceeded to make them drunk with my rage and to bring down to the earth their spurting blood.”

[7] The loving-kindnesses of Jehovah I shall mention, the praises of Jehovah, according to all that Jehovah has rendered to us, even the abundant goodness to the house of Israel that he has rendered to them according to his mercies and according to the abundance of his loving-kindnesses. [8] And he went on to say: “Surely they are my people, sons that will not prove false.” So it was to them that he came to be a Savior. [9] During all their distress it was distressing to him. And his own personal messenger saved them. In his love and in his compassion he himself repurchased them, and he proceeded to lift them up and carry them all the days of long ago.

10 But they themselves rebelled and made his holy spirit feel hurt. He now was changed into an enemy of theirs; he himself warred against them. 11 And one began to remember the days of long ago, Moses his servant: “Where is the One that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? Where is the One that put within him His own holy spirit? 12 The One making His beautiful arm go at the right hand of Moses; the One splitting the waters from before them in order to make an indefinitely lasting name for his own self; 13 the One making them walk through the surging waters so that, like a horse in the wilderness, they did not stumble? 14 Just as when a beast itself goes down into the valley plain, the very spirit of Jehovah proceeded to make them rest.”

Thus you led your people in order to make a beautiful name for your own self.

15 Look from heaven and see out of your lofty abode of holiness and beauty. Where are your zeal and your full might, the commotion of your inward parts, and your mercies? Toward me they have restrained themselves. 16 For you are our Father; although Abraham himself may not have known us and Israel himself may not recognize us, you, O Jehovah, are our Father. Our Repurchaser of long ago is your name. 17 Why do you, O Jehovah, keep making us wander from your ways? Why do you make our heart hard against the fear of you? Come back for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your hereditary possession. 18 For a little while your holy people had possession. Our own adversaries have stamped down your sanctuary. 19 We have for a long time become as those over whom you did not rule, as those upon whom your name had not been called.

64 O if only you had ripped the heavens apart, that you had come down, that on account of you the very mountains had quaked, [2] as when a fire ignites the brushwood, and the fire makes the very water boil up, in order to make your name known to your adversaries, that on account of you the nations might be agitated! [3] When you did fear-inspiring things for which we could not hope, you came down. On account of you the mountains themselves quaked. [4] And from time long ago none have heard, nor have any given ear, nor has an eye itself seen a God, except you, that acts for the one that keeps in expectation of him. [5] You have met up with the one exulting and doing righteousness, those who keep remembering you in your own ways.

Look! You yourself became indignant, while we kept sinning—in them a long time, and should we be saved? [6] And we become like someone unclean, all of us, and all our acts of righteousness are like a garment for periods of menstruation; and we shall fade away like leafage, all of us, and our errors themselves will carry us away just like a wind. [7] And there is no one calling upon your name, no one rousing himself to lay hold on you; for you have concealed your face from us, and you cause us to melt by the power of our error.

[8] And now, O Jehovah, you are our Father. We are the clay, and you are our Potter; and all of us are the work of your hand. [9] Do not be indignant, O Jehovah, to the extreme, and do not forever remember our error. Look, now, please: we are all your people. [10] Your own holy cities have become a wilderness. Zion itself has become a sheer wilderness, Jerusalem a desolate waste. [11] Our house of holiness and beauty, in which our forefathers praised you, has itself become something for burning in the fire; and every one of our desirable things has become a devastation. [12] In the face of these things will you continue keeping yourself in check, O Jehovah? Will you stay still and let us be afflicted to the extreme?

65 “I have let myself be searched for by those who had not asked for me. I have let myself be found by those who had not looked for me. I have said, ‘Here I am, here I am!’ to a nation that was not calling upon my name.

[2] “I have spread out my hands all day long to a stubborn people, those who are walking in the way that is not good, after their thoughts; [3] the people made up of those offending me right to my face constantly, sacrificing in the gardens and making sacrificial smoke upon the bricks, [4] seating themselves among the burial places, who also pass the night even in the watch huts, eating the flesh of the pig, even the broth of foul things being in their vessels; [5] those who are saying, ‘Keep close to yourself. Do not approach me, for I shall certainly convey holiness to you.’ These are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire burning all day long.

[6] “Look! It is written before me. I shall not keep still, but I will render a reward; I will even render the reward into their own bosom, [7] for their own errors and for the errors of their forefathers at the same time,” Jehovah has said. “Because they have made sacrificial smoke upon the mountains, and upon the hills they have reproached me, I will also measure out their wages first of all into their own bosom.”

[8] This is what Jehovah has said: “In the same way that the new wine is found in the cluster and someone has to say, ‘Do not ruin it, because there is a blessing in it,’ so I shall do for the sake of my servants in order not to bring everybody to ruin. [9] And I will bring forth out of Jacob an offspring and out of Judah the hereditary possessor of my mountains; and my chosen ones must take possession of it, and my own servants will reside there. [10] And Shar′on must become a pasture ground for sheep and the low plain of A′chor a resting-place for cattle, for my people who will have looked for me.

[11] “But YOU men are those leaving Jehovah, those forgetting my holy mountain, those setting in order a table for the god of Good Luck and those filling up mixed wine for the god of Destiny. [12] And I will destine YOU men to the sword, and YOU will all of YOU bow down to being slaughtered; for the reason that I called, but YOU did not answer; I spoke, but YOU did not listen; and YOU kept doing what was bad in my eyes, and the thing in which I took no delight YOU chose.”

[13] Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Look! My own servants will eat, but YOU yourselves will go hungry. Look! My own servants will drink, but YOU yourselves will go thirsty. Look! My own servants will rejoice, but YOU yourselves will suffer shame. [14] Look! My own servants will cry out joyfully because of the good condition of the heart, but YOU yourselves will make outcries because of the pain of heart and YOU will howl because of sheer breakdown of spirit. [15] And YOU men will certainly lay up YOUR name for an oath by my chosen ones, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will actually put YOU individually to death, but his own servants he will call by another name; [16] so that anyone blessing himself in the earth will bless himself by the God of faith, and anyone making a sworn statement in the earth will swear by the God of faith; because the former distresses will actually be forgotten and because they will actually be concealed from my eyes.

[17] “For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth; and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart. [18] But exult, YOU people, and be joyful forever in what I am creating. For here I am creating Jerusalem a cause for joyfulness and her people a cause for exultation. [19] And I will be joyful in Jerusalem and exult in my people; and no more will there be heard in her the sound of weeping or the sound of a plaintive cry.”

[20] “No more will there come to be a suckling a few days old from that place, neither an old man that does not fulfill his days; for one will die as a mere boy, although a hundred years of age; and as for the sinner, although a hundred years of age he will have evil called down upon him. [21] And they will certainly build houses and have occupancy; and they will certainly plant vineyards and eat their fruitage. [22] They will not build and someone else have occupancy; they will not plant and someone else do the eating. For like the days of a tree will the days of my people be; and the work of their own hands my chosen ones will use to the full. [23] They will not toil for nothing, nor will they bring to birth for disturbance; because they are the offspring made up of the blessed ones of Jehovah, and their descendants with them. [24] And it will actually occur that before they call out I myself shall answer; while they are yet speaking, I myself shall hear.

[25] “The wolf and the lamb themselves will feed as one, and the lion will eat straw just like the bull; and as for the serpent, his food will be dust. They will do no harm nor cause any ruin in all my holy mountain,” Jehovah has said.

66 This is what Jehovah has said: “The heavens are my throne, and the earth is my footstool. Where, then, is the house that YOU people can build for me, and where, then, is the place as a resting-place for me?”

[2] “Now all these things my own hand has made, so that all these came to be,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “To this one, then, I shall look, to the one afflicted and contrite in spirit and trembling at my word.

[3] “The one slaughtering the bull is as one striking down a man. The one sacrificing the sheep is as one breaking the neck of a dog. The one offering up a gift—the blood of a pig! The one presenting a memorial of frankincense is as one saying a blessing with uncanny words. They are also the ones that have chosen their own ways, and in their disgusting things their very soul has taken a delight. [4] I myself, in turn, shall choose ways of ill-treating them; and the things frightful to them I shall bring upon them; for the reason that I called, but there was no one answering; I spoke, but there were none that listened; and they kept on doing what was bad in my eyes, and the thing in which I took no delight they chose.”

[5] Hear the word of Jehovah, YOU men who are trembling at his word: “YOUR brothers that are hating YOU, that are excluding YOU by reason of my name, said, ‘May Jehovah be glorified!’ He must also appear with rejoicing on YOUR part, and they are the ones that will be put to shame.”

[6] There is a sound of uproar out of the city, a sound out of the temple! It is the sound of Jehovah repaying what is deserved to his enemies.

[7] Before she began to come into labor pains she gave birth. Before birth pangs could come to her, she even gave deliverance to a male child. [8] Who has heard of a thing like this? Who has seen things like these? Will a land be brought forth with labor pains in one day? Or will a nation be born at one time? For Zion has come into labor pains as well as given birth to her sons.

[9] “As for me, shall I cause the breaking through and not cause the giving birth?” says Jehovah. “Or am I causing a giving birth and do I actually cause a shutting up?” your God has said.

[10] Rejoice with Jerusalem and be joyful with her, all YOU lovers of her. Exult greatly with her, all YOU keeping yourselves in mourning over her; [11] for the reason that YOU will suck and certainly get satisfaction from the breast of full consolation by her; for the reason that YOU will sip and experience exquisite delight from the teat of her glory. [12] For this is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am extending to her peace just like a river and the glory of nations just like a flooding torrent, and YOU will certainly suck. Upon the flank YOU will be carried, and upon the knees YOU will be fondled. [13] Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting YOU people; and in the case of Jerusalem YOU will be comforted. [14] And YOU will certainly see, and YOUR heart will be bound to exult, and YOUR very bones will sprout just like tender grass. And the hand of Jehovah will certainly be made known to his servants, but he will actually denounce his enemies.”

[15] “For here Jehovah himself comes as a very fire, and his chariots are like a storm wind, in order to pay back his anger with sheer rage and his rebuke with flames of fire. [16] For as fire Jehovah himself will for a fact take up the controversy, yes, with his sword, against all flesh; and the slain of Jehovah will certainly become many. [17] Those sanctifying themselves and cleansing themselves for the gardens behind one in the center, eating the flesh of the pig and the loathsome thing, even the jumping rodent, they will all together reach their end,” is the utterance of Jehovah. [18] “And as regards their works and their thoughts, I am coming in order to collect all the nations and tongues together; and they will have to come and see my glory.”

[19] “And I will set among them a sign, and I will send some of those who are escaped to the nations, to Tar′shish, Pul, and Lud, those drawing the bow, Tu′bal and Ja′van, the faraway islands, who have not heard a report about me or seen my glory; and they will for certain tell about my glory among the nations. [20] And they will actually bring all YOUR brothers out of all the nations as a gift to Jehovah, on horses and in chariots and in covered wagons and on mules and on swift she-camels, up to my holy mountain, Jerusalem,” Jehovah has said, “just as when the sons of Israel bring the gift in a clean vessel into the house of Jehovah.”

[21] “And from them also I shall take some for the priests, for the Levites,” Jehovah has said.

[22] “For just as the new heavens and the new earth that I am making are standing before me,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “so the offspring of YOU people and the name of YOU people will keep standing.”

[23] “And it will certainly occur that from new moon to new moon and from sabbath to sabbath all flesh will come in to bow down before me,” Jehovah has said. [24] “And they will actually go forth and look upon the carcasses of the men that were transgressing against me; for the very worms upon them will not die and their fire itself will not be extinguished, and they must become something repulsive to all flesh.”

JEREMIAH

1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hil·kiʹah, one of the priests that were in Anʹa·thoth in the land of Benjamin; [2] to whom the word of Jehovah occurred in the days of Jo·siʹah the son of Aʹmon, the king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reigning. [3] And it kept on occurring in the days of Je·hoiʹa·kim the son of Jo·siʹah, the king of Judah, until the completion of the eleventh year of Zed·e·kiʹah the son of Jo·siʹah, the king of Judah, until Jerusalem went into exile in the fifth month.

[4] And the word of Jehovah began to occur to me, saying: [5] “Before I was forming you in the belly I knew you, and before you proceeded to come forth from the womb I sanctified you. Prophet to the nations I made you.”

[6] But I said: “Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Here I actually do not know how to speak, for I am but a boy.”

[7] And Jehovah went on to say to me: “Do not say, ‘I am but a boy.’ But to all those to whom I shall send you, you should go; and everything that I shall command you, you should speak. [8] Do not be afraid because of their faces, for ‘I am with you to deliver you,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

[9] At that Jehovah thrust his hand out and caused it to touch my mouth. Then Jehovah said to me: “Here I have put my words in your mouth. [10] See, I have commissioned you this day to be over the nations and over the kingdoms, in order to uproot and to pull down and to destroy and to tear down, to build and to plant.”

[11] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: “What are you seeing, Jeremiah?”

So I said: “An offshoot of an almond tree is what I am seeing.”

[12] And Jehovah went on to say to me: “You have seen well, for I am keeping awake concerning my word in order to carry it out.”

[13] And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to me the second time, saying: “What are you seeing?”

So I said: “A widemouthed cooking pot blown upon is what I am seeing, and its mouth is away from the north.”

[14] At this Jehovah said to me: “Out of the north the calamity will be loosened against all the inhabitants of the land. [15] For ‘here I am calling for all the families of the kingdoms of the north,’ is the utterance of Jehovah; ‘and they will certainly come and place each one his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all her walls round about and against all the cities of Judah. [16] And I will speak with them my judgments over all their badness, in that they have left me and they keep making sacrificial smoke to other gods and bowing down to the works of their own hands.’

[17] “And as for you, you should gird up your hips, and you must rise up and speak to them everything that I myself command you. Do not be struck with any terror because of them, in order that I may not strike you with terror before them. [18] But as for me, here I have made you today a fortified city and an iron pillar and copper walls against all the land, toward the kings of Judah, toward her princes, toward her priests and toward the people of the land. [19] And they will be certain to fight against you, but they will not prevail against you, for ‘I am with you,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘to deliver you.’”

2 And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to me, saying: [2] “Go, and you must call out in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “I well remember, on your part, the loving-kindness of your youth, the love during your being engaged to marry, your walking after me in the wilderness, in a land not sown with seed. [3] Israel was something holy to Jehovah, the first yield to Him.”’ ‘Any persons devouring him would make themselves guilty. Calamity itself would come upon them,’ was the utterance of Jehovah.”

[4] Hear the word of Jehovah, O house of Jacob, and all YOU families of the house of Israel. [5] This is what Jehovah has said: “What have YOUR fathers found in me that was unjust, so that they have become far off from me, and they kept walking after the vain idol and becoming vain themselves? [6] And they have not said, ‘Where is Jehovah, the One bringing us up out of the land of Egypt, the One walking us through the wilderness, through a land of desert plain and pit, through a land of no water and of deep shadow, through a land through which no man passed and in which no earthling man dwelt?’

[7] “And I gradually brought YOU to a land of the orchard, to eat its fruitage and its good things. But YOU came in and defiled my land; and my own inheritance YOU made something detestable. [8] The priests themselves did not say, ‘Where is Jehovah?’ And the very ones handling the law did not know me; and the shepherds themselves transgressed against me, and even the prophets prophesied by Baʹal, and after those who could bring no benefit they walked.

[9] “‘Therefore I shall contend further with YOU people,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and with the sons of YOUR sons I shall contend.’

[10] “‘But pass over to the coastlands of the Kit′tim and see. Yes, send even to Ke′dar and give YOUR special consideration, and see whether anything like this has happened. [11] Has a nation exchanged gods, even for those that are no gods? But my own people have exchanged my glory for what can bring no benefit. [12] Stare in amazement, O YOU heavens, at this; and bristle up in very great horror,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, [13] ‘because there are two bad things that my people have done: They have left even me, the source of living water, in order to hew out for themselves cisterns, broken cisterns, that cannot contain the water.’

[14] “‘Is Israel a servant, or a slave born in the household? Why is it that he has come to be for plunder? [15] Against him maned young lions roar; they have given out their voice. And they went making his land an object of astonishment. His own cities have been set afire, so that there is no inhabitant. [16] Even the sons of Noph and Tah′pan·es themselves kept feeding on you at the crown of the head. [17] Is not this what you proceeded to do to yourself by your leaving Jehovah your God during the time of his walking you in the way? [18] And now what concern should you have for the way of Egypt in order to drink the waters of Shi′hor? And what concern should you have for the way of As·syr′i·a in order to drink the waters of the River? [19] Your badness should correct you, and your own acts of unfaithfulness should reprove you. Know, then, and see that your leaving Jehovah your God is something bad and bitter, and no dread of me has resulted to you,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies.

[20] “‘For long ago I broke your yoke to pieces; I tore your bands apart. But you said: “I am not going to serve,” for upon every high hill and under every luxuriant tree you were lying sprawled out, prostituting yourself. [21] And as for me, I had planted you as a choice red vine, all of it a true seed. So how have you been changed toward me into the degenerate shoots of a foreign vine?’

[22] “‘But though you should do the washing with alkali and take to yourself large quantities of lye, your error would certainly be a stain before me,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. [23] How can you say, ‘I have not defiled myself. After the Ba′als I have not walked’? See your way in the valley. Take note of what you have done. A swift young she-camel aimlessly running to and fro in her ways; [24] a zebra accustomed to the wilderness, at the craving of her soul, snuffing up the wind; at her time for copulation, who can turn her back? All those who are looking for her will not go tiring themselves out. In her month they will find her. [25] Hold your foot back from becoming barefoot, and your throat from thirst. But you proceeded to say, ‘It is hopeless! No, but I have fallen in love with strangers, and after them I am going to walk.’

[26] “As with the shame of a thief when he is found out, so those of the house of Israel have felt shame, they, their kings, their princes and their priests and their prophets. [27] They are saying to a tree, ‘You are my father,’ and to a stone, ‘You yourself brought me to birth.’ But to me they have turned the back of the neck and not the face. And in the time of their calamity they will say, ‘Do rise up and save us!’

[28] “But where are your gods that you have made for yourself? Let them rise up if they can save you in the time of your calamity. For as the number of your cities your gods have become, O Judah.

[29] “‘Why do YOU people keep contending against me? Why have YOU transgressed, all of YOU, against me?’ is the utterance of Jehovah. [30] To no effect I have struck YOUR sons. No discipline did they take. YOUR sword has devoured YOUR prophets, like a lion that is causing ruin. [31] O generation, see for yourselves the word of Jehovah.

“Have I become a mere wilderness to Israel or a land of intense darkness? Why is it that these, my people, have said, ‘We have roamed. We shall come to you no more’? [32] Can a virgin forget her ornaments, a bride her breastbands? And yet my own people—they have forgotten me days without number.

[33] “Why do you, O woman, improve your way in order to look for love? Therefore it has also been in bad things that you have taught your ways. [34] Also, in your skirts there have been found the blood marks of the souls of the innocent poor ones. Not in the act of breaking in have I found them, but they are upon all these.

[35] “But you say, ‘I have remained innocent. Surely his anger has turned back from me.’

“Here I am entering into controversy with you on account of your saying, ‘I have not sinned.’ [36] Why do you treat as very insignificant the changing of your way? Of Egypt, too, you will become ashamed, just as you became ashamed of As·syr′i·a. [37] For this cause also you will go forth with your hands upon your head, because Jehovah has rejected the objects of your confidence, and you will have no success with them.”

3 There is a saying: “If a man should send away his wife and she should actually go away from him and become another man’s, should he return to her anymore?”

Has that land not positively been polluted?

“And you yourself have committed prostitution with many companions; and should there be a returning to me?” is the utterance of Jehovah. [2] “Raise your eyes to the beaten paths and see. Where is it that you have not been raped? Alongside the ways you have sat for them, like an Arabian in the wilderness; and you keep polluting the land with your acts of prostitution and with your badness. [3] So copious showers are withheld, and not even a spring rain has occurred. And the forehead of a wife committing prostitution is what has become yours. You have refused to feel humiliated. [4] Have you from now on called out to me, ‘My Father, you are the confidential friend of my youth! [5] Should one stay resentful to time indefinite, or keep watching something forever?’ Look! You have spoken, and you went on to do bad things and prevail.”

[6] And Jehovah proceeded to say to me in the days of Jo·si′ah the king: “‘Have you seen what unfaithful Israel has done? She is going upon every high mountain and underneath every luxuriant tree, that she may commit prostitution there. [7] And after her doing all these things I kept saying that she should return even to me, but she did not return; and Judah kept looking at her own treacherous sister. [8] When I got to see that, for the very reason that unfaithful Israel had committed adultery, I sent her away and proceeded to give the certificate of her full divorce to her, yet treacherously dealing Judah her sister did not become afraid, but she herself also began to go and commit prostitution. [9] And her prostitution occurred because of her frivolous view, and she kept polluting the land and committing adultery with stones and with trees; [10] and even for all this her treacherous sister Judah did not return to me with all her heart, only falsely,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

[11] And Jehovah went on to say to me: “Unfaithful Israel has proved her own soul to be more righteous than treacherously dealing Judah. [12] Go, and you must proclaim these words to the north and say:

“‘“Do return, O renegade Israel,” is the utterance of Jehovah.’ ‘“I shall not have my face drop angrily upon YOU people, for I am loyal,” is the utterance of Jehovah.’ ‘“I shall not stay resentful to time indefinite. [13] Only take note of your error, for it is against Jehovah your God that you have transgressed. And you continued scattering your ways to the strangers under every luxuriant tree, but to my voice YOU people did not listen,” is the utterance of Jehovah.’”

[14] “Return, O YOU renegade sons,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “For I myself have become the husbandly owner of YOU people; and I will take YOU, one out of a city and two out of a family, and I will bring YOU to Zion. [15] And I will give YOU shepherds in agreement with my heart, and they will certainly feed YOU with knowledge and insight. [16] And it must occur that YOU will become many and certainly bear fruit in the land in those days,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “No more will they say, ‘The ark of the covenant of Jehovah!’ nor will it come up into the heart, nor will they remember it or miss it, and no more will it be made. [17] In that time they will call Jerusalem the throne of Jehovah; and to her all the nations must be brought together to the name of Jehovah at Jerusalem, and they will no more walk after the stubbornness of their bad heart.”

[18] “In those days they will walk, the house of Judah alongside the house of Israel, and together they will come out of the land of the north into the land that I gave as a hereditary possession to YOUR forefathers. [19] And I myself have said, ‘O how I proceeded to place you among the sons and to give you the desirable land, the hereditary possession of the ornament of the armies of the nations!’ And I further said, ‘“My Father!” YOU people will call out to me, and from following me YOU people will not turn back.’ [20] ‘Truly as a wife has treacherously gone from her companion, so YOU, O house of Israel, have dealt treacherously with me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

[21] On the beaten paths there has been heard a sound, the weeping, the entreaties of the sons of Israel. For they have twisted their way; they have forgotten Jehovah their God.

[22] “Return, YOU renegade sons. I shall heal YOUR renegade condition.”

“Here we are! We have come to you, for you, O Jehovah, are our God. [23] Truly the hills as well as the turmoil on the mountains belong to falsehood. Truly in Jehovah our God is the salvation of Israel. [24] But the shameful thing itself has eaten up the toil of our forefathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. [25] We lie down in our shame, and our humiliation keeps covering us; for it is toward Jehovah our God that we have sinned, we and our fathers from our youth on and down to this day, and we have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God.”

4 “If you would return, O Israel,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “you may return even to me. And if you will take away your disgusting things on my account, then you will not go as a fugitive. [2] And if you will certainly swear, ‘As Jehovah is alive in truth, in justice and in righteousness!’ then in him the nations will actually bless themselves, and in him they will boast about themselves.”

[3] For this is what Jehovah has said to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem: “Plow for yourselves arable land, and do not keep sowing among thorns. [4] Get yourselves circumcised to Jehovah, and take away the foreskins of YOUR hearts, YOU men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; that my rage may not go forth just like a fire, and it certainly burn with no one to do the extinguishing, on account of the badness of YOUR dealings.”

[5] Tell it in Judah, YOU men, and publish it even in Jerusalem, and say it out, and blow a horn throughout the land. Call out loudly and say: “Gather yourselves together, and let us enter into the fortified cities. [6] Raise a signal toward Zion. Make provision for shelter. Do not stand still.” For there is a calamity that I am bringing in from the north, even a great crash. [7] He has gone up as a lion out of his thicket, and the one who is bringing the nations to ruin has pulled away; he has gone forth from his place in order to render your land as an object of astonishment. Your own cities will fall in ruins so that there will be no inhabitant. [8] On this account gird on sackcloth, YOU people. Beat YOUR breasts and howl, because the burning anger of Jehovah has not turned back from us.

[9] “And it must occur in that day,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “that the heart of the king will perish, also the heart of the princes; and the priests will certainly be driven to astonishment, and the prophets themselves will be amazed.”

[10] And I proceeded to say: “Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Truly you have absolutely deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, ‘Peace itself will become YOURS,’ and the sword has reached clear to the soul.”

[11] At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: “There is a searing wind of the beaten paths through the wilderness on the way to the daughter of my people; it is not for winnowing, nor for cleansing. [12] The full wind itself comes even from these to me. Now I myself also shall speak forth the judgments with them. [13] Look! Like rain clouds he will come up, and his chariots are like a storm wind. His horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us, because we have been despoiled! [14] Wash your heart clean of sheer badness, O Jerusalem, in order that you may be saved. How long will your erroneous thoughts lodge within you? [15] For a voice is telling from Dan and is publishing something hurtful from the mountainous region of E′phra·im. [16] Make mention of it, YOU people, yes, to the nations. Publish it against Jerusalem.”

“Watchers are coming from a land far away, and they will let out their voice against the very cities of Judah. [17] Like guards of the open field they have become against her on all sides, because she has rebelled even against me,” is the utterance of Jehovah. [18] “Your way and your dealings—there will be a rendering of these to you. This is the calamity upon you, for it is bitter; because it has reached clear to your heart.”

[19] O my intestines, my intestines! I am in severe pains in the walls of my heart. My heart is boisterous within me. I cannot keep silent, for the sound of the horn is what my soul has heard, the alarm signal of war. [20] Crash upon crash is what has been called out, for the whole land has been despoiled. Suddenly my tents have been despoiled, in a moment my tent cloths. [21] How long shall I keep seeing the signal, keep hearing the sound of the horn? [22] For my people is foolish. Of me they have not taken note. They are unwise sons; and they are not those having understanding. Wise they are for doing bad, but for doing good they actually have no knowledge.

[23] I saw the land, and, look! it was empty and waste; and into the heavens, and their light was no more. [24] I saw the mountains, and, look! they were rocking, and the hills themselves were all given a shaking. [25] I saw, and, look! there was not an earthling man, and the flying creatures of the heavens had all fled. [26] I saw, and, look! the orchard itself was a wilderness, and the very cities of it had all been torn down. It was because of Jehovah, because of his burning anger.

[27] For this is what Jehovah has said: “A desolate waste is what the whole land will become, and shall I not carry out a sheer extermination? [28] On this account the land will mourn, and the heavens above will certainly become dark. It is because I have spoken, I have considered, and I have not felt regret, nor shall I turn back from it. [29] Because of the sound of the horsemen and bow shooters the entire city is running away. They have entered into the thickets, and into the rocks they have gone up. Every city is left, and there is no man dwelling in them.”

[30] Now that you are despoiled, what will you do, since you used to clothe yourself with scarlet, since you used to deck yourself with ornaments of gold, since you used to enlarge your eyes with black paint? It is in vain that you used to make yourself pretty. Those lusting after you have rejected you; they keep seeking for your very soul. [31] For a voice like that of a sick woman I have heard, the distress like that of a woman giving birth to her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion who keeps gasping for breath. She keeps spreading out her palms: “Woe, now, to me, for my soul is tired of the killers! ”

5 Go roving about in the streets of Jerusalem and see, now, and know, and seek for yourselves in her public squares whether YOU can find a man, whether there exists anyone doing justice, anyone seeking faithfulness, and I shall forgive her. [2] Even if they should say: “As Jehovah is alive!” they would thereby be swearing to sheer falsehood.

[3] O Jehovah, are not those eyes of yours toward faithfulness? You have struck them, but they did not become ill. You exterminated them. They refused to take discipline. They made their faces harder than a crag. They refused to turn back. [4] Even I myself had said: “Surely they are of low class. They acted foolishly, for they have ignored the way of Jehovah, the judgment of their God. [5] I will go my way to the great ones and speak with them; for they themselves must have taken note of the way of Jehovah, the judgment of their God. Surely they themselves must have all together broken the yoke; they must have torn apart the bands.”

[6] That is why a lion out of the forest has struck them, a wolf itself of the desert plains keeps despoiling them, a leopard is keeping awake at their cities. Everyone going forth from them gets torn to pieces. For their transgressions have become many; their acts of unfaithfulness have become numerous.

[7] How can I forgive you for this very thing? Your own sons have left me, and they keep swearing by what is no God. And I kept satisfying them, but they continued committing adultery, and to the house of a prostitute woman they go in troops. [8] Horses seized with sexual heat, having strong testicles, they have become. They neigh each one to the wife of his companion.

[9] “Should I not take an accounting because of these very things?” is the utterance of Jehovah. “Or upon a nation that is like this should not my soul avenge itself?”

[10] “Come up against her vine rows and cause ruin, but do not YOU men make an actual extermination. Take away her luxuriating shoots, for they do not belong to Jehovah. [11] For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have positively dealt treacherously with me,” is the utterance of Jehovah. [12] “They have denied Jehovah, and they keep saying, ‘He is not. And upon us no calamity will come, and no sword or famine shall we see.’ [13] And the prophets themselves become a wind, and the word is not in them. That is how it will be done to them.”

[14] Therefore this is what Jehovah, the God of armies, has said: “For the reason that YOU men are saying this thing, here I am making my words in your mouth a fire, and this people will be pieces of wood, and it will certainly devour them.”

[15] “Here I am bringing in upon YOU men a nation from far away, O house of Israel,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “It is an enduring nation. It is a nation of long ago, a nation whose language you do not know, and you cannot hear understandingly what they speak. [16] Their quiver is like an open burial place; all of them are mighty men. [17] They will also certainly eat up your harvest and your bread. The men will eat up your sons and your daughters. They will eat up your flocks and your herds. They will eat up your vine and your fig tree. They will shatter with the sword your fortified cities in which you are trusting.”

[18] “And even in those days,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “I shall not carry out an extermination of YOU men. [19] And it must occur that YOU will say, ‘Due to what fact has Jehovah our God done to us all these things?’ And you must say to them, ‘Just as YOU have left me and have gone serving a foreign god in YOUR land, so YOU will serve strangers in a land that is not YOURS.’”

20 TELL this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying: 21 “Hear, now, this, O unwise people that is without heart: They have eyes, but they cannot see; they have ears, but they cannot hear. 22 ‘Do YOU not fear even me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘or are YOU in no severe pains even because of me, who have set the sand as the boundary for the sea, an indefinitely lasting regulation that it cannot pass over? Although its waves toss themselves, still they cannot prevail; and although they do become boisterous, still they cannot pass over it. 23 But this very people has come to have a stubborn and rebellious heart; they have turned aside and keep walking in their course. 24 But they have not said in their heart: “Let us, now, fear Jehovah our God, the One who is giving the downpour and the autumn rain and the spring rain in its season, the One who guards even the prescribed weeks of the harvest for us.” 25 YOUR own errors have turned these things away, and YOUR own sins have held back what is good from YOU people.

26 “‘For among my people there have been found wicked men. They keep peering, as when birdcatchers crouch down. They have set a ruinous trap. It is men that they catch. 27 As a cage is full of flying creatures, so their houses are full of deception. That is why they have become great and they gain riches. 28 They have grown fat; they have become shiny. They have also overflowed with bad things. No legal case have they pleaded, even the legal case of the fatherless boy, that they may gain success; and the judgment of the poor ones they have not taken up.’”

[29] “Should I not hold an accounting because of these very things,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “or on a nation that is like this should not my soul avenge itself? [30] An astonishing situation, even a horrible thing, has been brought to be in the land: [31] The prophets themselves actually prophesy in falsehood; and as for the priests, they go subduing according to their powers. And my own people have loved it that way; and what will YOU men do in the finale of it?”

6 Take shelter, O YOU sons of Benjamin, from the midst of Jerusalem; and in Te·koʹa blow the horn. And over Beth-hac·cheʹrem raise a fire signal; because calamity itself has looked down out of the north, even a great crash. [2] The daughter of Zion has resembled indeed a comely and daintily bred woman. [3] To her the shepherds and their droves proceeded to come. Against her they pitched their tents all around. They grazed off each one his own part. [4] Against her they have sanctified war: “Rise up, and let us go up at midday! ”

“Woe to us, for the day has declined, for the shadows of evening keep extending themselves! ”

[5] “Rise up, and let us go up during the night and bring to ruin her dwelling towers.”

[6] For this is what Jehovah of armies has said: “Cut down wood and throw up against Jerusalem a siege rampart. She is the city with which an accounting must be held. She is nothing but oppression in the midst of her. [7] As a cistern keeps its waters cool, so she has kept her badness cool. Violence and despoiling are heard in her; sickness and plague are before my face constantly. [8] Be corrected, O Jerusalem, that my soul may not turn away disgusted from you; that I may not set you as a desolate waste, a land not inhabited.”

[9] This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “They will without fail glean the remnant of Israel just like a vine. Put your hand back like one that is gathering grapes upon the vine tendrils.”

10 “To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Look! Their ear is uncircumcised, so that they are unable to pay attention. Look! The very word of Jehovah has become to them a reproach, in which word they can take no delight. 11 And with the rage of Jehovah I have become full. I have become weary with holding in.”

“Pour it out upon the child in the street and upon the intimate group of young men at the same time; for they will also be caught, a man along with his wife, an old man along with one that is full of days. 12 And their houses will certainly be turned over to others for possession, the fields and the wives at the same time. For I shall stretch my hand out against the inhabitants of the land,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

13 “For from the least one of them even to the greatest one of them, every one is making for himself unjust gain; and from the prophet even to the priest, each one is acting falsely. 14 And they try to heal the breakdown of my people lightly, saying, ‘There is peace! There is peace!’ when there is no peace. 15 Did they feel shame because it was something detestable that they had done? For one thing, they positively do not feel any shame; for another thing, they have not come to know even how to feel humiliated. Therefore they will fall among those who are falling; in the time that I must hold an accounting with them they will stumble,” Jehovah has said.

16 This is what Jehovah has said: “Stand still in the ways, YOU people, and see, and ask for the roadways of long ago, where, now, the good way is; and walk in it, and find ease for YOUR souls.” But they kept saying: “We are not going to walk.” 17 “And I raised up over YOU people watchmen, ‘Pay attention to the sound of the horn!’” But they kept saying:

“We are not going to pay attention.” [18] “Therefore hear, O YOU nations! And know, O you assembly, what will be among them. [19] Listen, O earth! Here I am bringing in calamity upon this people as the fruitage of their thoughts, for they paid no attention to my very own words; and my law —they also kept rejecting it.”

[20] “What does this matter to me that you bring in even frankincense from She′ba and the good cane from the land far away? The whole burnt offerings of YOU people serve for no pleasure, and YOUR very sacrifices have not been gratifying to me.” [21] Therefore this is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am setting for this people stumbling blocks, and they will certainly stumble over them, fathers and sons together; the neighbor and his companion—they will perish.”

[22] This is what Jehovah has said: “Look! A people is coming from the land of the north, and there is a great nation that will be awakened from the remotest parts of the earth. [23] The bow and the javelin they will grab hold of. It is a cruel one, and they will have no pity. Their very voice will resound just like the sea, and upon horses they will ride. It is drawn up in battle order like a man of war against you, O daughter of Zion.”

[24] We have heard the report about it. Our hands have dropped. Distress itself has seized hold of us, labor pains like those of a woman giving birth. [25] Do not go out into the field, and do not walk even in the way; for there is the sword belonging to the enemy, there is fright all around. [26] O daughter of my people, gird on sackcloth and wallow in the ashes. Make your mourning that for an only son, the wailing of bitterness; because suddenly the despoiler will come upon us.

[27] “I have made you a metal tester among my people, one making a thorough search; and you will take note and you must examine their way. [28] All of them are the most stubborn men, walking about as slanderers—copper and iron. They are all of them ruinous. [29] The bellows have been scorched. Out from their fire there is lead. One has kept refining intensely simply for nothing, and those who are bad have not been separated. [30] Rejected silver is what people will certainly call them, for Jehovah has rejected them.”

7 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: [2] “Stand in the gate of the house of Jehovah, and you must proclaim there this word, and you must say, ‘Hear the word of Jehovah, all YOU of Judah, who are entering into these gates to bow down to Jehovah. [3] This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “Make YOUR ways and YOUR dealings good, and I will keep YOU people residing in this place. [4] Do not put YOUR trust in fallacious words, saying, ‘The temple of Jehovah, the temple of Jehovah, the temple of Jehovah they are!’ [5] For if YOU will positively make YOUR ways and YOUR dealings good, if YOU will positively carry out justice between a man and his companion, [6] if no alien resident, no fatherless boy and no widow YOU will oppress, and innocent blood YOU will not shed in this place, and after other gods YOU will not walk for calamity to yourselves, [7] I, in turn, shall certainly keep YOU residing in this place, in the land that I gave to YOUR forefathers, from time indefinite even to time indefinite.”’”

[8] “Here YOU are putting YOUR trust in fallacious words—it will certainly be of no benefit at all. [9] Can there be stealing, murdering and committing adultery and swearing falsely and making sacrificial smoke to Baʹal and walking after other gods whom YOU had not known, [10] and must YOU come and stand before me in this house upon which my name has been called, and must YOU say, ‘We shall certainly be delivered,’ in the face of doing all these detestable things? [11] Has this house upon which my name has been called become a mere cave of robbers in YOUR eyes? Here I myself also have seen it,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[12] “‘However, GO, now, to my place that was in Shiʹloh, where I caused my name to reside at first, and see what I did to it because of the badness of my people Israel. [13] And now for the reason that YOU kept doing all these works,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and I kept speaking to YOU, getting up early and speaking, but YOU did not listen, and I kept calling YOU, but YOU did not answer, [14] I will do also to the house upon which my name has been called, in which YOU are trusting, and to the place that I gave to YOU and to YOUR forefathers, just as I did to Shiʹloh. [15] And I will throw YOU out from before my face, just as I threw out all YOUR brothers, the whole offspring of Eʹphra·im.’

[16] “And as for you, do not pray in behalf of this people, neither raise in their behalf an entreating cry or a prayer nor beseech me, for I shall not be listening to you. [17] Are you not seeing what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? [18] The sons are picking up sticks of wood, and the fathers are lighting the fire, and the wives are kneading flour dough in order to make sacrificial cakes to the ‘queen of the heavens’; and there is a pouring out of drink offerings to other gods for the purpose of offending me. [19] ‘Is it I whom they are offending?’ is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘Is it not they themselves, for the purpose of shame to their faces?’ [20] Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Look! My anger and my rage are being poured forth upon this place, upon mankind and upon domestic animal, and upon the tree of the field and upon the fruitage of the ground; and it must burn, and it will not be extinguished.’

[21] “This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Add those whole burnt offerings of YOURS to YOUR sacrifices and eat flesh. [22] For I did not speak with YOUR forefathers, nor did I command them in the day of my bringing them out from the land of Egypt concerning the matters of whole burnt offering and sacrifice. [23] But this word I did express in command upon them, saying: “Obey my voice, and I will become YOUR God, and YOU yourselves will become my people; and YOU must walk in all the way that I shall command YOU, in order that it may go well with YOU.”’ [24] But they did not listen, neither did they incline their ear, but they went walking in the counsels in the stubbornness of their bad heart, so that they became backward in direction and not forward, [25] from the day that YOUR forefathers came forth out of the land of Egypt until this day; and I kept sending to YOU all my servants the prophets, daily getting up early and sending them. [26] But they did not listen to me, and they did not incline their ear, but they kept hardening their neck. They acted worse than their forefathers!

[27] “And you must speak to them all these words, but they will not listen to you; and you must call to them, but they will not answer you. [28] And you must say to them, ‘This is the nation whose people have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah its God, and have not taken discipline. Faithfulness has perished, and it has been cut off from their mouth.’

[29] “Shear off your uncut hair and throw it away, and upon the bare hills raise a dirge, for Jehovah has rejected and will desert the generation with which he is furious. [30] ‘For the sons of Judah have done what is bad in my eyes,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘They have set their disgusting things in the house upon which my name has been called, in order to defile it. [31] And they have built the high places of To′pheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hin′nom, in order to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, a thing that I had not commanded and that had not come up into my heart.’

[32] “‘Therefore, look! days are coming,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘when it will no more be said to be To′pheth and the valley of the son of Hin′nom, but the valley of the killing; and they will have to bury in To′pheth without there being enough place. [33] And the dead bodies of this people must become food for the flying creatures of the heavens and for the beasts of the earth, with nobody to make them tremble. [34] And I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the voice of exultation and the voice of rejoicing, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land will become nothing but a devastated place.’”

8 “At that time,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “people will also bring forth the bones of the kings of Judah and the bones of its princes and the bones of the priests and the bones of the prophets and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem from their graves. [2] And they will actually spread them out to the sun and to the moon and to all the army of the heavens that they have loved and that they have served and that they have walked after and that they have sought and that they have bowed down to. They will not be gathered, nor will they be buried. As manure upon the face of the ground they will become.”

[3] “And death will certainly be chosen rather than life on the part of all the remnant of those remaining out of this bad family in all the places of the remaining ones, where I will have dispersed them,” is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.

[4] “And you must say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Will they fall and not get up again? If one would turn back, will the other not also turn back? [5] Why is it that this people, Jerusalem, is unfaithful with an enduring unfaithfulness? They have taken hold of trickiness; they have refused to turn back. [6] I have paid attention, and I kept listening. It was not right the way they kept speaking. There was not a man repenting over his badness, saying, ‘What have I done?’ Each one is going back into the popular course, like a horse that is dashing into the battle. [7] Even the stork in the heavens—it well knows its appointed times; and the turtledove and the swift and the bulbul—they observe well the time of each one’s coming in. But as for my people, they have not come to know the judgment of Jehovah.”’

[8] “‘How can YOU men say: “We are wise, and the law of Jehovah is with us”? Surely, now, the false stylus of the secretaries has worked in sheer falsehood. [9] The wise ones have become ashamed. They have become terrified and will be caught. Look! They have rejected the very word of Jehovah, and what wisdom do they have? [10] Therefore I shall give their wives to other men, their fields to those taking possession; for, from the least one even to the greatest one, each one is making unjust gain; from the prophet even to the priest, each one is acting falsely. [11] And they try to heal the breakdown of the daughter of my people lightly, saying: “There is peace! There is peace! ” when there is no peace. [12] Did they feel shame because they had done even what was detestable? For one thing, they positively could not feel ashamed; for another thing, they did not know even how to feel humiliated.

“‘Therefore they will fall among those who are falling. In the time of their being given attention, they will stumble,’ Jehovah has said.

[13] “‘When doing the gathering, I shall bring them to their finish,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘There will be no grapes on the vine, and there will be no figs on the fig tree, and the foliage itself will certainly wither. And things that I give to them will pass by them.’”

[14] “Why are we sitting still? Gather yourselves together, and let us enter into the fortified cities and be silent there. For Jehovah our God has himself put us to silence, and he gives us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against Jehovah. [15] There was a hoping for peace, but no good came; for a time of healing, but, look! terror! [16] From Dan has been heard the snorting of his horses. Due to the sound of the neighing of his stallions the whole land has begun to rock.

And they come in and eat up the land and what fills it, the city and its inhabitants.”

[17] “For here I am sending in among YOU serpents, poisonous snakes, for which there is no charming, and they will certainly bite YOU,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[18] A grief that is beyond curing has come up into me. My heart is ill. [19] Here there is the sound of the cry for help of the daughter of my people from a land far away: “Is Jehovah not in Zion? Or is her king not in her?”

“Why is it that they have offended me with their graven images, with their vain foreign gods?”

[20] “The harvest has passed, the summer has come to an end; but as for us, we have not been saved! ”

[21] Over the breakdown of the daughter of my people I have become shattered. I have grown sad. Outright astonishment has seized hold of me. [22] Is there no balsam in Gilʹe·ad? Or is there no healer there? Why is it, then, that the recuperation of the daughter of my people has not come up?

9 O that my head were waters, and that my eyes were a source of tears! Then I could weep day and night for the slain ones of the daughter of my people.

[2] O that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of travelers! Then I would leave my people and go away from them, for all of them are adulterers, a solemn assembly of treacherous dealers; [3] and they bend their tongue as their bow in falsehood; but not for faithfulness have they proved mighty in the land.

“For from badness to badness they went forth, and they ignored even me,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[4] “Guard yourselves each one against his own companion, and put YOUR trust in no brother at all. For even every brother would positively supplant, and every companion himself would walk around as a mere slanderer, [5] and they keep trifling each one with his companion; and they speak no truth at all. They have taught their tongue to speak falsehood. They have tired themselves out merely in doing wrong.

[6] “Your sitting is in the midst of deception. Through deception they have refused to know me,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[7] Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies has said: “Here I am smelting them, and I have to examine them, because how otherwise shall I act on account of the daughter of my people? [8] Their tongue is a slaughtering arrow. Deception is what it has spoken. With his mouth, peace is what a person keeps speaking with his own companion; but within himself he sets his ambush.”

[9] “Because of these things should I not hold an accounting with them?” is the utterance of Jehovah. “Or upon a nation that is like this should not my soul avenge itself? [10] Over the mountains I shall raise a weeping and lamentation, and over the pasture grounds of the wilderness a dirge; for they will have been burned so that there is no man passing through and people actually will not hear the sound of livestock. Both the flying creature of the heavens and the beast will have fled; they will have gone. [11] And I will make Jerusalem piles of stones, the lair of jackals; and the cities of Judah I shall make a desolate waste, without an inhabitant.

[12] “Who is the man that is wise, that he may understand this, even the one to whom the mouth of Jehovah has spoken, that he may tell it? On what account should the land actually perish, be actually burned like the wilderness without anyone passing through?”

[13] And Jehovah proceeded to say: “On account of their leaving my law that I gave to be before them, and because they have not obeyed my voice and have not walked in it, [14] but they kept on walking after the stubbornness of their heart and after the Baʹal images, about which their fathers had taught them; [15] therefore this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Here I am making them, that is, this people, eat wormwood, and I will make them drink poisoned water; [16] and I will scatter them among the nations that neither they nor their fathers have known, and I will send after them the sword until I shall have exterminated them.’

[17] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘Behave with understanding, YOU people, and call the dirge-chanting women, that they may come; and send even to the skilled women, that they may come, [18] and that they may hurry and raise up over us a lamentation. And may our eyes run down with tears and our own beaming eyes trickle with waters. [19] For the voice of lamentation is what has been heard from Zion: “How we have been despoiled! How much we have felt shame! For we have left the land; for they have thrown away our residences.” [20] But hear, O YOU women, the word of Jehovah, and may YOUR ear take the word of his mouth. Then teach YOUR daughters a lamentation, and each woman her companion a dirge. [21] For death has come up through our windows; it has come into our dwelling towers, in order to cut off the child from the street, the young men from the public squares.’

[22] “Speak, ‘This is what the utterance of Jehovah is: “The dead bodies of mankind must also fall like manure upon the face of the field and like a row of newly cut grain after the reaper, with no one to do the gathering up.”’”

[23] This is what Jehovah has said: “Let not the wise man brag about himself because of his wisdom, and let not the mighty man brag about himself because of his mightiness. Let not the rich man brag about himself because of his riches.”

[24] “But let the one bragging about himself brag about himself because of this very thing, the having of insight and the having of knowledge of me, that I am Jehovah, the One exercising loving-kindness, justice and righteousness in the earth; for in these things I do take delight,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[25] “Look! Days are coming,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and I will hold an accounting with everyone circumcised but still in uncircumcision, [26] upon Egypt and upon Judah and upon E′dom and upon the sons of Am′mon and upon Mo′ab and upon all those with hair clipped at the temples who are dwelling in the wilderness; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart.”

10 Hear the word that Jehovah has spoken against YOU people, O house of Israel. [2] This is what Jehovah has said: “Do not learn the way of the nations at all, and do not be struck with terror even at the signs of the heavens, because the nations are struck with terror at them. [3] For the customs of the peoples are just an exhalation, because it is a mere tree out of the forest that one has cut down, the work of the hands of the craftsman with the billhook. [4] With silver and with gold one makes it pretty. With nails and with hammers they fasten them down, that none may reel. [5] They are like a scarecrow of a cucumber field, and cannot speak. Without fail they are carried, for they cannot take any steps. Do not be afraid because of them, for they can do nothing calamitous and, what is more, the doing of any good is not with them.”

[6] In no way is there anyone like you, O Jehovah. You are great, and your name is great in mightiness. [7] Who should not fear you, O King of the nations, for to you it is fitting; because among all the wise ones of the nations and among all their kingships there is in no way anyone like you. [8] And at one and the same time they prove to be unreasoning and stupid. A tree is a mere exhortation of vanities. [9] Silver beaten into plates is what is brought in even from Tar′shish, and gold from U′phaz, the workmanship of a craftsman and of the hands of a metalworker; their clothing is blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple. They are all the workmanship of skilled people.

[10] But Jehovah is in truth God. He is the living God and the King to time indefinite. Because of his indignation the earth will rock, and no nations will hold up under his denunciation. [11] This is what YOU men will say to them: “The gods that did not make the very heavens and the earth are the ones who will perish from the earth and from under these heavens.” [12] He is the Maker of the earth by his power, the One firmly establishing the productive land by his wisdom, and the One who by his understanding stretched out the heavens. [13] At his voice there is a giving by him of a turmoil of waters in the heavens, and he causes vapors to ascend from the extremity of the earth. He has made even sluices for the rain, and he brings forth the wind from his storehouses.

[14] Every man has behaved so unreasoningly as not to know. Every metalworker will certainly feel shame because of the carved image; for his molten image is a falsehood, and there is no spirit in them. [15] They are vanity, a work of mockery. In the time of their being given attention they will perish.

[16] The Share of Jacob is not like these things, for he is the Former of everything, and Israel is the staff of his inheritance. Jehovah of armies is his name.

[17] Gather up from the earth your pack load, O woman dwelling under stress. [18] For this is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am slinging out the inhabitants of the earth on this occasion, and I will cause them distress in order that they may find out.”

[19] Woe to me on account of my breakdown! My stroke has become sickish. And I myself have said: “Surely this is my sickness, and I shall carry it. [20] My own tent has been despoiled, and my own tent cords have all been torn in two. My own sons have gone forth from me, and they are no more. There is no one stretching out my tent anymore or raising up my tent cloths. [21] For the shepherds have behaved unreasoningly, and they have not looked even for Jehovah. That is why they have not acted with insight, and all their pastured animals have been scattered.”

[22] Listen! A report! Here it has come, also a great pounding from the land of the north, in order to make the cities of Judah a desolate waste, the lair of jackals.

[23] I well know, O Jehovah, that to earthling man his way does not belong. It does not belong to man who is walking even to direct his step. [24] Correct me, O Jehovah, however with judgment; not in your anger, that you may not reduce me to nothing. [25] Pour out your rage upon the nations who have ignored you, and upon the families who have not called even upon your name. For they have eaten up Jacob. Yes, they have eaten him up, and they keep at exterminating him; and his abiding place they have desolated.

11 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: [2] “Hear the words of this covenant, YOU men!

“And you must speak them to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, [3] and you must say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said: “Cursed is the man that does not listen to the words of this covenant, [4] which I commanded YOUR forefathers in the day of my bringing them out of the land of Egypt, out of the furnace of iron, saying, ‘Obey my voice, and YOU must do things according to all that I command YOU; and YOU will certainly become my people and I myself shall become YOUR God, [5] for the purpose of carrying out the oath that I swore to YOUR forefathers, to give them the land flowing with milk and honey, as in this day.’”’”

And I proceeded to answer and say: “Amen, O Jehovah.”

[6] And Jehovah went on to say to me: “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, ‘Hear, YOU people, the words of this covenant, and YOU must do them. [7] For I solemnly admonished YOUR forefathers in the day of my bringing them up out of the land of Egypt and down to this day, rising up early and admonishing, saying: “Obey my voice.” [8] But they did not listen or incline their ear, but they kept walking each one in the stubbornness of their bad heart; and so I brought upon them all the words of this covenant that I commanded them to do, but that they did not do.’”

[9] Furthermore, Jehovah said to me: “Conspiracy has been found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [10] They have returned to the errors of their forefathers, the first ones, who refused to obey my words, but who themselves have walked after other gods in order to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant that I concluded with their forefathers. [11] Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am bringing upon them a calamity that they will not be able to get out of; and they will certainly call to me for aid, but I shall not listen to them. [12] And the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will have to go and call for aid to the gods to which they are making sacrificial smoke, but which will positively bring no salvation to them in the time of their calamity. [13] For your gods have become as many as your cities, O Judah; and as many altars as the streets of Jerusalem YOU people have placed for the shameful thing, altars to make sacrificial smoke to Baʹal.’

[14] “And as for you, do not pray in behalf of this people, and do not lift up in their behalf an entreating cry or a prayer, for I shall not be listening in the time of their calling out to me in regard to their calamity.

[15] “What business does my beloved one have in my house, that many of them should do this thing, the evil device? And with holy flesh will they make it pass over from upon you, when your calamity comes? At that time will you exult? [16] ‘A luxuriant olive tree, pretty with fruit and in form,’ is what Jehovah has called your name. With sound of the great roaring, he has set a fire blazing against her, and they have broken its branches.

[17] “And Jehovah of armies himself, the Planter of you, has spoken against you a calamity on account of the badness of the house of Israel and the house of Judah that they have committed on their own part to offend me in making sacrificial smoke to Baʹal.”

[18] And Jehovah himself has informed me that I may know. At that time you caused me to see their dealings. [19] And I was like a male lamb, an intimate one, that is brought to slaughter, and I did not know that it was against me that they thought out schemes: “Let us bring to ruin the tree with its food, and let us cut him off from the land of the living ones, that his very name may no more be remembered.” [20] But Jehovah of armies is judging with righteousness; he is examining the kidneys and the heart. O may I see your vengeance on them, for it is to you that I have revealed my case at law.

[21] Therefore this is what Jehovah has said against the men of An′a·thoth who are seeking for your soul, saying: “You must not prophesy in the name of Jehovah, that you may not die at our hand”; [22] therefore this is what Jehovah of armies has said: “Here I am turning my attention upon them. The young men themselves will die by the sword. Their sons and their daughters themselves will die by the famine. [23] And not even a remnant will there come to be for them, because I shall bring calamity upon the men of An′a·thoth, the year of their being given attention.”

12 You are righteous, O Jehovah, when I make my complaint to you, indeed when I speak even about matters of judgment with you. Why is it that the way of wicked ones is what has succeeded, that all those who are committing treachery are the unworried ones? [2] You have planted them; they have also taken root. They keep going ahead; they have also produced fruit. You are near in their mouth, but far away from their kidneys. [3] And you yourself, O Jehovah, know me well; you see me, and you have examined my heart in union with yourself. Single them out like sheep for the slaughtering, and set them apart for the day of killing. [4] How long should the land keep withering away, and the very vegetation of all the field dry up? Because of the badness of those dwelling in it the beasts and the flying creatures have been swept away. For they have said: “He does not see our future.”

[5] Because with footmen you have run, and they would tire you out, how, then, can you run a race with horses? And in the land of peace are you confident? So how will you act among the proud thickets along the Jordan? [6] For even your own brothers and the household of your own father, even they themselves have dealt treacherously with you. Even they themselves have called out loudly behind you. Do not put any faith in them, just because they speak to you good things.

[7] “I have left my house; I have deserted my inheritance; I have given the beloved one of my soul into the palm of her enemies. [8] My inheritance has become to me like a lion in the forest. She has let loose her voice even against me. That is why I have hated her. [9] My inheritance is as a many-colored bird of prey to me; the birds of prey are round about upon it. Come, gather together, all YOU wild beasts of the field; bring them to eat. [10] Many shepherds themselves have brought my vineyard to ruin; they have stamped down my share. They have turned my desirable share into a wilderness of a desolate waste. [11] One has made it a desolate waste; it has withered away; it is desolated to me. The whole land has been made desolate, because there is no man that has taken it to heart. [12] On all the beaten paths through the wilderness the despoilers have come. For the sword belonging to Jehovah is devouring from one end of the land even to the other end of the land. There is no peace for any flesh. [13] They have sown wheat, but thorns are what they have reaped. They have worked themselves sick; they will be of no benefit. And they will certainly be ashamed of the products of YOU people because of the burning anger of Jehovah.”

[14] This is what Jehovah has said against all my bad neighbors, who are touching the hereditary possession that I caused my people, even Israel, to possess: “Here I am uprooting them from off their ground; and the house of Judah I shall uproot from the midst of them. [15] And it must occur that after my uprooting them I shall again certainly have mercy upon them and will bring them back, each one to his hereditary possession and each one to his land.”

[16] “And it must occur that if they will without fail learn the ways of my people in swearing by my name, ‘As Jehovah is alive! ’ just as they taught my people to swear by Baʹal, they will also be built up in the midst of my people. [17] But if they will not obey, I will also uproot that nation, uprooting and destroying it,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

13 This is what Jehovah has said to me: “Go, and you must get for yourself a linen belt and put it upon your hips, but you must not bring it into any water.” [2] So I got the belt in accord with the word of Jehovah and put it upon my hips. [3] And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to me a second time, saying: [4] “Take the belt that you got, that is upon your hips, and rise up, go to the Eu·phra′tes, and hide it there in a cleft of the crag.” [5] So I went and hid it by the Eu·phra′tes, just as Jehovah had commanded me.

[6] But it came about at the end of many days that Jehovah proceeded to say to me: “Rise up, go to the Eu·phra′tes and take from there the belt that I commanded you to hide there.” [7] Accordingly I went to the Eu·phra′tes and dug and took the belt from the place in which I had hid it, and, look! the belt had been ruined; it was not fit for anything.

[8] Then the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: [9] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘In the same way I shall bring to ruin the pride of Judah and the abundant pride of Jerusalem. [10] This bad people who are refusing to obey my words, who are walking in the stubbornness of their heart and who keep walking after other gods in order to serve them and to bow down to them, will also become just like this belt that is fit for nothing.’ [11] ‘For just as a belt clings to the hips of a man, so I caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling even to me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘in order to become to me a people and a name and a praise and something beautiful; but they did not obey.’

[12] “And you must say to them this word, ‘This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said: “Every large jar is something that gets filled with wine.”’ And they will certainly say to you, ‘Do we not positively know that every large jar is something that gets filled with wine?’ [13] And you must say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am filling all the inhabitants of this land and the kings that are sitting for David upon his throne and the priests and the prophets and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with drunkenness. [14] And I will dash them one against another, both the fathers and the sons, at the same time,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “I shall show no compassion, nor feel any sorrow, and I shall not have the mercy to keep from bringing them to ruin.”’

[15] “Hear, YOU people, and give ear. Do not be haughty, for Jehovah himself has spoken. [16] Give to Jehovah YOUR God glory, before he causes darkness and before YOUR feet strike up against each other on the mountains at dusk. And YOU will certainly hope for the light, and he will actually make it deep shadow; he will turn it into thick gloom. [17] And if YOU will not hear it, in places of concealment my soul will weep because of pride and will positively shed tears; and my eye will run down with tears, because the drove of Jehovah will have been carried captive.

[18] “Say to the king and to the lady, ‘Seat yourselves in a lower place, for down from YOUR heads YOUR crown of beauty will certainly come.’ [19] The cities of the south themselves have been shut up, so that there is no one opening them. Judah in its entirety has been taken into exile. It has been taken into exile completely.

[20] “Raise your eyes and see those who are coming from the north. Where is the drove that one gave to you, your beautiful flock? [21] What will you say when one turns his attention upon you, when you yourself have taught them as confidential friends right alongside you at the start? Will not birth pangs themselves seize hold of you, like those of a wife giving birth? [22] And when you will say in your heart, ‘Why is it that these things have befallen me?’ because of the abundance of your error your skirts have been taken off as a cover; your heels have been treated violently.

[23] “Can a Cush′ite change his skin? or a leopard its spots? YOU yourselves would also be able to do good, who are persons taught to do bad. [24] So I shall scatter them like stubble that is passing along in the wind from the wilderness. [25] This is your lot, your measured portion from me,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “because you have forgotten me and you keep putting your trust in falsehood. [26] And I myself also will lift up your skirts over your face, and your dishonor will certainly be seen, [27] your acts of adultery and your neighings, your loose conduct in prostitution. Upon the hills, in the field, I have seen your disgusting things. Woe to you, O Jerusalem! You cannot be clean—after how much longer?”

14 This is what occurred as the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah concerning the matters of the droughts: [2] Judah has gone mourning, and its very gates have faded away. They have become dejected to the earth, and even the outcry of Jerusalem has gone up. [3] And their majestic ones themselves have sent their insignificant ones for water. They have come to the ditches. They have found no water. They have returned with their vessels empty. They have been put to shame and have been disappointed, and they have covered their head. [4] On account of the soil that has been shattered because there has occurred no downpour upon the land, the farmers have become ashamed; they have covered their head. [5] For even the hind in the field has given birth, but leaving it, because there proved to be no tender grass. [6] And the zebras themselves have stood still upon the bare hills; they have snuffed up the wind like the jackals; their eyes have failed because there is no vegetation. [7] Even if our own errors do testify against us, O Jehovah, act for the sake of your name; for our acts of unfaithfulness have become many; it is against you that we have sinned.

[8] O you the hope of Israel, the Savior of him in the time of distress, why do you become like an alien resident in the land, and like a traveler that has turned aside to spend the night? [9] Why do you become like a man astounded, like a mighty man that is unable to do any saving? Yet you yourself are in the midst of us, O Jehovah, and upon us it is that your own name has been called. Do not let us down.

[10] This is what Jehovah has said concerning this people: “Thus they have loved to wander about; their feet they have not kept in check. So Jehovah himself has taken no pleasure in them. Now he will remember their error and will give attention to their sins.”

[11] And Jehovah proceeded to say to me: “Do not pray in behalf of this people for any good. [12] When they fast, I am not listening to their entreating cry; and when they offer up the whole burnt offering and the grain offering, I am taking no pleasure in them; for by the sword and by famine and by pestilence I am bringing them to their end.”

[13] At this I said: “Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Here the prophets are saying to them, ‘YOU will see no sword, and there will be no famine to happen to YOU, but true peace is what I shall give YOU in this place.’”

[14] And Jehovah went on to say to me: “Falsehood is what the prophets are prophesying in my name. I have not sent them, nor have I commanded them or spoken to them. A false vision and divination and a valueless thing and the trickiness of their heart they are speaking prophetically to YOU people. [15] Therefore this is what Jehovah has said concerning the prophets who are prophesying in my name and whom I myself did not send and who are saying that no sword or famine will occur in this land, ‘By sword and by famine those prophets will come to their finish. [16] And the very people to whom they are prophesying will become people cast out into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword, with no one to do the burying of them—them, their wives and their sons and their daughters. And I will pour out upon them their calamity.’

[17] “And you must say to them this word, ‘Let my eyes run down with tears night and day and let them not keep still, for with a great crash the virgin daughter of my people has been broken, with an extremely sickish stroke. [18] If I actually go out into the field, look, now, those slain by the sword!

And if I actually come into the city, look, also, the maladies from the famine! For both the prophet and the priest themselves have gone around to a land that they have not known.’”

[19] Have you absolutely rejected Judah, or has your soul abhorred even Zion? Why is it that you have struck us, so that there is no healing for us? There was a hoping for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and, look! terror! [20] We do acknowledge, O Jehovah, our wickedness, the error of our forefathers, for we have sinned against you. [21] Do not disrespect us for the sake of your name; do not despise your glorious throne. Remember; do not break your covenant with us. [22] Do there exist among the vain idols of the nations any that can pour down rain, or can even the heavens themselves give copious showers? Are you not the One, O Jehovah our God? And we hope in you, for you yourself have done all these things.

15 And Jehovah proceeded to say to me: “If Moses and Samuel were standing before me, my soul would not be toward this people. There would be a sending of them away from before my face, that they might go out. [2] And it must occur that should they say to you, ‘Where shall we go out to?’ you must also say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Whoever is for deadly plague, to deadly plague! And whoever is for the sword, to the sword! And whoever is for the famine, to the famine! And whoever is for the captivity, to the captivity! ”’

[3] “‘And I will commission over them four families,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘the sword to kill, and the dogs to drag away, and the flying creatures of the heavens and the beasts of the earth to eat and to bring to ruin. [4] And I will give them for a quaking to all the kingdoms of the earth on account of Ma·nas′seh the son of Hez·e·ki′ah, the king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem. [5] For who will show compassion upon you, O Jerusalem, and who will sympathize with you, and who will turn aside to ask about your welfare?’

[6] “‘You yourself have deserted me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘Backwards is the way you keep walking. And I shall stretch out my hand against you and bring you to ruin. I have got tired of feeling regret. [7] And I shall winnow them with a fork in the gates of the land. I shall certainly bereave them of children. I will destroy my people, since they have not turned back from their own ways. [8] To me their widows have become more numerous than the sand grains of the seas. I will bring for them, upon mother, young man, the despoiler at midday. I will cause to fall upon them suddenly excitement and disturbances. [9] The woman giving birth to seven has faded away; her soul has struggled for breath. Her sun has set while it is yet day; it has become ashamed and felt abashed.’ ‘And to the sword I shall give the mere remnant of them before their enemies,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

[10] Woe to me, O my mother, because you have given birth to me, a man subject to quarrel and a man subject to strife with all the earth. I have given no loan, and they have given me no loan. All of them are calling down evil upon me.

[11] Jehovah has said: “Surely I will minister to you for good. Surely I will intercede for you in the time of calamity and in the time of distress, against the enemy. [12] Can one break iron in pieces, iron out of the north, and copper? [13] Your resources and your treasures I shall give for mere plunder, not for a price, but for all your sins, even in all your territories. [14] And I will cause them to pass over with your enemies into a land that you have not known. For a fire itself has been ignited in my anger. Against YOU people it is kindled.”

[15] You yourself have known. O Jehovah, remember me and turn your attention to me and avenge me upon my persecutors. In your slowness to anger do not take me away. Take note of my bearing reproach on account of your own self. [16] Your words were found, and I proceeded to eat them; and your word becomes to me the exultation and the rejoicing of my heart; for your name has been called upon me, O Jehovah God of armies. [17] I have not sat down in the intimate group of those playing jokes and begun exulting. Because of your hand I have sat down all by myself, for it is with denunciation that you have filled me. [18] Why has my pain become chronic and my stroke incurable? It has refused to be healed. You positively become to me like something deceitful, like waters that have proved untrustworthy.

[19] Therefore this is what Jehovah has said: “If you will come back, then I shall bring you back. Before me you will stand. And if you will bring forth what is precious from valueless things, you will become like my own mouth. They themselves will come back to you, but you yourself will not come back to them.”

[20] “And I have made you to this people a fortified copper wall; and they will certainly fight against you, but they will not prevail over you. For I am with you, to save you and to deliver you,” is the utterance of Jehovah. [21] “And I will deliver you out of the hand of the bad ones, and I will redeem you out of the palm of the tyrannical ones.”

16 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “You must not take for yourself a wife, and you must not come to have sons and daughters in this place. [3] For this is what Jehovah has said concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who are giving them birth and concerning their fathers who are causing their birth in this land, [4] ‘With deaths from maladies they will die. They will not be bewailed, neither will they be buried. As manure upon the surface of the ground they will become; and by the sword and by famine they will come to an end, and their dead bodies will actually serve as food for the flying creatures of the heavens and for the beasts of the earth.’

[5] “For this is what Jehovah has said, ‘Do not enter into the house of a mourners’ feast, and do not go to bewail and do not sympathize with them.’

“‘For I have taken away my peace from this people,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘even loving-kindness and mercies. [6] And they will certainly die, the great ones and the small ones, in this land. They will not be buried, neither will people beat themselves for them, nor will anyone make cuts upon himself or make himself bald for them. [7] And they will not deal out to them any bread on account of mourning to comfort someone over the dead; neither will they give them the cup of consolation to drink on account of one’s father and on account of one’s mother. [8] And you must enter no house of banqueting at all to sit down with them to eat and to drink.’

[9] “For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Here I am causing to cease out of this place before the eyes of YOU people and in YOUR days the voice of exultation and the voice of rejoicing, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.’

10 “And it must occur that, when you tell to this people all these words and they actually say to you, ‘On what account has Jehovah spoken against us all this great calamity, and what is our error and what is our sin with which we have sinned against Jehovah our God?’ 11 you must also say to them, ‘“On account of the fact that YOUR fathers left me,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and they kept going after other gods and serving them and bowing down to them. But me they left, and my law they did not keep. 12 And YOU yourselves have acted worse in YOUR doing than YOUR fathers, and here YOU are walking each one after the stubbornness of his bad heart in not obeying me. 13 And I will hurl YOU out from off this land into the land that YOU yourselves have not known, neither YOUR fathers, and there YOU will have to serve other gods day and night, because I shall not give YOU any favor.”’

14 “‘Therefore, look! days are coming,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘when it will no more be said: “As Jehovah is alive who brought the sons of Israel up out of the land of Egypt!” 15 but: “As Jehovah is alive who brought the sons of Israel up out of the land of the north and out of all the lands to which he had dispersed them!” and I shall certainly bring them back to their soil, which I gave to their forefathers.’

16 “‘Here I am sending for many fishers,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and they will certainly fish for them; and afterward I shall send for many hunters, and they will certainly hunt them from every mountain and from every hill and out of the clefts of the crags. 17 For my eyes are upon all their ways. They have not been concealed from before me, neither has their error been hid from in front of my eyes. 18 And, first of all, I will repay the full amount of their error and of their sin, on account of their profaning my land. With the corpses of their disgusting things and their detestable things they had filled my inheritance.’”

[19] O Jehovah my strength and my stronghold, and my place for flight in the day of distress, to you the nations themselves will come from the ends of the earth, and they will say: “Indeed our forefathers came to possess sheer falsehood, vanity and things in which there was nothing beneficial.” [20] Can earthling man make for himself gods when they are no gods?

[21] “Therefore here I am causing them to know; at this one time I shall cause them to know my hand and my mightiness, and they will have to know that my name is Jehovah.”

17 “The sin of Judah is written down with an iron stylus. With a diamond point it is engraved on the tablet of their heart, and on the horns of their altars, [2] when their sons remember their altars and their sacred poles beside a luxuriant tree, upon the high hills, [3] on the mountains in the field. Your resources, all your treasures, I shall give for mere plunder—your high places because of sin throughout all your territories. [4] And you let loose, even of your own accord, from your hereditary possession that I had given you. I also will make you serve your enemies in the land that you have not known; for as a fire YOU people have been ignited in my anger. To time indefinite it will keep kindled.”

[5] This is what Jehovah has said: “Cursed is the able-bodied man who puts his trust in earthling man and actually makes flesh his arm, and whose heart turns away from Jehovah himself. [6] And he will certainly become like a solitary tree in the desert plain and will not see when good comes; but he must reside in parched places in the wilderness, in a salt country that is not inhabited. [7] Blessed is the able-bodied man who puts his trust in Jehovah, and whose confidence Jehovah has become. [8] And he will certainly become like a tree planted by the waters, that sends out its roots right by the watercourse; and he will not see when heat comes, but his foliage will actually prove to be luxuriant. And in the year of drought he will not become anxious, nor will he leave off from producing fruit.

[9] “The heart is more treacherous than anything else and is desperate. Who can know it? [10] I, Jehovah, am searching the heart, examining the kidneys, even to give to each one according to his ways, according to the fruitage of his dealings. [11] As the partridge that has gathered together what it has not laid is the one making riches, but not with justice. At the half of his days he will leave them, and in his finale he will prove to be senseless.”

[12] There is the glorious throne on high from the start; it is the place of our sanctuary. [13] O Jehovah, the hope of Israel, all those who are leaving you will be put to shame. Those apostatizing from me will be written down even in the earth, because they have left the source of living water, Jehovah. [14] Heal me, O Jehovah, and I shall be healed. Save me, and I will be saved; for you are my praise.

[15] Look! There are those saying to me: “Where is the word of Jehovah? Let it come in, please.” [16] But as for me, I did not hasten from being a shepherd following you, and for the desperate day I did not show any craving. You yourself have known the expression of my lips; in front of your face it has occurred. [17] Do not become something terrifying to me. You are my refuge in the day of calamity. [18] Let my persecutors be put to shame, but let me personally be put to no shame. Let them be the ones to be struck with terror, but let me personally not be struck with terror. Bring upon them the day of calamity, and break them even with twice as much breakdown.

[19] This is what Jehovah has said to me: “Go, and you must stand in the gate of the sons of the people by which the kings of Judah enter in and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem. [20] And you must say to them, ‘Hear the word of Jehovah, YOU kings of Judah and all Judah and all YOU inhabitants of Jerusalem, who are entering in by these gates. [21] This is what Jehovah has said: “Watch out for YOUR souls, and do not carry on the sabbath day any load that YOU must bring in through the gates of Jerusalem. [22] And YOU must bring no load out of YOUR homes on the sabbath day; and no work at all must YOU do. And YOU must sanctify the sabbath day, just as I commanded YOUR forefathers; [23] but they did not listen or incline their ear, and they proceeded to harden their neck in order not to hear and in order to receive no discipline.”’

[24] “‘“And it must occur that, if YOU strictly obey me,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “to bring in no load through the gates of this city on the sabbath day and to sanctify the sabbath day by not doing on it any work, [25] there will also certainly enter in by the gates of this city kings with princes, sitting on the throne of David, riding in the chariot and upon horses, they and their princes, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city will certainly be inhabited to time indefinite. [26] And people will actually come from the cities of Judah and from round about Jerusalem and from the land of Benjamin and from the lowland and from the mountainous region and from the Neg′eb, bringing whole burnt offering and sacrifice and grain offering and frankincense and bringing thanksgiving sacrifice into the house of Jehovah.

[27] “‘“But if YOU will not obey me by sanctifying the sabbath day and not carrying a load, but there is a coming in with it through the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day, I will also set a fire ablaze in her gates, and it will certainly devour the dwelling towers of Jerusalem and will not be extinguished.”’”

18 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: [2] “Rise up, and you must go down to the house of the potter, and there I shall cause you to hear my words.”

[3] And I proceeded to go down to the house of the potter, and there he was doing work upon the potter’s wheels. [4] And the vessel that he was making with the clay was spoiled by the potter’s hand, and he turned back and went making it into another vessel, just as it looked right in the eyes of the potter to make.

[5] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [6] “‘Am I not able to do just like this potter to YOU people, O house of Israel?’ is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘Look! As the clay in the hand of the potter, so YOU are in my hand, O house of Israel. [7] At any moment that I may speak against a nation and against a kingdom to uproot it and to pull it down and to destroy it, [8] and that nation actually turns back from its badness against which I spoke, I will also feel regret over the calamity that I had thought to execute upon it. [9] But at any moment that I may speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom to build it up and to plant it, [10] and it actually does what is bad in my eyes by not obeying my voice, I will also feel regret over the good that I said to myself to do for its good.’

[11] “And now say, please, to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am forming against YOU a calamity and thinking against YOU a thought. Turn back, please, each one from his bad way, and make YOUR ways and YOUR dealings good.”’”

[12] And they said: “It is hopeless! For after our own thoughts we shall walk, and we are going to carry out each one the stubbornness of his bad heart.”

[13] Therefore this is what Jehovah has said: “Ask for yourselves, please, among the nations. Who has heard things like these? There is a horrible thing that the virgin of Israel has done to an excess. [14] Will the snow of Leb′a·non go away from the rock of the open field? Or will strange waters, cool, trickling, be dried up? [15] For my people have forgotten me in that they make sacrificial smoke to something worthless, and in that they make men stumble in their ways, the paths of long ago, to walk in roadways, a way not banked up, [16] in order to make their land an object of astonishment, for whistling at to time indefinite. Every last one passing along by it will stare in astonishment and shake his head. [17] As with an east wind I shall scatter them before the enemy. The back, and not the face, I shall show them in the day of their disaster.”

[18] And they proceeded to say: “Come, men, and let us think out against Jeremiah some thoughts, for the law will not perish from the priest or counsel from the wise one or the word from the prophet. Come and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us pay no attention to any of his words.”

[19] Do pay attention to me, O Jehovah, and listen to the voice of my opponents. [20] Should bad be repaid for good? For they have excavated a pit for my soul. Remember my standing before you to speak good even concerning them, to turn back your rage from them. [21] Therefore give their sons over to the famine, and deliver them over to the power of the sword; and may their wives become women bereaved of children, and widows. And may their own men become those killed with deadly plague, their young men those struck down with the sword in the battle. [22] Let a cry be heard out of their houses, when you bring upon them suddenly a marauder band. For they have excavated a pit to capture me, and traps they have hid for my feet.

23 But you yourself, O Jehovah, well know all their counsel against me for my death. Do not cover over their error, and do not wipe out that sin of theirs from before you; but let them become those who are made to stumble before you. In the time of your anger take action against them.

19 This is what Jehovah said: “Go, and you must get an earthenware flask of a potter and some of the older men of the people and some of the older men of the priests. [2] And you must go out to the valley of the son of Hin′nom, which is at the entrance of the Gate of the Potsherds. And there you must proclaim the words that I shall speak to you. [3] And you must say, ‘Hear the word of Jehovah, O YOU kings of Judah and YOU inhabitants of Jerusalem. This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said:

‘“Here I am bringing a calamity upon this place, of which when anyone hears, his ears will tingle; [4] for the reason that they have left me and have proceeded to make this place unrecognizable and to make sacrificial smoke in it to other gods whom they had not known, they and their forefathers and the kings of Judah; and they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent ones. [5] And they built the high places of the Ba′al in order to burn their sons in the fire as whole burnt offerings to the Ba′al, something that I had not commanded or spoken of, and that had not come up into my heart.”’

[6] ‘“Therefore, look! there are days coming,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “when this place will be called no more To′pheth and the valley of the son of Hin′nom, but the valley of the killing. [7] And I will make void the counsel of Judah and of Jerusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hand of those seeking for their soul. And I will give their dead bodies as food to the flying creatures of the heavens and to the beasts of the earth. [8] And I will make this city an object of astonishment and something to be whistled at. Every last one passing along by it will stare in astonishment and whistle over all its plagues. [9] And I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters; and they will eat each one the flesh of his fellowman, because of the tightness and because of the stress with which their enemies and those seeking for their soul will hem them in.”’

[10] “And you must break the flask before the eyes of the men who are going with you. [11] And you must say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “In the same way I shall break this people and this city as someone breaks the vessel of the potter so that it is no more able to be repaired; and in To′pheth they will bury until there is no more place to bury.”’

[12] “‘That is how I shall do to this place,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and to the inhabitants of it, even to make this city like To′pheth. [13] And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah must become like the place of To′pheth, unclean ones, that is, all the houses upon the roofs of which they made sacrificial smoke to all the army of the heavens and there was a pouring out of drink offerings to other gods.’”

[14] And Jeremiah proceeded to come from To′pheth, to which Jehovah had sent him to prophesy, and to stand in the courtyard of the house of Jehovah and say to all the people: [15] “This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Here I am bringing upon this city and upon all its cities all the calamity that I have spoken against it, because they have hardened their neck in order not to obey my words.’”

20 Now Pash′hur the son of Im′mer, the priest, who was also the leading commissioner in the house of Jehovah, kept listening to Jeremiah while prophesying these words. [2] Then Pash′hur struck Jeremiah the prophet and put him into the stocks that were in the Upper Gate of Benjamin, which was in the house of Jehovah. [3] But it came about on the following day that Pash′hur proceeded to let Jeremiah out from the stocks, and Jeremiah now said to him:

“Jehovah has called your name, not Pash′hur, but Fright all around. [4] For this is what Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am making you a fright to yourself and to all your lovers, and they will certainly fall by the sword of their enemies while your eyes will be looking on; and all Judah I shall give into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will actually take them into exile in Babylon and strike them down with the sword. [5] And I will give all the stored-up things of this city and all its product and all its precious things; and all the treasures of the kings of Judah I am going to give into the hand of their enemies. And they will certainly plunder them and take them and bring them to Babylon. [6] And as for you, O Pash′hur, and all the inhabitants of your house, YOU will go into captivity; and to Babylon you will come and there you will die and there you yourself will be buried with all your lovers, because you have prophesied to them in falsehood.’”

[7] You have fooled me, O Jehovah, so that I was fooled. You used your strength against me, so that you prevailed. I became an object of laughter all day long; everyone is holding me in derision. [8] For as often as I speak, I cry out. Violence and despoiling are what I call out. For the word of Jehovah became for me a cause for reproach and for jeering all day long. [9] And I said: “I am not going to make mention of him, and I shall speak no more in his name.” And in my heart it proved to be like a burning fire shut up in my bones; and I got tired of holding in, and I was unable to endure it. [10] For I heard the bad report of many. There was fright all around. “TELL out, that we may tell out about him.” Every mortal man bidding me “Peace! ”—they are watching for my limping: “Perhaps he will be fooled, so that we may prevail against him and take our revenge upon him.” [11] But Jehovah was with me like a terrible mighty one. That is why the very ones persecuting me will stumble and not prevail. They will certainly be put to much shame, because they will not have prospered. Their indefinitely lasting humiliation will be one that will not be forgotten.

[12] But you, O Jehovah of armies, are examining the righteous one; you are seeing the kidneys and the heart. May I see your vengeance upon them, for to you I have revealed my case at law.

[13] Sing to Jehovah, YOU people! Praise Jehovah! For he has delivered the soul of the poor one out of the hand of evildoers.

[14] Cursed be the day on which I was born! May the day that my mother gave me birth not become blessed! [15] Cursed be the man that brought good news to my father, saying: “There has been born to you a son, a male! ” He positively made him rejoice. [16] And that very man must become like cities that Jehovah has overthrown while He has felt no regret. And he must hear an outcry in the morning and an alarm signal at the time of midday.

[17] Why did he not definitely put me to death from the womb, that my mother should become to me my burial place and her womb be pregnant to time indefinite? [18] Why is it that I have come forth from the very womb in order to see hard work and grief and that my days should come to their end in mere shame?

21 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, when King Zed·e·ki′ah sent to him Pash′hur the son of Mal·chi′jah and Zeph·a·ni′ah the son of Ma·a·sei′ah, the priest, saying: [2] “Please inquire in our behalf of Jehovah, because Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon is making war against us. Perhaps Jehovah will do with us according to all his wonderful works, so that he will withdraw from us.”

[3] And Jeremiah proceeded to say to them: “This is what YOU will say to Zed·e·ki′ah, [4] ‘This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said: “Here I am turning in reverse the weapons of war that are in the hand of YOU people, with which YOU are fighting the king of Babylon, and the Chal·de′ans who are laying siege against YOU outside the wall, and I will gather them into the middle of this city. [5] And I myself will fight against YOU with a stretched-out hand and with a strong arm and with anger and with rage and with great indignation. [6] And I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast. With a great pestilence they will die.”’

[7] “‘“And after that,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “I shall give Zed·e·ki′ah the king of Judah and his servants and the people and those who are remaining over in this city from the pestilence, from the sword and from the famine, into the hand of Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon, even into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who are seeking for their soul, and he will certainly strike them with the edge of the sword. He will not feel sorry for them, nor will he show compassion or have any mercy.”’

[8] “And to this people you will say, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am putting before YOU people the way of life and the way of death. [9] The one sitting still in this city will die by the sword and by the famine and by the pestilence; but the one who is going out and who actually falls away to the Chal·de′ans who are laying siege against YOU will keep living, and his soul will certainly come to be his as a spoil.”’

10 “‘“For I have set my face against this city for calamity and not for good,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “Into the hand of the king of Babylon it will be given, and he will certainly burn it with fire.”

11 “‘And as regards the household of the king of Judah, hear, O men, the word of Jehovah. 12 O house of David, this is what Jehovah has said: “Every morning render sentence in justice, and deliver the one being robbed out of the hand of the defrauder, that my rage may not go forth just like a fire and actually burn and there be no one to extinguish it because of the badness of YOUR dealings.”’

13 “‘Here I am against you, O inhabitress of the low plain, O rock of the level land,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘As for YOU who are saying: “Who will descend against us? And who will come into our dwellings?” 14 I will also hold an accounting against YOU according to the fruitage of YOUR dealings,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘And I will set a fire ablaze in her forest, and it will certainly devour all the things round about her.’”

22 This is what Jehovah has said: “Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and you must speak there this word. [2] And you must say, ‘Hear the word of Jehovah, O king of Judah who are sitting on the throne of David, you with your servants and your people, those who are coming in through these gates. [3] This is what Jehovah has said: “RENDER justice and righteousness, and deliver the one that is being robbed out of the hand of the defrauder; and do not maltreat any alien resident, fatherless boy or widow. Do them no violence. And do not shed any innocent blood in this place. [4] For if YOU will by all means perform this word, there will also certainly come in through the gates of this house the kings sitting for David upon his throne, riding in chariots and on horses, he with his servants and his people.”’

[5] “‘But if YOU will not obey these words, by myself I do swear,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘that this house will become a mere devastated place.’

[6] “For this is what Jehovah has said concerning the house of the king of Judah, ‘You are as Gil′e·ad to me, the head of Leb′a·non. Assuredly I shall make you a wilderness; as for the cities, not one will be inhabited. [7] And I will sanctify against you those bringing ruin, each one and his weapons; and they must cut down the choicest of your cedars and cause them to fall into the fire. [8] And many nations will actually pass along by this city and say one to the other: “On what account did Jehovah do like this to this great city?” [9] And they will have to say: “On account of the fact that they left the covenant of Jehovah their God and proceeded to bow down to other gods and to serve them.”’

[10] “Do not weep for the dead one, and do not sympathize with him, YOU people. Weep profusely for the one going away, for he will return no more and he will actually not see the land of his relatives. [11] For this is what Jehovah has said concerning Shalʹlum the son of Jo·siʹah, the king of Judah who is reigning instead of Jo·siʹah his father, who has gone forth from this place, ‘He will return there no more. [12] For in the place where they have taken him into exile he will die, and this land he will see no more.’

[13] “Woe to the one building his house, but not with righteousness, and his upper chambers, but not with justice, by use of his fellowman who serves for nothing, and whose wages he does not give him; [14] the one saying, ‘I am going to build for myself a roomy house and commodious upper chambers; and my windows must be widened out for it, and the paneling will be with cedar and smeared with vermilion.’ [15] Will you continue reigning because you are competing by use of cedar? As for your father, did he not eat and drink and execute justice and righteousness? In that case it went well with him. [16] He pleaded the legal claim of the afflicted one and the poor one. In that case it went well. ‘Was not that a case of knowing me?’ is the utterance of Jehovah. [17] ‘Assuredly your eyes and your heart are upon nothing but upon your unjust gain, and upon the blood of the innocent one in order to shed it, and upon defrauding and upon extortion in order to carry them on.’

[18] “Therefore this is what Jehovah has said concerning Je·hoiʹa·kim the son of Jo·siʹah, the king of Judah, ‘They will not wail for him: “Alas, my brother! And alas, my sister!” They will not wail for him: “Alas, O master! And alas, his dignity!” [19] With the burial of a he-ass he will be buried, with a dragging about and a throwing away, out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.’

[20] “Go up onto Leb′a·non and cry out, and on Ba′shan let your voice out. And cry out from Ab′a·rim, because all those intensely loving you have been broken. [21] I spoke to you during your freedom from care. You said, ‘I shall not obey.’ This has been your way since your youth, for you did not obey my voice. [22] A wind will shepherd all your own shepherds; and as for those intensely loving you, they will go into captivity itself. For at that time you will be ashamed and certainly feel humiliated because of all your calamity. [23] O you who are dwelling in Leb′a·non, being nested in the cedars, how you will certainly sigh when there come to you birth pangs, the labor pains like those of a woman giving birth! ”

[24] “‘As I am alive,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘even if Co·ni′ah the son of Je·hoi′a·kim, the king of Judah, happened to be the seal ring on my right hand, from there I would pull you off! [25] And I will give you into the hand of those who are seeking for your soul and into the hand of those of whom you are scared and into the hand of Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon and into the hand of the Chal·de′ans. [26] And I will hurl you and your mother who gave you birth out into another land in which YOU people were not born, and there is where YOU will die. [27] And into the land to which they will be lifting up their soul to return, there they will not return. [28] Is this man Co·ni′ah a mere form despised, dashed to pieces, or a vessel in which there is no delight? Why is it that he himself and his offspring must be hurled down and thrown into the land that they have not known?’

[29] “O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of Jehovah. [30] This is what Jehovah has said, ‘WRITE down this man as childless, as an able-bodied man who will not have any success in his days; for from his offspring not a single one will have any success, sitting upon the throne of David and ruling anymore in Judah.’”

23 “Woe to the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of my pasturage! ” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[2] Therefore this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said against the shepherds who are shepherding my people: “YOU yourselves have scattered my sheep; and YOU kept dispersing them, and YOU have not turned YOUR attention to them.”

“Here I am turning my attention upon YOU for the badness of YOUR dealings,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[3] “And I myself shall collect together the remnant of my sheep out of all the lands to which I had dispersed them, and I will bring them back to their pasture ground, and they will certainly be fruitful and become many. [4] And I will raise up over them shepherds who will actually shepherd them; and they will be afraid no more, neither will they be struck with any terror, and none will be missing,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[5] “Look! There are days coming,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and I will raise up to David a righteous sprout. And a king will certainly reign and act with discretion and execute justice and righteousness in the land. [6] In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel itself will reside in security. And this is his name with which he will be called, Jehovah Is Our Righteousness.”

[7] “Therefore, look! there are days coming,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and they will no more say, ‘Jehovah is alive who brought the sons of Israel up out of the land of Egypt,’ [8] but, ‘Jehovah is alive who brought up and who brought in the offspring of the house of Israel out of the land of the north and out of all the lands to which I have dispersed them,’ and they will certainly dwell on their own ground.”

9 As regards the prophets, my heart has been broken within me. All my bones have begun shaking. I have become like a man that is drunk, and like an able-bodied man whom wine has overcome, because of Jehovah and because of his holy words. 10 For it is with adulterers that the land has become full. For because of the curse the land has gone to mourning, the pasture grounds of the wilderness have dried up; and their course of action proves to be bad, and their mightiness is not right.

11 “For both the prophet and the priest themselves have become polluted. Also in my own house I have found their badness,” is the utterance of Jehovah. 12 “Therefore their way will become for them like slippery places in the gloom, into which they will be pushed and certainly fall.”

“For I shall bring upon them a calamity, the year of their being given attention,” is the utterance of Jehovah. 13 “And in the prophets of Sa·mar′i·a I have seen impropriety. They have acted as prophets incited by Ba′al, and they keep making my people, even Israel, wander about. 14 And in the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen horrible things, committing adultery and walking in falsehood; and they have strengthened the hands of evildoers in order that they should not return, each one from his own badness. To me all of them have become like Sod′om, and the inhabitants of her like Go·mor′rah.”

15 Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies has said against the prophets: “Here I am making them eat wormwood, and I will give them poisoned water to drink. For from the prophets of Jerusalem apostasy has gone forth to all the land.”

[16] This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are prophesying to YOU people. They are making YOU become vain. The vision of their own heart is what they speak—not from the mouth of Jehovah. [17] They are saying again and again to those who are disrespectful of me, ‘Jehovah has spoken: “Peace is what YOU people will come to have.”’ And to every one walking in the stubbornness of his heart they have said, ‘No calamity will come upon YOU people.’ [18] For who has stood in the intimate group of Jehovah that he might see and hear his word? Who has given attention to his word that he might hear it? [19] Look! The windstorm of Jehovah, rage itself, will certainly go forth, even a whirling tempest. Upon the head of the wicked ones it will whirl itself. [20] The anger of Jehovah will not turn back until he will have carried out and until he will have made the ideas of his heart come true. In the final part of the days YOU people will give YOUR consideration to it with understanding.

[21] “I did not send the prophets, yet they themselves ran. I did not speak to them, yet they themselves prophesied. [22] But if they had stood in my intimate group, then they would have made my people hear my own words, and they would have caused them to turn back from their bad way and from the badness of their dealings.”

[23] “Am I a God nearby,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and not a God far away?”

[24] “Or can any man be concealed in places of concealment and I myself not see him?” is the utterance of Jehovah.

“Is it not the heavens and the earth that I myself actually fill?” is the utterance of Jehovah. [25] “I have heard what the prophets who are prophesying falsehood in my own name have said, saying, ‘I have had a dream! I have had a dream!’ [26] How long will it exist in the heart of the prophets who are prophesying the falsehood and who are prophets of the trickiness of their own heart? [27] They are thinking of making my people forget my name by means of their dreams that they keep relating each one to the other, just as their fathers forgot my name by means of Baʹal. [28] The prophet with whom there is a dream, let him relate the dream; but the one with whom my own word is, let him speak forth my word truthfully.”

“What does the straw have to do with the grain?” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[29] “Is not my word correspondingly like a fire,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and like a forge hammer that smashes the crag?”

[30] “Therefore here I am against the prophets,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “the ones who are stealing away my words, each one from his companion.”

[31] “Here I am against the prophets,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “the ones who are employing their tongue that they may utter forth, ‘An utterance!’”

[32] “Here I am against the prophets of false dreams,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “who relate them and cause my people to wander about because of their falsehoods and because of their boasting.”

“But I myself did not send them or command them. So they will by no means benefit this people,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[33] “And when this people or the prophet or priest asks you, saying, ‘What is the burden of Jehovah?’ you must also say to them, ‘“YOU people are—O what a burden! And I shall certainly abandon YOU,” is the utterance of Jehovah.’ [34] As for the prophet or the priest or the people who say, ‘The burden of Jehovah!’ I will also turn my attention upon that man and upon his household. [35] This is what YOU keep saying each one to his fellow and each one to his brother, ‘What has Jehovah answered? And what has Jehovah spoken?’ [36] But the burden of Jehovah mention no more YOU people, for the burden itself becomes to each one his own word, and YOU have changed the words of the living God, Jehovah of armies, our God.

[37] “This is what you will say to the prophet, ‘What answer has Jehovah given you? And what has Jehovah spoken? [38] And if “The burden of Jehovah!” is what YOU keep on saying, therefore this is what Jehovah has said: “By reason of YOUR saying, ‘This word is the very burden of Jehovah,’ when I kept sending to YOU, saying, ‘YOU must not say: “The burden of Jehovah!”’ [39] therefore here I am! And I will give YOU people to neglect, with finality, and I will desert YOU and the city that I gave to YOU and to YOUR forefathers—from before me. [40] And I will put upon YOU reproach to time indefinite and humiliation to time indefinite, which will not be forgotten.”’”

24 And Jehovah showed me, and, look! two baskets of figs set before the temple of Jehovah, after Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon had carried into exile Jec·o·ni′ah the son of Je·hoi′a·kim, the king of Judah, and the princes of Judah and the craftsmen and the builders of bulwarks, from Jerusalem that he might bring them to Babylon. [2] As for the one basket, the figs were very good, like early figs; and as for the other basket, the figs were very bad, so that they could not be eaten for badness.

[3] And Jehovah proceeded to say to me: “What are you seeing, Jeremiah?” So I said: “Figs, the good figs being very good, and the bad ones being very bad, so that they cannot be eaten for badness.”

[4] Then the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: [5] “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, ‘Like these good figs, so I shall regard the exiles of Judah, whom I will send away from this place to the land of the Chal·de′ans, in a good way. [6] And I will set my eye upon them in a good way, and I shall certainly cause them to return to this land. And I will build them up, and I shall not tear down; and I will plant them, and I shall not uproot. [7] And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am Jehovah; and they must become my people, and I myself shall become their God, for they will return to me with all their heart.

[8] “‘And like the bad figs that cannot be eaten for badness, this in fact is what Jehovah has said: “So I shall give Zed·e·ki′ah the king of Judah and his princes and the remnant of Jerusalem who are remaining over in this land and those who are dwelling in the land of Egypt— [9] I will also give them over for quaking, for calamity, in all the kingdoms of the earth, for reproach and for a proverbial saying, for a taunt and for a malediction, in all the places to which I shall disperse them. [10] And I will send against them the sword, the famine and the pestilence, until they come to their finish off the ground that I gave to them and to their forefathers.”’”

25 The word that occurred to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Je·hoi′a·kim the son of Jo·si′ah, the king of Judah, that is, the first year of Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon; [2] which Jeremiah the prophet spoke concerning all the people of Judah and concerning all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying:

[3] “From the thirteenth year of Jo·si′ah the son of A′mon, the king of Judah, and down to this day, these twenty-three years the word of Jehovah has occurred to me, and I kept speaking to YOU people, rising up early and speaking, but YOU did not listen. [4] And Jehovah sent to YOU all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, but YOU did not listen, neither did YOU incline YOUR ear to listen, [5] they saying, ‘Turn back, please, every one from his bad way and from the badness of YOUR dealings, and continue dwelling upon the ground that Jehovah gave to YOU and to YOUR forefathers from long ago and to a long time to come. [6] And do not walk after other gods in order to serve them and to bow down to them, that YOU may not offend me with the work of YOUR hands, and that I may not cause calamity to YOU.’

[7] “‘But YOU did not listen to me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘to the intent that YOU might offend me with the work of YOUR hands, for calamity to yourselves.’

[8] “Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘“For the reason that YOU did not obey my words, [9] here I am sending and I will take all the families of the north,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “even sending to Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon, my servant, and I will bring them against this land and against its inhabitants and against all these nations round about; and I will devote them to destruction and make them an object of astonishment and something to whistle at and places devastated to time indefinite. [10] And I will destroy out of them the sound of exultation and the sound of rejoicing, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the hand mill and the light of the lamp. [11] And all this land must become a devastated place, an object of astonishment, and these nations will have to serve the king of Babylon seventy years.”’

[12] “‘And it must occur that when seventy years have been fulfilled I shall call to account against the king of Babylon and against that nation,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘their error, even against the land of the Chal·deʹans, and I will make it desolate wastes to time indefinite. [13] And I will bring in upon that land all my words that I have spoken against it, even all that is written in this book that Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. [14] For even they themselves, many nations and great kings, have exploited them as servants; and I will repay them according to their activity and according to the work of their hands.’”

[15] For this is what Jehovah the God of Israel said to me: “Take this cup of the wine of rage out of my hand, and you must make all the nations to whom I am sending you drink it. [16] And they must drink and shake back and forth and act like crazed men because of the sword that I am sending among them.”

[17] And I proceeded to take the cup out of the hand of Jehovah and to make all the nations drink to whom Jehovah had sent me: [18] namely, Jerusalem and the cities of Judah and her kings, her princes, to make them a devastated place, an object of astonishment, something to whistle at and a malediction, just as at this day; [19] Pharʹaoh the king of Egypt and his servants and his princes and all his people; [20] and all the mixed company, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Phi·lis′tines and Ash′ke·lon and Ga′za and Ek′ron and the remnant of Ash′dod; 21 E′dom and Mo′ab and the sons of Am′mon; 22 and all the kings of Tyre and all the kings of Si′don and the kings of the island that is in the region of the sea; 23 and De′dan and Te′ma and Buz and all those with hair clipped at the temples; 24 and all the kings of the Arabs and all the kings of the mixed company who are residing in the wilderness; 25 and all the kings of Zim′ri and all the kings of E′lam and all the kings of the Medes; 26 and all the kings of the north who are near and far away, one after the other, and all the other kingdoms of the earth that are on the surface of the ground; and the king of She′shach himself will drink after them.

27 “And you must say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “Drink and get drunk and puke and fall so that YOU cannot get up because of the sword that I am sending among YOU.”’ 28 And it must occur that in case they refuse to take the cup out of your hand to drink, you must also say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “YOU will drink without fail. 29 For, look! it is upon the city upon which my name is called that I am starting off in bringing calamity, and should YOU yourselves in any way go free of punishment?”’

“‘YOU will not go free of punishment, for there is a sword that I am calling against all the inhabitants of the earth,’ is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.

30 “And as for you, you will prophesy to them all these words, and you must say to them, ‘From on high Jehovah himself will roar, and from his holy dwelling he will give forth his voice. Without fail he will roar upon his abiding place. A shout like that of those treading the winepress he will sing out against all the inhabitants of the earth.’

[31] “‘A noise will certainly come clear to the farthest part of the earth, for there is a controversy that Jehovah has with the nations. He must personally put himself in judgment with all flesh. As regards the wicked ones, he must give them to the sword,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.

[32] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘Look! A calamity is going forth from nation to nation, and a great tempest itself will be roused up from the remotest parts of the earth. [33] And those slain by Jehovah will certainly come to be in that day from one end of the earth clear to the other end of the earth. They will not be bewailed, neither will they be gathered up or be buried. As manure on the surface of the ground they will become.’

[34] “Howl, YOU shepherds, and cry out! And wallow about, YOU majestic ones of the flock, because YOUR days for slaughtering and for YOUR scatterings have been fulfilled, and YOU must fall like a desirable vessel! [35] And a place to flee to has perished from the shepherds, and a means of escape from the majestic ones of the flock. [36] Listen! The outcry of the shepherds, and the howling of the majestic ones of the flock, for Jehovah is despoiling their pasturage. [37] And the peaceful abiding places have been rendered lifeless because of the burning anger of Jehovah. [38] He has left his covert just like a maned young lion, for their land has become an object of astonishment because of the maltreating sword and because of his burning anger.”

26 In the beginning of the royal rule of Je·hoi′a·kim the son of Jo·si′ah, the king of Judah, this word occurred from Jehovah, saying: [2] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘Stand in the courtyard of the house of Jehovah, and you must speak concerning all the cities of Judah that are coming in to bow down at the house of Jehovah all the words that I will command you to speak to them. Do not take away a word. [3] Perhaps they will listen and return, each one from his bad way, and I shall have to feel regret for the calamity that I am thinking to execute upon them because of the badness of their dealings. [4] And you must say to them: “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘If YOU will not listen to me by walking in my law that I have put before YOU, [5] by listening to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I am sending to YOU, even rising up early and sending them, whom YOU have not listened to, [6] I will, in turn, make this house like that in Shi′loh, and this city I shall make a malediction to all the nations of the earth.’”’”

[7] And the priests and the prophets and all the people began to hear Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of Jehovah. [8] So it came about that when Jeremiah had completed speaking all that Jehovah had commanded him to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold of him, saying: “You will positively die. [9] Why is it that you have prophesied in the name of Jehovah, saying, ‘Like that in Shi′loh is how this house will become, and this very city will be devastated so as to be without an inhabitant’?” And all the people kept congregating themselves about Jeremiah in the house of Jehovah.

[10] In time the princes of Judah got to hear these words, and they proceeded to come up from the house of the king to the house of Jehovah and to sit down in the entrance of the new gate of Jehovah. [11] And the priests and the prophets began to say to the princes and to all the people: “To this man the judgment of death belongs, because he has prophesied concerning this city just as YOU have heard with YOUR own ears.”

[12] At that Jeremiah said to all the princes and to all the people: “It was Jehovah that sent me to prophesy concerning this house and concerning this city all the words that YOU have heard. [13] And now make YOUR ways and YOUR dealings good, and obey the voice of Jehovah YOUR God, and Jehovah will feel regret for the calamity that he has spoken against YOU. [14] And as for me, here I am in YOUR hand. Do to me according to what is good and according to what is right in YOUR eyes. [15] Only YOU should by all means know that, if YOU are putting me to death, it is innocent blood that YOU are putting upon yourselves and upon this city and upon her inhabitants, for in truth Jehovah did send me to YOU to speak in YOUR ears all these words.”

[16] Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: “There is no judgment of death belonging to this man, for it was in the name of Jehovah our God that he spoke to us.”

[17] Furthermore, certain ones of the older men of the land rose up and began saying to all the congregation of the people: [18] “Mi′cah of Mo′resh·eth himself happened to be prophesying in the days of Hez·e·ki′ah the king of Judah and went on to say to all the people of Judah, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “Zion herself will be plowed up as a mere field, and Jerusalem herself will become mere heaps of ruins, and the mountain of the House will be for high places of a forest.”’ [19] Did Hez·e·ki′ah the king of Judah and all those of Judah by any means put him to death? Did he not fear Jehovah and proceed to soften the face of Jehovah, so that Jehovah got to feeling regret for the calamity that he had spoken against them? So we are working up a great calamity against our souls.

[20] “And there also happened to be a man prophesying in the name of Jehovah, U·ri′jah the son of She·mai′ah from Kir′i·ath-je′a·rim. And he kept prophesying against this city and against this land in accord with all the words of Jeremiah. [21] And King Je·hoi′a·kim and all his mighty men and all the princes got to hear his words, and the king began seeking to put him to death. When U·ri′jah got to hear of it he at once became afraid and ran away and came into Egypt. [22] But King Je·hoi′a·kim sent men to Egypt, El·na′than the son of Ach′bor and other men with him to Egypt. [23] And they proceeded to bring U·ri′jah out from Egypt and to bring him to King Je·hoi′a·kim, who then struck him down with the sword and cast his dead body into the graveyard of the sons of the people.”

[24] Moreover, it was the hand of A·hi′kam the son of Sha′phan that proved to be with Jeremiah, in order not to give him into the hand of the people to have him put to death.

27 In the beginning of the kingdom of Je·hoi′a·kim the son of Jo·si′ah, the king of Judah, this word occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: [2] “This is what Jehovah has said to me, ‘Make for yourself bands and yoke bars, and you must put them upon your neck. [3] And you must send them to the king of E′dom and to the king of Mo′ab and to the king of the sons of Am′mon and to the king of Tyre and to the king of Si′don by the hand of the messengers who are coming to Jerusalem to Zed·e·ki′ah the king of Judah. [4] And you must give them a command for their masters, saying:

“‘“This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said; this is what YOU should say to YOUR masters, [5] ‘I myself have made the earth, mankind and the beasts that are upon the surface of the earth by my great power and by my stretched-out arm; and I have given it to whom it has proved right in my eyes. [6] And now I myself have given all these lands into the hand of Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon, my servant; and even the wild beasts of the field I have given him to serve him. [7] And all the nations must serve even him and his son and his grandson until the time even of his own land comes, and many nations and great kings must exploit him as a servant.’

[8] “‘“‘And it must occur that the nation and the kingdom that will not serve him, even Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon; and the one that will not put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, with the sword and with the famine and with the pestilence I shall turn my attention upon that nation,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘until I shall have finished them off by his hand.’

[9] “‘ “‘And as for YOU men, do not listen to YOUR prophets and to YOUR practicers of divination and to YOUR dreamers and to YOUR practicers of magic and to YOUR sorcerers, who are saying to YOU: “YOU men will not serve the king of Babylon.” [10] For falsehood is what they are prophesying to YOU, for the purpose of having YOU taken far away from off YOUR ground; and I shall have to disperse YOU, and YOU will have to perish.

[11] “‘ “‘And as for the nation that will bring its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and actually serve him, I will also let it rest upon its ground,’ is the utterance of Jehovah,
‘and it will certainly cultivate it and dwell in it.’”’”

[12] Even to Zed·e·ki′ah the king of Judah I spoke according to all these words, saying: “Bring YOUR necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him and his people and keep on living. [13] Why should you yourself and your people die by the sword, by the famine and by the pestilence according to what Jehovah has spoken to the nation that does not serve the king of Babylon? [14] And do not listen to the words of the prophets that are saying to YOU men, ‘YOU will not serve the king of Babylon,’ because falsehood is what they are prophesying to YOU.

[15] “‘For I have not sent them,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘but they are prophesying in my name falsely, to the end that I shall disperse YOU, and YOU will have to perish, YOU men and the prophets that are prophesying to YOU.’”

[16] And to the priests and to all this people I spoke, saying:
“This is what Jehovah has said, ‘Do not listen to the words of YOUR prophets that are prophesying to YOU, saying: “Look!
The utensils of the house of Jehovah are being brought back from Babylon soon now! ” For falsehood is what they are prophesying to YOU. [17] Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon and keep on living. Why should this city become a devastated place? [18] But if they are prophets and if the word of Jehovah does exist with them, let them, please, beseech Jehovah of armies, that the utensils that are remaining over in the house of Jehovah and the house of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem may not come into Babylon.’

[19] “For this is what Jehovah of armies has said concerning the pillars and concerning the sea and concerning the carriages and concerning the remainder of the utensils that are remaining over in this city, [20] that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon had not taken when he carried Jec·o·ni′ah the son of Je·hoi′a·kim, the king of Judah, into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, together with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; [21] for this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said concerning the utensils that are remaining over at the house of Jehovah and the house of the king of Judah and Jerusalem, [22] ‘“To Babylon is where they will be brought and there they will continue to be until the day of my turning my attention to them,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “And I will bring them up and restore them to this place.”’”

28 Then it came about in that year, in the beginning of the kingdom of Zed·e·kiʹah the king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Han·a·niʹah the son of Azʹzur, the prophet who was from Gibʹe·on, said to me in the house of Jehovah before the eyes of the priests and of all the people: [2] "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. [3] Within two full years more I am bringing back to this place all the utensils of the house of Jehovah that Neb·u·chad·nezʹzar the king of Babylon took from this place that he might bring them to Babylon.'" [4] "'And Jec·o·niʹah the son of Je·hoiʹa·kim, the king of Judah, and all the exiles of Judah who have come to Babylon I am bringing back to this place,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'for I shall break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

[5] And Jeremiah the prophet proceeded to say to Han·a·niʹah the prophet before the eyes of the priests and before the eyes of all the people who were standing in the house of Jehovah; [6] yes, Jeremiah the prophet proceeded to say: "Amen! Thus may Jehovah do! May Jehovah establish your words that you have prophesied by bringing back the utensils of the house of Jehovah and all the exiled people from Babylon to this place! [7] However, hear, please, this word that I am speaking in your ears and in the ears of all the people. [8] As regards the prophets that happened to be prior to me and prior to you from long ago, they also used to prophesy concerning many lands and concerning great kingdoms, of war and of calamity and of pestilence. [9] As regards the prophet that prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet comes true the prophet whom Jehovah has sent in truth will become known."

[10] At that Han·a·niʹah the prophet took the yoke bar from off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet and broke it. [11] And Han·a·niʹah went on to say before the eyes of all the people: “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘Just like this I shall break the yoke of Neb·u·chad·nezʹzar the king of Babylon within two full years more from off the neck of all the nations.’” And Jeremiah the prophet proceeded to go his way.

[12] Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah, after Han·a·niʹah the prophet had broken the yoke bar from off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, saying: [13] “Go, and you must say to Han·a·niʹah, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Yoke bars of wood you have broken, and instead of them you will have to make yoke bars of iron.” [14] For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “A yoke of iron I will put upon the neck of all these nations, to serve Neb·u·chad·nezʹzar the king of Babylon; and they must serve him. And even the wild beasts of the field I will give him.”’”

[15] And Jeremiah the prophet went on to say to Han·a·niʹah the prophet: “Listen, please, O Han·a·niʹah! Jehovah has not sent you, but you yourself have caused this people to trust in a falsehood. [16] Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, ‘Look! I am sending you away from off the surface of the ground. This year you yourself must die, for you have spoken outright revolt against Jehovah.’”

[17] So Han·a·niʹah the prophet died in that year, in the seventh month.

29 And these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the remainder of the older men of the exiled people and to the priests and to the prophets and to all the people, whom Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, [2] after Jec·o·ni′ah the king and the lady and the court officials, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen and the builders of bulwarks had gone forth from Jerusalem. [3] It was by the hand of El·a′sah the son of Sha′phan and Gem·a·ri′ah the son of Hil·ki′ah, whom Zed·e·ki′ah the king of Judah sent to Babylon to Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon, saying:

[4] “This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said to all the exiled people, whom I have caused to go into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, [5] ‘Build houses and inhabit them, and plant gardens and eat their fruitage. [6] Take wives and become father to sons and to daughters; and take wives for YOUR own sons and give YOUR own daughters to husbands, that they may give birth to sons and to daughters; and become many there, and do not become few. [7] Also, seek the peace of the city to which I have caused YOU to go into exile, and pray in its behalf to Jehovah, for in its peace there will prove to be peace for YOU yourselves. [8] For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “Let not YOUR prophets who are in among YOU and YOUR practicers of divination deceive YOU, and do not YOU listen to their dreams that they are dreaming. [9] For ‘it is in falsehood that they are prophesying to YOU in my name. I have not sent them,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”’”

[10] “For this is what Jehovah has said, ‘In accord with the fulfilling of seventy years at Babylon I shall turn my attention to YOU people, and I will establish toward YOU my good word in bringing YOU back to this place.’

11 “‘For I myself well know the thoughts that I am thinking toward YOU,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘thoughts of peace, and not of calamity, to give YOU a future and a hope. 12 And YOU will certainly call me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to YOU.’

13 “‘And YOU will actually seek me and find me, for YOU will search for me with all YOUR heart. 14 And I will let myself be found by YOU,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘And I will gather YOUR body of captives and collect YOU together out of all the nations and out of all the places to which I have dispersed YOU,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘And I will bring YOU back to the place from which I caused YOU to go into exile.’

15 “But YOU have said, ‘Jehovah has raised up for us prophets in Babylon.’

16 “For this is what Jehovah has said to the king sitting on the throne of David and to all the people dwelling in this city, YOUR brothers that have not gone forth with YOU into exile, 17 ‘This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “Here I am sending against them the sword, the famine and the pestilence, and I will make them like the burst-open figs that cannot be eaten for badness.”’

18 “‘And I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine and with the pestilence, and I will give them for a quaking to all the kingdoms of the earth, for a curse and for an object of astonishment and for a whistling at and for a reproach among all the nations to which I shall certainly disperse them, 19 due to the fact that they have not listened to my words,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘that I have sent to them with my servants the prophets, getting up early and sending them.’

“‘But YOU have not listened,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.

[20] “And as for YOU, hear the word of Jehovah, all you exiled people, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon. [21] This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said concerning A′hab the son of Ko·lai′ah and to Zed·e·ki′ah the son of Ma·a·sei′ah, who are prophesying to YOU falsehood in my own name, ‘Here I am giving them into the hand of Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon, and he must strike them down before YOUR eyes. [22] And from them a malediction will certainly be taken on the part of the entire body of exiles of Judah that is in Babylon, saying: “May Jehovah make you like Zed·e·ki′ah and like A′hab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire! ” [23] for the reason that they have carried on senselessness in Israel, and they keep committing adultery with the wives of their companions and keep speaking falsely in my own name the word that I did not command them.

“‘ “And I am the One knowing and am a witness,” is the utterance of Jehovah.’”

[24] “And to She·mai′ah of Ne·hel′am you will say, [25] ‘This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “For the reason that you yourself have sent in your name letters to all the people who are in Jerusalem, and to Zeph·a·ni′ah the son of Ma·a·sei′ah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying, [26] ‘Jehovah himself has made you priest instead of Je·hoi′a·da the priest, in order to become the grand overseer of the house of Jehovah toward any man maddened and behaving like a prophet, and you must put him into the stocks and into the pillory; [27] now, then, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of An′a·thoth, who is behaving as a prophet to YOU people? [28] For that is why he has sent to us at Babylon, saying: “It is long drawn out! Build houses and inhabit them, and plant gardens and eat their fruitage,—”’”’”

[29] And Zeph·a·niʹah the priest proceeded to read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

[30] Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah, saying: [31] “Send to all the exiled people, saying, ‘This is what Jehovah has said concerning She·maiʹah of Ne·helʹam: “For the reason that She·maiʹah has prophesied to YOU people, but I myself did not send him, and he tried to make YOU trust in falsehood, [32] therefore this is what Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am turning my attention upon She·maiʹah of Ne·helʹam and upon his offspring.’

“‘“‘He will not come to have a man dwelling in the midst of this people; and he will not look upon the good that I am doing for my people,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘for he has spoken outright revolt against Jehovah.’”’”

30 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: [2] “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, ‘Write for yourself in a book all the words that I will speak to you. [3] For, “look! there are days coming,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and I will gather the captive ones of my people, Israel and Judah,” Jehovah has said, “and I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their forefathers, and they will certainly repossess it.”’”

[4] And these are the words that Jehovah has spoken to Israel and to Judah. [5] For this is what Jehovah has said: “The sound of trembling we have heard, dread, and there is no peace. [6] Ask, please, O men, and see whether a male is giving birth. Why is it that I have seen every able-bodied man with his hands upon his loins like a female that is giving birth, and all faces have turned pale? [7] Alas! For that day is a great one, so that there is no other like it, and it is the time of distress for Jacob. But he will be saved even out of it.”

[8] “And it must occur in that day,” is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, “that I shall break one’s yoke from off your neck, and your bands I shall tear in two, and no more will strangers exploit him as a servant. [9] And they will certainly serve Jehovah their God and David their king, whom I shall raise up for them.”

[10] “And as for you, do not be afraid, O my servant Jacob,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and do not be struck with terror, O Israel. For here I am saving you from far off and your offspring from the land of their captivity. And Jacob will certainly return and be free of disturbance and be at ease, and there will be no one causing trembling.”

[11] “For I am with you,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “to save you; but I shall make an extermination among all the nations to which I have scattered you. However, in your case I shall make no extermination. And I shall have to correct you to the proper degree, as I shall by no means leave you unpunished.”

[12] For this is what Jehovah has said: “There is no cure for your breakdown. Your stroke is chronic. [13] There is no one pleading your cause, for your ulcer. There are no means of healing, no mending, for you. [14] All those intensely loving you are the ones that have forgotten you. You are not the one for whom they keep searching. For with the stroke of an enemy I have struck you, with the chastisement of someone cruel, on account of the abundance of your error; your sins have become numerous. [15] Why do you cry out on account of your breakdown? Your pain is incurable on account of the abundance of your error; your sins have become numerous. I have done these things to you. [16] Therefore all those devouring you will themselves be devoured; and as for all your adversaries, into captivity they will all of them go. And those pillaging you will certainly come to be for pillaging, and all those plundering you I shall give over to plundering.”

[17] “For I shall bring up a recuperation for you, and from your strokes I shall heal you,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “For a woman chased away is what they called you: ‘That is Zion, for whom no one is searching.’”

[18] This is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am gathering the captive ones of the tents of Jacob, and for his tabernacles I shall have pity. And the city will actually be rebuilt upon her mound; and upon its rightful site the dwelling tower itself will sit. [19] And from them there will certainly go forth thanksgiving, and the sound of those who are laughing. And I will multiply them, and they will not become few; and I will make them heavy in number, and they will not become insignificant. [20] And his sons must become as in former times, and before me his own assembly will be firmly established. And I will turn my attention upon all his oppressors. [21] And his majestic one will certainly come to be from him, and from the midst of him his own ruler will go forth; and I will cause him to come near, and he must approach to me."

"For who, now, is this one that has given his heart in pledge in order to approach to me?" is the utterance of Jehovah. [22] "And YOU will certainly become my people, and I myself shall become YOUR God."

[23] Look! A windstorm of Jehovah, rage itself, has gone forth, an onward-sweeping tempest. Upon the head of the wicked ones it will whirl. [24] The burning anger of Jehovah will not turn back until he will have executed and until he will have carried out the ideas of his heart. In the final part of the days YOU people will give YOUR consideration to it.

31 “At that time,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “I shall become God to all the families of Israel; and as for them, they will become my people.”

[2] This is what Jehovah has said: “The people made up of survivors from the sword found favor in the wilderness, when Israel was walking to get his repose.” [3] From far away Jehovah himself appeared to me, saying: “And with a love to time indefinite I have loved you. That is why I have drawn you with loving-kindness. [4] Yet shall I rebuild you and you will actually be rebuilt, O virgin of Israel. You will yet deck yourself with your tambourines and actually go forth in the dance of those who are laughing. [5] You will yet plant vineyards in the mountains of Sa·mar′i·a. The planters will certainly plant and start to use them. [6] For there exists a day when the lookouts in the mountainous region of E′phra·im will actually call out, ‘Rise up, O men, and let us go up to Zion, to Jehovah our God.’”

[7] For this is what Jehovah has said: “CRY out loudly to Jacob with rejoicing, and CRY shrilly at the head of nations. PUBLISH it. GIVE praise and SAY, ‘Save, O Jehovah, your people, the remnant of Israel.’ [8] Here I am bringing them from the land of the north, and I will collect them together from the remotest parts of the earth. Among them will be the blind and the lame, the pregnant woman and the one giving birth, all together. As a great congregation they will return here. [9] With weeping they will come, and with their entreaties for favor I shall bring them. I shall make them walk to torrent valleys of water, in a right way in which they will not be caused to stumble. For I have become to Israel a Father; and as for E′phra·im, he is my firstborn.”

[10] Hear the word of Jehovah, O YOU nations, and tell it among the islands far away, and say: “The One scattering Israel will himself collect him together, and he will certainly keep him as a shepherd does his drove. [11] For Jehovah will actually redeem Jacob and reclaim him out of the hand of the one stronger than he is. [12] And they will certainly come and cry out joyfully on the height of Zion and become radiant over the goodness of Jehovah, over the grain and over the new wine and over the oil and over the young ones of the flock and the cattle. And their soul will simply become like a well-watered garden, and no more will they languish again.”

[13] “At that time the virgin will rejoice in the dance, also the young men and the old men, all together. And I will change their mourning into exultation, and I will comfort them and make them rejoice away from their grief. [14] And I will saturate the soul of the priests with fatness, and with my goodness my own people will become satisfied,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[15] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘In Ra′mah a voice is being heard, lamentation and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping over her sons. She has refused to be comforted over her sons, because they are no more.’”

[16] This is what Jehovah has said: “‘Hold back your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears, for there exists a reward for your activity,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and they will certainly return from the land of the enemy.’

[17] “‘And there exists a hope for your future,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and the sons will certainly return to their own territory.’”

[18] “I have positively heard E′phra·im bemoaning himself, ‘You have corrected me, that I may be corrected, like a calf that has not been trained. Cause me to turn back, and I shall readily turn back, for you are Jehovah my God. [19] For after my turning back I felt regret; and after my being led to know I made a slap upon the thigh. I became ashamed, and I also felt humiliated, for I had carried the reproach of my youth.’”

[20] “Is E′phra·im a precious son to me, or a fondly treated child? For to the extent of my speaking against him I shall without fail remember him further. That is why my intestines have become boisterous for him. By all means I shall have pity upon him,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[21] “Set up road marks for yourself. Place signposts for yourself. Fix your heart upon the highway, the way that you will have to go. Come back, O virgin of Israel. Come back to these cities of yours. [22] How long will you turn this way and that, O unfaithful daughter? For Jehovah has created a new thing in the earth: A mere female will press around an able-bodied man.”

[23] This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “They will yet say this word in the land of Judah and in his cities, when I shall gather their captives, ‘May Jehovah bless you, O righteous dwelling place, O holy mountain.’ [24] And in it Judah and all his cities will certainly dwell all together, farmers and those who have set out with the drove. [25] For I will saturate the tired soul, and every languishing soul I will fill.”

[26] At this thing I awoke and began to see; and as for my sleep, it had been pleasurable to me.

[27] “Look! There are days coming,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and with the seed of domestic animal.”

[28] “And it must occur that just as I had kept alert toward them to uproot and to pull down and to tear down and to destroy and to do damage, so I shall keep alert toward them to build up and to plant,” is the utterance of Jehovah. [29] “In those days they will no more say, ‘The fathers were the ones that ate the unripe grape, but it was the teeth of the sons that got set on edge.’ [30] But it will be each one for his own error that one will die. Any man eating the unripe grape, his will be the teeth that will be set on edge.”

[31] “Look! There are days coming,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and I will conclude with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah a new covenant; [32] not one like the covenant that I concluded with their forefathers in the day of my taking hold of their hand to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt, ‘which covenant of mine they themselves broke, although I myself had husbandly ownership of them,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

[33] “For this is the covenant that I shall conclude with the house of Israel after those days,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “I will put my law within them, and in their heart I shall write it. And I will become their God, and they themselves will become my people.”

[34] “And they will no more teach each one his companion and each one his brother, saying, ‘KNOW Jehovah!’ for they will all of them know me, from the least one of them even to the greatest one of them,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “For I shall forgive their error, and their sin I shall remember no more.”

[35] This is what Jehovah, the Giver of the sun for light by day, the statutes of the moon and the stars for light by night, the

One stirring up the sea that its waves may become boisterous, the One whose name is Jehovah of armies, has said: [36] “‘If these regulations could be removed from before me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘those who are the seed of Israel could likewise cease from proving to be a nation before me always.’”

[37] This is what Jehovah has said: “‘If the heavens up above could be measured and the foundations of the earth below could be searched out, I myself also could reject the entire seed of Israel on account of all that they have done,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

[38] “Look! There are days coming,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and the city will certainly be built to Jehovah from the Tower of Ha·nanʹel to the Corner Gate. [39] And the line for measurement will yet actually go forth straight ahead to the hill of Gaʹreb, and it will certainly go around to Goʹah. [40] And all the low plain of the carcasses and of the fatty ashes, and all the terraces as far as the torrent valley of Kidʹron, clear to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the sunrising, will be something holy to Jehovah. It will not be uprooted, neither will it be torn down anymore to time indefinite.”

32 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the tenth year of Zed·e·kiʹah the king of Judah, that is, the eighteenth year of Neb·u·chad·rezʹzar. [2] And at that time the military forces of the king of Babylon were laying siege to Jerusalem; and as for Jeremiah the prophet, he happened to be under restraint in the Courtyard of the Guard that is in the house of the king of Judah; [3] because Zed·e·kiʹah the king of Judah had restrained him, saying:

“Why is it that you are prophesying, saying, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will certainly capture it; [4] and Zed·e·kiʹah himself, the king of Judah, will not escape from the hand of the Chal·deʹans, for he will without fail be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and his mouth will actually speak with the mouth of that one, and his own eyes will see even the eyes of that one”’; [5] ‘and to Babylon he will take Zed·e·kiʹah, and there he will continue until I turn my attention to him,’ is the utterance of Jehovah; ‘although YOU men keep warring against the Chal·deʹans, YOU will not succeed’?”

[6] And Jeremiah proceeded to say: “The word of Jehovah has occurred to me, saying, [7] ‘Here is Hanʹa·mel the son of Shalʹlum your paternal uncle coming in to you, saying: “Buy for yourself the field of mine that is in Anʹa·thoth, because the right of repurchase belongs to you for buying it.”’”

[8] In time Hanʹa·mel the son of my paternal uncle came in to me, according to the word of Jehovah, into the Courtyard of the Guard, and proceeded to say to me: “Buy, please, the field of mine that is in Anʹa·thoth, which is in the land of Benjamin, for the right of hereditary possession is yours, and the repurchasing power is yours. Buy it for yourself.” At that I knew that it had been the word of Jehovah.

9 So I proceeded to buy from Han′a·mel the son of my paternal uncle the field that was in An′a·thoth. And I began to weigh out to him the money, seven shekels and ten silver pieces. 10 Then I wrote in a deed and affixed the seal and took witnesses as I went weighing the money in the scales. 11 After that I took the deed of purchase, the one sealed according to the commandment and the regulations, and the one left open; 12 and I then gave the deed of purchase to Bar′uch the son of Ne·ri′ah the son of Mah·sei′ah before the eyes of Han′a·mel the son of my paternal uncle and before the eyes of the witnesses, those writing in the deed of purchase, before the eyes of all the Jews who were sitting in the Courtyard of the Guard.

13 I now commanded Bar′uch before their eyes, saying: 14 “This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Taking these deeds, this deed of purchase, even the sealed one, and the other deed left open, you must also put them into an earthenware vessel, in order that they may last for many days.’ 15 For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Houses and fields and vineyards will yet be bought in this land.’”

16 And I began to pray to Jehovah after my having given the deed of purchase to Bar′uch the son of Ne·ri′ah, saying: 17 “Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Here you yourself have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm. The whole matter is not too wonderful for you yourself, 18 the One exercising loving-kindness toward thousands, and repaying the error of the fathers into the bosom of their sons after them, the true God, the great One, the mighty One, Jehovah of armies being his name, 19 great in counsel and abundant in acts, you whose eyes are opened upon all the ways of the sons of men, in order to give to each one according to his ways and according to the fruitage of his dealings; 20 you who set signs and miracles in the land of Egypt down to this day and in Israel and among men, that you might make a name for your own self, just as at this day. 21 And you proceeded to bring forth your people Israel out of the land of Egypt, with signs and with miracles and with a strong hand and with a stretched-out arm and with great fearsomeness.

22 “In time you gave them this land that you swore to their forefathers to give to them, a land flowing with milk and honey. 23 And they proceeded to come in and take possession of it, but they did not obey your voice, and in your law they did not walk. All the things that you commanded them to do they did not do, so that you caused all this calamity to befall them. 24 Look! With siege ramparts men have come to the city to capture it, and the very city will certainly be given into the hand of the Chal·deʹans who are fighting against it, because of the sword and the famine and the pestilence; and what you have said has happened, and here you are seeing it. 25 Yet you yourself have said to me, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘Buy for yourself the field with money and take witnesses,’ although the city itself must be given into the hand of the Chal·deʹans.”

26 At that the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah, saying: 27 “Here I am, Jehovah, the God of all flesh. For me is there any matter at all too wonderful? 28 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am giving this city into the hand of the Chal·deʹans and into the hand of Neb·u·chad·rezʹzar the king of Babylon, and he must capture it. 29 And the Chal·deʹans who are fighting against this city must come in and set this city aflame with fire and must burn it down and the houses upon the roofs of which they have made sacrificial smoke to Baʹal and have poured out drink offerings to other gods for the purpose of offending me.’

[30] “‘For the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah have proved to be mere doers of what was bad in my eyes, from their youth on up; for the sons of Israel are even offending me by the work of their hands,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. [31] ‘For this city, from the day that they built it, clear down to this day, has proved to be nothing but a cause of anger in me and a cause of rage in me, in order to remove it from before my face, [32] on account of all the badness of the sons of Israel and of the sons of Judah that they have done to offend me, they, their kings, their princes, their priests and their prophets, and the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [33] And they kept turning to me the back and not the face; though there was a teaching of them, a rising up early and teaching, but there were none of them listening to receive discipline. [34] And they went putting their disgusting things in the house upon which my own name has been called, in order to defile it. [35] Furthermore, they built the high places of Baʹal that are in the valley of the son of Hinʹnom, in order to make their sons and their daughters pass through the fire to Moʹlech, a thing that I did not command them, neither did it come up into my heart to do this detestable thing, for the purpose of making Judah sin.’

[36] “And now, therefore, this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said concerning this city which YOU persons are saying will certainly be given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword and by the famine and by the pestilence, [37] ‘Here I am collecting them together out of all the lands to which I shall have dispersed them in my anger and in my rage and in great indignation; and I will bring them back to this place and make them dwell in security. [38] And they will certainly become my people, and I myself shall become their

God. [39] And I will give them one heart and one way in order to fear me always, for good to them and to their sons after them. [40] And I will conclude with them an indefinitely lasting covenant, that I shall not turn back from behind them, for me to do them good; and the fear of me I shall put in their heart in order not to turn aside from me. [41] And I will exult over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land in trueness with all my heart and with all my soul.'"

[42] "For this is what Jehovah has said, 'Just as I have brought in upon this people all this great calamity, so I am bringing in upon them all the goodness that I am speaking concerning them. [43] And fields will certainly be bought in this land of which YOU people will be saying: "It is a desolate waste without man and domestic animal. It has been given into the hand of the Chal·de′ans."'

[44] "'With money people will buy fields themselves, and there will be a recording in the deed and a sealing and a taking of witnesses in the land of Benjamin and in the surroundings of Jerusalem and in the cities of Judah and in the cities of the mountainous region and in the cities of the lowland and in the cities of the south, because I shall bring back their captives,' is the utterance of Jehovah."

33 And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the Courtyard of the Guard, saying: [2] “This is what Jehovah the Maker of earth has said, Jehovah the Former of it to establish it firmly, Jehovah being his name, [3] ‘Call to me, and I shall answer you and readily tell you great and incomprehensible things that you have not known.’”

[4] “For this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said concerning the houses of this city and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah that are pulled down on account of the siege ramparts and on account of the sword; [5] concerning those who are coming to fight against the Chal·de′ans and to fill places with the carcasses of the men whom I have struck down in my anger and in my rage, and on account of all whose badness I have concealed my face from this city, [6] ‘Here I am bringing up for her a recuperation and health; and I will heal them and reveal to them an abundance of peace and truth. [7] And I will bring back the captives of Judah and the captives of Israel, and I will build them just as at the start. [8] And I will purify them from all their error with which they have sinned against me, and I will forgive all their errors with which they have sinned against me and with which they have transgressed against me. [9] And she will certainly become to me a name of exultation, a praise and a beauty toward all the nations of the earth who will hear of all the goodness that I am rendering to them. And they will certainly be in dread and be agitated on account of all the goodness and on account of all the peace that I am rendering to her.’”

[10] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘In this place that YOU people will be saying is waste without man and without domestic animal, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem that are desolated without man and without inhabitant and without domestic animal, there will yet be heard [11] the sound of exultation and the sound of rejoicing, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those saying: “LAUD Jehovah of armies, for Jehovah is good; for to time indefinite is his loving-kindness! ”’

“‘They will be bringing a thanksgiving offering into the house of Jehovah, for I shall bring back the captives of the land just as at the start,’ Jehovah has said.”

[12] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘In this waste place without man and even domestic animal and in all its cities there will yet come to be the pasture ground of the shepherds who are making the flock lie down.’

[13] “‘In the cities of the mountainous region, in the cities of the lowland and in the cities of the south and in the land of Benjamin and in the surroundings of Jerusalem and in the cities of Judah flocks will yet pass by under the hands of the one taking the count,’ Jehovah has said.”

[14] “‘Look! There are days coming,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and I shall certainly carry out the good word that I have spoken, concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah. [15] In those days and at that time I shall make sprout for David a righteous sprout, and he will certainly execute justice and righteousness in the land. [16] In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem itself will reside in security. And this is what she will be called, Jehovah Is Our Righteousness.’”

[17] “For this is what Jehovah has said, ‘There will not be cut off in David’s case a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel. [18] And in the case of the priests, the Levites, there will not be cut off a man from before me to offer up whole burnt offering and to make smoke with a grain offering and to render sacrifice always.’”

[19] And the word of Jehovah came further to Jeremiah, saying: [20] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘If YOU people could break my covenant of the day and my covenant of the night, even in order for day and night not to occur in their time, [21] likewise could my own covenant be broken with David my servant so that he should not come to have a son ruling as king upon his throne; also with the Levites, the priests, my ministers. [22] Just as the army of the heavens cannot be counted, neither the sand of the sea be measured, so I shall multiply the seed of David my servant and the Levites who are ministering to me.’”

[23] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to Jeremiah, saying: [24] “Have you not seen what those of this people have spoken, saying, ‘The two families whom Jehovah has chosen, he will also reject them’? And my own people they keep treating with disrespect, so that it should no more continue being a nation before them.

[25] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘If it was not a fact that I had appointed my own covenant of the day and night, the statutes of heaven and earth, [26] so too I would reject even the seed of Jacob and of David my servant, so that I should not take from his seed rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. For I shall gather their captives and will have pity upon them.’”

34 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, when Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon and all his military force and all the kingdoms of the earth, the dominion under his hand, and all the peoples were fighting against Jerusalem and against all her cities, saying:

[2] “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, ‘Go, and you must say to Zed·e·ki′ah the king of Judah, yes, you must say to him: “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he must burn it with fire. [3] And you yourself will not escape out of his hand, because you will without fail be caught and into his hand you will be given. And your own eyes will see even the eyes of the king of Babylon, and his own mouth will speak even with your mouth, and to Babylon you will come.’ [4] However, hear the word of Jehovah, O Zed·e·ki′ah king of Judah, ‘This is what Jehovah has said concerning you: “You will not die by the sword. [5] In peace you will die; and as with the burnings for your fathers, the former kings who happened to be prior to you, so they will make a burning for you, and ‘Alas, O master!’ is what they will say in lament for you, for ‘I myself have spoken the very word,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”’”’”

[6] And Jeremiah the prophet proceeded to speak to Zed·e·ki′ah the king of Judah all these words in Jerusalem, [7] when the military forces of the king of Babylon were fighting against Jerusalem and against all the cities of Judah that were left remaining, against La′chish and against A·ze′kah; for they, the fortified cities, were the ones that remained over among the cities of Judah.

[8] The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah after King Zed·e·kiʹah concluded a covenant with all the people who were in Jerusalem to proclaim to them liberty, [9] to let each one his manservant and each one his maidservant, Hebrew man and Hebrew woman, go free, in order not to use them as servants, that is, a Jew, who is his brother. [10] So all the princes obeyed, and all the people who had entered into the covenant to let each one his manservant and each one his maidservant go free, in order to use them no more as servants, and they proceeded to obey and to let them go. [11] But they turned about after that and began to bring back the menservants and the maidservants whom they had let go free, and they went subjecting them as menservants and as maidservants. [12] Consequently the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying:

[13] “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, ‘I myself concluded a covenant with YOUR forefathers in the day of my bringing them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of servants, saying: [14] “At the end of seven years YOU men should let go each one his brother, a Hebrew man, who came to be sold to you and who has served you six years; and you must let him go free from being with you.” But YOUR forefathers did not listen to me, neither did they incline their ear. [15] And YOU yourselves turn around today and do what is upright in my eyes in proclaiming liberty each one to his companion, and YOU conclude a covenant before me in the house upon which my name has been called. [16] Then YOU turn back and profane my name and bring back each one his manservant and each one his maidservant, whom YOU let go free agreeably to their soul, and YOU subject them to become YOUR menservants and maidservants.’

[17] “Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, ‘YOU yourselves have not obeyed me in keeping on proclaiming liberty each one to his brother and each one to his companion. Here I am proclaiming to YOU a liberty,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘to the sword, to the pestilence and to the famine, and I shall certainly give YOU for a quaking to all the kingdoms of the earth. 18 And I will give the men sidestepping my covenant, in that they did not carry out the words of the covenant that they concluded before me with the calf that they cut in two that they might pass between its pieces; 19 namely, the princes of Judah and the princes of Jerusalem, the court officials and the priests and all the people of the land who went passing between the pieces of the calf— 20 yes, I will give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those seeking for their soul; and their dead bodies must become food for the flying creatures of the heavens and for the beasts of the earth. 21 And Zed·e·kiʹah the king of Judah and his princes I shall give into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those seeking for their soul and into the hand of the military forces of the king of Babylon who are withdrawing from against YOU men.’

22 “‘Here I am commanding,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and I shall certainly bring them back to this city, and they must fight against it and capture it and burn it with fire; and the cities of Judah I shall make a desolate waste without an inhabitant.’”

35 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the days of Je·hoi′a·kim the son of Jo·si′ah, the king of Judah, saying: [2] “Go to the house of the Re′cha·bites, and you must speak with them and bring them into the house of Jehovah, to one of the dining rooms; and you must give them wine to drink.”

[3] So I took Ja·az·a·ni′ah the son of Jeremiah the son of Hab·az·zi·ni′ah and his brothers, and all his sons, and all the household of the Re′cha·bites, [4] and I proceeded to bring them into the house of Jehovah, to the dining room of the sons of Ha′nan the son of Ig·da·li′ah, a man of the true God, which was beside the dining room of the princes that was above the dining room of Ma·a·sei′ah the son of Shal′lum the doorkeeper. [5] Then I put before the sons of the house of the Re′cha·bites cups full of wine and goblets and said to them: “Drink wine.”

[6] But they said: “We shall drink no wine, because Jon′a·dab the son of Re′chab, our forefather, was the one that laid the command upon us, saying, ‘YOU must drink no wine, neither YOU nor YOUR sons, to time indefinite. [7] And no house must YOU build, and no seed must YOU sow; and no vineyard must YOU plant, nor must it come to be YOURS. But in tents YOU should dwell all YOUR days, in order that YOU may keep living many days upon the surface of the ground where YOU are residing as aliens.’ [8] So we keep obeying the voice of Je·hon′a·dab the son of Re′chab our forefather in everything that he commanded us by drinking no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons and our daughters, [9] and by not building houses for us to dwell in, so that no vineyard or field or seed should become ours. [10] And we keep dwelling in tents and obeying and doing according to all that Jon′a·dab our forefather commanded us. 11 But it came about when Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon came up against the land that we began to say, ‘Come, and let us enter into Jerusalem because of the military force of the Chal·de′ans and because of the military force of the Syrians, and let us dwell in Jerusalem.’”

12 And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to Jeremiah, saying: 13 “This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Go, and you must say to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem: “Did YOU not continually receive exhortation to obey my words?” is the utterance of Jehovah. 14 “There has been a carrying out of the words of Je·hon′a·dab the son of Re′chab, that he commanded his sons, to drink no wine, and they have drunk none down to this day, because they have obeyed the commandment of their forefather. And as for me, I have spoken to YOU men, rising up early and speaking, but YOU have not obeyed me. 15 And I kept sending to YOU all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ‘Turn back, please, each one from his bad way, and make YOUR dealings good, and do not walk after other gods to serve them. And keep dwelling on the ground that I have given to YOU and to YOUR forefathers.’ But YOU did not incline YOUR ear, nor did YOU listen to me. 16 But the sons of Je·hon′a·dab the son of Re′chab have carried out the commandment of their forefather that he commanded them; but as for this people, they have not listened to me.”’”

17 “Therefore this is what Jehovah, the God of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Here I am bringing upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the calamity that I have spoken against them, for the reason that I have spoken to them but they did not listen, and I kept calling to them but they did not answer.’”

[18] And to the household of the Re′cha·bites Jeremiah said: “This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘For the reason that YOU have obeyed the commandment of Je·hon′a·dab YOUR forefather and continue keeping all his commandments and doing according to all that he commanded YOU, [19] therefore this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “There will not be cut off from Jon′a·dab the son of Re′chab a man to stand before me always.”’”

36 Now it came about in the fourth year of Je·hoiʹa·kim the son of Jo·siʹah, the king of Judah, that this word occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: [2] “Take for yourself a roll of a book, and you must write in it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel and against Judah and against all the nations, since the day that I spoke to you, since the days of Jo·siʹah, clear down to this day. [3] Perhaps those of the house of Judah will listen to all the calamity that I am thinking of doing to them, to the end that they may return, each one from his bad way, and that I may actually forgive their error and their sin.”

[4] And Jeremiah proceeded to call Barʹuch the son of Ne·riʹah that Barʹuch might write at the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of Jehovah that He had spoken to him, on the roll of the book. [5] Then Jeremiah commanded Barʹuch, saying: “I am shut up. I am unable to enter into the house of Jehovah. [6] And you yourself must enter in and read aloud from the roll that you have written at my mouth the words of Jehovah in the ears of the people at the house of Jehovah in the day of fast; and also in the ears of all Judah who are coming in from their cities you should read them aloud. [7] Perhaps their request for favor will fall before Jehovah and they will return, each one from his bad way, for great is the anger and the rage that Jehovah has spoken against this people.”

[8] And Barʹuch the son of Ne·riʹah proceeded to do according to all that Jeremiah the prophet had commanded him, to read aloud from the book the words of Jehovah at the house of Jehovah.

[9] Now it came about in the fifth year of Je·hoiʹa·kim the son of Jo·siʹah, the king of Judah, in the ninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem and all the people that were coming in from the cities of Judah into Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before Jehovah. [10] And Bar′uch began to read aloud from the book the words of Jeremiah at the house of Jehovah, in the dining room of Gem·a·ri′ah the son of Sha′phan the copyist, in the upper courtyard, at the entrance of the new gate of the house of Jehovah, in the ears of all the people.

[11] And Mi·cai′ah the son of Gem·a·ri′ah the son of Sha′phan got to hear all the words of Jehovah from out of the book. [12] At that he went down to the house of the king, to the dining room of the secretary, and, look! there is where all the princes were sitting, E·lish′a·ma the secretary and De·la′iah the son of She·mai′ah and El·na′than the son of Ach′bor and Gem·a·ri′ah the son of Sha′phan and Zed·e·ki′ah the son of Han·a·ni′ah and all the other princes. [13] And Mi·cai′ah proceeded to tell them all the words that he had heard when Bar′uch read aloud from the book in the ears of the people.

[14] Then all the princes sent out to Bar′uch Je·hu′di the son of Neth·a·ni′ah the son of Shel·e·mi′ah the son of Cush′i, saying: “The roll from which you read aloud in the ears of the people—take it in your hand and come.” Accordingly Bar′uch the son of Ne·ri′ah took the roll in his hand and came in to them. [15] Then they said to him: “Sit down, please, and read it aloud in our ears.” So Bar′uch read aloud in their ears.

[16] Now it came about that as soon as they heard all the words, they looked at one another in dread; and they proceeded to say to Bar′uch: “We shall without fail tell the king all these words.” [17] And Bar′uch they asked, saying: “Tell us, please, How did you write all these words from his mouth?” [18] Then Bar′uch said to them: “Out of his mouth he kept declaring to me all these words, and I was writing in the book with ink.” [19] Finally the princes said to Bar′uch: “Go, conceal yourself, you and Jeremiah, so that no one at all will know where YOU men are.”

20 Then they came in to the king, to the courtyard, and the roll they entrusted to the dining room of E·lish′a·ma the secretary; and they began to tell all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Je·hu′di out to get the roll. Accordingly he got it out of the dining room of E·lish′a·ma the secretary. And Je·hu′di began to read it aloud in the ears of the king and in the ears of all the princes standing by the king. 22 And the king was sitting in the winter house, in the ninth month, with a brazier burning before him. 23 Then it came about that as soon as Je·hu′di had read three or four page-columns, he proceeded to tear it apart with the secretary’s knife, pitching it also into the fire that was in the brazier until all the roll ended up in the fire that was in the brazier. 24 And they felt no dread; neither did the king and all his servants, who were listening to all these words, rip their garments apart. 25 And even El·na′than and De·la′iah and Gem·a·ri′ah themselves pleaded with the king not to burn the roll, but he did not listen to them. 26 Further, the king commanded Je·rah′me·el the son of the king and Se·rai′ah the son of Az′ri·el and Shel·e·mi′ah the son of Ab′de·el to get Bar′uch the secretary and Jeremiah the prophet. But Jehovah kept them concealed.

27 And the word of Jehovah occurred further to Jeremiah after the king had burned up the roll with the words that Bar′uch had written at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying: 28 “Take again for yourself a roll, another one, and write on it all the first words that proved to be on the first roll, which Je·hoi′a·kim the king of Judah burned up. 29 And against Je·hoi′a·kim the king of Judah you should say, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “You yourself have burned up this roll, saying, ‘Why is it that you have written on it, saying: “The king of Babylon will come without fail and will certainly bring this land to ruin and cause man and beast to cease from it”?’ 30 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said against Je·hoiʹa·kim the king of Judah, ‘He will come to have no one sitting upon the throne of David, and his own dead body will become something thrown out to the heat by day and to the frost by night. 31 And I will call to account against him and against his offspring and against his servants their error, and I will bring upon them and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem and upon the men of Judah all the calamity that I have spoken against them, and they did not listen.’”’”

32 And Jeremiah himself took another roll and then gave it to Barʹuch the son of Ne·riʹah, the secretary, who proceeded to write upon it at the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book that Je·hoiʹa·kim the king of Judah had burned in the fire; and there were added to them many more words like those.

37 And King Zed·e·kiʹah the son of Jo·siʹah began to reign in place of Co·niʹah the son of Je·hoiʹa·kim, whom Neb·u·chad·rezʹzar the king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. [2] And he himself and his servants and the people of the land did not listen to the words of Jehovah that he spoke by means of Jeremiah the prophet.

[3] And King Zed·e·kiʹah proceeded to send Je·huʹcal the son of Shel·e·miʹah and Zeph·a·niʹah the son of Ma·a·seiʹah the priest to Jeremiah the prophet, saying: “Pray, please, in our behalf to Jehovah our God.” [4] And Jeremiah was coming in and going out into the midst of the people, as they had not put him in the house of detention. [5] And there was a military force of Pharʹaoh that came out of Egypt; and the Chal·deʹans that were laying siege to Jerusalem got to hear the report about them. So they withdrew from against Jerusalem. [6] Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah the prophet, saying: [7] “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, ‘This is what YOU men should say to the king of Judah, the one sending YOU to me to inquire of me: “Look! The military force of Pharʹaoh that is coming forth to YOU people for the purpose of assistance will have to go back to their land, Egypt. [8] And the Chal·deʹans will certainly come back and fight against this city and capture it and burn it with fire.” [9] This is what Jehovah has said: “Do not deceive YOUR souls, saying, ‘The Chal·deʹans will without fail go away from against us,’ because they will not go away. [10] For if YOU men had struck down all the military force of the Chal·deʹans who are fighting YOU and there remained over among them men pierced through, they would each one in his tent rise up and actually burn this city with fire.”’”

[11] And it occurred when the military force of the Chal·deʹans had withdrawn themselves from against Jerusalem because of the military force of Pharʹaoh, [12] that Jeremiah began to go forth from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin and to get his portion from there in the midst of the people. [13] So it came about when he was in the Gate of Benjamin that the officer holding the oversight, whose name was I·riʹjah the son of Shel·e·miʹah the son of Han·a·niʹah, was there. At once he took hold of Jeremiah the prophet, saying: “It is to the Chal·deʹans that you are falling away! ” [14] But Jeremiah said: “It is false! I am not falling away to the Chal·deʹans.” But he did not listen to him. So I·riʹjah kept hold of Jeremiah and brought him in to the princes. [15] And the princes began to get indignant at Jeremiah, and they struck him and put him into the house of fetters, in the house of Je·honʹa·than the secretary, for this was what they had made the house of detention. [16] When Jeremiah came into the house of the cistern and into the vaulted rooms, then Jeremiah continued dwelling there many days.

[17] And King Zed·e·kiʹah proceeded to send and take him, and the king began asking him questions in his house in a place of concealment. And he went on to say: “Does there exist a word from Jehovah?” To this Jeremiah said: “There does exist! ” And he said further: “Into the hand of the king of Babylon you will be given! ”

[18] Then Jeremiah said to King Zed·e·kiʹah: “In what way have I sinned against you and against your servants and against this people, so that YOU men have put me into the house of detention? [19] Where, now, are YOUR prophets who prophesied to YOU, saying, ‘The king of Babylon will not come against YOU men and against this land’? [20] And now listen, please, O my lord the king. May my request for favor, please, fall before you, and do not send me back to the house of Je·hon′a·than the secretary, that I may not die there.” 21 Accordingly King Zed·e·ki′ah commanded, and they then put Jeremiah in custody in the Courtyard of the Guard; and there was a giving of a round loaf of bread to him daily from the street of the bakers, until all the bread was exhausted from the city. And Jeremiah continued dwelling in the Courtyard of the Guard.

38 And Sheph·a·tiʹah the son of Matʹtan and Ged·a·liʹah the son of Pashʹhur and Juʹcal the son of Shel·e·miʹah and Pashʹhur the son of Mal·chiʹjah got to hear the words that Jeremiah was speaking to all the people, saying: [2] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘The one continuing to dwell in this city is the one that will die by the sword, by the famine and by the pestilence. But the one going out to the Chal·deʹans is the one that will keep living and that will certainly come to have his soul as a spoil and alive.’ [3] This is what Jehovah has said, ‘Without fail this city will be given into the hand of the military force of the king of Babylon, and he will certainly capture it.’”

[4] And the princes began to say to the king: “Let this man, please, be put to death, for that is how he is weakening the hands of the men of war who are left remaining in this city and the hands of all the people, by speaking to them according to these words. For this man is one seeking not for the peace of this people but for calamity.” [5] So King Zed·e·kiʹah said: “Look! He is in YOUR hands. For there is nothing at all in which the king himself can prevail against YOU.”

[6] And they proceeded to take Jeremiah and throw him into the cistern of Mal·chiʹjah the son of the king, which was in the Courtyard of the Guard. So they let Jeremiah down by means of ropes. Now in the cistern there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah began to sink down into the mire.

[7] And Eʹbed-melʹech the E·thi·oʹpi·an, a man who was a eunuch and who was in the house of the king, got to hear that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern; and the king was sitting in the Gate of Benjamin. [8] So Eʹbed-melʹech went out of the house of the king and spoke to the king, saying: [9] "O my lord the king, these men have done bad in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have thrown into the cistern, so that he will die where he is because of the famine. For there is no bread anymore in the city."

[10] Then the king commanded E′bed-mel′ech the E·thi·o′pi·an, saying: "Take in your charge from this place thirty men, and you must get Jeremiah the prophet up out of the cistern before he dies." [11] Accordingly E′bed-mel′ech took the men in his charge and went into the house of the king to beneath the treasury and took from there worn-out rags and worn-out pieces of cloth and let them down to Jeremiah into the cistern by means of the ropes. [12] Then E′bed-mel′ech the E·thi·o′pi·an said to Jeremiah: "Put, please, the worn-out rags and the pieces of cloth under your armpits beneath the ropes." Jeremiah now did so. [13] Finally they drew out Jeremiah by means of the ropes and brought him up out of the cistern. And Jeremiah continued to dwell in the Courtyard of the Guard.

[14] And King Zed·e·ki′ah proceeded to send and take Jeremiah the prophet to him to the third entryway, which is in the house of Jehovah, and then the king said to Jeremiah: "I am asking something of you. Do not hide from me anything." [15] At this Jeremiah said to Zed·e·ki′ah: "In case I should tell you, will you not without fail put me to death? And in case I advise you, you will not listen to me." [16] At that King Zed·e·ki′ah swore to Jeremiah in the place of concealment, saying: "As Jehovah is alive, who has made for us this soul, I will not put you to death, and I will not give you into the hand of these men who are seeking for your soul."

[17] Jeremiah now said to Zed·e·kiʹah: “This is what Jehovah, the God of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘If you will without fail go out to the princes of the king of Babylon, your soul will also certainly keep living and this city itself will not be burned with fire, and you yourself and your household will certainly keep living. [18] But if you will not go out to the princes of the king of Babylon, this city must also be given into the hand of the Chal·deʹans, and they will actually burn it with fire, and you yourself will not escape out of their hand.’”

[19] Then King Zed·e·kiʹah said to Jeremiah: “I am in fright of the Jews that have fallen away to the Chal·deʹans, for fear that they might give me into their hand and they might actually deal abusively with me.” [20] But Jeremiah said: “They will do no such giving. Obey, please, the voice of Jehovah in what I am speaking to you, and it will go well with you, and your soul will continue to live. [21] But if you are refusing to go out, this is the thing that Jehovah has caused me to see: [22] And, look! all the women that have been left remaining in the house of the king of Judah are being brought out to the princes of the king of Babylon, and they are saying,

> ‘The men at peace with you have allured you and prevailed over you.
> They have caused your foot to sink down into the very ooze; they have retreated in the opposite direction.’

[23] And all your wives and your sons they are bringing out to the Chal·deʹans, and you yourself will not escape out of their hand, but by the hand of the king of Babylon you will be seized, and because of you this city will be burned with fire.”

[24] And Zed·e·kiʹah proceeded to say to Jeremiah: “May no man at all get to know about these things, so that you do not die. [25] And in case the princes hear that I have spoken with you and they actually come in to you and say to you,

‘Do tell us, please, What did you speak about to the king? Do not hide anything from us, and we shall not put you to death. And what did the king speak about to you?’ [26] you must also say to them, ‘I was letting my request for favor fall before the king, that he should not send me back to the house of Je·hon′a·than to die there.’”

[27] In time all the princes came in to Jeremiah and began questioning him. In turn, he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they became silent before him, for the matter was not heard. [28] And Jeremiah continued to dwell in the Courtyard of the Guard until the day that Jerusalem was captured. And it occurred just when Jerusalem was captured.

39 In the ninth year of Zed·e·ki′ah the king of Judah, in the tenth month, Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon and all his military force came to Jerusalem and began to lay siege to it.

[2] In the eleventh year of Zed·e·ki′ah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the city was broken through. [3] And all the princes of the king of Babylon proceeded to come in and sit down in the Middle Gate, namely, Ner′gal-shar·e′zer, Sam′gar-ne′bo, Sar′se·chim, Rab′sa·ris, Ner′gal-shar·e′zer the Rab′mag and all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

[4] Now it came about that as soon as Zed·e·ki′ah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, they began to run away and to go out by night from the city by the way of the garden of the king, by the gate between the double wall; and they kept going out by the way of the Ar′a·bah. [5] And a military force of the Chal·de′ans went chasing after them, and they got to overtake Zed·e·ki′ah in the desert plains of Jer′i·cho. Then they took him and brought him up to Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon at Rib′lah in the land of Ha′math that he might pronounce upon him judicial decisions. [6] And the king of Babylon proceeded to slaughter the sons of Zed·e·ki′ah in Rib′lah before his eyes, and all the nobles of Judah the king of Babylon slaughtered. [7] And the eyes of Zed·e·ki′ah he blinded, after which he bound him with copper fetters, in order to bring him to Babylon.

[8] And the house of the king and the houses of the people the Chal·de′ans burned with fire, and the walls of Jerusalem they pulled down. [9] And the rest of the people who were left remaining in the city, and the deserters that had fallen away to him, and the rest of the people who were left remaining Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard took into exile to Babylon.

10 And some of the people, the lowly ones who had nothing at all, Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard let remain in the land of Judah; and he went on to give them vineyards and compulsory services on that day.

11 Furthermore, Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon gave command concerning Jeremiah by means of Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard, saying: 12 “Take him and keep your own eyes set upon him, and do not do to him anything bad at all. But just as he may speak to you, so do with him.”

13 Accordingly Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard and Neb·u·shaz′ban the Rab′sa·ris, and Ner′gal-shar·e′zer the Rab′mag and all the principal men of the king of Babylon sent; 14 they even proceeded to send and take Jeremiah out of the Courtyard of the Guard and give him over to Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam the son of Sha′phan, in order to bring him forth to his house, that he might dwell in the midst of the people.

15 And to Jeremiah the word of Jehovah occurred while he happened to be shut up in the Courtyard of the Guard, saying: 16 “Go, and you must say to E′bed-mel′ech the E·thi·o′pi·an, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “Here I am bringing true my words upon this city for calamity and not for good, and they will certainly happen before you in that day.”’

17 “‘And I will deliver you in that day,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and you will not be given into the hand of the men of whom you yourself are scared.’

[18] “‘For I shall without fail furnish you an escape, and by the sword you will not fall; and you will certainly come to have your soul as a spoil, because you have trusted in me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

40 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah after Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard sent him from Ra′mah, when he took him while he was bound with handcuffs in the midst of all the exiles of Jerusalem and of Judah, who were being taken into exile in Babylon. [2] Then the chief of the bodyguard took Jeremiah and said to him: “Jehovah your God himself spoke this calamity against this place, [3] that Jehovah might bring it true and do just as he has spoken, because YOU people have sinned against Jehovah and have not obeyed his voice. And this thing has happened to YOU. [4] And now, look! I have let you loose today from the handcuffs that were upon your hands. If it is good in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, come, and I shall keep my eye upon you. But if it is bad in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, refrain. See! The entire land is before you. To wherever it is good and right in your eyes to go, go there.”

[5] And he was yet not one that would return, when Neb·u′zar·ad′an said: “Do return to Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam the son of Sha′phan, whom the king of Babylon has commissioned over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him in the midst of the people; or to wherever it is right in your eyes to go, go.”

And the chief of the bodyguard then gave him a food allowance and a present and let him go. [6] Accordingly Jeremiah came to Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam at Miz′pah and took up dwelling with him in the midst of the people who were left remaining in the land.

[7] In time all the chiefs of the military forces who were in the field, they and their men, got to hear that the king of Babylon had commissioned Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam over the land and that he had commissioned him over the men and women and little children and some of the lowly people of the land, who had not been taken into exile in Babylon. [8] So they came to Ged·a·li′ah at Miz′pah, even Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah and Jo·ha′nan and Jon′a·than, the sons of Ka·re′ah, and Se·rai′ah the son of Tan·hu′meth and the sons of E′phai the Ne·toph′a·thite and Jez·a·ni′ah the son of the Ma·ac′a·thite, they and their men. [9] And Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam the son of Sha′phan proceeded to swear to them and to their men, saying: “Do not be afraid of serving the Chal·de′ans. Continue dwelling in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with YOU. [10] And as for me, here I am dwelling in Miz′pah, in order to stand before the Chal·de′ans who will come to us. And as for YOU yourselves, gather wine and summer fruits and oil and put them in YOUR vessels and dwell in YOUR cities that YOU have seized.”

[11] And all the Jews that were in Mo′ab and among the sons of Am′mon and in E′dom and those who were in all the other lands, they also heard that the king of Babylon had given a remnant to Judah and that he had commissioned over them Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam the son of Sha′phan. [12] And all the Jews began to return from all the places to which they had been dispersed, and they kept coming into the land of Judah to Ged·a·li′ah at Miz′pah. And they went gathering wine and summer fruits in very great quantity.

[13] As for Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah and all the chiefs of the military forces who were in the field, they came to Ged·a·li′ah at Miz′pah. [14] And they proceeded to say to him: “Do you not at all know that Ba′a·lis, the king of the sons of Am′mon, himself has sent Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah to strike you to the soul?” But Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam did not believe them.

15 And Jo·haʹnan the son of Ka·reʹah himself said to Ged·a·liʹah, in a place of concealment in Mizʹpah: “I want to go, now, and strike down Ishʹma·el the son of Neth·a·niʹah, as no one at all will know. Why should he strike you to the soul, and why must all those of Judah who are being collected together to you be scattered and the remnant of Judah perish?” 16 But Ged·a·liʹah the son of A·hiʹkam said to Jo·haʹnan the son of Ka·reʹah: “Do not do this thing, for it is a falsehood that you are speaking concerning Ishʹma·el.”

41 So it came about in the seventh month that Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah the son of E·lish′a·ma of the royal offspring and of the principal men of the king and ten other men with him came to Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam at Miz′pah. And there they began to eat bread together in Miz′pah. [2] Then Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah and the ten men that happened to be with him rose up and struck down Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam the son of Sha′phan with the sword. So he put to death the one whom the king of Babylon had commissioned over the land. [3] And all the Jews who happened to be with him, that is, with Ged·a·li′ah, in Miz′pah, and the Chal·de′ans who were found there, that is, the men of war, Ish′ma·el struck down.

[4] And it came about on the second day of the putting of Ged·a·li′ah to death, when there was no one at all that knew it, [5] then there came men from She′chem, from Shi′loh and from Sa·mar′i·a, eighty men with their beards shaved off and with their garments ripped apart and with cuts made upon themselves, and there were grain offering and frankincense in their hand to bring to the house of Jehovah. [6] So Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah went out from Miz′pah to meet them, weeping while he was walking along. And it came about that as soon as he encountered them he proceeded to say to them: “Come to Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam.” [7] But it occurred that as soon as they came into the midst of the city, Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah went slaughtering them and throwing them into the midst of the cistern, he and the men that were with him.

[8] But there were ten men that were found among them who immediately said to Ish′ma·el: “Do not put us to death, for there exist in our possession hidden treasures in the field, wheat and barley and oil and honey.” So he refrained, and he did not put them to death in the midst of their brothers. [9] Now the cistern into which Ish′ma·el threw all the carcasses of the men that he had struck down was a great cistern, the one that King A′sa had made because of Ba′a·sha the king of Israel. It was the one that Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah filled with those slain.

[10] Then Ish′ma·el took captive all the remnant of the people who were in Miz′pah, the daughters of the king and all the people who were remaining over in Miz′pah, whom Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard had put in the custody of Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam. So Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah took them captive and went off to cross over to the sons of Am′mon.

[11] In time Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah and all the chiefs of the military forces who were with him got to hear all the bad that Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah had done. [12] Consequently they took all the men and went off to fight against Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah and found him by the abundant waters that were in Gib′e·on.

[13] Then it came about that as soon as all the people that were with Ish′ma·el saw Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah and all the chiefs of the military forces who were with him, they began to rejoice. [14] And all the people whom Ish′ma·el had led captive from Miz′pah proceeded to turn around and return and go to Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah. [15] And as for Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah, he escaped with eight men from before Jo·ha′nan, that he might go to the sons of Am′mon.

[16] Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah and all the chiefs of the military forces who were with him now took all the remnant of the people whom they brought back from Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·niʹah, from Mizʹpah, after he had struck down Ged·a·liʹah the son of A·hiʹkam, able-bodied men, men of war, and the wives and the little children and the court officials, whom he brought back from Gibʹe·on. 17 So they went and took up dwelling in the lodging place of Chimʹham that was beside Bethʹle·hem, in order to go on and enter into Egypt, 18 because of the Chal·deʹans; for they had become afraid because of them, since Ishʹma·el the son of Neth·a·niʹah had struck down Ged·a·liʹah the son of A·hiʹkam, whom the king of Babylon had commissioned over the land.

42 Then all the chiefs of the military forces and Jo·haʹnan the son of Ka·reʹah and Jez·a·niʹah the son of Ho·shaiʹah and all the people, from the smallest one even to the greatest one, approached [2] and said to Jeremiah the prophet: “May our request for favor, please, fall before you, and do you pray in our behalf to Jehovah your God, in behalf of all this remnant, for we have been left remaining, a few out of many, just as your eyes are seeing us. [3] And may Jehovah your God tell us the way in which we should walk and the thing that we should do.”

[4] At that Jeremiah the prophet said to them: “I have heard. Here I am praying to Jehovah YOUR God according to YOUR words; and it will certainly occur that every word that Jehovah gives in answer to YOU I shall tell YOU. I shall not hold back from YOU a word.”

[5] And they, for their part, said to Jeremiah: “May Jehovah prove to be a true and faithful witness against us if it is not according to every word with which Jehovah your God sends you to us that we shall exactly do. [6] Whether good or bad, it is the voice of Jehovah our God to whom we are sending you that we shall obey, to the intent that it may go well with us because we obey the voice of Jehovah our God.”

[7] Now it came about at the end of ten days that the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to Jeremiah. [8] So he called for Jo·haʹnan the son of Ka·reʹah and for all the chiefs of the military forces who were with him and for all the people, from the smallest one even to the greatest one; [9] and he went on to say to them: “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel, to whom YOU sent me to cause YOUR request for favor to fall before him, has said, [10] ‘If YOU will without fail keep dwelling in this land, I will also build YOU up and I shall not tear YOU down, and I will plant YOU and I shall not uproot YOU; for I shall certainly feel regret over the calamity that I have caused to YOU. [11] Do not be afraid because of the king of Babylon, of whom YOU are in fear.’

“‘Do not be afraid because of him,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘for I am with YOU, in order to save YOU and to deliver YOU out of his hand. [12] And I shall give to YOU mercies, and he will certainly have mercy upon YOU and return YOU to YOUR own soil.

[13] “‘But if YOU are saying: “No; we are not going to dwell in this land!” in order to disobey the voice of Jehovah YOUR God, [14] saying: “No, but into the land of Egypt we shall enter, where we shall see no war and the sound of the horn we shall not hear and for bread we shall not go hungry; and there is where we shall dwell”; [15] even now therefore hear the word of Jehovah, O remnant of Judah. This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “If YOU yourselves positively set YOUR faces to enter into Egypt and YOU actually enter in to reside there as aliens, [16] it must also occur that the very sword of which YOU are afraid will there catch up with YOU in the land of Egypt, and the very famine at which YOU are in a fright will there closely follow after YOU to Egypt; and there is where YOU will die. [17] And it will come about that all the men that have set their faces to enter into Egypt to reside there as aliens will be the ones to die by the sword, by the famine and by the pestilence; and they will not come to have a survivor or an escapee, because of the calamity that I am bringing in upon them.”’

[18] “For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Just as my anger and my rage have been poured out upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so my rage will be poured out upon YOU because of YOUR entering into Egypt, and

YOU will certainly become a curse and an object of astonishment and a malediction and a reproach, and YOU will no more see this place.’

[19] “Jehovah has spoken against YOU, O remnant of Judah. Do not enter into Egypt. YOU should positively know that I have borne witness against YOU today, [20] that YOU have committed error against YOUR souls; for YOU yourselves have sent me to Jehovah YOUR God, saying, ‘Pray in our behalf to Jehovah our God; and according to everything that Jehovah our God says tell us that way, and we shall certainly do.’ [21] And I tell YOU today, but YOU will certainly not obey the voice of Jehovah YOUR God or anything with which he has sent me to YOU. [22] And now YOU should positively know that by the sword, by the famine and by the pestilence YOU will die in the place into which YOU do delight to enter to reside as aliens.”

43 Now it came about that as soon as Jeremiah finished speaking to all the people all the words of Jehovah their God with which Jehovah their God had sent him to them, even all these words, [2] Az·a·riʹah the son of Ho·shaiʹah and Jo·haʹnan the son of Ka·reʹah and all the presumptuous men proceeded to say to Jeremiah: “It is a falsehood that you are speaking. Jehovah our God has not sent you, saying, ‘Do not enter into Egypt to reside there as aliens.’ [3] But Barʹuch the son of Ne·riʹah is instigating you against us for the purpose of giving us into the hand of the Chal·deʹans, to put us to death or to take us into exile in Babylon.”

[4] And Jo·haʹnan the son of Ka·reʹah and all the chiefs of the military forces and all the people did not obey the voice of Jehovah, to keep on dwelling in the land of Judah. [5] So Jo·haʹnan the son of Ka·reʹah and all the chiefs of the military forces took all the remnant of Judah that had returned from all the nations to which they had been dispersed, in order to reside for a while in the land of Judah, [6] even the able-bodied men and the wives and the little children and the daughters of the king and every soul that Neb·uʹzar·adʹan the chief of the bodyguard had let stay with Ged·a·liʹah the son of A·hiʹkam the son of Shaʹphan, and Jeremiah the prophet and Barʹuch the son of Ne·riʹah. [7] And they finally came into the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of Jehovah; and they came gradually as far as Tahʹpan·hes.

[8] Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah in Tahʹpan·hes, saying: [9] “Take in your hand great stones, and you must hide them in the mortar in the terrace of bricks that is at the entrance of the house of Pharʹaoh in Tahʹpan·hes before the eyes of the Jewish men. [10] And you must say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “Here I am sending and I will take Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon, my servant, and I will place his throne right above these stones that I have hidden, and he will certainly extend his state tent over them. 11 And he must come in and strike the land of Egypt. Whoever is due for deadly plague will be for deadly plague, and whoever is due for captivity will be for captivity, and whoever is due for the sword will be for the sword. 12 And I will set a fire ablaze in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he will certainly burn them and lead them captive and wrap himself up in the land of Egypt, just as a shepherd wraps himself up in his garment, and he will actually go out from there in peace. 13 And he will certainly break to pieces the pillars of Beth-she′mesh, which is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt he will burn with fire.”’”

44 The word that occurred to Jeremiah for all the Jews that were dwelling in the land of Egypt, the ones dwelling in Mig′dol and in Tah′pan·hes and in Noph and in the land of Path′ros, saying: [2] “This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘YOU yourselves have seen all the calamity that I have brought in upon Jerusalem and upon all the cities of Judah, and here they are a devastated place this day, and in them there is no inhabitant. [3] It is because of their badness that they did in order to offend me by going and making sacrificial smoke and rendering service to other gods whom they themselves had not known, neither YOU nor YOUR forefathers. [4] And I kept sending to YOU all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending, saying: “Do not do, please, this detestable sort of thing that I have hated.” [5] But they did not listen, nor did they incline their ear to turn back from their badness by not making sacrificial smoke to other gods. [6] So my rage, and my anger, was poured out and it burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they came to be a devastated place, a desolate waste, as at this day.’

[7] “And now this is what Jehovah, the God of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Why are YOU causing a great calamity to YOUR souls, in order to cut off from yourselves man and woman, child and suckling, out of the midst of Judah, so that YOU do not leave over for yourselves a remnant; [8] by offending me with the works of YOUR hands by making sacrificial smoke to other gods in the land of Egypt, into which YOU are entering to reside as aliens; for the purpose of causing a cutting off of yourselves and for the purpose of YOUR becoming a malediction and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? [9] Have YOU forgotten the bad deeds of YOUR forefathers and the bad deeds of the kings of Judah and the bad deeds of their wives and YOUR own bad deeds and the bad deeds of YOUR wives, that they have done in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 10 And down to this day they did not feel crushed, and they did not become afraid, nor did they walk in my law and in my statutes that I put before YOU and before YOUR forefathers.’

11 “Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Here I am setting my face against YOU for calamity and for cutting off all Judah. 12 And I will take the remnant of Judah who set their faces to enter into the land of Egypt to reside there as aliens, and they will all certainly come to their finish in the land of Egypt. They will fall by the sword; and by the famine they will come to their finish, from the smallest one even to the greatest one; by the sword and by the famine they will die. And they must become a curse, an object of astonishment and a malediction and a reproach. 13 And I will hold an accounting against those dwelling in the land of Egypt, just as I held an accounting against Jerusalem, with the sword, with the famine and with the pestilence. 14 And there will come to be no escapee or survivor for the remnant of Judah who are entering in to reside there as aliens, in the land of Egypt, even to return to the land of Judah to which they are lifting up their soulful desire to return in order to dwell; for they will not return, except some escaped ones.’”

15 And all the men who were knowing that their wives had been making sacrificial smoke to other gods, and all the wives who were standing as a great congregation, and all the people who were dwelling in the land of Egypt, in Path′ros, proceeded to answer Jeremiah, saying: 16 “As regards the word that you have spoken to us in the name of Jehovah, we are not listening to you; 17 but we shall positively do every word that has gone forth from our mouth, in order to make sacrificial smoke to the ‘queen of the heavens’ and to pour out to her drink offerings, just as we ourselves and our forefathers, our kings and our princes did in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, when we used to be satisfied with bread and to be well off, and we did not see any calamity at all. [18] And from the time that we ceased to make sacrificial smoke to the ‘queen of the heavens’ and pour out drink offerings to her we have lacked everything, and by the sword and by the famine we have come to our finish.

[19] “Also, when we were making sacrificial smoke to the ‘queen of the heavens’ and were disposed to pour out drink offerings to her, did we without asking our husbands make for her sacrificial cakes, in order to make an image of her, and to pour out drink offerings to her?”

[20] In turn Jeremiah said to all the people, to the able-bodied men and to the wives and to all the people, who were answering him with a word, saying: [21] “As for the sacrificial smoke that YOU made in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, YOU and YOUR forefathers, YOUR kings and YOUR princes and the people of the land, was it not this that Jehovah remembered and that proceeded to come up into his heart? [22] Finally Jehovah was no longer able to put up with it because of the badness of YOUR dealings, because of the detestable things that YOU had done, and so YOUR land came to be a devastated place and an object of astonishment and a malediction, without an inhabitant, as at this day. [23] Because of the fact that YOU made sacrificial smoke and that YOU sinned against Jehovah and did not obey the voice of Jehovah and in his law and in his statutes and in his reminders YOU did not walk, that is why there has befallen YOU this calamity as at this day.”

[24] And Jeremiah continued on to say to all the people and to all the women: “Hear the word of Jehovah, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt. [25] This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘As for YOU men and YOUR wives, YOU women also speak with YOUR mouths, (and with YOUR hands YOU people have made a fulfillment,) saying: “We shall without fail perform our vows that we have vowed, to make sacrificial smoke to the ‘queen of the heavens’ and to pour out drink offerings to her.” YOU women will without fail carry out YOUR vows, and YOU will without fail perform YOUR vows.’

[26] “Therefore hear the word of Jehovah, all Judah who are dwelling in the land of Egypt, ‘“Here I myself have sworn by my great name,” Jehovah has said, “that my name will no more prove to be something called out by the mouth of any man of Judah, saying, ‘As the Sovereign Lord Jehovah is alive! ’ in all the land of Egypt. [27] Here I am keeping alert toward them for calamity and not for good; and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt will certainly come to their finish by the sword and by the famine, until they cease to be. [28] And as for the ones escaping from the sword, they will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, few in number; and all those of the remnant of Judah, who are coming into the land of Egypt to reside there as aliens, will certainly know whose word comes true, that from me or that from them.”’”

[29] “‘And this is the sign for YOU,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘that I am turning my attention upon YOU in this place, in order that YOU may know that my words will without fail come true upon YOU for calamity: [30] This is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am giving Pharʹaoh Hophʹra, the king of Egypt, into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those seeking for his soul, just as I have given Zed·e·kiʹah the king of Judah into the hand of Neb·u·chad·rezʹzar the king of Babylon, his enemy and the one seeking for his soul.”’”

45 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Barʹuch the son of Ne·riʹah when he wrote in a book these words from the mouth of Jeremiah in the fourth year of Je·hoiʹa·kim the son of Jo·siʹah, the king of Judah, saying:

[2] “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said concerning you, O Barʹuch, [3] ‘You have said: “Woe, now, to me, for Jehovah has added grief to my pain! I have grown weary because of my sighing, and no resting-place have I found.”’

[4] “This is what you should say to him, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Look! What I have built up I am tearing down, and what I have planted I am uprooting, even all the land itself. [5] But as for you, you keep seeking great things for yourself. Do not keep on seeking.”’

“‘For here I am bringing in a calamity upon all flesh,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and I will give you your soul as a spoil in all the places to which you may go.’”

46 This is what occurred as the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations: [2] For Egypt, concerning the military force of Phar′aoh Ne′cho the king of Egypt, who happened to be by the river Eu·phra′tes at Car′che·mish, whom Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Je·hoi′a·kim the son of Jo·si′ah, the king of Judah: [3] “Set in array, O men, buckler and large shield, and approach to battle. [4] Harness the horses, and mount, O YOU horsemen, and station yourselves with the helmet. Polish the lances. Clothe yourselves with coats of mail.

[5] “‘Why is it that I have seen them terror-stricken? They are turning back, and their mighty men themselves are crushed to pieces; and they have positively fled, and they have not turned around. There is fright all around,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. [6] ‘Let not the swift one try to flee, and let not the mighty man try to escape. Up north by the bank of the river Eu·phra′tes they have stumbled and fallen.’

[7] “Who is this one that comes up just like the Nile River, like the rivers the waters of which toss themselves? [8] Egypt itself comes up just like the Nile River, and like rivers the waters toss themselves. And it says, ‘I shall go up. I shall cover the earth. I shall readily destroy the city and those inhabiting it.’ [9] Go up, O YOU horses; and drive madly, O YOU chariots! And let the mighty men go forth, Cush and Put, who are handling the shield, and the Lu′dim, who are handling and treading the bow.

[10] “And that day belongs to the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, the day of vengeance for avenging himself upon his adversaries. And the sword will certainly devour and satisfy itself and take its fill of their blood, for the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, has a sacrifice in the land of the north by the river Eu·phra′tes.

[11] “Go up to Gil′e·ad and get some balsam, O virgin daughter of Egypt. In vain you have multiplied the means of healing. There is no mending for you. [12] The nations have heard your dishonor and your own outcry has filled the land. For they have stumbled, mighty man against mighty man. Together they have fallen down, both of them.”

[13] The word that Jehovah spoke to Jeremiah the prophet as regards the coming of Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon to strike down the land of Egypt: [14] “Tell it in Egypt, O men, and publish it in Mig′dol, and publish it in Noph and in Tah′pan·hes. Say, ‘Station yourself, making preparation also for yourself, for a sword will certainly devour all around you. [15] Why is it that your powerful ones have been washed away? They have made no stand, for Jehovah himself has pushed them away. [16] In great numbers they are stumbling. They also actually fall. And they keep saying one to the other: “Do rise up, and do let us return to our people and to the land of our relatives because of the maltreating sword.”’ [17] There they have proclaimed, ‘Phar′aoh the king of Egypt is a mere noise. He has let the festal time pass by.’

[18] “‘As I am alive,’ is the utterance of the King, whose name is Jehovah of armies, ‘like Ta′bor among the mountains and like Car′mel by the sea he will come in. [19] Make for yourself mere baggage for exile, O inhabitress, the daughter of Egypt. For Noph itself will become a mere object of astonishment and will actually be set afire, so as to be without an inhabitant. [20] Egypt is as a very pretty heifer. From the north a mosquito itself will certainly come against her. [21] Furthermore, her hired soldiers in the midst of her are like fattened calves. But they themselves also have given way; they have fled together. They have not made a stand.

For the very day of their disaster has come in upon them, the time of their being given attention.’

22 “‘Her voice is like that of a serpent that goes along; for with vital energy men will go, and with axes they will actually come in to her, like those who are gathering pieces of wood. 23 They will certainly cut down her forest,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘for it could not be penetrated. For they have become more numerous than the locust, and they are without number. 24 The daughter of Egypt will certainly feel shame. She will actually be given into the hand of the people of the north.’

25 “Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Here I am turning my attention upon A′mon from No and upon Phar′aoh and upon Egypt and upon her gods and upon her kings, even upon Phar′aoh and upon all those trusting in him.’

26 “‘And I will give them into the hand of those seeking for their soul and into the hand of Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon and into the hand of his servants; and afterward she will be resided in as in the days of old,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.

27 “‘And as for you, do not be afraid, O my servant Jacob, and do not be terror-stricken, O Israel. For here I am saving you from far away and your offspring from the land of their captivity. And Jacob will certainly return and have no disturbance and be at ease and without anyone causing trembling. 28 As for you, do not be afraid, O my servant Jacob,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘for I am with you. For I shall make an extermination among all the nations to which I have dispersed you, but with you I shall make no extermination. Yet I shall have to chastise you to the proper degree, and I shall absolutely not leave you unpunished.’”

47 This is what proved to be the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Phi·lis′tines before Phar′aoh proceeded to strike down Ga′za. [2] This is what Jehovah has said:

“Look! Waters are coming up from the north and have become a flooding torrent. And they will flood the land and what fills it, the city and those inhabiting it. And the men will certainly cry out, and everyone dwelling in the land must howl. [3] At the sound of the stamping of the hoofs of his stallions, at the rattling of his war chariots, the turmoil of his wheels, the fathers will actually not turn around to the sons, because of the dropping down of their hands, [4] on account of the day that is coming to despoil all the Phi·lis′tines, to cut off from Tyre and from Si′don every survivor that was helping. For Jehovah is despoiling the Phi·lis′tines, who are the remaining ones from the island of Caph′tor. [5] Baldness must come to Ga′za. Ash′ke·lon has been put to silence. O remnant of their low plain, how long will you keep making cuts upon yourself?

[6] “Aha, the sword of Jehovah! How long will you not stay quiet? Be shoved into your sheath. Take your repose and keep silent.

[7] “How can it stay quiet, when Jehovah himself has given a command to it? It is for Ash′ke·lon and for the coast of the sea. There is where he has designated it to be.”

48 For Mo′ab this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “Woe to Ne′bo, for she has been despoiled! Kir·i·a·tha′im has been put to shame, has been captured. The secure height has been put to shame and been put in terror. [2] No more is there any praise of Mo′ab. In Hesh′bon they have thought out against her a calamity: ‘Come, men, and let us cut her off from being a nation.’

“You, too, O Mad′men, should keep silent. After you there walks a sword. [3] There is the sound of an outcry from Hor·o·na′im, a despoiling and great breaking down. [4] Mo′ab has been broken down. Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. [5] For on the way up to Lu′hith it is with weeping that one goes up—there is a weeping. For on the way down from Hor·o·na′im there is a distressing outcry over the breakdown that people have heard.

[6] “Take to flight; provide escape for YOUR souls, and YOU should become like a juniper tree in the wilderness. [7] Because your trust is in your works and in your treasures, you yourself will also be captured. And Che′mosh will certainly go forth into exile, his priests and his princes at the same time. [8] And the despoiler will come in on every city, and there will be no city that can make its escape. And the low plain will certainly perish and the level land be annihilated, a thing that Jehovah has said.

[9] “Give a road mark to Mo′ab, YOU people, for at the falling in ruins she will go forth; and her very cities will become a mere object of astonishment, with no one dwelling in them.

[10] “Cursed be the one that is carrying out the mission of Jehovah neglectfully; and cursed be the one that is holding back his sword from blood!

11 “The Mo′ab·ites have been at ease since their youth, and they are keeping undisturbed on their dregs. And they have not been emptied from one vessel into another vessel, and into exile they have not gone. That is why their taste has stood still within them, and their very scent has not been changed.

12 “‘Therefore, look! there are days coming,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and I will send to them vessel tilters, and they will certainly tilt them; and their vessels they will empty out, and their large jars they will dash to pieces. 13 And the Mo′ab·ites will have to be ashamed of Che′mosh, just as those of the house of Israel have become ashamed of Beth′el their confidence. 14 How dare YOU people say: “We are mighty men and men of vital energy for the war”?’

15 “‘Mo′ab has been despoiled, and one has gone up against her own cities. And their choicest young men themselves have gone down to the slaughtering,’ is the utterance of the King, whose name is Jehovah of armies.

16 “The disaster on the Mo′ab·ites is near to come, and their very calamity is actually hurrying up very much. 17 All those round about them will have to sympathize with them, even all those knowing their name. Say, YOU people, ‘O how the rod of strength has been broken, the staff of beauty!’

18 “Get down from glory, and sit down in thirst, O inhabitress of the daughter of Di′bon; for the despoiler of Mo′ab has come up against you. He will actually bring your fortified places to ruin.

19 “Stand still and look out for the way itself, O inhabitress of A·ro′er. Ask him that is fleeing and her that is making her escape. Say, ‘What has been brought about?’ 20 Mo′ab has been put to shame, for she has been struck with terror. Howl and cry out. Tell in Arʹnon, O men, that Moʹab has been despoiled. [21] And judgment itself has come to the land of level country, to Hoʹlon and to Jaʹhaz and against Mephʹa·ath, [22] and against Diʹbon and against Neʹbo and against Beth-dib·la·thaʹim, [23] and against Kir·i·a·thaʹim and against Beth-gaʹmul and against Beth-meʹon [24] and against Keʹri·oth and against Bozʹrah and against all the cities of the land of Moʹab, those far away and those near.

[25] "'The horn of Moʹab has been cut down, and his own arm has been broken,' is the utterance of Jehovah. [26] 'Make him drunk, O men, for he has put on great airs against Jehovah himself; and Moʹab has slapped around in his vomit, and he has become an object of ridicule, even he himself.

[27] "'And did not Israel become a mere object of ridicule to you? Or was he found among outright thieves? For you would shake yourself just as often as you spoke against him.

[28] "'Leave the cities and reside on the crag, YOU inhabitants of Moʹab, and become like the dove that makes its nest in the regions of the mouth of the hollow.'"

[29] "We have heard of the pride of Moʹab—he is very haughty—of his highness and of his pride and of his haughtiness and of the loftiness of his heart."

[30] "'I myself have known his fury,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and that is not the way it will be; his empty talk—they will not actually do in just that way. [31] That is why it is over Moʹab that I shall howl, and for Moʹab in his entirety I shall cry out. For the men of Kir-heʹres one shall moan.

[32] "'With more than the weeping for Jaʹzer I shall weep for you, O vine of Sibʹmah. Your own flourishing shoots have crossed over the sea. To the sea—to Jaʹzer—they have reached. Upon your summer fruitage and upon your grape gathering the despoiler himself has fallen. [33] And rejoicing and joyfulness have been taken away from the orchard and from the land of Mo′ab. And from the winepresses I have caused the wine itself to cease. No one will be doing the treading with shouting. The shouting will be no shouting.’”

[34] “‘From the cry in Hesh′bon clear to E·le·a′leh, clear to Ja′haz they have given forth their voice, from Zo′ar clear to Hor·o·na′im, to Eg′lath-she·li′shi·yah; for even the waters of Nim′rim themselves will become mere desolations. [35] And I will cause to cease from Mo′ab,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘the one bringing up an offering upon the high place and the one making sacrificial smoke to his god. [36] That is why my own heart will be boisterous for Mo′ab himself, just like flutes; and for the men of Kir-he′res my very heart will be boisterous, just like flutes. That is why the very abundance that he has produced will certainly perish. [37] For upon every head there is baldness, and every beard is clipped. Upon all hands there are cuts, and upon the hips there is sackcloth!’”

[38] “‘On all the roofs of Mo′ab and in her public squares—all of it—there is wailing; for I have broken Mo′ab just like a vessel in which there is no delight,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. [39] ‘O how she has become terrified! Howl, YOU people! O how Mo′ab has turned the back! He has become ashamed. And Mo′ab has become an object of ridicule and something terrifying to all those round about him.’”

[40] “For this is what Jehovah has said, ‘Look! Just like an eagle that pounces, someone must also spread his wings over Mo′ab. [41] The towns will actually be captured, and her own strong places will certainly be seized. And the heart of the mighty men of Mo′ab must become in that day like the heart of a wife having childbirth distress.’”

[42] “‘And Moʹab will certainly be annihilated from being a people, for it is against Jehovah that he has put on great airs. [43] Dread and the hollow and the trap are upon you, O inhabitant of Moʹab,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. [44] ‘Anyone fleeing because of the dread will fall into the hollow; and anyone coming up out of the hollow will be caught in the trap.’

“‘For I shall bring upon her, upon Moʹab, the year of their being given attention,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. [45] ‘In the shadow of Heshʹbon those fleeing have stood still without power. For a very fire will certainly go forth out of Heshʹbon, and a flame from the midst of Siʹhon; and it will devour the temples of Moʹab and the crown of the head of the sons of uproar.’

[46] “‘Woe to you, O Moʹab! The people of Cheʹmosh have perished. For your sons have been taken as captives and your daughters as captives. [47] And I will gather the captive ones of Moʹab in the final part of the days,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘Down to this point is the judgment upon Moʹab.’”

49 For the sons of Am′mon this is what Jehovah has said: “Are there no sons that Israel has, or is there no inheritor that he has? Why is it that Mal′cam has taken possession of Gad, and his own people have taken up dwelling in Israel’s very cities?”

[2] “‘Therefore, look! there are days coming,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and I will cause the alarm signal of war to be heard even against Rab′bah of the sons of Am′mon; and she will certainly become a mound of a desolate waste, and her dependent towns themselves will be set aflame in the very fire.’

“‘And Israel will actually take possession of those in possession of him,’ Jehovah has said.

[3] “‘Howl, O Hesh′bon, for A′i has been despoiled! Cry out, O dependent towns of Rab′bah. Gird sackcloth on yourselves. Wail, and rove about among the stone pens, for Mal′cam himself will go even into exile, his priests and his princes, all together. [4] Why do you brag about the low plains, your flowing low plain, O daughter unfaithful, you the one trusting in her treasures, saying: “Who will come to me?”’”

[5] “‘Here I am bringing in upon you a dreadful thing,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, ‘from all those round about you. And YOU people will certainly be dispersed, each one in his own direction, and there will be no one collecting together those running away.’”

[6] “‘But afterward I shall gather the captive ones of the sons of Am′mon,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

[7] For E′dom this is what Jehovah of armies has said: “Is there no longer any wisdom in Te′man? Has counsel perished from those having understanding? Has their wisdom gone to putrefying? [8] Flee! Let yourselves give way! Go down deep in order to dwell, O inhabitants of De′dan! For the disaster of E′sau I will bring in upon him, the time that I must turn my attention to him. [9] If grape gatherers themselves actually came in to you, would they not let some gleanings remain? If thieves came in by night, they would certainly cause only as much ruin as they wanted. [10] But as for me, I will strip E′sau bare. I will uncover his places of concealment, and one will not be able to hide oneself. His offspring and his brothers and his neighbors will certainly be despoiled, and he will not be. [11] Do leave your fatherless boys. I myself shall preserve them alive, and your own widows will trust even in me.”

[12] For this is what Jehovah has said: “Look! Although it is not their custom to drink the cup, they will drink without fail. And you yourself, will you be absolutely left unpunished? You will not be left unpunished, for you will drink without fail.”

[13] “For by my own self I have sworn,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “that nothing but an object of astonishment, a reproach, a devastation and a malediction will Boz′rah become; and all her own cities will become devastated places to time indefinite.”

[14] There is a report that I have heard from Jehovah, and there is an envoy that is sent among the nations, saying: “Collect yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to battle.”

[15] “For, look! I have made you small indeed among the nations, despised among mankind. [16] The shuddering you caused has deceived you, the presumptuousness of your heart, O you who are residing in the retreats of the crag, holding the height of the hill. Although you build your nest high up just like an eagle, down from there I shall bring you,” is the utterance of Jehovah. [17] “And E′dom must become an object of astonishment. Everyone passing along by her will stare in astonishment and whistle on account of all her plagues. [18] Just as in the overthrow of Sod′om and Go·mor′rah and her neighbor towns,” Jehovah has said, “no man will dwell there, and no son of mankind will reside in her as an alien.

[19] “Look! Someone will come up just like a lion from the proud thickets along the Jordan to the durable abiding place, but in a moment I will make him run away from her. And the one who is chosen I shall appoint over her. For who is like me, and who will challenge me, and who, now, is the shepherd that can stand before me? [20] Therefore hear, O men, the counsel of Jehovah that he has formulated against E′dom, and his thoughts that he has thought out against the inhabitants of Te′man: Surely the little ones of the flock will be dragged about. Surely on account of them he will make their dwelling place become desolate. [21] At the sound of their falling the earth has begun to rock. There is an outcry! The sound of it has been heard even at the Red Sea. [22] Look! Just like an eagle someone will ascend and pounce down, and he will spread out his wings over Boz′rah; and the heart of the mighty men of E′dom will actually become in that day like the heart of the wife having distress in childbirth.”

[23] For Damascus: “Ha′math and Ar′pad have become ashamed, for it is a bad report that they have heard. They have disintegrated. In the sea there is anxious care; it is not able to keep undisturbed. [24] Damascus has lost courage. She has turned to flee, and sheer panic has seized her. Distress and birth pangs themselves have taken hold of her, as with a woman that is giving birth. [25] How is it that the city of praise has not been abandoned, the town of exultation?

[26] “Therefore her young men will fall in her public squares, and all the men of war themselves will be brought to silence in that day,” is the utterance of Jehovah of armies. [27] “And I will set a fire ablaze on the wall of Damascus, and it will certainly devour the dwelling towers of Ben-haʹdad.”

[28] For Keʹdar and the kingdoms of Haʹzor, which Neb·u·chad·rezʹzar the king of Babylon struck down, this is what Jehovah has said: “Rise up, go up to Keʹdar, O men, and despoil the sons of the East. [29] Their own tents and their own flocks will be taken, their tent cloths and all their articles. And their own camels will be carried off from them. And they will certainly cry out to them, ‘Fright is all around! ’”

[30] “Flee, take flight far away; go down deep in order to dwell, O inhabitants of Haʹzor,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “For Neb·u·chad·rezʹzar the king of Babylon has formulated a counsel even against YOU and has thought out against YOU a thought.”

[31] “Rise up, O men, go up against the nation that is at ease, dwelling in security! ” is the utterance of Jehovah.

“No doors and no bar does it have. Solitary they reside. [32] And their camels must become a plunder, and the multitude of their livestock a spoil. And I will scatter them to every wind, those who have their hair clipped at the temples; and from all regions near it I shall bring in their disaster,” is the utterance of Jehovah. [33] “And Haʹzor must become the lair of jackals, a desolate waste to time indefinite. No man will dwell there, and in her no son of mankind will reside as an alien.”

[34] This is what occurred as the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Eʹlam in the beginning of the kingship of Zed·e·kiʹah the king of Judah, saying: [35] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘Here I am breaking the bow of Eʹlam, the beginning of their mightiness. [36] And I will bring in upon Eʹlam the four winds from the four extremities of the heavens. And I will scatter them to all these winds, and there will prove to be no nation to which the dispersed ones of Eʹlam will not come.’”

[37] “And I will shatter the Eʹlam·ites before their enemies and before those seeking for their soul; and I will bring upon them a calamity, my burning anger,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “And I will send after them the sword until I shall have exterminated them.”

[38] “And I will set my throne in Eʹlam, and I will destroy out of there the king and the princes,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[39] “And it will certainly occur in the final part of the days that I shall gather the captive ones of Eʹlam,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

50 The word that Jehovah spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chal·de′ans, by means of Jeremiah the prophet: [2] “Tell it among the nations and publish it. And lift up a signal; publish it. Hide nothing, O men. Say, ‘Babylon has been captured. Bel has been put to shame. Mer′o·dach has become terrified. Her images have been put to shame. Her dungy idols have become terrified.’ [3] For against her a nation has come up from the north. It is the one that makes her land an object of astonishment, so that there proves to be no one dwelling in her. Both man and domestic animal have taken flight. They have gone away.”

[4] “In those days and at that time,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “the sons of Israel, they and the sons of Judah together, will come. They will walk, weeping as they walk, and for Jehovah their God they will seek. [5] To Zion they will keep asking the way, with their faces in that direction, saying, ‘Come and let us join ourselves to Jehovah in an indefinitely lasting covenant that will not be forgotten.’ [6] A flock of perishing creatures my people has become. Their own shepherds have caused them to wander about. On the mountains they have led them away. From mountain to hill they have gone. They have forgotten their resting-place. [7] All those finding them have eaten them up, and their own adversaries have said, ‘We shall not become guilty, due to the fact that they have sinned against Jehovah the abiding place of righteousness and the hope of their forefathers, Jehovah.’”

[8] “Take YOUR flight out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth even out of the land of the Chal·de′ans, and become like the leading animals before the flock. [9] For here I am arousing and bringing up against Babylon a congregation of great nations from the land of the north, and they will certainly array themselves against her. From there she will be captured. One’s arrows are like those of a mighty man causing bereavement of children, who does not come back without results. [10] And Chal·deʹa must become a spoil. All those making spoil of her will satisfy themselves,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[11] “For YOU men kept rejoicing, for YOU men kept exulting when pillaging my own inheritance. For YOU kept pawing like a heifer in the tender grass, and YOU kept neighing like stallions. [12] The mother of YOU men has become very much ashamed. She that gave YOU birth has been disappointed. Look! She is the least important of the nations, a waterless wilderness and a desert plain. [13] Because of the indignation of Jehovah she will not be inhabited, and she must become a desolate waste in her entirety. As for anyone passing along by Babylon, he will stare in astonishment and whistle on account of all her plagues.

[14] “Array yourselves against Babylon on every side, all YOU who are treading the bow. Shoot at her. Spare no arrow, for it is against Jehovah that she has sinned. [15] Shout a war cry against her on every side. She has given her hand. Her pillars have fallen. Her walls have been torn down. For it is the vengeance of Jehovah. Take YOUR vengeance on her. Just as she has done, do to her. [16] Cut off the sower from Babylon, and the one handling the sickle in the time of harvest. Because of the maltreating sword they will turn each one to his own people, and they will flee each one to his own land.

[17] “Israel is a scattered sheep. Lions themselves have done the dispersing. In the first instance the king of As·syrʹi·a has devoured him, and in this latter instance Neb·u·chad·rezʹzar the king of Babylon has gnawed on his bones. [18] Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Here I am turning my attention upon the king of Babylon and upon his land in the same way that I turned my attention upon the king of As·syrʹi·a. [19] And I will bring Israel back to his pasture ground, and he will certainly graze on Carʹmel and on Baʹshan; and in the mountainous region of Eʹphra·im and of Gilʹe·ad his soul will be satisfied.’”

[20] “And in those days and at that time,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “the error of Israel will be searched for, but it will not be; and the sins of Judah, and they will not be found, for I shall forgive those whom I let remain.”

[21] “Against the land of Mer·a·thaʹim—come up against her and against the inhabitants of Peʹkod. Let there be a massacre and a devoting to destruction close upon them,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and do according to all that I have commanded you. [22] There is the sound of war in the land, and a great breakdown. [23] O how the forge hammer of all the earth has been cut down and gets broken! O how Babylon has become a mere object of astonishment among the nations! [24] I have laid a snare for you and you have also been caught, O Babylon, and you yourself did not know it. You were found and also taken hold of, for it was against Jehovah that you excited yourself.

[25] “Jehovah has opened his storehouse, and he brings forth the weapons of his denunciation. For there is a work that the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, has in the land of the Chal·deʹans. [26] Come in to her from the farthest part. Open up her granaries. Bank her up, just like those making heaps, and devote her to destruction. May she not come to have any remaining ones. [27] Massacre all her young bulls. May they go down to the slaughter. Woe to them, for their day has come, the time for their being given attention!

[28] “There is the sound of those fleeing and those escaping from the land of Babylon to tell out in Zion the vengeance of Jehovah our God, the vengeance for his temple.

[29] “SUMMON against Babylon archers, all who are treading the bow. Encamp against her all around. May there prove to be no escapees. Pay back to her according to her activity. According to all that she has done, do to her. For it is against Jehovah that she has acted presumptuously, against the Holy One of Israel. [30] Therefore her young men will fall in her public squares, and even all her men of war will be brought to silence in that day,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[31] “Look! I am against you, O Presumptuousness,” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, “for your day must come, the time that I must give you attention. [32] And Presumptuousness will certainly stumble and fall, and it will have no one to cause it to rise up. And I will set a fire ablaze in its cities, and it must devour all its surroundings.”

[33] This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “The sons of Israel and the sons of Judah are being oppressed together, and all those taking them captive have laid hold on them. They have refused to let them go. [34] Their Repurchaser is strong, Jehovah of armies being his name. Without fail he will conduct their legal case, in order that he may actually give repose to the land and cause agitation to the inhabitants of Babylon.”

[35] “There is a sword against the Chal·deʹans,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and against the inhabitants of Babylon and against her princes and against her wise ones. [36] There is a sword against the empty talkers, and they will certainly act foolishly. There is a sword against her mighty men, and they will actually become terrified. [37] There is a sword against their horses and against their war chariots and against all the mixed company that are in the midst of her, and they will certainly become women. There is a sword against her treasures, and they will actually be plundered. [38] There is a devastation upon her waters, and they must be dried up. For it is a land of graven images, and because of their frightful visions they keep acting crazy. [39] Therefore the haunters of waterless regions will dwell with the howling animals, and in her the ostriches must dwell; and she will nevermore be dwelt in, nor will she reside for generation after generation."

[40] "Just as with God's overthrow of Sod′om and of Go·mor′rah and of her neighbor towns," is the utterance of Jehovah, "no man will dwell there, nor will the son of mankind reside in her as an alien.

[41] "Look! A people is coming in from the north; and a great nation and grand kings themselves will be roused up from the remotest parts of the earth. [42] Bow and javelin they handle. They are cruel and will show no mercy. The sound of them is like the sea that is boisterous, and upon horses they will ride; set in array as one man for war against you, O daughter of Babylon.

[43] "The king of Babylon has heard the report about them, and his hands have dropped down. There is distress! Severe pains have seized hold of him, just like a woman giving birth.

[44] "Look! Someone will come up just like a lion from the proud thickets along the Jordan to the durable abiding place, but in a moment I shall make them run away from her. And the one who is chosen I shall appoint over her. For who is like me, and who will challenge me, and who, now, is the shepherd that can stand before me? [45] Therefore hear, O men, the counsel of Jehovah that he has formulated against Babylon and his thoughts that he has thought out against the land of the Chal·de′ans. Surely the little ones of the flock will be dragged about. Surely on account of them he will cause their abiding place to be desolated. 46 At the sound when Babylon has been seized, the earth will certainly be set rocking, and among the nations an outcry itself be heard.”

51 This is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am rousing up against Babylon and against the inhabitants of Leb-ka′mai a ruinous wind; [2] and I will send to Babylon winnowers who will certainly winnow her and who will make her land empty; for they will actually prove to be against her on all sides in the day of calamity.

[3] “Let the one treading his bow do no treading. And let no one raise himself up in his coat of mail.

“And do not YOU men show any compassion for her young men. Devote to destruction all her army. [4] And they must fall slain in the land of the Chal·de′ans and pierced through in her streets.

[5] “For Israel and Judah are not widowed from their God, from Jehovah of armies. For the land of those has been full of guilt from the standpoint of the Holy One of Israel.

[6] “FLEE out of the midst of Babylon, and provide escape each one for his own soul. Do not be rendered inanimate through her error. For it is the time of vengeance belonging to Jehovah. There is treatment that he is paying back to her. [7] Babylon has been a golden cup in the hand of Jehovah, she making all the earth drunk. From her wine the nations have drunk. That is why the nations keep acting crazed. [8] Suddenly Babylon has fallen, so that she is broken. Howl over her, YOU people. Take balsam for her pain. Perhaps she may be healed.”

[9] “We would have healed Babylon, but she has not been healed. Leave her, YOU people, and let us go each one to his own land. For clear to the heavens her judgment has reached, and it has been lifted up to the cloudy skies. [10]

Jehovah has brought forth deeds of righteousness for us. Come and do let us recount in Zion the work of Jehovah our God.”

[11] “Polish the arrows. Fill the circular shields, O men. Jehovah has aroused the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because it is against Babylon that his idea is, in order to bring her to ruin. For it is the vengeance of Jehovah, the vengeance for his temple. [12] Against the walls of Babylon lift up a signal. Make strong the watch. Post the watchmen. Make ready those lying in ambush. For Jehovah both has formed the idea and will certainly do what he has spoken against the inhabitants of Babylon.”

[13] “O woman residing on abounding waters, abundant in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your profit making. [14] Jehovah of armies has sworn by his own soul, ‘I will fill you with men, like the locusts, and they will certainly sing forth over you a shout.’ [15] He is the Maker of the earth by his power, the One firmly establishing the productive land by his wisdom, and the One who by his understanding stretched out the heavens. [16] At his voice there is a giving by him of a turmoil of waters in the heavens, and he causes vapors to ascend from the extremity of the earth. He has made even sluices for the rain, and he brings forth the wind from his storehouses. [17] Every man has behaved so unreasoningly as not to know. Every metalworker will feel ashamed because of the carved image; for his molten image is a falsehood, and there is no spirit in them. [18] They are vanity, a work of mockery. In the time of their being given attention they will perish.

[19] “The Share of Jacob is not like these things, for he is the Former of everything, even the staff of his inheritance. Jehovah of armies is his name.”

20 “You are a club for me, as weapons of war, and by you I shall certainly dash nations to pieces, and by you I will bring kingdoms to ruin. 21 And by you I will dash the horse and his rider to pieces, and by you I will dash the war chariot and its rider to pieces. 22 And by you I will dash man and woman to pieces, and by you I will dash old man and boy to pieces, and by you I will dash young man and virgin to pieces. 23 And by you I will dash shepherd and his drove to pieces, and by you I will dash farmer and his span of animals to pieces, and by you I will dash governors and deputy rulers to pieces. 24 And I will pay back to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chal·de′a all their badness that they have committed in Zion before the eyes of YOU people,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

25 “Here I am against you, O ruinous mountain,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “you ruiner of the whole earth; and I will stretch out my hand against you and roll you away from the crags and make you a burnt-out mountain.”

26 “And people will not take from you a stone for a corner or a stone for foundations, because desolate wastes to time indefinite are what you will become,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

27 “Lift up a signal in the land, O men. Blow a horn among the nations. Sanctify against her the nations. Summon against her the kingdoms of Ar′a·rat, Min′ni and Ash′ke·naz. Commission against her a recruiting officer. Make the horses come up like bristly locusts. 28 Sanctify against her the nations, the kings of Me′di·a, its governors and all its deputy rulers and all the land of each one’s dominion. 29 And let the earth rock and be in severe pain, for against Babylon the thoughts of Jehovah have risen up to make the land of Babylon an object of astonishment, without an inhabitant.

[30] “The mighty men of Babylon have ceased to fight. They have kept sitting in the strong places. Their mightiness has run dry. They have become women. Her residences have been set on fire. Her bars have been broken.

[31] “One runner runs to meet another runner, and one reporter to meet another reporter, to report to the king of Babylon that his city has been captured at every end, [32] and that the fords themselves have been seized, and the papyrus boats they have burned with fire, and the men of war themselves have become disturbed.”

[33] For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor. It is the time to tread her down solid. Yet a little while and the time of the harvest must come for her.”

[34] “Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon has eaten me up; he has thrown me into confusion. He has set me as an empty vessel. He has swallowed me down like a big snake; he has filled his abdomen with my pleasant things. He has rinsed me away. [35] ‘The violence done to me and to my organism be upon Babylon!’ the inhabitress of Zion will say. ‘And my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chal·de′a!’ Jerusalem will say.”

[36] Therefore this is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am conducting your legal case, and I shall certainly execute vengeance for you. And I will dry up her sea, and I will make her wells dry. [37] And Babylon must become piles of stones, the lair of jackals, an object of astonishment and something to whistle at, without an inhabitant. [38] All together they will roar just like maned young lions. They will certainly growl like the whelps of lions.”

39 “When they are heated I shall set their banquets and I will make them drunk, in order that they may exult; and they must sleep an indefinitely lasting sleep, from which they will not wake up,” is the utterance of Jehovah. 40 “I shall bring them down like male sheep to the slaughtering, like rams along with the he-goats.”

41 “O how She′shach has been captured, and how the Praise of the whole earth gets to be seized! How Babylon has become a mere object of astonishment among the nations! 42 The sea has come up even over Babylon. By the multitude of its waves she has been covered. 43 Her cities have become an object of astonishment, a waterless land and a desert plain. As a land, in them no man will dwell, and through them no son of mankind will pass. 44 And I will turn my attention upon Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth what he has swallowed. And to him nations will stream no more. Also, the wall itself of Babylon must fall.

45 “Get out of the midst of her, O my people, and provide each one his soul with escape from the burning anger of Jehovah. 46 Or otherwise YOUR heart will be timid, and YOU will become afraid because of the report that is to be heard in the land. And in one year the report will actually come, and after it in another year there will be the report and violence in the earth and ruler against ruler. 47 Therefore, look! there are days coming, and I will turn my attention upon the graven images of Babylon; and all her own land will become ashamed, and all her own slain ones will fall in the midst of her.

48 “And over Babylon the heavens and the earth and all that is in them will certainly cry out joyfully, for out of the north there will come to her the despoilers,” is the utterance of Jehovah. 49 “Not only was Babylon the cause for the slain ones of Israel to fall but also at Babylon the slain ones of all the earth have fallen.

[50] “YOU escapees from the sword, keep going. Do not stand still. From far away remember Jehovah, and may Jerusalem herself come up into YOUR heart.”

[51] “We have been put to shame, for we have heard reproach. Humiliation has covered our faces, for strangers have come against the holy places of the house of Jehovah.”

[52] “Therefore, look! there are days coming,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “and I will turn my attention upon her graven images, and throughout all her land the pierced one will groan.”

[53] “Even if Babylon should ascend to the heavens and even if she should make the height of her strength unapproachable, from me the despoilers will come to her,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[54] “Listen! There is an outcry from Babylon, and a great crash from the land of the Chal·de′ans, [55] for Jehovah is despoiling Babylon, and he will certainly destroy out of her the great voice, and their waves will actually be boisterous like many waters. The noise of their voice will certainly be given out. [56] For there must come upon her, upon Babylon, the despoiler, and her mighty men will certainly be captured. Their bows must be shattered, for Jehovah is a God of recompenses. Without fail he will repay. [57] And I will make her princes and her wise ones, her governors and her deputy rulers and her mighty men drunk, and they must sleep an indefinitely lasting sleep, from which they will not wake up,” is the utterance of the King, whose name is Jehovah of armies.

[58] This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “The wall of Babylon, although broad, will without fail be demolished; and her gates, although high, will be set aflame with fire. And the peoples will have to toil for simply nothing, and national groups simply for the fire; and they will just tire themselves out.”

[59] The word that Jeremiah the prophet commanded Se·raiʹah the son of Ne·riʹah the son of Mah·seiʹah when he went with Zed·e·kiʹah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his being king; and Se·raiʹah was the quartermaster. [60] And Jeremiah proceeded to write in one book all the calamity that would come upon Babylon, even all these words written against Babylon. [61] Furthermore, Jeremiah said to Se·raiʹah: “As soon as you come to Babylon and actually see her, you must also read aloud all these words. [62] And you must say, ‘O Jehovah, you yourself have spoken against this place, in order to cut it off so that there may come to be in it no inhabitant, either man or even domestic animal, but that she may become mere desolate wastes to time indefinite.’ [63] And it must occur that when you will have completed reading this book, you will tie to it a stone, and you must pitch it into the midst of the Eu·phraʹtes. [64] And you must say, ‘This is how Babylon will sink down and never rise up because of the calamity that I am bringing in upon her; and they will certainly tire themselves out.’”

Down to this point are the words of Jeremiah.

JEREMIAH

52 Zed·e·ki′ah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and for eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Ha·mu′tal the daughter of Jeremiah of Lib′nah. [2] And he continued to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that Je·hoi′a·kim had done. [3] For on account of the anger of Jehovah it occurred in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from before his face. And Zed·e·ki′ah proceeded to rebel against the king of Babylon. [4] Finally it came about in the ninth year of his being king, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon came, he and all his military force, against Jerusalem, and they began to camp against her and to build against her a siege wall all around. [5] So the city came under siege until the eleventh year of King Zed·e·ki′ah.

[6] In the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the famine also got to be severe in the city and there proved to be no bread for the people of the land. [7] Finally the city was broken through; and as regards all the men of war, they began to run away and go forth from the city by night by the way of the gate between the double wall that is by the king’s garden, while the Chal·de′ans were all around against the city; and they kept going by the way of the Ar′a·bah. [8] And a military force of the Chal·de′ans went chasing after the king, and they got to overtake Zed·e·ki′ah in the desert plains of Jer′i·cho; and all his own military force was scattered from his side. [9] Then they seized the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Rib′lah in the land of Ha′math, that he might pronounce upon him judicial decisions. [10] And the king of Babylon proceeded to slaughter the sons of Zed·e·ki′ah before his eyes, and also all the princes of Judah he slaughtered in Rib′lah. [11] And the eyes of Zed·e·ki′ah he blinded, after which the king of Babylon bound him with copper fetters and brought him to Babylon and put him in the house of custody until the day of his death.

[12] And in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, that is, in the nineteenth year of King Neb·u·chad·rez′zar, the king of Babylon, Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard, who was standing before the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem. [13] And he proceeded to burn the house of Jehovah and the house of the king and all the houses of Jerusalem; and every great house he burned with fire. [14] And all the walls of Jerusalem, round about, all the military forces of the Chal·de′ans that were with the chief of the bodyguard pulled down.

[15] And some of the lowly ones of the people and the rest of the people that were left remaining in the city and the deserters that had fallen away to the king of Babylon and the rest of the master workmen Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard took into exile. [16] And some of the lowly ones of the land Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard let remain as vinedressers and as compulsory laborers.

[17] And the copper pillars that belonged to the house of Jehovah and the carriages and the copper sea that was in the house of Jehovah the Chal·de′ans broke to pieces and went carrying all the copper of them to Babylon. [18] And the cans and the shovels and the extinguishers and the bowls and the cups and all the copper utensils with which they used to minister they took. [19] And the basins and the fire holders and the bowls and the cans and the lampstands and the cups and the bowls that were of genuine gold, and those that were of genuine silver, the chief of the bodyguard took. [20] And the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve copper bulls that were under the sea, the carriages, that King Sol′o·mon had made for the house of Jehovah. There happened to be no weight taken of the copper of them—all these articles.

[21] And as regards the pillars, eighteen cubits in height was each pillar, and a thread of twelve cubits itself would go around it; and its thickness was four fingerbreadths, it being hollow. [22] And the capital upon it was of copper, and the height of the one capital was five cubits; and as regards the network and the pomegranates upon the capital, all around, the whole was of copper; and the second pillar had just the same as these, also the pomegranates. [23] And the pomegranates came to be ninety-six, on the sides, all the pomegranates being one hundred upon the network round about.

[24] Furthermore, the chief of the bodyguard took Se·rai′ah the chief priest and Zeph·a·ni′ah the second priest and the three doorkeepers, [25] and from the city he took one court official that happened to be commissioner over the men of war, and seven men of those having access to the king, who were found in the city, and the secretary of the chief of the army, the one mustering the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city. [26] So these Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard took and conducted them to the king of Babylon at Rib′lah. [27] And these the king of Babylon proceeded to strike down and to put them to death in Rib′lah in the land of Ha′math. Thus Judah went into exile from off its soil.

[28] These are the people whom Neb·u·chad·rez′zar took into exile: in the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Jews.

[29] In the eighteenth year of Neb·u·chad·rez′zar, from Jerusalem there were eight hundred and thirty-two souls.

[30] In the twenty-third year of Neb·u·chad·rez′zar, Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard took Jews into exile, seven hundred and forty-five souls.

All the souls were four thousand and six hundred.

[31] At length it came about in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Je·hoi′a·chin the king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, that E′vil-mer′o·dach the king of Babylon, in the year of his becoming king, raised up the head of Je·hoi′a·chin the king of Judah and proceeded to bring him forth from the prison house. [32] And he began to speak with him good things and to put his throne higher than the thrones of the other kings that were with him in Babylon. [33] And he took off his prison garments, and he ate bread before him constantly all the days of his life. [34] And as for his allowance, there was a constant allowance given him from the king of Babylon, daily as due, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

LAMENTATIONS

א [ʼA′leph]

1 O how she has come to sit solitary, the city that was abundant with people!
How she has become like a widow, she that was populous among the nations!
How she that was a princess among the jurisdictional districts has come to be for forced labor!

ב [Behth]

2 Profusely she weeps during the night, and her tears are upon her cheeks.
She has no one to comfort her from among all her lovers.
All her very own companions have dealt treacherously with her. They have become enemies to her.

ג [Gi′mel]

3 Judah has gone into exile because of the affliction and because of the abundance of servitude.
She herself has had to dwell among the nations. No resting-place has she found.
All those who were persecuting her have overtaken her among distressing circumstances.

ד [Da′leth]

4 The ways of Zion are mourning, because there are none coming to the festival.
All her gates are laid desolate; her priests are sighing.
Her virgins are grief-stricken, and she herself has bitterness.

ה [He’]

5 Her adversaries have become the head. Those who are her enemies are unconcerned.
Because Jehovah himself has brought grief to her on account of the abundance of her transgressions,
Her own children have walked captive before the adversary.

ו [Waw]

6 And from the daughter of Zion there goes out all her splendor.
Her princes have proved to be like stags that have found no pasturage;
And they keep walking without power before the pursuer.

ז [Za′yin]

7 Jerusalem has remembered in the days of her affliction and of her homeless people
All her desirable things that happened to be from days of long ago.
When her people fell into the hand of the adversary and she had no helper,
The adversaries saw her. They laughed over her collapse.

ח [Chehth]

8 Jerusalem has committed outright sin. That is why she has become a mere abhorrent thing.
All who were honoring her have treated her as something cheap, for they have seen her nakedness.
She herself is also sighing and turns her back.

ט [Tehth]

9 Her uncleanness is in her skirts. She did not remember the future for her,
And down she goes in a wondrous manner. No comforter does she have.
O Jehovah, see my affliction, for the enemy has put on great airs.

י [Yohdh]

10 The adversary has spread out his own hand against all her desirable things.
For she has seen nations that have come into her sanctuary,
Whom you commanded that they should not come into the congregation belonging to you.

כ [Kaph]

11 All her people are sighing; they are looking for bread.
They have given their desirable things for something to eat, in order to refresh the soul.
See, O Jehovah, and do look, for I have become as a valueless woman.

ל [La′medh]

12 Is it nothing to all YOU who are passing along the way? Look and see.
Does there exist any pain like my pain that has been severely dealt out to me,
With which Jehovah has caused grief in the day of his burning anger?

מ [Mem]

13 From the height he has sent fire into my bones, and he subdues each one.
He has spread out a net for my feet. He has turned me backward.
He has made me a woman laid desolate. All the day I am ill.

נ [Nun]

14 He has kept himself alert against my transgressions. In his hand they intertwine one another.
They have come up upon my neck. My power has stumbled.
Jehovah has given me into the hand of those against whom I am unable to rise up.

ס [Sa′mekh]

15 All my powerful ones Jehovah has tossed aside from the midst of me.
He has called against me a meeting, in order to break my young men to pieces.
Jehovah has trodden the very winepress belonging to the virgin daughter of Judah.

ע [ʽA′yin]

16 Over these things I am weeping as a woman. My eye, my eye is running down with waters.
For a comforter has become far away from me, someone to refresh my soul.
My sons have become those laid desolate, for the enemy has put on great airs.

פ [Pe′]

17 Zion has spread out her hands. No comforter does she have.
Jehovah has given a command concerning Jacob to all who are around him as his adversaries.
Jerusalem has become an abhorrent thing in among them.

צ [Tsa·dheh′]

18 Jehovah is righteous, for it is against his mouth that I have rebelled.

Listen, now, all YOU peoples, and see my pain.
My own virgins and my own young men have gone into captivity.

ק [Qohph]

19 I have called to those intensely loving me. They themselves have tricked me.
In the city my own priests and my own old men have expired,
While they had to look for something to eat for themselves that they might refresh their soul.

ר [Rehsh]

20 See, O Jehovah, for I am in sore straits. My very intestines are in a ferment.
My heart has been overturned in the midst of me, for I have been absolutely rebellious.
Outside the sword caused bereavement of children. Within the house it is the same as death.

ש [Shin]

21 People have heard how I myself am sighing as a woman. There is no comforter for me.
All my enemies themselves have heard of my calamity. They have exulted, because you yourself have done it.
You will certainly bring the day that you have proclaimed, that they may become like me.

ת [Taw]

22 May all their badness come before you, and deal severely with them,
Just as you have dealt severely with me on account of all my transgressions.
For my sighs are many, and my heart is ill.

א [’A′leph]

2 O how Jehovah in his anger beclouds the daughter of Zion!
He has thrown down from heaven to earth the beauty of Israel.
And he has not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

ב [Behth]

2 Jehovah has swallowed up, he has shown no compassion upon any abiding places of Jacob.
In his fury he has torn down the fortified places of the daughter of Judah.
He has brought into contact with the earth, he has profaned the kingdom and her princes.

ג [Gi′mel]

3 In the heat of anger he has cut down every horn of Israel.
He has turned his right hand back from before the enemy;
And in Jacob he keeps burning like a flaming fire that has devoured all around.

ד [Da′leth]

4 He has trodden his bow like an enemy. His right hand has taken its position
Like an adversary, and he kept killing all those desirable to the eyes.
Into the tent of the daughter of Zion he has poured out his rage, just like fire.

ה [He’]

5 Jehovah has become like an enemy. He has swallowed down Israel.
He has swallowed down all her dwelling towers; he has brought his fortified places to ruin.
And in the daughter of Judah he makes mourning and lamentation abound.

ו [Waw]

6 And he treats his booth violently like that in a garden. He has brought his festival to ruin.
Jehovah has caused to be forgotten in Zion festival and sabbath,
And in his angry denunciation he shows no respect for king and priest.

ז [Za′yin]

7 Jehovah has cast off his altar. He has spurned his sanctuary.
Into the hand of the enemy he has surrendered the walls of her dwelling towers.
In the house of Jehovah they have let out their own voice, as in the day of a festival.

ח [Chehth]

8 Jehovah has thought of bringing the wall of the daughter of Zion to ruin.
He has stretched out the measuring line. He has not turned back his hand from swallowing up.
And he causes rampart and wall to go mourning. Together they have faded away.

ט [Tehth]

9 Her gates have sunk down into the very earth. He has destroyed and broken her bars in pieces.
Her king and her princes are among the nations. There is no law.
Her own prophets also have found no vision from Jehovah.

י [Yohdh]

10 The older men of the daughter of Zion sit down on the earth, where they keep silence.
They have brought up dust upon their head. They have girded on sackcloth.
The virgins of Jerusalem have brought their head down to the very earth.

כ [Kaph]

11 My eyes have come to their end in sheer tears. My intestines are in a ferment.
My liver has been poured out to the very earth, on account of the crash of the daughter of my people,
Because of the fainting away of child and suckling in the public squares of the town.

ל [La′medh]

12 To their mothers they kept saying: “Where are grain and wine?”
Because of their fainting away like someone slain in the public squares of the city,
Because of their soul being poured out into the bosom of their mothers.

מ [Mem]

13 Of what shall I use you as a witness? What shall I liken to you, O daughter of Jerusalem?
What shall I make equal to you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion?
For your breakdown is just as great as the sea. Who can bring healing to you?

נ [Nun]

14 Your own prophets have visioned for you worthless and unsatisfying things,
And they have not uncovered your error in order to turn back your captivity,
But they kept visioning for you worthless and misleading pronouncements.

ס [Sa′mekh]

15 At you all those passing along on the road have clapped their hands.
They have whistled and kept wagging their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying:
“Is this the city of which they used to say, ‘It is the perfection of prettiness, an exultation for all the earth’?”

פ [Pe′]

16 At you all your enemies have opened their mouth.
They have whistled and kept grinding the teeth. They have said: “We will swallow her down.
This indeed is the day that we have hoped for. We have found! We have seen!”

ע [ʽA′yin]

17 Jehovah has done what he had in mind. He has accomplished his saying,
What he had commanded from the days of long ago. He has torn down and shown no compassion.
And over you he causes the enemy to rejoice. He has made the horn of your adversaries high.

צ [Tsa·dheh′]

18 Their heart has cried out to Jehovah, O wall of the daughter of Zion.
Cause tears to descend just like a torrent day and night.
Give no numbness to yourself. May the pupil of your eye not keep quiet.

ק [Qohph]

19 Rise up! Whine during the night at the start of the morning watches.
Pour out your heart before the face of Jehovah just like water.
Raise to him your palms on account of the soul of your children,
Who are fainting away because of famine at the head of all the streets.

ר [Rehsh]

20 See, O Jehovah, and do look to the one to whom you have dealt severely in this manner.
Should the women keep eating their own fruitage, the children born fully formed,
Or in the sanctuary of Jehovah should priest and prophet be killed?

ש [Shin]

21 Boy and old man have lain down on the earth of the streets.
My virgins and my young men themselves have fallen by the sword.
You have killed in the day of your anger. You have slaughtered; you have had no compassion.

ת [Taw]

22 As in the day of a festival you proceeded to call out my places of alien residence all around.
And in the day of the wrath of Jehovah there proved to be no escapee or survivor;
Those whom I brought forth fully formed and reared, my enemy himself exterminated them.

א [ʼA´leph]

3 I am the able-bodied man that has seen affliction because of the staff of his fury.

2 It is I whom he has led and makes to walk in darkness and not in light.

3 Indeed, it is against me that he repeatedly turns his hand all day long.

ב [Behth]

4 He has caused my flesh and my skin to wear away. He has broken my bones.

5 He has built against me, that he may encircle me with poisonous plant and hardship.

6 In dark places he has made me sit like men dead for a long time.

ג [Gi´mel]

7 He has blocked me up as with a stone wall, that I may not go forth. He has made my copper fetters heavy.

8 Also, when I call for aid and cry for help, he actually hampers my prayer.

9 He has blocked up my ways with hewn stone. My roadways he has twisted.

ד [Da´leth]

10 As a bear lying in wait he is to me, as a lion in places of concealment.

11 My ways he has disarranged, and he makes me lie fallow. He has made me one laid desolate.

12 He has trodden his bow, and he sets me up as the target for the arrow.

ה [He’]

13 He has brought into my kidneys the sons of his quiver.

14 I have become an object of laughter to all people against me, the theme of their song all day long.

15 He has given me a sufficiency of bitter things. He has saturated me with wormwood.

ו [Waw]

16 And with gravel he makes my teeth get broken. He has made me cower in the ashes.

17 You also do a casting off so that there is no peace for my soul. I have lost memory of what good is.

18 And I keep saying: “My excellency has perished, and my expectation from Jehovah.”

ז [Za′yin]

19 Remember my affliction and my homeless state, the wormwood and the poisonous plant.

20 Without fail your soul will remember and bow low over me.

21 This is what I shall bring back to my heart. That is why I shall show a waiting attitude.

ח [Chehth]

22 It is the acts of loving-kindness of Jehovah that we have not come to our finish, because his mercies will certainly not come to an end.

23 They are new each morning. Your faithfulness is abundant.

24 “Jehovah is my share,” my soul has said, “that is why I shall show a waiting attitude for him.”

ט [Tehth]

25 Good is Jehovah to the one hoping in him, to the soul that keeps seeking for him.

26 Good it is that one should wait, even silently, for the salvation of Jehovah.

27 Good it is for an able-bodied man that he should carry the yoke during his youth.

י [Yohdh]

28 Let him sit solitary and keep silent, because he has laid something upon him.

29 Let him put his mouth in the very dust. Perhaps there exists a hope.

30 Let him give his cheek to the very one striking him. Let him have his sufficiency of reproach.

כ [Kaph]

31 For not to time indefinite will Jehovah keep on casting off.

32 For although he has caused grief, he will also certainly show mercy according to the abundance of his loving-kindness.

33 For not out of his own heart has he afflicted or does he grieve the sons of men.

ל [La′medh]

34 For crushing beneath one’s feet all the prisoners of the earth,

35 For turning aside the judgment of an able-bodied man before the face of the Most High,

36 For making a man crooked in his legal case, Jehovah himself has had no countenance.

מ [Mem]

37 Who, now, has said that something should occur when Jehovah himself has not commanded?

38 From the mouth of the Most High bad things and what is good do not go forth.

39 How can a living man indulge in complaints, an able-bodied man on account of his sin?

נ [Nun]

40 Do let us search out our ways and explore them, and do let us return clear to Jehovah.

41 Let us raise our heart along with our palms to God in the heavens:

42 “We ourselves have transgressed, and we have behaved rebelliously. You yourself have not forgiven.

ס [Sa′mekh]

43 You have blocked approach with anger, and you keep pursuing us. You have killed; you have shown no compassion.

44 You have blocked approach to yourself with a cloud mass, that prayer may not pass through.

45 You make us mere offscouring and refuse in the midst of the peoples.”

פ [Pe′]

46 Against us all our enemies have opened their mouth.

47 Dread and the hollow themselves have become ours, desolateness and breakdown.

48 With streams of water my eye keeps running down on account of the breakdown of the daughter of my people.

ע [ʽA′yin]

49 My very eye has been poured forth and will not keep still, so that there are no pauses,

50 Until Jehovah looks down and sees from heaven.

51 My own eye has dealt severely with my soul, because of all the daughters of my city.

צ [Tsa·dheh′]

52 My enemies have positively hunted for me just as for a bird, for no cause.

53 They have silenced my life in the pit itself, and they kept hurling stones at me.

54 Waters have flowed over my head. I have said: “I shall certainly be cut off!”

ק [Qohph]

55 I have called out your name, O Jehovah, from a pit of the lowest sort.

56 My voice you must hear. Do not hide your ear to my relief, to my cry for help.

57 You have drawn near in the day that I kept calling you. You said: “Do not be afraid.”

ר [Rehsh]

58 You have taken up, O Jehovah, the contests of my soul. You have repurchased my life.

59 You have seen, O Jehovah, the wrong done to me. O do conduct the judgment for me.

60 You have seen all their vengeance, all their thoughts against me.

ש [Sin] or [Shin]

61 You have heard their reproach, O Jehovah, all their thoughts against me, 62 The lips of those rising up against me and their whispering against me all day long.

63 Do look at their very sitting down and their rising up. I am the subject of their song.

ת [Taw]

64 You will give back to them a treatment, O Jehovah, according to the work of their hands.
65 You will give to them the insolence of heart, your curse to them.
66 You will pursue in anger and annihilate them from under the heavens of Jehovah.

א [ʼA′leph]

4 O how the gold that shines becomes dim, the good gold!
O how the holy stones are poured out at the head of all the streets!

ב [Behth]

2 As for the precious sons of Zion, those who were weighed against refined gold,
O how they have been reckoned as large jars of earthenware, the work of the hands of a potter!

ג [Gi′mel]

3 Even jackals themselves have presented the udder. They have suckled their cubs.
The daughter of my people becomes cruel, like ostriches in the wilderness.

ד [Da′leth]

4 The tongue of the suckling has cleaved to its palate because of thirst.
Children themselves have asked for bread. There is no one dealing it out to them.

ה [He’]

5 The very ones that were eating pleasant things have been struck with astonishment in the streets.
The very ones that were being reared in scarlet have had to embrace ash heaps.

ו [Waw]

6 The punishment for the error of the daughter of my people also becomes greater than the punishment for the sin of Sod′om,
Which was overthrown as in a moment, and to which no hands turned helpfully.

ז [Za′yin]

7 Her Naz′i·rites were purer than snow; they were whiter than milk.

They were in fact more ruddy than corals; their polish was as the sapphire.

ח [Chehth]

8 Their aspect has become darker than blackness itself. They have not been recognized in the streets.
Their skin has shriveled upon their bones. It has become just as dry as a tree.

ט [Tehth]

9 Better have those slain with the sword proved to be than those slain by famine, Because these pine away, pierced through for lack of the produce of the open field.

י [Yohdh]

10 The very hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children.
They have become as bread of consolation to one during the breakdown of the daughter of my people.

כ [Kaph]

11 Jehovah has accomplished his rage. He has poured out his burning anger.
And he sets a fire ablaze in Zion, which eats up her foundations.

ל [La′medh]

12 The kings of the earth and all the inhabitants of the productive land had not believed That the adversary and the enemy would come into the gates of Jerusalem.

מ [Mem]

13 Because of the sins of her prophets, the errors of her priests,
There were in the midst of her those pouring out the blood of righteous ones.

נ [Nun]

14 They have wandered about as blind in the streets. They have become polluted with blood,
So that none are able to touch their garments.

ס [Sa′mekh]

15 “Get out of the way! Unclean!” they have called out to them. “Get out of the way! Get out of the way! Do not touch!”
For they have gone homeless. They have also wandered about. People have said among the nations: “They will not reside again as aliens.

פ [Pe′]

16 The face of Jehovah has divided them up. He will not look upon them again.
Men will certainly show no consideration even for the priests. They will certainly show no favor even to the old men.”

ע [ʽA′yin]

17 While we yet are, our eyes keep pining away in vain for assistance to us.
During our looking about we have looked out to a nation that can bring no salvation.

צ [Tsa·dheh′]

18 They have hunted our steps so that there is no walking in our public squares.
Our end has drawn near. Our days have come to their full, for our end has come.

ק [Qohph]

19 Swifter than the eagles of the heavens our pursuers have proved to be.
Upon the mountains they have hotly pursued us. In the wilderness they have lain in wait for us.

ר [Rehsh]

20 The very breath of our nostrils, the anointed one of Jehovah, has been captured in their large pit,
The one of whom we have said: “In his shade we shall live among the nations.”

ש [Sin]

21 Exult and rejoice, O daughter of E′dom, dwelling as you do in the land of Uz.
To you also the cup will pass along. You will become drunk and show yourself in nakedness.

ת [Taw]

22 Your error, O daughter of Zion, has come to its finish. He will not carry you off into exile again.
He has turned his attention to your error, O daughter of E′dom. He has uncovered your sins.

LAMENTATIONS

5 Remember, O Jehovah, what has happened to us. Do look and see our reproach.

2 Our own hereditary possession has been turned over to strangers, our houses to foreigners.

3 We have become mere orphans without a father. Our mothers are like widows.

4 For money we have had to drink our own water. For a price our own wood comes in.

5 Close onto our neck we have been pursued. We have grown weary. No rest has been left for us.

6 To Egypt we have given the hand; to As·syrʹi·a, in order to get satisfaction with bread.

7 Our forefathers are the ones that have sinned. They are no more. As for us, it is their errors that we have had to bear.

8 Mere servants have ruled over us. There is no one tearing us away from their hand.

9 At the risk of our soul we bring in our bread, because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 Our very skin has grown hot just like a furnace, because of the pangs of hunger.

11 The wives in Zion they have humbled, the virgins in the cities of Judah.

12 Princes themselves have been hanged by just their hand. The faces of even old men have not been honored.

13 Even young men have lifted up a hand mill itself, and under the wood mere boys have stumbled.

14 Old men themselves have ceased even out of the gate, young men from their instrumental music.

15 The exultation of our heart has ceased. Our dancing has been changed into mere mourning.

16 The crown of our head has fallen. Woe, now, to us, because we have sinned!

17 On this account our heart has become ill. On account of these things our eyes have grown dim,

18 On account of Zion’s mountain that is desolated; foxes themselves have walked on it.

19 As for you, O Jehovah, to time indefinite you will sit. Your throne is for generation after generation.

20 Why is it that forever you forget us, that you leave us for the length of days?

21 Bring us back, O Jehovah, to yourself, and we shall readily come back. Bring new days for us as in the long ago.

22 However, you have positively rejected us. You have been indignant toward us very much.

EZEKIEL

1 Now it came about in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, while I was in the midst of the exiled people by the river Cheʹbar, that the heavens were opened and I began to see visions of God. [2] On the fifth day of the month, that is, in the fifth year of the exile of King Je·hoiʹa·chin, [3] the word of Jehovah occurred specifically to Ezekiel the son of Buʹzi the priest in the land of the Chal·deʹans by the river Cheʹbar, and upon him in that place the hand of Jehovah came to be.

[4] And I began to see, and, look! there was a tempestuous wind coming from the north, a great cloud mass and quivering fire, and it had a brightness all around, and out of the midst of it there was something like the look of electrum, out of the midst of the fire. [5] And out of the midst of it there was the likeness of four living creatures, and this was how they looked: they had the likeness of earthling man. [6] And each one had four faces, and each one of them four wings. [7] And their feet were straight feet, and the sole of their feet was like the sole of the foot of a calf; and they were gleaming as with the glow of burnished copper. [8] And there were the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides, and the four of them had their faces and their wings. [9] Their wings were joining one to the other. They would not turn when they went; they would go each one straight forward.

[10] And as for the likeness of their faces, the four of them had a man’s face with a lion’s face to the right, and the four of them had a bull’s face on the left; the four of them also had an eagle’s face. [11] That is the way their faces were. And their wings were spreading out upward. Each one had two joining to each other, and two were covering their bodies.

[12] And they would go each one straight forward. To wherever the spirit would incline to go, they would go. They would not turn as they went. [13] And as for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire. Something like the appearance of torches was moving back and forth between the living creatures, and the fire was bright, and out of the fire there was lightning going forth. [14] And on the part of the living creatures there was a going forth and a returning as with the appearance of the lightning.

[15] As I kept seeing the living creatures, why, look! there was one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, by the four faces of each. [16] As for the appearance of the wheels and their structure, it was like the glow of chrys′o·lite; and the four of them had one likeness. And their appearance and their structure were just as when a wheel proved to be in the midst of a wheel. [17] When they went they would go on their four respective sides. They would not turn another way when they went. [18] And as for their rims, they had such height that they caused fearfulness; and their rims were full of eyes all around the four of them. [19] And when the living creatures went, the wheels would go beside them, and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels would be lifted up. [20] Wherever the spirit inclined to go, they would go, the spirit inclining to go there; and the wheels themselves would be lifted up close alongside them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. [21] When they went, these would go; and when they stood still, these would stand still; and when they were lifted up from the earth, the wheels would be lifted up close alongside them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

[22] And over the heads of the living creatures there was the likeness of an expanse like the sparkle of awesome ice, stretched out over their heads up above. [23] And under the expanse their wings were straight, one to the other. Each one had two wings covering on this side and each one had two covering on that side their bodies. [24] And I got to hear the sound of their wings, a sound like that of vast waters, like the sound of the Almighty One, when they went, the sound of a tumult, like the sound of an encampment. When they stood still, they would let their wings down.

[25] And there came to be a voice above the expanse that was over their head. (When they stood still, they would let their wings down.) [26] And above the expanse that was over their head there was something in appearance like sapphire stone, the likeness of a throne. And upon the likeness of the throne there was a likeness of someone in appearance like an earthling man upon it, up above. [27] And I got to see something like the glow of electrum, like the appearance of fire all around inside thereof, from the appearance of his hips and upward; and from the appearance of his hips and downward I saw something like the appearance of fire, and he had a brightness all around. [28] There was something like the appearance of the bow that occurs in a cloud mass on the day of a pouring rain. That is how the appearance was of the brightness round about. It was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Jehovah. When I got to see it, then I fell upon my face, and I began to hear the voice of one speaking.

2 And he proceeded to say to me: “Son of man, stand up upon your feet that I may speak with you.” [2] And spirit began to come into me as soon as he spoke to me, and it finally made me stand up upon my feet that I might hear the One speaking to me.

[3] And he went on to say to me: “Son of man, I am sending you to the sons of Israel, to rebellious nations that have rebelled against me. They themselves and their forefathers have transgressed against me down to this selfsame day. [4] And the sons insolent of face and hard of heart—I am sending you to them, and you must say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said.’ [5] And as for them, whether they will hear or will refrain—for they are a rebellious house—they will certainly know also that a prophet himself happened to be in the midst of them.

[6] “And you, O son of man, do not be afraid of them; and of their words do not be afraid, because there are obstinate ones and things pricking you and it is among scorpions that you are dwelling. Of their words do not you be afraid, and at their faces do not you be struck with terror, for they are a rebellious house. [7] And you must speak my words to them, regardless of whether they hear or they refrain, for they are a case of rebellion.

[8] “And you, O son of man, hear what I am speaking to you. Do not become rebellious like the rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I am giving you.”

[9] And I began to see, and, look! there was a hand thrust out to me, and, look! in it there was the roll of a book. [10] And he gradually spread it out before me, and it was written upon in front and on the back; and there were written in it dirges and moaning and wailing.

3 And he proceeded to say to me: “Son of man, what you find, eat. Eat this roll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.”

[2] So I opened my mouth, and he gradually made me eat this roll. [3] And he went on to say to me: “Son of man, you should cause your own belly to eat, that you may fill your very intestines with this roll that I am giving you.” And I began to eat it, and it came to be in my mouth like honey for sweetness.

[4] And he continued saying to me: “Son of man, go, enter in among the house of Israel, and you must speak with my words to them. [5] For it is not to a people who are unintelligible in language or heavy of tongue that you are being sent—to the house of Israel, [6] not to numerous peoples unintelligible in language or heavy in tongue, whose words you cannot hear understandingly. If it was to them that I had sent you, those very ones would listen to you. [7] But as for the house of Israel, they will not want to listen to you, for they are not wanting to listen to me; because all those of the house of Israel are hardheaded and hardhearted. [8] Look! I have made your face exactly as hard as their faces and your forehead exactly as hard as their foreheads. [9] Like a diamond, harder than flint, I have made your forehead. You must not be afraid of them, and you must not be struck with terror at their faces, for they are a rebellious house.”

[10] And he went on to say to me: “Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you, take into your heart and hear with your own ears. [11] And go, enter in among the exiled people, among the sons of your people, and you must speak to them and say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said,’ regardless of whether they hear or they refrain.”

12 And a spirit proceeded to bear me along and I began to hear behind me the sound of a great rushing: “Blessed be the glory of Jehovah from his place.” 13 And there was the sound of the wings of the living creatures that were closely touching each other, and the sound of the wheels close beside them, and the sound of a great rushing. 14 And the spirit bore me along and proceeded to take me, so that I went bitterly in the rage of my spirit, and the hand of Jehovah upon me was strong. 15 So I entered in among the exiled people at Tel-a′bib, who were dwelling by the river Che′bar, and I began to dwell where they were dwelling; and I kept dwelling there for seven days, stunned in the midst of them.

16 And it came about at the end of seven days that the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to me, saying:

17 “Son of man, a watchman is what I have made you to the house of Israel, and you must hear from my mouth speech and you must warn them from me. 18 When I say to someone wicked, ‘You will positively die,’ and you do not actually warn him and speak in order to warn the wicked one from his wicked way to preserve him alive, he being wicked, in his error he will die, but his blood I shall ask back from your own hand. 19 But as for you, in case you have warned someone wicked and he does not actually turn back from his wickedness and from his wicked way, he himself for his error will die; but as for you, you will have delivered your own soul. 20 And when someone righteous turns back from his righteousness and actually does injustice and I must put a stumbling block before him, he himself will die because you did not warn him. For his sin he will die, and his righteous acts that he did will not be remembered, but his blood I shall ask back from your own hand. [21] And as for you, in case you have warned someone righteous that the righteous one should not sin, and he himself does not actually sin, he will without fail keep on living because he had been warned, and you yourself will have delivered your own soul.”

[22] And the hand of Jehovah came to be upon me there and he proceeded to say to me: “Get up, go forth to the valley plain, and there I shall speak with you.” [23] So I got up and went forth to the valley plain, and, look! the glory of Jehovah was standing there, like the glory that I had seen by the river Cheʹbar, and I went falling upon my face. [24] Then spirit entered into me and made me stand up on my feet, and he began to speak with me and say to me:

“Come, be shut up inside your house. [25] And you, O son of man, look! they will certainly put cords upon you and bind you with them so that you cannot go forth into the midst of them. [26] And your very tongue I will make stick to the roof of your mouth, and you will certainly become mute, and you will not become to them a man administering reproof, because they are a rebellious house. [27] And when I speak with you I shall open your mouth, and you must say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said.’ Let the one hearing hear, and let the one refraining refrain, because they are a rebellious house.

4 “And you, O son of man, take for yourself a brick, and you must put it before you and engrave upon it a city, even Jerusalem. [2] And you must lay siege against it and build a siege wall against it and throw up a siege rampart against it and set encampments against it and put battering rams all around against it. [3] And as for you, take to yourself an iron griddle, and you must put it as an iron wall between you and the city, and you must fix your face against it, and it must get to be in a siege, and you must besiege it. It is a sign to the house of Israel.

[4] “And as for you, lie upon your left side, and you must lay the error of the house of Israel upon it. For the number of the days that you will lie upon it you will carry their error. [5] And I myself must give to you the years of their error to the number of three hundred and ninety days, and you must carry the error of the house of Israel. [6] And you must complete them.

“And you must lie upon your right side in the second case, and you must carry the error of the house of Judah forty days. A day for a year, a day for a year, is what I have given you. [7] And to the siege of Jerusalem you will fix your face, with your arm bared, and you must prophesy against it.

[8] “And, look! I will put cords upon you that you may not turn yourself from your one side to your other side, until you will have completed the days of your siege.

[9] “And as for you, take for yourself wheat and barley and broad beans and lentils and millet and spelt, and you must put them in one utensil and make them into bread for you, for the number of the days that you are lying upon your side; three hundred and ninety days you will eat it. [10] And your food that you will eat will be by weight—twenty shekels a day. From time to time you will eat it.

[11] “And water you will drink merely by measure, the sixth part of a hin. From time to time you will drink.

[12] “And as a round cake of barley you will eat it; and as for it, upon dung cakes of the excrement of mankind you will bake it before their eyes.” [13] And Jehovah went on to say: “Just like this the sons of Israel will eat their bread unclean among the nations to which I shall disperse them.”

[14] And I proceeded to say: “Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Look! My soul is not a defiled one; neither a body already dead nor a torn animal have I eaten from my youth up, even until now, and into my mouth there has come no foul flesh.”

[15] Accordingly he said to me: “See, I have given you cattle manure instead of the dung cakes of mankind, and you must make your bread upon it.” [16] And he continued saying to me: “Son of man, here I am breaking the rods around which ring-shaped loaves are suspended, in Jerusalem, and they will have to eat bread by weight and in anxious care, and it will be by measure and in horror that they will drink water itself, [17] to the intent that they may be lacking bread and water and they may look astonished at one another and rot away in their error.

5 “And as for you, O son of man, take for yourself a sharp sword. As a barbers’ razor you will take it for yourself, and you must make it pass along upon your head and upon your beard, and you must take for yourself weighing scales and divide the hair in portions. [2] A third you will burn in the very fire in the midst of the city as soon as the days of the siege have come to the full. And you must take another third. You will strike it with the sword all around her, and the last third you will scatter to the wind, and I shall draw out a sword itself after them.

[3] “And you must take therefrom a few in number and wrap them up in your skirts. [4] And others of them you will take and you must pitch them into the midst of the fire and incinerate them in the fire. From one a fire will go forth to all the house of Israel.

[5] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘This is Jerusalem. In the midst of the nations I have set her, with lands all around her. [6] And she proceeded to behave rebelliously against my judicial decisions in wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the lands that are all around her, for my judicial decisions they rejected and, as for my statutes, they did not walk in them.’

[7] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘For the reason that YOU people were more turbulent than the nations that are all around YOU, in my statutes YOU did not walk and my judicial decisions YOU did not perform; but according to the judicial decisions of the nations that are all around YOU, YOU performed, did YOU not? [8] therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am against you, O city, even I, and I will execute in the midst of you judicial decisions in the eyes of the nations. 9 And I will do in you that which I have not done and the like of which I shall not do anymore by reason of all your detestable things.

10 "'"Therefore fathers themselves will eat sons in the midst of you, and sons themselves will eat their fathers, and I will execute in you acts of judgment and scatter all the remainder of you to every wind."'

11 "'Therefore as I am alive,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'surely for the reason that it was my sanctuary that you defiled with all your disgusting things and with all your detestable things, I myself also am the One that will diminish you and my eye will not feel sorry and I myself also will not show compassion. 12 A third of you—by the pestilence they will die, and by famine they will come to their end in the midst of you. And another third—by the sword they will fall all around you. And the last third I shall scatter even to every wind, and a sword is what I shall draw out after them. 13 And my anger will certainly come to its finish and I will appease my rage on them and comfort myself; and they will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have spoken in my insistence on exclusive devotion, when I bring my rage to its finish upon them.

14 "'And I shall make you a devastated place and a reproach among the nations that are all around you before the eyes of every passerby. 15 And you must become a reproach and an object of reviling words, a warning example and a horror to the nations that are all around you, when I do in you acts of judgment in anger and in rage and in raging reproofs. I myself, Jehovah, have spoken.

16 "'When I send the injurious arrows of the famine upon them, which must prove to be for ruination, which arrows I shall send to bring YOU people to ruin, even famine I shall increase upon YOU people and I will break YOUR rods around which ring-shaped loaves are suspended. [17] And I will send upon YOU people famine and injurious wild beasts, and they must bereave you of children, and pestilence and blood themselves will pass along through you, and a sword I shall bring in upon you. I myself, Jehovah, have spoken.’”

6 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel and prophesy to them. [3] And you must say, ‘O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah: This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to the mountains and to the hills, to the streambeds and to the valleys: “Here I am! I am bringing upon YOU a sword, and I shall certainly destroy YOUR high places. [4] And YOUR altars must be made desolate and YOUR incense stands must be broken, and I will cause YOUR slain ones to fall before YOUR dungy idols. [5] And I will put the carcasses of the sons of Israel before their dungy idols, and I will scatter YOUR bones all around YOUR altars. [6] In all YOUR dwelling places the very cities will become devastated and the high places themselves will become desolated, in order that they may lie devastated and YOUR altars may lie desolated and be actually broken and YOUR dungy idols may be actually made to cease and YOUR incense stands cut down and YOUR works wiped out. [7] And the slain one will certainly fall in the midst of YOU, and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah.

[8] “‘ “And when it occurs I will let YOU have as a remnant the ones escaping from the sword among the nations, when YOU get scattered among the lands. [9] And YOUR escaped ones will certainly remember me among the nations to which they will have been taken captive, because I have been broken up at their fornicating heart that has turned aside from me and at their eyes that are going in fornication after their dungy idols; and they will certainly feel a loathing in their faces at the bad things that they have done in all their detestable things. [10] And they will have to know that I am Jehovah; not in vain did I speak about doing to them this calamitous thing.”’

[11] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Clap your hands and stamp with your foot, and say: “Alas!” on account of all the bad detestable things of the house of Israel, because by the sword, by the famine and by the pestilence they will fall. [12] As for the one far away, by the pestilence he will die; and as for the one that is nearby, by the sword he will fall; and as for the one that has been left remaining and that has been safeguarded, by the famine he will die, and I will bring to its finish my rage against them. [13] And YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah, when their slain ones come to be in the midst of their dungy idols, all around their altars, upon every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains and under every luxuriant tree and under every branchy big tree, the place where they have offered a restful odor to all their dungy idols. [14] And I will stretch out my hand against them and make the land a desolate waste, even a desolation worse than the wilderness toward Dib′lah, in all their dwelling places. And they will have to know that I am Jehovah.’”

7 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “And as for you, O son of man, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to the soil of Israel, ‘An end, the end, has come upon the four extremities of the land. [3] Now the end is upon you, and I must send my anger against you, and I will judge you according to your ways and bring upon you all your detestable things. [4] And my eye will not feel sorry for you, neither will I feel compassion, for upon you I shall bring your own ways, and in the midst of you your own detestable things will come to be; and YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah.’

[5] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘A calamity, a unique calamity, look! it is coming. [6] An end itself must come. The end must come; it must awaken for you. Look! It is coming. [7] The garland must come to you, O inhabiter of the land, the time must come, the day is near. There is confusion, and not the shouting of the mountains.

[8] “‘Now shortly I shall pour out my rage upon you, and I will bring my anger against you to its finish, and I will judge you according to your ways and bring upon you all your detestable things. [9] Neither will my eye feel sorry nor shall I feel compassion. According to your ways shall I do the bringing upon you yourself, and your own detestable things will come to be right in the midst of you; and YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah doing the smiting.

[10] “‘Look! The day! Look! It is coming. The garland has gone forth. The rod has blossomed. Presumptuousness has sprouted. [11] Violence itself has risen up into a rod of wickedness. It is not from them, nor is it from their wealth; and it is not from their own selves, nor is there any eminency in them. [12] The time must come, the day must arrive. As regards the buyer, let him not rejoice; and as regards the seller, let him not go into mourning, for there is hot feeling against all its crowd. [13] For to what was sold the seller himself will not return, while their life is yet among the living ones; for the vision is for all its crowd. No one will return, and they will not possess themselves each one of his own life by his own error.

[14] “‘They have blown the trumpet and there has been a preparing of everybody, but there is no one going to the battle, because my hot feeling is against all its crowd. [15] The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine are inside. Whoever is in the field, by the sword he will die, and whoever are in the city, famine and pestilence themselves will devour them. [16] And their escapees will certainly make their escape and become on the mountains like the doves of the valleys, all of which are moaning, each one in his own error. [17] As for all the hands, they keep dropping down; and as for all knees, they keep dripping with water. [18] And they have girded on sackcloth, and shuddering has covered them; and on all faces there is shame and on all their heads there is baldness.

[19] “‘Into the streets they will throw their very silver, and an abhorrent thing their own gold will become. Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah’s fury. Their souls they will not satisfy, and their intestines they will not fill, for it has become a stumbling block causing their error. [20] And the decoration of one’s ornament—one has set it as reason for pride; and their detestable images, their disgusting things, they have made with it. That is why I will make it to them an abhorrent thing. [21] And I will give it into the hand of the strangers for plunder and to the wicked ones of the earth for spoil, and they will certainly profane it.

[22] “‘And I shall have to turn away my face from them, and they will actually profane my concealed place, and into it robbers will really come and profane it.

[23] “‘Make the chain, for the land itself has become full of bloodstained judgment and the city itself has become full of violence. [24] And I will bring in the worst ones of the nations, and they will certainly take possession of their houses, and I will cause the pride of the strong ones to cease, and their sanctuaries must be profaned. [25] There will come anguish, and they will certainly seek peace but there will be none. [26] There will come adversity upon adversity, and there will occur report upon report, and people will actually seek a vision from a prophet, and the law itself will perish from a priest and counsel from elderly men. [27] The king himself will go into mourning; even a chieftain will clothe himself with desolation, and the very hands of the people of the land will get disturbed. According to their way I shall act toward them, and with their judgments I shall judge them; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.’”

8 And it came about in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, that I was sitting in my house and the older men of Judah were sitting before me, when the hand of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah fell upon me there. [2]
And I began to see, and, look! a likeness similar to the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his hips even downward there was fire, and from his hips even upward there was something like the appearance of a shining, like the glow of electrum. [3] Then he thrust out the representation of a hand and took me by a tuft of hair of my head, and a spirit carried me between the earth and the heavens and brought me to Jerusalem in the visions of God, to the entrance of the inner gate that is facing northward, where the dwelling place is of the symbol of jealousy that is inciting to jealousy. [4] And, look! the glory of the God of Israel was there, like the appearance that I had seen in the valley plain.

[5] And he proceeded to say to me: “Son of man, please, raise your eyes in the direction of the north.” So I raised my eyes in the direction of the north, and, look! to the north of the gate of the altar there was this symbol of jealousy in the entranceway. [6] And he went on to say to me: “Son of man, are you seeing what great detestable things they are doing, the things that the house of Israel are doing here for me to become far off from my sanctuary? And yet you will see again great detestable things.”

[7] Accordingly he brought me to the entrance of the courtyard, and I began to see, and, look! a certain hole in the wall. [8] He now said to me: “Son of man, bore, please, through the wall.” And I gradually bored through the wall, and, look! there was a certain entrance. [9] And he further said to me: “Go in and see the bad detestable things that they are doing here.” [10] So I went in and began to see, and, look! there was every representation of creeping things and loathsome beasts, and all the dungy idols of the house of Israel, the carving being upon the wall all round about. [11] And seventy men of the elderly ones of the house of Israel, with Ja·az·a·niʹah the son of Shaʹphan standing in among them, were standing before them, each one with his censer in his hand, and the perfume of the cloud of the incense was ascending. [12] And he proceeded to say to me: “Have you seen, O son of man, what the elderly ones of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness, each one in the inner rooms of his showpiece? For they are saying, ‘Jehovah is not seeing us. Jehovah has left the land.’”

[13] And he continued on to say to me: “You will yet see again great detestable things that they are doing.” [14] So he brought me to the entrance of the gate of the house of Jehovah, which is toward the north, and, look! there the women were sitting, weeping over the god Tamʹmuz.

[15] And he further said to me: “Have you seen this, O son of man? You will yet see again great detestable things worse than these.” [16] So he brought me to the inner courtyard of the house of Jehovah, and, look! at the entrance of the temple of Jehovah, between the porch and the altar, there were about twenty-five men with their backs to the temple of Jehovah and their faces to the east, and they were bowing down to the east, to the sun.

[17] And he went on to say to me: “Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it such a light thing to the house of Judah to do the detestable things that they have done here, that they have to fill the land with violence and that they should offend me again, and here they are thrusting out the shoot to my nose? [18] And I myself also shall act in rage. My eye will not feel sorry, neither shall I feel compassion. And they will certainly call out in my ears with a loud voice, but I shall not hear them.”

9 And he proceeded to call out in my ears with a loud voice, saying: “HAVE those giving their attention to the city come near, each one with his weapon in his hand for bringing ruin! ”

[2] And, look! there were six men coming from the direction of the upper gate that faces to the north, each one with his weapon for smashing in his hand; and there was one man in among them clothed with linen, with a secretary’s inkhorn at his hips, and they proceeded to come in and stand beside the copper altar.

[3] And as regards the glory of the God of Israel, it was taken up from over the cherubs over which it happened to be to the threshold of the house, and he began calling out to the man that was clothed with the linen, at whose hips there was the secretary’s inkhorn. [4] And Jehovah went on to say to him: “Pass through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and you must put a mark on the foreheads of the men that are sighing and groaning over all the detestable things that are being done in the midst of it.”

[5] And to these others he said in my ears: “Pass through the city after him and strike. Let not YOUR eye feel sorry, and do not feel any compassion. [6] Old man, young man and virgin and little child and women YOU should kill off—to a ruination. But to any man upon whom there is the mark do not go near, and from my sanctuary YOU should start.” So they started with the old men that were before the house. [7] And he said further to them: “Defile the house and fill the courtyards with the slain ones. Go forth! ” And they went forth and struck in the city.

8 And it came about that, while they were striking and I was left remaining, I proceeded to fall upon my face and cry out and say: “Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Are you bringing to ruin all the remaining ones of Israel while you are pouring out your rage upon Jerusalem?”

9 So he said to me: “The error of the house of Israel and Judah is very, very great, and the land is filled with bloodshed and the city is full of crookedness; for they have said, ‘Jehovah has left the land, and Jehovah is not seeing.’ 10 And as for me also, my eye will not feel sorry, neither shall I show compassion. Their way I shall certainly bring upon their own head.”

11 And, look! the man clothed with the linen, at whose hips there was the inkhorn, was bringing back word, saying: “I have done just as you have commanded me.”

10 And I continued to see, and, look! upon the expanse that was over the head of the cherubs there was something like sapphire stone, like the appearance of the likeness of a throne, appearing above them. [2] And he proceeded to say to the man clothed with the linen, even to say: “Enter in between the wheelwork, in under the cherubs, and fill the hollows of both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubs and toss them over the city.” So he entered in before my eyes.

[3] And the cherubs were standing to the right of the house when the man entered, and the cloud was filling the inner courtyard. [4] And the glory of Jehovah proceeded to rise up from the cherubs to the threshold of the house, and the house gradually became filled with the cloud, and the courtyard itself was full of the brightness of the glory of Jehovah. [5] And the very sound of the wings of the cherubs made itself heard to the outer courtyard, like the sound of God Almighty when he speaks.

[6] And it came about, when he commanded the man clothed with the linen, saying: “Take fire from between the wheelwork, from between the cherubs,” that he proceeded to enter and stand beside the wheel. [7] Then the cherub thrust his hand out from between the cherubs to the fire that was between the cherubs and carried and put it into the hollows of the hands of the one clothed with the linen, who now took it and went out. [8] And there was seen belonging to the cherubs the representation of a hand of earthling man under their wings.

[9] And I continued to see, and, look! there were four wheels beside the cherubs, one wheel beside the one cherub and one wheel beside the other cherub, and the appearance of the wheels was like the glow of a chrys′o·lite stone. [10] And as for their appearance, the four of them had one likeness, just as when a wheel proves to be in the midst of a wheel. [11] When they would go, to their four sides they would go. They would not change direction when they went, because the place to which the head would face, after it they would go. They would not change direction when they went. [12] And all their flesh and their backs and their hands and their wings and the wheels were full of eyes all around. The four of them had their wheels. [13] As regards the wheels, to them it was called out in my ears, “O wheelwork! ”

[14] And each one had four faces. The first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of earthling man, and the third was the face of a lion, and the fourth was the face of an eagle.

[15] And the cherubs would rise—it was the same living creature that I had seen at the river Che′bar— [16] and when the cherubs went, the wheels would go alongside them; and when the cherubs lifted up their wings to be high above the earth, the wheels would not change direction, even they themselves, from alongside them. [17] When these stood still, they would stand still; and when these rose, they would rise with them, for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

[18] And the glory of Jehovah proceeded to go forth from over the threshold of the house and to stand still over the cherubs. [19] And the cherubs now lifted up their wings and rose from the earth before my eyes. When they went forth, the wheels also were close alongside them; and they began standing at the eastern entrance of the gate of the house of Jehovah, and the glory of the God of Israel was over them, from above.

[20] This is the living creature that I had seen under the God of Israel at the river Cheʹbar, so that I came to know that they were cherubs. [21] As for the four, each one had four faces and each one had four wings, and the likeness of the hands of earthling man was under their wings. [22] And as for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces the appearance of which I had seen by the river Cheʹbar, the very ones. They would go each one straight forward.

11 And a spirit proceeded to lift me up and bring me to the eastern gate of the house of Jehovah that is facing eastward, and, look! in the entrance of the gate there were twenty-five men, and I got to see in the midst of them Ja·az·a·niʹah the son of Azʹzur and Pel·a·tiʹah the son of Be·naiʹah, princes of the people. [2] Then he said to me: “Son of man, these are the men that are scheming hurtfulness and advising bad counsel against this city; [3] that are saying, ‘Is not the building of houses close at hand? She is the widemouthed cooking pot, and we are the flesh.’

[4] “Therefore prophesy against them. Prophesy, O son of man.”

[5] Then the spirit of Jehovah fell upon me, and he went on to say to me: “Say, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “YOU people said the right thing, O house of Israel; and as regards the things that come up in YOUR spirit, I myself have known it. [6] YOU have caused YOUR slain ones in this city to be many, and YOU have filled her streets with the slain ones.”’” [7] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘As regards YOUR slain ones whom YOU people have put in the midst of her, they are the flesh, and she is the widemouthed cooking pot; and there will be a bringing forth of YOU yourselves out of the midst of her.’”

[8] “‘A sword YOU have feared, and a sword I shall bring upon YOU,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. [9] ‘And I shall certainly bring YOU forth out of the midst of her and give YOU into the hand of strangers and execute upon YOU acts of judgment. [10] By the sword YOU will fall. On the border of Israel I shall judge YOU people; and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah. [11] She herself will not prove to be for YOU a widemouthed cooking pot, and YOU yourselves will not prove to be flesh in the midst of her. On the border of Israel I shall judge YOU, [12] and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah, because in my regulations YOU did not walk and my judgments YOU did not do, but according to the judgments of the nations that are round about YOU, YOU have done.’”

[13] And it came about that as soon as I prophesied Pel·a·tiʹah the son of Be·naiʹah himself died, and I proceeded to fall upon my face and cry with a loud voice and say: “Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Is it an extermination that you are executing with the remaining ones of Israel?”

[14] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [15] “Son of man, as regards your brothers, your brothers, the men concerned with your right to repurchase, and all the house of Israel, all of it, are the ones to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, ‘Get far away from Jehovah. To us it belongs; the land has been given us as a thing to possess’; [16] therefore say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Although I have put them far away among the nations, and although I have scattered them among the lands, yet I shall become to them a sanctuary for a little while among the lands to which they have come.”’

[17] “Therefore say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “I will also collect YOU from the peoples and gather YOU from the lands among which YOU have been scattered, and I will give YOU the soil of Israel. [18] And they will certainly come there and remove all its disgusting things and all its detestable things out of it. [19] And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit I shall put inside them; and I shall certainly remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, [20] in order that they may walk in my own statutes and keep my own judicial decisions and actually carry them out; and they may really become my people and I myself may become their God.”’

[21] “‘“But as for those whose heart is walking in their disgusting things and their detestable things, upon their head I shall certainly bring their own way,” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.’”

[22] And the cherubs now lifted up their wings, and the wheels were close by them, and the glory of the God of Israel was over them, from above. [23] And the glory of Jehovah went ascending from over the midst of the city and began to stand over the mountain that is to the east of the city. [24] And a spirit itself lifted me up and finally brought me to Chal·de′a to the exiled people, in the vision by the spirit of God; and the vision that I had seen went ascending from upon me. [25] And I began to speak to the exiled people all the things of Jehovah that he had caused me to see.

12 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, in the midst of a rebellious house is where you are dwelling, that have eyes to see but they actually do not see, that have ears to hear but they actually do not hear, for they are a rebellious house. [3] As for you, O son of man, make up for yourself luggage for exile and go into exile in the daytime before their eyes, and you must go into exile from your place to another place before their eyes. Perhaps they will see, though they are a rebellious house. [4] And you must bring out your luggage like luggage for exile in the daytime before their eyes, and you yourself will go out in the evening before their eyes like those being brought forth for exile.

[5] “Before their eyes, bore your way through the wall, and you must do the bringing out through it. [6] Before their eyes you will do the carrying on the shoulder itself. During the darkness you will do the bringing out. You will cover your very face that you may not see the earth, because a portent is what I have made you to the house of Israel.”

[7] And I proceeded to do just the way that I had been commanded. My luggage I brought out, just like luggage for exile, in the daytime; and in the evening I bored my way through the wall by hand. During the darkness I did the bringing out. On my shoulder I did the carrying, before their eyes.

[8] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me in the morning, saying: [9] “Son of man, did not those of the house of Israel, the rebellious house, say to you, ‘What are you doing?’ [10] Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “As regards the chieftain, there is this pronouncement against Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are in the midst of them.”’

[11] “Say, ‘I am a portent for YOU. Just as I have done, that is the way it will be done to them. Into exile, into captivity they will go. [12] And as regards the chieftain who is in the midst of them, on the shoulder he will do carrying in the darkness and go out; through the wall they will bore in order to do the bringing forth through it. His face he will cover in order that he may not see with his own eye the earth.’ [13] And I shall certainly spread my net over him, and he must be caught in my hunting net; and I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chal·de′ans, but it he will not see; and there he will die. [14] And all who are round about him as a help, and all his military bands, I shall scatter to every wind; and a sword I shall draw out after them. [15] And they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I disperse them among the nations and I actually scatter them among the lands. [16] And I will leave remaining from them a few men from the sword, from the famine and from the pestilence, in order that they may recount all their detestable things among the nations to whom they must come in; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.”

[17] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [18] “Son of man, with quaking your bread you should eat, and with agitation and with anxious care your water you should drink. [19] And you must say to the people of the land, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to the inhabitants of Jerusalem upon the soil of Israel: “With anxious care their bread they will eat, and with horror their water they will drink, in order that its land may be laid desolate of its fullness because of the violence of all those dwelling in it. [20] And the inhabited cities themselves will be devastated, and the land itself will become a mere desolate waste; and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah.”’”

[21] And the word of Jehovah occurred further to me, saying: [22] “Son of man, what is this proverbial saying that YOU people have on the soil of Israel, saying, ‘The days are prolonged, and every vision has perished’? [23] Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “I shall certainly cause this proverbial saying to cease, and they will no more say it as a proverb in Israel.”’ But speak to them, ‘The days have drawn near, and the matter of every vision.’ [24] For there will no more prove to be any valueless vision nor double-faced divination in the midst of the house of Israel. [25] ‘“For I myself, Jehovah, shall speak what word I shall speak, and it will be done. There will be no postponement anymore, for in YOUR days, O rebellious house, I shall speak a word and certainly do it,” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.’”

[26] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [27] “Son of man, look! those of the house of Israel are saying, ‘The vision that he is visioning is many days off, and respecting times far off he is prophesying.’ [28] Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “‘There will be no postponement anymore as to any words of mine. What word I shall speak, it will even be done,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”’”

13 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, prophesy concerning the prophets of Israel who are prophesying, and you must say to those prophesying out of their own heart, ‘Hear the word of Jehovah. [3] This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Woe to the stupid prophets, who are walking after their own spirit, when there is nothing that they have seen! [4] Like foxes in the devastated places are what your own prophets have become, O Israel. [5] YOU men will certainly not go up into the gaps, neither will YOU build up a stone wall in behalf of the house of Israel, in order to stand in the battle in the day of Jehovah.” [6] “They have visioned what is untrue and a lying divination, those who are saying, ‘The utterance of Jehovah is,’ when Jehovah himself has not sent them, and they have waited to have a word come true. [7] Is it not an untrue vision that YOU men have visioned, and a lying divination that YOU have said, when saying, ‘The utterance of Jehovah is,’ when I myself have spoken nothing?”’

[8] “‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “‘For the reason that YOU men have spoken untruth and YOU have visioned a lie, therefore here I am against YOU,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.” [9] And my hand has come to be against the prophets that are visioning untruth and that are divining a lie. In the intimate group of my people they will not continue on, and in the register of the house of Israel they will not be written, and to the soil of Israel they will not come; and YOU people will have to know that I am the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, [10] for the reason, yes, for the reason that they have led my people astray, saying, “There is peace!” when there is no peace, and there is one that is building a partition wall, but in vain there are those plastering it with whitewash.’

[11] “Say to those plastering with whitewash that it will fall. A flooding downpour will certainly occur, and YOU, O hailstones, will fall, and a blast of windstorms itself will cause a splitting. [12] And, look! the wall must fall. Will it not be said to YOU men, ‘Where is the coating with which YOU did the plastering?’

[13] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘I will also cause a blast of windstorms to burst forth in my rage, and in my anger there will occur a flooding downpour, and in rage there will be hailstones for an extermination. [14] And I will tear down the wall that YOU men have plastered with whitewash and bring it into contact with the earth, and its foundation must be exposed. And she will certainly fall, and YOU must come to an end in the midst of her; and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah.’

[15] “‘And I will bring my rage to its finish upon the wall and upon those plastering it with whitewash, and I shall say to YOU men: “The wall is no more, and those plastering it are no more, [16] the prophets of Israel that are prophesying to Jerusalem and that are visioning for her a vision of peace, when there is no peace,”’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

[17] “And as for you, O son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who are acting as prophetesses out of their own heart, and prophesy against them. [18] And you must say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Woe to the women sewing bands together upon all elbows and making veils upon the head of every size in order to hunt souls! Are the souls that YOU women hunt down the ones belonging to my people, and the souls belonging to YOU the ones that YOU preserve alive? [19] And will YOU profane me toward my people for the handfuls of barley and for the morsels of bread, in order to put to death the souls that ought not to die and in order to preserve alive the souls that ought not to live by YOUR lie to my people, the hearers of a lie?”’

[20] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am against the bands of YOU women, with which YOU are hunting down the souls as though they were flying things, and I will rip them from off YOUR arms and let go the souls that YOU are hunting down, souls as though they were flying things. [21] And I will rip away YOUR veils and deliver my people out of YOUR hand, and they will no more prove to be in YOUR hand something caught in the hunt; and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah. [22] By reason of dejecting the heart of a righteous one with falsehood, when I myself had not caused him pain, and for making the hands of a wicked one strong so that he would not turn back from his bad way in order to preserve him alive, [23] therefore untruth YOU women will not keep on visioning, and divination YOU will divine no longer; and I will deliver my people out of YOUR hand, and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah.’”

14 And men from the elderly ones of Israel proceeded to come to me and sit down before me. [2] Then the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: [3] “Son of man, as regards these men, they have brought up their dungy idols upon their heart, and the stumbling block causing their error they have put in front of their faces. Shall I be inquired of at all by them? [4] Therefore speak with them and you must say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Any man at all of the house of Israel that brings up his dungy idols upon his heart and that places the very stumbling block causing his error in front of his face and that actually comes to the prophet, I, Jehovah, I will let myself be brought to answer him in the matter according to the multitude of his dungy idols, [5] for the purpose of catching the house of Israel by their heart, because they have withdrawn themselves from me through their dungy idols—all of them.”’

[6] “Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Come back and turn yourselves back from YOUR dungy idols and turn YOUR faces back even from all YOUR detestable things; [7] for any man at all from the house of Israel or from the alien residents that reside as aliens in Israel, that withdraws himself from following me and that brings up his dungy idols upon his heart and that sets the very stumbling block causing his error in front of his face and that actually comes to the prophet to make inquiry for himself by me, I, Jehovah, I am letting myself be brought to answer him by myself. [8] And I must set my face against that man and place him for a sign and for proverbial sayings, and I must cut him off from the midst of my people; and YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah.”’

[9] “‘And as for the prophet, in case he gets fooled and actually speaks a word, I myself, Jehovah, have fooled that prophet; and I will stretch out my hand against him and annihilate him from the midst of my people Israel. [10] And they will have to bear their error. The error of the inquirer will prove to be just the same as the error of the prophet, [11] in order that those of the house of Israel may no more go wandering off from following me and may no more go defiling themselves with all their transgressions. And they must become my people and I myself shall become their God,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

[12] And the word of Jehovah continued to come to me, saying: [13] “Son of man, as regards a land, in case it commits sin against me in acting unfaithfully, I will also stretch out my hand against it and break for it the rods around which ring-shaped loaves are suspended, and I will send upon it famine and cut off from it earthling man and domestic animal.” [14] “‘And had these three men proved to be in the midst of it, Noah, Daniel and Job, they themselves because of their righteousness would deliver their soul,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

[15] “‘Or if I should make injurious wild beasts pass through the land and they actually bereaved it of children and it actually became a desolate waste without anybody passing through on account of the wild beasts, [16] were these three men in the midst of it, as I am alive,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘neither sons nor daughters would they deliver; they, only they themselves, would be delivered and the land itself would become a desolate waste.’”

[17] “‘Or were it a sword that I should bring upon that land, and should I actually say: “Let a sword itself pass through the land,” and should I actually cut off from it earthling man and domestic animal, [18] even were these three men in the midst of it, as I am alive,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they, only they themselves, would be delivered.’”

[19] “‘Or were it pestilence that I should send upon that land and should I actually pour out my rage upon it with blood, in order to cut off from it earthling man and domestic animal, [20] even were Noah, Daniel and Job in the midst of it, as I am alive,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘neither son nor daughter would they deliver; they themselves because of their righteousness would deliver their soul.’”

[21] “For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘So, too, it will be when there will be my four injurious acts of judgment—sword and famine and injurious wild beast and pestilence—that I shall actually send upon Jerusalem in order to cut off from it earthling man and domestic animal. [22] But, look! there will certainly be left remaining in it an escaped company, those being brought forth. Sons and daughters, here they are! They are going forth to YOU people, and YOU will have to see their way and their dealings. And YOU will certainly be comforted over the calamity that I shall have brought upon Jerusalem, even all that I shall have brought upon her.’”

[23] “‘And they will certainly comfort YOU people when YOU see their way and their dealings; and YOU will have to know that it was not without cause that I shall have done all that I must do against her,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

15 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, in what way does the vine tree happen to be different from every other tree, the shoot, that has come to be among the trees of the forest? [3] Is there taken from it a pole with which to do some work? Or do people take from it a peg on which to hang any kind of utensil? [4] Look! Into the fire is where it must be put for fuel. Both ends of it the fire certainly devours, and the very middle of it does get scorched. Is it fit for any work? [5] Look! When it happens to be intact, it is not used for any work. How much less so, when fire itself has devoured it and it gets scorched, can it actually be used for any further work!”

[6] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Just like the vine tree among the trees of the forest, that I have given to the fire as fuel, so I have given the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [7] And I have set my face against them. Out of the fire they have gone forth, but the fire itself will devour them. And YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah, when I direct my face against them.’”

[8] “‘And I will make the land a desolate waste, for the reason that they have acted unfaithfully,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

16 And the word of Jehovah came further to me, saying: [2]
“Son of man, make known to Jerusalem her detestable things. [3] And you must say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to Jerusalem: “Your origin and your birth were from the land of the Caʹnaan·ite. Your father was the Amʹor·ite, and your mother was a Hitʹtite. [4] And as regards your birth, on the day of your being born your navel string had not been cut, and in water you had not been washed for cleansing, and with salt you had not at all been rubbed, and by no means had you been swaddled. [5] No eye felt sorry for you to do for you one of these things in compassion upon you, but you were thrown upon the surface of the field because there was an abhorring of your soul in the day of your being born.

[6] “‘“And I came passing along by you and got to see you kicking about in your blood, and I proceeded to say to you in your blood, ‘Keep living!’ yes, to say to you in your blood, ‘Keep living!’ [7] A very big multitude like the sprouting of the field is what I made you so that you would grow big and become great and come in with the finest ornament. The two breasts themselves were firmly developed, and your own hair grew luxuriantly, when you had been naked and nude.”’

[8] “‘And I came passing along by you and got to see you, and, look! your time was the time for love’s expressions. So I proceeded to spread my skirt over you and to cover your nudeness and to make a sworn statement to you and enter into a covenant with you,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘and so you became mine. [9] Furthermore, I washed you with water and rinsed away your blood from off you and greased you with oil. [10] And I went on to clothe you with an embroidered garment and to shoe you with sealskin and to wrap you in fine linen and to cover you with costly material. [11] And I went on to deck you with ornaments and to put bracelets upon your hands and a necklace about your throat. [12] Furthermore, I put a nose ring in your nostril and earrings on your ears and a beautiful crown on your head. [13] And you kept decking yourself with gold and silver, and your attire was fine linen and costly material and an embroidered garment. Fine flour and honey and oil were what you ate, and you grew to be very, very pretty, and gradually you became fit for royal position.'"

[14] "'And for you a name began to go forth among the nations because of your prettiness, for it was perfect because of my splendor that I placed upon you,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

[15] "'But you began to trust in your prettiness and become a prostitute on account of your name and to pour out your acts of prostitution on every passerby; his it came to be. [16] And you proceeded to take some of your garments and make for yourself high places of varied colors and you would prostitute yourself on them—such things are not coming in, and it should not happen. [17] And you would take your beautiful articles from my gold and from my silver that I had given to you and you would make for yourself images of a male and prostitute yourself with them. [18] And you would take your embroidered garments and cover them; and my oil and my incense you would actually put before them. [19] And my bread that I had given to you—fine flour and oil and honey that I had had you eat—you also actually put it before them as a restful odor, and it continued to occur,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

[20] "'And you would take your sons and your daughters whom you had borne to me, and you would sacrifice these to them to be devoured—is that not enough of your acts of prostitution? [21] And you would slaughter my sons, and by making them pass through the fire you would give these to them. [22] And in all your detestable things and your acts of prostitution you did not remember the days of your youth when you happened to be naked and nude; kicking about in your blood you happened to be. [23] So it came about after all your badness (“woe, woe to you,” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah) [24] that you went building for yourself a mound and making for yourself a height in every public square. [25] At every head of the way you built your height and you began to make your prettiness something detestable and sprawl out your feet to every passerby and multiply your acts of prostitution. [26] And you went prostituting yourself to the sons of Egypt, your neighbors great of flesh, and you continued making your prostitution abound in order to offend me. [27] And, look! I shall certainly stretch out my hand against you and I shall diminish your allowance and give you to the soulful desire of the women hating you, the daughters of the Phi·lis′tines, the women humiliated on account of your way as regards loose conduct.

[28] “‘And you went on to prostitute yourself to the sons of As·syr′i·a because there was no satisfying of you, and you kept prostituting yourself with them and also did not get satisfaction. [29] So you kept making your prostitution abound toward the land of Ca′naan, toward the Chal·de′ans; and even in this you did not get satisfaction. [30] O how I am filled up with rage against you,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘by your doing all these things, the work of a woman, a domineering prostitute! [31] When you built your mound at the head of every way and you made your own height in every public square, yet you became unlike a prostitute in disdaining hire. [32] In the case of the wife that commits adultery, she takes strangers instead of her own husband. [33] To all prostitutes they are accustomed to give a present, but you—you have given your presents to all those passionately loving you, and you offer a bribe to them to come in to you from all around in your acts of prostitution. [34] And in your case the opposite thing takes place from that of other women in your acts of prostitution, and after your style no prostitution has been committed, even in your giving hire when no hire has been given to you, and so it occurs in the opposite way.’

[35] “Therefore, O prostitute, hear the word of Jehovah. [36] This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘For the reason that your lustfulness has been poured out and your private parts are uncovered in your acts of prostitution toward those passionately loving you and toward all your detestable dungy idols, even with the blood of your sons whom you gave to them, [37] therefore here I am collecting together all those passionately loving you toward whom you were pleasurable and all those whom you loved along with all those whom you hated, and I will collect them together against you from all around and uncover your private parts to them, and they must see all your private parts.

[38] “‘And I will judge you with the judgments of adulteresses and women shedding blood, and I will give you the blood of rage and jealousy. [39] And I will give you into their hand, and they will certainly tear down your mound and your heights will certainly be pulled down, and they must strip you of your garments and take your beautiful articles and leave you behind naked and nude. [40] And they must bring up against you a congregation and pelt you with stones and slaughter you with their swords. [41] And they must burn your houses with fire and execute in you acts of judgment before the eyes of many women; and I will cause you to cease from being a prostitute, and also no more hire will you give. [42] And I will bring my rage to its rest in you, and my jealousy must turn away from you; and I will stay quiet and I shall no more feel offended.’

43 “‘For the reason that you did not remember the days of your youth and you would cause me agitation because of all these things, even here I also, for my part, will put your own way upon your very head,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘and you will certainly not carry on any loose conduct alongside all your detestable things.

44 “‘Look! Everyone using a proverb against you will use the proverb, saying: “Like mother is her daughter!” 45 You are the daughter of your mother, one abhorring her husband and her sons. And you are the sister of your sisters, who abhorred their husbands and their sons. The mother of YOU women was a Hit′tite, and YOUR father was an Am′or·ite.’”

46 “‘And your older sister is Sa·mar′i·a herself with her dependent towns, who is dwelling on your left, and your sister younger than you, who is dwelling on your right, is Sod′om with her dependent towns. 47 And it was not in their ways that you walked, nor according to their detestable things that you did. In a very little while you even began to act more ruinously than they did in all your ways. 48 As I am alive,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘Sod′om your sister, she with her dependent towns, has not done according to what you did, you and your dependent towns. 49 Look! This is what proved to be the error of Sod′om your sister: Pride, sufficiency of bread and the carefreeness of keeping undisturbed were what happened to belong to her and her dependent towns, and the hand of the afflicted one and the poor one she did not strengthen. 50 And they continued to be haughty and to carry on a detestable thing before me, and I finally removed them, just as I saw fit.

[51] “‘And as for Sa·mar′i·a, she has not sinned even up to half of your sins, but you kept making your detestable things abound more than they did, so that you made your sisters appear righteous because of all your detestable things that you carried on. [52] You also, bear your humiliation when you must argue in favor of your sisters. Because of your sins in which you acted more detestably than they did, they are more righteous than you. And you also, be ashamed and bear your humiliation in that you make your sisters appear righteous.’

[53] “‘And I will gather their captive ones, the captive ones of Sod′om and of her dependent towns, and the captive ones of Sa·mar′i·a and of her dependent towns; I will also gather your captive ones in the midst of them, [54] in order that you may bear your humiliation; and you must feel humiliated owing to all that you have done, in that you comforted them. [55] And your own sisters, Sod′om and her dependent towns, will return to their former state, and Sa·mar′i·a and her dependent towns will return to their former state, and you yourself and your own dependent towns will return to YOUR former state. [56] And Sod′om your sister did not prove to be anything worth hearing about from your mouth in the day of your pride, [57] before your own badness got to be exposed, just as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria and of all round about her, the daughters of the Phi·lis′tines, those treating you with scorn on all sides. [58] Your loose conduct and your detestable things, you yourself must bear them,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

[59] “For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘I also must do with you just as you have done, because you despised the oath in breaking my covenant. [60] And I, I myself, must remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I must establish for you an indefinitely lasting covenant. 61 And you will certainly remember your ways and feel humiliated when you receive your sisters, the ones older than you as well as the ones younger than you, and I shall certainly give them to you as daughters, but not owing to your covenant.’

62 “‘And I, I myself, will establish my covenant with you; and you will have to know that I am Jehovah, 63 in order that you may remember and actually be ashamed and you may no more come to have any reason to open your mouth because of your humiliation, when I make an atonement for you for all that you have done,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

17 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, propound a riddle and compose a proverbial saying toward the house of Israel. [3] And you must say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “The great eagle, having great wings, with long pinions, full of plumage, which had color variety, came to Leb′a·non and proceeded to take the treetop of the cedar. [4] He plucked off the very top of its young shoots and came bringing it to the land of Ca′naan; in a city of traders he placed it. [5]
Furthermore, he took some of the seed of the land and put it in a field for seed. As a willow by vast waters, as a willow tree he placed it. [6] And it began to sprout and gradually became a luxuriantly growing vine low in height, inclined to turn its foliage inward; and as for its roots, they gradually came to be under it. And it finally became a vine and produced shoots and sent forth branches.

[7] “‘“And there came to be another great eagle, having great wings, and having large pinions, and, look! this very vine stretched its roots hungrily toward him. And its foliage it thrust out to him in order for him to irrigate it, away from the garden beds where it was planted. [8] Into a good field, by vast waters, it was already transplanted, in order to produce boughs and to bear fruit, to become a majestic vine.”’

[9] “Say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said:
“Will it have success? Will not someone tear out its very roots and make its very fruit scaly? And must not all its freshly plucked sprouts become dry? It will become dry.
Neither by a great arm nor by a multitudinous people will it have to be lifted up from its roots. [10] And, look! although transplanted, will it have success? Will it not dry up completely, even as when the east wind touches it? In the garden beds of its sprout it will dry up.”’”

11 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 12 “Say, please, to the rebellious house, ‘Do YOU people actually not know what these things mean?’ Say, ‘Look! The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and proceeded to take its king and its princes and bring them to himself at Babylon. 13 Furthermore, he took one of the royal seed and concluded a covenant with him and brought him into an oath; and the foremost men of the land he took away, 14 in order that the kingdom might become low, unable to lift itself up, that by keeping his covenant it might stand. 15 But he finally rebelled against him in sending his messengers to Egypt, for it to give him horses and a multitudinous people. Will he have success? Will he escape, he who is doing these things, and who has broken a covenant? And will he actually escape?’

16 “‘“As I am alive,” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, “in the place of the king who put in as king the one that despised his oath and that broke his covenant, with him in the midst of Babylon he will die. 17 And by a great military force and by a multitudinous congregation Phar′aoh will not make him effective in the war, by throwing up a siege rampart and by building a siege wall, in order to cut off many souls. 18 And he has despised an oath in breaking a covenant, and, look! he had given his hand and has done even all these things. He will not make his escape.”’

19 “‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “As I am alive, surely my oath that he has despised and my covenant that he has broken—I will even bring it upon his head. 20 And I will spread over him my net, and he will certainly be caught in my hunting net; and I will bring him to Babylon and put myself on judgment with him there respecting his unfaithfulness with which he acted against me. [21] And as regards all the fugitives of his in all his bands, by the sword they will fall, and the ones left remaining will be spread abroad even to every wind. And YOU people will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have spoken it.”’

[22] “‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “I myself will also take and put some of the lofty treetop of the cedar; from the top of its twigs I shall pluck off a tender one and I will myself transplant it upon a high and lofty mountain. [23] On the mountain of the height of Israel I shall transplant it, and it will certainly bear boughs and produce fruit and become a majestic cedar. And under it there will actually reside all the birds of every wing; in the shadow of its foliage they will reside. [24] And all the trees of the field will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have abased the high tree, have put on high the low tree, have dried up the still-moist tree and have made the dry tree blossom. I myself, Jehovah, have spoken and have done it.”’”

18 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “What does it mean to YOU people that YOU are expressing this proverbial saying on the soil of Israel, saying, ‘Fathers are the ones that eat unripe grapes, but it is the teeth of the sons that get set on edge’?

[3] “‘As I am alive,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘it will no more continue to be YOURS to express this proverbial saying in Israel. [4] Look! All the souls—to me they belong. As the soul of the father so likewise the soul of the son—to me they belong. The soul that is sinning—it itself will die.

[5] “‘And as regards a man, in case he happens to be righteous and he has executed justice and righteousness; [6] on the mountains he did not eat and his eyes he did not raise to the dungy idols of the house of Israel, and his companion’s wife he did not defile and to a woman in her impurity he would not go near; [7] and no man would he maltreat; the pledge that he took for indebtedness, he would return; nothing would he wrest away in robbery; to the hungry one he would give his own bread and the naked one he would cover with a garment; [8] nothing would he give on interest and no usury would he take; from injustice he would draw back his hand; true justice he would execute between man and man; [9] in my statutes he kept walking and my judicial decisions he kept in order to execute truth, he is righteous. He will positively keep living,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

[10] “‘And if one has become father to a son who is a robber, a shedder of blood, who has done the like of one of these things [11] (but he himself has done none of these very things); in case he has eaten also upon the mountains, and his companion’s wife he has defiled; [12] the afflicted and poor one he has maltreated; things he has wrested away in robbery, a pledged thing he would not return; and to the dungy idols he lifted up his eyes, a detestable thing is what he has done. [13] On usury he has given, and interest he has taken, and he positively will not keep living. All these detestable things he has done. He will positively be put to death. On him his own blood will come to be.

[14] “‘And, look! one has become father to a son, who keeps seeing all the sins of his father that he has done, and he sees and does not do things like them. [15] On the mountains he has not eaten, and his eyes he has not lifted up to the dungy idols of the house of Israel; his companion’s wife he has not defiled; [16] and no man has he maltreated, no pledge has he seized, and nothing has he taken in robbery; to the hungry one he has given his own bread, and the naked one he has covered with a garment; [17] from the afflicted one he has drawn back his hand; no usury and interest has he taken; my judicial decisions he has carried out; in my statutes he has walked; he himself will not die because of the error of his father. He will positively keep living. [18] As for his father, because he committed outright defrauding, wrested something away in robbery of a brother, and whatever is not good he has done in the midst of his peoples, look! then he must die for his error.

[19] “‘And YOU people will certainly say: “Why is it that the son does not have to bear anything because of the error of the father?” Now as regards the son, justice and righteousness he has executed, all the statutes of mine he has kept and he keeps doing them. He will positively keep living. [20] The soul that is sinning—it itself will die. A son himself will bear nothing because of the error of the father, and a father himself will bear nothing because of the error of the son. Upon his own self the very righteousness of the righteous one will come to be, and upon his own self the very wickedness of a wicked one will come to be.

21 "'Now as regards someone wicked, in case he should turn back from all his sins that he has committed and he should actually keep all my statutes and execute justice and righteousness, he will positively keep living. He will not die. 22 All his transgressions that he has committed—they will not be remembered against him. For his righteousness that he has done he will keep living.'

23 "'Do I take any delight at all in the death of someone wicked,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'and not in that he should turn back from his ways and actually keep living?'

24 "'Now when someone righteous turns back from his righteousness and actually does injustice; according to all the detestable things that the wicked one has done he keeps doing and he is living, none of all his righteous acts that he has done will be remembered. For his unfaithfulness that he has committed and for his sin with which he has sinned, for them he will die.

25 "'And YOU people will certainly say: "The way of Jehovah is not adjusted right." Hear, please, O house of Israel. Is not my own way adjusted right? Are not the ways of YOU people not adjusted right?

26 "'When someone righteous turns back from his righteousness and he actually does injustice and dies on account of them, for his injustice that he has done he will die.

27 "'And when someone wicked turns back from his wickedness that he has committed and proceeds to execute justice and righteousness, he is the one that will preserve his own soul alive. [28] When he sees and he turns back from all his transgressions that he has done, he will positively keep living. He will not die.

[29] “‘And the house of Israel will certainly say: “The way of Jehovah is not adjusted right.” As for my ways, are they not adjusted right, O house of Israel? Are not the ways of YOU people the ones that are not adjusted right?’

[30] “‘Therefore each one according to his ways is how I shall judge YOU, O house of Israel,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. ‘Turn back, yes, cause a turning back from all YOUR transgressions, and let nothing prove to be for YOU people a stumbling block causing error. [31] Throw off from yourselves all YOUR transgressions in which YOU have transgressed and make for yourselves a new heart and a new spirit, for why should YOU die, O house of Israel?’

[32] “‘For I do not take any delight in the death of someone dying,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. ‘So cause a turning back and keep living, O YOU people.’”

19 “And as for you, raise a dirge concerning the chieftains of Israel, [2] and you must say, ‘What was your mother? A lioness among lions. She lay down in among maned young lions. She reared her cubs.

[3] “‘And gradually she brought up one of her cubs. A maned young lion is what he became, and he began to learn how to tear apart prey. He devoured even earthling man. [4] And nations kept hearing about him. In their pit he was caught, and they proceeded to bring him by means of hooks to the land of Egypt.

[5] “‘When she got to see that she had waited and her hope had perished, then she took another of her cubs. As a maned young lion she put him forth. [6] And he began to walk about in the midst of lions. A maned young lion is what he became. And he gradually learned how to tear apart prey. He devoured even earthling man. [7] And he got to know his dwelling towers, and he devastated even their cities, so that the land was laid desolate and he filled it with the sound of his roaring. [8] And nations all around from the jurisdictional districts began to set against him and got to spread over him their net. In their pit he was caught. [9] Finally they put him in the cage by means of hooks and brought him to the king of Babylon. They got to bring him by means of hunting nets, in order that his voice might no more be heard on the mountains of Israel.

[10] “‘Your mother was like a vine in your blood, planted by waters. A bearer of fruit and full of branches she became because of abundant water. [11] And they came to be for her strong rods, meant for the scepters of rulers. And its height gradually became tall up among branches, and it got to be visible because of its tallness, because of the abundance of its foliage. [12] But she was finally uprooted in fury. To the earth she was thrown, and there was an east wind that dried up her fruit. Her strong rod was torn off and became dry. Fire itself devoured it. [13] And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a waterless and thirsty land. [14] And fire proceeded to come forth from her rod. It devoured her very shoots, her very fruit, and there proved to be in her no strong rod, no scepter for ruling.

"'That is a dirge, and it will become a dirge.'"

20 Now it came about in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, that men from the elderly ones of Israel came in to inquire of Jehovah, and they proceeded to sit down before me. [2] Then the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: [3] “Son of man, speak with the elderly men of Israel, and you must say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Is it in order to inquire of me that YOU men are coming? ‘As I am alive, I will not be inquired of by YOU,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”’

[4] “Will you judge them? Will you judge them, O son of man? Cause them to know the detestable things of their forefathers. [5] And you must say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “In the day of my choosing Israel, I also proceeded to lift up my hand in an oath to the seed of the house of Jacob and to make myself known to them in the land of Egypt. Yes, I proceeded to lift up my hand in an oath to them, saying, ‘I am Jehovah YOUR God.’ [6] In that day I lifted up my hand in an oath to them to bring them forth from the land of Egypt to a land that I had spied out for them, one flowing with milk and honey. It was the decoration of all the lands. [7] And I went on to say to them, ‘Throw away, each one of YOU, the disgusting things of his eyes, and with the dungy idols of Egypt do not defile yourselves. I am Jehovah YOUR God.’

[8] “‘ “And they began to rebel against me, and they did not consent to listen to me. The disgusting things of their eyes they did not individually throw away, and the dungy idols of Egypt they did not leave, so that I promised to pour out my rage upon them, in order to bring my anger to its finish upon them in the midst of the land of Egypt. [9] And I went acting for the sake of my own name that it might not be profaned before the eyes of the nations in among whom they were, because I had made myself known to them before their eyes on bringing them forth from the land of Egypt. [10] So I brought them forth from the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.

[11] "' "And I proceeded to give them my statutes; and my judicial decisions I made known to them, in order that the man who keeps doing them might also keep living by them. [12] And my sabbaths I also gave to them, to become a sign between me and them, in order for them to know that I am Jehovah who is sanctifying them.

[13] "' "But they, the house of Israel, rebelled against me in the wilderness. In my statutes they did not walk, and my judicial decisions they rejected, which, should the man keep doing, he will also keep living by them. And my sabbaths they profaned very much, so that I promised to pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, in order to exterminate them. [14] But I acted for the sake of my own name that it might not be profaned before the eyes of the nations, before whose eyes I had brought them forth. [15] And I myself also lifted up my hand in an oath to them in the wilderness, not to bring them into the land that I had given, one flowing with milk and honey, (it is the decoration of all the lands,) [16] for the reason that they rejected my own judicial decisions; and as regards my statutes, they did not walk in them, and my sabbaths they profaned, because it was after their dungy idols that their heart was going.

[17] "' "And my eye began to feel sorry for them to keep me from bringing them to ruin, and I did not make an extermination of them in the wilderness. [18] And I proceeded to say to their sons in the wilderness, 'In the regulations of YOUR forefathers do not YOU walk, and their judgments do not YOU keep, and with their dungy idols do not YOU defile yourselves. [19] I am Jehovah YOUR God. Walk in my own statutes, and keep my own judicial decisions and do them. [20] And sanctify my own sabbaths, and they must serve as a sign between me and YOU, for YOU to know that I am Jehovah YOUR God.’

[21] “‘“And the sons began to rebel against me. In my statutes they did not walk, and my judicial decisions they did not keep by doing them, which, should the man keep doing, he will also keep living by them. My sabbaths they profaned. So I promised to pour out my rage upon them, in order to bring my anger to its finish upon them in the wilderness. [22] And I drew back my hand and went acting for the sake of my own name, that it should not be profaned before the eyes of the nations, before whose eyes I had brought them out. [23] Also, I myself lifted up my hand in an oath to them in the wilderness, to scatter them among the nations and to disperse them among the lands, [24] for the reason that they did not carry out my own judicial decisions and they rejected my own statutes and they profaned my own sabbaths, and it was after the dungy idols of their forefathers that their eyes proved to be. [25] And I myself also let them have regulations that were not good and judicial decisions by which they could not keep living. [26] And I would let them become defiled by their gifts when they made every child opening the womb pass through the fire, in order that I might make them desolate, in order that they might know that I am Jehovah.”’

[27] “Therefore speak to the house of Israel, O son of man, and you must say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Yet in this respect, YOUR forefathers spoke abusively of me, in their acting against me with unfaithfulness. [28] And I proceeded to bring them into the land that I had lifted up my hand in an oath to give them. When they got to see every exalted hill and every branchy tree, then they began sacrificing there their sacrifices and giving there their offensive offering, and presenting there their restful odors and pouring out there their drink offerings. [29] So I said to them, ‘What does the high place mean to which YOU are coming, that its name should be called a High Place down to this day?’”’

[30] “Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “In the way of YOUR forefathers are YOU people defiling yourselves, and after their disgusting things are YOU going in immoral intercourse? [31] And in lifting up YOUR gifts by making YOUR sons pass through the fire, are YOU defiling yourselves for all YOUR dungy idols down till today? At the same time shall I myself be inquired of by YOU people, O house of Israel?”’

“‘As I am alive,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘I will not be inquired of by YOU. [32] And that which is coming up into YOUR spirit will itself positively not happen, in that YOU are saying: “Let us become like the nations, like the families of the lands, in ministering to wood and stone.”’”

[33] “‘As I am alive,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘it will be with a strong hand and with a stretched-out arm and with outpoured rage that I will rule as king over YOU people. [34] And I will bring YOU forth from the peoples, and I will collect YOU together out of the lands to which YOU have been scattered with a strong hand and with a stretched-out arm and with outpoured rage. [35] And I will bring YOU into the wilderness of the peoples and put myself on judgment with YOU there face to face.

[36] “‘Just as I put myself on judgment with YOUR forefathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I shall put myself on judgment with YOU,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. [37] ‘And I will make YOU pass under the rod and bring YOU into the bond of the covenant. [38] And I will clean out from YOU the revolters and the transgressors against me, for out of the land of their alien residence I shall bring them forth, but onto the soil of Israel they will not come; and YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah.’

[39] “And YOU, O house of Israel, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Go serve each one of YOU his own dungy idols. And afterward if YOU are not listening to me, then my holy name YOU will no more profane by YOUR gifts and by YOUR dungy idols.’

[40] “‘For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘there is where they, the whole house of Israel in its entirety, will serve me, in the land. There I shall take pleasure in them, and there I shall require YOUR contributions and the firstfruits of YOUR presentations in all YOUR holy things. [41] Because of the restful odor I shall take pleasure in YOU, when I bring YOU forth from the peoples and I actually collect YOU together from the lands to which YOU have been scattered, and I will be sanctified in YOU before the eyes of the nations.’

[42] “‘And YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah, when I bring YOU onto the soil of Israel, into the land that I lifted up my hand in an oath to give to YOUR forefathers. [43] And YOU will certainly remember there YOUR ways and all YOUR dealings by which YOU defiled yourselves, and YOU will actually feel a loathing at YOUR own faces because of all YOUR bad things that YOU did. [44] And YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah when I take action with YOU for the sake of my name, not according to YOUR bad ways or according to YOUR corrupted dealings, O house of Israel,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

45 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 46 “Son of man, set your face in the direction of the southern quarter and drip words to the south, and prophesy to the forest of the field of the south. 47 And you must say to the forest of the south, ‘Hear the word of Jehovah. This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am setting a fire ablaze against you, and it must devour in you every still-moist tree and every dry tree. The kindling flame will not be extinguished, and by it all faces must be scorched from the south to the north. 48 And all those of flesh must see that I myself, Jehovah, have set it afire, so that it will not be extinguished.”’”

49 And I proceeded to say: “Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! They are saying respecting me, ‘Is he not composing proverbial sayings?’”

21 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem and drip words toward the holy places, and prophesy against the soil of Israel. [3] And you must say to the soil of Israel, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Here I am against you, and I will bring forth my sword out of its sheath and cut off from you righteous one and wicked one. [4] In order that I may actually cut off from you righteous one and wicked one, therefore my sword will go forth from its sheath against all flesh from south to north. [5] And all those of flesh will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have brought forth my sword from its sheath. No more will it go back.”’

[6] “And as for you, O son of man, sigh with shaking hips. Even with bitterness you should sigh before their eyes. [7] And it must occur that, in case they say to you, ‘On account of what are you sighing?’ you must say, ‘At a report.’ For it will certainly come, and every heart must melt and all hands must drop down and every spirit must become dejected and all knees themselves will drip with water. ‘Look! It will certainly come and be brought to occur,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

[8] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [9] “Son of man, prophesy, and you must say, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Say, ‘A sword, a sword! It has been sharpened, and it is also polished. [10] For the purpose of organizing a slaughter it has been sharpened; for the purpose of its getting a glitter it has been polished.’”’”

“Or shall we exult?”

“‘Is it rejecting the scepter of my own son, as it does every tree?

11 "'And one gives it to be polished, in order to wield it with the hand. It—a sword has been sharpened, and it—it has been polished, in order to give it into the hand of a killer.

12 "'Cry out and howl, O son of man, for it itself has come to be against my people; it is against all the chieftains of Israel. The very ones hurled to the sword have come to be with my people. Therefore make a slap on the thigh. 13 For an examination has been made, and what of it if it is rejecting also the scepter? This will not continue existing,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

14 "And you, O son of man—prophesy, and strike palm against palm, and 'A sword! ' should be repeated for three times. The sword of the slain ones it is. It is the sword of someone slain who is great, which is making an encirclement of them. 15 In order for the heart to melt and in order to multiply those who are overthrown at all their gates, I will make a slaughter by the sword. Alas, it is made for a glittering, polished for a slaughter! 16 Show yourself sharp; go to the right! Set your position; go to the left! To wherever your face is directed! 17 And I myself also shall strike my one palm against my other palm, and I will bring my rage to its rest. I myself, Jehovah, have spoken."

18 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 19 "And as for you, O son of man, set for yourself two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to enter. From the one land both of them should go forth, and an index hand should be cut out; at the head of the way to the city it should be cut out. 20 A way you should set for the sword to enter against Rab′bah of the sons of Am′mon, and one against Judah, against Jerusalem fortified. 21 For the king of Babylon stood still at the crossways, at the head of the two ways, in order to resort to divination. He has shaken the arrows. He has asked by means of the teraphim; he has looked into the liver. [22] In his right hand the divination proved to be for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open one’s mouth for a slaying, to raise the sound in an alarm signal, to set battering rams against gates, to throw up a siege rampart, to build a siege wall. [23] And it has become to them like an untrue divination in their eyes—those who are sworn with oaths to them; and he is calling error to remembrance, in order for them to be caught.

[24] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘By reason of YOUR causing YOUR error to be remembered by YOUR transgressions being uncovered, in order that YOUR sins may be seen according to all YOUR dealings, by reason of YOUR being called to remembrance YOU people will be seized even by the hand.’

[25] “And as for you, O deadly wounded, wicked chieftain of Israel, whose day has come in the time of the error of the end, [26] this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Remove the turban, and lift off the crown. This will not be the same. Put on high even what is low, and bring low even the high one. [27] A ruin, a ruin, a ruin I shall make it. As for this also, it will certainly become no one’s until he comes who has the legal right, and I must give it to him.’

[28] “And you, O son of man, prophesy, and you must say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said concerning the sons of Am′mon and concerning the reproach from them.’ And you must say, ‘A sword, a sword drawn for a slaughter, polished to cause it to devour, in order to glitter, [29] because of their beholding for you an unreality, because of their divining for you a lie, in order to put you on the necks of the slain ones, the wicked men whose day has come in the time of the error of the end. [30] Return it to its sheath. In the place that you were created, in the land of your origin, I shall judge you. [31] And I will pour out upon you my denunciation. With the fire of my fury I shall blow upon you, and I will give you into the hand of men who are unreasoning, the craftsmen of ruination. [32] For the fire you will become fuel. Your own blood will prove to be in the midst of the land. You will not be remembered, for I myself, Jehovah, have spoken.’”

22 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “And as for you, O son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloodguilty city and certainly cause her to know all her detestable things? [3] And you must say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “O city that is shedding blood in her midst till her time comes, and that has made dungy idols within herself in order to become unclean, [4] by your blood that you have shed you have become guilty, and by your dungy idols that you have made you have become unclean. And you bring your days near, and you will come to your years. That is why I must make you an object of reproach to the nations and of jeering to all the lands. [5] The lands nearby and those far away from you will jeer you, O you unclean in name, abounding in confusion. [6] Look! The chieftains of Israel have proved to be in you, each one given over to his arm for the purpose of shedding blood. [7] Father and mother they have treated with contempt in you. Toward the alien resident they have acted with defrauding in the midst of you. Fatherless boy and widow they have maltreated in you.”’”

[8] “‘My holy places you have despised, and my sabbaths you have profaned. [9] Outright slanderers have proved to be in you, for the purpose of shedding blood; and on the mountains they have eaten in you. Loose conduct they have carried on in the midst of you. [10] The nakedness of a father they have uncovered in you; a woman unclean in her menstruation they have humiliated in you. [11] And with the wife of his companion a man has done a detestable thing, and his own daughter-in-law a man has defiled with loose conduct; and his sister, the daughter of his own father, a man has humiliated in you. [12] A bribe they have taken in you for the purpose of shedding blood. Interest and usury you have taken, and you violently keep making gain of your companions with defrauding, and me you have forgotten,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

13 “‘And, look! I have struck my hand at your unjust gain that you have made, and over your acts of bloodshed that have proved to be in the midst of you. 14 Will your heart keep enduring or your hands furnish strength in the days when I am taking action toward you? I myself, Jehovah, have spoken and I will take action. 15 And I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you among the lands, and I will destroy your uncleanness out of you. 16 And you will certainly be profaned within yourself before the eyes of the nations, and you will have to know that I am Jehovah.’”

17 And the word of Jehovah continued to come to me, saying: 18 “Son of man, to me those of the house of Israel have become as scummy dross. All of them are copper and tin and iron and lead in the midst of a furnace. Much scummy dross, that of silver, they have become.

19 “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘For the reason that all of YOU have become as much scummy dross, therefore here I am collecting YOU together into the midst of Jerusalem. 20 As in collecting silver and copper and iron and lead and tin into the midst of a furnace, in order to blow upon it with fire to cause a liquefying, so I shall collect them together in my anger and in my rage, and I will blow and cause YOU people to liquefy. 21 And I will bring YOU together and blow upon YOU with the fire of my fury, and YOU must be liquefied in the midst of her. 22 As in the liquefying of silver in the midst of a furnace, so YOU people will be liquefied in the midst of her; and YOU will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have poured out my rage upon YOU.’”

[23] And the word of Jehovah continued to come to me, saying: [24] “Son of man, say to her, ‘You are a land not being cleansed, one not rained down upon in the day of denunciation. [25] There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst of her, like the roaring lion, tearing prey. A soul they actually devour. Treasure and precious things they keep taking. Her widows they have multiplied in the midst of her. [26] Her priests themselves have done violence to my law, and they keep profaning my holy places. Between the holy thing and the common they have made no distinction, and between the unclean thing and the clean they have made nothing known, and from my sabbaths they have hidden their eyes, and I am profaned in the midst of them. [27] Her princes in the midst of her are like wolves tearing prey in shedding blood, in destroying souls for the purpose of making unjust gain. [28] And her prophets have plastered for them with whitewash, visioning an unreality and divining for them a lie, saying: “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said,” when Jehovah himself has not spoken. [29] The people of the land themselves have carried on a scheme of defrauding and have done a tearing away in robbery, and the afflicted one and the poor one they have maltreated, and the alien resident they have defrauded without justice.’

[30] “‘And I kept looking for a man from among them who would be repairing the stone wall and standing in the gap before me in behalf of the land, in order for me not to bring it to ruin; and I found no one. [31] So I shall pour out my denunciation upon them. With the fire of my fury I will exterminate them. Their way I will bring upon their own head,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

23 And the word of Jehovah proceeded to come to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, two women, the daughters of one mother, there happened to be. [3] And they began to prostitute themselves in Egypt. In their youth they committed prostitution. There their breasts were squeezed, and there they pressed the bosoms of their virginity. [4] And their names were O·hoʹlah the older one and O·holʹi·bah her sister, and they came to be mine and began to give birth to sons and daughters. And as for their names, O·hoʹlah is Sa·marʹi·a, and O·holʹi·bah is Jerusalem.

[5] “And O·hoʹlah began to prostitute herself, while subject to me, and kept lusting after those passionately loving her, after the As·syrʹi·ans, who were near, [6] governors clothed with blue material, and deputy rulers—desirable young men all of them, cavalrymen riding horses. [7] And she continued giving forth her prostitutions upon them, the choicest sons of As·syrʹi·a all of them; and with all those after whom she lusted—with their dungy idols—she defiled herself. [8] And her prostitutions carried from Egypt she did not leave, for with her they had lain down in her youth, and they were the ones that pressed the bosoms of her virginity and they kept pouring out their immoral intercourse upon her. [9] Therefore I gave her into the hand of those passionately loving her, into the hand of the sons of As·syrʹi·a, toward whom she had lusted. [10] They were the ones that uncovered her nakedness. Her sons and her daughters they took, and her they killed even with sword. And she came to be infamy to women, and acts of judgment were what they executed upon her.

[11] “When her sister O·holʹi·bah got to see it, then she exercised her sensual desire more ruinously than she, and her prostitution more than the fornication of her sister. [12] For the sons of As·syr′i·a she lusted, governors and deputy rulers who were near, clothed with perfect taste, cavalrymen riding horses—desirable young men all of them. [13] And I got to see that, because she had defiled herself, both of them had one way. [14] And she kept adding to her acts of prostitution when she got to see the men in carvings upon the wall, images of Chal·de′ans carved in vermilion, [15] girded with belts on their hips, with pendant turbans on their heads, having the appearance of warriors, all of them, the likeness of the sons of Babylon, Chal·de′ans as respects the land of their birth. [16] And she began to lust after them at the sight of her eyes and proceeded to send messengers to them in Chal·de′a. [17] And the sons of Babylon kept coming in to her, to the bed of expressions of love, and defiling her with their immoral intercourse; and she continued getting defiled by them, and her soul began to turn away disgusted from them.

[18] “And she went on uncovering her acts of prostitution and uncovering her nakedness, so that my soul turned away disgusted from company with her, just as my soul had turned away disgusted from company with her sister. [19] And she kept multiplying her acts of prostitution to the point of calling to mind the days of her youth, when she prostituted herself in the land of Egypt. [20] And she kept lusting in the style of concubines belonging to those whose fleshly member is as the fleshly member of male asses and whose genital organ is as the genital organ of male horses. [21] And you continued calling attention to the loose conduct of your youth by the pressing of your bosoms from Egypt onward, for the sake of the breasts of your youth.

[22] “Therefore, O O·hol′i·bah, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am rousing up your passionate lovers against you, those from whom your soul has turned away in disgust, and I will bring them in against you on all sides, [23] the sons of Babylon and all the Chal·de′ans, Pe′kod and Sho′a and Ko′a, all the sons of As·syr′i·a with them, desirable young men, governors and deputy rulers all of them, warriors and summoned ones, riding on horses, all of them. [24] And they must come in against you with rattling of war chariots and wheels, and with a congregation of peoples, with large shield and buckler and helmet. They will set themselves against you all around, and I will give judgment over to them, and they must judge you with their judgments. [25] And I will express my ardor against you, and they must take action against you in rage. Your nose and your ears they will remove, and the remainder of you will fall even by the sword. Your sons and your daughters they themselves will take, and the remainder of you will be devoured by the fire. [26] And they will certainly strip off you your garments and take away your beautiful articles. [27] And I shall actually cause your loose conduct to cease from you, and your prostitution carried from the land of Egypt; and you will not raise your eyes to them, and Egypt you will remember no more.’

[28] “For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am giving you into the hand of those whom you have hated, into the hand of those from whom your soul has turned away disgusted. [29] And they must take action against you in hatred and take away all your product of toil and leave you naked and nude; and the nudeness of your acts of fornication and your loose conduct and your acts of prostitution must be uncovered. [30] There will be a doing of these things to you because of your going like a prostitute after the nations, on account of the fact that you defiled yourself with their dungy idols. [31] In the way of your sister you have walked; and I shall have to give her cup into your hand.’

[32] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘The cup of your sister you will drink, the deep and wide one. You will become an object of laughter and derision, the cup containing much. [33] With drunkenness and grief you will be filled, with the cup of astonishment and of desolation, the cup of your sister Sa·mar′i·a. [34] And you will have to drink it and drain it out, and its earthenware fragments you will gnaw, and your breasts you will tear out. “For I myself have spoken,” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.’

[35] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘For the reason that you have forgotten me and you proceeded to cast me behind your back, then you yourself also bear your loose conduct and your acts of prostitution.’”

[36] And Jehovah went on to say to me: “Son of man, will you judge O·ho′lah and O·hol′i·bah and tell them their detestable things? [37] For they have committed adultery and there is blood on their hands, and with their dungy idols they have committed adultery. And, besides that, their sons whom they had borne to me they made pass through the fire to them as food. [38] What is more, this is what they have done to me: They have defiled my sanctuary in that day, and my sabbaths they have profaned. [39] And when they had slaughtered their sons to their dungy idols they even proceeded to come into my sanctuary on that day to profane it, and, look! that is what they have done in the midst of my house. [40] And in addition to that, when they began to send to the men coming from far away, to whom there was sent a messenger, then, look! they came, for whom you had washed yourself, painted your eyes and decked yourself with ornaments. [41] And you sat down upon a glorious couch, with a table set in order before it, and my incense and my oil you put upon it. [42] And the sound of a crowd at ease was in her, and to the men out of the mass of mankind there were drunkards being brought in from the wilderness, and they proceeded to put bracelets on the hands of the women and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 “Then I said respecting her who was worn out with adultery, ‘Now she will keep on committing her prostitution, even she herself.’ 44 And they kept on coming in to her, just as one comes in to a woman that is a prostitute; in that manner they came in to O·hoʹlah and to O·holʹi·bah as women of loose conduct. 45 But as regards righteous men, they are the ones that will judge her with the judgment for adulteresses and with the judgment for female shedders of blood; for adulteresses are what they are, and there is blood on their hands.

46 “For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘There will be the bringing up of a congregation against them and a making of them a frightful object and something to plunder. 47 And the congregation must pelt them with stones, and there will be a cutting of them down with their swords. Their sons and their daughters they will kill, and with fire their houses they will burn. 48 And I shall certainly cause loose conduct to cease out of the land, and all the women will have to let themselves be corrected, so that they will not do according to YOUR loose conduct. 49 And they must bring YOUR loose conduct upon YOU, and the sins of YOUR dungy idols YOU will bear; and YOU people will have to know that I am the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.’”

24 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, saying: [2] “Son of man, write down for yourself the name of the day, this selfsame day. The king of Babylon has thrown himself against Jerusalem on this selfsame day. [3] And compose a proverbial saying concerning the rebellious house, and you must say concerning them,

“‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Put the widemouthed cooking pot on; put it on, and also pour water into it. [4] Gather pieces in it, every good piece, thigh and shoulder; fill it even with the choicest bones. [5] Let there be a taking of the choicest sheep, and also stack the logs in a circle under it. Boil its pieces, also cook its bones in the midst of it.”’”

[6] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Woe to the city of deeds of bloodshed, the widemouthed cooking pot, the rust of which is in it, and the very rust of which has not gone forth from it! Piece by piece of it, bring it out; no lot must be cast over it. [7] For its very blood has come to be right in the midst of it. Upon the shining, bare surface of a crag she placed it. She did not pour it out upon the earth, in order to cover it over with dust. [8] In order to bring up rage for the executing of vengeance, I have put her blood upon the shining, bare surface of a crag, in order that it may not be covered over.’

[9] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Woe to the city of deeds of bloodshed! I myself also shall make the pile great. [10] Make the logs many. Kindle the fire. Boil the flesh thoroughly. And empty out the broth, and let the bones themselves become piping hot. [11] Stand it empty upon its coals in order that it may get hot; and its copper must become heated up, and its uncleanness must be liquefied in the midst of it. Let its rust get consumed. [12] Troubles! It has made one tired, but the great amount of its rust does not go forth from it. Into the fire with its rust!’

[13] “‘There was loose conduct in your uncleanness. For that reason I had to cleanse you, but you did not become clean from your uncleanness. You will become clean no more until I cause my rage to come to its rest in your case. [14] I myself, Jehovah, have spoken. It must come, and I will act. I shall not neglect, neither shall I feel sorry nor feel regret. According to your ways and according to your dealings they will certainly judge you,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

[15] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [16] “Son of man, here I am taking away from you the thing desirable to your eyes by a blow, and you should not beat your breast, neither should you weep nor should your tears come on. [17] Sigh without words. For the dead ones no mourning should you make. Your headdress bind on yourself, and your sandals you should put upon your feet. And you should not cover over the mustache, and the bread of men you should not eat.”

[18] And I proceeded to speak to the people in the morning, and my wife gradually died in the evening. So I did in the morning just as I had been commanded. [19] And the people kept saying to me: “Will you not tell us what these things have to do with us, that you are doing?” [20] Then I said to them: “The very word of Jehovah has occurred to me, saying, [21] ‘Say to the house of Israel: “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am profaning my sanctuary, the pride of YOUR strength, the thing desirable to YOUR eyes and the object of YOUR soul’s compassion, and YOUR sons and YOUR daughters whom YOU people have left behind—by the sword they will fall. [22] And YOU will have to do just as I have done. Mustaches YOU will not cover over, and the bread of men YOU will not eat. [23] And YOUR headdress will be on YOUR heads, and YOUR sandals be upon YOUR feet. YOU will not beat yourselves nor will YOU weep, and YOU will have to rot away in YOUR errors, and YOU will actually groan over one another. [24] And Ezekiel has become for YOU a portent. In accord with all that he has done, YOU will do. When it comes, YOU will also have to know that I am the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.’”’”

[25] “And as for you, O son of man, will it not be in the day of my taking away from them their fortress, the beautiful object of their exultation, the thing desirable to their eyes and the longing of their soul, their sons and their daughters, that [26] in that day there will come to you the escaped one for making the ears hear? [27] In that day your mouth will be opened to the escaped one, and you will speak and be mute no longer; and you will certainly become to them a portent, and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.”

25 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, set your face toward the sons of Am′mon and prophesy against them. [3] And you must say concerning the sons of Am′mon, ‘Hear the word of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “For the reason that you have said Aha! against my sanctuary, because it has been profaned, and against the soil of Israel, because it has been laid desolate, and against the house of Judah, because they have gone into exile, [4] therefore here I am giving you to the Orientals as something to possess, and they will set up their walled camps in you and will certainly put in you their tabernacles. They themselves will eat your fruitage, and they themselves will drink your milk. [5] And I will make Rab′bah a pasture ground of camels and the sons of Am′mon a resting-place of a flock; and YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah.”’”

[6] “For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘For the reason that you clapped the hands and you stamped with the feet and you kept rejoicing with all scorn on your part in your soul against the soil of Israel, [7] therefore here I am; I have stretched out my hand against you, and I will give you as something to plunder to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples and destroy you from the lands. I shall annihilate you, and you will have to know that I am Jehovah.’

[8] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘For the reason that Mo′ab and Se′ir have said: “Look! The house of Judah is like all the other nations,” [9] therefore here I am opening the slope of Mo′ab at the cities, at his cities to his frontier, the decoration of the land, Beth-jesh′i·moth, Ba′al-me′on, even to Kir·i·a·tha′im, [10] to the Orientals, alongside the sons of Am′mon; and I will make it something to possess, in order that it may not be remembered, that is, the sons of Am′mon, among the nations. [11] And in Mo′ab I shall execute acts of judgment; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.’

[12] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘For the reason that E′dom has acted in taking vengeance upon the house of Judah and they kept doing wrong extensively and avenged themselves on them, [13] therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “I will also stretch out my hand against E′dom and cut off from it man and domestic animal, and I will make it a devastated place from Te′man, even to De′dan. By the sword they will fall. [14] ‘And I will bring my vengeance on E′dom by the hand of my people Israel; and they must do in E′dom according to my anger and according to my rage; and they will have to know what my vengeance is,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”’

[15] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘For the reason that the Phi·lis′tines have acted with vengeance and they kept avenging themselves with a vengeance with scorn in the soul, in order to cause ruin, with an indefinitely lasting enmity, [16] therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am stretching out my hand against the Phi·lis′tines, and I will cut off the Cher′e·thites and destroy the rest of the seacoast. [17] And I will execute in them great acts of vengeance, with raging reproofs; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I bring my vengeance on them.”’”

26 And it came about in the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, that the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, for the reason that Tyre has said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha! She has been broken, the doors of the peoples! The trend will certainly be to me. I shall be filled—she has been devastated,’ [3] therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am against you, O Tyre, and I will bring up against you many nations, just as the sea brings up its waves. [4] And they will certainly bring the walls of Tyre to ruin and tear down her towers, and I will scrape her dust away from her and make her a shining, bare surface of a crag. [5] A drying yard for dragnets is what she will become in the midst of the sea.’

“‘For I myself have spoken,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘and she must become an object of plunder for the nations. [6] And her dependent towns that are in the field—by the sword they will be killed, and people will have to know that I am Jehovah.’

[7] “For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am bringing against Tyre Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon from the north, a king of kings, with horses and war chariots and cavalrymen and a congregation, even a multitudinous people. [8] Your dependent towns in the field he will kill even with the sword, and he must make against you a siege wall and throw up against you a siege rampart and raise up against you a large shield; [9] and the strike of his attack engine he will direct against your walls, and your towers he will pull down, with his swords. [10] Owing to the heaving mass of his horses their dust will cover you. Owing to the sound of cavalryman and wheel and war chariot your walls will rock, when he comes in through your gates, as in the cases of entering into a city opened by breaches. [11] With the hoofs of his horses he will trample down all your streets. Your people he will kill even with the sword, and to the earth your own pillars of strength will go down. [12] And they will certainly spoil your resources and plunder your sales goods, and tear down your walls, and your desirable houses they will pull down. And your stones and your woodwork and your dust they will place in the very midst of the water.’

[13] “‘And I will cause the turmoil of your singing to cease, and the very sound of your harps will be heard no more. [14] And I will make you a shining, bare surface of a crag. A drying yard for dragnets is what you will become. Never will you be rebuilt; for I myself, Jehovah, have spoken,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

[15] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to Tyre, ‘At the sound of your downfall, when the fatally wounded one groans, when there is a killing with slaughter in the midst of you, will not the islands rock? [16] And down from their thrones all the chieftains of the sea will certainly come and remove their sleeveless coats, and they will strip off their own embroidered garments. They will put on trembling spells. Upon the earth they will sit down, and they will certainly tremble every moment and stare in amazement at you. [17] And they must raise up over you a dirge and say to you:

“‘“How you have perished, that used to be inhabited from the seas, O praised city, who became a strong one in the sea, she and those inhabiting her, those who gave their terror to all the inhabitants of the earth! [18] Now the islands will tremble in the day of your downfall. And the islands that are in the sea must be disturbed owing to your going out.”’

[19] “For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘When I make you a devastated city, like the cities that are actually not inhabited, when I bring up over you the watery deep, and the vast waters will have covered you, [20] I will also bring you down with those going down into the pit to the people of long ago, and I will cause you to dwell in the lowest land, like places devastated for a long time, with those going down into the pit, in order that you may not be inhabited; and I will put decoration in the land of those alive.

[21] “‘Sudden terrors are what I shall make you, and you will not be; and you will be sought for, but you will no more be found to time indefinite,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

27 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “And as for you, O son of man, raise up concerning Tyre a dirge, [3] and you must say to Tyre, “‘O you who are dwelling at the entrances of the sea, the tradeswoman of the peoples for many islands, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “O Tyre, you yourself have said, ‘I am perfect in prettiness.’ [4] In the heart of the seas are your territories. Your own builders have perfected your prettiness. [5] Out of juniper timbers from Se′nir they built for you all the planks. A cedar from Leb′a·non they took to make a mast upon you. [6] Out of massive trees from Ba′shan they made your oars. Your prow they made with ivory in cypress wood, from the islands of Kit′tim. [7] Linen in various colors from Egypt your cloth expanse happened to be, in order for it to serve as your sail. Blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple from the islands of E·li′shah are what your deck covering proved to be.

[8] “‘“The inhabitants of Si′don and of Ar′vad themselves became rowers for you. Your skilled ones, O Tyre, happened to be in you; they were your sailors. [9] Even old men of Ge′bal and her skilled ones happened to be in you as caulkers for your seams. All the ships of the sea and their mariners themselves proved to be in you, in order to exchange articles of merchandise. [10] Persians and Lu′dim and men of Put—they happened to be in your military force, your men of war. Shield and helmet they hung up in you. They were the ones that caused your splendor. [11] The sons of Ar′vad, even your military force, were upon your walls all around, and valorous men were the ones that happened to be in your own towers. Their circular shields they hung up on your walls all around. They themselves perfected your prettiness.

[12] “‘“Tar′shish was your merchant because of the abundance of all sorts of valuable things. For its silver, iron, tin and lead, your stores were given. [13] Ja′van, Tu′bal and Me′shech themselves were your traders. For the souls of mankind and articles of copper your articles of exchange were given. [14] From the house of To·gar′mah there were horses and steeds and mules, for which your stores were given. [15] The sons of De′dan were your traders; many islands were merchants in your employ; horns of ivory and ebony they have paid back as gift to you. [16] E′dom was your merchant because of the abundance of your works. For turquoise, wool dyed reddish purple and material of various colors and fine fabric and corals and rubies, your stores were given in exchange.

[17] “‘“Judah and the land of Israel themselves were your traders. For the wheat of Min′nith and special foodstuff and honey and oil and balsam, your articles of exchange were given.

[18] “‘“Damascus was your merchant in the abundance of your works, because of the abundance of all your valuable things, with the wine of Hel′bon and the wool of reddish gray. [19] Ve′dan and Ja′van from U′zal—for your stores they gave. Iron in wrought works, cassia and cane—for your articles of exchange they proved to be. [20] De′dan was your trader in garments of woven material for riding. [21] The Arabs and all the chieftains of Ke′dar themselves were merchants in your employ. In male lambs and rams and he-goats—in them they were your merchants. [22] The traders of She′ba and Ra′a·mah themselves were your traders; for the finest of all sorts of perfumes and for all sorts of precious stones and gold, your stores were given. [23] Ha′ran and Can′neh and E′den, the traders of She′ba, As′shur and Chil′mad were your traders. [24] They were your traders in gorgeous garments, in wraps of blue material and material of various colors and in carpets of two-colored stuff, in ropes twined and solidly made, in your trading center.

[25] ‘“The ships of Tar′shish were your caravans for your articles of exchange, so that you get filled and become very glorious in the heart of the open sea.

[26] ‘“Into vast waters those rowing you have brought you. The east wind itself has broken you in the heart of the open sea. [27] Your valuable things and your stores, your articles of exchange, your mariners and your sailors, the caulkers of your seams and those exchanging your articles of merchandise and all your men of war, who are in you and in all your congregation, who are in the midst of you,—they will fall in the heart of the open sea in the day of your downfall.

[28] ‘“At the sound of the outcry of your sailors the open country will rock. [29] And all those handling an oar, mariners, all the sailors of the sea, will certainly go down from their ships; upon the land they will stand. [30] And over you they will certainly let themselves be heard with their voice and will cry out bitterly. And they will bring up dust upon their heads. In the ashes they will wallow. [31] And they will have to make themselves bald with a baldness for you, and gird on sackcloth and weep over you in bitterness of soul, with bitter wailing. [32] And for you in their lamentation they will certainly lift up a dirge and chant over you,

‘“‘Who is like Tyre, like her that has been brought to silence in the midst of the sea? [33] When your stores went forth from the open sea, you satisfied many peoples. With the abundance of your valuable things and your articles of exchange you made earth’s kings rich. [34] Now you have been broken by the open sea, in the depths of the waters. As for your articles of exchange and all your congregation, in the midst of you they have fallen. [35] All the inhabitants of the islands—in amazement they will certainly stare at you, and their kings themselves will have to shudder in horror. Faces must become perturbed. 36 As for merchants among the peoples, they will certainly whistle over you. Sudden terrors are what you must become, and you will be no more to time indefinite.’”’”

28 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, say to the leader of Tyre, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said:

“‘“For the reason that your heart has become haughty, and you keep saying, ‘I am a god. In the seat of god I have seated myself, in the heart of the open sea,’ whereas an earthling man is what you are, and not a god, and you keep making your heart like the heart of god— [3] look! you are wiser than Daniel. There are no secrets that have proved a match for you. [4] By your wisdom and by your discernment you have made wealth for your own self, and you keep getting gold and silver in your storehouses. [5] By the abundance of your wisdom, by your sales goods, you have made your wealth abound, and your heart began to be haughty because of your wealth.”’

[6] “‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “For the reason that you make your heart like the heart of god, [7] therefore here I am bringing upon you strangers, the tyrants of the nations, and they will certainly draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom and profane your beaming splendor. [8] Down to the pit they will bring you, and you must die the death of someone slain in the heart of the open sea. [9] Will you without fail say, ‘I am god,’ before the one killing you, whereas you are a mere earthling man, and not a god, in the hand of those profaning you?”’

[10] “‘The deaths of uncircumcised ones you will die by the hand of strangers, for I myself have spoken,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

[11] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [12] “Son of man, lift up a dirge concerning the king of Tyre, and you must say to him, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said:

“‘“You are sealing up a pattern, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. [13] In E′den, the garden of God, you proved to be. Every precious stone was your covering, ruby, topaz and jasper; chrys′o·lite, onyx and jade; sapphire, turquoise and emerald; and of gold was the workmanship of your settings and your sockets in you. In the day of your being created they were made ready. [14] You are the anointed cherub that is covering, and I have set you. On the holy mountain of God you proved to be. In the midst of fiery stones you walked about. [15] You were faultless in your ways from the day of your being created until unrighteousness was found in you.

[16] “‘“Because of the abundance of your sales goods they filled the midst of you with violence, and you began to sin. And I shall put you as profane out of the mountain of God, and I shall destroy you, O cherub that is covering, from the midst of the fiery stones.

[17] “‘“Your heart became haughty because of your beauty. You brought your wisdom to ruin on account of your beaming splendor. Onto the earth I will throw you. Before kings I will set you, for them to look upon you.

[18] “‘“Owing to the abundance of your errors, because of the injustice of your sales goods, you have profaned your sanctuaries. And I shall bring forth a fire from the midst of you. It is what must devour you. And I shall make you ashes upon the earth before the eyes of all those seeing you. [19] As for all those knowing you among the peoples, they will certainly stare in amazement at you. Sudden terrors are what you must become, and you will be no more to time indefinite.”’”

[20] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [21] “Son of man, set your face toward Si′don, and prophesy against her. [22] And you must say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am against you, O Si′don, and I shall certainly be glorified in the midst of you; and people will have to know that I am Jehovah when I execute acts of judgment in her and I am actually sanctified in her. [23] And I will send pestilence into her and blood into her streets. And the slain one must fall in the midst of her by the sword against her on every side; and people will have to know that I am Jehovah. [24] And no more will there prove to be to the house of Israel a malignant prickle or a painful thorn out of all those round about them, those who are treating them with scorn; and people will have to know that I am the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”’

[25] “‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “When I collect together the house of Israel out from the peoples among whom they have been scattered, I will also be sanctified among them in the eyes of the nations. And they will certainly dwell upon their soil that I gave to my servant, to Jacob. [26] And they will actually dwell upon it in security and build houses and plant vineyards, and they must dwell in security when I execute acts of judgment upon all those treating them with scorn all round about them; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah their God.”’”

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, set your face against Pharʹaoh the king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against Egypt in its entirety. [3] Speak, and you must say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am against you, O Pharʹaoh, king of Egypt, the great sea monster lying stretched out in the midst of his Nile canals, that has said, ‘My Nile River belongs to me, and I—I have made it for myself.’ [4] And I will put hooks in your jaws and cause the fish of your Nile canals to cling to your scales. And I will bring you up out of the midst of your Nile canals and all the fish of your Nile canals that cling to your very scales. [5] And I will abandon you to the wilderness, you and all the fish of your Nile canals. Upon the surface of the field you will fall. You will not be gathered up nor be collected together. To the wild beasts of the earth and to the flying creatures of the heavens I will give you for food. [6] And all the inhabitants of Egypt will have to know that I am Jehovah, for the reason that they proved to be, as a support, a reed to the house of Israel. [7] When they took hold of you by the hand, you got to be crushed, and you caused a split in their entire shoulder. And when they supported themselves upon you, you got to be broken, and you caused all their hips to wobble.”

[8] “‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am bringing upon you a sword, and I will cut off from you earthling man and domestic animal. [9] And the land of Egypt must become a desolate waste and a devastated place; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah, for the reason that he has said, ‘To me the Nile River belongs, and I myself have made it.’ [10] Therefore here I am against you and against your Nile canals, and I will make the land of Egypt devastated places, dryness, a desolated waste, from Mig′dol to Sy·e′ne and to the boundary of E·thi·o′pi·a. [11] There will not pass through it the foot of earthling man, nor will the foot of domestic animal pass through it, and for forty years it will not be inhabited. [12] And I will make the land of Egypt a desolate waste in the midst of desolated lands; and its own cities will become a desolate waste in the very midst of devastated cities for forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands.”

[13] “‘For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “At the end of forty years I shall collect the Egyptians together out of the peoples among whom they will have been scattered, [14] and I will bring back the captive group of the Egyptians; and I will bring them back to the land of Path′ros, to the land of their origin, and there they must become a lowly kingdom. [15] Lower than the other kingdoms it will become, and it will no more lift itself up over the other nations, and I will make them so few as not to have the other nations in subjection. [16] And it will no more prove to be the house of Israel’s confidence, bringing error to remembrance by their turning after them. And they will have to know that I am the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”’”

[17] Now it came about in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, that the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: [18] “Son of man, Neb·u·chad·rez′zar himself, the king of Babylon, made his military force perform a great service against Tyre. Every head was one made bald, and every shoulder was one rubbed bare. But as for wages, there proved to be none for him and his military force from Tyre for the service that he had performed against her.

[19] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am giving to Neb·u·chad·rezʹzar the king of Babylon the land of Egypt, and he must carry off its wealth and make a big spoil of it and do a great deal of plundering of it; and it must become wages for his military force.’

[20] “‘As his compensation for service that he did against her I have given him the land of Egypt, because they acted for me,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

[21] “In that day I shall cause a horn to sprout for the house of Israel, and to you I shall give occasion to open the mouth in the midst of them; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.”

30 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, prophesy, and you must say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Howl, YOU people, ‘Alas for the day! ’ [3] for a day is near, yes, a day belonging to Jehovah is near. A day of clouds, an appointed time of nations it will prove to be. [4] And a sword will certainly come into Egypt, and severe pains must occur in E·thi·o′pi·a when one falls slain in Egypt and they actually take its wealth and its foundations are actually torn down. [5] E·thi·o′pi·a and Put and Lud and all the mixed company and Chub and the sons of the land of the covenant—with them they will fall by the very sword.”’

[6] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘The supporters of Egypt must also fall, and the pride of its strength must come down.’

“‘From Mig′dol to Sy·e′ne they will fall in it even by the sword,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. [7] ‘They must also be made desolate in the midst of desolated lands, and its own cities will come to be right in the midst of devastated cities. [8] And they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I set a fire in Egypt and all its helpers are actually broken. [9] In that day messengers will go forth from before me in the ships, in order to drive self-confident E·thi·o′pi·a into trembling. And severe pains must occur among them in the day of Egypt, for, look! it must come.’

[10] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘I will also cause the crowd of Egypt to cease by the hand of Neb·u·chad·rez′zar the king of Babylon. [11] He and his people with him, the tyrants of the nations, are being brought in to reduce the land to ruin. And they must draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain. [12] And I will make the Nile canals dry ground and will sell the land into the hand of bad men, and I will cause the land and its fullness to be desolated by the hand of strangers. I myself, Jehovah, have spoken.’

[13] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘I will also destroy the dungy idols and cause the valueless gods to cease out of Noph, and there will no more prove to be a chieftain out of the land of Egypt; and I shall certainly put fear in the land of Egypt. [14] And I will bring Path′ros to desolation and set a fire in Zo′an and execute acts of judgment in No. [15] And I will pour out my rage upon Sin, the fortress of Egypt, and cut off the crowd of No. [16] And I will set a fire in Egypt. Sin will without fail be in severe pains, and No itself will come to be for capture by breaches; and as regards Noph—there will be adversaries during the daytime! [17] As for the young men of On and Pi·be′seth, by the sword they will fall, and into captivity the cities themselves will go. [18] And in Te·haph′ne·hes the day will actually grow dark, when I break there the yoke bars of Egypt. And in her the pride of her strength will actually be made to cease. As for her, clouds themselves will cover her, and into captivity her own dependent towns will go. [19] And I will execute acts of judgment in Egypt; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.’”

[20] And it occurred further that in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: [21] “Son of man, the arm of Phar′aoh the king of Egypt I shall certainly break, and, look! it will not be bound up at all in order to give it healing by putting a bandage on for binding it up, for it to become strong to take hold of the sword.”

[22] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am against Pharʹaoh the king of Egypt, and I will break his arms, the strong one and the broken one, and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. [23] And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands. [24] And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and give my sword into his hand, and I will break the arms of Pharʹaoh, and as a deadly wounded one he will certainly do a great deal of groaning before him. [25] And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the very arms of Pharʹaoh will fall; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I give my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he actually extends it out against the land of Egypt. [26] And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.’”

31 And it occurred further that in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, say to Pharʹaoh the king of Egypt and to his crowd, “‘Whom have you come to resemble in your greatness? [3] Look! An As·syrʹi·an, a cedar in Lebʹa·non, pretty in bough, with a woody thicket offering shadow, and high in stature, so that among the clouds its treetop proved to be. [4] Waters were what made it get big; the watery deep caused it to grow high. With its streams it was going all around its planting place; and its channels it sent forth to all the trees of the field. [5] That is why it grew higher in its stature than all the other trees of the field.

“‘And its boughs kept multiplying, and its branches continued getting longer because of much water in its watercourses. [6] On its boughs all the flying creatures of the heavens made their nests, and under its branches all the wild beasts of the field gave birth, and in its shade all the populous nations would dwell. [7] And it came to be pretty in its greatness, in the length of its foliage, for its root system proved to be over many waters. [8] Other cedars were no match for it in the garden of God. As for juniper trees, they bore no resemblance as respects its boughs. And plane trees themselves did not prove to be like it in branches. No other tree in the garden of God resembled it in its prettiness. [9] Pretty is the way that I made it in the abundance of its foliage, and all the other trees of Eʹden that were in the garden of the true God kept envying it.’

[10] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘For the reason that you became high in stature, so that it put its treetop even among the clouds and its heart became exalted because of its height, [11] I shall also give it into the hand of the despot of the nations. Without fail he will act against it. According to its wickedness I will drive it out. [12] And strangers, the tyrants of the nations, will cut it down, and people will abandon it upon the mountains; and in all the valleys its foliage will certainly fall, and its branches will be broken among all the streambeds of the earth. And out from its shade all the peoples of the earth will come down and abandon it. [13] Upon its fallen trunk all the flying creatures of the heavens will reside, and upon its branches there will certainly come to be all the wild beasts of the field; [14] to the end that none of the watered trees may become high in their stature, or put their treetops even among the clouds, and that none drinking water may stand up against them in their height, for they will certainly all of them be given to death, to the land down below, in the midst of the sons of mankind, to those going down into the pit.’

[15] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘On the day of its going down to She′ol I shall certainly cause a mourning. On its account I will cover the watery deep, that I may hold back its streams and that the many waters may be restrained; and on its account I shall darken Leb′a·non, and on its account the trees of the field will all swoon away. [16] At the sound of its downfall I shall certainly cause nations to rock when I bring it down to She′ol with those going down into the pit, and in the land down below all the trees of E′den, the choicest and the best of Leb′a·non, all those drinking water, will be comforted. [17] With him they themselves also have gone down to She′ol, to those slain by the sword, and those who as his seed have dwelt in his shadow in the midst of nations.’

18 "'Whom have you come to resemble thus in glory and greatness among the trees of E′den? But you will certainly be brought down with the trees of E′den to the land down below. In the midst of the uncircumcised ones you will lie down with those slain by the sword. This is Phar′aoh and all his crowd,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

32 And it occurred further that in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, lift up a dirge concerning Phar′aoh the king of Egypt, and you must say to him, ‘As a maned young lion of nations you have been silenced.

“‘And you have been like the marine monster in the seas, and you kept gushing in your rivers and kept muddying the waters with your feet and fouling their rivers.’

[3] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘I will also spread over you my net by means of a congregation of many peoples, and they will certainly bring you in my dragnet. [4] And I must abandon you on the land. Upon the surface of the field I shall hurl you. And on you I will cause all the flying creatures of the heavens to reside, and off you I will satisfy the wild beasts of the whole earth. [5] And I will put your flesh upon the mountains and fill the valleys with the refuse of you. [6] And I will cause the land to drink up your discharged matter, from your blood, upon the mountains; and streambeds themselves will be filled up from you.’

[7] “‘And when you get extinguished I will cover the heavens and darken their stars. As for the sun, with clouds I shall cover it, and the moon itself will not let its light shine. [8] All the luminaries of light in the heavens—I shall darken them on your account, and I will put darkness upon your land,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

[9] “‘And I will offend the heart of many peoples when I bring the captives from you among the nations to lands that you have not known. [10] And at you I shall certainly cause many peoples to be awestruck, and their kings themselves will shudder in horror at you when I brandish my sword in their faces, and they will have to tremble every moment, each one for his own soul, on the day of your downfall.’

11 “For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘The very sword of the king of Babylon will come upon you. 12 I shall cause your crowd to fall by the very swords of mighty ones, the tyrants of the nations, all of them; and they will actually despoil the pride of Egypt, and all her crowd must be annihilated. 13 And I will destroy all her domestic animals from beside many waters, and the foot of earthling man will no more muddy them, nor will even the hoofs of a domestic animal muddy them.’

14 “‘At that time I shall make their waters clear up, and their rivers I shall make go just like oil,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

15 “‘When I make the land of Egypt a desolate waste and the land is desolated of its fullness, when I strike down all the inhabitants in it, they will also have to know that I am Jehovah.

16 “‘This is a dirge, and people will certainly chant it. Even the daughters of the nations will chant it; over Egypt and over all its crowd they will chant it,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

17 And it occurred further that in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: 18 “Son of man, lament over the crowd of Egypt and bring it down, her and the daughters of majestic nations, to the land down below, with those going down into the pit.

19 “‘Compared with whom are you more pleasant? Do go down, and you must be laid with the uncircumcised ones!’

[20] “‘In the midst of those slain by the sword they will fall. To a sword she has been given. Drag her away and all her crowds, YOU men.

[21] “‘The foremost men of the mighty ones will speak out of the midst of She′ol even to him, with his helpers. They will certainly go down; they must lie down as the uncircumcised, slain by the sword. [22] There is where As·syr′i·a and all her congregation are. His burial places are round about him. All of them are slain, those falling by the sword. [23] For her burial places have been put in the innermost parts of a pit, and her congregation proves to be round about her grave, all of them slain, falling by the sword, because they had caused terror in the land of those alive.

[24] “‘There are E′lam and all her crowd round about her grave, all of them slain ones, those falling by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised to the land down below, those who have caused their terror in the land of those alive; and they will bear their humiliation with those going down into the pit. [25] In the midst of slain ones they have set a bed for her among all her crowd. Her burial places are round about it. All of them are uncircumcised, slain by the sword, because their terror was caused in the land of those alive; and they will bear their humiliation with those going down into the pit. In the midst of slain ones he has been put.

[26] “‘There is where Me′shech and Tu′bal and all her crowd are. Her burial places are round about him. All of them are uncircumcised, pierced through by the sword, because they have caused their terror in the land of those alive. [27] And will they not lie down with mighty ones, falling from among the uncircumcised, who have gone down to She′ol with their weapons of war? And they will put their swords under their heads, and their errors will come to be upon their bones, because mighty ones were a terror in the land of those alive.

[28] And as for you, in the midst of uncircumcised ones you will be broken, and you will lie down with those slain by the sword.

[29] “‘There is where E′dom, her kings and all her chieftains are, who, in their mightiness, were put with those slain by the sword; they themselves will lie down even with the uncircumcised ones and with those going down into the pit.

[30] “‘There is where the dukes of the north are, all of them, and all the Si·do′ni·ans, who have gone down with the slain ones, in their terribleness because of their mightiness, ashamed. And they will lie down uncircumcised with those slain by the sword and will bear their humiliation with those going down into the pit.

[31] “‘These are the ones that Phar′aoh will see, and he will certainly be comforted over all his crowd. Phar′aoh and all his military force will be people slain by the sword,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

[32] “‘For he has caused his terror in the land of those alive, and he must be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised ones, with those slain by the sword, even Phar′aoh and all his crowd,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

33 And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, speak to the sons of your people, and you must say to them,

“‘As regards a land, in case I bring upon it a sword and the people of the land, one and all, actually take a man and set him as their watchman, [3] and he really sees the sword coming upon the land and blows the horn and warns the people, [4] and the hearer actually hears the sound of the horn but he takes no warning at all, and a sword comes and takes him away, his own blood will come to be upon his own head. [5] The sound of the horn he heard, but he took no warning. His own blood will come to be upon his own self. And had he himself taken warning, his own soul would have escaped.

[6] “‘Now as regards the watchman, in case he sees the sword coming and he actually does not blow the horn and the people itself gets no warning at all and a sword comes and takes away from them soul, for its own error it itself must be taken away, but its blood I shall ask back from the hand of the watchman himself.’

[7] “Now as regards you, O son of man, a watchman is what I have made you to the house of Israel, and at my mouth you must hear the word and give them warning from me. [8] When I say to someone wicked, ‘O wicked one, you will positively die!’ but you actually do not speak out to warn the wicked one from his way, he himself as a wicked one will die in his own error, but his blood I shall ask back at your own hand. [9] But as regards you, in case you actually warn someone wicked from his way for him to turn back from it but he actually does not turn back from his way, he himself will die in his own error, whereas you yourself will certainly deliver your own soul.

10 “Now as regards you, O son of man, say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus YOU people have said: “Because our revolts and our sins are upon us and in them we are rotting away, how, then, shall we keep living?”’ 11 Say to them, ‘“As I am alive,” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, “I take delight, not in the death of the wicked one, but in that someone wicked turns back from his way and actually keeps living. Turn back, turn back from YOUR bad ways, for why is it that YOU should die, O house of Israel?”’

12 “And as for you, O son of man, say to the sons of your people, ‘The righteousness of the righteous one will not itself deliver him in the day of his revolt. But as regards the wickedness of the wicked one, he will not be made to stumble by it in the day of his turning back from his wickedness. Nor will even anyone having righteousness be able to keep living because of it in the day of his sinning. 13 When I say to the righteous one: “You will positively keep living,” and he himself actually trusts in his own righteousness and does injustice, all his own righteous acts will not be remembered, but for his injustice that he has done—for this he will die.

14 “‘And when I say to the wicked one: “You will positively die,” and he actually turns back from his sin and carries on justice and righteousness, 15 and the wicked one returns the very thing pledged, pays back the very things taken by robbery, and actually walks in the very statutes of life by not doing injustice, he will positively keep living. He will not die. 16 None of his sins with which he has sinned will be remembered against him. Justice and righteousness are what he has carried on. He will positively keep living.’

[17] “And the sons of your people have said, ‘The way of Jehovah is not adjusted right,’ but, as for them, it is their way that is not adjusted right.

[18] “When someone righteous turns back from his righteousness and actually does injustice, he must also die for them. [19] And when someone wicked turns back from his wickedness and actually carries on justice and righteousness, it will be on account of them that he himself will keep living.

[20] “And YOU people have said, ‘The way of Jehovah is not adjusted right.’ It will be each one according to his ways that I shall judge YOU, O house of Israel.”

[21] At length it occurred in the twelfth year, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month of our exile, that there came to me the escaped one from Jerusalem, saying: “The city has been struck down!”

[22] Now the very hand of Jehovah had come to be upon me in the evening before the coming of the escaped one, and He proceeded to open my mouth prior to that one’s coming to me in the morning, and my mouth was opened and I proved to be speechless no longer.

[23] And the word of Jehovah began to occur to me, saying: [24] “Son of man, the inhabitants of these devastated places are saying even concerning the soil of Israel, ‘Abraham happened to be just one and yet he took possession of the land. And we are many; to us the land has been given as something to possess.’

[25] “Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “With the blood YOU keep eating, and YOUR eyes YOU keep lifting to YOUR dungy idols, and blood YOU keep pouring out. So should YOU possess the land? [26]

YOU have depended upon YOUR sword. YOU have done a detestable thing, and YOU have defiled each one the wife of his companion. So should YOU possess the land?”’

[27] “This is what you should say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “As I am alive, surely the ones who are in the devastated places will fall by the sword itself; and the one who is upon the surface of the field, to the wild beast I shall certainly give him for food; and those who are in the strong places and in the caves will die by the pestilence itself. [28] And I shall actually make the land a desolate waste, even a desolation, and the pride of its strength must be made to cease and the mountains of Israel must be laid desolate, with no one passing through. [29] And they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I make the land a desolate waste, even a desolation, on account of all their detestable things that they have done.”’

[30] “And as for you, O son of man, the sons of your people are speaking with one another about you beside the walls and in the entrances of the houses, and the one has spoken with the other, each one with his brother, saying, ‘COME, please, and hear what the word is that is going forth from Jehovah.’ [31] And they will come in to you, like the coming in of people, and sit before you as my people; and they will certainly hear your words but these they will not do, for with their mouth they are expressing lustful desires and after their unjust gain is where their heart is going. [32] And, look! you are to them like a song of sensuous loves, like one with a pretty voice and playing a stringed instrument well. And they will certainly hear your words, but there are none doing them. [33] And when it comes true—look! it must come true—they will also have to know that a prophet himself had proved to be in the midst of them.”

34 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy, and you must say to them, to the shepherds, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Woe to the shepherds of Israel, who have become feeders of themselves! Is it not the flock that the shepherds ought to feed? [3] The fat is what YOU eat, and with the wool YOU clothe YOUR own selves. The plump animal is what YOU slaughter. The flock itself YOU do not feed. [4] The sickened ones YOU have not strengthened, and the ailing one YOU have not healed, and the broken one YOU have not bandaged, and the dispersed one YOU have not brought back, and the lost one YOU have not sought to find, but with harshness YOU have had them in subjection, even with tyranny. [5] And they were gradually scattered because of there being no shepherd, so that they became food for every wild beast of the field, and they continued to be scattered. [6] My sheep kept straying on all the mountains and on every high hill; and on all the surface of the earth my sheep were scattered, with no one making a search and with no one seeking to find.

[7] “‘ “Therefore, YOU shepherds, hear the word of Jehovah, [8] ‘“As I am alive,” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, “surely for the reason that my sheep became something for plunder and my sheep continued to be food for every wild beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, and my shepherds did not search for my sheep, but the shepherds kept feeding themselves, and my own sheep they did not feed,”’ [9] therefore, YOU shepherds, hear the word of Jehovah. [10] This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am against the shepherds, and I shall certainly ask back my sheep from their hand and make them cease from feeding my sheep, and the shepherds will no longer feed themselves; and I will deliver my sheep out of their mouth, and they will not become food for them.’”

[11] “‘For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am, I myself, and I will search for my sheep and care for them. [12] According to the care of one feeding his drove in the day of his coming to be in the midst of his sheep that have been spread abroad, that is the way that I shall care for my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all the places to which they have been scattered in the day of clouds and thick gloom. [13] And I will bring them out from the peoples and collect them together from the lands and bring them in onto their soil and feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the streambeds and by all the dwelling places of the land. [14] In a good pasturage I shall feed them, and on Israel’s high mountains their abiding place will come to be. There they will lie down in a good abiding place, and on a fat pasturage they will feed upon the mountains of Israel.”

[15] “‘“I myself shall feed my sheep, and I myself shall make them lie down,” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. [16] “The lost one I shall search for, and the dispersed one I shall bring back, and the broken one I shall bandage and the ailing one I shall strengthen, but the fat one and the strong one I shall annihilate. I shall feed that one with judgment.”

[17] “‘And as for YOU my sheep, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am judging between a sheep and a sheep, between the rams and the he-goats. [18] Is it such a little thing for YOU men that on the very best pasturage YOU feed but the rest of YOUR pasturages YOU should trample down with YOUR feet, and that the clear waters YOU drink but the ones left over YOU should foul by stamping with YOUR very feet? [19] And as for my sheep, on the pasture ground trampled by YOUR feet should they feed and the water befouled by the stamping of YOUR feet should they drink?”

20 “‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to them: “Here I am, I myself, and I shall certainly judge between a plump sheep and a lean sheep, 21 for the reason that with flank and with shoulder YOU kept pushing and with YOUR horns YOU kept shoving all the sickened ones until YOU had scattered them to the outside. 22 And I will save my sheep, and they will no longer become something for plunder; and I will judge between a sheep and a sheep. 23 And I will raise up over them one shepherd, and he must feed them, even my servant David. He himself will feed them, and he himself will become their shepherd. 24 And I myself, Jehovah, will become their God, and my servant David a chieftain in the midst of them. I myself, Jehovah, have spoken.

25 “‘“And I will conclude with them a covenant of peace, and I shall certainly cause the injurious wild beast to cease out of the land, and they will actually dwell in the wilderness in security and sleep in the forests. 26 And I will make them and the surroundings of my hill a blessing, and I will cause the pouring rain to descend in its time. Pouring rains of blessing there will prove to be. 27 And the tree of the field must give its fruitage, and the land itself will give its yield, and they will actually prove to be on their soil in security. And they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I break the bars of their yoke and I have delivered them out of the hand of those who had been using them as slaves. 28 And they will no longer become something to plunder for the nations; and as regards the wild beast of the earth, it will not devour them, and they will actually dwell in security, with no one to make them tremble.

[29] "'"And I will raise up for them a planting for a name, and they will no more become those taken away by famine in the land, and they will no longer bear the humiliation by the nations. [30] 'And they will have to know that I, Jehovah their God, am with them and that they are my people, the house of Israel,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."'

[31] "'And as regards YOU my sheep, the sheep of my pasturing, YOU are earthling men. I am YOUR God,' is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

35 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, set your face against the mountainous region of Se′ir and prophesy against it. [3] And you must say to it, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am against you, O mountainous region of Se′ir, and I will stretch out my hand against you and make you a desolate waste, even a desolation. [4] Your cities I shall set as a devastated place, and you yourself will become a sheer desolate waste; and you will have to know that I am Jehovah, [5] for the reason that you proved to have an indefinitely lasting enmity and you kept delivering the sons of Israel over to the power of the sword, in the time of their disaster, in the time of their final error.”’

[6] “‘Therefore as I am alive,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘because it was for blood that I was preparing you, blood itself will also pursue you. Surely it was blood that you hated, and blood itself will pursue you. [7] And I shall certainly make the mountainous region of Se′ir a desolate waste, even a desolation, and I will cut off from it the one passing through and the one returning. [8] And I will fill its mountains with its slain ones; as for your hills and your valleys and all your streambeds, the very ones slain by the sword will fall in them. [9] Indefinitely lasting desolate wastes are what I shall make you, and your own cities will not be inhabited; and YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah.’

[10] “By reason of your saying, ‘These two nations and these two lands—they will become my own, and we shall certainly take possession of each land,’ whereas Jehovah himself happened to be right there, [11] ‘therefore as I am alive,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘I will act also according to your anger and according to your jealousy that you have expressed owing to your feelings of hatred toward them; and I will make myself known among them when I judge you. 12 And you will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have heard all your disrespectful things that you have said concerning the mountains of Israel, saying: “They have been laid desolate. To us they have been given for food.” 13 And YOU people kept acting in great style against me with YOUR mouths, and YOU have multiplied against me YOUR words. I myself have heard them.’

14 “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘At the same time that all the earth rejoices, a desolate waste is what I shall make of you. 15 Just as there was rejoicing on your part at the inheritance of the house of Israel because it was laid desolate, the same thing I shall make of you. A desolate waste is what you will become, O mountainous region of Se′ir, even all E′dom, all of it; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.’”

36 “And as for you, O son of man, prophesy concerning the mountains of Israel, and you must say, ‘O mountains of Israel, hear the word of Jehovah. [2] This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “For the reason that the enemy has said against YOU, ‘Aha! Even the high places of old time—as a possession it has become ours!’”’

[3] “Therefore prophesy, and you must say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “For the reason, even for the reason that there has been a lying desolate and a snapping at YOU from all sides, in order for YOU to become a possession to the remaining ones of the nations and YOU continue being talked about with the tongue and there is a bad report among people, [4] therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah! This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to the mountains and to the hills, to the streambeds and to the valleys and to the devastated places that were laid desolate and to the abandoned cities that have come to be for plunder and for ridicule to the remaining ones of the nations that are round about; [5] therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Certainly in the fire of my zeal I will speak against the remaining ones of the nations and against E′dom, all of it, those who have given my land to themselves as a possession with the rejoicing of all the heart, with scorn in the soul, for the sake of its pasture ground and for the plunder.’”’

[6] “Therefore prophesy concerning the soil of Israel, and you must say to the mountains and to the hills, to the streambeds and to the valleys, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Look! I myself in my zeal and in my rage must speak, for the reason that humiliation by nations is what YOU have borne.”’

[7] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘I myself have raised my hand in an oath that the nations that YOU have round about—they themselves will bear their own humiliation. [8] And YOU yourselves, O mountains of Israel, will give forth YOUR very own boughs and bear YOUR own fruitage for my people Israel, for they have drawn near to the point of coming in. [9] For here I am in favor of YOU, and I shall certainly turn toward YOU, and YOU will actually be cultivated and sown with seed. [10] And I will multiply upon YOU humankind, the whole house of Israel, all of it, and the cities must become inhabited, and the devastated places themselves will be rebuilt. [11] Yes, I will multiply upon YOU humankind and animalkind, and they will certainly multiply and become fruitful, and I shall actually cause YOU to be inhabited as in YOUR former condition and I will do more good than in YOUR initial state; and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah. [12] And upon YOU I will cause humankind to walk, even my people Israel, and they must take possession of YOU, and YOU must become a hereditary possession to them, and YOU will not bereave them again of any more children.’”

[13] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘For the reason that there are those saying to YOU: “A devourer of humankind is what you yourself are, and a land bereaving your nations of children is what you have become,”’ [14] ‘therefore humankind you will no more devour, and your nations you will no more bereave of children,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. [15] ‘And I shall cause no further humiliating talk by the nations to be heard concerning you, and reproach by peoples you will bear no more, and your nations you will no more cause to stumble,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

[16] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [17] “Son of man, the house of Israel were dwelling upon their soil, and they kept making it unclean with their way and with their dealings. Like the uncleanness of menstruation their way has become before me. [18] And I proceeded to pour out my rage upon them on account of the blood that they had poured out upon the land, which land they had made unclean with their dungy idols. [19] And I proceeded to scatter them among the nations, so that they were dispersed among the lands. According to their way and according to their dealings I judged them. [20] So they came in to the nations where they came in, and people proceeded to profane my holy name in saying with reference to them, ‘These are the people of Jehovah, and from his land they have gone out.’ [21] And I shall have compassion on my holy name, which the house of Israel have profaned among the nations where they have come in.”

[22] “Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Not for YOUR sakes am I doing it, O house of Israel, but for my holy name, which YOU have profaned among the nations where YOU have come in.”’ [23] ‘And I shall certainly sanctify my great name, which was being profaned among the nations, which YOU profaned in the midst of them; and the nations will have to know that I am Jehovah,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘when I am sanctified among YOU before their eyes. [24] And I will take YOU out of the nations and collect YOU together out of all the lands and bring YOU in upon YOUR soil. [25] And I will sprinkle upon YOU clean water, and YOU will become clean; from all YOUR impurities and from all YOUR dungy idols I shall cleanse YOU. [26] And I will give YOU a new heart, and a new spirit I shall put inside YOU, and I will take away the heart of stone from YOUR flesh and give

YOU a heart of flesh. [27] And my spirit I shall put inside YOU, and I will act so that in my regulations YOU will walk, and my judicial decisions YOU will keep and actually carry out. [28] And YOU will certainly dwell in the land that I gave to YOUR forefathers, and YOU must become my people and I myself shall become YOUR God.’

[29] “‘And I will save YOU from all YOUR impurities and call to the grain and make it abound, and I shall put upon YOU no famine. [30] And I shall certainly make the fruitage of the tree abound, and the produce of the field, in order that YOU may no more receive among the nations the reproach of famine. [31] And YOU will be bound to remember YOUR bad ways and YOUR dealings that were not good, and YOU will be bound to feel a loathing at YOUR own person on account of YOUR errors and on account of YOUR detestable things. [32] Not for YOUR sakes am I doing this,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘let it be known to YOU. Be ashamed and feel humiliation because of YOUR ways, O house of Israel.’

[33] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘In the day of my cleansing YOU from all YOUR errors I will also cause the cities to be inhabited, and the devastated places must be rebuilt. [34] And the desolated land itself will be cultivated, whereas it had become a desolate waste before the eyes of every passerby. [35] And people will certainly say: “That land yonder which was laid desolate has become like the garden of E′den, and the cities that were a waste and that were laid desolate and that were torn down are fortified; they have become inhabited.” [36] And the nations that will be left remaining round about YOU will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have built the things torn down, I have planted what has been laid desolate. I myself, Jehovah, have spoken and I have done it.’

37 “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘This is what I shall yet let myself be searched for by the house of Israel to do for them: I shall multiply them like a flock with men. 38 Like a flock of holy persons, like the flock of Jerusalem in her festal seasons, thus the cities that had been a waste will become full of a flock of men; and people will have to know that I am Jehovah.’”

37 The hand of Jehovah proved to be upon me, so that he brought me forth in the spirit of Jehovah and set me down in the midst of the valley plain, and it was full of bones. [2] And he had me pass along by them all round about, and, look! there were very many on the surface of the valley plain and, look! they were very dry. [3] And he began to say to me: “Son of man, can these bones come to life?” To that I said: “Sovereign Lord Jehovah, you yourself well know.” [4] And he went on to say to me: “Prophesy over these bones, and you must say to them, ‘O YOU dry bones, hear the word of Jehovah:

[5] “‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to these bones: “Here I am bringing into YOU breath, and YOU must come to life. [6] And I will put upon YOU sinews and cause to come upon YOU flesh, and I will overlay upon YOU skin and put in YOU breath, and YOU must come to life; and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah.”’”

[7] And I prophesied just as I had been commanded. And a sound began to occur as soon as I prophesied, and here there was a rattling, and bones began to approach, bone to its bone. [8] And I saw, and, look! upon them sinews themselves and flesh itself came up and skin began to be overlaid upon them above. But as regards breath, there was none in them.

[9] And he went on saying to me: “Prophesy to the wind. Prophesy, O son of man, and you must say to the wind, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “From the four winds come in, O wind, and blow upon these killed people, that they may come to life.”’”

[10] And I prophesied just as he had commanded me, and the breath proceeded to come into them, and they began to live and stand upon their feet, a very, very great military force.

[11] And he went on to say to me: “Son of man, as regards these bones, they are the whole house of Israel. Here they are saying, ‘Our bones have become dry, and our hope has perished. We have been severed off to ourselves.’ [12] Therefore prophesy, and you must say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am opening YOUR burial places, and I will bring YOU up out of YOUR burial places, O my people, and bring YOU in upon the soil of Israel. [13] And YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah when I open YOUR burial places and when I bring YOU up out of YOUR burial places, O my people.”’ [14] ‘And I will put my spirit in YOU, and YOU must come to life, and I will settle YOU upon YOUR soil; and YOU will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have spoken and I have done it,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

[15] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [16] “And as for you, O son of man, take for yourself a stick and write upon it, ‘For Judah and for the sons of Israel his partners.’ And take another stick and write upon it, ‘For Joseph, the stick of E′phra·im, and all the house of Israel his partners.’ [17] And cause them to approach each other into one stick for yourself, and they will actually become just one in your hand. [18] And when the sons of your people begin to say to you, ‘Will you not tell us what these things mean to you?’ [19] speak to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am taking the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of E′phra·im, and the tribes of Israel his partners, and I will put them upon it, that is, the stick of Judah, and I shall actually make them one stick, and they must become one in my hand.”’ [20] And the sticks upon which you write must prove to be in your hand before their eyes.

[21] “And speak to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am taking the sons of Israel from among the nations to which they have gone, and I will collect them together from round about and bring them onto their soil. [22] And I shall actually make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and one king is what all of them will come to have as king, and they will no longer continue to be two nations, nor will they be divided any longer into two kingdoms. [23] And they will no longer defile themselves with their dungy idols and with their disgusting things and with all their transgressions; and I shall certainly save them from all their dwelling places in which they have sinned, and I will cleanse them, and they must become my people, and I myself shall become their God.

[24] “‘ “And my servant David will be king over them, and one shepherd is what they will all come to have; and in my judicial decisions they will walk, and my statutes they will keep, and they will certainly carry them out. [25] And they will actually dwell upon the land that I gave to my servant, to Jacob, in which YOUR forefathers dwelt, and they will actually dwell upon it, they and their sons and their sons’ sons to time indefinite, and David my servant will be their chieftain to time indefinite.

[26] “‘ “And I will conclude with them a covenant of peace; an indefinitely lasting covenant is what there will come to be with them. And I will place them and multiply them and place my sanctuary in the midst of them to time indefinite. [27] And my tabernacle will actually prove to be over them, and I shall certainly become their God, and they themselves will become my people. [28] And the nations will have to know that I, Jehovah, am sanctifying Israel when my sanctuary comes to be in the midst of them to time indefinite.”’”

38 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [2] “Son of man, set your face against Gog of the land of Ma′gog, the head chieftain of Me′shech and Tu′bal, and prophesy against him. [3] And you must say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am against you, O Gog, you head chieftain of Me′shech and Tu′bal. [4] And I shall certainly turn you around and put hooks in your jaws and bring you forth with all your military force, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in perfect taste, a numerous congregation, with large shield and buckler, all of them handling swords; [5] Persia, E·thi·o′pi·a and Put with them, all of them with buckler and helmet; [6] Go′mer and all its bands, the house of To·gar′mah, of the remotest parts of the north, and all its bands, many peoples with you.

[7] “‘“Be ready, and let there be preparation on your part, you with all your congregation, those congregated alongside you, and you must become their guard.

[8] “‘“After many days you will be given attention. In the final part of the years you will come to the land of people brought back from the sword, collected together out of many peoples, onto the mountains of Israel, that have proved to be a constantly devastated place; even a land that has been brought forth from the peoples, where they have dwelt in security, all of them. [9] And you will be bound to come up. Like a storm you will come in. Like clouds to cover the land you will become, you and all your bands and many peoples with you.”’

[10] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘And it must occur in that day that things will come up into your heart, and you will certainly think up an injurious scheme; [11] and you must say: “I shall go up against the land of open rural country. I shall come in upon those having no disturbance, dwelling in security, all of them dwelling without wall, and they do not have even bar and doors.” 12 It will be to get a big spoil and to do much plundering, in order to turn your hand back upon devastated places reinhabited and upon a people gathered together out of the nations, one that is accumulating wealth and property, those who are dwelling in the center of the earth.

13 “‘She′ba and De′dan and the merchants of Tar′shish and all its maned young lions—they will say to you: “Is it to get a big spoil that you are coming in? Is it to do much plundering that you have congregated your congregation, in order to carry off silver and gold, to take wealth and property, to get a very great spoil?”’

14 “Therefore prophesy, O son of man, and you must say to Gog, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Will it not be in that day when my people Israel are dwelling in security that you will know it? 15 And you will certainly come from your place, from the remotest parts of the north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great congregation, even a numerous military force. 16 And you will be bound to come up against my people Israel, like clouds to cover the land. In the final part of the days it will occur, and I shall certainly bring you against my land, for the purpose that the nations may know me when I sanctify myself in you before their eyes, O Gog.”’

17 “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Are you the same one of whom I spoke in the former days by the hand of my servants the prophets of Israel, who were prophesying in those days—years—as to bringing you in upon them?’

[18] “‘And it must occur in that day, in the day when Gog comes in upon the soil of Israel,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘that my rage will come up into my nose. [19] And in my ardor, in the fire of my fury, I shall have to speak. Surely in that day a great quaking will occur in the soil of Israel. [20] And because of me the fish of the sea and the flying creatures of the heavens and the wild beasts of the field and all the creeping things that are creeping on the ground and all mankind that are upon the surface of the ground will be bound to shiver, and the mountains will actually be thrown down and the steep ways will have to fall, and to the earth even every wall will fall.’

[21] “‘And I will call forth against him throughout all my mountainous region a sword,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. ‘Against his own brother the sword of each one will come to be. [22] And I will bring myself into judgment with him, with pestilence and with blood; and a flooding downpour and hailstones, fire and sulphur I shall rain down upon him and upon his bands and upon the many peoples that will be with him. [23] And I shall certainly magnify myself and sanctify myself and make myself known before the eyes of many nations; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.’

39 “And as regards you, O son of man, prophesy against Gog, and you must say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “Here I am against you, O Gog, you head chieftain of Me′shech and Tu′bal. [2] And I will turn you around and lead you on and cause you to come up from the remotest parts of the north and bring you in upon the mountains of Israel. [3] And I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and your arrows I shall cause to fall out of your own right hand. [4] On the mountains of Israel you will fall, you and all your bands and the peoples that will be with you. To birds of prey, birds of every sort of wing, and the wild beasts of the field I will give you for food.”’

[5] “‘Upon the surface of the field you will fall, for I myself have spoken,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

[6] “‘And I will send fire upon Ma′gog and upon those who are inhabiting the islands in security; and people will have to know that I am Jehovah. [7] And my holy name I shall make known in the midst of my people Israel, and I shall no more let my holy name be profaned; and the nations will have to know that I am Jehovah, the Holy One in Israel.’

[8] “‘Look! It must come and it must be brought to be,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. ‘This is the day of which I have spoken. [9] And the inhabitants of the cities of Israel will certainly go forth and burn and build fires with the armor and bucklers and large shields,—with the bows and with the arrows and with the handstaves and with the lances; and with them they will have to light fires seven years. [10] And they will not carry sticks of wood from the field, nor will they gather firewood out of the forests, for with the armor they will light fires.’

“‘And they will certainly make spoil of those who had been making spoil of them, and plunder those who had been plundering them,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

11 “‘And it must occur in that day that I shall give to Gog a place there, a burial place in Israel, the valley of those passing through on the east of the sea, and it will be stopping up those passing through. And there they will have to bury Gog and all his crowd, and they will be certain to call it the Valley of Gog’s Crowd. 12 And those of the house of Israel will have to bury them for the purpose of cleansing the land, for seven months. 13 And all the people of the land will have to do the burying, and it will certainly become for them a matter of fame in the day that I glorify myself,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

14 “‘And there will be men for continual employment whom they will divide off, passing along through the land, burying, with those passing through, those left remaining on the surface of the earth, in order to cleanse it. To the end of seven months they will keep making search. 15 And those passing through must pass along through the land, and should one actually see the bone of a man he must also build beside it a marker, until those who do the burying will have buried it in the Valley of Gog’s Crowd. 16 And the name of the city will also be Ha·moʹnah. And they will have to cleanse the land.’

17 “And as regards you, O son of man, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Say to the birds of every sort of wing and to all the wild beasts of the field: “Collect yourselves together and come. Gather yourselves together all around to my sacrifice, which I am sacrificing for YOU, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. And YOU will certainly eat flesh and drink blood. [18] The flesh of mighty ones YOU will eat, and the blood of the chieftains of the earth YOU will drink, rams, young male sheep, and he-goats, young bulls, the fatlings of Ba′shan all of them. [19] And YOU will be certain to eat fat to satisfaction and to drink blood to drunkenness, from my sacrifice that I will sacrifice for YOU.”’

[20] “‘And YOU must get satisfied at my table on horses and charioteers, mighty persons and all sorts of warriors,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

[21] “‘And I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations will have to see my judgment that I have executed and my hand that I have placed among them. [22] And those of the house of Israel will have to know that I am Jehovah their God from that day and forward. [23] And the nations will have to know that it was because of their error that they, the house of Israel, went into exile, on account of the fact that they behaved unfaithfully toward me, so that I concealed my face from them and gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they kept falling, all of them, by the sword. [24] According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions I did with them, and I kept concealing my face from them.’

[25] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘Now is when I shall bring back the captive ones of Jacob and actually have mercy upon all the house of Israel; and I will show exclusive devotion for my holy name. [26] And they will have borne their humiliation and all their unfaithfulness with which they have acted toward me, when they dwell on their soil in security, with no one to make them tremble. [27] When I bring them back from the peoples and I actually collect them together out of the lands of their enemies, I will also sanctify myself among them before the eyes of many nations.’

[28] “‘And they will have to know that I am Jehovah their God, when I send them in exile to the nations and actually bring them together upon their soil, so that I shall leave none of them remaining there any longer. [29] And I shall no longer conceal my face from them, because I will pour out my spirit upon the house of Israel,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, in the start of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city had been struck down, on this very same day the hand of Jehovah proved to be upon me, so that he brought me to that place. [2] In the visions of God he brought me to the land of Israel and gradually set me down upon a very high mountain, on which there was something like the structure of a city to the south.

[3] And he proceeded to bring me there, and, look! there was a man. His appearance was like the appearance of copper, and there was a flax cord in his hand, and a measuring reed, and he was standing in the gate. [4] And the man began to speak to me: “Son of man, see with your eyes, and with your ears hear, and set your heart upon all that I am showing you, because for the purpose of my showing you, you have been brought here. Tell everything that you are seeing to the house of Israel.”

[5] And, look! there was a wall outside the house all round about. And in the hand of the man there was the measuring reed of six cubits, by a cubit and a handbreadth. And he began to measure the breadth of the thing built, one reed; and the height, one reed.

[6] Then he came to the gate, the front of which is toward the east, and went up by its steps. And he began to measure the threshold of the gate, one reed in width, and the other threshold, one reed in width. [7] And the guard chamber was one reed in length and one reed in width, and between the guard chambers there were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate beside the porch of the gate toward the interior was one reed.

[8] And he proceeded to measure the porch of the gate toward the interior, one reed. [9] So he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its side pillars, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the interior.

[10] And the guard chambers of the gate toward the east were three on this side and three on that side. The three of them were of the same measurement, and the side pillars were of the same measurement, on this side and on that side.

[11] Then he measured the width of the entrance of the gate, ten cubits; the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

[12] And the fenced area in front of the guard chambers was one cubit, and there was a fenced area of one cubit on either side. And the guard chamber was six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side.

[13] And he went on to measure the gate from the roof of the one guard chamber to the roof of the other, a width of twenty-five cubits; entrance was across from entrance. [14] Then he made side pillars of sixty cubits, even to the side pillars of the courtyard in the gates all around. [15] And by the front of the gate of the entryway to by the front of the porch of the inner gate was fifty cubits.

[16] And there were windows of narrowing frames for the guard chambers and for their side pillars toward the inside of the gate all around, and that is the way it was for the porches. And the windows were all around toward the inside, and on the side pillars there were palm-tree figures.

[17] And he gradually brought me into the outer courtyard, and, look! there were dining rooms, and a pavement made for the courtyard all around. There were thirty dining rooms upon the pavement. [18] And the pavement at the side of the gates was exactly as the length of the gates—the lower pavement.

[19] And he proceeded to measure the width from in front of the lower gate to the front of the inner courtyard. Outside it was a hundred cubits, to the east and to the north.

[20] And the outer courtyard had a gate the front of which was toward the north. He measured its length and its width. [21] And its guard chambers were three on this side and three on that side. And its own side pillars and its own porch proved to be according to the measurement of the first gate. Fifty cubits was its length, and its width was twenty-five in cubits. [22] And its windows and its porch and its palm-tree figures were of the same measurement as those of the gate the front of which is toward the east. And by seven steps people could go up into it, and its porch was to their front.

[23] And the gate of the inner courtyard was opposite the gate to the north; also one to the east. And he proceeded to measure from gate to gate a hundred cubits.

[24] And he gradually brought me toward the south, and, look! there was a gate toward the south, and he measured its side pillars and its porch as of the same measurements as these. [25] And it and its porch had windows all around, like these windows. Fifty cubits was the length, and the breadth was twenty-five cubits. [26] And there were seven steps for going up to it, and its porch was to their front. And it had palm-tree figures, one on this side and one on that side on its side pillars.

[27] And the inner courtyard had a gate toward the south. And he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits. [28] And he gradually brought me into the inner courtyard by the gate of the south. And he proceeded to measure the gate of the south as of the same measurements as these. [29] And its guard chambers and its side pillars and its porch were of the same measurements as these. And it and its porch had windows round about. Fifty cubits was the length, and the width was twenty-five cubits. [30] And there were porches all around; the length was twenty-five cubits, and the width five cubits. [31] And its porch was to the outer courtyard, and palm-tree figures were on its side pillars, and its ascent was eight steps.

[32] And he gradually brought me into the inner courtyard by way of the east, and he proceeded to measure the gate as of the same measurements as these. [33] And its guard chambers and its side pillars and its porch were of the same measurements as these, and it and its porch had windows all around. The length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. [34] And its porch was toward the outer courtyard, and palm-tree figures were on its side pillars on this side and on that side. And its ascent was eight steps.

[35] And he proceeded to bring me into the north gate, and he measured, with the same measurements as these, [36] its guard chambers, its side pillars and its porch. And it had windows all around. The length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. [37] And to the outer courtyard were its side pillars, and palm-tree figures were on its side pillars on this side and on that side. And its ascent was eight steps.

[38] And a dining room with its entrance was by the side pillars of the gates. There it was that they would rinse the whole burnt offering.

[39] And in the porch of the gate there were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, for slaughtering upon them the whole burnt offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering. [40] And on the outer side, as one goes up to the entrance of the north gate, there were two tables. And on the other side that belongs to the porch of the gate there were two tables. [41] There were four tables over here and four tables over there at the side of the gate—eight tables, upon which they would do the slaughtering. [42] And the four tables for the whole burnt offering were of hewn stone. The length was one cubit and a half, and the width one cubit and a half, and the height one cubit. Upon them they would also deposit the implements with which they would slaughter the whole burnt offering and the sacrifice. [43] And the ledges for setting down things were of one handbreadth, firmly fixed on the interior, all around; and upon the tables they would deposit the flesh of the gift offering.

[44] And on the outside of the inner gate there were the dining rooms of the singers, in the inner courtyard, which is on the side of the north gate. And their front side was toward the south. There was one on the side of the east gate. The front was toward the north.

[45] And he proceeded to speak to me: “This one, the dining room the front of which is toward the south, is for the priests who are taking care of the obligation of the house. [46] And the dining room the front of which is toward the north is for the priests who are taking care of the obligation of the altar. They are the sons of Za′dok, who, from the sons of Le′vi, are approaching Jehovah to minister to him.”

[47] And he went measuring the inner courtyard. The length was a hundred cubits, and the width a hundred cubits, foursquare. And the altar was before the house.

[48] And he proceeded to bring me into the porch of the house, and he went measuring the side pillar of the porch, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side. And the width of the gate was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits. And by steps was how they would go up to it. And there were pillars by the side posts, one over here and one over there.

41 And he proceeded to bring me into the temple, and he went measuring the side pillars, six cubits being the width over here and six cubits the width over there, the width of the side pillar. [2] And the width of the entrance was ten cubits, and the sides of the entrance were five cubits over here and five cubits over there. And he went measuring its length, forty cubits; and the width, twenty cubits.

[3] And he went inside and proceeded to measure the side pillar of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the width of the entrance was seven cubits. [4] And he went measuring its length, twenty cubits; and its width, twenty cubits, before the temple. Then he said to me: “This is the Most Holy.”

[5] And he proceeded to measure the wall of the house, six cubits. And the width of the side chamber was four cubits, round about; all around the house it was, round about. [6] And the side chambers were side chamber upon side chamber, three stories, and for thirty times; and they were entering into the wall that belonged to the house, that is, the side chambers all around, in order that they might be held in, but they were not held in in the wall of the house. [7] And there was a widening out and turning around upward and upward to the side chambers, for the winding passage of the house was upward and upward all around the house. Therefore there was a widening to the house upward, and from the lowest story one could go up to the uppermost story, by the middle story.

[8] And I saw that there was a high platform for the house all around. As regards the foundations of the side chambers, there was a full reed of six cubits to the joining. [9] The width of the wall that belonged to the side chamber, to the outside, was five cubits. And there was a space left open by the construction of the side chambers that belonged to the house.

[10] And between the dining rooms the width was twenty cubits round about the house, all around. [11] And the entrance of the side chamber was to the space left open, one entrance being toward the north and one entrance to the south; and the width of the area of the space left open was five cubits, all around.

[12] And the building that was before the separated area, the side of which was toward the west, was seventy cubits wide. And the wall of the building was five cubits in width, it being all around; and its length was ninety cubits.

[13] And he measured the house, a hundred cubits in length; and the separated area and the building and its walls, a hundred cubits in length. [14] And the width of the front of the house and the separated area to the east was a hundred cubits.

[15] And he measured the length of the building before the separated area that was behind it and its galleries on this side and on that side, a hundred cubits.

Also the temple and the inner place and the porches of the courtyard; [16] the thresholds, and the windows with narrowing frames, and the galleries were round about the three of them. In front of the threshold there was paneling of wood all around, and from the floor up to the windows; and the windows were covered ones. [17] To above the entrance and as far as the inner house and on the outside and upon the whole wall all around, on the inner house and on the outside, there were measurements, [18] even carved cherubs and palm-tree figures, with a palm-tree figure between a cherub and a cherub, and the cherub had two faces. [19] And the face of a man was toward the palm-tree figure on this side, and the face of a maned young lion was toward the palm-tree figure on that side, they being carved on the whole house all around. [20] From the floor to above the entrance there were carved cherubs and palm-tree figures, on the wall of the temple.

[21] As for the temple, the doorpost was squared; and in front of the holy place there was an appearance like the following appearance: [22] the wooden altar was three cubits high, and its length was two cubits, and it had its corner posts. And its length and its walls were of wood. And he proceeded to speak to me: “This is the table that is before Jehovah.”

[23] And the temple and the holy place had two doors. [24] And two door leaves belonged to the doors, the two being turnable. One door had two door leaves, and the other had two door leaves. [25] And there were made upon them, upon the doors of the temple, cherubs and palm-tree figures, like those made for the walls, and there was a canopy of wood over the front of the porch outside. [26] And there were windows of narrowing frames and palm-tree figures over here and over there along the sides of the porch and the side chambers of the house and the canopies.

42 And he gradually brought me forth to the outer courtyard by the way toward the north. And he proceeded to bring me to the dining-room block that was in front of the separated area and that was in front of the building to the north. [2] Before the length of a hundred cubits there was the north entrance, and the width was fifty cubits. [3] In front of the twenty cubits that belonged to the inner courtyard and in front of the pavement that belonged to the outer courtyard there was gallery opposite gallery in three stories. [4] And before the dining rooms there was a walkway ten cubits in width to the inside, a way of one cubit, and their entrances were to the north. [5] And as for the dining rooms, the uppermost ones were shorter, for the galleries took away from them, more than the lowest ones and than the middle ones, as regards the building. [6] For they were in three stories, and they had no pillars like the pillars of the courtyards. That is why more room was taken away than from the lowest ones and from the middle ones from the floor.

[7] And the stone wall that was outside was close by the dining rooms toward the outer courtyard before the other dining rooms. Its length was fifty cubits. [8] For the length of the dining rooms that were toward the outer courtyard was fifty cubits, and, look! before the temple it was a hundred cubits. [9] And from below these dining rooms the entryway was to the east, when one comes in to them from the outer courtyard.

[10] In the width of the stone wall of the courtyard toward the east, before the separated area and before the building, there were dining rooms. [11] And there was a way before them like the appearance of the dining rooms that were toward the north, so their length was and so their width was; and all their exits were alike, and their plans alike and their entrances alike. [12] And like the entrances of the dining rooms that were toward the south was the entrance at the head of the way, the way before the corresponding stone wall toward the east, when one comes in to them.

[13] And he proceeded to say to me: “The dining rooms of the north and the dining rooms of the south that are before the separated area, they are the holy dining rooms, where the priests who are approaching Jehovah eat the most holy things. There they deposit the most holy things and the grain offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering, because the place is holy. [14] When they, the priests, have come in, they will not also go out from the holy place to the outer courtyard, but there they will deposit their garments in which they customarily minister, for they are something holy. They will clothe themselves with other garments, and must approach to what has to do with the people.”

[15] And he finished the measurements of the inner house, and he brought me out by the way of the gate the front of which was toward the east, and he measured it all around.

[16] He measured the eastern side with the measuring reed. It was five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed, round about.

[17] He measured the northern side, five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed, round about.

[18] The southern side he measured, five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed.

[19] He went around to the western side. He measured five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed.

20 For the four sides he measured it. It had a wall all around, with a length of five hundred reeds and a width of five hundred reeds, to make a division between what is holy and what is profane.

43 Then he made me go to the gate, the gate that is facing toward the east. [2] And, look! the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the direction of the east, and his voice was like the voice of vast waters; and the earth itself shone because of his glory. [3] And it was like the appearance of the vision that I had seen, like the vision that I saw when I came to bring the city to ruin; and there were appearances like the appearance that I saw by the river Che′bar, and I went falling upon my face.

[4] And the glory of Jehovah itself came into the House by way of the gate the front of which was toward the east. [5] And a spirit proceeded to raise me up and bring me into the inner courtyard, and, look! the House had become full of the glory of Jehovah. [6] And I began to hear someone speaking to me out of the House, and the man himself had come to be standing beside me. [7] And He went on to say to me:

“Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place of the soles of my feet, where I shall reside in the midst of the sons of Israel to time indefinite; and no more will they, the house of Israel, defile my holy name, they and their kings, by their fornication and by the carcasses of their kings at their death, [8] by their putting their threshold with my threshold and their doorpost beside my doorpost, with the wall between me and them. And they defiled my holy name by their detestable things that they did, so that I went exterminating them in my anger. [9] Now let them remove their fornication and the carcasses of their kings far from me, and I shall certainly reside in the midst of them to time indefinite.

[10] “As for you, O son of man, inform the house of Israel about the House, that they may feel humiliated because of their errors, and they must measure the pattern. [11] And if they actually feel humiliated because of all that they have done, the ground plan of the House, and its arrangement and its exits and its entryways, and all its ground plans and all its specifications, and all its ground plans and all its laws do you make known to them and write before their eyes, in order that they may observe all its ground plan and all its specifications and may actually carry them out. [12] This is the law of the House. On the top of the mountain its entire territory all around is something most holy. Look! This is the law of the House.

[13] “And these are the measurements of the altar in cubits, a cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth. And its bottom is a cubit. And a cubit is the width. And its border is upon its lip round about, one span. And this is the base of the altar. [14] And from the bottom on the floor to the lower surrounding ledge there are two cubits, and the width is one cubit. And from the small surrounding ledge to the big surrounding ledge there are four cubits, and its width is a cubit. [15] And the altar hearth is four cubits, and out from the altar hearth and upward there are the four horns. [16] And the altar hearth is twelve cubits in length, with twelve cubits of width, squared on its four sides. [17] And the surrounding ledge is fourteen cubits in length, with fourteen cubits of width, on its four sides; and the border surrounding it is half a cubit, and its bottom is a cubit round about.

“And its steps are facing east.”

[18] And he proceeded to say to me: “Son of man, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘These are the statutes of the altar on the day of its being made, in order to offer upon it whole burnt offerings and to sprinkle upon it blood.’

[19] “‘And you must give to the Levitical priests, who are of the offspring of Za′dok, the ones approaching me,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘to minister to me, a young bull, the son of the herd, as a sin offering. [20] And you must take some of its blood and put it upon its four horns and upon the four corners of the surrounding ledge and upon the border round about and purify it from sin and make atonement for it. [21] And you must take the young bull, the sin offering, and one must burn it in the appointed place of the House, outside the sanctuary. [22] And on the second day you will bring near a buck of the goats, a sound one, as a sin offering; and they must purify the altar from sin the same as they purified it from sin with the young bull.’

[23] “‘On your making an end of the purifying from sin you will bring near a young bull, the son of the herd, a sound one, and a ram from the flock, a sound one. [24] And you must bring them near before Jehovah, and the priests must throw salt upon them and offer them up as a whole burnt offering to Jehovah. [25] For seven days you will render up a he-goat as a sin offering for the day; and a young bull, the son of the herd, and a ram out of the flock, perfect ones, they will render up. [26] For seven days they will make atonement for the altar, and they must cleanse it and install it. [27] And they will complete the days. And it must occur on the eighth day and from then on that the priests will render upon the altar the whole burnt offerings of YOU people and YOUR communion sacrifices; and I shall certainly find pleasure in YOU,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”

44 And he proceeded to bring me back by way of the gate of the sanctuary, the outer one facing east, and it was shut. 2 Then Jehovah said to me: “As regards this gate, shut is how it will continue. It will not be opened, and no mere man will come in by it; for Jehovah himself, the God of Israel, has come in by it, and it must continue shut. 3 However, the chieftain—as chieftain he himself will sit in it, in order to eat bread before Jehovah. By way of the porch of the gate he will come in, and by way of it he will go out.”

4 And he now brought me by way of the north gate to before the House, that I might see, and, look! the glory of Jehovah had filled the house of Jehovah. And I went falling on my face. 5 Then Jehovah said to me: “Son of man, set your heart and see with your eyes, and with your ears hear all that I am speaking with you regarding all the statutes of the house of Jehovah and regarding all its laws, and you must set your heart upon the entryway of the House with all the exits of the sanctuary. 6 And you must say to Rebelliousness, to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “That is enough of YOU because of all YOUR detestable things, O house of Israel, 7 when YOU bring in the foreigners uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, in order to come to be in my sanctuary so as to profane it, even my house; when YOU present my bread, fat and blood, while they keep breaking my covenant on account of all YOUR detestable things. 8 Neither have YOU taken care of the obligation of my holy things, nor would YOU post others as caretakers of my obligation in my sanctuary for yourselves.”’

9 “‘This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, may come into my sanctuary, that is, any foreigner who is in the midst of the sons of Israel.”’

[10] “‘But as for the Levites who got far away from me when Israel, who wandered away from me, wandered after their dungy idols, they must also bear their error. [11] And in my sanctuary they must become ministers at posts of oversight over the gates of the House and ministers at the House. They themselves will slaughter the whole burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they themselves will stand before them to minister to them. [12] For the reason that they kept ministering to them before their dungy idols and became to the house of Israel a stumbling block into error, that is why I have raised my hand against them,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘and they must bear their error. [13] And they will not approach to me to act as priest to me or to approach to any holy things of mine, to the most holy things, and they must bear their humiliation and their detestable things that they did. [14] And I shall certainly make them caretakers of the obligation of the House, as regards all its service and as regards all that should be done in it.’

[15] “‘And as for the Levitical priests, the sons of Za′dok, who took care of the obligation of my sanctuary when the sons of Israel wandered away from me, they themselves will come near to me to minister to me, and they must stand before me to present to me fat and the blood,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. [16] ‘They are the ones that will come into my sanctuary, and they themselves will come near to my table to minister to me, and they must take care of the obligation to me.

[17] “‘And it must occur that when they come into the gates of the inner courtyard, linen garments they should wear, and no wool should come up on them when they minister in the gates of the inner courtyard and inside. [18] Linen headdresses are what should prove to be on their head, and linen drawers are what should prove to be upon their hips. They should not gird themselves with what causes sweat. [19] And when they go forth to the outer courtyard, even to the outer courtyard to the people, they should strip off their garments in which they were ministering, and they must deposit them in the holy dining rooms and put on other garments, that they may not sanctify the people with their garments. [20] And their head they should not shave, and the hair of the head they should not wear loose. They should by all means clip the hair of their heads. [21] And no wine should any priests drink when they come into the inner courtyard. [22] And no widow or divorced woman should they take for themselves as wives, but virgins of the offspring of the house of Israel or the widow who happens to be the widow of a priest they may take.’

[23] “‘And my people they should instruct in the difference between a holy thing and a profane thing; and the difference between what is unclean and what is clean they should cause them to know. [24] And in a legal case they themselves should stand in order to judge; with my judicial decisions they must also judge it. And my laws and my statutes in regard to all my festal seasons they should keep, and my sabbaths they should sanctify. [25] And to a dead person of mankind he should not come in so as to become unclean, but for father or for mother or for son or for daughter or for brother or for a sister that has not become a husband’s they may make themselves unclean. [26] And after his purification, seven days they should number off for him. [27] And on the day of his coming into the holy place, into the inner courtyard, to minister in the holy place, he should present his sin offering,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

[28] “‘And it must become theirs as an inheritance: I am their inheritance. And no possession should YOU people give them in Israel: I am their possession. [29] The grain offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering—they are the ones who will eat them. And every devoted thing in Israel—theirs it will become. [30] And the first of all the first ripe fruits of everything and every contribution of everything out of all YOUR contributions—to the priests it will come to belong; and the firstfruits of YOUR coarse meals YOU should give to the priest, in order to cause a blessing to rest upon your house. [31] No body already dead and no creature torn to pieces of the flying creatures or of the beasts should the priests eat.’

45 “‘And when YOU people allot the land as an inheritance, YOU should offer a contribution to Jehovah, a holy portion out of the land; as to length, twenty-five thousand cubits in length, and as to width, ten thousand. It will be a holy portion in all its boundaries round about. [2] From this there will prove to be for the holy place five hundred by five hundred, it being made square round about; and fifty cubits it will have as pasture ground on each side. [3] And out of this measurement you should measure the length of twenty-five thousand and the width of ten thousand, and in it the sanctuary will come to be, something most holy. [4] As a holy portion out of the land it will come to be for the priests themselves, the ministers of the sanctuary, those approaching to minister to Jehovah. And for them it must prove to be a place for houses, and a sacred place for the sanctuary.

[5] “‘There will be twenty-five thousand in length and ten thousand in width. It will become the Levites’, the ministers of the House. As a possession they will have twenty dining rooms.

[6] “‘And as the possession of the city, YOU people will give five thousand in width and a length of twenty-five thousand, exactly as the holy contribution. To all the house of Israel it will come to belong.

[7] “‘And for the chieftain there will be on this side and on that side of the holy contribution and of the possession of the city, beside the holy contribution and beside the possession of the city, something on the west side westward and something on the east side eastward. And the length will be exactly as one of the shares, from the western boundary to the eastern boundary. [8] As regards the land, it will become his as a possession in Israel. And no more will my chieftains maltreat my people, and the land they will give to the house of Israel with respect to their tribes.’

[9] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘That is enough of YOU, O chieftains of Israel!’

“‘Remove the violence and the despoiling, and do justice and righteousness themselves. Lift YOUR expropriations off my people,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. [10] ‘Accurate scales and an accurate e′phah and an accurate bath measure YOU men should come to have. [11] As regards the e′phah and the bath measure, there should come to be but one fixed amount, for the bath to carry a tenth of a ho′mer and the tenth of the ho′mer an e′phah; with reference to the ho′mer, its required amount should prove to be. [12] And the shekel is twenty ge′rahs. Twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, fifteen shekels should prove to be the ma′neh for YOU.’

[13] “‘This is the contribution that YOU should offer, the sixth part of the e′phah from the ho′mer of wheat, and the sixth part of the e′phah from the ho′mer of barley; [14] and as for the allowance of the oil, there is the bath measure of the oil. The bath is a tenth of the cor. Ten baths are a ho′mer; because ten baths are a ho′mer. [15] And one sheep out of the flock, out of two hundred from the livestock of Israel, for the grain offering and for the whole burnt offering and for the communion sacrifices, in order to make atonement for them,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

[16] “‘As for all the people of the land, they will be responsible for this contribution to the chieftain in Israel. [17] And upon the chieftain will devolve the whole burnt offerings and the grain offering and the drink offering during the festivals and during the new moons and during the sabbaths, during all the festal seasons of the house of Israel. He will be the one to provide the sin offering and the grain offering and the whole burnt offering and the communion sacrifices, in order to make atonement in behalf of the house of Israel.’

[18] “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘In the first month, on the first day of the month, you should take a young bull, a son of the herd, a sound one, and you must purify the sanctuary from sin. [19] And the priest must take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it upon the doorpost of the House and upon the four corners of the surrounding ledge belonging to the altar and upon the doorpost of the gate of the inner courtyard. [20] And that is how you will do on the seventh day in the month because of any man making a mistake and because of any inexperienced one; and YOU people must make atonement for the House.

[21] “‘In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, there should occur for YOU the passover. As a festival for seven days unfermented cakes are what should be eaten. [22] And on that day, in his own behalf and in behalf of all the people of the land, the chieftain must provide a young bull as a sin offering. [23] And for the seven days of the festival he should provide as a whole burnt offering to Jehovah seven young bulls and seven rams, sound ones, daily for the seven days, and as a sin offering a buck of the goats daily. [24] And as a grain offering an e′phah for the young bull and an e′phah for the ram he should provide, and, as regards oil, a hin to the e′phah.

[25] “‘In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, during the festival, he should provide the same as these for the seven days, the same as the sin offering, as the whole burnt offering, and as the grain offering and as the oil.’”

46 “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘As regards the gate of the inner courtyard that is facing east, it should continue shut for the six workdays, and on the sabbath day it should be opened, and on the day of the new moon it should be opened. [2] And the chieftain must come in by the way of the porch of the gate, from outside, and stand by the doorpost of the gate; and the priests must render up his whole burnt offering and his communion sacrifices, and he must bow down upon the threshold of the gate, and he must go out, but the gate itself should not be shut until the evening. [3] And the people of the land must bow down at the entrance of that gate on the sabbaths and on the new moons, before Jehovah.

[4] “‘And the whole burnt offering that the chieftain should present to Jehovah on the sabbath day should be six sound male lambs and a sound ram; [5] and as a grain offering an e′phah for the ram, and for the male lambs a grain offering as he is able to give, and, as regards oil, a hin to the e′phah. [6] And on the day of the new moon there should be a young bull, the son of the herd, a sound one, and six male lambs and a ram; sound ones they should prove to be. [7] And an e′phah for the young bull and an e′phah for the ram he should render up as a grain offering, and for the male lambs according to what he is able to afford; and, as regards oil, a hin to the e′phah.

[8] “‘And when the chieftain comes in, by the way of the porch of the gate he should come in, and by the way of it he should go out. [9] And when the people of the land come in before Jehovah in the festal seasons, the one coming in by the way of the north gate in order to bow down should go out by the way of the south gate; and the one coming in by the way of the south gate should go out by the way of the gate to the north. No one should go back by the way of the gate by which he came in, for he should go out straight ahead of him. 10 And as regards the chieftain in their midst, when they come in, he should come in; and when they go out, he should go out. 11 And in the festivals and in the festal seasons the grain offering should prove to be an e′phah for the young bull and an e′phah for the ram, and for the male lambs as he is able to give; and, as regards oil, a hin to the e′phah.

12 "‘And in case the chieftain should provide as a voluntary offering a whole burnt offering, or communion sacrifices as a voluntary offering to Jehovah, one must also open to him the gate that is facing east, and he must provide his whole burnt offering and his communion sacrifices just as he does on the sabbath day. And he must go out, and one must shut the gate after his going out.

13 "‘And a sound male lamb, in its first year, you should provide as a whole burnt offering daily to Jehovah. Morning by morning you should provide it. 14 And as a grain offering you should provide with it morning by morning the sixth of an e′phah and, as regards oil, the third of a hin for sprinkling the fine flour. The grain offering to Jehovah is an indefinitely lasting statute, constantly. 15 And they must provide the male lamb and the grain offering and the oil morning by morning as a constant whole burnt offering.’

16 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘In case the chieftain should give a gift to each one of his sons as his inheritance, it itself will become the property of his sons themselves. It is their possession by inheritance. 17 And in case he should give a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, it must also become his until the year of liberty; and it must return to the chieftain. Only his inheritance—as regards his sons—is what should continue to belong to their own selves. [18] And the chieftain should not take any of the inheritance of the people so as to force them out of their possession. From his own possession he should give his sons an inheritance, to the end that my people may not be scattered each one from his possession.’”

[19] And he proceeded to bring me in by the entryway that was by the side of the gate to the holy dining rooms, those belonging to the priests, that were facing to the north, and, look! there was a place there on both rear sides to the west. [20] And he proceeded to say to me: “This is the place where the priests will boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they will bake the grain offering, in order to carry nothing out to the outer courtyard so as to sanctify the people.”

[21] And he proceeded to bring me out to the outer courtyard and make me pass along to the four corner posts of the courtyard, and, look! there was a courtyard by this corner post of the courtyard, a courtyard by that corner post of the courtyard. [22] At the four corner posts of the courtyard there were small courtyards, forty cubits in length and thirty in width. The four of them with corner structures had the same measurement. [23] And there was a row round about them, round about the four of them, and there were boiling places made beneath the rows round about. [24] Then he said to me: “These are the houses of those doing the boiling, where the ministers of the House boil the sacrifice of the people.”

47 And gradually he brought me back to the entrance of the House, and, look! there was water going forth from under the threshold of the House eastward, for the front of the House was east. And the water was going down from under, from the right-hand side of the House, south of the altar.

[2] And he gradually brought me forth by the way of the north gate and took me around by the way outside to the outer gate that is facing toward the east, and, look! water was trickling from the right-hand side.

[3] When the man went forth eastward with a measuring line in his hand, he also proceeded to measure a thousand in cubits and to make me pass through the water, water up to the ankles.

[4] And he continued measuring a thousand and then made me pass through the water, water up to the knees.

And he continued measuring a thousand and now made me pass through—water up to the hips.

[5] And he continued measuring a thousand. It was a torrent that I was not able to pass through, for the water had got high, water permitting swimming, a torrent that could not be passed through.

[6] At that he said to me: “Have you seen this, O son of man?”

Then he had me walk and had me return to the bank of the torrent. [7] When I returned, why, look! on the bank of the torrent there were very many trees, on this side and on that side. [8] And he went on to say to me: “This water is going forth to the eastern region and must go down through the Ar′a·bah. And it must come to the sea. It being brought forth into the sea itself, its water is also actually healed. 9 And it must occur that every living soul that swarms, in every place to which the double-size torrent comes, will get life. And it must occur that there will be very many fish, because there is where this water will certainly come, and the seawater will be healed, and everything will be alive where the torrent comes.

10 “And it must occur that fishers will actually stand alongside it from En-ge′di even up to En-eg′la·im. There will come to be a drying yard for dragnets. In their kinds their fish will prove to be, like the fish of the Great Sea, very many.

11 “There are its swampy places and its marshy places, and they will not be healed. To salt they will certainly be given.

12 “And alongside the torrent there will come up, along its bank on this side and on that side, all sorts of trees for food. Their leafage will not wither, nor will their fruitage be consumed. In their months they will bear new fruit, because the water for them—it is coming forth from the very sanctuary. And their fruitage must prove to be for food and their leafage for healing.”

13 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: “This is the territory that YOU will assign to yourselves for inheritance as the land for the twelve tribes of Israel, with two pieces of field to Joseph. 14 And YOU people must inherit it, each one the same as his brother, which land I raised my hand in an oath to give to YOUR forefathers; and this land must fall to YOU by lot for inheritance.

15 “And this is the boundary of the land to the northern side, from the Great Sea by the way to Heth′lon, as one comes to Ze′dad, 16 Ha′math, Be·ro′thah, Sib′ra·im, which is between the boundary of Damascus and the boundary of Haʹmath; Haʹzer-hatʹti·con, which is toward the boundary of Ha·u·ranʹ. [17] And the boundary from the sea must prove to be Haʹzar-eʹnon, the boundary of Damascus and north—northward, and the boundary of Haʹmath. This is the northern side.

[18] “And the eastern side is from between Ha·u·ranʹ and Damascus and between Gilʹe·ad and the land of Israel; the Jordan, from the boundary to the eastern sea YOU people should measure. This is the eastern side.

[19] “And the southern side is to the south, from Taʹmar to the waters of Merʹi·bath-kaʹdesh, the torrent valley to the Great Sea. This is the side to the south, toward the Negʹeb.

[20] “And the western side is the Great Sea, from the boundary straight ahead to the entering in to Haʹmath. This is the western side.”

[21] “And YOU must apportion this land to yourselves, to the twelve tribes of Israel. [22] And it must occur that YOU should allot it for inheritance to yourselves and to the alien residents who are residing as aliens in YOUR midst, who have become father to sons in the midst of YOU. And they must become to YOU like a native among the sons of Israel. With YOU people they will fall by lot into an inheritance in the midst of the tribes of Israel. [23] And it must occur that in the tribe with which the alien resident has taken up residence as an alien, there is where YOU should give his inheritance,” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

48 “And these are the names of the tribes. From the northern extremity, on the side by the way of Heth′lon to the entering in to Ha′math, Ha′zar-e′nan, the boundary of Damascus northward, on the side of Ha′math; and it must prove to have an eastern border and the western, Dan one portion. [2] And on the boundary of Dan, from the eastern border to the western border, Ash′er one. [3] And on the boundary of Ash′er, from the eastern border even to the western border, Naph′ta·li one. [4] And on the boundary of Naph′ta·li, from the eastern border to the western border, Ma·nas′seh one. [5] And on the boundary of Ma·nas′seh, from the eastern border to the western border, E′phra·im one. [6] And on the boundary of E′phra·im, from the eastern border even to the western border, Reu′ben one. [7] And on the boundary of Reu′ben, from the eastern border to the western border, Judah one. [8] And on the boundary of Judah, from the eastern border to the western border, the contribution that YOU people should contribute should prove to be twenty-five thousand cubits in width, and the length according to one of the portions from the eastern border to the western border. And the sanctuary must prove to be in the midst of it.

[9] “As regards the contribution that YOU should contribute to Jehovah, the length will be twenty-five thousand cubits and the width ten thousand. [10] And as to these there should prove to be the holy contribution for the priests, to the north twenty-five thousand cubits, and to the west a width of ten thousand, and to the east a width of ten thousand, and to the south a length of twenty-five thousand. And the sanctuary of Jehovah must prove to be in the midst of it. [11] It will be for the priests, those who are sanctified from the sons of Za′dok, who took care of the obligation toward me, who did not wander away when the sons of Israel wandered away, just as the Levites wandered away. [12] And they must come to have a contribution from the contribution of the land as something most holy, on the boundary of the Levites.

[13] “And the Levites should have, right next to the territory of the priests, twenty-five thousand cubits in length, and in width ten thousand; the whole length being twenty-five thousand and width being ten thousand. [14] And they should not sell any of it, nor should one make an exchange, nor should one cause the choicest of the land to pass away from them; for it is something holy to Jehovah.

[15] “As regards the five thousand cubits that is left remaining in width alongside the twenty-five thousand, it is something profane for the city, for a dwelling place and for pasture ground. And the city must come to be in the midst of it. [16] And these are the city’s measurements: the northern border four thousand five hundred cubits, and the southern border four thousand five hundred, and the eastern border four thousand five hundred, and the western border four thousand five hundred. [17] And the city must come to have a pasture ground, to the north two hundred and fifty cubits, and to the south two hundred and fifty, and to the east two hundred and fifty, and to the west two hundred and fifty.

[18] “And what is left remaining over in length will be exactly as the holy contribution, ten thousand cubits to the east, and ten thousand to the west; and it must prove to be exactly as the holy contribution, and its produce must come to be for bread for the ones serving the city. [19] And those who are serving the city out of all the tribes of Israel will cultivate it.

[20] “The whole contribution is twenty-five thousand cubits by twenty-five thousand. A foursquare part YOU people should contribute as the holy contribution with the possession of the city.

[21] “And what is left over will belong to the chieftain, on this side and on that side of the holy contribution and of the possession of the city, alongside the twenty-five thousand cubits of the contribution to the eastern boundary; and on the west alongside the twenty-five thousand cubits to the western boundary. Exactly like the portions, it will be for the chieftain. And the holy contribution and the sanctuary of the House must prove to be in the midst of it.

[22] “And as regards the possession of the Levites and the possession of the city, in between what belongs to the chieftain it should prove to be. Between the boundary of Judah and the boundary of Benjamin it should come to belong to the chieftain.

[23] “And as regards the rest of the tribes, from the eastern border to the western border, Benjamin one portion. [24] And by the boundary of Benjamin, from the eastern border to the western border, Sim′e·on one. [25] And by the boundary of Sim′e·on, from the eastern border to the western border, Is′sa·char one. [26] And by the boundary of Is′sa·char, from the eastern border to the western border, Zeb′u·lun one. [27] And by the boundary of Zeb′u·lun, from the eastern border to the western border, Gad one. [28] And by the boundary of Gad, to the southern border, it will be southward; and the boundary must prove to be from Ta′mar to the waters of Mer′i·bath-ka′desh, to the torrent valley, as far as the Great Sea.

[29] “This will be the land that YOU people should cause to fall by lot for inheritance to the tribes of Israel, and these will be their shares,” is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

[30] “And these will be the outlets of the city: On the northern border, four thousand five hundred cubits will be the measurement.

[31] “And the gates of the city will be according to the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates being on the north, the gate of Reu′ben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Le′vi, one.

[32] “And on the eastern border there will be four thousand five hundred cubits, and three gates, even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one.

[33] “And the southern border will be four thousand five hundred cubits as to measurement, with three gates, the gate of Sim′e·on, one; the gate of Is′sa·char, one; the gate of Zeb′u·lun, one.

[34] “The western border will be four thousand five hundred cubits, there being three gates, the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Ash′er, one; the gate of Naph′ta·li, one.

[35] “Round about there will be eighteen thousand cubits; and the name of the city from that day on will be Jehovah Himself Is There.”

DANIEL

1 In the third year of the kingship of Je·hoi′a·kim the king of Judah, Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and proceeded to lay siege to it. [2] In time Jehovah gave into his hand Je·hoi′a·kim the king of Judah and a part of the utensils of the house of the true God, so that he brought them to the land of Shi′nar to the house of his god; and the utensils he brought to the treasure-house of his god.

[3] Then the king said to Ash′pe·naz his chief court official to bring some of the sons of Israel and of the royal offspring and of the nobles, [4] children in whom there was no defect at all, but good in appearance and having insight into all wisdom and being acquainted with knowledge, and having discernment of what is known, in whom also there was ability to stand in the palace of the king; and to teach them the writing and the tongue of the Chal·de′ans. [5] Furthermore, to them the king appointed a daily allowance from the delicacies of the king and from his drinking wine, even to nourish them for three years, that at the end of these they might stand before the king.

[6] Now there happened to be among them some of the sons of Judah, Daniel, Han·a·ni′ah, Mish′a·el and Az·a·ri′ah. [7] And to them the principal court official went assigning names. So he assigned to Daniel the name of Bel·te·shaz′zar; and to Han·a·ni′ah, Sha′drach; and to Mish′a·el, Me′shach; and to Az·a·ri′ah, A·bed′ne·go.

[8] But Daniel determined in his heart that he would not pollute himself with the delicacies of the king and with his drinking wine. And he kept requesting of the principal court official that he might not pollute himself. [9] Accordingly the true God gave Daniel over to loving-kindness and to mercy before the principal court official. [10] So the principal court official said to Daniel: “I am in fear of my lord the king, who has appointed YOUR food and YOUR drink. Why, then, should he see YOUR faces dejected-looking in comparison with the children who are of the same age as YOURS, and why should YOU have to make my head guilty to the king?” [11] But Daniel said to the guardian whom the principal court official had appointed over Daniel, Han·a·niʹah, Mishʹa·el and Az·a·riʹah: [12] “Please, put your servants to the test for ten days, and let them give us some vegetables that we may eat and water that we may drink; [13] and let our countenances and the countenance of the children who are eating the delicacies of the king appear before you, and according to what you see do with your servants.”

[14] Finally he listened to them as regards this matter and put them to the test for ten days. [15] And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared better and fatter in flesh than all the children who were eating the delicacies of the king. [16] So the guardian kept on taking away their delicacies and their drinking wine and giving them vegetables. [17] And as for these children, the four of them, to them the true God gave knowledge and insight in all writing and wisdom; and Daniel himself had understanding in all sorts of visions and dreams.

[18] And at the end of the days that the king had said to bring them in, the principal court official also proceeded to bring them in before Neb·u·chad·nezʹzar. [19] And the king began to speak with them, and out of them all no one was found like Daniel, Han·a·niʹah, Mishʹa·el and Az·a·riʹah; and they continued to stand before the king. [20] And as regards every matter of wisdom and understanding that the king inquired about from them, he even got to find them ten times better than all the magic-practicing priests and the conjurers that were in all his royal realm. [21] And Daniel continued on until the first year of Cyrus the king.

2 And in the second year of the kingship of Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, Neb·u·chad·nez′zar dreamed dreams; and his spirit began to feel agitated, and his very sleep was made to be something beyond him. [2] So the king said to call the magic-practicing priests and the conjurers and the sorcerers and the Chal·de′ans to tell the king his dreams. And they proceeded to come in and to stand before the king. [3] Then the king said to them: “There is a dream that I have dreamed, and my spirit is agitated to know the dream.” [4] At that the Chal·de′ans spoke to the king in the Ar·a·ma′ic language: “O king, live on even for times indefinite. Say what the dream is to your servants, and we shall show the very interpretation.”

[5] The king was answering and saying to the Chal·de′ans: “The word is being promulgated by me: If YOU men do not make the dream known to me, and its interpretation, dismembered is what YOU will be, and into public privies YOUR own houses will be turned. [6] But if the dream and its interpretation YOU will show, gifts and a present and much dignity YOU will receive on my part. Therefore show me the very dream and its interpretation.”

[7] They answered a second time and were saying: “Let the king say what the dream is to his servants, and we shall show its very interpretation.”

[8] The king was answering and saying: “For a fact, I am aware that time is what YOU men are trying to gain, forasmuch as YOU have perceived that the word is being promulgated by me. [9] For if YOU do not make known to me the very dream, this one and only sentence is upon YOU. But it is a lying and wrong word that YOU have agreed to say before me, until the time itself is changed. Therefore tell me the very dream, and I shall know that YOU can show the very interpretation of it.”

10 The Chal·deʹans answered before the king, and they were saying: “There does not exist a man on the dry land that is able to show the matter of the king, forasmuch as no grand king or governor has asked such a thing as this of any magic-practicing priest or conjurer or Chal·deʹan. 11 But the thing that the king himself is asking is difficult, and nobody else exists who can show it before the king except the gods, whose own dwelling does not exist with flesh at all.”

12 Because of this the king himself became angry and got very furious, and he said to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. 13 And the order itself went out, and the wise men were about to be killed; and they looked for Daniel and his companions, for them to be killed.

14 At that time Daniel, for his part, addressed himself with counsel and sensibleness to Arʹi·och the chief of the king’s bodyguard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon. 15 He was answering and saying to Arʹi·och the officer of the king: “For what reason is there such a harsh order on the part of the king?” Then it was that Arʹi·och made known the matter itself to Daniel. 16 So Daniel himself went in and asked from the king that he should give him time expressly to show the very interpretation to the king.

17 After that Daniel went to his own house; and to Han·a·niʹah, Mishʹa·el and Az·a·riʹah his companions he made known the matter, 18 even for them to ask for mercies on the part of the God of heaven concerning this secret, in order that they might not destroy Daniel and his companions with the remainder of the wise men of Babylon.

[19] Then it was that to Daniel in a night vision the secret was revealed. Consequently Daniel himself blessed the God of heaven. [20] Daniel was answering and saying: “Let the name of God become blessed from time indefinite even to time indefinite, for wisdom and mightiness—for they belong to him. [21] And he is changing times and seasons, removing kings and setting up kings, giving wisdom to the wise ones and knowledge to those knowing discernment. [22] He is revealing the deep things and the concealed things, knowing what is in the darkness; and with him the light does dwell. [23] To you, O God of my forefathers, I am giving praise and commendation, because wisdom and mightiness you have given to me. And now you have made known to me what we requested of you, for you have made known to us the very matter of the king.”

[24] Because of this Daniel himself went in to Ar′i·och, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went, and this is what he said to him: “Do not destroy any wise men of Babylon. Take me in before the king, that I may show the interpretation itself to the king.”

[25] Then it was that Ar′i·och, in a hurry, took Daniel in before the king, and this is what he said to him: “I have found an able-bodied man of the exiles of Judah who can make known the interpretation itself to the king.” [26] The king was answering and saying to Daniel, whose name was Bel·te·shaz′zar: “Are you competent enough to make known to me the dream that I beheld, and its interpretation?” [27] Daniel was answering before the king and saying: “The secret that the king himself is asking, the wise men, the conjurers, the magic-practicing priests and the astrologers themselves are unable to show to the king. [28] However, there exists a God in the heavens who is a Revealer of secrets, and he has made known to King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar what is to occur in the final part of the days. Your dream and the visions of your head upon your bed—this it is:

[29] “As for you, O king, on your bed your own thoughts came up as regards what is to occur after this, and the One who is the Revealer of secrets has made known to you what is to occur. [30] And as for me, it is not through any wisdom that exists in me more than in any others alive that this secret is revealed to me, except to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king himself and that the thoughts of your heart you may know.

[31] “You, O king, happened to be beholding, and, look! a certain immense image. That image, which was large and the brightness of which was extraordinary, was standing in front of you, and its appearance was dreadful. [32] As regards that image, its head was of good gold, its breasts and its arms were of silver, its belly and its thighs were of copper, [33] its legs were of iron, its feet were partly of iron and partly of molded clay. [34] You kept on looking until a stone was cut out not by hands, and it struck the image on its feet of iron and of molded clay and crushed them. [35] At that time the iron, the molded clay, the copper, the silver and the gold were, all together, crushed and became like the chaff from the summer threshing floor, and the wind carried them away so that no trace at all was found of them. And as for the stone that struck the image, it became a large mountain and filled the whole earth.

[36] “This is the dream, and its interpretation we shall say before the king. [37] You, O king, the king of kings, you to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the might, and the strength and the dignity, [38] and into whose hand he has given, wherever the sons of mankind are dwelling, the beasts of the field and the winged creatures of the heavens, and whom he has made ruler over all of them, you yourself are the head of gold.

[39] “And after you there will rise another kingdom inferior to you; and another kingdom, a third one, of copper, that will rule over the whole earth.

[40] “And as for the fourth kingdom, it will prove to be strong like iron. Forasmuch as iron is crushing and grinding everything else, so, like iron that shatters, it will crush and shatter even all these.

[41] “And whereas you beheld the feet and the toes to be partly of molded clay of a potter and partly of iron, the kingdom itself will prove to be divided, but somewhat of the hardness of iron will prove to be in it, forasmuch as you beheld the iron mixed with moist clay. [42] And as for the toes of the feet being partly of iron and partly of molded clay, the kingdom will partly prove to be strong and will partly prove to be fragile. [43] Whereas you beheld iron mixed with moist clay, they will come to be mixed with the offspring of mankind; but they will not prove to be sticking together, this one to that one, just as iron is not mixing with molded clay.

[44] “And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be brought to ruin. And the kingdom itself will not be passed on to any other people. It will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms, and it itself will stand to times indefinite; [45] forasmuch as you beheld that out of the mountain a stone was cut not by hands, and that it crushed the iron, the copper, the molded clay, the silver and the gold. The Grand God himself has made known to the king what is to occur after this. And the dream is reliable, and the interpretation of it is trustworthy.”

[46] At that time King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar himself fell down upon his face, and to Daniel he paid homage, and he said to offer even a present and incense to him. 47 The king was answering Daniel and saying: “Truly the God of YOU men is a God of gods and a Lord of kings and a Revealer of secrets, because you were able to reveal this secret.” 48 Consequently the king made Daniel someone great, and many big gifts he gave to him, and he made him the ruler over all the jurisdictional district of Babylon and the chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon. 49 And Daniel, for his part, made a request of the king, and he appointed over the administration of the jurisdictional district of Babylon Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go, but Daniel was in the court of the king.

3 Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king made an image of gold, the height of which was sixty cubits and the breadth of which was six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Du′ra in the jurisdictional district of Babylon. [2] And Neb·u·chad·nez′zar himself as king sent to assemble the satraps, the prefects and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the police magistrates and all the administrators of the jurisdictional districts to come to the inauguration of the image that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king had set up.

[3] At that time the satraps, the prefects and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the police magistrates and all the administrators of the jurisdictional districts were assembling themselves for the inauguration of the image that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king had set up, and they were standing in front of the image that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had set up. [4] And the herald was crying out loudly: “To YOU it is being said, O peoples, national groups and languages, [5] that at the time that YOU hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, the zither, the triangular harp, the stringed instrument, the bagpipe and all sorts of musical instruments, YOU fall down and worship the image of gold that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king has set up. [6] And whoever does not fall down and worship will at the same moment be thrown into the burning fiery furnace.” [7] Because of this, at the same time as all the peoples were hearing the sound of the horn, the pipe, the zither, the triangular harp, the stringed instrument and all sorts of musical instruments, all the peoples, national groups and languages were falling down and worshiping the image of gold that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king had set up.

[8] Because of this, at that same time certain Chal·de′ans approached and accused the Jews. [9] They answered, and they were saying to Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king: “O king, live on even for times indefinite. [10] You yourself, O king, set forth the command that every man that hears the sound of the horn, the pipe, the zither, the triangular harp, the stringed instrument, and the bagpipe and all sorts of musical instruments, should fall down and worship the image of gold; [11] and that whoever would not fall down and worship should be thrown into the burning fiery furnace. [12] There exist certain Jews whom you appointed over the administration of the jurisdictional district of Babylon, Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go; these able-bodied men have paid no regard to you, O king, they are not serving your own gods, and the image of gold that you have set up they are not worshiping.”

[13] At that time Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, in a rage and fury, said to bring in Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go. Consequently these able-bodied men were brought in before the king. [14] Neb·u·chad·nez′zar was answering and saying to them: “Is it really so, O Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go, that YOU are not serving my own gods, and the image of gold that I have set up YOU are not worshiping? [15] Now if YOU are ready so that when YOU hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, the zither, the triangular harp, the stringed instrument, and the bagpipe and all sorts of musical instruments, YOU fall down and worship the image that I have made, all right. But if YOU do not worship, at that same moment YOU will be thrown into the burning fiery furnace. And who is that god that can rescue YOU out of my hands?”

[16] Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go answered, and they were saying to the king: “O Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, we are under no necessity in this regard to say back a word to you. 17 If it is to be, our God whom we are serving is able to rescue us. Out of the burning fiery furnace and out of your hand, O king, he will rescue us. 18 But if not, let it become known to you, O king, that your gods are not the ones we are serving, and the image of gold that you have set up we will not worship.”

19 Then it was that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar himself got filled with fury, and the very expression of his face was changed toward Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go. He was answering and saying to heat up the furnace seven times more than it was customary to heat it up. 20 And to certain able-bodied men of vital energy who were in his military force he said to bind Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go, in order to throw them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then it was that these able-bodied men were bound in their mantles, their garments and their caps and their other clothing and were thrown into the burning fiery furnace. 22 Just because the king’s word was harsh and the furnace was heated to excess, these able-bodied men that took up Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go were the ones that the fiery flame killed. 23 But these other able-bodied men, the three of them, Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go, fell down bound in the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 At that time Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king himself became frightened and he rose up in a hurry. He was answering and saying to his high royal officials: “Was it not three able-bodied men that we threw bound into the midst of the fire?” They were answering and saying to the king: “Yes, O king.” 25 He was answering and saying: “Look! I am beholding four able-bodied men walking about free in the midst of the fire, and there is no hurt to them, and the appearance of the fourth one is resembling a son of the gods.”

[26] Then it was that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar approached the door of the burning fiery furnace. He was answering and saying: “Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go, YOU servants of the Most High God, step out and come here! ” At that time Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go were stepping out from the midst of the fire. [27] And the satraps, the prefects and the governors and the high officials of the king that were assembled were beholding these able-bodied men, that the fire had had no power over their bodies, and not a hair of their head had been singed, and even their mantles had not been changed and the smell of fire itself had not come onto them.

[28] Neb·u·chad·nez′zar was answering and saying: “Blessed be the God of Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go, who sent his angel and rescued his servants that trusted in him and that changed the very word of the king and gave over their bodies, because they would not serve and would not worship any god at all except their own God. [29] And from me an order is being put through, that any people, national group or language that says anything wrong against the God of Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go should be dismembered, and its house should be turned into a public privy; forasmuch as there does not exist another god that is able to deliver like this one.”

[30] At that time the king himself caused Sha′drach, Me′shach and A·bed′ne·go to prosper in the jurisdictional district of Babylon.

4 “Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king, to all the peoples, national groups and languages that are dwelling in all the earth: May YOUR peace grow great. [2] The signs and wonders that the Most High God has performed with me, it has seemed good to me to declare. [3] How grand his signs are, and how mighty his wonders are! His kingdom is a kingdom to time indefinite, and his rulership is for generation after generation.

[4] “I, Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, happened to be at ease in my house and flourishing in my palace. [5] There was a dream that I beheld, and it began to make me afraid. And there were mental images upon my bed and visions of my head that began to frighten me. [6] And from me an order was being put through to bring in before me all the wise men of Babylon, that they might make known to me the very interpretation of the dream.

[7] “At that time the magic-practicing priests, the conjurers, the Chal·de′ans and the astrologers were entering; and I was saying before them what the dream was, but its interpretation they were not making known to me. [8] And at last there came in before me Daniel, whose name is Bel·te·shaz′zar according to the name of my god and in whom there is the spirit of the holy gods; and before him I said what the dream was:

[9] “‘O Bel·te·shaz′zar the chief of the magic-practicing priests, because I myself well know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that there is no secret at all that is troubling you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have beheld and its interpretation.

[10] “‘Now the visions of my head upon my bed I happened to be beholding, and, look! a tree in the midst of the earth, the height of which was immense. [11] The tree grew up and became strong, and its very height finally reached the heavens, and it was visible to the extremity of the whole earth. [12] Its foliage was fair, and its fruit was abundant, and there was food for all on it. Under it the beast of the field would seek shade, and on its boughs the birds of the heavens would dwell, and from it all flesh would feed itself.

[13] “‘I continued beholding in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, look! a watcher, even a holy one, coming down from the heavens themselves. [14] He was calling out loudly, and this is what he was saying: “CHOP the tree down, and cut off its boughs. SHAKE off its foliage, and scatter its fruitage. Let the beast flee from under it, and the birds from its boughs. [15] However, LEAVE its rootstock itself in the earth, even with a banding of iron and of copper, among the grass of the field; and with the dew of the heavens let it be wet, and with the beast let its portion be among the vegetation of the earth. [16] Let its heart be changed from that of mankind, and let the heart of a beast be given to it, and let seven times pass over it. [17] By the decree of watchers the thing is, and by the saying of holy ones the request is, to the intent that people living may know that the Most High is Ruler in the kingdom of mankind and that to the one whom he wants to, he gives it and he sets up over it even the lowliest one of mankind.”

[18] “‘This was the dream that I myself, King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, beheld; and you yourself, O Bel·te·shaz′zar, say what the interpretation is, forasmuch as all the other wise men of my kingdom are unable to make known to me the interpretation itself. But you are competent, because the spirit of holy gods is in you.’

[19] “At that time Daniel himself, whose name is Bel·te·shazʹzar, was astonished for a moment, and his very thoughts began to frighten him.

“The king was answering and saying, ‘O Bel·te·shazʹzar, do not let the dream and the interpretation themselves frighten you.’

“Bel·te·shazʹzar was answering and saying, ‘O my lord, may the dream apply to those hating you, and its interpretation to your adversaries.

[20] “‘The tree that you beheld, that grew great and became strong and the height of which finally reached the heavens and which was visible to all the earth, [21] and the foliage of which was fair, and the fruit of which was abundant, and on which there was food for all; under which the beasts of the field would dwell, and on the boughs of which the birds of the heavens would reside, [22] it is you, O king, because you have grown great and become strong, and your grandeur has grown great and reached to the heavens, and your rulership to the extremity of the earth.

[23] “‘And because the king beheld a watcher, even a holy one, coming down from the heavens, who was also saying: “CHOP the tree down, and RUIN it. However, LEAVE its rootstock itself in the earth, but with a banding of iron and of copper, among the grass of the field, and with the dew of the heavens let it become wet, and with the beasts of the field let its portion be until seven times themselves pass over it,” [24] this is the interpretation, O king, and the decree of the Most High is that which must befall my lord the king. [25] And you they will be driving away from men, and with the beasts of the field your dwelling will come to be, and the vegetation is what they will give even to you to eat just like bulls; and with the dew of the heavens you yourself will be getting wet, and seven times themselves will pass over you, until you know that the Most High is Ruler in the kingdom of mankind, and that to the one whom he wants to he gives it.

26 "'And because they said to leave the rootstock of the tree, your kingdom will be sure to you after you know that the heavens are ruling. 27 Therefore, O king, may my counsel seem good to you, and remove your own sins by righteousness, and your iniquity by showing mercy to the poor ones. Maybe there will occur a lengthening of your prosperity.'"

28 All this befell Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king.

29 At the end of twelve lunar months he happened to be walking upon the royal palace of Babylon. 30 The king was answering and saying: "Is not this Babylon the Great, that I myself have built for the royal house with the strength of my might and for the dignity of my majesty?"

31 While the word was yet in the king's mouth, there was a voice that fell from the heavens: "To you it is being said, O Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king, 'The kingdom itself has gone away from you, 32 and from mankind they are driving even you away, and with the beasts of the field your dwelling will be. Vegetation they will give even to you to eat just like bulls, and seven times themselves will pass over you, until you know that the Most High is Ruler in the kingdom of mankind, and that to the one whom he wants to he gives it.'"

33 At that moment the word itself was fulfilled upon Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, and from mankind he was being driven away, and vegetation he began to eat just like bulls, and with the dew of the heavens his own body got to be wet, until his very hair grew long just like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

34 “And at the end of the days I, Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, lifted up to the heavens my eyes, and my own understanding began to return to me; and I blessed the Most High himself, and the One living to time indefinite I praised and glorified, because his rulership is a rulership to time indefinite and his kingdom is for generation after generation. 35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are being considered as merely nothing, and he is doing according to his own will among the army of the heavens and the inhabitants of the earth. And there exists no one that can check his hand or that can say to him, ‘What have you been doing?’

36 “At the same time my understanding itself began to return to me, and for the dignity of my kingdom my majesty and my brightness themselves began to return to me; and for me even my high royal officers and my grandees began eagerly searching, and I was reestablished upon my own kingdom, and greatness extraordinary was added to me.

37 “Now I, Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, am praising and exalting and glorifying the King of the heavens, because all his works are truth and his ways are justice, and because those who are walking in pride he is able to humiliate.”

5 As regards Bel·shazʹzar the king, he made a big feast for a thousand of his grandees, and in front of the thousand he was drinking wine. [2] Bel·shazʹzar, under the influence of the wine, said to bring in the vessels of gold and of silver that Neb·u·chad·nezʹzar his father had taken away from the temple that was in Jerusalem, that from them the king and his grandees, his concubines and his secondary wives might drink. [3] At that time they brought in the vessels of gold that they had taken away from the temple of the house of God that was in Jerusalem, and from them the king and his grandees, his concubines and his secondary wives drank. [4] They drank wine, and they praised the gods of gold and of silver, copper, iron, wood and stone.

[5] At that moment the fingers of a man's hand came forth and were writing in front of the lampstand upon the plaster of the wall of the palace of the king, and the king was beholding the back of the hand that was writing. [6] At that time, as regards the king, his very complexion was changed in him, and his own thoughts began to frighten him, and his hip joints were loosening and his very knees were knocking each other.

[7] The king was calling out loudly to bring in the conjurers, the Chal·deʹans and the astrologers. The king was answering and saying to the wise men of Babylon: "Any man that will read this writing and show me its very interpretation, with purple he will be clothed, with a necklace of gold about his neck, and as the third one in the kingdom he will rule."

[8] At that time all the wise men of the king were coming in, but they were not competent enough to read the writing itself or to make known to the king the interpretation. [9]

Consequently King Bel·shazʹzar was very much frightened and his complexion was changing within him; and his grandees were perplexed.

10 As regards the queen, because of the words of the king and his grandees she entered right into the banqueting hall. The queen answered and said: “O king, keep living even to times indefinite. Do not let your thoughts frighten you, nor let your complexion be changed. 11 There exists a capable man in your kingdom in whom there is the spirit of holy gods; and in the days of your father illumination and insight and wisdom like the wisdom of gods were found in him, and King Neb·u·chad·nezʹzar your father himself set him up as chief of the magic-practicing priests, the conjurers, the Chal·deʹans and the astrologers, even your father, O king; 12 forasmuch as an extraordinary spirit and knowledge and insight to interpret dreams and the explanation of riddles and the untying of knots had been found in him, in Daniel, whom the king himself named Bel·te·shazʹzar. Now let Daniel himself be called, that he may show the very interpretation.”

13 Accordingly Daniel himself was brought in before the king. The king was speaking up and saying to Daniel: “Are you the Daniel that is of the exiles of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? 14 I have also heard concerning you that the spirit of gods is in you, and illumination and insight and wisdom extraordinary have been found in you. 15 And now there have been brought in before me the wise men and the conjurers, that they may read this very writing, even to make known to me its interpretation; but they are not competent enough to show the very interpretation of the word. 16 And I myself have heard concerning you, that you are able to furnish interpretations and to untie knots themselves. Now, if you are able to read the writing and to make known to me its very interpretation, with purple you will be clothed, with a necklace of gold around your neck, and as the third one in the kingdom you will rule.”

17 At that time Daniel was answering and saying before the king: “Let your gifts prove to be to you yourself, and your presents do you give to others. However, I shall read the writing itself to the king, and the interpretation I shall make known to him. 18 As for you, O king, the Most High God himself gave to Neb·u·chad·nez′zar your father the kingdom and the greatness and the dignity and the majesty. 19 And because of the greatness that He gave him, all peoples, national groups and languages proved to be quaking and showing fear before him. Whom he happened to want to, he was killing; and whom he happened to want to, he was striking; and whom he happened to want to, he was exalting; and whom he happened to want to, he was humiliating. 20 But when his heart became haughty and his own spirit became hard, so as to act presumptuously, he was brought down from the throne of his kingdom, and his own dignity was taken away from him. 21 And from the sons of mankind he was driven away, and his very heart was made like that of a beast, and with the wild asses his dwelling was. Vegetation they would give him to eat just like bulls, and with the dew of the heavens his own body got to be wet, until he knew that the Most High God is Ruler in the kingdom of mankind, and that the one whom he wants to, he sets up over it.

22 “And as for you, his son Bel·shaz′zar, you have not humbled your heart, although you knew all this. 23 But against the Lord of the heavens you exalted yourself, and they brought before you even the vessels of his house; and you yourself and your grandees, your concubines and your secondary wives have been drinking wine from them, and you have praised mere gods of silver and of gold, copper, iron, wood and stone, that are beholding nothing or hearing nothing or knowing nothing; but the God in whose hand your breath is and to whom all your ways belong you have not glorified. [24] Consequently from before him there was being sent the back of a hand, and this very writing was inscribed. [25] And this is the writing that was inscribed: ME′NE, ME′NE, TE′KEL and PAR′SIN.

[26] “This is the interpretation of the word: ME′NE, God has numbered the days of your kingdom and has finished it.

[27] “TE′KEL, you have been weighed in the balances and have been found deficient.

[28] “PE′RES, your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and the Persians.”

[29] At that time Bel·shaz′zar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with purple, with a necklace of gold about his neck; and they heralded concerning him that he was to become the third ruler in the kingdom.

[30] In that very night Bel·shaz′zar the Chal·de′an king was killed [31] and Da·ri′us the Mede himself received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

6 It seemed good to Da·ri′us, and he set up over the kingdom one hundred and twenty satraps, who were to be over the whole kingdom; [2] and over them three high officials, of whom Daniel was one, in order that these satraps might continually be giving to them the report and the king himself might not become the loser. [3] Then it was that this Daniel was steadily distinguishing himself over the high officials and the satraps, forasmuch as an extraordinary spirit was in him; and the king was intending to elevate him over all the kingdom.

[4] At that time the high officials and the satraps themselves were constantly seeking to find some pretext against Daniel respecting the kingdom; but there was no pretext or corrupt thing at all that they were able to find, forasmuch as he was trustworthy and no negligence or corrupt thing at all was found in him. [5] Consequently these able-bodied men were saying: “We shall find in this Daniel no pretext at all, except we have to find it against him in the law of his God.”

[6] Accordingly these high officials and satraps themselves entered as a throng to the king, and this is what they were saying to him: “O Da·ri′us the king, live on even for times indefinite. [7] All the high officials of the kingdom, the prefects and the satraps, the high royal officers and the governors, have taken counsel together to establish a royal statute and to enforce an interdict, that whoever makes a petition to any god or man for thirty days except to you, O king, should be thrown to the lions’ pit. [8] Now, O king, may you establish the statute and sign the writing, in order for it not to be changed, according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which is not annulled.”

[9] In accord with this, King Da·riʹus himself signed the writing and the interdict.

[10] But Daniel, as soon as he knew that the writing had been signed, entered into his house, and, the windows in his roof chamber being open for him toward Jerusalem, even three times in a day he was kneeling on his knees and praying and offering praise before his God, as he had been regularly doing prior to this. [11] At that time these able-bodied men themselves crowded in and found Daniel petitioning and imploring favor before his God.

[12] Then it was that they approached and were saying before the king concerning the interdict of the king: “Is there not an interdict that you have signed that any man that asks a petition from any god or man for thirty days except from you, O king, he should be thrown to the lions’ pit?” The king was answering and saying: “The matter is well established according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which is not annulled.” [13] Immediately they answered, and they were saying before the king: “Daniel, who is of the exiles of Judah, has paid no regard to you, O king, nor to the interdict that you signed, but three times in a day he is making his petition.” [14] Consequently the king, as soon as he heard the word, it was very displeasing to him, and toward Daniel he set his mind in order to rescue him; and till the setting of the sun he kept on striving to deliver him. [15] Finally these able-bodied men themselves entered as a throng to the king, and they were saying to the king: “Take note, O king, that the law belonging to the Medes and the Persians is that any interdict or statute that the king himself establishes is not to be changed.”

[16] Accordingly the king himself commanded, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the pit of the lions. The king was answering and saying to Daniel: “Your God whom you are serving with constancy, he himself will rescue you.”

17 And a stone was brought and placed on the mouth of the pit, and the king sealed it with his signet ring and with the signet ring of his grandees, in order that nothing should be changed in the case of Daniel.

18 At that time the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting, and no musical instruments were brought in before him, and his very sleep fled from him. 19 Finally the king himself, at dawn, proceeded to get up in the daylight, and in a hurry he went right to the lions’ pit. 20 And as he got near to the pit, he cried out with a sad voice even to Daniel. The king was speaking up and saying to Daniel: “O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God whom you are serving with constancy been able to rescue you from the lions?” 21 Immediately Daniel himself spoke even with the king: “O king, live on even to times indefinite. 22 My own God sent his angel and shut the mouth of the lions, and they have not brought me to ruin, forasmuch as before him innocence itself was found in me; and also before you, O king, no hurtful act have I done.”

23 Then it was that the king himself became very glad, and Daniel himself he commanded to be lifted up out of the pit. And Daniel was lifted up out of the pit, and there was no hurt at all found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

24 And the king commanded, and they brought these able-bodied men who had accused Daniel, and into the lions’ pit they threw them, their sons and their wives; and they had not reached the bottom of the pit before the lions had got the mastery over them, and all their bones they crushed.

25 Then it was that Da·riʹus the king himself wrote to all the peoples, the national groups and the tongues that are dwelling in all the earth: “May YOUR peace grow very much!

[26] From before me there has been put through an order that, in every dominion of my kingdom, people are to be quaking and fearing before the God of Daniel. For he is the living God and One enduring to times indefinite, and his kingdom is one that will not be brought to ruin, and his dominion is forever. [27] He is rescuing and delivering and performing signs and wonders in the heavens and on the earth, for he has rescued Daniel from the paw of the lions.”

[28] And as for this Daniel, he prospered in the kingdom of Da·riʹus and in the kingdom of Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the first year of Bel·shaz′zar the king of Babylon, Daniel himself beheld a dream and visions of his head upon his bed. At that time he wrote down the dream itself. The complete account of the matters he told. [2] Daniel was speaking up and saying:

“I happened to be beholding in my visions during the night, and, see there! the four winds of the heavens were stirring up the vast sea. [3] And four huge beasts were coming up out of the sea, each one being different from the others.

[4] “The first one was like a lion, and it had the wings of an eagle. I kept on beholding until its wings were plucked out, and it was lifted up from the earth and was made to stand up on two feet just like a man, and there was given to it the heart of a man.

[5] “And, see there! another beast, a second one, it being like a bear. And on one side it was raised up, and there were three ribs in its mouth between its teeth; and this is what they were saying to it, ‘Get up, eat much flesh.’

[6] “After this I kept on beholding, and, see there! another beast, one like a leopard, but it had four wings of a flying creature on its back. And the beast had four heads, and there was given to it rulership indeed.

[7] “After this I kept on beholding in the visions of the night, and, see there! a fourth beast, fearsome and terrible and unusually strong. And it had teeth of iron, big ones. It was devouring and crushing, and what was left it was treading down with its feet. And it was something different from all the other beasts that were prior to it, and it had ten horns. [8] I kept on considering the horns, and, look! another horn, a small one, came up in among them, and there were three of the first horns that were plucked up from before it. And, look! there were eyes like the eyes of a man in this horn, and there was a mouth speaking grandiose things.

9 “I kept on beholding until there were thrones placed and the Ancient of Days sat down. His clothing was white just like snow, and the hair of his head was like clean wool. His throne was flames of fire; its wheels were a burning fire. 10 There was a stream of fire flowing and going out from before him. There were a thousand thousands that kept ministering to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand that kept standing right before him. The Court took its seat, and there were books that were opened.

11 “I kept on beholding at that time because of the sound of the grandiose words that the horn was speaking; I kept on beholding until the beast was killed and its body was destroyed and it was given to the burning fire. 12 But as for the rest of the beasts, their rulerships were taken away, and there was a lengthening in life given to them for a time and a season.

13 “I kept on beholding in the visions of the night, and, see there! with the clouds of the heavens someone like a son of man happened to be coming; and to the Ancient of Days he gained access, and they brought him up close even before that One. 14 And to him there were given rulership and dignity and kingdom, that the peoples, national groups and languages should all serve even him. His rulership is an indefinitely lasting rulership that will not pass away, and his kingdom one that will not be brought to ruin.

15 “As for me, Daniel, my spirit was distressed within on account of it, and the very visions of my head began to frighten me. 16 I went up close to one of those who were standing, that I might request from him reliable information on all this. And he said to me, as he went on to make known to me the very interpretation of the matters,

[17] "'As for these huge beasts, because they are four, there are four kings that will stand up from the earth. [18] But the holy ones of the Supreme One will receive the kingdom, and they will take possession of the kingdom for time indefinite, even for time indefinite upon times indefinite.'

[19] "Then it was that I desired to make certain concerning the fourth beast, which proved to be different from all the others, extraordinarily fearsome, the teeth of which were of iron and the claws of which were of copper, which was devouring and crushing, and which was treading down even what was left with its feet; [20] and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn that came up and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes and a mouth speaking grandiose things and the appearance of which was bigger than that of its fellows.

[21] "I kept on beholding when that very horn made war upon the holy ones, and it was prevailing against them, [22] until the Ancient of Days came and judgment itself was given in favor of the holy ones of the Supreme One, and the definite time arrived that the holy ones took possession of the kingdom itself.

[23] "This is what he said, 'As for the fourth beast, there is a fourth kingdom that will come to be on the earth, that will be different from all the other kingdoms; and it will devour all the earth and will trample it down and crush it. [24] And as for the ten horns, out of that kingdom there are ten kings that will rise up; and still another one will rise up after them, and he himself will be different from the first ones, and three kings he will humiliate. [25] And he will speak even words against the Most High, and he will harass continually the holy ones themselves of the Supreme One. And he will intend to change times and law, and they will be given into his hand for a time, and times and half a time. 26 And the Court itself proceeded to sit, and his own rulership they finally took away, in order to annihilate him and to destroy him totally.

27 “‘And the kingdom and the rulership and the grandeur of the kingdoms under all the heavens were given to the people who are the holy ones of the Supreme One. Their kingdom is an indefinitely lasting kingdom, and all the rulerships will serve and obey even them.’

28 “Up to this point is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my own thoughts kept frightening me a great deal, so that my very complexion changed in me; but the matter itself I kept in my own heart.”

8 In the third year of the kingship of Bel·shaz′zar the king, there was a vision that appeared to me, even me, Daniel, after the one appearing to me at the start. [2] And I began to see in the vision; and it came about, while I was seeing, that I was in Shu′shan the castle, which is in E′lam the jurisdictional district; and I proceeded to see in the vision, and I myself happened to be by the watercourse of U′lai. [3]
When I raised my eyes, then I saw, and, look! a ram standing before the watercourse, and it had two horns. And the two horns were tall, but the one was taller than the other, and the taller was the one that came up afterward. [4] I saw the ram making thrusts to the west and to the north and to the south, and no wild beasts kept standing before it, and there was no one doing any delivering out of its hand. And it did according to its will, and it put on great airs.

[5] And I, for my part, kept on considering, and, look! there was a male of the goats coming from the sunset upon the surface of the whole earth, and it was not touching the earth. And as regards the he-goat, there was a conspicuous horn between its eyes. [6] And it kept coming all the way to the ram possessing the two horns, which I had seen standing before the watercourse; and it came running toward it in its powerful rage.

[7] And I saw it coming into close touch with the ram, and it began showing bitterness toward it, and it proceeded to strike down the ram and to break its two horns, and there proved to be no power in the ram to stand before it. So it threw it to the earth and trampled it down, and the ram proved to have no deliverer out of its hand.

[8] And the male of the goats, for its part, put on great airs to an extreme; but as soon as it became mighty, the great horn was broken, and there proceeded to come up conspicuously four instead of it, toward the four winds of the heavens.

[9] And out of one of them there came forth another horn, a small one, and it kept getting very much greater toward the south and toward the sunrising and toward the Decoration. [10] And it kept getting greater all the way to the army of the heavens, so that it caused some of the army and some of the stars to fall to the earth, and it went trampling them down. [11] And all the way to the Prince of the army it put on great airs, and from him the constant feature was taken away, and the established place of his sanctuary was thrown down. [12] And an army itself was gradually given over, together with the constant feature, because of transgression; and it kept throwing truth to the earth, and it acted and had success.

[13] And I got to hear a certain holy one speaking, and another holy one proceeded to say to the particular one who was speaking: “How long will the vision be of the constant feature and of the transgression causing desolation, to make both the holy place and the army things to trample on?” [14] So he said to me: “Until two thousand three hundred evenings and mornings; and the holy place will certainly be brought into its right condition.”

[15] Then it came about that, while I myself, Daniel, was seeing the vision and seeking an understanding, why, look! there was standing in front of me someone in appearance like an able-bodied man. [16] And I began to hear the voice of an earthling man in the midst of the U′lai, and he proceeded to call out and say: “Ga′bri·el, make that one there understand the thing seen.” [17] So he came beside where I was standing, but when he came I got terrified so that I fell upon my face. And he proceeded to say to me: “Understand, O son of man, that the vision is for the time of the end.” [18] And while he was speaking with me, I had become fast asleep on my face on the earth. So he touched me and made me stand up where I had been standing. [19] And he went on to say: “Here I am causing you to know what will occur in the final part of the denunciation, because it is for the appointed time of the end.

[20] “The ram that you saw possessing the two horns stands for the kings of Me′di·a and Persia. [21] And the hairy he-goat stands for the king of Greece; and as for the great horn that was between its eyes, it stands for the first king. [22] And that one having been broken, so that there were four that finally stood up instead of it, there are four kingdoms from his nation that will stand up, but not with his power.

[23] “And in the final part of their kingdom, as the transgressors act to a completion, there will stand up a king fierce in countenance and understanding ambiguous sayings. [24] And his power must become mighty, but not by his own power. And in a wonderful way he will cause ruin, and he will certainly prove successful and do effectively. And he will actually bring mighty ones to ruin, also the people made up of the holy ones. [25] And according to his insight he will also certainly cause deception to succeed in his hand. And in his heart he will put on great airs, and during a freedom from care he will bring many to ruin. And against the Prince of princes he will stand up, but it will be without hand that he will be broken.

[26] “And the thing seen concerning the evening and the morning, which has been said, it is true. And you, for your part, keep secret the vision, because it is yet for many days.”

27 And as for me, Daniel, I felt exhausted and was made sick for some days. Then I got up and did the work of the king; but I kept showing myself numbed on account of the thing seen, and there was nobody understanding it.

9 In the first year of Da·riʹus the son of A·has·u·eʹrus of the seed of the Medes, who had been made king over the kingdom of the Chal·deʹans; [2] in the first year of his reigning I myself, Daniel, discerned by the books the number of the years concerning which the word of Jehovah had occurred to Jeremiah the prophet, for fulfilling the devastations of Jerusalem, namely, seventy years. [3] And I proceeded to set my face to Jehovah the true God, in order to seek him with prayer and with entreaties, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. [4] And I began to pray to Jehovah my God and to make confession and to say:

“Ah Jehovah the true God, the great One and the fear-inspiring One, keeping the covenant and the loving-kindness to those loving him and to those keeping his commandments, [5] we have sinned and done wrong and acted wickedly and rebelled; and there has been a turning aside from your commandments and from your judicial decisions. [6] And we have not listened to your servants the prophets, who have spoken in your name to our kings, our princes and our forefathers and to all the people of the land. [7] To you, O Jehovah, there belongs the righteousness, but to us the shame of face as at this day, to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to all those of Israel, those nearby and those far away in all the lands to which you dispersed them because of their unfaithfulness with which they acted against you.

[8] “O Jehovah, to us belongs the shame of face, to our kings, to our princes and to our forefathers, because we have sinned against you. [9] To Jehovah our God belong the mercies and the acts of forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him. [10] And we have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God by walking in his laws that he set before us by the hand of his servants the prophets. [11] And all those of Israel have overstepped your law, and there has been a turning aside by not obeying your voice, so that you poured out upon us the curse and the sworn oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of the true God, for we have sinned against Him. [12] And he proceeded to carry out his words that he had spoken against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us great calamity, such as was not done under the whole heavens as what has been done in Jerusalem. [13] Just as it is written in the law of Moses, all this calamity—it has come upon us, and we have not softened the face of Jehovah our God by turning back from our error and by showing insight into your trueness.

[14] “And Jehovah kept alert to the calamity and finally brought it upon us, for Jehovah our God is righteous in all his works that he has done; and we have not obeyed his voice.

[15] “And now, O Jehovah our God, you who brought your people out from the land of Egypt by a strong hand and proceeded to make a name for yourself as at this day, we have sinned, we have acted wickedly. [16] O Jehovah, according to all your acts of righteousness, please, may your anger and your rage turn back from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; for, because of our sins and because of the errors of our forefathers, Jerusalem and your people are an object of reproach to all those round about us. [17] And now listen, O our God, to the prayer of your servant and to his entreaties, and cause your face to shine upon your sanctuary that is desolated, for the sake of Jehovah. [18] Incline your ear, O my God, and hear. Do open your eyes and see our desolated conditions and the city that has been called by your name; for not according to our righteous acts are we letting our entreaties fall before you, but according to your many mercies. [19] O Jehovah, do hear. O Jehovah, do forgive. O Jehovah, do pay attention and act. Do not delay, for your own sake, O my God, for your own name has been called upon your city and upon your people.”

[20] While I was yet speaking and praying and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel and letting my request for favor fall before Jehovah my God concerning the holy mountain of my God, [21] and while I was yet speaking in the prayer, why, the man Gaʹbri·el, whom I had seen in the vision at the start, having been made weary with tiredness, was arriving by me at the time of the evening gift offering. [22] And he proceeded to impart understanding and speak with me and say:

“O Daniel, now I have come forth to make you have insight with understanding. [23] At the start of your entreaties a word went forth, and I myself have come to make report, because you are someone very desirable. So give consideration to the matter, and have understanding in the thing seen.

[24] “There are seventy weeks that have been determined upon your people and upon your holy city, in order to terminate the transgression, and to finish off sin, and to make atonement for error, and to bring in righteousness for times indefinite, and to imprint a seal upon vision and prophet, and to anoint the Holy of Holies. [25] And you should know and have the insight that from the going forth of the word to restore and to rebuild Jerusalem until Mes·siʹah the Leader, there will be seven weeks, also sixty-two weeks. She will return and be actually rebuilt, with a public square and moat, but in the straits of the times.

[26] “And after the sixty-two weeks Mes·siʹah will be cut off, with nothing for himself.

“And the city and the holy place the people of a leader that is coming will bring to their ruin. And the end of it will be by the flood. And until the end there will be war; what is decided upon is desolations.

27 “And he must keep the covenant in force for the many for one week; and at the half of the week he will cause sacrifice and gift offering to cease.

“And upon the wing of disgusting things there will be the one causing desolation; and until an extermination, the very thing decided upon will go pouring out also upon the one lying desolate.”

10 In the third year of Cyrus the king of Persia there was a matter revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Bel·te·shazʹzar; and the matter was true, and there was a great military service. And he understood the matter, and he had understanding in the thing seen.

[2] In those days I myself, Daniel, happened to be mourning for three full weeks. [3] Dainty bread I did not eat, and no flesh or wine entered into my mouth, and in no way did I grease myself until the completing of the three full weeks. [4] And on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, while I myself happened to be on the bank of the great river, that is, Hidʹde·kel, [5] I also proceeded to raise my eyes and see, and here was a certain man clothed in linen, with his hips girded with gold of Uʹphaz. [6] And his body was like chrysʹo·lite, and his face like the appearance of lightning, and his eyes like fiery torches, and his arms and the place of his feet were like the sight of burnished copper, and the sound of his words was like the sound of a crowd. [7] And I saw, I Daniel by myself, the appearance; but as for the men that happened to be with me, they did not see the appearance. However, there was a great trembling that fell upon them, so that they went running away in hiding themselves.

[8] And I—I was left remaining by myself, so that I saw this great appearance. And there was left remaining in me no power, and my own dignity became changed upon me to ruination, and I retained no power. [9] And I began hearing the sound of his words; and while I was hearing the sound of his words, I myself also happened to be fast asleep upon my face, with my face to the earth. [10] And, look! there was a hand that touched me, and it gradually stirred me up to get upon my knees and the palms of my hands. [11] And he proceeded to say to me:

“O Daniel, you very desirable man, have understanding in the words that I am speaking to you, and stand up where you were standing, for now I have been sent to you.”

And when he spoke with me this word, I did stand up, shivering.

[12] And he went on to say to me: “Do not be afraid, O Daniel, for from the first day that you gave your heart to understanding and humbling yourself before your God your words have been heard, and I myself have come because of your words. [13] But the prince of the royal realm of Persia was standing in opposition to me for twenty-one days, and, look! Mi′cha·el, one of the foremost princes, came to help me; and I, for my part, remained there beside the kings of Persia. [14] And I have come to cause you to discern what will befall your people in the final part of the days, because it is a vision yet for the days to come.”

[15] Now when he spoke with me words like these, I had set my face to the earth and had become speechless. [16] And, look! one similar to the likeness of the sons of mankind was touching my lips, and I began to open my mouth and speak and say to the one who was standing in front of me: “O my lord, because of the appearance my convulsions were turned within me, and I did not retain any power. [17] So how was the servant of this my lord able to speak with this my lord? And as for me, up to now there kept standing in me no power, and no breath at all was left remaining in me.”

[18] And the one like the appearance of an earthling man proceeded to touch me again and strengthen me. [19] Then he said: “Do not be afraid, O very desirable man. May you have peace. Be strong, yes, be strong.” And as soon as he spoke with me I exerted my strength and finally said: “Let my lord speak, because you have strengthened me.” [20] So he went on to say:

“Do you really know why I have come to you? And now I shall go back to fight with the prince of Persia. When I am going forth, look! also the prince of Greece is coming. [21] However, I shall tell you the things noted down in the writing of truth, and there is no one holding strongly with me in these things but Mi′cha·el, the prince of YOU people.

11 “And as for me, in the first year of Da·riʹus the Mede I stood up as a strengthener and as a fortress to him. [2] And now what is truth I shall tell to you:

“Look! There will yet be three kings standing up for Persia, and the fourth one will amass greater riches than all others. And as soon as he has become strong in his riches, he will rouse up everything against the kingdom of Greece.

[3] “And a mighty king will certainly stand up and rule with extensive dominion and do according to his will. [4] And when he will have stood up, his kingdom will be broken and be divided toward the four winds of the heavens, but not to his posterity and not according to his dominion with which he had ruled; because his kingdom will be uprooted, even for others than these.

[5] “And the king of the south will become strong, even one of his princes; and he will prevail against him and will certainly rule with extensive dominion greater than that one’s ruling power.

[6] “And at the end of some years they will ally themselves with each other, and the very daughter of the king of the south will come to the king of the north in order to make an equitable arrangement. But she will not retain the power of her arm; and he will not stand, neither his arm; and she will be given up, she herself, and those bringing her in, and he who caused her birth, and the one making her strong in those times. [7] And one from the sprout of her roots will certainly stand up in his position, and he will come to the military force and come against the fortress of the king of the north and will certainly act against them and prevail. [8] And also with their gods, with their molten images, with their desirable articles of silver and of gold, and with the captives he will come to Egypt. And he himself will for some years stand off from the king of the north.

9 “And he will actually come into the kingdom of the king of the south and go back to his own soil.

10 “Now as for his sons, they will excite themselves and actually gather together a crowd of large military forces. And in coming he will certainly come and flood over and pass through. But he will go back, and he will excite himself all the way to his fortress.

11 “And the king of the south will embitter himself and will have to go forth and fight with him, that is, with the king of the north; and he will certainly have a large crowd stand up, and the crowd will actually be given into the hand of that one. 12 And the crowd will certainly be carried away. His heart will become exalted, and he will actually cause tens of thousands to fall; but he will not use his strong position.

13 “And the king of the north must return and set up a crowd larger than the first; and at the end of the times, some years, he will come, doing so with a great military force and with a great deal of goods. 14 And in those times there will be many who will stand up against the king of the south.

“And the sons of the robbers belonging to your people will, for their part, be carried along to try making a vision come true; and they will have to stumble.

15 “And the king of the north will come and throw up a siege rampart and actually capture a city with fortifications. And as for the arms of the south, they will not stand, neither the people of his picked ones; and there will be no power to keep standing. 16 And the one coming against him will do according to his will, and there will be no one standing before him. And he will stand in the land of the Decoration, and there will be extermination in his hand. [17] And he will set his face to come with the forcefulness of his entire kingdom, and there will be equitable terms with him; and he will act effectively. And as regards the daughter of womankind, it will be granted to him to bring her to ruin. And she will not stand, and she will not continue to be his. [18] And he will turn his face back to the coastlands and will actually capture many. And a commander will have to make the reproach from him cease for himself, so that his reproach will not be. He will make it turn back upon that one. [19] And he will turn his face back to the fortresses of his own land, and he will certainly stumble and fall, and he will not be found.

[20] “And there must stand up in his position one who is causing an exactor to pass through the splendid kingdom, and in a few days he will be broken, but not in anger nor in warfare.

[21] “And there must stand up in his position one who is to be despised, and they will certainly not set upon him the dignity of the kingdom; and he will actually come in during a freedom from care and take hold of the kingdom by means of smoothness. [22] And as regards the arms of the flood, they will be flooded over on account of him, and they will be broken; as will also the Leader of the covenant. [23] And because of their allying themselves with him he will carry on deception and actually come up and become mighty by means of a little nation. [24] During freedom from care, even into the fatness of the jurisdictional district he will enter in and actually do what his fathers and the fathers of his fathers have not done. Plunder and spoil and goods he will scatter among them; and against fortified places he will scheme out his schemes, but only until a time.

[25] “And he will arouse his power and his heart against the king of the south with a great military force; and the king of the south, for his part, will excite himself for the war with an exceedingly great and mighty military force. And he will not stand, because they will scheme out against him schemes. [26] And the very ones eating his delicacies will bring his breakdown.

“And as for his military force, it will be flooded away, and many will certainly fall down slain.

[27] “And as regards these two kings, their heart will be inclined to doing what is bad, and at one table a lie is what they will keep speaking. But nothing will succeed, because the end is yet for the time appointed.

[28] “And he will go back to his land with a great amount of goods, and his heart will be against the holy covenant. And he will act effectively and certainly go back to his land.

[29] “At the time appointed he will go back, and he will actually come against the south; but it will not prove to be at the last the same as at the first. [30] And there will certainly come against him the ships of Kit′tim, and he will have to become dejected.

“And he will actually go back and hurl denunciations against the holy covenant and act effectively; and he will have to go back and will give consideration to those leaving the holy covenant. [31] And there will be arms that will stand up, proceeding from him; and they will actually profane the sanctuary, the fortress, and remove the constant feature.

“And they will certainly put in place the disgusting thing that is causing desolation.

[32] “And those who are acting wickedly against the covenant, he will lead into apostasy by means of smooth words. But as regards the people who are knowing their God, they will prevail and act effectively. [33] And as regards those having insight among the people, they will impart understanding to the many. And they will certainly be made to stumble by sword and by flame, by captivity and by plundering, for some days. [34] But when they are made to stumble they will be helped with a little help; and many will certainly join themselves to them by means of smoothness. [35] And some of those having insight will be made to stumble, in order to do a refining work because of them and to do a cleansing and to do a whitening, until the time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed.

[36] “And the king will actually do according to his own will, and he will exalt himself and magnify himself above every god; and against the God of gods he will speak marvelous things. And he will certainly prove successful until the denunciation will have come to a finish; because the thing decided upon must be done. [37] And to the God of his fathers he will give no consideration; and to the desire of women and to every other god he will give no consideration, but over everyone he will magnify himself. [38] But to the god of fortresses, in his position he will give glory; and to a god that his fathers did not know he will give glory by means of gold and by means of silver and by means of precious stone and by means of desirable things. [39] And he will act effectively against the most fortified strongholds, along with a foreign god. Whoever has given him recognition he will make abound with glory, and he will actually make them rule among many; and the ground he will apportion out for a price.

40 “And in the time of the end the king of the south will engage with him in a pushing, and against him the king of the north will storm with chariots and with horsemen and with many ships; and he will certainly enter into the lands and flood over and pass through. 41 He will also actually enter into the land of the Decoration, and there will be many lands that will be made to stumble. But these are the ones that will escape out of his hand, E′dom and Mo′ab and the main part of the sons of Am′mon. 42 And he will keep thrusting out his hand against the lands; and as regards the land of Egypt, she will not prove to be an escapee. 43 And he will actually rule over the hidden treasures of the gold and the silver and over all the desirable things of Egypt. And the Lib′y·ans and the E·thi·o′pi·ans will be at his steps.

44 “But there will be reports that will disturb him, out of the sunrising and out of the north, and he will certainly go forth in a great rage in order to annihilate and to devote many to destruction. 45 And he will plant his palatial tents between the grand sea and the holy mountain of Decoration; and he will have to come all the way to his end, and there will be no helper for him.

12 “And during that time Miʹcha·el will stand up, the great prince who is standing in behalf of the sons of your people. And there will certainly occur a time of distress such as has not been made to occur since there came to be a nation until that time. And during that time your people will escape, every one who is found written down in the book. [2] And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life and those to reproaches and to indefinitely lasting abhorrence.

[3] “And the ones having insight will shine like the brightness of the expanse; and those who are bringing the many to righteousness, like the stars to time indefinite, even forever.

[4] “And as for you, O Daniel, make secret the words and seal up the book, until the time of the end. Many will rove about, and the true knowledge will become abundant.”

[5] And I saw, I Daniel, and, look! there were two others standing, one on the bank here of the stream and the other on the bank there of the stream. [6] Then one said to the man clothed with the linen, who was up above the waters of the stream: “How long will it be to the end of the wonderful things?” [7] And I began to hear the man clothed with the linen, who was up above the waters of the stream, as he proceeded to raise his right hand and his left hand to the heavens and to swear by the One who is alive for time indefinite: “It will be for an appointed time, appointed times and a half. And as soon as there will have been a finishing of the dashing of the power of the holy people to pieces, all these things will come to their finish.”

[8] Now as for me, I heard, but I could not understand; so that I said: “O my lord, what will be the final part of these things?”

[9] And he went on to say: “Go, Daniel, because the words are made secret and sealed up until the time of the end. [10] Many will cleanse themselves and whiten themselves and will be refined. And the wicked ones will certainly act wickedly, and no wicked ones at all will understand; but the ones having insight will understand.

[11] “And from the time that the constant feature has been removed and there has been a placing of the disgusting thing that is causing desolation, there will be one thousand two hundred and ninety days.

[12] “Happy is the one who is keeping in expectation and who arrives at the one thousand three hundred and thirty-five days!

[13] “And as for you yourself, go toward the end; and you will rest, but you will stand up for your lot at the end of the days.”

HOSEA

1 The word of Jehovah that occurred to Ho·seʹa the son of Be·eʹri in the days of Uz·ziʹah, Joʹtham, Aʹhaz and Hez·e·kiʹah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jer·o·boʹam the son of Joʹash, the king of Israel. [2] There was a start of the word of Jehovah by Ho·seʹa, and Jehovah proceeded to say to Ho·seʹa: “Go, take to yourself a wife of fornication and children of fornication, because by fornication the land positively turns from following Jehovah.”

[3] And he proceeded to go and take Goʹmer the daughter of Dib·laʹim, so that she became pregnant and in time bore to him a son.

[4] And Jehovah went on to say to him: “Call his name Jezʹre·el, for yet a little while and I must hold an accounting for the acts of bloodshed of Jezʹre·el against the house of Jeʹhu, and I must cause the royal rule of the house of Israel to cease. [5] And it must occur in that day that I must break the bow of Israel in the low plain of Jezʹre·el.”

[6] And she proceeded to become pregnant another time and to give birth to a daughter. And He went on to say to him: “Call her name Lo-ru·haʹmah, for I shall no more show mercy again to the house of Israel, because I shall positively take them away. [7] But to the house of Judah I shall show mercy, and I will save them by Jehovah their God; but I shall not save them by a bow or by a sword or by war, by horses or by horsemen.”

[8] And she gradually weaned Lo-ru·haʹmah, and she proceeded to become pregnant and give birth to a son. [9] So He said: “Call his name Lo-amʹmi, because YOU men are not my people and I myself shall prove to be not YOURS.

[10] “And the number of the sons of Israel must become like the grains of the sand of the sea that cannot be measured or numbered. And it must occur that in the place in which it used to be said to them, ‘YOU men are not my people,’ it will be said to them, ‘The sons of the living God.’ [11] And the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel will certainly be collected together into a unity and will actually set up for themselves one head and go up out of the land, because great will be the day of Jez′re·el.

2 “SAY to YOUR brothers, ‘My people!’ and to YOUR sisters, ‘O woman shown mercy!’ [2] Carry on a legal case with YOUR mother; carry on a legal case, for she is not my wife and I am not her husband. And she should put away her fornication from before herself and her acts of adultery from between her breasts, [3] that I may not strip her naked and actually place her as in the day of her being born, and actually set her like a wilderness and place her like a waterless land and put her to death with thirst. [4] And to her sons I shall not show mercy, for they are the sons of fornication. [5] For their mother has committed fornication. She that was pregnant with them has acted shamefully, for she has said, ‘I want to go after those passionately loving me, those giving my bread and my water, my wool and my linen, my oil and my drink.’

[6] “Therefore here I am hedging your way about with thorns; and I will heap up a stone wall against her, so that her own roadways she will not find. [7] And she will actually chase after her passionate lovers, but she will not overtake them; and she will certainly look for them, but she will not find them. And she will have to say, ‘I want to go and return to my husband, the first one, for I had it better at that time than now.’ [8] But she herself did not recognize that it was I who had given to her the grain and the sweet wine and the oil, and that I had made silver itself abound for her, and gold, which they made use of for Baʹal.

[9] “‘Therefore I shall turn back and certainly take away my grain in its time and my sweet wine in its season, and I will snatch away my wool and my linen for covering her nakedness. [10] And now I shall uncover her private parts to the eyes of her passionate lovers, and there will be no man to snatch her out of my hand. [11] And I shall certainly cause all her exultation, her festival, her new moon and her sabbath and her every festal season to cease. [12] And I will lay desolate her vine and her fig tree, of which she has said: “They are a gift to me, which my passionate lovers have given to me”; and I will set them as a forest, and the wild beast of the field will certainly devour them. [13] And I will hold an accounting against her for the days of the Ba′al images to which she kept making sacrificial smoke, when she kept decking herself with her ring and her ornament and kept going after her passionate lovers, and I was the one that she forgot,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.

[14] “‘Therefore here I am prevailing upon her, and I will cause her to go into the wilderness, and I will speak to her heart. [15] And I will give her her vineyards from then onward, and the low plain of A′chor as an entrance to hope; and she will certainly answer there as in the days of her youth and as in the day of her coming up out of the land of Egypt. [16] And it must occur in that day,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘that you will call me My husband, and you will no longer call me My owner.’

[17] “‘And I will remove the names of the Ba′al images from her mouth, and they will no longer be remembered by their name. [18] And for them I shall certainly conclude a covenant in that day in connection with the wild beast of the field and with the flying creature of the heavens and the creeping thing of the ground, and the bow and the sword and war I shall break out of the land, and I will make them lie down in security. [19] And I will engage you to me for time indefinite, and I will engage you to me in righteousness and in justice and in loving-kindness and in mercies. [20] And I will engage you to me in faithfulness; and you will certainly know Jehovah.’

[21] “‘And it must occur in that day that I shall answer,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘I shall answer the heavens, and they, for their part, will answer the earth; [22] and the earth, for its part, will answer the grain and the sweet wine and the oil; and they, for their part, will answer Jez′re·el [‘God will sow seed’]. [23] And I shall certainly sow her like seed for me in the earth, and I will show mercy to her who was not shown mercy, and I will say to those not my people: “You are my people”; and they, for their part, will say: “You are my God.”’”

3 And Jehovah went on to say to me: “Go once again, love a woman loved by a companion and committing adultery, as in the case of Jehovah’s love for the sons of Israel while they are turning to other gods and are loving raisin cakes.”

[2] And I proceeded to purchase her for myself for fifteen silver pieces and a ho′mer measure of barley and a half-ho′mer of barley. [3] Then I said to her: “For many days you will dwell as mine. You must not commit fornication, and you must not come to belong to another man; and I also will be for you.”

[4] It is because for many days the sons of Israel will dwell without a king and without a prince and without a sacrifice and without a pillar and without an eph′od and teraphim. [5] Afterwards the sons of Israel will come back and certainly look for Jehovah their God, and for David their king; and they will certainly come quivering to Jehovah and to his goodness in the final part of the days.

4 Hear the word of Jehovah, O sons of Israel, for Jehovah has a legal case with the inhabitants of the land, for there is no truth nor loving-kindness nor knowledge of God in the land. [2] There are the pronouncing of curses and practicing of deception and murdering and stealing and committing of adultery that have broken forth, and acts of bloodshed have touched other acts of bloodshed. [3] That is why the land will mourn and every inhabitant in it will have to fade away with the wild beast of the field and with the flying creature of the heavens, and even the fishes of the sea themselves will be gathered in death.

[4] “However, let no man contend, neither let a man reprove, as your people are like those who are contending against a priest. [5] And you will certainly stumble in the daytime, and even a prophet must stumble with you, as at night. And I will put your mother to silence. [6] My people will certainly be silenced, because there is no knowledge. Because the knowledge is what you yourself have rejected, I shall also reject you from serving as a priest to me; and because you keep forgetting the law of your God, I shall forget your sons, even I. [7] In proportion to the multitude of them, so they have sinned against me. My own glory they have exchanged for mere dishonor. [8] The sin of my people is what they keep devouring, and to their error they keep lifting up their soul.

[9] “And it will have to become for the people the same as for the priest; and I shall certainly hold an accounting against them for their ways; and their dealings I shall bring back upon them. [10] And they will actually eat, but will not get satisfied. They will actually treat women as harlots; but they will not increase, because they have left off paying regard to Jehovah himself. [11] Fornication and wine and sweet wine are what take away good motive. [12] Of their wooden idol my own people keep inquiring, and their own hand staff keeps telling them; because the very spirit of fornication has caused them to wander off, and by fornication they go out from under their God. [13] On the tops of the mountains they sacrifice, and on the hills they make sacrificial smoke, under massive tree and storax tree and big tree, because its shade is good. That is why YOUR daughters commit fornication and YOUR own daughters-in-law commit adultery.

[14] “I shall not hold an accounting against YOUR daughters because they commit fornication, and against YOUR daughters-in-law because they commit adultery. For, as to the men, it is with the harlots that they get off to themselves, and with the female temple prostitutes that they sacrifice; and a people that does not understand will be trodden down. [15] Although you are committing fornication, O Israel, let not Judah become guilty, and do not YOU people come to Gil′gal, neither go up to Beth-a′ven nor swear ‘As Jehovah is alive!’ [16] For, like a stubborn cow, Israel has become stubborn. Is it now that Jehovah will shepherd them like a young ram in a roomy place? [17] E′phra·im is joined with idols. Let him be to himself! [18] Their wheat beer being gone, they have positively treated woman as a harlot. Her shielders have positively loved dishonor. [19] A wind has wrapped her up in its wings. And they will be ashamed of their sacrifices.”

5 “Hear this, O priests, and pay attention, O house of Israel, and YOU, O house of the king, give ear, for with YOU people the judgment has to do; because a trap is what YOU have become to Miz′pah and as a net spread over Ta′bor. [2] And in slaughter work those falling away have gone deep down, and I was an exhortation to all of them. [3] I personally have known E′phra·im, and Israel itself has not been hidden from me. For now, O E′phra·im, you have treated women like harlots; Israel has defiled itself. [4] Their dealings do not permit of a returning to their God, because there is a spirit of fornication in the midst of them; and Jehovah himself they have not acknowledged. [5] And the pride of Israel has testified to his face; and Israel and E′phra·im themselves are made to stumble in their error. Judah has also stumbled with them. [6] With their flock and with their herd they proceeded to go and look for Jehovah, but they could not find him. He had drawn away from them. [7] With Jehovah himself they have dealt treacherously, for it is to strange sons that they have become father. Now a month will devour them with their portions.

[8] “BLOW a horn in Gib′e·ah, a trumpet in Ra′mah! SHOUT a war cry at Beth-a′ven—after you, O Benjamin! [9] O E′phra·im, a mere object of astonishment you will become in the day of rebuke. Among the tribes of Israel I have made known trustworthy words. [10] The princes of Judah have become just like those moving back a boundary. Upon them I shall pour out my fury just like water. [11] E′phra·im is oppressed, crushed in justice, for he had taken it upon himself to walk after his adversary. [12] And I was like the moth to E′phra·im and just like rottenness to the house of Judah.

13 “And E′phra·im got to see his sickness, and Judah his ulcer. And E′phra·im proceeded to go to As·syr′i·a and send to a great king. But that one himself was unable to give healing to YOU people, and he could not take from YOU an ulcer with any cure. 14 For I shall be like a young lion to E′phra·im and like a maned young lion to the house of Judah. I, I myself shall tear to pieces and I shall go and carry off, and there will be no deliverer. 15 I shall go, I will return to my place until they bear their guilt; and they will certainly seek my face. When they are in sore straits, they will seek me.”

6 “Come, YOU people, and do let us return to Jehovah, for he himself has torn in pieces but he will heal us. He kept striking, but he will bind us up. [2] He will make us alive after two days. On the third day he will make us get up, and we shall live before him. [3] And we will know, we will pursue to know Jehovah. Like dawn, his going forth is firmly established. And he will come in like a pouring rain to us; like a spring rain that saturates the earth.”

[4] “What shall I do to you, O E′phra·im? What shall I do to you, O Judah, when the loving-kindness of YOU people is like the morning clouds and like the dew that early goes away? [5] That is why I shall have to hew them by the prophets; I shall have to kill them by the sayings of my mouth. And the judgments upon you will be as the light that goes forth. [6] For in loving-kindness I have taken delight, and not in sacrifice; and in the knowledge of God rather than in whole burnt offerings. [7] But they themselves, like earthling man, have overstepped the covenant. There is where they have dealt treacherously with me. [8] Gil′e·ad is a town of practicers of what is harmful; their footprints are blood. [9] And as in the lying in wait for a man, the association of priests are marauding bands. By the wayside they commit murder at She′chem, because they have carried on nothing but loose conduct. [10] In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing. There there is fornication on the part of E′phra·im. Israel has defiled itself. [11] Furthermore, O Judah, a harvest has been fixed for you, when I gather back the captive ones of my people.”

7 “At the time that I would bring healing to Israel, the error of E′phra·im is also actually uncovered, and the bad things of Sa·mar′i·a; for they have practiced falsehood, and a thief himself comes in; a marauder band actually makes a dash on the outside. [2] And they do not say to their own heart that all their badness I will remember. Now their dealings have surrounded them. In front of my face they have come to be. [3] By their badness they make the king rejoice, and, by their deceptions, princes. [4] All of them are adulterers, like a furnace set burning by a baker, who ceases poking after kneading dough until it is leavened. [5] On the day of our king, princes have sickened themselves—there is a rage because of wine. He has drawn his hand along with deriders. [6] For they have brought their heart near as to a furnace; it is burning inside them. All night long their baker is sleeping; by morning the furnace is burning as with a flaming fire. [7] They get hot, all of them, like the furnace, and they actually devour their judges. Their own kings have all fallen; none among them is calling out to me.

[8] “As for E′phra·im, it is among the peoples that he personally mingles himself. E′phra·im himself has become a round cake not turned on the other side. [9] Strangers have eaten up his power, and he himself has not come to know it. Also, gray hairs themselves have become white on him, but he himself has not come to know it. [10] And the pride of Israel has testified to his face, and they have not returned to Jehovah their God, nor have they looked for him because of all this. [11] And E′phra·im proves to be like a simpleminded dove without heart. To Egypt they have called; to As·syr′i·a they have gone.

[12] “Whichever way they go, I shall spread out over them my net. Like flying creatures of the heavens I shall bring them down. I shall discipline them in agreement with the report to their assembly. [13] Woe to them, for they have fled from me! Despoiling to them, for they have transgressed against me! And I myself proceeded to redeem them, but they themselves have spoken lies even against me. [14] And they did not call to me for aid with their heart, although they kept howling on their beds. On account of their grain and sweet wine they kept loafing about; they kept turning against me. [15] And I, for my part, did disciplining; I strengthened their arms, but against me they kept scheming what was bad. [16] And they proceeded to return, not to anything higher; they had become like a loose bow. By the sword their princes will fall because of the denunciation of their tongue. This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.”

8 “To your mouth—a horn! One comes like an eagle against the house of Jehovah, for the reason that they have overstepped my covenant, and against my law they have transgressed. 2 To me they keep crying, ‘O my God, we, Israel, have known you.’

3 “Israel has cast off good. Let one who is an enemy pursue him. 4 They themselves have set up kings, but not because of me. They have set up princes, but I did not know it. With their silver and their gold they have made for themselves idols, to the end that they may be cut off. 5 Your calf has been cast off, O Sa·mar′i·a. My anger has grown hot against them. How long will they be incapable of innocency? 6 For from Israel was even this. A mere craftsman made it, and it is not God; because the calf of Sa·mar′i·a will become mere splinters.

7 “For it is wind that they keep sowing, and a storm wind is what they will reap. Nothing has standing grain. No sprout produces flour. Should any perhaps produce it, strangers themselves will swallow it down.

8 “Israel must be swallowed down. Now they must come to be among the nations, like a vessel in which there is no delight. 9 For they themselves have gone up to As·syr′i·a, as a zebra isolated to itself. In E′phra·im’s case, they have hired lovers. 10 Also, although they keep hiring them among the nations, I shall now collect them together; and they will be a little while in severe pains because of the burden of king and princes.

11 “For E′phra·im has multiplied altars in order to sin. He has come to have altars in order to sin. 12 I proceeded to write for him many things of my law; just like something strange they have been accounted. [13] As my gift sacrifices they kept sacrificing flesh, and they kept eating what Jehovah himself took no pleasure in. Now he will remember their error and hold an accounting for their sins. To Egypt they themselves proceeded to return. [14] And Israel began forgetting his Maker and building temples; and Judah, for his part, multiplied fortified cities. And I shall certainly send fire into his cities and it must devour the dwelling towers of each one.”

9 “Do not rejoice, O Israel. Do not act joyful like the peoples. For by fornication you have gone from alongside your God. You have loved gifts of hire on all the threshing floors of grain. [2] Threshing floor and winepress do not feed them, and sweet wine itself proves disappointing to her. [3] They will not continue dwelling in the land of Jehovah, and E′phra·im must return to Egypt, and in As·syr′i·a they will eat what is unclean. [4] They will not continue pouring out wine to Jehovah. And their sacrifices will not be gratifying to him; they are like the bread of times of mourning to them; all those eating it will defile themselves. For their bread is for their own soul; it will not come into the house of Jehovah. [5] What will YOU people do in the day of meeting and in the day of the festival of Jehovah? [6] For, look! they will have to go because of despoiling. Egypt itself will collect them together; Mem′phis, for its part, will bury them. As for their desirable things of silver, nettles themselves will take possession of them; thorny bushes will be in their tents.

[7] “The days of being given attention must come; the days of the due payment must come. Those of Israel will know it. The prophet will be foolish, the man of inspired expression will be maddened on account of the abundance of your error, even animosity being abundant.”

[8] The watchman of E′phra·im was with my God. As regards a prophet, there is the trap of a birdcatcher on all his ways; there is an animosity in the house of his God. [9] They have gone down deep in bringing ruin, as in the days of Gib′e·ah. He will remember their error; he will give attention to their sins.

[10] “Like grapes in the wilderness I found Israel. Like the early fig on a fig tree in its beginning I saw the forefathers of YOU people. They themselves went in to Baʹal of Peʹor, and they proceeded to dedicate themselves to the shameful thing, and they came to be disgusting like the thing of their love. [11] As regards Eʹphra·im, like a flying creature their glory flies away, so that there is no giving birth, and no pregnant belly and no conception. [12] For although they bring up their sons, I will also bereave them of children so that there will be no man; because—woe also to them when I turn away from them! [13] Eʹphra·im, whom I have seen like Tyre planted in a pasture ground, even Eʹphra·im is destined to a bringing out of his sons even to a killer.”

[14] Give to them, O Jehovah, what you should give. Give them a miscarrying womb and breasts shriveling up.

[15] “All their badness was in Gilʹgal, for there I had to hate them. On account of the evil of their dealings I shall drive them away from my own house. I will not continue on loving them. All their princes are acting stubborn. [16] Eʹphra·im must be struck down. Their very root must dry up. There will be no fruit that they produce. Also, in case they bring to birth, I will even put to death the desirable things of their belly.”

[17] My God will reject them, for they have not listened to him, and they will become fugitives among the nations.

10 “Israel is a degenerating vine. Fruit he keeps putting forth for himself. In proportion to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied his altars. In proportion to the goodness of his land, they put up good pillars. [2] Their heart has become hypocritical; now they will be found guilty.

“There is one who will break their altars; he will despoil their pillars. [3] For now they will say, ‘We have no king, for we have not feared Jehovah. And as regards the king, what will he do for us?’

[4] “They speak words, making false oaths, concluding a covenant; and judgment has sprouted like a poisonous plant in the furrows of the open field. [5] For the calf idol of Beth-a′ven the residents of Sa·mar′i·a will get frightened; for over it its people will certainly mourn, as well as its foreign-god priests who used to be joyful over it, on account of its glory, because it will have gone into exile away from it. [6] Even it someone will bring to As·syr′i·a itself as a gift to a great king.
Shame is what E′phra·im himself will get, and Israel will be ashamed of its counsel. [7] Sa·mar′i·a and her king will certainly be silenced, like a snapped-off twig on the surface of waters. [8] And the high places of Beth-a′ven, the sin of Israel, will actually be annihilated. Thorns and thistles themselves will come up upon their altars. And people will in fact say to the mountains, ‘Cover us!’ and to the hills, ‘Fall over us!’

[9] “From the days of Gib′e·ah you have sinned, O Israel. There they stood still. In Gib′e·ah war against the sons of unrighteousness did not get to overtake them. [10] When it is my craving I shall also discipline them. And against them peoples will certainly be gathered when there is a harnessing of them to their two errors.

[11] “And E′phra·im was a trained heifer loving to thresh; and I, for my part, passed over her good-looking neck. I make someone ride E′phra·im. Judah plows; Jacob harrows for him. [12] Sow seed for yourselves in righteousness; reap in accord with loving-kindness. Till for yourselves arable land, when there is time for searching for Jehovah until he comes and gives instruction in righteousness to YOU.

[13] “YOU people have plowed wickedness. Unrighteousness is what YOU have reaped. YOU have eaten the fruitage of deception, for you have trusted in your way, in the multitude of your mighty ones. [14] And an uproar has risen among your people, and your own fortified cities will all be despoiled, as with the despoiling by Shal′man of the house of Ar′bel, in the day of battle when a mother herself was dashed to pieces alongside her own sons. [15] In this way one will certainly do to YOU people, O Beth′el, because of YOUR extreme badness. In the dawn the king of Israel will positively have to be silenced.”

11 “When Israel was a boy, then I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son.

[2] “They called them. To that same extent they went away from before them. To the Ba′al images they took up sacrificing, and to the graven images they began making sacrificial smoke. [3] But as for me, I taught E′phra·im to walk, taking them upon my arms; and they did not recognize that I had healed them. [4] With the ropes of earthling man I kept drawing them, with the cords of love, so that I became to them as those lifting off a yoke on their jaws, and gently I brought food to each one. [5] He will not return to the land of Egypt, but As·syr′i·a will be his king, because they refused to return. [6] And a sword will certainly whirl about in his cities and make an end of his bars and devour because of their counsels. [7] And my people are tending toward unfaithfulness to me. And upward they call it; no one at all does any rising up.

[8] “How can I give you up, O E′phra·im? How can I deliver you up, O Israel? How can I set you as Ad′mah? How can I place you like Ze·boi′im? My heart has changed within me; at the same time my compassions have grown hot. [9] I shall not express my burning anger. I shall not bring E′phra·im to ruin again, for I am God and not man, the Holy One in the midst of you; and I shall not come in excitement. [10] After Jehovah they will walk. Like a lion he will roar; for he himself will roar, and sons will come trembling from the west. [11] Like a bird they will come trembling out of Egypt, and like a dove out of the land of As·syr′i·a; and I shall certainly make them dwell in their houses,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

12 “With lying, E′phra·im has surrounded me, and with deception the house of Israel. But Judah is yet roaming with God, and with the Most Holy One he is trustworthy.”

12 “E′phra·im is feeding on wind and chasing after the east wind all day long. Lying and despoiling are what he multiplies. And a covenant with As·syr′i·a they conclude, and to Egypt oil itself is brought.

[2] “And Jehovah has a legal case with Judah, even to hold an accounting against Jacob according to his ways; according to his dealings he will repay him. [3] In the belly he seized his brother by the heel, and with his dynamic energy he contended with God. [4] And he kept contending with an angel and gradually prevailed. He wept, that he might implore favor for himself.”

At Beth′el He got to find him, and there He began talking with us. [5] And Jehovah the God of the armies, Jehovah is his memorial.

[6] “And as respects you, to your God you should return, keeping loving-kindness and justice; and let there be a hoping in your God constantly. [7] As regards the tradesman, in his hand are the scales of deception; to defraud is what he has loved. [8] And E′phra·im keeps saying, ‘Indeed, I have become rich; I have found valuable things for myself. As regards all my toiling, they will find, on my part, no error that is sin.’

[9] “But I am Jehovah your God from the land of Egypt. Yet I shall make you dwell in the tents as in the days of an appointed time. [10] And I spoke to the prophets, and visions I myself multiplied, and by the hand of the prophets I kept making likenesses.

[11] “With Gil′e·ad what is uncanny, also untruth, have occurred. In Gil′gal they have sacrificed even bulls.

Moreover, their altars are like piles of stones in the furrows of the open field. [12] And Jacob proceeded to run away to the field of Syria, and Israel kept serving for a wife, and for a wife he guarded sheep. [13] And by a prophet Jehovah brought up Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was guarded. [14] Eʹphra·im caused offense to bitterness, and his deeds of bloodshed he leaves upon his own self, and his reproach his Grand Master will repay to him.”

13 “When E′phra·im spoke, there was trembling; he himself carried weight in Israel. But he proceeded to become guilty in regard to Ba′al and die. [2] And now they commit additional sin and make for themselves a molten statue from their silver, idols according to their own understanding, the work of craftsmen, all of it. To them they are saying, ‘Let the sacrificers who are men kiss mere calves.’ [3] Therefore they will become like the clouds of morning and like the dew that early goes away; like chaff that is stormed away from the threshing floor and like smoke from the roof hole.

[4] “But I am Jehovah your God from the land of Egypt, and there was no God except me that you used to know; and there was no savior but I. [5] I myself knew you in the wilderness, in the land of fevers. [6] According to their pasturage they also came to be satisfied. They became satisfied and their heart began to be exalted. That is why they forgot me. [7] And I shall become to them like a young lion. Like a leopard by the way I shall keep looking. [8] I shall encounter them like a bear that has lost its cubs, and I shall rip apart the enclosure of their heart. And I shall devour them there like a lion; a wild beast of the field itself will tear them to pieces. [9] It will certainly bring you to ruin, O Israel, because it was against me, against your helper.

[10] “Where, then, is your king, that he may save you in all your cities, and your judges, concerning whom you said, ‘Do give me a king and princes’? [11] I proceeded to give you a king in my anger, and I shall take him away in my fury.

[12] “The error of E′phra·im is wrapped up, his sin is treasured up. [13] The labor pangs of a woman giving birth are what will come to him. He is a son not wise, for in season he will not stand still at the breaking forth of sons from the womb.

14 “From the hand of She′ol I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death? Where is your destructiveness, O She′ol? Compassion itself will be concealed from my eyes.

15 “In case he himself as the son of reed plants should show fruitfulness, an east wind, the wind of Jehovah, will come. From a wilderness it is coming up, and it will dry up his well and drain his spring. That one will pillage the treasure of all desirable articles.

16 “Sa·mar′i·a will be held guilty, for she is actually rebellious against her God. By the sword they will fall. Their own children will be dashed to pieces, and their pregnant women themselves will be ripped up.”

14 “Do come back, O Israel, to Jehovah your God, for you have stumbled in your error. [2] Take with yourselves words and come back to Jehovah. Say to him, all YOU people, ‘May you pardon error; and accept what is good, and we will offer in return the young bulls of our lips. [3] As·syr′i·a itself will not save us. Upon horses we shall not ride. And no more shall we say: “O our God! ” to the work of our hands, because it is by you that a fatherless boy is shown mercy.’

[4] “I shall heal their unfaithfulness. I shall love them of my own free will, because my anger has turned back from him. [5] I shall become like the dew to Israel. He will blossom like the lily, and will strike his roots like Leb′a·non. [6] His twigs will go forth, and his dignity will become like that of the olive tree, and his fragrance will be like that of Leb′a·non. [7] They will again be dwellers in his shadow. They will grow grain, and will bud like the vine. His memorial will be like the wine of Leb′a·non.

[8] “E′phra·im will say, ‘What do I have to do any longer with the idols?’

“I myself shall certainly give an answer and I shall keep looking on him. I am like a luxuriant juniper tree. From me must fruit for you be found.”

[9] Who is wise, that he may understand these things? Discreet, that he may know them? For the ways of Jehovah are upright, and the righteous are the ones who will walk in them; but the transgressors are the ones who will stumble in them.

JOEL

1 The word of Jehovah that occurred to Joel the son of Pe·thu′el:

[2] “Hear this, YOU older men, and give ear, all YOU inhabitants of the land. Has this occurred in YOUR days, or even in the days of YOUR forefathers? [3] Concerning it give an account to YOUR own sons, and YOUR sons to their sons, and their sons to the following generation. [4] What was left by the caterpillar, the locust has eaten; and what was left by the locust, the creeping, unwinged locust has eaten; and what the creeping, unwinged locust has left, the cockroach has eaten.

[5] “Wake up, YOU drunkards, and weep; and howl, all YOU wine drinkers, on account of sweet wine, for it has been cut off from YOUR mouths. [6] For there is a nation that has come up into my land, mighty and without number. Its teeth are the teeth of a lion, and it has the jawbones of a lion. [7] It has set my vine as an object of astonishment, and my fig tree as a stump. It has positively stripped it bare and thrown it away. The twigs of it have become white. [8] Wail, as a virgin girded with sackcloth does over the owner of her youth.

[9] “Grain offering and drink offering have been cut off from the house of Jehovah; the priests, the ministers of Jehovah, have mourned. [10] The field has been despoiled, the ground has gone to mourning; for the grain has been despoiled, the new wine has been dried up, the oil has faded away. [11] Farmers have felt shame; vinedressers have howled, on account of wheat and on account of barley; for the harvest of the field has perished. [12] The vine itself has shown dryness, and even the fig tree has faded away. As for the pomegranate tree, also the palm tree and the apple tree, all the trees of the field, they have dried up; for exultation has gone ashamed away from the sons of mankind.

[13] “Gird yourselves, and beat YOUR breasts, YOU priests. Howl, YOU ministers of the altar. Come in, spend the night in sackcloth, YOU ministers of my God; for from the house of YOUR God grain offering and drink offering have been withheld. [14] Sanctify a time of fasting. Call together a solemn assembly. Gather together the older men, all the inhabitants of the land, to the house of Jehovah YOUR God, and cry to Jehovah for aid.

[15] “Alas for the day; because the day of Jehovah is near, and like a despoiling from the Almighty One it will come! [16] Has not food itself been cut off before our very eyes; from the house of our God, rejoicing and joyfulness? [17] Dried figs have shriveled under their shovels. Storehouses have been laid desolate. Barns have been torn down, for the grain has dried up. [18] O how the domestic animal has sighed! How the droves of cattle have wandered in confusion! For there is no pasturage for them. Also, the droves of the sheep have been the ones made to bear guilt.

[19] “To you, O Jehovah, I shall call; for fire itself has devoured the pasture grounds of the wilderness, and a very flame has consumed all the trees of the field. [20] The beasts of the field also keep longing for you, because the channels of water have dried up, and fire itself has devoured the pasture grounds of the wilderness.”

2 “Blow a horn in Zion, O men, and shout a war cry in my holy mountain. Let all the inhabitants of the land get agitated; for the day of Jehovah is coming, for it is near! [2] It is a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick gloom, like light of dawn spread out upon the mountains.

“There is a people numerous and mighty; one like it has not been made to exist from the indefinite past, and after it there will be none again to the years of generation after generation. [3] Ahead of it a fire has devoured, and behind it a flame consumes. Like the garden of E′den the land is ahead of it; but behind it is a desolate wilderness, and there has also proved to be nothing thereof escaping.

[4] “Its appearance is like the appearance of horses, and like steeds is the way they keep running. [5] As with the sound of chariots on the tops of the mountains they keep skipping about, as with the sound of a flaming fire that is devouring stubble. It is like a mighty people, drawn up in battle order. [6] Because of it, peoples will be in severe pains. As for all faces, they will certainly collect a glow of excitement.

[7] “Like powerful men they run. Like men of war they go up a wall. And they go each one in his own ways, and they do not alter their paths. [8] And one another they do not shove. As an able-bodied man in his course, they keep going; and should some fall even among the missiles, the others do not break off course.

[9] “Into the city they rush. On the wall they run. On the houses they go up. Through the windows they go in like the thief. [10] Before it the land has become agitated, the heavens have rocked. Sun and moon themselves have become dark, and the very stars have withdrawn their brightness. [11] And Jehovah himself will certainly give forth his voice before his military force, for his camp is very numerous. For he who is carrying out his word is mighty; for the day of Jehovah is great and very fear-inspiring, and who can hold up under it?”

[12] “And now also,” the utterance of Jehovah is, “come back to me with all YOUR hearts, and with fasting and with weeping and with wailing. [13] And rip apart YOUR hearts, and not YOUR garments; and come back to Jehovah YOUR God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abundant in loving-kindness, and he will certainly feel regret on account of the calamity. [14] Who is there knowing whether he will turn back and actually feel regret and let remain after it a blessing, a grain offering and a drink offering for Jehovah YOUR God?

[15] “Blow a horn in Zion, O men. Sanctify a time of fasting. Call together a solemn assembly. [16] Gather the people together. Sanctify a congregation. Collect the old men together. Gather children and those sucking the breasts together. Let the bridegroom go forth from his interior room, and the bride from her nuptial chamber.

[17] “Between the porch and the altar let the priests, the ministers of Jehovah, weep and say, ‘Do feel sorry, O Jehovah, for your people, and do not make your inheritance a reproach, for nations to rule over them. Why should they say among the peoples: “Where is their God?”’ [18] And Jehovah will be zealous for his land and will show compassion upon his people. [19] And Jehovah will answer and say to his people, ‘Here I am sending to YOU the grain and the new wine and the oil, and YOU people will certainly be satisfied with it; and I shall not make YOU anymore a reproach among the nations. [20] And the northerner I shall put far away from upon YOU, and I shall actually disperse him to a waterless land and desolated waste, with his face to the eastern sea and his rear section to the western sea. And the stink from him will certainly ascend, and the stench from him will keep ascending; for He will actually do a great thing in what He does.’

21 “Do not be fearful, O ground. Be joyful and rejoice; for Jehovah will actually do a great thing in what He does. 22 Do not be fearful, YOU beasts of the open field, for the pasture grounds of the wilderness will certainly grow green. For the tree will actually give its fruitage. The fig tree and the vine must give their vital energy. 23 And, YOU sons of Zion, be joyful and rejoice in Jehovah YOUR God; for he will be bound to give YOU the autumn rain in right measure, and he will bring down upon YOU people a downpour, autumn rain and spring rain, as at the first. 24 And the threshing floors must be full of cleansed grain, and the press vats must overflow with new wine and oil. 25 And I will make compensation to YOU for the years that the locust, the creeping, unwinged locust, and the cockroach and the caterpillar have eaten, my great military force that I have sent among YOU. 26 And YOU will certainly eat, eating and becoming satisfied, and YOU will be bound to praise the name of Jehovah YOUR God, who has done with YOU so wonderfully; and my people will not be ashamed to time indefinite. 27 And YOU people will have to know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am Jehovah YOUR God and there is no other. And my people will not be ashamed to time indefinite.

28 “And after that it must occur that I shall pour out my spirit on every sort of flesh, and YOUR sons and YOUR daughters will certainly prophesy. As for YOUR old men, dreams they will dream. As for YOUR young men, visions they will see. 29 And even on the menservants and on the maidservants in those days I shall pour out my spirit.

[30] “And I will give portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. [31] The sun itself will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and fear-inspiring day of Jehovah. [32] And it must occur that everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will get away safe; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will prove to be the escaped ones, just as Jehovah has said, and in among the survivors, whom Jehovah is calling.”

3 “For, look! in those days and in that time, when I shall bring back the captive ones of Judah and Jerusalem, [2] I will also collect together all the nations and bring them down to the low plain of Je·hosh′a·phat; and I will put myself on judgment with them there on account of my people and my inheritance Israel, whom they scattered among the nations; and they apportioned out my own land. [3] And for my people they kept casting lots; and they would give the male child for a prostitute, and the female child they sold for wine, that they might drink.

[4] “And, also, what do YOU have to do with me, O Tyre and Si′don and all YOU regions of Phi·lis′ti·a? Is it the treatment that YOU are giving me as a reward? And if YOU are giving such treatment to me, swiftly, speedily I shall pay back YOUR treatment upon YOUR heads. [5] Because YOU men have taken my own silver and my own gold, and YOU have brought my own desirable good things into YOUR temples; [6] and the sons of Judah and the sons of Jerusalem YOU have sold to the sons of the Greeks, for the purpose of removing them far from their own territory; [7] here I am arousing them to come from the place where YOU have sold them, and I will pay back YOUR treatment upon YOUR own heads. [8] And I will sell YOUR sons and YOUR daughters into the hand of the sons of Judah, and they must sell them to the men of She′ba, to a nation far away; for Jehovah himself has spoken it.

[9] “Proclaim this, YOU people, among the nations, ‘Sanctify war! Arouse the powerful men! Let them draw near! Let them come up, all the men of war! [10] Beat YOUR plowshares into swords and YOUR pruning shears into lances. As for the weak one, let him say: “I am a powerful man.” [11] Lend YOUR aid and come, all YOU nations round about, and collect yourselves together.’”

To that place, O Jehovah, bring your powerful ones down.

[12] “Let the nations be aroused and come up to the low plain of Je·hosh′a·phat; for there I shall sit in order to judge all the nations round about.

[13] “THRUST in a sickle, for harvest has grown ripe. Come, descend, for the winepress has become full. The press vats actually overflow; for their badness has become abundant.
[14] Crowds, crowds are in the low plain of the decision, for the day of Jehovah is near in the low plain of the decision. [15] Sun and moon themselves will certainly become dark, and the very stars will actually withdraw their brightness. [16] And out of Zion Jehovah himself will roar, and out of Jerusalem he will give forth his voice. And heaven and earth certainly will rock; but Jehovah will be a refuge for his people, and a fortress for the sons of Israel. [17] And YOU people will have to know that I am Jehovah YOUR God, residing in Zion my holy mountain. And Jerusalem must become a holy place; and as regards strangers, they will no more pass through her.

[18] “And it must occur in that day that the mountains will drip with sweet wine, and the very hills will flow with milk, and the very streambeds of Judah will all flow with water. And out of the house of Jehovah there will go forth a spring, and it must irrigate the torrent valley of the Acacia Trees. [19] As regards Egypt, a desolate waste it will become; and as regards E′dom, a wilderness of desolate waste it will become, because of the violence to the sons of Judah, in whose land they shed innocent blood. [20] But as for Judah, to time indefinite it will be inhabited, and Jerusalem to generation after generation. [21] And I will consider innocent their blood that I had not considered innocent; and Jehovah will be residing in Zion.”

AMOS

1 The words of A′mos, who happened to be among the sheep raisers from Te·ko′a, which he visioned concerning Israel in the days of Uz·zi′ah the king of Judah and in the days of Jer·o·bo′am the son of Jo′ash, the king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. [2] And he proceeded to say:

“Jehovah—out of Zion he will roar, and out of Jerusalem he will give forth his voice; and the pasture grounds of the shepherds must go to mourning, and the summit of Car′mel must dry up.”

[3] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘“On account of three revolts of Damascus, and on account of four, I shall not turn it back, on account of their threshing Gil′e·ad even with iron threshing instruments. [4] And I will send a fire onto the house of Haz′a·el, and it must devour the dwelling towers of Ben-ha′dad. [5] And I will break the bar of Damascus and cut off the inhabitant from Bik′ath-a′ven, and the holder of the scepter from Beth-e′den; and the people of Syria will have to go as exiles to Kir,” Jehovah has said.’

[6] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘“On account of three revolts of Ga′za, and on account of four, I shall not turn it back, on account of their taking into exile a complete body of exiles to hand over to E′dom. [7] And I will send a fire onto the wall of Ga′za, and it must devour her dwelling towers. [8] And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ash′dod, and the holder of the scepter from Ash′ke·lon; and I will turn my hand back upon Ek′ron, and the remaining ones of the Phi·lis′tines must perish,” the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said.’

[9] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘On account of three revolts of Tyre, and on account of four, I shall not turn it back, on account of their handing over a complete body of exiles to E′dom, and because they did not remember the covenant of brothers. [10] And I will send a fire onto the wall of Tyre, and it must devour her dwelling towers.’

[11] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘On account of three revolts of E′dom, and on account of four, I shall not turn it back, on account of his pursuing his own brother with the sword, and because he ruined his own merciful qualities, and his anger keeps tearing away forever; and his fury—he has kept it perpetually. [12] And I will send a fire into Te′man, and it must devour the dwelling towers of Boz′rah.’

[13] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘“On account of three revolts of the sons of Am′mon, and on account of four, I shall not turn it back, on account of their slitting open the pregnant women of Gil′e·ad, for the purpose of widening out their own territory. [14] And I will set fire to the wall of Rab′bah, and it must devour her dwelling towers, with an alarm signal in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of storm wind. [15] And their king must go into exile, he and his princes together,” Jehovah has said.’

2 “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘“On account of three revolts of Moʹab, and on account of four, I shall not turn it back, on account of his burning the bones of the king of Eʹdom for lime. [2] And I will send a fire into Moʹab, and it must devour the dwelling towers of Keʹri·oth; and with noise Moʹab must die, with an alarm signal, with the sound of a horn. [3] And I will cut off the judge from the midst of her, and all her princes I shall kill with him,” Jehovah has said.’

[4] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘On account of three revolts of Judah, and on account of four, I shall not turn it back, on account of their rejecting the law of Jehovah, and because they did not keep his own regulations; but their lies, after which their forefathers had walked, kept making them wander. [5] And I will send a fire into Judah, and it must devour the dwelling towers of Jerusalem.’

[6] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘On account of three revolts of Israel, and on account of four, I shall not turn it back, on account of their selling someone righteous for mere silver, and someone poor for the price of a pair of sandals. [7] They are panting for the dust of the earth on the head of lowly persons; and the way of meek people they turn aside; and a man and his own father have gone to the same girl, for the purpose of profaning my holy name. [8] And on garments seized as a pledge they stretch themselves out beside every altar; and the wine of those who have been fined they drink at the house of their gods.’

[9] “‘But as for me, I had annihilated the Amʹor·ite on account of them, whose height was like the height of cedars, and who was vigorous like the massive trees; and I went annihilating his fruitage above and his roots below. [10] And I myself brought YOU people up out of the land of Egypt, and I kept making YOU walk through the wilderness forty years, in order to take possession of the land of the Am′or·ite. [11] And I kept raising up some of YOUR sons as prophets and some of YOUR young men as Naz′i·rites. Should this really not be, O sons of Israel?’ is the utterance of Jehovah.

[12] “‘But YOU kept giving the Naz′i·rites wine to drink, and upon the prophets YOU laid a command, saying: “YOU must not prophesy.” [13] Here I am making what is under YOU sway, just as the wagon sways that is full up with a row of newly cut grain. [14] And a place to which to flee must perish from the swift one, and no one strong will reinforce his power, and no mighty man will provide his soul with escape. [15] And no one handling the bow will stand, and no one swift on his feet will escape, and no rider of the horse will provide his soul with escape. [16] And as for one strong in his heart among the mighty men, naked is how he will flee in that day,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

3 “Hear this word that Jehovah has spoken concerning YOU, O sons of Israel, concerning the whole family that I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying, [2] ‘YOU people only have I known out of all the families of the ground. That is why I shall hold an accounting against YOU for all YOUR errors.

[3] “‘Will two walk together unless they have met by appointment? [4] Will a lion roar in the forest when it has no prey? Will a young maned lion give forth its voice from its hiding place if it has caught nothing at all? [5] Will a bird fall into a trap on the earth when there is no snare for it? Does a trap go up from the ground when it has absolutely caught nothing? [6] If a horn is blown in a city, do not also the people themselves tremble? If a calamity occurs in the city, is it not also Jehovah who has acted? [7] For the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will not do a thing unless he has revealed his confidential matter to his servants the prophets. [8] There is a lion that has roared! Who will not be afraid? The Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself has spoken! Who will not prophesy?’

[9] “‘PUBLISH it on the dwelling towers in Ash′dod and on the dwelling towers in the land of Egypt, and say: “Be gathered together against the mountains of Sa·mar′i·a, and see the many disorders in the midst of her and cases of defrauding inside her. [10] And they have not known how to do what is straightforward,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “those who are storing up violence and despoiling in their dwelling towers.”’

[11] “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘There is an adversary even round about the land, and he will certainly bring your strength down from you, and your dwelling towers will actually be plundered.’

[12] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘Just as the shepherd snatches away from the mouth of the lion two shanks or a piece of an ear, so the sons of Israel will be snatched away, those sitting in Sa·marʹi·a on a splendid couch and on a Dam·a·sceneʹ divan.’

[13] “‘HEAR and give witness in the house of Jacob,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, the God of the armies. [14] ‘For, in the day of my holding an accounting for the revolts of Israel against him, I will also hold an accounting against the altars of Bethʹel; and the horns of the altar will certainly be cut off and must fall to the earth. [15] And I will strike down the winter house in addition to the summer house.’

“‘And the houses of ivory will have to perish, and many houses will have to come to their finish,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

4 “Hear this word, YOU cows of Ba′shan, who are on the mountain of Sa·mar′i·a, who are defrauding the lowly ones, who are crushing the poor ones, who are saying to their masters, ‘Do bring, and let us drink! ’ [2] The Sovereign Lord Jehovah has sworn by his holiness, ‘“Look! There are days coming upon YOU, and he will certainly lift YOU up with butcher hooks and the last part of YOU with fishhooks. [3] And by breaches YOU will go forth, each one straight ahead; and YOU will certainly be thrown out to Har′mon,” is the utterance of Jehovah.’

[4] “‘Come, YOU people, to Beth′el and commit transgression. At Gil′gal be frequent in committing transgression, and bring YOUR sacrifices in the morning; on the third day, YOUR tenth parts. [5] And from what is leavened make a thanksgiving sacrifice to smoke, and proclaim voluntary offerings; publish it, for that is the way YOU have loved, O sons of Israel,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

[6] “‘And I also, for my part, gave YOU people cleanness of teeth in all YOUR cities and want of bread in all YOUR places; but YOU did not come back to me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.

[7] “‘And as for me, I also withheld from YOU people the downpour when there were yet three months to the harvest; and I made it rain on one city, but on another city I would not make it rain. There was one tract of land that would be rained on, but a tract of land on which I would not make it rain would be dried up. [8] And two or three cities staggered to one city in order to drink water, and they would not get satisfied; but YOU did not come back to me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.

9 "'I struck YOU people with scorching and mildew. There was a multiplying of YOUR gardens and of YOUR vineyards, but YOUR fig trees and YOUR olive trees the caterpillar would devour; yet YOU did not come back to me,' is the utterance of Jehovah.

10 "'I sent among YOU people a pestilence in the nature of that of Egypt. With the sword I killed YOUR young men, along with the taking captive of YOUR horses. And I kept making the stink of YOUR camps ascend even into YOUR nostrils; but YOU did not come back to me,' is the utterance of Jehovah.

11 "'I caused an overthrow among YOU people, like God's overthrow of Sod′om and Go·mor′rah. And YOU came to be like a log snatched out of the burning; but YOU did not come back to me,' is the utterance of Jehovah.

12 "Therefore that is what I shall do to you, O Israel. As a consequence of the fact that I shall do this very thing to you, get ready to meet your God, O Israel. 13 For, look! the Former of the mountains and the Creator of the wind, and the One telling to earthling man what his mental concern is, the One making dawn into obscurity, and the One treading on earth's high places, Jehovah the God of armies is his name."

5 “Hear this word that I am taking up over YOU people as a dirge, O house of Israel:

[2] “The virgin, Israel, has fallen;
She cannot get up again.
She has been forsaken upon her own ground;
There is no one raising her up.

[3] “For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘The very city that was going forth with a thousand will have a hundred left; and the one going forth with a hundred will have ten left, for the house of Israel.’

[4] “For this is what Jehovah has said to the house of Israel, ‘Search for me, and keep living. [5] And do not search for Beth′el, and to Gil′gal YOU must not come, and to Be′er-she′ba YOU must not pass over; because Gil′gal itself will without fail go into exile; and as regards Beth′el, it will become something uncanny. [6] Search for Jehovah, and keep living, that he may not become operative just like fire, O house of Joseph, and it may not actually devour, and Beth′el may not be with no one to extinguish it, [7] O YOU who are turning justice into mere wormwood, and the ones who have cast righteousness itself to the earth. [8] The Maker of the Ki′mah constellation and the Ke′sil constellation, and the One turning deep shadow into the morning itself, and the One who has made day itself dark as night, the One calling for the waters of the sea, that he may pour them out upon the surface of the earth—Jehovah is his name; [9] he who is causing a despoiling to flash forth upon someone strong, that despoiling itself may come upon even a fortified place.

[10] “‘In the gate they have hated a reprover, and a speaker of perfect things they detest. [11] Therefore, for the reason that YOU are extracting farm rent from someone lowly, and the tribute of grain YOU keep taking from him; houses of hewn stone YOU have built, but YOU will not keep dwelling in them; and desirable vineyards YOU have planted, but YOU will not keep drinking the wine of them. [12] For I have known how many YOUR revolts are and how mighty YOUR sins are, O YOU who are showing hostility toward someone righteous, YOU who are taking hush money, and the ones who have turned aside poor people even in the gate. [13] Therefore the very one having insight will in that time keep silent, for it will be a calamitous time.

[14] "'Search for what is good, and not what is bad, to the end that YOU people may keep living; and that thus Jehovah the God of armies may come to be with YOU, just as YOU have said. [15] Hate what is bad, and love what is good, and give justice a place in the gate. It may be that Jehovah the God of armies will show favor to the remaining ones of Joseph.'

[16] "Therefore this is what Jehovah the God of armies, Jehovah, has said, 'In all the public squares there will be wailing, and in all the streets people will be saying: "Ah! Ah!" And they will have to call a farmer to mourning, and to wailing those experienced in lamentation.' [17] 'And in all vineyards there will be wailing; for I shall pass through the midst of you,' Jehovah has said.

[18] "'Woe to those who are craving the day of Jehovah! What, then, will the day of Jehovah mean to YOU people? It will be darkness, and no light, [19] just as when a man flees because of the lion, and the bear actually meets him; and as when he went into the house and supported his hand against the wall, and the serpent bit him. [20] Will not the day of Jehovah be darkness, and not light; and will it not have gloom, and not brightness? [21] I have hated, I have rejected YOUR festivals, and I shall not enjoy the smell of YOUR solemn assemblies. [22] But if YOU people offer up to me whole burnt offerings, even in YOUR gift offerings I shall find no pleasure, and on YOUR communion sacrifices of fatlings I shall not look. [23] Remove from me the turmoil of your songs; and the melodious sound of your stringed instruments may I not hear. [24] And let justice roll forth just like waters, and righteousness like a constantly flowing torrent. [25] Was it sacrifices and gift offerings that YOU people brought near to me in the wilderness for forty years, O house of Israel? [26] And YOU will certainly carry Sak′kuth YOUR king and Kai′wan, YOUR images, the star of YOUR god, whom YOU made for yourselves. [27] And I will cause YOU to go into exile beyond Damascus,’ he whose name is Jehovah the God of armies has said.”

6 “Woe to those who are at ease in Zion and to those trusting in the mountain of Sa·marʹi·a! They are the distinguished ones of the chief part of the nations, and to them the house of Israel have come. [2] Make YOUR way over to Calʹneh, and see; and go from there to populous Haʹmath, and go down to Gath of the Phi·lisʹtines. Are they better than these kingdoms, or is their territory bigger than YOUR territory? [3] Are YOU putting out of YOUR mind the calamitous day, and do YOU bring near the dwelling of violence? [4] YOU men that are lying down on couches of ivory and are sprawling on their divans, and are eating the rams out of a flock and the young bulls from among fattened calves; [5] that are improvising according to the sound of the stringed instrument; that, like David, have devised for themselves instruments for song; [6] that are drinking out of bowls of wine, and that with the choicest oils do their anointing, and that have not been made sick at the catastrophe of Joseph.

[7] “Therefore now they will go into exile at the head of those going into exile, and the revelry of sprawling ones must depart.

[8] “‘The Sovereign Lord Jehovah has sworn by his own soul,’ is the utterance of Jehovah the God of armies, ‘“I am detesting the pride of Jacob, and his dwelling towers I have hated, and I will deliver up the city and what fills it. [9] And it must occur that if ten men should be left remaining in one house, they must also die. [10] And his father’s brother will have to carry them forth one by one, and will be burning them one by one, in order to bring out the bones from the house. And he will have to say to whoever is in the innermost parts of the house, ‘Are there any more with you?’ And he will certainly say, ‘Nobody!’ And he will have to say, ‘Keep silence! For it is not the occasion for making any mention of the name of Jehovah.’”

11 “‘For here is Jehovah commanding, and he will certainly strike down the great house into rubble and the small house into debris.

12 “‘On a crag will horses run, or will one plow there with cattle? For into a poisonous plant YOU people have turned justice, and the fruitage of righteousness into wormwood, 13 YOU who are rejoicing in a thing that is not; who are saying: “Have we not in our strength taken horns to ourselves?” 14 Look! I am raising up against YOU, O house of Israel,’ is the utterance of Jehovah the God of the armies, ‘a nation, and they must oppress YOU people from the entering in of Haʹmath down to the torrent valley of the Arʹa·bah.’”

7 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah caused me to see, and, look! he was forming a locust swarm at the start of the coming up of the later sowing. And, look! it was the later sowing after the mown grass of the king. [2] And it occurred that when it had finished eating up the vegetation of the land, I proceeded to say: “O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, forgive, please. Who will rise up of Jacob? For he is small!”

[3] Jehovah felt regret over this. “It shall not occur,” Jehovah said.

[4] This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah caused me to see, and, look! the Sovereign Lord Jehovah was calling for a contention by means of fire; and it went eating up the vast watery deep and ate up the tract of land. [5] And I proceeded to say: “O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, hold off, please. Who will rise up of Jacob? For he is small!”

[6] Jehovah felt regret over this. “That, too, will not occur,” the Sovereign Lord Jehovah said.

[7] This is what he caused me to see, and, look! Jehovah was stationed on a wall made with a plummet, and there was a plummet in his hand. [8] Then Jehovah said to me: “What are you seeing, A′mos?” So I said: “A plummet.” And Jehovah went on to say: “Here I am setting a plummet in the midst of my people Israel. I shall no more do any further excusing of it. [9] And the high places of Isaac will certainly be laid desolate, and the sanctuaries themselves of Israel will be devastated; and I will rise up against the house of Jer·o·bo′am with a sword.”

[10] And Am·a·zi′ah the priest of Beth′el proceeded to send to Jer·o·bo′am the king of Israel, saying: “A′mos has conspired against you right inside the house of Israel. The land is not able to put up with all his words. [11] For this is what A′mos has said, ‘By the sword Jer·o·bo′am will die; and as regards Israel, it will without fail go into exile from its own ground.’”

[12] And Am·a·zi′ah proceeded to say to A′mos: “O visionary, go, run your way off to the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and there you may prophesy. [13] But at Beth′el you must no longer do any further prophesying, for it is the sanctuary of a king and it is the house of a kingdom.”

[14] Then A′mos answered and said to Am·a·zi′ah: “I was not a prophet, neither was I the son of a prophet; but I was a herdsman and a nipper of figs of sycamore trees. [15] And Jehovah proceeded to take me from following the flock, and Jehovah went on to say to me, ‘Go, prophesy to my people Israel.’ [16] And now hear the word of Jehovah, ‘Are you saying: “You must not prophesy against Israel, and you must let no word drop against the house of Isaac”? [17] Therefore this is what Jehovah has said: “As regards your wife, in the city she will become a prostitute. And as regards your sons and your daughters, by the sword they will fall. And as regards your ground, by the measuring rope it will be apportioned out. And as regards you yourself, on unclean ground you will die; and as regards Israel, it will without fail go into exile from its own ground.”’”

8 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah caused me to see, and, look! there was a basket of summer fruit. [2] Then he said: “What are you seeing, A′mos?” So I said: “A basket of summer fruit.” And Jehovah went on to say to me: “The end has come to my people Israel. I shall no more do any further excusing of them. [3] ‘And the songs of the temple will actually be a howling in that day,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. ‘There will be many a carcass. In every place one will certainly throw them out—hush!’

[4] “Hear this, YOU men snapping at someone poor, even in order to cause the meek ones of the earth to cease, [5] saying, ‘How long will it be before the new moon passes and we may sell cereals? Also, the sabbath, and we may offer grain for sale; in order to make the e′phah small and to make the shekel great and to falsify the scales of deception; [6] in order to buy lowly people for mere silver and someone poor for the price of a pair of sandals, and that we may sell mere refuse of grain?’

[7] “Jehovah has sworn by the Superiority of Jacob, ‘Never will I forget all their works. [8] Will it not be on this account that the land will be agitated, and every inhabitant in it will have to mourn; and it will, all of it, certainly come up just like the Nile and be tossed and sink down like the Nile of Egypt?’

[9] “‘And it must occur in that day,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘that I will make the sun go down at high noon, and I will cause darkness for the land on a bright day. [10] And I will turn YOUR festivals into mourning and all YOUR songs into a dirge, and I will bring up upon all hips sackcloth and upon every head baldness; and I will make the situation like the mourning for an only son, and the end result of it as a bitter day.’

[11] “‘Look! There are days coming,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, ‘and I will send a famine into the land, a famine, not for bread, and a thirst, not for water, but for hearing the words of Jehovah. [12] And they will certainly stagger from sea all the way to sea, and from north even to the sunrise. They will keep roving about while searching for the word of Jehovah, but they will not find it. [13] In that day the pretty virgins will swoon away, also the young men, because of the thirst; [14] those who are swearing by the guiltiness of Sa·marʹi·a, and who actually say: “As your god is alive, O Dan!” and, “As the way of Beʹer-sheʹba is alive!” And they will certainly fall, and they will rise up no more.’”

9 I saw Jehovah stationed above the altar, and he proceeded to say: “Strike the pillar head, so that the thresholds will rock. And cut them off at the head, all of them. And the last part of them I shall kill with the sword itself. No one fleeing of them will make good his flight, and no one escaping of them will make his getaway. [2] If they dig down into She′ol, from there my own hand will take them; and if they go up to the heavens, from there I shall bring them down. [3] And if they hide themselves on the top of Car′mel, from there I shall carefully search and be certain to take them. And if they conceal themselves from in front of my eyes on the floor of the sea, down there I shall command the serpent, and it must bite them. [4] And if they go into captivity before their enemies, from there I shall command the sword, and it must kill them; and I will set my eyes upon them for bad, and not for good. [5] And the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of the armies, is the One touching the land, so that it melts; and all the inhabitants in it will have to mourn; and it will certainly come up like the Nile, all of it, and sink down like the Nile of Egypt.

[6] “‘He who is building in the heavens his stairs, and his structure over the earth that he founded; he who is calling for the waters of the sea, that he may pour them out upon the surface of the earth—Jehovah is his name.’

[7] “‘Are YOU not like the sons of the Cush′ites to me, O sons of Israel?’ is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘Did I not bring Israel itself up out of the land of Egypt, and the Phi·lis′tines out of Crete, and Syria out of Kir?’

[8] “‘Look! The eyes of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah are upon the sinful kingdom, and he will certainly annihilate it from upon the surface of the ground. Nevertheless, I shall not completely annihilate the house of Jacob,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. [9] ‘For, look! I am commanding, and I will jiggle the house of Israel among all the nations, just as one jiggles the sieve, so that not a pebble falls to the earth. [10] By the sword they will die—all the sinners of my people, those who are saying: “The calamity will not come near or reach as far as us.”’

[11] “‘In that day I shall raise up the booth of David that is fallen, and I shall certainly repair their breaches. And its ruins I shall raise up, and I shall certainly build it up as in the days of long ago, [12] to the end that they may take possession of what is left remaining of E′dom, and all the nations upon whom my name has been called,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, who is doing this.

[13] “‘Look! There are days coming,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and the plowman will actually overtake the harvester, and the treader of grapes, the carrier of the seed; and the mountains must drip with sweet wine, and the very hills will all find themselves melting. [14] And I will gather back the captive ones of my people Israel, and they will actually build the desolated cities and inhabit them, and plant vineyards and drink the wine of them, and make gardens and eat the fruit of them.’

[15] “‘And I shall certainly plant them upon their ground, and they will no more be uprooted from their ground that I have given them,’ Jehovah your God has said.”

OBADIAH

1 The vision of O·ba·di′ah:

This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said regarding E′dom: “There is a report that we have heard from Jehovah, and there is an envoy that has been sent among the nations, ‘Rise up, YOU people, and let us rise up against her in battle.’”

2 “Look! Small is what I have made you among the nations. You are despised very much. 3 The presumptuousness of your heart is what has deceived you, you who are residing in the retreats of the crag, the height where he dwells, saying in his heart, ‘Who will bring me down to the earth?’ 4 If you should make your position high like the eagle, or if among the stars there were a placing of your nest, down from there I would bring you,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

5 “If it were thieves that came in to you, if despoilers came in by night, to what extent would you have been silenced? Would they not steal as much as they wanted? Or if it were grape gatherers that came in to you, would they not let some gleanings remain? 6 O the extent to which those of E′sau have been searched out! How his concealed treasures have been sought out! 7 As far as the boundary they have sent you. The very men in covenant with you have all deceived you. The men at peace with you have prevailed against you. Those eating food with you will place a net under you as one in whom there is no discernment. 8 Will it not be in that day?” is the utterance of Jehovah.

“And I shall certainly destroy the wise ones out of E′dom, and discernment out of the mountainous region of E′sau. 9

And your mighty men must become terrified, O Te′man, for the reason that each one will be cut off from the mountainous region of E′sau, because of a killing. 10 Because of the violence to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will have to be cut off to time indefinite. 11 In the day when you stood off on the side, in the day when strangers took his military force into captivity and when outright foreigners entered his gate and over Jerusalem they cast lots, you also were like one of them.

12 “And you ought not to watch the sight in the day of your brother, in the day of his misfortune; and you ought not to rejoice at the sons of Judah in the day of their perishing; and you ought not to maintain a big mouth in the day of their distress. 13 You ought not to come into the gate of my people in the day of their disaster. You, even you, ought not to peer at his calamity in the day of his disaster; and you ought not to thrust out a hand upon his wealth in the day of his disaster. 14 And you ought not to stand at the parting of the ways, in order to cut off his escapees; and you ought not to hand over his survivors in the day of distress. 15 For the day of Jehovah against all the nations is near. In the way that you have done, it will be done to you. Your sort of treatment will return upon your own head. 16 For in the way that YOU people have drunk upon my holy mountain, all the nations will keep drinking constantly. And they will certainly drink and gulp down and become as though they had never happened to be.

17 “And in Mount Zion is where those escaping will prove to be, and it must become something holy; and the house of Jacob must take possession of the things for them to possess. 18 And the house of Jacob must become a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of E′sau as stubble; and they must set them ablaze and devour them. And there will prove to be no survivor to the house of E′sau; for Jehovah himself has spoken it. [19] And they must take possession of the Neg′eb, even of the mountainous region of E′sau, and of the She·phe′lah, even of the Phi·lis′tines. And they must take possession of the field of E′phra·im and of the field of Sa·mar′i·a; and Benjamin must take possession of Gil′e·ad. [20] And as for the exiles of this rampart, to the sons of Israel will belong what the Ca′naan·ites possessed as far as Zar′e·phath. And the exiles of Jerusalem, who were in Se·phar′ad, will take possession of the cities of the Neg′eb.

[21] “And saviors will certainly come up onto Mount Zion, in order to judge the mountainous region of E′sau; and the kingship must become Jehovah’s.”

JONAH

1 And the word of Jehovah began to occur to Joʹnah the son of A·mitʹtai, saying: [2] “Get up, go to Ninʹe·veh the great city, and proclaim against her that their badness has come up before me.”

[3] And Joʹnah proceeded to get up and run away to Tarʹshish from before Jehovah; and he finally came down to Jopʹpa and found a ship going to Tarʹshish. So he paid its fare and went down into it, in order to go with them to Tarʹshish from before Jehovah.

[4] And Jehovah himself hurled forth a great wind at the sea, and there came to be a great tempest on the sea; and as for the ship, it was about to be wrecked. [5] And the mariners began to fear and to call for aid, each one to his god. And they kept hurling out the articles that were in the ship to the sea, in order to lighten it of them. But Joʹnah himself had gone down to the innermost parts of the decked vessel, and he proceeded to lie down and go fast asleep. [6] At length the ship captain came near to him and said to him: “What is the matter with you, sleeper? Get up, call out to your god! Perhaps the true God will show himself caring about us, and we shall not perish.”

[7] And they began to say to one another: “Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know on whose account we have this calamity.” And they kept casting lots, and finally the lot fell upon Joʹnah. [8] So they said to him: “Do tell us, please, on whose account it is that we are having this calamity? What is your work, and from where do you come? What is your country, and from which people are you?”

9 At that he said to them: “I am a Hebrew, and Jehovah the God of the heavens I am fearing, the One who made the sea and the dry land.”

10 And the men began to fear greatly, and they went on to say to him: “What is this that you have done?” For the men had come to know that it was from before Jehovah that he was running away, because he had told them. 11 Finally they said to him: “What should we do to you, in order that the sea may become still for us?” For the sea was continually growing more tempestuous. 12 So he said to them: “Lift me up and hurl me into the sea, and the sea will become still for YOU; because I am aware that it is on my account that this great tempest is upon YOU.” 13 But the men tried to work their way through, in order to bring the ship back to the dry land; yet they were unable, because the sea was continually growing more tempestuous against them.

14 And they proceeded to call out to Jehovah and to say: “Ah, now, O Jehovah, may we, please, not perish because of the soul of this man! And do not put upon us innocent blood, since you yourself, O Jehovah, have done according to what you have delighted in! ” 15 Then they lifted up Jo′nah and hurled him into the sea; and the sea began to halt from its raging. 16 At that the men began to fear Jehovah greatly, and so they offered a sacrifice to Jehovah and made vows.

17 Now Jehovah appointed a great fish to swallow Jo′nah, so that Jo′nah came to be in the inward parts of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Then Jo′nah prayed to Jehovah his God from the inward parts of the fish 2 and said:

“Out of my distress I called out to Jehovah, and he proceeded to answer me.
Out of the belly of She′ol I cried for help.
You heard my voice.

3 When you threw me to the depths, into the heart of the open sea,
Then a very river encircled me.
All your breakers and your waves—over me they passed on.

4 And as for me, I said, ‘I have been driven away from in front of your eyes!
How shall I gaze again upon your holy temple?’

5 Waters encircled me clear to the soul; the watery deep itself kept enclosing me.
Weeds were wound around my head.

6 To the bottoms of the mountains I went down.
As for the earth, its bars were upon me for time indefinite.
But out of the pit you proceeded to bring up my life, O Jehovah my God.

7 When my soul fainted away within me, Jehovah was the One whom I remembered.
Then my prayer came in to you, into your holy temple.

8 As for those who are observing the idols of untruth, they leave their own loving-kindness.

9 But as for me, with the voice of thanksgiving I will sacrifice to you.
What I have vowed, I will pay. Salvation belongs to Jehovah.”

10 In time Jehovah commanded the fish, so that it vomited out Jo′nah onto the dry land.

3 Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jo′nah the second time, saying: [2] “Get up, go to Nin′e·veh the great city, and proclaim to her the proclamation that I am speaking to you.”

[3] At that, Jo′nah got up and went to Nin′e·veh in accord with the word of Jehovah. Now Nin′e·veh herself proved to be a city great to God, with a walking distance of three days. [4] Finally Jo′nah started to enter into the city the walking distance of one day, and he kept proclaiming and saying: “Only forty days more, and Nin′e·veh will be overthrown.”

[5] And the men of Nin′e·veh began to put faith in God, and they proceeded to proclaim a fast and to put on sackcloth, from the greatest one of them even to the least one of them. [6] When the word reached the king of Nin′e·veh, then he rose up from his throne and put off his official garment from himself and covered himself with sackcloth and sat down in the ashes. [7] Furthermore, he had the cry made, and he had it said in Nin′e·veh, by the decree of the king and his great ones, saying:

“No man and no domestic animal, no herd and no flock, should taste anything at all. None should take food. Even water they should not drink. [8] And let them cover themselves with sackcloth, man and domestic animal; and let them call out to God with strength and come back, each one from his bad way and from the violence that was in their hands. [9] Who is there knowing whether the true God may turn back and actually feel regret and turn back from his burning anger, so that we may not perish?”

[10] And the true God got to see their works, that they had turned back from their bad way; and so the true God felt regret over the calamity that he had spoken of causing to them; and he did not cause it.

4 To Jo′nah, though, it was highly displeasing, and he got to be hot with anger. [2] Hence he prayed to Jehovah and said: “Ah, now, O Jehovah, was not this an affair of mine, while I happened to be on my own ground? That is why I went ahead and ran away to Tar′shish; for I knew that you are a God gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abundant in loving-kindness, and feeling regret over the calamity. [3] And now, O Jehovah, take away, please, my soul from me, for my dying is better than my being alive.”

[4] In turn Jehovah said: “Have you rightly become hot with anger?”

[5] Then Jo′nah went out of the city and sat down east of the city; and gradually he made for himself there a booth, that he might sit under it in the shade until he would see what would become of the city. [6] Accordingly Jehovah God appointed a bottle-gourd plant, that it should come up over Jo′nah, in order to become a shade over his head, to deliver him from his calamitous state. And Jo′nah began to rejoice greatly over the bottle-gourd plant.

[7] But the true God appointed a worm at the ascending of the dawn on the next day, that it should strike the bottle-gourd plant; and it gradually dried up. [8] And it came about that, as soon as the sun shone forth, God also went on to appoint a parching east wind, and the sun kept striking upon the head of Jo′nah, so that he was swooning away; and he kept asking that his soul might die, and he repeatedly said: “My dying off is better than my being alive.”

[9] And God proceeded to say to Jo′nah: “Have you rightly become hot with anger over the bottle-gourd plant?”

At that he said: “I have rightly become hot with anger, to the point of death.” [10] But Jehovah said: “You, for your part, felt sorry for the bottle-gourd plant, which you did not toil upon or make get big, which proved to be a mere growth of a night and perished as a mere growth of a night. [11] And, for my part, ought I not to feel sorry for Nin′e·veh the great city, in which there exist more than one hundred and twenty thousand men who do not at all know the difference between their right hand and their left, besides many domestic animals?”

MICAH

1 The word of Jehovah that occurred to Mi′cah of Mo′resh·eth, in the days of Jo′tham, A′haz, Hez·e·ki′ah, kings of Judah, that he visioned concerning Sa·mar′i·a and Jerusalem:

[2] “Hear, O YOU peoples, all of YOU; pay attention, O earth and what fills you, and let the Sovereign Lord Jehovah serve against YOU as a witness, Jehovah from his holy temple. [3] For, look! Jehovah is going forth from his place, and he will certainly come down and tread upon earth’s high places. [4] And the mountains must melt under him, and the low plains themselves will split apart, like wax because of the fire, like waters being poured down a steep place.

[5] “It is because of the revolt of Jacob that there is all this, even because of the sins of the house of Israel. What is the revolt of Jacob? Is it not Sa·mar′i·a? And what are the high places of Judah? Are they not Jerusalem? [6] And I shall certainly make Sa·mar′i·a a heap of ruins of the field, the planting places of a vineyard; and I will pour down into the valley her stones, and her foundations I shall lay bare. [7] And her graven images will all be crushed to pieces, and all the gifts made to her as her hire will be burned in the fire; and all her idols I shall make a desolate waste. For from the things given as the hire of a prostitute she collected them, and to the thing given as the hire of a prostitute they will return.”

[8] On this account I will wail and howl; I will walk barefoot and naked. I shall make a wailing like the jackals, and a mourning like female ostriches. [9] For the stroke upon her is unhealable; for it has come as far as Judah, the plague as far as the gate of my people, as far as Jerusalem.

10 “In Gath do not YOU men tell it out; positively do not weep.

“In the house of Aph′rah wallow in the very dust. 11 Make your way across, O inhabitress of Sha′phir, in shameful nudity. The inhabitress of Za′a·nan has not gone forth. The wailing of Beth-e′zel will take from YOU people its standing place. 12 For the inhabitress of Ma′roth has waited for good, but what is bad has come down from Jehovah to the gate of Jerusalem. 13 Attach the chariot to the team of horses, O inhabitress of La′chish. The beginning of sin was what she was to the daughter of Zion, for in you the revolts of Israel have been found. 14 Therefore you will give parting gifts to Mo′resh·eth-gath. The houses of Ach′zib were as something deceitful to the kings of Israel. 15 The dispossessor I shall yet bring to you, O inhabitress of Ma·re′shah. As far as A·dul′lam the glory of Israel will come. 16 Cause baldness, and shear your hair off on account of your sons of exquisite delight. Broaden out your baldness like that of the eagle, because they have gone away from you into exile.”

2 “Woe to those who are scheming what is harmful, and to those practicing what is bad, upon their beds! By the light of the morning they proceed to do it, because it is in the power of their hand. [2] And they have desired fields and have seized them; also houses, and have taken them; and they have defrauded an able-bodied man and his household, a man and his hereditary possession.

[3] “Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am thinking up against this family a calamity from which YOU people will not remove YOUR necks, so that YOU will not walk haughtily; because it is a time of calamity. [4] In that day one will raise up concerning YOU people a proverbial saying and will certainly lament a lamentation, even a lamentation. One will have to say: “We have positively been despoiled! The very portion of my people he alters. How he removes it from me! To the unfaithful one he apportions out our own fields.” [5] Therefore you will come to have no one casting out the cord, by lot, in the congregation of Jehovah. [6] Do not YOU people let words drop. They let words drop. They will not let words drop concerning these things. Humiliations will not move away.

[7] “‘Is it being said, O house of Jacob: “Has the spirit of Jehovah become discontented, or are these his dealings?” Do not my own words do good in the case of the one walking uprightly?

[8] “‘And yesterday my own people proceeded to rise up as an outright enemy. From the front of a garment YOU men strip off the majestic ornament, from the ones passing by confidently, like those returning from war. [9] The women of my people YOU drive out from the house in which a woman has exquisite delight. From off her children YOU take my splendor, to time indefinite. [10] Get up and go, because this is not a resting-place. Because of the fact that she has become unclean, there is a wrecking; and the wrecking work is painful. [11] If a man, walking by wind and falsehood, has told the lie: “I shall let words drop to you concerning wine and concerning intoxicating liquor,” he also will certainly become the one letting words drop for this people.

[12] “‘I shall positively gather Jacob, all of you; I shall without fail collect the remaining ones of Israel together. In unity I shall set them, like a flock in the pen, like a drove in the midst of its pasture; they will be noisy with men.’

[13] “The one making a breakthrough will certainly come up before them: they will actually break through. And they will pass through a gate, and they will go out by it. And their king will pass through before them, with Jehovah at the head of them.”

3 And I proceeded to say: “Hear, please, YOU heads of Jacob and YOU commanders of the house of Israel. Is it not YOUR business to know justice? [2] YOU haters of what is good and lovers of badness, tearing off their skin from people and their organism from off their bones; [3] YOU the ones who have also eaten the organism of my people, and have stripped their very skin from off them, and smashed to pieces their very bones, and crushed them to pieces like what is in a widemouthed pot and like flesh in the midst of a cooking pot. [4] At that time they will call to Jehovah for aid, but he will not answer them. And he will conceal his face from them in that time, according as they committed badness in their dealings.

[5] “This is what Jehovah has said against the prophets that are causing my people to wander, that are biting with their teeth and that actually call out, ‘Peace!’ that, when anyone does not put something into their mouths, also actually sanctify war against him, [6] ‘Therefore YOU men will have night, so that there will be no vision; and darkness YOU will have, so as not to practice divination. And the sun will certainly set upon the prophets, and the day must get dark upon them. [7] And the visionaries will have to be ashamed, and the diviners will certainly be disappointed. And they will have to cover over the mustache, all of them, for there is no answer from God.’”

[8] And, on the other hand, I myself have become full of power, with the spirit of Jehovah, and of justice and mightiness, in order to tell to Jacob his revolt and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear, please, this, YOU head ones of the house of Jacob and YOU commanders of the house of Israel, the ones detesting justice and the ones who make even everything that is straight crooked; 10 building Zion with acts of bloodshed and Jerusalem with unrighteousness. 11 Her own head ones judge merely for a bribe, and her own priests instruct just for a price, and her own prophets practice divination simply for money; yet upon Jehovah they keep supporting themselves, saying: “Is not Jehovah in the midst of us? There will come upon us no calamity.” 12 Therefore on account of YOU men Zion will be plowed up as a mere field, and Jerusalem herself will become mere heaps of ruins, and the mountain of the house will be as the high places of a forest.

4 And it must occur in the final part of the days that the mountain of the house of Jehovah will become firmly established above the top of the mountains, and it will certainly be lifted up above the hills; and to it peoples must stream. [2] And many nations will certainly go and say: “Come,
YOU people, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will instruct us about his ways, and we will walk in his paths.” For out of Zion law will go forth, and the word of Jehovah out of Jerusalem. [3] And he will certainly render judgment among many peoples, and set matters straight respecting mighty nations far away. And they will have to beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning shears. They will not lift up sword, nation against nation, neither will they learn war anymore. [4] And they will actually sit, each one under his vine and under his fig tree, and there will be no one making them tremble; for the very mouth of Jehovah of armies has spoken it.

[5] For all the peoples, for their part, will walk each one in the name of its god; but we, for our part, shall walk in the name of Jehovah our God to time indefinite, even forever.

[6] “In that day,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “I will gather her that was limping; and her that was dispersed I will collect together, even her whom I have treated badly. [7] And I shall certainly make her that was limping a remnant, and her that was removed far off a mighty nation; and Jehovah will actually rule as king over them in Mount Zion, from now on and into time indefinite.

[8] “And as for you, O tower of the drove, the mound of the daughter of Zion, as far as to you it will come, yes, the first dominion will certainly come, the kingdom belonging to the daughter of Jerusalem.

[9] “Now why is it that you keep shouting loudly? Is there no king in you, or has your own counselor perished, so that pangs like those of a woman giving birth have grabbed hold of you? [10] Be in severe pains and burst forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman giving birth, for now you will go forth from a town, and you will have to reside in the field. And you will have to come as far as to Babylon. There you will be delivered. There Jehovah will buy you back out of the palm of your enemies.

[11] “And now there will certainly be gathered against you many nations, those who are saying, ‘Let her be polluted, and may our eyes look upon Zion.’ [12] But as for them, they have not come to know the thoughts of Jehovah, and they have not come to understand his counsel; because he will certainly collect them together like a row of newly cut grain to the threshing floor.

[13] “Get up and thresh, O daughter of Zion; for your horn I shall change into iron, and your hoofs I shall change into copper, and you will certainly pulverize many peoples; and by a ban you will actually devote to Jehovah their unjust profit, and their resources to the true Lord of the whole earth.”

5 “At this time you make cuttings upon yourself, O daughter of an invasion; a siege he has laid against us. With the rod they will strike upon the cheek the judge of Israel.

[2] “And you, O Bethʹle·hem Ephʹra·thah, the one too little to get to be among the thousands of Judah, from you there will come out to me the one who is to become ruler in Israel, whose origin is from early times, from the days of time indefinite.

[3] “Therefore he will give them up until the time that she who is giving birth actually gives birth. And the rest of his brothers will return to the sons of Israel.

[4] “And he will certainly stand and do shepherding in the strength of Jehovah, in the superiority of the name of Jehovah his God. And they will certainly keep dwelling, for now he will be great as far as the ends of the earth. [5] And this one must become peace. As for the As·syrʹi·an, when he comes into our land and when he treads upon our dwelling towers, we shall also have to raise up against him seven shepherds, yes, eight dukes of mankind. [6] And they will actually shepherd the land of As·syrʹi·a with the sword, and the land of Nimʹrod in its entrances. And he will certainly bring about deliverance from the As·syrʹi·an, when he comes into our land and when he treads upon our territory.

[7] “And the remaining ones of Jacob must become in the midst of many peoples like dew from Jehovah, like copious showers upon vegetation, that does not hope for man or wait for the sons of earthling man. [8] And the remaining ones of Jacob must become among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of a forest, like a maned young lion among droves of sheep, which, when it actually passes through, certainly both tramples down and tears in pieces; and there is no deliverer. [9] Your hand will be high above your adversaries, and all enemies of yours will be cut off.”

[10] “And it must occur in that day,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “that I will cut off your horses from the midst of you and destroy your chariots. [11] And I will cut off the cities of your land and tear down all your fortified places. [12] And I will cut off sorceries out of your hand, and no practicers of magic will you continue to have. [13] And I will cut off your graven images and your pillars from the midst of you, and you will no more bow down to the work of your hands. [14] And I will uproot your sacred poles from the midst of you and annihilate your cities. [15] And in anger and in rage I will execute vengeance upon the nations that have not obeyed.”

6 Hear, please, YOU people, what Jehovah is saying. Get up, conduct a legal case with the mountains, and may the hills hear your voice. [2] Hear, O YOU mountains, the legal case of Jehovah, also YOU durable objects, YOU foundations of the earth; for Jehovah has a legal case with his people, and it is with Israel that he will argue:

[3] “O my people, what have I done to you? And in what way have I tired you out? Testify against me. [4] For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and from the house of slaves I redeemed you; and I proceeded to send before you Moses, Aaron and Mir′i·am. [5] O my people, remember, please, what Ba′lak the king of Mo′ab counseled, and what Ba′laam the son of Be′or answered him. From Shit′tim it was, all the way to Gil′gal, to the intent that the righteous acts of Jehovah might be known.”

[6] With what shall I confront Jehovah? With what shall I bow myself to God on high? Shall I confront him with whole burnt offerings, with calves a year old? [7] Will Jehovah be pleased with thousands of rams, with tens of thousands of torrents of oil? Shall I give my firstborn son for my revolt, the fruitage of my belly for the sin of my soul? [8] He has told you, O earthling man, what is good. And what is Jehovah asking back from you but to exercise justice and to love kindness and to be modest in walking with your God?

[9] To the city the very voice of Jehovah calls out, and the person of practical wisdom will fear your name. Hear the rod and who it was that designated it, O YOU people. [10] Do there yet exist in the house of a wicked one the treasures of wickedness, and the scrimped e′phah measure that is denounced? [11] Can I be morally clean with wicked scales and with a bag of deceptive stone weights? [12] For her own rich men have become full of violence, and her own inhabitants have spoken falsehood, and their tongue is tricky in their mouth.

[13] “And I also, for my part, shall certainly make you sick by striking you; there will be a desolating of you, on account of your sins. [14] You, for your part, will eat and not get satisfied, and your emptiness will be in the midst of you. And you will remove things, but you will not carry them safely away; and whatever you would carry away safely, I shall give to the sword itself. [15] You, for your part, will sow seed, but you will not reap. You, for your part, will tread olives, but you will not grease yourself with oil; also sweet wine, but you will not drink wine. [16] And the statutes of Om′ri and all the work of the house of A′hab are observed, and YOU people walk in their counsels; to the end that I may make you an object of astonishment and her inhabitants something to be whistled at; and the reproach of peoples YOU men will bear.”

7 Too bad for me, for I have become like the gatherings of summer fruit, like the gleaning of a grape gathering! There is no grape cluster to eat, no early fig, that my soul would desire! [2] The loyal one has perished from the earth, and among mankind there is no upright one. All of them, for bloodshed they lie in wait. They hunt, everyone his own brother, with a dragnet. [3] Their hands are upon what is bad, to do it well; the prince is asking for something, and the one who is judging does so for the reward, and the great one is speaking forth the craving of his soul, his very own; and they interweave it. [4] Their best one is like a brier, their most upright one is worse than a thorn hedge. The day of your watchmen, of your being given attention, must come. Now will occur the confounding of them.

[5] Do not put YOUR faith in a companion. Do not put YOUR trust in a confidential friend. From her who is lying in your bosom guard the openings of your mouth. [6] For a son is despising a father; a daughter is rising up against her mother; a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man’s enemies are the men of his household.

[7] But as for me, it is for Jehovah that I shall keep on the lookout. I will show a waiting attitude for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me.

[8] Do not rejoice over me, O you woman enemy of mine. Although I have fallen, I shall certainly rise up; although I dwell in the darkness, Jehovah will be a light to me. [9] The raging of Jehovah I shall bear—for I have sinned against him—until he conducts my legal case and actually executes justice for me. He will bring me forth to the light; I shall look upon his righteousness. [10] And my enemy will see, and shame will cover her, who was saying to me: “Where is he, Jehovah your God?” My own eyes will look upon her. Now she will become a place of trampling, like the mire of streets.

[11] The day for building your stone walls, at that day the decree will be far away. [12] At that day even all the way to you they will come from As·syrʹi·a and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt even all the way to the River; and from sea to sea, and from mountain to the mountain. [13] And the land must become a desolate waste on account of its inhabitants, because of the fruit of their dealings.

[14] Shepherd your people with your staff, the flock of your inheritance, the one who was residing alone in a forest—in the midst of an orchard. Let them feed on Baʹshan and Gilʹe·ad as in the days of a long time ago.

[15] “As in the days of your coming forth from the land of Egypt I shall show him wonderful things. [16] Nations will see and become ashamed of all their mightiness. They will put their hand upon their mouth; their very ears will become deaf. [17] They will lick up dust like the serpents; like reptiles of the earth they will come in agitation out of their bulwarks. To Jehovah our God they will come quivering, and they will be afraid of you.”

[18] Who is a God like you, one pardoning error and passing over transgression of the remnant of his inheritance? He will certainly not hold onto his anger forever, for he is delighting in loving-kindness. [19] He will again show us mercy; he will subject our errors. And you will throw into the depths of the sea all their sins. [20] You will give the trueness given to Jacob, the loving-kindness given to Abraham, which you swore to our forefathers from the days of long ago.

NAHUM

1 The pronouncement against Nin′e·veh: The book of the vision of Na′hum the El′kosh·ite:

[2] Jehovah is a God exacting exclusive devotion and taking vengeance; Jehovah is taking vengeance and is disposed to rage. Jehovah is taking vengeance against his adversaries, and he is resentful toward his enemies.

[3] Jehovah is slow to anger and great in power, and by no means will Jehovah hold back from punishing.

In destructive wind and in storm is his way, and the cloud mass is the powder of his feet.

[4] He is rebuking the sea, and he dries it up; and all the rivers he actually makes run dry.

Ba′shan and Car′mel have withered, and the very blossom of Leb′a·non has withered.

[5] Mountains themselves have rocked because of him, and the very hills found themselves melting.

And the earth will be upheaved because of his face; the productive land also, and all those dwelling in it.

[6] In the face of his denunciation who can stand? And who can rise up against the heat of his anger?

His own rage will certainly be poured out like fire, and the very rocks will actually be pulled down because of him.

[7] Jehovah is good, a stronghold in the day of distress.

And he is cognizant of those seeking refuge in him.

[8] And by the flood that is passing along he will make an outright extermination of her place, and darkness will pursue his very enemies.

[9] What will YOU men think up against Jehovah? He is causing an outright extermination.

Distress will not rise up a second time.

[10] Although they are being interwoven even as thorns and they are drunken as with their wheat beer, they will certainly be devoured like stubble fully dry.

[11] Out of you there will actually go forth one who is thinking up against Jehovah what is bad, counseling what is not worth while.

[12] This is what Jehovah has said: “Although they were in complete form and there were many in that state, even in that state they must be cut down; and one must pass through. And I shall certainly afflict you, so that I shall not afflict you anymore. [13] And now I shall break his carrying bar from upon you, and the bands upon you I shall tear in two. [14] And concerning you Jehovah has commanded, ‘Nothing of your name will be sown anymore. Out of the house of your gods I shall cut off carved image and molten statue. I shall make a burial place for you, because you have been of no account.’

[15] “Look! Upon the mountains the feet of one bringing good news, one publishing peace. O Judah, celebrate your festivals. Pay your vows; because no more will any good-for-nothing person pass again through you. In his entirety he will certainly be cut off.”

2 One that does a scattering has come up before your face. Let there be a safeguarding of the fortified place. Watch the way. Strengthen the hips. Reinforce power very much.

[2] For Jehovah will certainly gather the pride of Jacob, like the pride of Israel, because those emptying out have emptied them out; and the shoots of them they have ruined.

[3] The shield of his mighty men is dyed red; his men of vital energy are dressed in crimson stuff. With the fire of iron fittings is the war chariot in the day of his getting ready, and the juniper tree spears have been made to quiver. [4] In the streets the war chariots keep driving madly. They keep rushing up and down in the public squares. Their appearances are like torches. Like the lightnings they keep running.

[5] He will remember his majestic ones. They will stumble in their walking. They will hasten to her wall, and the barricade will have to be firmly established. [6] The very gates of the rivers will certainly be opened, and the palace itself will actually be dissolved. [7] And it has been fixed; she has been uncovered; she will certainly be carried away, and her slave girls will be moaning, like the sound of doves, beating repeatedly upon their hearts. [8] And Nin′e·veh, from the days that she has been, was like a pool of waters; but they are fleeing. “Stand still, YOU men! Stand still!” But there is no one turning back.

[9] Plunder silver, YOU men; plunder gold; as there is no limit to the things in arrangement. There is a heavy amount of all sorts of desirable articles.

[10] Emptiness and voidness, and a city laid waste! And the heart is melting, and there is a tottering of the knees, and severe pains are in all hips; and as for the faces of all of them, they have collected a glow of excitement. [11] Where is the lair of lions, and the cave that belongs to the maned young lions, where the lion walked and entered, where the lion's cub was, and no one was making them tremble? [12] The lion was tearing to pieces enough for his whelps, and was strangling for his lionesses. And he kept his holes filled with prey and his hiding places with animals torn to pieces.

[13] "Look! I am against you," is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, "and I will burn up her war chariot in the smoke. And a sword will devour your own maned young lions. And I will cut off from the earth your prey, and no more will the voice of your messengers be heard."

3 Woe to the city of bloodshed. She is all full of deception and of robbery. Prey does not depart! [2] There is the sound of the whip and the sound of the rattling of the wheel, and the dashing horse and the leaping chariot. [3] The mounted horseman, and the flame of the sword, and the lightning of the spear, and the multitude of slain ones, and the heavy mass of carcasses; and there is no end to the dead bodies. They keep stumbling among their dead bodies; [4] owing to the abundance of the acts of prostitution of the prostitute, attractive with charm, a mistress of sorceries, she who is ensnaring nations by her acts of prostitution and families by her sorceries.

[5] “Look! I am against you,” is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, “and I will put the covering of your skirts over your face, and I will cause nations to see your nakedness, and kingdoms your dishonor. [6] And I will throw disgusting things upon you, and I will make you despicable; and I will set you as a spectacle. [7] And it must occur that everyone seeing you will flee away from you and will certainly say, ‘Nin′e·veh has been despoiled! Who will sympathize with her?’ From where shall I seek comforters for you? [8] Are you better than No-a′mon, that was sitting by the Nile canals? Waters were all around her, whose wealth was the sea, whose wall was from the sea. [9] E·thi·o′pi·a was her full might, also Egypt; and that without limit. Put and the Lib′y·ans themselves proved to be of assistance to you. [10] She, too, was meant for exile; she went into captivity. Her own children also came to be dashed to pieces at the head of all the streets; and over her glorified men they cast lots, and her great ones have all been bound with fetters.

[11] “You yourself will also become drunk; you will become something hidden. You yourself also will seek a stronghold from the enemy. [12] All your fortified places are as fig trees with the first ripe fruits, which, if they get wiggled, will certainly fall into the mouth of an eater.

[13] “Look! Your people are women in the midst of you. To your enemies the gates of your land must without fail be opened. Fire will certainly devour your bars. [14] Water for a siege draw out for yourself. Strengthen your fortified places. Get into the mire, and trample down in the clay; grab hold of the brick mold. [15] Even there fire will devour you. A sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the locust species. Make yourself heavy in numbers like the locust species; make yourself heavy in numbers like the locust. [16] You have multiplied your tradesmen more than the stars of the heavens.

“As for the locust species, it actually strips off its skin; then it flies away. [17] Your guardsmen are like the locust, and your recruiting officers like the locust swarm. They are camping in the stone pens in a cold day. The sun itself has but to shine forth, and away they certainly flee; and their place is really unknown where they are.

[18] “Your shepherds have become drowsy, O king of As·syr′i·a; your majestic ones stay in their residences. Your people have been scattered upon the mountains, and there is no one collecting them together. [19] There is no relief for your catastrophe. Your stroke has become unhealable. All those hearing the report about you will certainly clap their hands at you; because upon whom was it that your badness did not pass over constantly?”

HABAKKUK

1 The pronouncement that Ha·bak′kuk the prophet visioned: [2] How long, O Jehovah, must I cry for help, and you do not hear? How long shall I call to you for aid from violence, and you do not save? [3] Why is it that you make me see what is hurtful, and you keep looking upon mere trouble? And why are despoiling and violence in front of me, and why does quarreling occur, and why is strife carried?

[4] Therefore law grows numb, and justice never goes forth. Because the wicked one is surrounding the righteous one, for that reason justice goes forth crooked.

[5] “See, YOU people, among the nations, and look on, and stare in amazement at one another. Be amazed; for there is an activity that one is carrying on in YOUR days, which YOU people will not believe although it is related. [6] For here I am raising up the Chal·de′ans, the nation bitter and impetuous, which is going to the wide-open places of earth in order to take possession of residences not belonging to it. [7] Frightful and fear-inspiring it is. From itself its own justice and its own dignity go forth. [8] And its horses have proved swifter than leopards, and they have proved fiercer than evening wolves. And its steeds have pawed the ground, and from far away its own steeds come. They fly like the eagle speeding to eat something. [9] In its entirety it comes for mere violence. The assembling of their faces is as the east wind, and it gathers up captives just like the sand. [10] And for its part, it jeers kings themselves, and high officials are something laughable to it. For its part, it laughs even at every fortified place, and it piles up dust and captures it. [11] At that time it will certainly move onward like wind and will pass through and will actually become guilty. This its power is due to its god.”

[12] Are you not from long ago, O Jehovah? O my God, my Holy One, you do not die. O Jehovah, for a judgment you have set it; and, O Rock, for a reproving you have founded it.

[13] You are too pure in eyes to see what is bad; and to look on trouble you are not able. Why is it that you look on those dealing treacherously, that you keep silent when someone wicked swallows up someone more righteous than he is? [14] And why do you make earthling man like the fishes of the sea, like creeping things over whom no one is ruling? [15] All these he has brought up with a mere fishhook; he drags them away in his dragnet, and he gathers them in his fishing net. That is why he rejoices and is joyful. [16] That is why he offers sacrifice to his dragnet and makes sacrificial smoke to his fishing net; for by them his portion is well oiled, and his food is healthful. [17] Is that why he will empty out his dragnet, and does he have to kill nations constantly, while he shows no compassion?

2 At my guard post I will keep standing, and I will keep myself stationed upon the bulwark; and I shall keep watch, to see what he will speak by me and what I shall reply at the reproof of me.

[2] And Jehovah proceeded to answer me and to say: “Write down the vision, and set it out plainly upon tablets, in order that the one reading aloud from it may do so fluently. [3] For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it keeps panting on to the end, and it will not tell a lie. Even if it should delay, keep in expectation of it; for it will without fail come true. It will not be late.

[4] “Look! His soul has been swelled up; it has not been upright within him. But as for the righteous one, by his faithfulness he will keep living. [5] And, indeed, because the wine is dealing treacherously, an able-bodied man is self-assuming; and he will not reach his goal, he who has made his soul spacious just like She′ol, and who is like death and cannot be satisfied. And he keeps gathering to himself all the nations and collecting together to himself all the peoples. [6] Will not these very ones, all of them, lift up against him a proverbial saying and an alluding remark, insinuations at him? And one will say, “‘Woe to him who is multiplying what is not his own—O how long!—and who is making debt heavy against himself! [7] Will not those claiming interest of you rise up suddenly, and those wake up who are violently shaking you, and you certainly become to them something to pillage? [8] Because you yourself despoiled many nations, all the remaining ones of the peoples will despoil you, because of the shedding of blood of mankind and the violence to the earth, the town and all those dwelling in it.

[9] “‘Woe to the one that is making evil gain for his house, in order to set his nest on the height, so as to be delivered from the grasp of what is calamitous! [10] You have counseled something shameful to your house, the cutting off of many peoples; and your soul is sinning. [11] For out of the wall a stone itself will cry out plaintively, and from the woodwork a rafter itself will answer it.

[12] “‘Woe to the one that is building a city by bloodshed, and that has solidly established a town by unrighteousness! [13] Look! Is it not from Jehovah of armies that peoples will toil on only for the fire, and that national groups will tire themselves out merely for nothing? [14] For the earth will be filled with the knowing of the glory of Jehovah as the waters themselves cover over the sea.

[15] “‘Woe to the one giving his companions something to drink, attaching to it your rage and anger, in order to make them drunk, for the purpose of looking upon their parts of shame. [16] You will certainly be satiated with dishonor instead of glory. Drink also, you yourself, and be considered uncircumcised. The cup of the right hand of Jehovah will come around to you, and there will be disgrace upon your glory; [17] because the violence done to Leb′a·non is what will cover you, and the rapacity upon the beasts that terrifies them, because of the shedding of blood of mankind and the violence done to the earth, the town and all those dwelling in it. [18] Of what benefit has a carved image been, when the former of it has carved it, a molten statue, and an instructor in falsehood? when the former of its form has trusted in it, to the extent of making valueless gods that are speechless?

[19] “‘Woe to the one saying to the piece of wood: “O do awake!” to a dumb stone: “O wake up! It itself will give instruction”! Look! It is sheathed in gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it. [20] But Jehovah is in his holy temple. Keep silence before him, all the earth!’”

3 The prayer of Ha·bakʹkuk the prophet in dirges: [2] O Jehovah, I have heard the report about you. I have become afraid, O Jehovah, of your activity.

In the midst of the years O bring it to life! In the midst of the years may you make it known. During the agitation, to show mercy may you remember.

[3] God himself proceeded to come from Teʹman, even a Holy One from Mount Paʹran. Seʹlah.

His dignity covered the heavens; and with his praise the earth became filled.

[4] As for his brightness, it got to be just like the light. He had two rays issuing out of his hand, and there the hiding of his strength was.

[5] Before him pestilence kept going, and burning fever would go forth at his feet.

[6] He stood still, that he might shake up the earth. He saw, and then caused nations to leap.

And the eternal mountains got to be smashed; the indefinitely lasting hills bowed down. The walkings of long ago are his.

[7] Under what is hurtful I saw the tents of Cuʹshan. The tent cloths of the land of Midʹi·an began to be agitated.

[8] Is it against the rivers, O Jehovah, is it against the rivers that your anger has become hot, or is your fury against the sea? For you went riding upon your horses; your chariots were salvation.

9 In its nakedness your bow comes to be uncovered. The sworn oaths of the tribes are the thing said. Se′lah. With rivers you proceeded to split the earth.

10 Mountains saw you; they got to be in severe pains. A thunderstorm of waters passed through. The watery deep gave forth its sound. On high its hands it lifted up.

11 Sun—moon—stood still, in the lofty abode thereof. Like light your own arrows kept going. The lightning of your spear served for brightness.

12 With denunciation you went marching through the earth. In anger you went threshing the nations.

13 And you went forth for the salvation of your people, to save your anointed one. You broke to pieces the head one out of the house of the wicked one. There was a laying of the foundation bare, clear up to the neck. Se′lah.

14 With his own rods you pierced the head of his warriors when they moved tempestuously to scatter me. Their high glee was as of those bent on devouring an afflicted one in a place of concealment.

15 Through the sea you trod with your horses, through the heap of vast waters.

16 I heard, and my belly began to be agitated; at the sound my lips quivered; rottenness began to enter into my bones; and in my situation I was agitated, that I should quietly wait for the day of distress, for his coming up to the people, that he may raid them.

17 Although the fig tree itself may not blossom, and there may be no yield on the vines; the work of the olive tree may actually turn out a failure, and the terraces themselves may actually produce no food; the flock may actually be severed from the pen, and there may be no herd in the enclosures;

18 Yet, as for me, I will exult in Jehovah himself; I will be joyful in the God of my salvation.

19 Jehovah the Sovereign Lord is my vital energy; and he will make my feet like those of the hinds, and upon my high places he will cause me to tread.

To the director on my stringed instruments.

ZEPHANIAH

1 The word of Jehovah that occurred to Zeph·a·niʹah the son of Cushʹi the son of Ged·a·liʹah the son of Am·a·riʹah the son of Hez·e·kiʹah in the days of Jo·siʹah the son of Aʹmon the king of Judah:

[2] “I shall without fail finish everything off the surface of the ground,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[3] “I shall finish off earthling man and beast. I shall finish off the flying creature of the heavens and the fishes of the sea, and the stumbling blocks with the wicked ones; and I will cut off mankind from the surface of the ground,” is the utterance of Jehovah. [4] “And I will stretch out my hand against Judah and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and I will cut off from this place the remaining ones of the Baʹal, the name of the foreign-god priests along with the priests, [5] and those who are bowing down upon the roofs to the army of the heavens, and those who are bowing down, making sworn oaths to Jehovah and making sworn oaths by Malʹcam; [6] and those who are drawing back from following Jehovah and who have not sought Jehovah and have not inquired of him.”

[7] Keep silence before the Sovereign Lord Jehovah; for the day of Jehovah is near, for Jehovah has prepared a sacrifice; he has sanctified his invited ones.

[8] “And it must occur on the day of Jehovah’s sacrifice that I will give attention to the princes, and to the sons of the king, and to all those wearing foreign attire. [9] And I will give attention to everyone that is climbing upon the platform in that day, those who are filling the house of their masters with violence and deception. [10] And there must occur on that day,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “the sound of an outcry from the Fish Gate, and a howling from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. [11] Howl, YOU inhabitants of Mak′tesh, for all the people who are tradesmen have been silenced; all those weighing out silver have been cut off.

[12] “And it must occur at that time that I shall carefully search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will give attention to the men who are congealing upon their dregs and who are saying in their heart, ‘Jehovah will not do good, and he will not do bad.’ [13] And their wealth must come to be for pillage and their houses for a desolate waste. And they will build houses, but they will not have occupancy; and they will plant vineyards, but they will not drink the wine of them.

[14] “The great day of Jehovah is near. It is near, and there is a hurrying of it very much. The sound of the day of Jehovah is bitter. There a mighty man is letting out a cry. [15] That day is a day of fury, a day of distress and of anguish, a day of storm and of desolation, a day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick gloom, [16] a day of horn and of alarm signal, against the fortified cities and against the high corner towers. [17] And I will cause distress to mankind, and they will certainly walk like blind men; because it is against Jehovah that they have sinned. And their blood will actually be poured out like dust, and their bowels like the dung. [18] Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah’s fury; but by the fire of his zeal the whole earth will be devoured, because he will make an extermination, indeed a terrible one, of all the inhabitants of the earth.”

2 Gather yourselves together, yes, do the gathering, O nation not paling in shame. [2] Before the statute gives birth to anything, before the day has passed by just like chaff, before there comes upon YOU people the burning anger of Jehovah, before there comes upon YOU the day of Jehovah’s anger, [3] seek Jehovah, all YOU meek ones of the earth, who have practiced His own judicial decision. Seek righteousness, seek meekness. Probably YOU may be concealed in the day of Jehovah’s anger. [4] For, as regards Ga′za, an abandoned city is what she will become; and Ash′ke·lon is to be a desolate waste. As regards Ash′dod, at high noon they will drive her out; and as regards Ek′ron, she will be uprooted.

[5] “Woe to those inhabiting the region of the sea, the nation of Cher′e·thites! The word of Jehovah is against YOU people. O Ca′naan, the land of the Phi·lis′tines, I will also destroy you, so that there will be no inhabitant. [6] And the region of the sea must become pasture grounds, with wells for shepherds and stone pens for sheep. [7] And it must become a region for the remaining ones of the house of Judah. Upon them they will feed. In the houses of Ash′ke·lon, in the evening, they will lie stretched out. For Jehovah their God will turn his attention to them and certainly gather back the captive ones of them.”

[8] “I have heard the reproach by Mo′ab and the abusive words of the sons of Am′mon, with which they have reproached my people and kept putting on great airs against their territory. [9] Therefore, as I am alive,” is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, “Mo′ab herself will become just like Sod′om, and the sons of Am′mon like Go·mor′rah, a place possessed by nettles, and a salt pit, and a desolate waste, even to time indefinite. The remaining ones of my people will plunder them, and the remnant of my own nation will take possession of them. [10] This is what they will have instead of their pride, because they reproached and kept putting on great airs against the people of Jehovah of armies. [11] Jehovah will be fear-inspiring against them; for he will certainly emaciate all the gods of the earth, and people will bow down to him, each one from his place, all the islands of the nations.

[12] “YOU also, YOU E·thi·o′pi·ans, YOU yourselves will be people slain by my sword.

[13] “And he will stretch out his hand toward the north, and he will destroy As·syr′i·a. And he will make Nin′e·veh a desolate waste, a waterless region like the wilderness. [14] And in the midst of her, droves will certainly lie stretched out, all the wild animals of a nation. Both pelican and porcupine will spend the night right among her pillar capitals. A voice will keep singing in the window. There will be devastation at the threshold; for he will certainly lay bare the very wainscoting. [15] This is the exultant city that was sitting in security, that was saying in her heart, ‘I am, and there is nobody else.’ O how she has become an object of astonishment, a place for the wild animals to lie stretched out! Everyone passing along by her will whistle; he will wag his hand.”

3 Woe to her that is rebelling and polluting herself, the oppressive city! [2] She did not listen to a voice; she did not accept discipline. In Jehovah she did not trust. To her God she did not draw near. [3] Her princes in the midst of her were roaring lions. Her judges were evening wolves that did not gnaw bones till the morning. [4] Her prophets were insolent, were men of treachery. Her priests themselves profaned what was holy; they did violence to the law. [5] Jehovah was righteous in the midst of her; he would do no unrighteousness. Morning by morning he kept giving his own judicial decision. At daylight it did not prove lacking. But the unrighteous one was knowing no shame.

[6] "I cut off nations; their corner towers were desolated. I devastated their streets, so that there was no one passing through. Their cities were laid waste, so that there was no man, so that there was no inhabitant. [7] I said, 'Surely you will fear me; you will accept discipline'; so that her dwelling might not be cut off—all that I must call to account against her. Truly they acted promptly in making all their dealings ruinous.

[8] "'Therefore keep yourselves in expectation of me,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'till the day of my rising up to the booty, for my judicial decision is to gather nations, for me to collect together kingdoms, in order to pour out upon them my denunciation, all my burning anger; for by the fire of my zeal all the earth will be devoured. [9] For then I shall give to peoples the change to a pure language, in order for them all to call upon the name of Jehovah, in order to serve him shoulder to shoulder.'

[10] “From the region of the rivers of E·thi·o′pi·a the ones entreating me, namely, the daughter of my scattered ones, will bring a gift to me. [11] In that day you will not be ashamed because of all your dealings with which you transgressed against me, for then I shall remove from the midst of you your haughtily exultant ones; and you will never again be haughty in my holy mountain. [12] And I shall certainly let remain in the midst of you a people humble and lowly, and they will actually take refuge in the name of Jehovah. [13] As regards the remaining ones of Israel, they will do no unrighteousness, nor speak a lie, nor will there be found in their mouths a tricky tongue; for they themselves will feed and actually lie stretched out, and there will be no one making them tremble.”

[14] Joyfully cry out, O daughter of Zion! Break out in cheers, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem! [15] Jehovah has removed the judgments upon you. He has turned away your enemy. The king of Israel, Jehovah, is in the midst of you. You will fear calamity no more. [16] In that day it will be said to Jerusalem: “Do not be afraid, O Zion. May your hands not drop down. [17] Jehovah your God is in the midst of you. As a mighty One, he will save. He will exult over you with rejoicing. He will become silent in his love. He will be joyful over you with happy cries.

[18] “The ones grief-stricken in absence from your festal season I shall certainly gather together; absent from you they happened to be, because of bearing reproach on her account. [19] Here I am acting against all those afflicting you, at that time; and I will save her that is limping, and her that is dispersed I shall collect together. And I will set them as a praise and as a name in all the land of their shame. [20] At that time I shall bring YOU people in, even in the time of my collecting YOU together. For I shall make YOU people to be a name and a praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I gather back YOUR captive ones before YOUR eyes,” Jehovah has said.

HAGGAI

1 In the second year of Da·riʹus the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred by means of Hagʹgai the prophet to Ze·rubʹba·bel the son of She·alʹti·el, the governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Je·hozʹa·dak the high priest, saying:

[2] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘As regards this people, they have said: “The time has not come, the time of the house of Jehovah, for it to be built.”’”

[3] And the word of Jehovah continued to come by means of Hagʹgai the prophet, saying: [4] “Is it the time for YOU yourselves to dwell in YOUR paneled houses, while this house is waste? [5] And now this is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘Set YOUR heart upon YOUR ways. [6] YOU have sown much seed, but there is a bringing of little in. There is an eating, but it is not to satisfaction. There is a drinking, but not to the point of getting intoxicated. There is a putting on of clothes, but it is not with anyone’s getting warm; and he that is hiring himself out is hiring himself out for a bag having holes.’”

[7] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘Set YOUR heart upon YOUR ways.’

[8] “‘Go up to the mountain, and YOU must bring in lumber. And build the house, that I may take pleasure in it and I may be glorified,’ Jehovah has said.”

[9] “‘There was a looking for much, but here there was just a little; and YOU have brought it into the house, and I blew upon it—for what reason?’ is the utterance of Jehovah of armies. ‘By reason of my house that is waste, while YOU are on the run, each one in behalf of his own house. [10] Therefore over YOU the heavens kept back their dew, and the earth itself kept back its yield. [11] And I kept calling for dryness upon the earth, and upon the mountains, and upon the grain, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon what the ground would bring forth, and upon earthling man, and upon domestic animal, and upon all the toil of the hands.’”

[12] And Ze·rub′ba·bel the son of She·al′ti·el, and Joshua the son of Je·hoz′a·dak the high priest, and all the remaining ones of the people began to listen to the voice of Jehovah their God, and to the words of Hag′gai the prophet, as Jehovah their God had sent him; and the people began to fear because of Jehovah.

[13] And Hag′gai the messenger of Jehovah went on to say to the people according to the messenger’s commission from Jehovah, saying: “‘I am with YOU people,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

[14] And Jehovah proceeded to rouse up the spirit of Ze·rub′ba·bel the son of She·al′ti·el, the governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Je·hoz′a·dak the high priest, and the spirit of all the remaining ones of the people; and they began to enter in and to do the work in the house of Jehovah of armies their God. [15] It was on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month in the second year of Da·ri′us the king.

2 In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred by means of Hag′gai the prophet, saying: [2] “Say, please, to Ze·rub′ba·bel the son of She·al′ti·el, the governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Je·hoz′a·dak the high priest, and to the remaining ones of the people, saying, [3] ‘Who is there among YOU that is remaining over who saw this house in its former glory? And how are YOU people seeing it now? Is it not, in comparison with that, as nothing in YOUR eyes?’

[4] “‘But now be strong, O Ze·rub′ba·bel,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and be strong, O Joshua the son of Je·hoz′a·dak the high priest.’

“‘And be strong, all YOU people of the land,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and work.’

“‘For I am with YOU people,’ is the utterance of Jehovah of armies. [5] ‘Remember the thing that I concluded with YOU people when YOU came forth from Egypt, and when my spirit was standing in among YOU. Do not be afraid.’”

[6] “For this is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘Yet once—it is a little while—and I am rocking the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry ground.’

[7] “‘And I will rock all the nations, and the desirable things of all the nations must come in; and I will fill this house with glory,’ Jehovah of armies has said.

[8] “‘The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,’ is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.

[9] “‘Greater will the glory of this later house become than that of the former,’ Jehovah of armies has said.

“‘And in this place I shall give peace,’ is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.”

10 In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Da·riʹus, the word of Jehovah occurred to Hagʹgai the prophet, saying: 11 “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘Ask, please, the priests as to the law, saying: 12 “If a man carries holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and he actually touches with his skirt bread or stew or wine or oil or any sort of food, will it become holy?”’”

And the priests proceeded to answer and say: “No!”

13 And Hagʹgai went on to say: “If someone unclean by a deceased soul touches any of these things, will it become unclean?”

In turn the priests answered and said: “It will become unclean.”

14 Accordingly Hagʹgai answered and said: “‘That is how this people is, and that is how this nation is before me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘and that is how all the work of their hands is, and whatever they present there. It is unclean.’

15 “‘But now, please, set YOUR heart on this from this day and forward, before there was the placing of a stone upon a stone in the temple of Jehovah, 16 from when those things happened to be—one came to a heap of twenty measures, and it proved to be ten; one came to the press vat to draw off fifty measures of the wine trough, and it proved to be twenty; 17 I struck YOU people with scorching and with mildew and with hail, even all the work of YOUR hands, and there was no one with YOU turning to me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah—

[18] "'Set YOUR heart, please, on this from this day and forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the foundation of the temple of Jehovah was laid; set YOUR heart on this: [19] Is there as yet the seed in the grain pit? And as yet, the vine and the fig tree and the pomegranate tree and the olive tree—it has not borne, has it? From this day I shall bestow blessing.'"

[20] And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur a second time to Hag′gai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying: [21] "Say to Ze·rub′ba·bel the governor of Judah, 'I am rocking the heavens and the earth. [22] And I shall certainly overthrow the throne of kingdoms and annihilate the strength of the kingdoms of the nations; and I will overthrow the chariot and its riders, and the horses and their riders will certainly come down, each one by the sword of his brother.'"

[23] "'In that day,' is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, 'I shall take you, O Ze·rub′ba·bel the son of She·al′ti·el, my servant,' is the utterance of Jehovah; 'and I shall certainly set you as a seal ring, because you are the one whom I have chosen,' is the utterance of Jehovah of armies."

ZECHARIAH

1 In the eighth month in the second year of Da·riʹus the word of Jehovah occurred to Zech·a·riʹah the son of Ber·e·chiʹah the son of Idʹdo the prophet, saying: [2] “Jehovah grew indignant at YOUR fathers—very much so.

[3] “And you must say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “‘Return to me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, ‘and I shall return to YOU,’ Jehovah of armies has said.”’

[4] “‘Do not become like YOUR fathers to whom the former prophets called, saying: “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘Return, please, from YOUR bad ways and from YOUR bad dealings.’”’

“‘But they did not listen, and they paid no attention to me,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.

[5] “‘As for YOUR fathers, where are they? And as for the prophets, was it to time indefinite that they continued to live? [6] However, as regards my words and my regulations that I commanded my servants, the prophets, did they not catch up with YOUR fathers?’ So they returned and said: ‘According to what Jehovah of armies had in mind to do to us, according to our ways and according to our dealings, that is how he has done with us.’”

[7] On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, that is, the month Sheʹbat, in the second year of Da·riʹus, the word of Jehovah occurred to Zech·a·riʹah the son of Ber·e·chiʹah the son of Idʹdo the prophet, saying: [8] “I saw in the night, and, look! a man riding on a red horse, and he was standing still among the myrtle trees that were in the deep place; and behind him there were horses red, bright red, and white.”

[9] And so I said: “Who are these, my lord?”

At that the angel who was speaking with me said to me: “I myself shall show you who these very ones are.”

[10] Then the man who was standing still among the myrtle trees answered and said: “These are the ones whom Jehovah has sent forth to walk about in the earth.” [11] And they proceeded to answer the angel of Jehovah who was standing among the myrtle trees and to say: “We have walked about in the earth, and, look! the whole earth is sitting still and having no disturbance.”

[12] So the angel of Jehovah answered and said: “O Jehovah of armies, how long will you yourself not show mercy to Jerusalem and to the cities of Judah, whom you have denounced these seventy years?”

[13] And Jehovah proceeded to answer the angel who was speaking with me, with good words, comforting words; [14] and the angel who was speaking with me went on to say to me: “Call out, saying, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “I have been jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with great jealousy. [15] With great indignation I am feeling indignant against the nations that are at ease; because I, for my part, felt indignant to only a little extent, but they, for their part, helped toward calamity.”’

[16] “Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, ‘“I shall certainly return to Jerusalem with mercies. My own house will be built in her,” is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, “and a measuring line itself will be stretched out over Jerusalem.”’

[17] “Call out further, saying, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “My cities will yet overflow with goodness; and Jehovah will yet certainly feel regrets over Zion and yet actually choose Jerusalem.”’”

[18] And I proceeded to raise my eyes and see; and, look! there were four horns. [19] So I said to the angel who was speaking with me: “What are these?” In turn he said to me: “These are the horns that dispersed Judah, Israel and Jerusalem.”

[20] Furthermore, Jehovah showed me four craftsmen. [21] At that I said: “What are these coming to do?”

And he went on to say: “These are the horns that dispersed Judah to such an extent that no one at all raised his head; and these others will come to set them trembling, to cast down the horns of the nations that are lifting up a horn against the land of Judah, in order to disperse her.”

2 And I proceeded to raise my eyes and see; and, look! there was a man, and in his hand a measuring rope. [2] So I said: “Where are you going?”

In turn he said to me: “To measure Jerusalem, in order to see what her breadth amounts to and what her length amounts to.”

[3] And, look! the angel who was speaking with me was going forth, and there was another angel going forth to meet him. [4] Then he said to him: “Run, speak to the young man over there, saying, ‘“As open rural country Jerusalem will be inhabited, because of the multitude of men and domestic animals in the midst of her. [5] And I myself shall become to her,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “a wall of fire all around, and a glory is what I shall become in the midst of her.”’”

[6] “Hey there! Hey there! Flee, then, YOU people, from the land of the north,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

“For in the direction of the four winds of the heavens I have spread YOU people abroad,” is the utterance of Jehovah.

[7] “Hey there, Zion! Make your escape, you who are dwelling with the daughter of Babylon. [8] For this is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘Following after the glory he has sent me to the nations that were despoiling YOU people; for he that is touching YOU is touching my eyeball. [9] For here I am waving my hand against them, and they will have to become spoil to their slaves.’ And YOU people will certainly know that Jehovah of armies himself has sent me.

[10] “Cry out loudly and rejoice, O daughter of Zion; for here I am coming, and I will reside in the midst of you,” is the utterance of Jehovah. [11] “And many nations will certainly become joined to Jehovah in that day, and they will actually become my people; and I will reside in the midst of you.” And you will have to know that Jehovah of armies himself has sent me to you. [12] And Jehovah will certainly take possession of Judah as his portion upon the holy ground, and he must yet choose Jerusalem. [13] Keep silence, all flesh, before Jehovah, for he has aroused himself from his holy dwelling.

3 And he proceeded to show me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of Jehovah, and Satan standing at his right hand in order to resist him. [2] Then the angel of Jehovah said to Satan: “Jehovah rebuke you, O Satan, yes, Jehovah rebuke you, he who is choosing Jerusalem! Is this one not a log snatched out of the fire?”

[3] Now as for Joshua, he happened to be clothed in befouled garments and standing before the angel. [4] Then he answered and said to those standing before him: “Remove the befouled garments from upon him.” And he went on to say to him: “See, I have caused your error to pass away from upon you, and there is a clothing of you with robes of state.”

[5] At that I said: “Let them put a clean turban upon his head.” And they proceeded to put the clean turban upon his head and to clothe him with garments; and the angel of Jehovah was standing by. [6] And the angel of Jehovah began to bear witness to Joshua, saying: [7] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘If it is in my ways that you will walk, and if it is my obligation that you will keep, then also it will be you that will judge my house and also keep my courtyards; and I shall certainly give you free access among these who are standing by.’

[8] “‘Hear, please, O Joshua the high priest, you and your companions who are sitting before you, for they are men serving as portents; for here I am bringing in my servant Sprout! [9] For, look! the stone that I have put before Joshua! Upon the one stone there are seven eyes. Here I am engraving its engraving,’ is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, ‘and I will take away the error of that land in one day.’

10 “‘In that day,’ is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, ‘YOU will call, each one to the other, while under the vine and while under the fig tree.’”

4 And the angel who was speaking with me proceeded to come back and wake me up, like a man that is awakened from his sleep. [2] Then he said to me: “What are you seeing?”

So I said: “I have seen, and, look! there is a lampstand, all of it of gold, with a bowl on top of it. And its seven lamps are upon it, even seven; and the lamps that are at the top of it have seven pipes. [3] And there are two olive trees alongside it, one on the right side of the bowl and one on its left side.”

[4] Then I answered and said to the angel who was speaking with me, saying: “What do these things mean, my lord?” [5] So the angel who was speaking with me answered and said to me: “Do you not really know what these things mean?”

In turn I said: “No, my lord.”

[6] Accordingly he answered and said to me: “This is the word of Jehovah to Ze·rub′ba·bel, saying, ‘“Not by a military force, nor by power, but by my spirit,” Jehovah of armies has said. [7] Who are you, O great mountain? Before Ze·rub′ba·bel you will become a level land. And he will certainly bring forth the headstone. There will be shoutings to it: “How charming! How charming!”’”

[8] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [9] “The very hands of Ze·rub′ba·bel have laid the foundation of this house, and his own hands will finish it. And you will have to know that Jehovah of armies himself has sent me to YOU people. [10] For who has despised the day of small things? And they will certainly rejoice and see the plummet in the hand of Ze·rub′ba·bel. These seven are the eyes of Jehovah. They are roving about in all the earth.”

[11] And I proceeded to answer and say to him: “What do these two olive trees on the right side of the lampstand and on its left side mean?” [12] Then I answered the second time and said to him: “What are the two bunches of twigs of the olive trees that, by means of the two golden tubes, are pouring forth from within themselves the golden liquid?”

[13] So he said to me: “Do you not really know what these things mean?”

In turn I said: “No, my lord.”

[14] Accordingly he said: “These are the two anointed ones who are standing alongside the Lord of the whole earth.”

5 Then I raised my eyes again and saw; and, look! a flying scroll. [2] So he said to me: “What are you seeing?”

In turn I said: “I am seeing a flying scroll, the length of which is twenty cubits, and the breadth of which is ten cubits.”

[3] Then he said to me: “This is the curse that is going forth over the surface of all the earth, because everyone that is stealing, according to it on this side, has gone free of punishment; and everyone making a sworn oath, according to it on that side, has gone free of punishment. [4] ‘I have caused it to go forth,’ is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, ‘and it must enter into the house of the thief and into the house of the one making a sworn oath in my name falsely; and it must lodge in the midst of his house and exterminate it and its timbers and its stones.’”

[5] Then the angel who was speaking with me went forth and said to me: “Raise your eyes, please, and see what this is that is going forth.”

[6] So I said: “What is it?”

In turn he said: “This is the e′phah measure that is going forth.” And he went on to say: “This is their aspect in all the earth.” [7] And, look! the circular lid of lead was lifted up; and this is a certain woman sitting in the midst of the e′phah. [8] So he said: “This is Wickedness.” And he proceeded to throw her back into the midst of the e′phah, after which he threw the lead weight upon its mouth.

[9] Then I raised my eyes and saw, and here there were two women coming forth, and wind was in their wings. And they had wings like the wings of the stork. And they gradually raised the e′phah up between the earth and the heavens. 10 So I said to the angel who was speaking with me: “Where are they taking the e′phah?”

11 In turn he said to me: “In order to build for her a house in the land of Shi′nar; and it must be firmly established, and she must be deposited there upon her proper place.”

6 Then I raised my eyes again and saw; and, look! there were four chariots coming forth from between two mountains, and the mountains were copper mountains. [2] In the first chariot there were red horses; and in the second chariot, black horses. [3] And in the third chariot there were white horses; and in the fourth chariot, horses speckled, parti-colored.

[4] And I proceeded to answer and say to the angel who was speaking with me: “What are these, my lord?”

[5] So the angel answered and said to me: “These are the four spirits of the heavens that are going forth after having taken their station before the Lord of the whole earth. [6] As for the one in which the black horses are, they are going forth to the land of the north; and as for the white ones, they must go forth to behind the sea; and as for the speckled ones, they must go forth to the land of the south. [7] And as for the parti-colored ones, they must go forth and keep seeking where to go, in order to walk about in the earth.” Then he said: “Go, walk about in the earth.” And they began walking about in the earth.

[8] And he proceeded to cry out to me and speak to me, saying: “See, those going forth to the land of the north are the ones that have caused the spirit of Jehovah to rest in the land of the north.”

[9] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: [10] “Let there be a taking of something from the exiled people, even from Helʹdai and from To·biʹjah and from Je·daʹiah; and you yourself must come in that day, and you must come into the house of Jo·siʹah the son of Zeph·a·niʹah with these who have come from Babylon. [11] And you must take silver and gold and make a grand crown and put it upon the head of Joshua the son of Je·hozʹa·dak the high priest. [12] And you must say to him,

“‘This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “Here is the man whose name is Sprout. And from his own place he will sprout, and he will certainly build the temple of Jehovah. [13] And he himself will build the temple of Jehovah, and he, for his part, will carry the dignity; and he must sit down and rule on his throne, and he must become a priest upon his throne, and the very counsel of peace will prove to be between both of them. [14] And the grand crown itself will come to belong to Heʹlem and to To·biʹjah and to Je·daʹiah and to Hen the son of Zeph·a·niʹah as a memorial in the temple of Jehovah. [15] And those who are far away will come and actually build in the temple of Jehovah.” And YOU people will have to know that Jehovah of armies himself has sent me to YOU. And it must occur—if YOU will without fail listen to the voice of Jehovah YOUR God.’”

7 Furthermore, it came about that in the fourth year of Da·ri′us the king the word of Jehovah occurred to Zech·a·ri′ah, on the fourth day of the ninth month, that is, in Chis′lev. [2] And Beth′el proceeded to send Shar·e′zer and Re′gem-mel′ech and his men to soften the face of Jehovah, [3] saying to the priests who belonged to the house of Jehovah of armies, and to the prophets, even saying: “Shall I weep in the fifth month, practicing an abstinence, the way I have done these O how many years?”

[4] And the word of Jehovah of armies continued to occur to me, saying: [5] “Say to all the people of the land and to the priests, ‘When YOU fasted and there was a wailing in the fifth month and in the seventh month, and this for seventy years, did YOU really fast to me, even me? [6] And when YOU would eat and when YOU would drink, were not YOU the ones doing the eating, and were not YOU the ones doing the drinking? [7] Should YOU not obey the words that Jehovah called out by means of the former prophets, while Jerusalem happened to be inhabited, and at ease, with her cities all around her, and while the Neg′eb and the She·phe′lah were inhabited?’”

[8] And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to Zech·a·ri′ah, saying: [9] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘With true justice do YOUR judging; and carry on with one another loving-kindness and mercies; [10] and defraud no widow or fatherless boy, no alien resident or afflicted one, and scheme out nothing bad against one another in YOUR hearts.’ [11] But they kept refusing to pay attention, and they kept giving a stubborn shoulder, and their ears they made too unresponsive to hear. [12] And their heart they set as an emery stone to keep from obeying the law and the words that Jehovah of armies sent by his spirit, by means of the former prophets; so that there occurred great indignation on the part of Jehovah of armies.”

13 “‘And so it occurred that, just as he called and they did not listen, so they would call and I would not listen,’ Jehovah of armies has said. 14 ‘And I proceeded tempestuously to hurl them throughout all the nations that they had not known; and the land itself has been left desolate behind them, with no one passing through and with no one returning; and they proceeded to make the desirable land an object of astonishment.’”

8 And the word of Jehovah of armies continued to occur, saying: [2] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘I will be jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and with great rage I will be jealous for her.’”

[3] “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘I will return to Zion and reside in the midst of Jerusalem; and Jerusalem will certainly be called the city of trueness, and the mountain of Jehovah of armies, the holy mountain.’”

[4] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘There will yet sit old men and old women in the public squares of Jerusalem, each one also with his staff in his hand because of the abundance of his days. [5] And the public squares of the city themselves will be filled with boys and girls playing in her public squares.’”

[6] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘Although it should seem too difficult in the eyes of the remaining ones of this people in those days, should it seem too difficult also in my eyes?’ is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.”

[7] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘Here I am saving my people from the land of the sunrise and from the land of the setting of the sun. [8] And I shall certainly bring them in, and they must reside in the midst of Jerusalem; and they must become my people, and I myself shall become their God in trueness and in righteousness.’”

[9] “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘Let the hands of YOU people be strong, YOU who are hearing in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets, on the day on which the foundation of the house of Jehovah of armies was laid, for the temple to be built. [10] For before those days there were no wages for mankind made to exist; and as for the wages of domestic animals, there was no such thing; and to the one going out and to the one coming in there was no peace because of the adversary, as I kept thrusting all mankind against one another.’

11 “‘And now I shall not be as in the former days to the remaining ones of this people,’ is the utterance of Jehovah of armies. 12 ‘For there will be the seed of peace; the vine itself will give its fruitage, and the earth itself will give its yield, and the heavens themselves will give their dew; and I shall certainly cause the remaining ones of this people to inherit all these things. 13 And it must occur that just as YOU became a malediction among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I shall save YOU, and YOU must become a blessing. Do not be afraid. May YOUR hands be strong.’

14 “For this is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘“Just as I had in mind to do what was calamitous to YOU people because of YOUR forefathers’ making me indignant,” Jehovah of armies has said, “and I felt no regret, 15 so I will again have in mind in these days to deal well with Jerusalem and with the house of Judah. Do not be afraid.”’

16 “‘These are the things that YOU people should do: Speak truthfully with one another. With truth and the judgment of peace do YOUR judging in YOUR gates. 17 And calamity to one another do not YOU scheme up in YOUR hearts, and do not love any false oath; for these are all things that I have hated,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

18 And the word of Jehovah of armies continued to occur to me, saying: 19 “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth month, and the fast of the seventh month, and the fast of the tenth month will become for the house of Judah an exultation and a rejoicing and good festal seasons. So love truth and peace.’

20 “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘It will yet be that peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will come; 21 and the inhabitants of one city will certainly go to those of another, saying: “Let us earnestly go to soften the face of Jehovah and to seek Jehovah of armies. I myself will go also.”
22 And many peoples and mighty nations will actually come to seek Jehovah of armies in Jerusalem and to soften the face of Jehovah.’

23 “This is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘It will be in those days that ten men out of all the languages of the nations will take hold, yes, they will actually take hold of the skirt of a man who is a Jew, saying: “We will go with YOU people, for we have heard that God is with YOU people.”’”

9 A pronouncement:

“The word of Jehovah is against the land of Haʹdrach, and Damascus is where it rests; for Jehovah has an eye on earthling man and on all the tribes of Israel. [2] And Haʹmath itself will also border upon her; Tyre and Siʹdon, for she is very wise. [3] And Tyre proceeded to build a rampart for herself, and to pile up silver like dust and gold like the mire of the streets. [4] Look! Jehovah himself will dispossess her, and into the sea he will certainly strike down her military force; and in the fire she herself will be devoured. [5] Ashʹke·lon will see and get afraid; and as for Gaʹza, she will also feel very severe pains; Ekʹron also, because her looked-for hope will have to experience shame. And a king will certainly perish from Gaʹza, and Ashʹke·lon herself will not be inhabited. [6] And an illegitimate son will actually seat himself in Ashʹdod, and I shall certainly cut off the pride of the Phi·lisʹtine. [7] And I will remove his bloodstained things from his mouth and his disgusting things from between his teeth, and he himself also will certainly be left remaining for our God; and he must become like a sheik in Judah, and Ekʹron like the Jebʹu·site. [8] And I will encamp as an outpost for my house, so that there will be no one passing through and no one returning; and there will no more pass through them a taskmaster, for now I have seen it with my eyes.

[9] “Be very joyful, O daughter of Zion. Shout in triumph, O daughter of Jerusalem. Look! Your king himself comes to you. He is righteous, yes, saved; humble, and riding upon an ass, even upon a full-grown animal the son of a she-ass. [10] And I shall certainly cut off the war chariot from Eʹphra·im and the horse from Jerusalem. And the battle bow must be cut off. And he will actually speak peace to the nations; and his rulership will be from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth.

11 “Also, you, O woman, by the blood of your covenant I will send your prisoners out of the pit in which there is no water.

12 “Return to the stronghold, YOU prisoners of the hope.

“Also, today I am telling you, ‘I shall repay to you, O woman, a double portion. 13 For I will tread as my bow Judah. The bow I will fill with E′phra·im, and I will awaken your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and I will make you as the sword of a mighty man.’ 14 And over them Jehovah himself will be seen, and his arrow will certainly go forth just like lightning. And on the horn the Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself will blow, and he will certainly go with the windstorms of the south. 15 Jehovah of armies himself will defend them, and they will actually devour and subdue the slingstones. And they will certainly drink—be boisterous—as if there were wine; and they will actually become filled like the bowl, like the corners of the altar.

16 “And Jehovah their God will certainly save them in that day like the flock of his people; for they will be as the stones of a diadem glittering over his soil. 17 For O how great his goodness is, and how great his handsomeness is! Grain is what will make the young men thrive, and new wine the virgins.”

10 “Make YOUR requests of Jehovah for rain in the time of the spring rain, even of Jehovah who is making the storm clouds, and who gives a downpour of rain to them, to each one vegetation in the field. [2] For the teraphim themselves have spoken what is uncanny; and the practicers of divination, for their part, have visioned falsehood, and valueless dreams are what they keep speaking, and in vain they try to comfort. That is why they will certainly depart like a flock; they will become afflicted, because there is no shepherd.

[3] “Against the shepherds my anger has grown hot, and against the goatlike leaders I shall hold an accounting; for Jehovah of armies has turned his attention to his drove, the house of Judah, and has made them like his horse of dignity in the battle. [4] Out of him is the keyman, out of him is the supporting ruler, out of him is the battle bow; out of him goes forth every taskmaster, all together. [5] And they must become like mighty men stamping down in the mire of the streets in the battle. And they must get engaged in battle, for Jehovah is with them; and the riders of horses will have to experience shame. [6] And I will make the house of Judah superior, and the house of Joseph I shall save. And I will give them a dwelling, for I will show them mercy; and they must become like those whom I had not cast off; for I am Jehovah their God, and I shall answer them. [7] And those of E′phra·im must become just like a mighty man, and their heart must rejoice as though from wine. And their own sons will see and certainly rejoice; their heart will be joyful in Jehovah.

[8] “‘I will whistle for them and collect them together; for I shall certainly redeem them, and they must become many, just like those who have become many. [9] And I shall scatter them like seed among the peoples, and in the distant places they will remember me; and they must revive with their sons and return. [10] And I must bring them back from the land of Egypt; and from As·syr′i·a I shall collect them together; and to the land of Gil′e·ad and Leb′a·non I shall bring them, and no room will be found for them. [11] And he must pass through the sea with distress; and in the sea he must strike down the waves, and all the depths of the Nile must dry up. And the pride of As·syr′i·a must be brought down, and the very scepter of Egypt will depart. [12] And I will make them superior in Jehovah, and in his name they will walk about,’ is the utterance of Jehovah.”

11 “Open up your doors, O Leb′a·non, that a fire may devour among your cedars. [2] Howl, O juniper tree, for the cedar has fallen; because the majestic ones themselves have been despoiled! Howl, YOU massive trees of Ba′shan, for the impenetrable forest has come down! [3] Listen! The howling of shepherds, for their majesty has been despoiled. Listen! The roaring of maned young lions, for the proud thickets along the Jordan have been despoiled.

[4] “This is what Jehovah my God has said, ‘Shepherd the flock meant for the killing, [5] the buyers of which proceed to kill them although they are not held guilty. And those who are selling them say: “May Jehovah be blessed, while I shall gain riches.” And their own shepherds do not show any compassion upon them.’

[6] “‘For I shall show compassion no more upon the inhabitants of the land,’ is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘So here I am causing mankind to find themselves, each one in the hand of his companion and in the hand of his king; and they will certainly crush to pieces the land, and I shall do no delivering out of their hand.’”

[7] And I proceeded to shepherd the flock meant for the killing, in YOUR behalf, O afflicted ones of the flock. So I took for myself two staffs. The one I called Pleasantness, and the other I called Union, and I went shepherding the flock. [8] And I finally effaced three shepherds in one lunar month, as my soul gradually became impatient with them, and also their own soul felt a loathing toward me. [9] At length I said: “I shall not keep shepherding YOU. The one that is dying, let her die. And the one that is being effaced, let her be effaced. And as for the ones left remaining, let them devour, each one the flesh of her companion.” [10] So I took my staff Pleasantness and cut it to pieces, in order to break my covenant that I had concluded with all the peoples. [11] And it came to be broken in that day, and the afflicted ones of the flock who were watching me got to know in this way that it was the word of Jehovah.

[12] Then I said to them: “If it is good in YOUR eyes, give me my wages; but if not, refrain.” And they proceeded to pay my wages, thirty pieces of silver.

[13] At that, Jehovah said to me: “Throw it to the treasury—the majestic value with which I have been valued from their standpoint.” Accordingly I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw it into the treasury at the house of Jehovah.

[14] Then I cut in pieces my second staff, the Union, in order to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

[15] And Jehovah went on to say to me: “Take yet for yourself the implements of a useless shepherd. [16] For here I am letting a shepherd rise up in the land. To the sheep being effaced he will give no attention. The young one he will not seek, and the broken sheep he will not heal. The one stationing herself he will not supply with food, and the flesh of the fat one he will eat, and the hoofs of the sheep he will tear off. [17] Woe to my valueless shepherd, who is leaving the flock! A sword will be upon his arm and upon his right eye. His own arm will without fail dry up, and his own right eye will without fail grow dim.”

12 A pronouncement:

“The word of Jehovah concerning Israel,” is the utterance of Jehovah, the One who is stretching out the heavens and laying the foundation of the earth and forming the spirit of man inside him. [2] “Here I am making Jerusalem a bowl causing reeling to all the peoples round about; and also against Judah he will come to be in the siege, even against Jerusalem. [3] And it must occur in that day that I shall make Jerusalem a burdensome stone to all the peoples. All those lifting it will without fail get severe scratches for themselves; and against her all the nations of the earth will certainly be gathered. [4] In that day,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “I shall strike every horse with bewilderment and its rider with madness; and upon the house of Judah I shall open my eyes, and every horse of the peoples I shall strike with loss of sight. [5] And the sheiks of Judah will have to say in their heart, ‘The inhabitants of Jerusalem are a strength to me by Jehovah of armies their God.’ [6] In that day I shall make the sheiks of Judah like a firepot among trees and like a fiery torch in a row of newly cut grain, and they must devour on the right hand and on the left all the peoples round about; and Jerusalem must yet be inhabited in her own place, in Jerusalem.

[7] “And Jehovah will certainly save the tents of Judah first, to the end that the beauty of the house of David and the beauty of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not become too great over Judah. [8] In that day Jehovah will be a defense around the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and the one that is stumbling among them must become in that day like David, and the house of David like God, like Jehovah’s angel before them. [9] And it must occur in that day that I shall seek to annihilate all the nations that are coming against Jerusalem.

[10] “And I will pour out upon the house of David and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem the spirit of favor and entreaties, and they will certainly look to the One whom they pierced through, and they will certainly wail over Him as in the wailing over an only son; and there will be a bitter lamentation over him as when there is bitter lamentation over the firstborn son. [11] In that day the wailing in Jerusalem will be great, like the wailing of Ha·dad·rim′mon in the valley plain of Me·gid′do. [12] And the land will certainly wail, each family by itself; the family of the house of David by itself, and their women by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their women by themselves; [13] the family of the house of Le′vi by itself, and their women by themselves; the family of the Shim′e·ites by itself, and their women by themselves; [14] all the families that are left remaining, each family by itself, and their women by themselves.

13 “In that day there will come to be a well opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for an abhorrent thing.

[2] “And it must occur in that day,” is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, “that I shall cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will no more be remembered; and also the prophets and the spirit of uncleanness I shall cause to pass out of the land. [3] And it must occur that in case a man should prophesy anymore, his father and his mother, the ones who caused his birth, must also say to him, ‘You will not live, because falsehood is what you have spoken in the name of Jehovah.’ And his father and his mother, the ones who caused his birth, must pierce him through because of his prophesying.

[4] “And it must occur in that day that the prophets will become ashamed, each one of his vision when he prophesies; and they will not wear an official garment of hair for the purpose of deceiving. [5] And he will certainly say, ‘I am no prophet. I am a man cultivating the soil, because an earthling man himself acquired me from my youth on.’ [6] And one must say to him, ‘What are these wounds on your person between your hands?’ And he will have to say, ‘Those with which I was struck in the house of my intense lovers.’”

[7] “O sword, awake against my shepherd, even against the able-bodied man who is my associate,” is the utterance of Jehovah of armies. “Strike the shepherd, and let those of the flock be scattered; and I shall certainly turn my hand back upon those who are insignificant.”

[8] “And it must occur in all the land,” is the utterance of Jehovah, “that two parts in it are what will be cut off and expire; and as for the third part, it will be left remaining in it.

9 And I shall certainly bring the third part through the fire; and I shall actually refine them as in the refining of silver, and examine them as in the examining of gold. It, for its part, will call upon my name, and I, for my part, will answer it. I will say, ‘It is my people,’ and it, in its turn, will say, ‘Jehovah is my God.’”

14 “Look! There is a day coming, belonging to Jehovah, and the spoil of you will certainly be apportioned out in the midst of you. [2] And I shall certainly gather all the nations against Jerusalem for the war; and the city will actually be captured and the houses be pillaged, and the women themselves will be raped. And half of the city must go forth into the exile; but as for the remaining ones of the people, they will not be cut off from the city.

[3] “And Jehovah will certainly go forth and war against those nations as in the day of his warring, in the day of fight. [4] And his feet will actually stand in that day upon the mountain of the olive trees, which is in front of Jerusalem, on the east; and the mountain of the olive trees must be split at its middle, from the sunrising and to the west. There will be a very great valley; and half of the mountain will actually be moved to the north, and half of it to the south. [5] And YOU people will certainly flee to the valley of my mountains; because the valley of the mountains will reach all the way to A′zel. And YOU will have to flee, just as YOU fled because of the earthquake in the days of Uz·zi′ah the king of Judah. And Jehovah my God will certainly come, all the holy ones being with him.

[6] “And it must occur in that day that there will prove to be no precious light—things will be congealed. [7] And it must become one day that is known as belonging to Jehovah. It will not be day, neither will it be night; and it must occur that at evening time it will become light. [8] And it must occur in that day that living waters will go forth from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea and half of them to the western sea. In summer and in winter it will occur. [9] And Jehovah must become king over all the earth. In that day Jehovah will prove to be one, and his name one.

10 “The whole land will be changed like the Ar′a·bah, from Ge′ba to Rim′mon to the south of Jerusalem; and she must rise and become inhabited in her place, from the Gate of Benjamin all the way to the place of the First Gate, all the way to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Ha·nan′el all the way to the press vats of the king. 11 And people will certainly inhabit her; and there will occur no more any banning to destruction, and Jerusalem must be inhabited in security.

12 “And this is what will prove to be the scourge with which Jehovah will scourge all the peoples that will actually do military service against Jerusalem: There will be a rotting away of one’s flesh, while one is standing upon one’s feet; and one’s very eyes will rot away in their sockets, and one’s very tongue will rot away in one’s mouth.

13 “And it must occur in that day that confusion from Jehovah will become widespread among them; and they will actually grab hold, each one of the hand of his companion, and his hand will actually come up against the hand of his companion. 14 And Judah itself also will be warring at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the nations round about will certainly be gathered, gold and silver and garments in excessive abundance.

15 “And this is how the scourge of the horse, the mule, the camel, and the male ass, and every sort of domestic animal that happens to be in those camps, will prove to be, like this scourge.

16 “And it must occur that, as regards everyone who is left remaining out of all the nations that are coming against Jerusalem, they must also go up from year to year to bow down to the King, Jehovah of armies, and to celebrate the festival of the booths. 17 And it must occur that, as regards anyone that does not come up out of the families of the earth to Jerusalem to bow down to the King, Jehovah of armies, even upon them no pouring rain will occur. 18 And if the family of Egypt itself does not come up and does not actually enter, upon them also there shall be none. The scourge will occur with which Jehovah scourges the nations that do not come up to celebrate the festival of the booths. 19 This itself will prove to be the punishment for the sin of Egypt and the sin of all the nations that do not come up to celebrate the festival of the booths.

20 “In that day there will prove to be upon the bells of the horse ‘Holiness belongs to Jehovah!’ And the widemouthed cooking pots in the house of Jehovah must become like the bowls before the altar. 21 And every widemouthed cooking pot in Jerusalem and in Judah must become something holy belonging to Jehovah of armies, and all those who are sacrificing must come in and take from them and must do boiling in them. And there will no more prove to be a Ca′naan·ite in the house of Jehovah of armies in that day.”

MALACHI

1 A pronouncement:

The word of Jehovah concerning Israel by means of Mal′a·chi:

[2] “I have loved YOU people,” Jehovah has said.

And YOU have said: “In what way have you loved us?”

“Was not E′sau the brother of Jacob?” is the utterance of Jehovah. “But I loved Jacob, [3] and E′sau I have hated; and I finally made his mountains a desolated waste and his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness.”

[4] “Because E′dom keeps saying, ‘We have been shattered, but we shall return and build the devastated places,’ this is what Jehovah of armies has said, ‘They, for their part, will build; but I, for my part, shall tear down. And people will certainly call them “the territory of wickedness” and “the people whom Jehovah has denounced to time indefinite.” [5] And YOUR own eyes will see it, and YOU yourselves will say: “May Jehovah be magnified over the territory of Israel.”’”

[6] “‘A son, for his part, honors a father; and a servant, his grand master. So if I am a father, where is the honor to me? And if I am a Grand Master, where is the fear of me?’ Jehovah of armies has said to YOU, O priests who are despising my name.

“‘And YOU have said: “In what way have we despised your name?”’

[7] “‘By presenting upon my altar polluted bread.’

“‘And YOU have said: “In what way have we polluted you?”’

"'By YOUR saying: "The table of Jehovah is something to be despised." [8] And when YOU present a blind animal for sacrificing: "It is nothing bad." And when YOU present a lame animal or a sick one: "It is nothing bad."'"

"Bring it near, please, to your governor. Will he find pleasure in you, or will he receive you kindly?" Jehovah of armies has said.

[9] "And now, please, soften the face of God, that he may show us favor. From YOUR hand this has occurred. Will he receive any of YOU men kindly?" Jehovah of armies has said.

[10] "Who also is there among YOU that will shut the doors? And YOU men will not light my altar—for nothing. No delight do I have in YOU," Jehovah of armies has said, "and in the gift offering from YOUR hand I take no pleasure."

[11] "For from the sun's rising even to its setting my name will be great among the nations, and in every place sacrificial smoke will be made, a presentation will be made to my name, even a clean gift; because my name will be great among the nations," Jehovah of armies has said.

[12] "But YOU men are profaning me by YOUR saying, 'The table of Jehovah is something polluted, and its fruit is something to be despised, its food.' [13] And YOU have said, 'Look! What a weariness!' and YOU have caused a sniffing at it," Jehovah of armies has said. "And YOU have brought something torn away, and the lame one, and the sick one; yes, YOU have brought it as a gift. Can I take pleasure in it at YOUR hand?" Jehovah has said.

[14] "And cursed is the one acting cunningly when there exists in his drove a male animal, and he is making a vow and sacrificing a ruined one to Jehovah. For I am a great King,"

Jehovah of armies has said, “and my name will be fear-inspiring among the nations.”

2 “And now this commandment is to YOU, O priests. [2] If YOU will not listen, and if YOU will not lay it to heart to give glory to my name,” Jehovah of armies has said, “I shall also certainly send upon YOU the curse, and I will curse YOUR blessings. Yes, I have even cursed the blessing, because YOU are not laying it to heart.”

[3] “Look! I am rebuking on YOUR account the sown seed, and I will scatter dung upon YOUR faces, the dung of YOUR festivals; and someone will actually carry YOU away to it. [4] And YOU will have to know that I have sent to YOU this commandment, in order that my covenant with Le′vi may continue,” Jehovah of armies has said.

[5] “As for my covenant, it proved to be with him, one of life and of peace, and I kept giving them to him, with fear. And he continued fearing me; yes, because of my name he himself was struck with terror. [6] The very law of truth proved to be in his mouth, and there was no unrighteousness to be found on his lips. In peace and in uprightness he walked with me, and many were those whom he turned back from error. [7] For the lips of a priest are the ones that should keep knowledge, and the law is what people should seek from his mouth; for he is the messenger of Jehovah of armies.

[8] “But YOU men—YOU have turned aside from the way. YOU have caused many to stumble in the law. YOU have ruined the covenant of Le′vi,” Jehovah of armies has said. [9] “And I also, for my part, shall certainly make YOU to be despised and low to all the people, according as YOU were not keeping my ways, but were showing partiality in the law.”

[10] “Is it not one father that all of us have? Is it not one God that has created us? Why is it that we deal treacherously with one another, in profaning the covenant of our forefathers? [11] Judah has dealt treacherously, and a detestable thing has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of Jehovah, which He has loved, and he has taken possession of the daughter of a foreign god as a bride. [12] Jehovah will cut off each one that does it, one who is awake and one who is answering, from the tents of Jacob, and one who is presenting a gift offering to Jehovah of armies."

[13] "And this is the second thing that YOU people do, this resulting in covering with tears the altar of Jehovah, with weeping and sighing, so that there is no more a turning toward the gift offering or a taking of pleasure in anything from YOUR hand. [14] And YOU have said, 'On what account?' On this account, that Jehovah himself has borne witness between you and the wife of your youth, with whom you yourself have dealt treacherously, although she is your partner and the wife of your covenant. [15] And there was one who did not do it, as he had what was remaining of the spirit. And what was that one seeking? The seed of God. And YOU people must guard yourselves respecting YOUR spirit, and with the wife of your youth may no one deal treacherously. [16] For he has hated a divorcing," Jehovah the God of Israel has said; "and the one who with violence has covered over his garment," Jehovah of armies has said. "And YOU must guard yourselves respecting YOUR spirit, and YOU must not deal treacherously.

[17] "YOU people have made Jehovah weary by YOUR words, and YOU have said, 'In what way have we made him weary?' By YOUR saying, 'Everyone that is doing bad is good in the eyes of Jehovah, and in such ones he himself has taken delight'; or, 'Where is the God of justice?'"

3 “Look! I am sending my messenger, and he must clear up a way before me. And suddenly there will come to His temple the true Lord, whom YOU people are seeking, and the messenger of the covenant in whom YOU are delighting. Look! He will certainly come,” Jehovah of armies has said.

[2] “But who will be putting up with the day of his coming, and who will be the one standing when he appears? For he will be like the fire of a refiner and like the lye of laundrymen. [3] And he must sit as a refiner and cleanser of silver and must cleanse the sons of Le′vi; and he must clarify them like gold and like silver, and they will certainly become to Jehovah people presenting a gift offering in righteousness. [4] And the gift offering of Judah and of Jerusalem will actually be gratifying to Jehovah, as in the days of long ago and as in the years of antiquity.

[5] “And I will come near to YOU people for the judgment, and I will become a speedy witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against those swearing falsely, and against those acting fraudulently with the wages of a wage worker, with the widow and with the fatherless boy, and those turning away the alien resident, while they have not feared me,” Jehovah of armies has said.

[6] “For I am Jehovah; I have not changed. And YOU are sons of Jacob; YOU have not come to YOUR finish. [7] From the days of YOUR forefathers YOU have turned aside from my regulations and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to YOU,” Jehovah of armies has said.

And YOU have said: “In what way shall we return?”

[8] “Will earthling man rob God? But YOU are robbing me.”

And YOU have said: “In what way have we robbed you?”

“In the tenth parts and in the contributions. [9] With the curse YOU are cursing me, and me YOU are robbing—the nation in its entirety. [10] Bring all the tenth parts into the storehouse, that there may come to be food in my house; and test me out, please, in this respect,” Jehovah of armies has said, “whether I shall not open to YOU people the floodgates of the heavens and actually empty out upon YOU a blessing until there is no more want.”

[11] “And I will rebuke for YOU the devouring one, and it will not ruin for YOU the fruit of the ground, nor will the vine in the field prove fruitless for YOU,” Jehovah of armies has said.

[12] “And all the nations will have to pronounce YOU happy, for YOU yourselves will become a land of delight,” Jehovah of armies has said.

[13] “Strong have been YOUR words against me,” Jehovah has said.

And YOU have said: “What have we spoken with one another against you?”

[14] “YOU have said, ‘It is of no value to serve God. And what profit is there in that we have kept the obligation to him, and that we have walked dejectedly on account of Jehovah of armies? [15] And at present we are pronouncing presumptuous people happy. Also, the doers of wickedness have been built up. Also, they have tested God out and keep getting away.’”

[16] At that time those in fear of Jehovah spoke with one another, each one with his companion, and Jehovah kept paying attention and listening. And a book of remembrance began to be written up before him for those in fear of Jehovah and for those thinking upon his name.

17 “And they will certainly become mine,” Jehovah of armies has said, “at the day when I am producing a special property. And I will show compassion upon them, just as a man shows compassion upon his son who is serving him. 18 And YOU people will again certainly see the distinction between a righteous one and a wicked one, between one serving God and one who has not served him.”

4 “For, look! the day is coming that is burning like the furnace, and all the presumptuous ones and all those doing wickedness must become as stubble. And the day that is coming will certainly devour them,” Jehovah of armies has said, “so that it will not leave to them either root or bough. [2] And to YOU who are in fear of my name the sun of righteousness will certainly shine forth, with healing in its wings; and YOU will actually go forth and paw the ground like fattened calves.”

[3] “And YOU people will certainly tread down the wicked ones, for they will become as powder under the soles of YOUR feet in the day on which I am acting,” Jehovah of armies has said.

[4] “Remember, YOU people, the law of Moses my servant with which I commanded him in Ho′reb concerning all Israel, even regulations and judicial decisions.

[5] “Look! I am sending to YOU people E·li′jah the prophet before the coming of the great and fear-inspiring day of Jehovah. [6] And he must turn the heart of fathers back toward sons, and the heart of sons back toward fathers; in order that I may not come and actually strike the earth with a devoting of it to destruction.”

ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

1 The book of the history of Jesus Christ, son of David, son of Abraham:

[2] Abraham became father to Isaac;
Isaac became father to Jacob;
Jacob became father to Judah and his brothers;

[3] Judah became father to Peʹrez and to Zeʹrah by Taʹmar;

Am·minʹa·dab became father to Nahʹshon;
Nahʹshon became father to Salʹmon;

[5] Salʹmon became father to Boʹaz by Raʹhab;
Boʹaz became father to Oʹbed by Ruth;
Oʹbed became father to Jesʹse;

[6] Jesʹse became father to David the king.
David became father to Solʹo·mon by the wife of U·riʹah;

[7] Solʹo·mon became father to Re·ho·boʹam;

A·biʹjah became father to Aʹsa;

[8] Aʹsa became father to Je·hoshʹa·phat;

Je·hoʹram became father to Uz·ziʹah;

[9] Uz·ziʹah became father to Joʹtham;

Aʹhaz became father to Hez·e·kiʹah;

[10] Hez·e·kiʹah became father to Ma·nasʹseh;
Ma·nasʹseh became father to Aʹmon;
Aʹmon became father to Jo·siʹah;

[11] Jo·siʹah became father to Jec·o·niʹah and to his brothers at the time of the deportation to Babylon.

[12] After the deportation to Babylon Jec·o·niʹah became father to She·alʹti·el;
She·alʹti·el became father to Ze·rubʹba·bel;

[13] Ze·rubʹba·bel became father to A·biʹud;
A·biʹud became father to E·liʹa·kim;
E·liʹa·kim became father to Aʹzor;

[14] Aʹzor became father to Zaʹdok;
Zaʹdok became father to Aʹchim;

A′chim became father to E·li′ud;
15 E·li′ud became father to El·e·a′zar;
El·e·a′zar became father to Mat′than;
Mat′than became father to Jacob;
16 Jacob became father to Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born, who is called Christ.

17 All the generations, then, from Abraham until David were fourteen generations, and from David until the deportation to Babylon fourteen generations, and from the deportation to Babylon until the Christ fourteen generations.

18 But the birth of Jesus Christ was in this way. During the time his mother Mary was promised in marriage to Joseph, she was found to be pregnant by holy spirit before they were united. 19 However, Joseph her husband, because he was righteous and did not want to make her a public spectacle, intended to divorce her secretly. 20 But after he had thought these things over, look! Jehovah’s angel appeared to him in a dream, saying: “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife home, for that which has been begotten in her is by holy spirit. 21 She will give birth to a son, and you must call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.” 22 All this actually came about for that to be fulfilled which was spoken by Jehovah through his prophet, saying: 23 “Look! The virgin will become pregnant and will give birth to a son, and they will call his name Im·man′u·el,” which means, when translated, “With Us Is God.”

24 Then Joseph woke up from his sleep and did as the angel of Jehovah had directed him, and he took his wife home. 25 But he had no intercourse with her until she gave birth to a son; and he called his name Jesus.

2 After Jesus had been born in Beth′le·hem of Ju·de′a in the days of Herod the king, look! astrologers from eastern parts came to Jerusalem, [2] saying: “Where is the one born king of the Jews? For we saw his star when we were in the east, and we have come to do him obeisance.” [3] At hearing this King Herod was agitated, and all Jerusalem along with him; [4] and on gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people he began to inquire of them where the Christ was to be born. [5] They said to him: “In Beth′le·hem of Ju·de′a; for this is how it has been written through the prophet, [6] ‘And you, O Beth′le·hem of the land of Judah, are by no means the most insignificant city among the governors of Judah; for out of you will come forth a governing one, who will shepherd my people, Israel.’”

[7] Then Herod secretly summoned the astrologers and carefully ascertained from them the time of the star’s appearing; [8] and, when sending them to Beth′le·hem, he said: “Go make a careful search for the young child, and when YOU have found it report back to me, that I too may go and do it obeisance.” [9] When they had heard the king, they went their way; and, look! the star they had seen when they were in the east went ahead of them, until it came to a stop above where the young child was. [10] On seeing the star they rejoiced very much indeed. [11] And when they went into the house they saw the young child with Mary its mother, and, falling down, they did obeisance to it. They also opened their treasures and presented it with gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. [12] However, because they were given divine warning in a dream not to return to Herod, they withdrew to their country by another way.

[13] After they had withdrawn, look! Jehovah’s angel appeared in a dream to Joseph, saying: “Get up, take the young child and its mother and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I give you word; for Herod is about to search for the young child to destroy it.” [14] So he got up and took along the young child and its mother by night and withdrew into Egypt, [15] and he stayed there until the decease of Herod, for that to be fulfilled which was spoken by Jehovah through his prophet, saying: “Out of Egypt I called my son.”

[16] Then Herod, seeing he had been outwitted by the astrologers, fell into a great rage, and he sent out and had all the boys in Beth′le·hem and in all its districts done away with, from two years of age and under, according to the time that he had carefully ascertained from the astrologers. [17] Then that was fulfilled which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying: [18] “A voice was heard in Ra′mah, weeping and much wailing; it was Rachel weeping for her children, and she was unwilling to take comfort, because they are no more.”

[19] When Herod had deceased, look! Jehovah’s angel appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt [20] and said: “Get up, take the young child and its mother and be on your way into the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the soul of the young child are dead.” [21] So he got up and took the young child and its mother and entered into the land of Israel. [22] But hearing that Ar·che·la′us ruled as king of Ju·de′a instead of his father Herod, he became afraid to depart for there. Moreover, being given divine warning in a dream, he withdrew into the territory of Gal′i·lee, [23] and came and dwelt in a city named Naz′a·reth, that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through the prophets: “He will be called a Naz·a·rene′.”

MATTHEW

3 In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Ju·de′a, [2] saying: “REPENT, for the kingdom of the heavens has drawn near.” [3] This, in fact, is the one spoken of through Isaiah the prophet in these words: “Listen! Someone is crying out in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way of Jehovah, YOU people! Make his roads straight.’” [4]
But this very John had his clothing of camel’s hair and a leather girdle around his loins; his food too was insect locusts and wild honey. [5] Then Jerusalem and all Ju·de′a and all the country around the Jordan made their way out to him, [6] and people were baptized by him in the Jordan River, openly confessing their sins.

[7] When he caught sight of many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to the baptism, he said to them: “YOU offspring of vipers, who has intimated to YOU to flee from the coming wrath? [8] So then produce fruit that befits repentance; [9] and do not presume to say to yourselves, ‘As a father we have Abraham.’ For I say to YOU that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. [10]
Already the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree, then, that does not produce fine fruit is to be cut down and thrown into the fire. [11] I, for my part, baptize YOU with water because of YOUR repentance; but the one coming after me is stronger than I am, whose sandals I am not fit to take off.
That one will baptize YOU people with holy spirit and with fire. [12] His winnowing shovel is in his hand, and he will completely clean up his threshing floor, and will gather his wheat into the storehouse, but the chaff he will burn up with fire that cannot be put out.”

[13] Then Jesus came from Gal′i·lee to the Jordan to John, in order to be baptized by him. [14] But the latter tried to prevent him, saying: “I am the one needing to be baptized by you, and are you coming to me?” 15 In reply Jesus said to him: “Let it be, this time, for in that way it is suitable for us to carry out all that is righteous.” Then he quit preventing him. 16 After being baptized Jesus immediately came up from the water; and, look! the heavens were opened up, and he saw descending like a dove God’s spirit coming upon him. 17 Look! Also, there was a voice from the heavens that said: “This is my Son, the beloved, whom I have approved.”

4 Then Jesus was led by the spirit up into the wilderness to be tempted by the Devil. [2] After he had fasted forty days and forty nights, then he felt hungry. [3] Also, the Tempter came and said to him: “If you are a son of God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread.” [4] But in reply he said: “It is written, ‘Man must live, not on bread alone, but on every utterance coming forth through Jehovah’s mouth.’”

[5] Then the Devil took him along into the holy city, and he stationed him upon the battlement of the temple [6] and said to him: “If you are a son of God, hurl yourself down; for it is written, ‘He will give his angels a charge concerning you, and they will carry you on their hands, that you may at no time strike your foot against a stone.’” [7] Jesus said to him: “Again it is written, ‘You must not put Jehovah your God to the test.’”

[8] Again the Devil took him along to an unusually high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, [9] and he said to him: “All these things I will give you if you fall down and do an act of worship to me.” [10] Then Jesus said to him: “Go away, Satan! For it is written, ‘It is Jehovah your God you must worship, and it is to him alone you must render sacred service.’” [11] Then the Devil left him, and, look! angels came and began to minister to him.

[12] Now when he heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Gal′i·lee. [13] Further, after leaving Naz′a·reth, he came and took up residence in Ca·per′na·um beside the sea in the districts of Zeb′u·lun and Naph′ta·li, [14] that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying: [15] “O land of Zeb′u·lun and land of Naph′ta·li, along the road of the sea, on the other side of the Jordan, Gal′i·lee of the nations! [16] the people sitting in darkness saw a great light, and as for those sitting in a region of deathly shadow, light rose upon them.” [17] From that time on Jesus commenced preaching and saying: “Repent, YOU people, for the kingdom of the heavens has drawn near.”

[18] Walking alongside the sea of Gal′i·lee he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter and Andrew his brother, letting down a fishing net into the sea, for they were fishers. [19] And he said to them: “Come after me, and I will make YOU fishers of men.” [20] At once abandoning the nets, they followed him. [21] Going on also from there he saw two others who were brothers, James the son of Zeb′e·dee and John his brother, in the boat with Zeb′e·dee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. [22] At once leaving the boat and their father, they followed him.

[23] Then he went around throughout the whole of Gal′i·lee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the good news of the kingdom and curing every sort of disease and every sort of infirmity among the people. [24] And the report about him went out into all Syria; and they brought him all those faring badly, distressed with various diseases and torments, demon-possessed and epileptic and paralyzed persons, and he cured them. [25] Consequently great crowds followed him from Gal′i·lee and De·cap′o·lis and Jerusalem and Ju·de′a and from the other side of the Jordan.

5 When he saw the crowds he went up into the mountain; and after he sat down his disciples came to him; [2] and he opened his mouth and began teaching them, saying:

[3] “Happy are those conscious of their spiritual need, since the kingdom of the heavens belongs to them.

[4] “Happy are those who mourn, since they will be comforted.

[5] “Happy are the mild-tempered ones, since they will inherit the earth.

[6] “Happy are those hungering and thirsting for righteousness, since they will be filled.

[7] “Happy are the merciful, since they will be shown mercy.

[8] “Happy are the pure in heart, since they will see God.

[9] “Happy are the peaceable, since they will be called ‘sons of God.’

[10] “Happy are those who have been persecuted for righteousness’ sake, since the kingdom of the heavens belongs to them.

[11] “Happy are YOU when people reproach YOU and persecute YOU and lyingly say every sort of wicked thing against YOU for my sake. [12] Rejoice and leap for joy, since YOUR reward is great in the heavens; for in that way they persecuted the prophets prior to YOU.

[13] “YOU are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its strength, how will its saltness be restored? It is no longer usable for anything but to be thrown outside to be trampled on by men.

[14] “YOU are the light of the world. A city cannot be hid when situated upon a mountain. [15] People light a lamp and set it, not under the measuring basket, but upon the lampstand, and it shines upon all those in the house. [16] Likewise let YOUR light shine before men, that they may see YOUR fine works and give glory to YOUR Father who is in the heavens.

[17] “Do not think I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I came, not to destroy, but to fulfill; [18] for truly I say to YOU that sooner would heaven and earth pass away than for one smallest letter or one particle of a letter to pass away from the Law by any means and not all things take place. [19] Whoever, therefore, breaks one of these least commandments and teaches mankind to that effect, he will be called ‘least’ in relation to the kingdom of the heavens. As for anyone who does them and teaches them, this one will be called ‘great’ in relation to the kingdom of the heavens. [20] For I say to YOU that if YOUR righteousness does not abound more than that of the scribes and Pharisees, YOU will by no means enter into the kingdom of the heavens.

[21] “YOU heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You must not murder; but whoever commits a murder will be accountable to the court of justice.’ [22] However, I say to YOU that everyone who continues wrathful with his brother will be accountable to the court of justice; but whoever addresses his brother with an unspeakable word of contempt will be accountable to the Supreme Court; whereas whoever says, ‘You despicable fool!’ will be liable to the fiery Ge·henʹna.

[23] “If, then, you are bringing your gift to the altar and you there remember that your brother has something against you, [24] leave your gift there in front of the altar, and go away; first make your peace with your brother, and then, when you have come back, offer up your gift.

25 “Be about settling matters quickly with the one complaining against you at law, while you are with him on the way there, that somehow the complainant may not turn you over to the judge, and the judge to the court attendant, and you get thrown into prison. 26 I say to you for a fact, You will certainly not come out from there until you have paid over the last coin of very little value.

27 “YOU heard that it was said, ‘You must not commit adultery.’ 28 But I say to YOU that everyone that keeps on looking at a woman so as to have a passion for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 If, now, that right eye of yours is making you stumble, tear it out and throw it away from you. For it is more beneficial to you for one of your members to be lost to you than for your whole body to be pitched into Ge·hen′na. 30 Also, if your right hand is making you stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. For it is more beneficial to you for one of your members to be lost than for your whole body to land in Ge·hen′na.

31 “Moreover it was said, ‘Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.’ 32 However, I say to YOU that everyone divorcing his wife, except on account of fornication, makes her a subject for adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

33 “Again YOU heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You must not swear without performing, but you must pay your vows to Jehovah.’ 34 However, I say to YOU: Do not swear at all, neither by heaven, because it is God’s throne; 35 nor by earth, because it is the footstool of his feet; nor by Jerusalem, because it is the city of the great King. 36 Nor by your head must you swear, because you cannot turn one hair white or black. [37] Just let YOUR word Yes mean Yes, YOUR No, No; for what is in excess of these is from the wicked one.

[38] “YOU heard that it was said, ‘Eye for eye and tooth for tooth.’ [39] However, I say to YOU: Do not resist him that is wicked; but whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other also to him. [40] And if a person wants to go to court with you and get possession of your inner garment, let your outer garment also go to him; [41] and if someone in authority impresses you into service for a mile, go with him two miles. [42] Give to the one asking you, and do not turn away from one that wants to borrow from you without interest.

[43] “YOU heard that it was said, ‘You must love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ [44] However, I say to YOU: Continue to love YOUR enemies and to pray for those persecuting YOU; [45] that YOU may prove yourselves sons of YOUR Father who is in the heavens, since he makes his sun rise upon wicked people and good and makes it rain upon righteous people and unrighteous. [46] For if YOU love those loving YOU, what reward do YOU have? Are not also the tax collectors doing the same thing? [47] And if YOU greet YOUR brothers only, what extraordinary thing are YOU doing? Are not also the people of the nations doing the same thing? [48] YOU must accordingly be perfect, as YOUR heavenly Father is perfect.

6 “Take good care not to practice YOUR righteousness in front of men in order to be observed by them; otherwise YOU will have no reward with YOUR Father who is in the heavens. [2] Hence when you go making gifts of mercy, do not blow a trumpet ahead of you, just as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be glorified by men. Truly I say to YOU, They are having their reward in full. [3] But you, when making gifts of mercy, do not let your left hand know what your right is doing, [4] that your gifts of mercy may be in secret; then your Father who is looking on in secret will repay you.

[5] “Also, when YOU pray, YOU must not be as the hypocrites; because they like to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the broad ways to be visible to men. Truly I say to YOU, They are having their reward in full. [6] You, however, when you pray, go into your private room and, after shutting your door, pray to your Father who is in secret; then your Father who looks on in secret will repay you. [7] But when praying, do not say the same things over and over again, just as the people of the nations do, for they imagine they will get a hearing for their use of many words. [8] So, do not make yourselves like them, for God YOUR Father knows what things YOU are needing before ever YOU ask him.

[9] “YOU must pray, then, this way:

“‘Our Father in the heavens, let your name be sanctified. [10] Let your kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in heaven, also upon earth. [11] Give us today our bread for this day; [12] and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. [13] And do not bring us into temptation, but deliver us from the wicked one.’

[14] “For if YOU forgive men their trespasses, YOUR heavenly Father will also forgive YOU; [15] whereas if YOU do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will YOUR Father forgive YOUR trespasses.

[16] “When YOU are fasting, stop becoming sad-faced like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that they may appear to men to be fasting. Truly I say to YOU, They are having their reward in full. [17] But you, when fasting, grease your head and wash your face, [18] that you may appear to be fasting, not to men, but to your Father who is in secrecy; then your Father who is looking on in secrecy will repay you.

[19] “Stop storing up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break in and steal. [20] Rather, store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes, and where thieves do not break in and steal. [21] For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

[22] “The lamp of the body is the eye. If, then, your eye is simple, your whole body will be bright; [23] but if your eye is wicked, your whole body will be dark. If in reality the light that is in you is darkness, how great that darkness is!

[24] “No one can slave for two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will stick to the one and despise the other. YOU cannot slave for God and for Riches.

[25] “On this account I say to YOU: Stop being anxious about YOUR souls as to what YOU will eat or what YOU will drink, or about YOUR bodies as to what YOU will wear. Does not the soul mean more than food and the body than clothing? [26] Observe intently the birds of heaven, because they do not sow seed or reap or gather into storehouses; still YOUR heavenly Father feeds them. Are YOU not worth more than they are? [27] Who of YOU by being anxious can add one cubit to his life span? [28] Also, on the matter of clothing, why are YOU anxious? Take a lesson from the lilies of the field, how they are growing; they do not toil, nor do they spin; [29] but I say to YOU that not even Solʹo·mon in all his glory was arrayed as one of these. [30] If, now, God thus clothes the vegetation of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much rather clothe YOU, YOU with little faith? [31] So never be anxious and say, ‘What are we to eat?’ or, ‘What are we to drink?’ or, ‘What are we to put on?’ [32] For all these are the things the nations are eagerly pursuing. For YOUR heavenly Father knows YOU need all these things.

[33] “Keep on, then, seeking first the kingdom and his righteousness, and all these other things will be added to YOU. [34] So, never be anxious about the next day, for the next day will have its own anxieties. Sufficient for each day is its own badness.

7 “Stop judging that YOU may not be judged; [2] for with what judgment YOU are judging, YOU will be judged; and with the measure that YOU are measuring out, they will measure out to YOU. [3] Why, then, do you look at the straw in your brother’s eye, but do not consider the rafter in your own eye? [4] Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Allow me to extract the straw from your eye’; when, look! a rafter is in your own eye? [5] Hypocrite! First extract the rafter from your own eye, and then you will see clearly how to extract the straw from your brother’s eye.

[6] “Do not give what is holy to dogs, neither throw YOUR pearls before swine, that they may never trample them under their feet and turn around and rip YOU open.

[7] “Keep on asking, and it will be given YOU; keep on seeking, and YOU will find; keep on knocking, and it will be opened to YOU. [8] For everyone asking receives, and everyone seeking finds, and to everyone knocking it will be opened. [9] Indeed, who is the man among YOU whom his son asks for bread—he will not hand him a stone, will he? [10] Or, perhaps, he will ask for a fish—he will not hand him a serpent, will he? [11] Therefore, if YOU, although being wicked, know how to give good gifts to YOUR children, how much more so will YOUR Father who is in the heavens give good things to those asking him!

[12] “All things, therefore, that YOU want men to do to YOU, YOU also must likewise do to them; this, in fact, is what the Law and the Prophets mean.

[13] “Go in through the narrow gate; because broad and spacious is the road leading off into destruction, and many are the ones going in through it; [14] whereas narrow is the gate and cramped the road leading off into life, and few are the ones finding it.

[15] “Be on the watch for the false prophets that come to YOU in sheep’s covering, but inside they are ravenous wolves. [16] By their fruits YOU will recognize them. Never do people gather grapes from thorns or figs from thistles, do they? [17] Likewise every good tree produces fine fruit, but every rotten tree produces worthless fruit; [18] a good tree cannot bear worthless fruit, neither can a rotten tree produce fine fruit. [19] Every tree not producing fine fruit gets cut down and thrown into the fire. [20] Really, then, by their fruits YOU will recognize those men.

[21] “Not everyone saying to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter into the kingdom of the heavens, but the one doing the will of my Father who is in the heavens will. [22] Many will say to me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and expel demons in your name, and perform many powerful works in your name?’ [23] And yet then I will confess to them: I never knew YOU! Get away from me, YOU workers of lawlessness.

[24] “Therefore everyone that hears these sayings of mine and does them will be likened to a discreet man, who built his house upon the rock-mass. [25] And the rain poured down and the floods came and the winds blew and lashed against that house, but it did not cave in, for it had been founded upon the rock-mass. [26] Furthermore, everyone hearing these sayings of mine and not doing them will be likened to a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand. [27] And the rain poured down and the floods came and the winds blew and struck against that house and it caved in, and its collapse was great.”

[28] Now when Jesus finished these sayings, the effect was that the crowds were astounded at his way of teaching; [29] for he was teaching them as a person having authority, and not as their scribes.

8 After he had come down from the mountain great crowds followed him. [2] And, look! a leprous man came up and began doing obeisance to him, saying: “Lord, if you just want to, you can make me clean.” [3] And so, stretching out his hand, he touched him, saying: “I want to. Be made clean.” And immediately his leprosy was cleansed away. [4] Then Jesus said to him: “See that you tell no one, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses appointed, for the purpose of a witness to them.”

[5] When he entered into Ca·perʹna·um, an army officer came to him, entreating him [6] and saying: “Sir, my manservant is laid up in the house with paralysis, being terribly tormented.” [7] He said to him: “When I get there I will cure him.” [8] In reply the army officer said: “Sir, I am not a fit man for you to enter under my roof, but just say the word and my manservant will be healed. [9] For I too am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this one, ‘Be on your way!’ and he is on his way, and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.” [10] Hearing that, Jesus became amazed and said to those following him: “I tell YOU the truth, With no one in Israel have I found so great a faith. [11] But I tell YOU that many from eastern parts and western parts will come and recline at the table with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of the heavens; [12] whereas the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the darkness outside. There is where their weeping and the gnashing of their teeth will be.” [13] Then Jesus said to the army officer: “Go. Just as it has been your faith, so let it come to pass for you.” And the manservant was healed in that hour.

[14] And Jesus, on coming into Peter’s house, saw his mother-in-law lying down and sick with fever. [15] So he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she got up and began ministering to him. [16] But after it became evening, people brought him many demon-possessed persons; and he expelled the spirits with a word, and he cured all who were faring badly; [17] that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying: “He himself took our sicknesses and carried our diseases.”

[18] When Jesus saw a crowd around him, he gave the command to shove off for the other side. [19] And a certain scribe came up and said to him: “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you are about to go.” [20] But Jesus said to him: “Foxes have dens and birds of heaven have roosts, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay down his head.” [21] Then another of the disciples said to him: “Lord, permit me first to leave and bury my father.” [22] Jesus said to him: “Keep following me, and let the dead bury their dead.”

[23] And when he got aboard a boat, his disciples followed him. [24] Now, look! a great agitation arose in the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves; he, however, was sleeping. [25] And they came and woke him up, saying: “Lord, save us, we are about to perish!” [26] But he said to them: “Why are YOU fainthearted, YOU with little faith?” Then, getting up, he rebuked the winds and the sea, and a great calm set in. [27] So the men became amazed and said: “What sort of person is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?”

[28] When he got to the other side, into the country of the Gad·a·renes′, there met him two demon-possessed men coming out from among the memorial tombs, unusually fierce, so that nobody had the courage to pass by on that road. [29] And, look! they screamed, saying: “What have we to do with you, Son of God? Did you come here to torment us before the appointed time?” [30] But a long way off from them a herd of many swine was at pasture. [31] So the demons began to entreat him, saying: “If you expel us, send us forth into the herd of swine.” [32] Accordingly he said to them: “Go!” They came out and went off into the swine; and, look! the entire herd rushed over the precipice into the sea and died in the waters. [33] But the herders fled and, going into the city, they reported everything, including the affair of the demon-possessed men. [34] And, look! all the city turned out to meet Jesus; and after having seen him, they earnestly urged him to move out from their districts.

9 So, boarding the boat, he proceeded across and went into his own city. [2] And, look! they were bringing him a paralyzed man lying on a bed. On seeing their faith Jesus said to the paralytic: “Take courage, child; your sins are forgiven.” [3] And, look! certain of the scribes said to themselves: “This fellow is blaspheming.” [4] And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said: “Why are YOU thinking wicked things in YOUR hearts? [5] For instance, which is easier, to say, Your sins are forgiven, or to say, Get up and walk? [6] However, in order for YOU to know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins—” then he said to the paralytic: “Get up, pick up your bed, and go to your home.” [7] And he got up and went off to his home. [8] At the sight of this the crowds were struck with fear, and they glorified God, who gave such authority to men.

[9] Next, while passing along from there, Jesus caught sight of a man named Matthew seated at the tax office, and he said to him: “Be my follower.” Thereupon he did rise up and follow him. [10] Later, while he was reclining at the table in the house, look! many tax collectors and sinners came and began reclining with Jesus and his disciples. [11] But on seeing this the Pharisees began to say to his disciples: “Why is it that YOUR teacher eats with tax collectors and sinners?” [12] Hearing them, he said: “Persons in health do not need a physician, but the ailing do. [13] Go, then, and learn what this means, ‘I want mercy, and not sacrifice.’ For I came to call, not righteous people, but sinners.”

[14] Then John’s disciples came to him and asked: “Why is it that we and the Pharisees practice fasting but your disciples do not fast?” [15] At this Jesus said to them: “The friends of the bridegroom have no reason to mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them, do they? But days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. [16] Nobody sews a patch of unshrunk cloth upon an old outer garment; for its full strength would pull from the outer garment and the tear would become worse. [17] Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins; but if they do, then the wineskins burst and the wine spills out and the wineskins are ruined. But people put new wine into new wineskins, and both things are preserved."

[18] While he was telling them these things, look! a certain ruler who had approached began to do obeisance to him, saying: "By now my daughter must be dead; but come and lay your hand upon her and she will come to life."

[19] Then Jesus, getting up, began to follow him; also his disciples did. [20] And, look! a woman suffering twelve years from a flow of blood came up behind and touched the fringe of his outer garment; [21] for she kept saying to herself: "If I only touch his outer garment I shall get well." [22] Jesus turned around and, noticing her, said: "Take courage, daughter; your faith has made you well." And from that hour the woman became well.

[23] When, now, he came into the ruler's house and caught sight of the flute players and the crowd in noisy confusion, [24] Jesus began to say: "Leave the place, for the little girl did not die, but she is sleeping." At this they began to laugh at him scornfully. [25] As soon as the crowd had been sent outside, he went in and took hold of her hand, and the little girl got up. [26] Of course, the talk about this spread out into all that region.

[27] As Jesus was passing along from there, two blind men followed him, crying out and saying: "Have mercy on us, Son of David." [28] After he had gone into the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus asked them: “Do YOU have faith that I can do this?” They answered him: “Yes, Lord.” [29] Then he touched their eyes, saying: “According to YOUR faith let it happen to YOU.” [30] And their eyes received sight. Moreover, Jesus sternly charged them, saying: “See that nobody gets to know it.” [31] But they, after getting outside, made it public about him in all that region.

[32] Now when they were leaving, look!  people brought him a dumb man possessed of a demon; [33] and after the demon had been expelled the dumb man spoke. Well, the crowds felt amazement and said: “Never was anything like this seen in Israel.” [34] But the Pharisees began to say: “It is by the ruler of the demons that he expels the demons.”

[35] And Jesus set out on a tour of all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the good news of the kingdom and curing every sort of disease and every sort of infirmity. [36] On seeing the crowds he felt pity for them, because they were skinned and thrown about like sheep without a shepherd. [37] Then he said to his disciples: “Yes, the harvest is great, but the workers are few. [38] Therefore, beg the Master of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest.”

10 So he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, in order to expel these and to cure every sort of disease and every sort of infirmity.

[2] The names of the twelve apostles are these: First, Simon, the one called Peter, and Andrew his brother; and James the son of Zeb′e·dee and John his brother; [3] Philip and Bar·thol′o·mew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Al·phae′us, and Thad·dae′us; [4] Simon the Ca·na·nae′an, and Judas Is·car′i·ot, who later betrayed him.

[5] These twelve Jesus sent forth, giving them these orders: “Do not go off into the road of the nations, and do not enter into a Sa·mar′i·tan city; [6] but, instead, go continually to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. [7] As YOU go, preach, saying, ‘The kingdom of the heavens has drawn near.’ [8] Cure sick people, raise up dead persons, make lepers clean, expel demons. YOU received free, give free. [9] Do not procure gold or silver or copper for YOUR girdle purses, [10] or a food pouch for the trip, or two undergarments, or sandals or a staff; for the worker deserves his food.

[11] “Into whatever city or village YOU enter, search out who in it is deserving, and stay there until YOU leave. [12] When YOU are entering into the house, greet the household; [13] and if the house is deserving, let the peace YOU wish it come upon it; but if it is not deserving, let the peace from YOU return upon YOU. [14] Wherever anyone does not take YOU in or listen to YOUR words, on going out of that house or that city shake the dust off YOUR feet. [15] Truly I say to YOU, It will be more endurable for the land of Sod′om and Go·mor′rah on Judgment Day than for that city.

[16] “Look! I am sending YOU forth as sheep amidst wolves; therefore prove yourselves cautious as serpents and yet innocent as doves. [17] Be on YOUR guard against men; for they will deliver YOU up to local courts, and they will scourge YOU in their synagogues. [18] Why, YOU will be haled before governors and kings for my sake, for a witness to them and the nations. [19] However, when they deliver YOU up, do not become anxious about how or what YOU are to speak; for what YOU are to speak will be given YOU in that hour; [20] for the ones speaking are not just YOU, but it is the spirit of YOUR Father that speaks by YOU. [21] Further, brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise up against parents and will have them put to death. [22] And YOU will be objects of hatred by all people on account of my name; but he that has endured to the end is the one that will be saved. [23] When they persecute YOU in one city, flee to another; for truly I say to YOU, YOU will by no means complete the circuit of the cities of Israel until the Son of man arrives.

[24] “A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a slave above his lord. [25] It is enough for the disciple to become as his teacher, and the slave as his lord. If people have called the householder Be·elʹze·bub, how much more will they call those of his household so? [26] Therefore do not fear them; for there is nothing covered over that will not become uncovered, and secret that will not become known. [27] What I tell YOU in the darkness, say in the light; and what YOU hear whispered, preach from the housetops. [28] And do not become fearful of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; but rather be in fear of him that can destroy both soul and body in Ge·henʹna. [29] Do not two sparrows sell for a coin of small value? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground without YOUR Father’s knowledge. [30] But the very hairs of

YOUR head are all numbered. [31] Therefore have no fear: YOU are worth more than many sparrows.

[32] “Everyone, then, that confesses union with me before men, I will also confess union with him before my Father who is in the heavens; [33] but whoever disowns me before men, I will also disown him before my Father who is in the heavens. [34] Do not think I came to put peace upon the earth; I came to put, not peace, but a sword. [35] For I came to cause division, with a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a young wife against her mother-in-law. [36] Indeed, a man’s enemies will be persons of his own household. [37] He that has greater affection for father or mother than for me is not worthy of me; and he that has greater affection for son or daughter than for me is not worthy of me. [38] And whoever does not accept his torture stake and follow after me is not worthy of me. [39] He that finds his soul will lose it, and he that loses his soul for my sake will find it.

[40] “He that receives YOU receives me also, and he that receives me receives him also that sent me forth. [41] He that receives a prophet because he is a prophet will get a prophet’s reward, and he that receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will get a righteous man’s reward. [42] And whoever gives one of these little ones only a cup of cold water to drink because he is a disciple, I tell YOU truly, he will by no means lose his reward.”

11 Now when Jesus had finished giving instructions to his twelve disciples, he set out from there to teach and preach in their cities.

[2] But John, having heard in jail about the works of the Christ, sent by means of his own disciples [3] and said to him: “Are you the Coming One, or are we to expect a different one?” [4] In reply Jesus said to them: “Go YOUR way and report to John what YOU are hearing and seeing: [5] The blind are seeing again, and the lame are walking about, the lepers are being cleansed and the deaf are hearing, and the dead are being raised up, and the poor are having the good news declared to them; [6] and happy is he that finds no cause for stumbling in me.”

[7] While these were on their way, Jesus started to say to the crowds respecting John: “What did YOU go out into the wilderness to behold? A reed being tossed by a wind? [8] What, then, did YOU go out to see? A man dressed in soft garments? Why, those wearing soft garments are in the houses of kings. [9] Really, then, why did YOU go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell YOU, and far more than a prophet. [10] This is he concerning whom it is written, ‘Look! I myself am sending forth my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way ahead of you!’ [11] Truly I say to YOU people, Among those born of women there has not been raised up a greater than John the Baptist; but a person that is a lesser one in the kingdom of the heavens is greater than he is. [12] But from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of the heavens is the goal toward which men press, and those pressing forward are seizing it. [13] For all, the Prophets and the Law, prophesied until John; [14] and if YOU want to accept it, He himself is ‘E·li′jah who is destined to come.’ [15] Let him that has ears listen.

[16] “With whom shall I compare this generation? It is like young children sitting in the marketplaces who cry out to their playmates, [17] saying, ‘We played the flute for YOU, but YOU did not dance; we wailed, but YOU did not beat yourselves in grief.’ [18] Correspondingly, John came neither eating nor drinking, yet people say, ‘He has a demon’; [19] the Son of man did come eating and drinking, still people say, ‘Look! A man gluttonous and given to drinking wine, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.’ All the same, wisdom is proved righteous by its works.”

[20] Then he started to reproach the cities in which most of his powerful works had taken place, because they did not repent: [21] “Woe to you, Cho·ra′zin! Woe to you, Beth·sa′i·da! because if the powerful works had taken place in Tyre and Si′don that took place in YOU, they would long ago have repented in sackcloth and ashes. [22] Consequently I say to YOU, It will be more endurable for Tyre and Si′don on Judgment Day than for YOU. [23] And you, Ca·per′na·um, will you perhaps be exalted to heaven? Down to Ha′des you will come; because if the powerful works that took place in you had taken place in Sod′om, it would have remained until this very day. [24] Consequently I say to YOU people, It will be more endurable for the land of Sod′om on Judgment Day than for you.”

[25] At that time Jesus said in response: “I publicly praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intellectual ones and have revealed them to babes. [26] Yes, O Father, because to do thus came to be the way approved by you. [27] All things have been delivered to me by my Father, and no one fully knows the Son but the Father, neither does anyone fully know the Father but the Son and anyone to whom the Son is willing to reveal him. [28] Come to me, all YOU who are toiling and loaded down, and I will refresh YOU. [29] Take my yoke upon YOU and learn from me, for I am mild-tempered and lowly in heart, and YOU will find refreshment for YOUR souls. [30] For my yoke is kindly and my load is light.”

12 At that season Jesus went through the grainfields on the sabbath. His disciples got hungry and started to pluck heads of grain and to eat. [2] At seeing this the Pharisees said to him: “Look! Your disciples are doing what it is not lawful to do on the sabbath.” [3] He said to them: “Have YOU not read what David did when he and the men with him got hungry? [4] How he entered into the house of God and they ate the loaves of presentation, something that it was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those with him, but for the priests only? [5] Or, have YOU not read in the Law that on the sabbaths the priests in the temple treat the sabbath as not sacred and continue guiltless? [6] But I tell YOU that something greater than the temple is here. [7] However, if YOU had understood what this means, ‘I want mercy, and not sacrifice,’ YOU would not have condemned the guiltless ones. [8] For Lord of the sabbath is what the Son of man is.”

[9] After departing from that place he went into their synagogue; [10] and, look! a man with a withered hand! So they asked him, “Is it lawful to cure on the sabbath?” that they might get an accusation against him. [11] He said to them: “Who will be the man among YOU that has one sheep and, if this falls into a pit on the sabbath, will not get hold of it and lift it out? [12] All considered, of how much more worth is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do a fine thing on the sabbath.” [13] Then he said to the man: “Stretch out your hand.” And he stretched it out, and it was restored sound like the other hand. [14] But the Pharisees went out and took counsel against him that they might destroy him. [15] Having come to know this, Jesus withdrew from there. Many also followed him, and he cured them all, [16] but he strictly charged them not to make him manifest; [17] that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, who said:

[18] “Look! My servant whom I chose, my beloved, whom my soul approved! I will put my spirit upon him, and what justice is he will make clear to the nations. [19] He will not wrangle, nor cry aloud, nor will anyone hear his voice in the broad ways. [20] No bruised reed will he crush, and no smoldering flaxen wick will he extinguish, until he sends out justice with success. [21] Indeed, in his name nations will hope.”

[22] Then they brought him a demon-possessed man, blind and dumb; and he cured him, so that the dumb man spoke and saw. [23] Well, all the crowds were simply carried away and began to say: “May this not perhaps be the Son of David?” [24] At hearing this, the Pharisees said: “This fellow does not expel the demons except by means of Be·elʹze·bub, the ruler of the demons.” [25] Knowing their thoughts, he said to them: “Every kingdom divided against itself comes to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. [26] In the same way, if Satan expels Satan, he has become divided against himself; how, then, will his kingdom stand? [27] Moreover, if I expel the demons by means of Be·elʹze·bub, by means of whom do YOUR sons expel them? This is why they will be judges of YOU. [28] But if it is by means of God’s spirit that I expel the demons, the kingdom of God has really overtaken YOU. [29] Or how can anyone invade the house of a strong man and seize his movable goods, unless first he binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house. [30] He that is not on my side is against me, and he that does not gather with me scatters.

[31] “On this account I say to YOU, Every sort of sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the spirit will not be forgiven. [32] For example, whoever speaks a word against the Son of man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the holy spirit, it will not be forgiven him, no, not in this system of things nor in that to come.

[33] “Either YOU people make the tree fine and its fruit fine or make the tree rotten and its fruit rotten; for by its fruit the tree is known. [34] Offspring of vipers, how can YOU speak good things, when YOU are wicked? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. [35] The good man out of his good treasure sends out good things, whereas the wicked man out of his wicked treasure sends out wicked things. [36] I tell YOU that every unprofitable saying that men speak, they will render an account concerning it on Judgment Day; [37] for by your words you will be declared righteous, and by your words you will be condemned.”

[38] Then as an answer to him some of the scribes and Pharisees said: “Teacher, we want to see a sign from you.” [39] In reply he said to them: “A wicked and adulterous generation keeps on seeking for a sign, but no sign will be given it except the sign of Jo′nah the prophet. [40] For just as Jo′nah was in the belly of the huge fish three days and three nights, so the Son of man will be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights. [41] Men of Nin′e·veh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it; because they repented at what Jo′nah preached, but, look! something more than Jo′nah is here. [42] The queen of the south will be raised up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it; because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Sol′o·mon, but, look! something more than Sol′o·mon is here.

[43] “When an unclean spirit comes out of a man, it passes through parched places in search of a resting-place, and finds none. [44] Then it says, ‘I will go back to my house out of which I moved’; and on arriving it finds it unoccupied but swept clean and adorned. [45] Then it goes its way and takes along with it seven different spirits more wicked than itself, and, after getting inside, they dwell there; and the final circumstances of that man become worse than the first. That is how it will be also with this wicked generation.”

[46] While he was yet speaking to the crowds, look! his mother and brothers took up a position outside seeking to speak to him. [47] So someone said to him: “Look! Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak to you.” [48] As an answer he said to the one telling him: “Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?” [49] And extending his hand toward his disciples, he said: “Look! My mother and my brothers! [50] For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.”

13 On that day Jesus, having left the house, was sitting by the sea; [2] and great crowds gathered to him, so that he went aboard a boat and sat down, and all the crowd was standing on the beach. [3] Then he told them many things by illustrations, saying: “Look! A sower went out to sow; [4] and as he was sowing, some seeds fell alongside the road, and the birds came and ate them up. [5] Others fell upon the rocky places where they did not have much soil, and at once they sprang up because of not having depth of soil. [6] But when the sun rose they were scorched, and because of not having root they withered. [7] Others, too, fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them. [8] Still others fell upon the fine soil and they began to yield fruit, this one a hundredfold, that one sixty, the other thirty. [9] Let him that has ears listen.”

[10] So the disciples came up and said to him: “Why is it you speak to them by the use of illustrations?” [11] In reply he said: “To YOU it is granted to understand the sacred secrets of the kingdom of the heavens, but to those people it is not granted. [12] For whoever has, more will be given him and he will be made to abound; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him. [13] This is why I speak to them by the use of illustrations, because, looking, they look in vain, and hearing, they hear in vain, neither do they get the sense of it; [14] and toward them the prophecy of Isaiah is having fulfillment, which says, ‘By hearing, YOU will hear but by no means get the sense of it; and, looking, YOU will look but by no means see. [15] For the heart of this people has grown unreceptive, and with their ears they have heard without response, and they have shut their eyes; that they might never see with their eyes and hear with their ears and get the sense of it with their hearts and turn back, and I heal them.’

[16] “However, happy are YOUR eyes because they behold, and YOUR ears because they hear. [17] For I truly say to YOU, Many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things YOU are beholding and did not see them, and to hear the things YOU are hearing and did not hear them.

[18] “YOU, then, listen to the illustration of the man that sowed. [19] Where anyone hears the word of the kingdom but does not get the sense of it, the wicked one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart; this is the one sown alongside the road. [20] As for the one sown upon the rocky places, this is the one hearing the word and at once accepting it with joy. [21] Yet he has no root in himself but continues for a time, and after tribulation or persecution has arisen on account of the word he is at once stumbled. [22] As for the one sown among the thorns, this is the one hearing the word, but the anxiety of this system of things and the deceptive power of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. [23] As for the one sown upon the fine soil, this is the one hearing the word and getting the sense of it, who really does bear fruit and produces, this one a hundredfold, that one sixty, the other thirty.”

[24] Another illustration he set before them, saying: “The kingdom of the heavens has become like a man that sowed fine seed in his field. [25] While men were sleeping, his enemy came and oversowed weeds in among the wheat, and left. [26] When the blade sprouted and produced fruit, then the weeds appeared also. [27] So the slaves of the householder came up and said to him, ‘Master, did you not sow fine seed in your field? How, then, does it come to have weeds?’ [28] He said to them, ‘An enemy, a man, did this.’ They said to him,

‘Do you want us, then, to go out and collect them?’ [29] He said, ‘No; that by no chance, while collecting the weeds, YOU uproot the wheat with them. [30] Let both grow together until the harvest; and in the harvest season I will tell the reapers, First collect the weeds and bind them in bundles to burn them up, then go to gathering the wheat into my storehouse.’”

[31] Another illustration he set before them, saying: “The kingdom of the heavens is like a mustard grain, which a man took and planted in his field; [32] which is, in fact, the tiniest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the largest of the vegetables and becomes a tree, so that the birds of heaven come and find lodging among its branches.”

[33] Another illustration he spoke to them: “The kingdom of the heavens is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three large measures of flour, until the whole mass was fermented.”

[34] All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds by illustrations. Indeed, without an illustration he would not speak to them; [35] that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet who said: “I will open my mouth with illustrations, I will publish things hidden since the founding.”

[36] Then after dismissing the crowds he went into the house. And his disciples came to him and said: “Explain to us the illustration of the weeds in the field.” [37] In response he said: “The sower of the fine seed is the Son of man; [38] the field is the world; as for the fine seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; but the weeds are the sons of the wicked one, [39] and the enemy that sowed them is the Devil. The harvest is a conclusion of a system of things, and the reapers are angels. [40] Therefore, just as the weeds are collected and burned with fire, so it will be in the conclusion of the system of things. [41] The Son of man will send forth his angels, and they will collect out from his kingdom all things that cause stumbling and persons who are doing lawlessness, [42] and they will pitch them into the fiery furnace. There is where their weeping and the gnashing of their teeth will be. [43] At that time the righteous ones will shine as brightly as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let him that has ears listen.

[44] “The kingdom of the heavens is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found and hid; and for the joy he has he goes and sells what things he has and buys that field.

[45] “Again the kingdom of the heavens is like a traveling merchant seeking fine pearls. [46] Upon finding one pearl of high value, away he went and promptly sold all the things he had and bought it.

[47] “Again the kingdom of the heavens is like a dragnet let down into the sea and gathering up fish of every kind. [48] When it got full they hauled it up onto the beach and, sitting down, they collected the fine ones into vessels, but the unsuitable they threw away. [49] That is how it will be in the conclusion of the system of things: the angels will go out and separate the wicked from among the righteous [50] and will cast them into the fiery furnace. There is where their weeping and the gnashing of their teeth will be.

[51] “Did YOU get the sense of all these things?” They said to him: “Yes.” [52] Then he said to them: “That being the case, every public instructor, when taught respecting the kingdom of the heavens, is like a man, a householder, who brings out of his treasure store things new and old.”

[53] Now when Jesus had finished these illustrations he went across country from there. [54] And after coming into his home territory he began to teach them in their synagogue, so that they were astounded and said: “Where did this man get this wisdom and these powerful works? [55] Is this not the carpenter’s son? Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? [56] And his sisters, are they not all with us? Where, then, did this man get all these things?” [57] So they began to stumble at him. But Jesus said to them: “A prophet is not unhonored except in his home territory and in his own house.” [58] And he did not do many powerful works there on account of their lack of faith.

14 At that particular time Herod, the district ruler, heard the report about Jesus [2] and said to his servants: “This is John the Baptist. He was raised up from the dead, and this is why the powerful works are operating in him.” [3] For Herod had arrested John and bound him and put him away in prison on account of He·ro′di·as the wife of Philip his brother.
[4] For John had been saying to him: “It is not lawful for you to be having her.” [5] However, although he wanted to kill him, he feared the crowd, because they took him for a prophet. [6]
But when Herod’s birthday was being celebrated the daughter of He·ro′di·as danced at it and pleased Herod so much [7] that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. [8] Then she, under her mother’s coaching, said:
“Give me here upon a platter the head of John the Baptist.” [9]
Grieved though he was, the king out of regard for his oaths and for those reclining with him commanded it to be given; [10] and he sent and had John beheaded in the prison. [11] And his head was brought on a platter and given to the maiden, and she brought it to her mother. [12] Finally his disciples came up and removed the corpse and buried him and came and reported to Jesus. [13] At hearing this Jesus withdrew from there by boat into a lonely place for isolation; but the crowds, getting to hear of it, followed him on foot from the cities.

[14] Now when he came forth he saw a great crowd; and he felt pity for them, and he cured their sick ones. [15] But when evening fell his disciples came to him and said: “The place is lonely and the hour is already far advanced; send the crowds away, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves things to eat.” [16] However, Jesus said to them:
“They do not have to leave: YOU give them something to eat.” [17] They said to him: “We have nothing here but five loaves and two fishes.” [18] He said: “BRING them here to me.” [19] Next he commanded the crowds to recline on the grass and took the five loaves and two fishes, and, looking up to heaven, he said a blessing and, after breaking the loaves, he distributed them to the disciples, the disciples in turn to the crowds. [20] So all ate and were satisfied, and they took up the surplus of fragments, twelve baskets full. [21] Yet those eating were about five thousand men, besides women and young children. [22] Then, without delay, he compelled his disciples to board the boat and go ahead of him to the other side, while he sent the crowds away.

[23] Eventually, having sent the crowds away, he went up into the mountain by himself to pray. Though it became late, he was there alone. [24] By now the boat was many hundreds of yards away from land, being hard put to it by the waves, because the wind was against them. [25] But in the fourth watch period of the night he came to them, walking over the sea. [26] When they caught sight of him walking on the sea, the disciples were troubled, saying: “It is an apparition!” And they cried out in their fear. [27] But at once Jesus spoke to them with the words: “Take courage, it is I; have no fear.” [28] In reply Peter said to him: “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you over the waters.” [29] He said: “Come!” Thereupon Peter, getting down off the boat, walked over the waters and went toward Jesus. [30] But looking at the windstorm, he got afraid and, after starting to sink, he cried out: “Lord, save me!” [31] Immediately stretching out his hand Jesus caught hold of him and said to him: “You with little faith, why did you give way to doubt?” [32] And after they got up into the boat, the windstorm abated. [33] Then those in the boat did obeisance to him, saying: “You are really God’s Son.” [34] And they got across and came to land in Gen·nes′a·ret.

[35] Upon recognizing him the men of that place sent forth into all that surrounding country, and people brought him all those who were ill. [36] And they went entreating him that they might just touch the fringe of his outer garment; and all those who touched it were made completely well.

15 Then there came to Jesus from Jerusalem Pharisees and scribes, saying: [2] “Why is it your disciples overstep the tradition of the men of former times? For example, they do not wash their hands when about to eat a meal.”

[3] In reply he said to them: “Why is it YOU also overstep the commandment of God because of YOUR tradition? [4] For example, God said, ‘Honor your father and your mother’; and, ‘Let him that reviles father or mother end up in death.’ [5] But YOU say, ‘Whoever says to his father or mother: “Whatever I have by which you might get benefit from me is a gift dedicated to God,” [6] he must not honor his father at all.’ And so YOU have made the word of God invalid because of YOUR tradition. [7] YOU hypocrites, Isaiah aptly prophesied about YOU, when he said, [8] ‘This people honor me with their lips, yet their heart is far removed from me. [9] It is in vain that they keep worshiping me, because they teach commands of men as doctrines.’” [10] With that he called the crowd near and said to them: “Listen and get the sense of it: [11] Not what enters into his mouth defiles a man; but it is what proceeds out of his mouth that defiles a man.”

[12] Then the disciples came up and said to him: “Do you know that the Pharisees stumbled at hearing what you said?” [13] In reply he said: “Every plant that my heavenly Father did not plant will be uprooted. [14] LET them be. Blind guides is what they are. If, then, a blind man guides a blind man, both will fall into a pit.” [15] By way of response Peter said to him: “Make the illustration plain to us.” [16] At this he said: “Are YOU also yet without understanding? [17] Are YOU not aware that everything entering into the mouth passes along into the intestines and is discharged into the sewer?

18 However, the things proceeding out of the mouth come out of the heart, and those things defile a man. 19 For example, out of the heart come wicked reasonings, murders, adulteries, fornications, thieveries, false testimonies, blasphemies. 20 These are the things defiling a man; but to take a meal with unwashed hands does not defile a man."

21 Leaving there, Jesus now withdrew into the parts of Tyre and Si′don. 22 And, look! a Phoe·ni′cian woman from those regions came out and cried aloud, saying: "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David. My daughter is badly demonized." 23 But he did not say a word in answer to her. So his disciples came up and began to request him: "Send her away; because she keeps crying out after us." 24 In answer he said: "I was not sent forth to any but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." 25 When the woman came she began doing obeisance to him, saying: "Lord, help me!" 26 In answer he said: "It is not right to take the bread of the children and throw it to little dogs." 27 She said: "Yes, Lord; but really the little dogs do eat of the crumbs falling from the table of their masters." 28 Then Jesus said in reply to her: "O woman, great is your faith; let it happen to you as you wish." And her daughter was healed from that hour on.

29 Crossing country from there, Jesus next came near the sea of Gal′i·lee, and, after going up into the mountain, he was sitting there. 30 Then great crowds approached him, having along with them people that were lame, maimed, blind, dumb, and many otherwise, and they fairly threw them at his feet, and he cured them; 31 so that the crowd felt amazement as they saw the dumb speaking and the lame walking and the blind seeing, and they glorified the God of Israel.

[32] But Jesus called his disciples to him and said: “I feel pity for the crowd, because it is already three days that they have stayed with me and they have nothing to eat; and I do not want to send them away fasting. They may possibly give out on the road.” [33] However, the disciples said to him: “Where are we in this lonely place going to get sufficient loaves to satisfy a crowd of this size?” [34] At this Jesus said to them: “How many loaves have YOU?” They said: “Seven, and a few little fishes.” [35] So, after instructing the crowd to recline upon the ground, [36] he took the seven loaves and the fishes and, after offering thanks, he broke them and began distributing to the disciples, the disciples in turn to the crowds. [37] And all ate and were satisfied, and as a surplus of fragments they took up seven provision baskets full. [38] Yet those eating were four thousand men, besides women and young children. [39] Finally, after sending the crowds away, he got into the boat and came into the regions of Magʹa·dan.

16 Here the Pharisees and Sadducees approached him and, to tempt him, they asked him to display to them a sign from heaven. [2] In reply he said to them: “[[When evening falls YOU are accustomed to say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is fire-red’; [3] and at morning, ‘It will be wintry, rainy weather today, for the sky is fire-red, but gloomy-looking.’ YOU know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but the signs of the times YOU cannot interpret.]] [4] A wicked and adulterous generation keeps on seeking for a sign, but no sign will be given it except the sign of Jo′nah.” With that he went away, leaving them behind.

[5] Now the disciples crossed to the other side and forgot to take loaves along. [6] Jesus said to them: “Keep YOUR eyes open and watch out for the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” [7] So they began to reason among themselves, saying: “We did not take any loaves along.” [8] Knowing this, Jesus said: “Why are YOU doing this reasoning among yourselves, because YOU have no loaves, YOU with little faith? [9] Do YOU not yet see the point, or do YOU not remember the five loaves in the case of the five thousand and how many baskets YOU took up? [10] Or the seven loaves in the case of the four thousand and how many provision baskets YOU took up? [11] How is it YOU do not discern that I did not talk to YOU about loaves? But watch out for the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” [12] Then they grasped that he said to watch out, not for the leaven of the loaves, but for the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

[13] Now when he had come into the parts of Caes·a·re′a Phi·lip′pi, Jesus went asking his disciples: “Who are men saying the Son of man is?” [14] They said: “Some say John the Baptist, others E·li′jah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” [15] He said to them: “YOU, though, who do YOU say I am?” [16] In answer Simon Peter said: “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” [17] In response Jesus said to him: “Happy you are, Simon son of Jo′nah, because flesh and blood did not reveal it to you, but my Father who is in the heavens did. [18] Also, I say to you, You are Peter, and on this rock-mass I will build my congregation, and the gates of Ha′des will not overpower it. [19] I will give you the keys of the kingdom of the heavens, and whatever you may bind on earth will be the thing bound in the heavens, and whatever you may loose on earth will be the thing loosed in the heavens.” [20] Then he sternly charged the disciples not to say to anybody that he was the Christ.

[21] From that time forward Jesus Christ commenced showing his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the older men and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised up. [22] At this Peter took him aside and commenced rebuking him, saying: “Be kind to yourself, Lord; you will not have this destiny at all.” [23] But, turning his back, he said to Peter: “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, because you think, not God’s thoughts, but those of men.”

[24] Then Jesus said to his disciples: “If anyone wants to come after me, let him disown himself and pick up his torture stake and continually follow me. [25] For whoever wants to save his soul will lose it; but whoever loses his soul for my sake will find it. [26] For what benefit will it be to a man if he gains the whole world but forfeits his soul? or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? [27] For the Son of man is destined to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will recompense each one according to his behavior. [28] Truly I say to YOU that there are some of those standing here that will not taste death at all until first they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.”

17 Six days later Jesus took Peter and James and John his brother along and brought them up into a lofty mountain by themselves. [2] And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone as the sun, and his outer garments became brilliant as the light. [3] And, look! there appeared to them Moses and E·li′jah, conversing with him. [4] Responsively Peter said to Jesus: “Lord, it is fine for us to be here. If you wish, I will erect three tents here, one for you and one for Moses and one for E·li′jah.” [5] While he was yet speaking, look! a bright cloud overshadowed them, and, look! a voice out of the cloud, saying: “This is my Son, the beloved, whom I have approved; listen to him.” [6] At hearing this the disciples fell upon their faces and became very much afraid. [7] Then Jesus came near and, touching them, said: “Get up and have no fear.” [8] When they raised their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus himself only. [9] And as they were descending from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying: “Tell the vision to no one until the Son of man is raised up from the dead.”

[10] However, the disciples put the question to him: “Why, then, do the scribes say that E·li′jah must come first?” [11] In reply he said: “E·li′jah, indeed, is coming and will restore all things. [12] However, I say to YOU that E·li′jah has already come and they did not recognize him but did with him the things they wanted. In this way also the Son of man is destined to suffer at their hands.” [13] Then the disciples perceived that he spoke to them about John the Baptist.

[14] And when they came toward the crowd, a man approached him, kneeling down to him and saying: [15] “Lord, have mercy on my son, because he is an epileptic and is ill, for he falls often into the fire and often into the water; [16] and

I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him.” [17] In reply Jesus said: “O faithless and twisted generation, how long must I continue with YOU? How long must I put up with YOU? Bring him here to me.” [18] Then Jesus rebuked it, and the demon came out of him; and the boy was cured from that hour. [19] Thereupon the disciples came up to Jesus privately and said: “Why is it we could not expel it?” [20] He said to them: “Because of YOUR little faith. For truly I say to YOU, If YOU have faith the size of a mustard grain, YOU will say to this mountain, ‘Transfer from here to there,’ and it will transfer, and nothing will be impossible for YOU.” [21] ——

[22] It was while they were gathered together in Gal′i·lee that Jesus said to them: “The Son of man is destined to be betrayed into men’s hands, [23] and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up.” Consequently they were very much grieved.

[24] After they arrived in Ca·per′na·um the men collecting the two drachmas tax approached Peter and said: “Does YOUR teacher not pay the two drachmas tax?” [25] He said: “Yes.” However, when he entered the house Jesus got ahead of him by saying: “What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive duties or head tax? From their sons or from the strangers?” [26] When he said: “From the strangers,” Jesus said to him: “Really, then, the sons are tax-free. [27] But that we do not cause them to stumble, you go to the sea, cast a fishhook, and take the first fish coming up and, when you open its mouth, you will find a stater coin. Take that and give it to them for me and you.”

18 In that hour the disciples came near to Jesus and said: “Who really is greatest in the kingdom of the heavens?” [2] So, calling a young child to him, he set it in their midst [3] and said: “Truly I say to YOU, Unless YOU turn around and become as young children, YOU will by no means enter into the kingdom of the heavens. [4] Therefore, whoever will humble himself like this young child is the one that is the greatest in the kingdom of the heavens; [5] and whoever receives one such young child on the basis of my name receives me also. [6] But whoever stumbles one of these little ones who put faith in me, it is more beneficial for him to have hung around his neck a millstone such as is turned by an ass and to be sunk in the wide, open sea.

[7] “Woe to the world due to the stumbling blocks! Of course, the stumbling blocks must of necessity come, but woe to the man through whom the stumbling block comes! [8] If, then, your hand or your foot is making you stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you; it is finer for you to enter into life maimed or lame than to be thrown with two hands or two feet into the everlasting fire. [9] Also, if your eye is making you stumble, tear it out and throw it away from you; it is finer for you to enter one-eyed into life than to be thrown with two eyes into the fiery Ge·hen′na. [10] See to it that YOU men do not despise one of these little ones; for I tell YOU that their angels in heaven always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven. [11] ——

[12] “What do YOU think? If a certain man comes to have a hundred sheep and one of them gets strayed, will he not leave the ninety-nine upon the mountains and set out on a search for the one that is straying? [13] And if he happens to find it, I certainly tell YOU, he rejoices more over it than over the ninety-nine that have not strayed. [14] Likewise it is not a desirable thing with my Father who is in heaven for one of these little ones to perish.

[15] “Moreover, if your brother commits a sin, go lay bare his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. [16] But if he does not listen, take along with you one or two more, in order that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every matter may be established. [17] If he does not listen to them, speak to the congregation. If he does not listen even to the congregation, let him be to you just as a man of the nations and as a tax collector.

[18] “Truly I say to YOU men, Whatever things YOU may bind on earth will be things bound in heaven, and whatever things YOU may loose on earth will be things loosed in heaven. [19] Again I truly say to YOU, If two of YOU on earth agree concerning anything of importance that they should request, it will take place for them due to my Father in heaven. [20] For where there are two or three gathered together in my name, there I am in their midst.”

[21] Then Peter came up and said to him: “Lord, how many times is my brother to sin against me and am I to forgive him? Up to seven times?” [22] Jesus said to him: “I say to you, not, Up to seven times, but, Up to seventy-seven times.

[23] “That is why the kingdom of the heavens has become like a man, a king, that wanted to settle accounts with his slaves. [24] When he started to settle them, there was brought in a man who owed him ten thousand talents [=60,000,000 de·nar′i·i]. [25] But because he did not have the means to pay it back, his master ordered him and his wife and his children and all the things he had to be sold and payment to be made. [26] Therefore the slave fell down and began to do obeisance to him, saying, ‘Be patient with me and I will pay back everything to you.’ [27] Moved to pity at this, the master of that slave let him off and canceled his debt. [28] But that slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves that was owing him a hundred de·narʹi·i; and, grabbing him, he began to choke him, saying, ‘Pay back whatever you owe.’ [29] Therefore his fellow slave fell down and began to entreat him, saying, ‘Be patient with me and I will pay you back.’ [30] However, he was not willing, but went off and had him thrown into prison until he should pay back what was owing. [31] When, therefore, his fellow slaves saw the things that had happened, they became very much grieved, and they went and made clear to their master all the things that had happened. [32] Then his master summoned him and said to him, ‘Wicked slave, I canceled all that debt for you, when you entreated me. [33] Ought you not, in turn, to have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I also had mercy on you?’ [34] With that his master, provoked to wrath, delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay back all that was owing. [35] In like manner my heavenly Father will also deal with YOU if YOU do not forgive each one his brother from YOUR hearts.”

19 Now when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Gal′i·lee and came to the frontiers of Ju·de′a across the Jordan. [2] Also, great crowds followed him, and he cured them there.

[3] And Pharisees came up to him, intent on tempting him and saying: “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife on every sort of ground?” [4] In reply he said: “Did YOU not read that he who created them from the beginning made them male and female [5] and said, ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and his mother and will stick to his wife, and the two will be one flesh’? [6] So that they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has yoked together let no man put apart.” [7] They said to him: “Why, then, did Moses prescribe giving a certificate of dismissal and divorcing her?” [8] He said to them: “Moses, out of regard for YOUR hardheartedness, made the concession to YOU of divorcing YOUR wives, but such has not been the case from the beginning. [9] I say to YOU that whoever divorces his wife, except on the ground of fornication, and marries another commits adultery.”

[10] The disciples said to him: “If such is the situation of a man with his wife, it is not advisable to marry.” [11] He said to them: “Not all men make room for the saying, but only those who have the gift. [12] For there are eunuchs that were born such from their mother’s womb, and there are eunuchs that were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs that have made themselves eunuchs on account of the kingdom of the heavens. Let him that can make room for it make room for it.”

[13] Then young children were brought to him, for him to put his hands upon them and offer prayer; but the disciples reprimanded them. [14] Jesus, however, said: “Let the young children alone, and stop hindering them from coming to me, for the kingdom of the heavens belongs to suchlike ones.” [15] And he put his hands upon them and went from there.

[16] Now, look! a certain one came up to him and said: “Teacher, what good must I do in order to get everlasting life?” [17] He said to him: “Why do you ask me about what is good? One there is that is good. If, though, you want to enter into life, observe the commandments continually.” [18] He said to him: “Which ones?” Jesus said: “Why, You must not murder, You must not commit adultery, You must not steal, You must not bear false witness, [19] Honor your father and your mother, and, You must love your neighbor as yourself.” [20] The young man said to him: “I have kept all these; what yet am I lacking?” [21] Jesus said to him: “If you want to be perfect, go sell your belongings and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven, and come be my follower.” [22] When the young man heard this saying, he went away grieved, for he was holding many possessions. [23] But Jesus said to his disciples: “Truly I say to YOU that it will be a difficult thing for a rich man to get into the kingdom of the heavens. [24] Again I say to YOU, It is easier for a camel to get through a needle’s eye than for a rich man to get into the kingdom of God.”

[25] When the disciples heard that, they expressed very great surprise, saying: “Who really can be saved?” [26] Looking them in the face, Jesus said to them: “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

[27] Then Peter said to him in reply: “Look! We have left all things and followed you; what actually will there be for us?” [28] Jesus said to them: “Truly I say to YOU, In the re-creation, when the Son of man sits down upon his glorious throne,

YOU who have followed me will also yourselves sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. [29] And everyone that has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands for the sake of my name will receive many times more and will inherit everlasting life.

[30] “But many that are first will be last and the last first.

20 “For the kingdom of the heavens is like a man, a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. [2] When he had agreed with the workers for a de·nar′i·us a day, he sent them forth into his vineyard. [3] Going out also about the third hour, he saw others standing unemployed in the marketplace; [4] and to those he said, ‘YOU also, go into the vineyard, and whatever is just I will give YOU.’ [5] So off they went. Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour and did likewise. [6] Finally, about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing, and he said to them, ‘Why have YOU been standing here all day unemployed?’ [7] They said to him, ‘Because nobody has hired us.’ He said to them, ‘YOU too go into the vineyard.’

[8] “When it became evening, the master of the vineyard said to his man in charge, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, proceeding from the last to the first.’ [9] When the eleventh-hour men came, they each received a de·nar′i·us. [10] So, when the first came, they concluded they would receive more; but they also received pay at the rate of a de·nar′i·us. [11] On receiving it they began to murmur against the householder [12] and said, ‘These last put in one hour’s work; still you made them equal to us who bore the burden of the day and the burning heat!’ [13] But in reply to one of them he said, ‘Fellow, I do you no wrong. You agreed with me for a de·nar′i·us, did you not? [14] Take what is yours and go. I want to give to this last one the same as to you. [15] Is it not lawful for me to do what I want with my own things? Or is your eye wicked because I am good?’ [16] In this way the last ones will be first, and the first ones last.”

[17] Being now about to go up to Jerusalem, Jesus took the twelve disciples off privately and said to them on the road: [18] “Look! We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be delivered up to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death, [19] and will deliver him up to men of the nations to make fun of and to scourge and to impale, and the third day he will be raised up.”

[20] Then the mother of the sons of Zeb′e·dee approached him with her sons, doing obeisance and asking for something from him. [21] He said to her: “What do you want?” She said to him: “Give the word that these my two sons may sit down, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom.” [22] Jesus said in answer: “YOU men do not know what YOU are asking for. Can YOU drink the cup that I am about to drink?” They said to him: “We can.” [23] He said to them: “YOU will indeed drink my cup, but this sitting down at my right hand and at my left is not mine to give, but it belongs to those for whom it has been prepared by my Father.”

[24] When the ten others heard of this, they became indignant at the two brothers. [25] But Jesus, calling them to him, said: “YOU know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them and the great men wield authority over them. [26] This is not the way among YOU; but whoever wants to become great among YOU must be YOUR minister, [27] and whoever wants to be first among YOU must be YOUR slave. [28] Just as the Son of man came, not to be ministered to, but to minister and to give his soul a ransom in exchange for many.”

[29] Now as they were going out of Jer′i·cho a great crowd followed him. [30] And, look! two blind men sitting beside the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying: “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!” [31] But the crowd sternly told them to keep silent; yet they cried all the louder, saying: “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!” [32] So Jesus stopped, called them and said: “What do YOU want me to do for YOU?” [33] They said to him: “Lord, let our eyes be opened.” [34] Moved with pity, Jesus touched their eyes, and immediately they received sight, and they followed him.

21 Well, when they got close to Jerusalem and arrived at Beth′pha·ge on the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent forth two disciples, [2] saying to them: “Be on YOUR way into the village that is within sight of YOU, and YOU will at once find an ass tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me. [3] And if someone says anything to YOU, YOU must say, ‘The Lord needs them.’ At that he will immediately send them forth.”

[4] This actually took place that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet, saying: [5] “TELL the daughter of Zion, ‘Look! Your King is coming to you, mild-tempered, and mounted upon an ass, yes, upon a colt, the offspring of a beast of burden.’”

[6] So the disciples got on their way and did just as Jesus ordered them. [7] And they brought the ass and its colt, and they put upon these their outer garments, and he seated himself upon them. [8] Most of the crowd spread their outer garments on the road, while others began cutting down branches from the trees and spreading them on the road. [9] As for the crowds, those going ahead of him and those following kept crying out: “Save, we pray, the Son of David! Blessed is he that comes in Jehovah’s name! Save him, we pray, in the heights above!”

[10] Now when he entered into Jerusalem, the whole city was set in commotion, saying: “Who is this?” [11] The crowds kept telling: “This is the prophet Jesus, from Naz′a·reth of Gal′i·lee!”

[12] And Jesus entered into the temple and threw out all those selling and buying in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves. [13] And he said to them: “It is written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer,’ but YOU are making it a cave of robbers.” [14] Also, blind and lame persons came up to him in the temple, and he cured them.

[15] When the chief priests and the scribes saw the marvelous things he did and the boys that were crying out in the temple and saying: “Save, we pray, the Son of David! ” they became indignant [16] and said to him: “Do you hear what these are saying?” Jesus said to them: “Yes. Did YOU never read this, ‘Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings you have furnished praise’?” [17] And leaving them behind he went outside the city to Beth′a·ny and passed the night there.

[18] While returning to the city early in the morning, he got hungry. [19] And he caught sight of a fig tree by the road and went to it, but he found nothing on it except leaves only, and he said to it: “Let no fruit come from you anymore forever.” And the fig tree withered instantly. [20] But when the disciples saw this, they wondered, saying: “How is it that the fig tree withered instantly?” [21] In answer Jesus said to them: “Truly I say to YOU, If only YOU have faith and do not doubt, not only will YOU do what I did to the fig tree, but also if YOU say to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and cast into the sea,’ it will happen. [22] And all the things YOU ask in prayer, having faith, YOU will receive.”

[23] Now after he went into the temple, the chief priests and the older men of the people came up to him while he was teaching and said: “By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you this authority?” [24] In reply Jesus said to them: “I, also, will ask YOU one thing. If YOU tell it to me, I also will tell YOU by what authority I do these things: [25] The baptism by John, from what source was it? From heaven or from men?” But they began to reason among themselves, saying: “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say to us, ‘Why, then, did YOU not believe him?’ [26] If, though, we say, ‘From men,’ we have the crowd to fear, for they all hold John as a prophet.” [27] So in answer to Jesus they said: “We do not know.” He, in turn, said to them: “Neither am I telling YOU by what authority I do these things.

[28] “What do YOU think? A man had two children. Going up to the first, he said, ‘Child, go work today in the vineyard.’ [29] In answer this one said, ‘I will, sir,’ but did not go out. [30] Approaching the second, he said the same. In reply this one said, ‘I will not.’ Afterwards he felt regret and went out. [31] Which of the two did the will of his father?” They said: “The latter.” Jesus said to them: “Truly I say to YOU that the tax collectors and the harlots are going ahead of YOU into the kingdom of God. [32] For John came to YOU in a way of righteousness, but YOU did not believe him. However, the tax collectors and the harlots believed him, and YOU, although YOU saw this, did not feel regret afterwards so as to believe him.

[33] “Hear another illustration: There was a man, a householder, who planted a vineyard and put a fence around it and dug a winepress in it and erected a tower, and let it out to cultivators, and traveled abroad. [34] When the season of the fruits came around, he dispatched his slaves to the cultivators to get his fruits. [35] However, the cultivators took his slaves, and one they beat up, another they killed, another they stoned. [36] Again he dispatched other slaves, more than the first, but they did the same to these. [37] Lastly he dispatched his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ [38] On seeing the son the cultivators said among themselves, ‘This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance!’ [39] So they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. [40] Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those cultivators?” [41]

They said to him: “Because they are evil, he will bring an evil destruction upon them and will let out the vineyard to other cultivators, who will render him the fruits when they become due.”

42 Jesus said to them: “Did YOU never read in the Scriptures, ‘The stone that the builders rejected is the one that has become the chief cornerstone. From Jehovah this has come to be, and it is marvelous in our eyes’? 43 This is why I say to YOU, The kingdom of God will be taken from YOU and be given to a nation producing its fruits. 44 Also, the person falling upon this stone will be shattered. As for anyone upon whom it falls, it will pulverize him.”

45 Now when the chief priests and the Pharisees had heard his illustrations, they took note that he was speaking about them. 46 But, although they were seeking to seize him, they feared the crowds, because these held him to be a prophet.

22 In further reply Jesus again spoke to them with illustrations, saying: [2] “The kingdom of the heavens has become like a man, a king, that made a marriage feast for his son. [3] And he sent forth his slaves to call those invited to the marriage feast, but they were unwilling to come. [4] Again he sent forth other slaves, saying, ‘Tell those invited: “Look! I have prepared my dinner, my bulls and fattened animals are slaughtered, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast.”’ [5] But unconcerned they went off, one to his own field, another to his commercial business; [6] but the rest, laying hold of his slaves, treated them insolently and killed them.

[7] “But the king grew wrathful, and sent his armies and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. [8] Then he said to his slaves, ‘The marriage feast indeed is ready, but those invited were not worthy. [9] Therefore go to the roads leading out of the city, and anyone YOU find invite to the marriage feast.’ [10] Accordingly those slaves went out to the roads and gathered together all they found, both wicked and good; and the room for the wedding ceremonies was filled with those reclining at the table.

[11] “When the king came in to inspect the guests he caught sight there of a man not clothed with a marriage garment. [12] So he said to him, ‘Fellow, how did you get in here not having on a marriage garment?’ He was rendered speechless. [13] Then the king said to his servants, ‘Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the darkness outside. There is where his weeping and the gnashing of his teeth will be.’

[14] “For there are many invited, but few chosen.”

[15] Then the Pharisees went their way and took counsel together in order to trap him in his speech. [16] So they dispatched to him their disciples, together with party followers of Herod, saying: “Teacher, we know you are truthful and teach the way of God in truth, and you do not care for anybody, for you do not look upon men’s outward appearance. [17] Tell us, therefore, What do you think? Is it lawful to pay head tax to Caesar or not?” [18] But Jesus, knowing their wickedness, said: “Why do YOU put me to the test, hypocrites? [19] Show me the head tax coin.” They brought him a de·nar′i·us. [20] And he said to them: “Whose image and inscription is this?” [21] They said: “Caesar’s.” Then he said to them: “Pay back, therefore, Caesar’s things to Caesar, but God’s things to God.” [22] Well, when they heard that, they marveled, and leaving him they went off.

[23] On that day Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came up to him and asked him: [24] “Teacher, Moses said, ‘If any man dies without having children, his brother must take his wife in marriage and raise up offspring for his brother.’ [25] Now there were seven brothers with us; and the first married and deceased, and, not having offspring, he left his wife for his brother. [26] It went the same way also with the second and the third, until through all seven. [27] Last of all the woman died. [28] Consequently, in the resurrection, to which of the seven will she be wife? For they all got her.”

[29] In reply Jesus said to them: “YOU are mistaken, because YOU know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God; [30] for in the resurrection neither do men marry nor are women given in marriage, but are as angels in heaven. [31] As regards the resurrection of the dead, did YOU not read what was spoken to YOU by God, saying, [32] ‘I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob’? He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living.” [33] On hearing that, the crowds were astounded at his teaching.

[34] After the Pharisees heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they came together in one group. [35] And one of them, versed in the Law, asked, testing him: [36] “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?” [37] He said to him: “‘You must love Jehovah your God with your whole heart and with your whole soul and with your whole mind.’ [38] This is the greatest and first commandment. [39] The second, like it, is this, ‘You must love your neighbor as yourself.’ [40] On these two commandments the whole Law hangs, and the Prophets.”

[41] Now while the Pharisees were gathered together Jesus asked them: [42] “What do YOU think about the Christ? Whose son is he?” They said to him: “David’s.” [43] He said to them: “How, then, is it that David by inspiration calls him ‘Lord,’ saying, [44] ‘Jehovah said to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand until I put your enemies beneath your feet”’? [45] If, therefore, David calls him ‘Lord,’ how is he his son?” [46] And nobody was able to say a word in reply to him, nor did anyone dare from that day on to question him any further.

23 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, saying: [2] “The scribes and the Pharisees have seated themselves in the seat of Moses. [3] Therefore all the things they tell YOU, do and observe, but do not do according to their deeds, for they say but do not perform. [4] They bind up heavy loads and put them upon the shoulders of men, but they themselves are not willing to budge them with their finger. [5] All the works they do they do to be viewed by men; for they broaden the scripture-containing cases that they wear as safeguards, and enlarge the fringes of their garments. [6] They like the most prominent place at evening meals and the front seats in the synagogues, [7] and the greetings in the marketplaces and to be called Rabbi by men. [8] But YOU, do not YOU be called Rabbi, for one is YOUR teacher, whereas all YOU are brothers. [9] Moreover, do not call anyone YOUR father on earth, for one is YOUR Father, the heavenly One. [10] Neither be called ‘leaders,’ for YOUR Leader is one, the Christ. [11] But the greatest one among YOU must be YOUR minister. [12] Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

[13] “Woe to YOU, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because YOU shut up the kingdom of the heavens before men; for YOU yourselves do not go in, neither do YOU permit those on their way in to go in. [14] —— [15] “Woe to YOU, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because YOU traverse sea and dry land to make one proselyte, and when he becomes one YOU make him a subject for Ge·hen′na twice as much so as yourselves.

[16] “Woe to YOU, blind guides, who say, ‘If anyone swears by the temple, it is nothing; but if anyone swears by the gold of the temple, he is under obligation.’ [17] Fools and blind ones! Which, in fact, is greater, the gold or the temple that has sanctified the gold? [18] Also, ‘If anyone swears by the altar, it is nothing; but if anyone swears by the gift on it, he is under obligation.’ [19] Blind ones! Which, in fact, is greater, the gift or the altar that sanctifies the gift? [20] Therefore he that swears by the altar is swearing by it and by all the things on it; [21] and he that swears by the temple is swearing by it and by him that is inhabiting it; [22] and he that swears by heaven is swearing by the throne of God and by him that is sitting on it.

[23] “Woe to YOU, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because YOU give the tenth of the mint and the dill and the cumin, but YOU have disregarded the weightier matters of the Law, namely, justice and mercy and faithfulness. These things it was binding to do, yet not to disregard the other things. [24] Blind guides, who strain out the gnat but gulp down the camel!

[25] “Woe to YOU, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because YOU cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside they are full of plunder and immoderateness. [26] Blind Pharisee, cleanse first the inside of the cup and of the dish, that the outside of it also may become clean.

[27] “Woe to YOU, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because YOU resemble whitewashed graves, which outwardly indeed appear beautiful but inside are full of dead men’s bones and of every sort of uncleanness. [28] In that way YOU also, outwardly indeed, appear righteous to men, but inside YOU are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

[29] “Woe to YOU, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because YOU build the graves of the prophets and decorate the memorial tombs of the righteous ones, [30] and YOU say, ‘If we were in the days of our forefathers, we would not be sharers with them in the blood of the prophets.’ [31] Therefore YOU are bearing witness against yourselves that YOU are sons of those who murdered the prophets. [32] Well, then, fill up the measure of YOUR forefathers.

[33] “Serpents, offspring of vipers, how are YOU to flee from the judgment of Ge·hen′na? [34] For this reason, here I am sending forth to YOU prophets and wise men and public instructors. Some of them YOU will kill and impale, and some of them YOU will scourge in YOUR synagogues and persecute from city to city; [35] that there may come upon YOU all the righteous blood spilled on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zech·a·ri′ah son of Bar·a·chi′ah, whom YOU murdered between the sanctuary and the altar. [36] Truly I say to YOU, All these things will come upon this generation.

[37] “Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the killer of the prophets and stoner of those sent forth to her,—how often I wanted to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chicks together under her wings! But YOU people did not want it. [38] Look! YOUR house is abandoned to YOU. [39] For I say to YOU, YOU will by no means see me from henceforth until YOU say, ‘Blessed is he that comes in Jehovah’s name!’”

24 Departing now, Jesus was on his way from the temple, but his disciples approached to show him the buildings of the temple. [2] In response he said to them: “Do YOU not behold all these things? Truly I say to YOU, By no means will a stone be left here upon a stone and not be thrown down.”

[3] While he was sitting upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples approached him privately, saying: “Tell us, When will these things be, and what will be the sign of your presence and of the conclusion of the system of things?”

[4] And in answer Jesus said to them: “Look out that nobody misleads YOU; [5] for many will come on the basis of my name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and will mislead many. [6] YOU are going to hear of wars and reports of wars; see that YOU are not terrified. For these things must take place, but the end is not yet.

[7] “For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be food shortages and earthquakes in one place after another. [8] All these things are a beginning of pangs of distress.

[9] “Then people will deliver YOU up to tribulation and will kill YOU, and YOU will be objects of hatred by all the nations on account of my name. [10] Then, also, many will be stumbled and will betray one another and will hate one another. [11] And many false prophets will arise and mislead many; [12] and because of the increasing of lawlessness the love of the greater number will cool off. [13] But he that has endured to the end is the one that will be saved. [14] And this good news of the kingdom will be preached in all the inhabited earth for a witness to all the nations; and then the end will come.

[15] “Therefore, when YOU catch sight of the disgusting thing that causes desolation, as spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in a holy place, (let the reader use discernment,) [16] then let those in Ju·de′a begin fleeing to the mountains. [17] Let the man on the housetop not come down to take the goods out of his house; [18] and let the man in the field not return to the house to pick up his outer garment. [19] Woe to the pregnant women and those suckling a baby in those days! [20] Keep praying that YOUR flight may not occur in wintertime, nor on the sabbath day; [21] for then there will be great tribulation such as has not occurred since the world’s beginning until now, no, nor will occur again. [22] In fact, unless those days were cut short, no flesh would be saved; but on account of the chosen ones those days will be cut short.

[23] “Then if anyone says to YOU, ‘Look! Here is the Christ,’ or, ‘There!’ do not believe it. [24] For false Christs and false prophets will arise and will give great signs and wonders so as to mislead, if possible, even the chosen ones. [25] Look! I have forewarned YOU. [26] Therefore, if people say to YOU, ‘Look! He is in the wilderness,’ do not go out; ‘Look! He is in the inner chambers,’ do not believe it. [27] For just as the lightning comes out of eastern parts and shines over to western parts, so the presence of the Son of man will be. [28] Wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

[29] “Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. [30] And then the sign of the Son of man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will beat themselves in lamentation, and they will see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. [31] And he will send forth his angels with a great trumpet sound, and they will gather his chosen ones together from the four winds, from one extremity of the heavens to their other extremity.

[32] “Now learn from the fig tree as an illustration this point: Just as soon as its young branch grows tender and it puts forth leaves, YOU know that summer is near. [33] Likewise also YOU, when YOU see all these things, know that he is near at the doors. [34] Truly I say to YOU that this generation will by no means pass away until all these things occur. [35] Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.

[36] “Concerning that day and hour nobody knows, neither the angels of the heavens nor the Son, but only the Father. [37] For just as the days of Noah were, so the presence of the Son of man will be. [38] For as they were in those days before the flood, eating and drinking, men marrying and women being given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark; [39] and they took no note until the flood came and swept them all away, so the presence of the Son of man will be. [40] Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken along and the other be abandoned; [41] two women will be grinding at the hand mill: one will be taken along and the other be abandoned. [42] Keep on the watch, therefore, because YOU do not know on what day YOUR Lord is coming.

[43] “But know one thing, that if the householder had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have kept awake and not allowed his house to be broken into. [44] On this account YOU too prove yourselves ready, because at an hour that YOU do not think to be it, the Son of man is coming.

[45] “Who really is the faithful and discreet slave whom his master appointed over his domestics, to give them their food at the proper time? [46] Happy is that slave if his master on arriving finds him doing so! [47] Truly I say to YOU, He will appoint him over all his belongings.

[48] “But if ever that evil slave should say in his heart, ‘My master is delaying,’ [49] and should start to beat his fellow slaves and should eat and drink with the confirmed drunkards, [50] the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect and in an hour that he does not know, [51] and will punish him with the greatest severity and will assign him his part with the hypocrites. There is where his weeping and the gnashing of his teeth will be.

25 “Then the kingdom of the heavens will become like ten virgins that took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. [2] Five of them were foolish, and five were discreet. [3] For the foolish took their lamps but took no oil with them, [4] whereas the discreet took oil in their receptacles with their lamps. [5] While the bridegroom was delaying, they all nodded and went to sleep. [6] Right in the middle of the night there arose a cry, ‘Here is the bridegroom! Be on YOUR way out to meet him.’ [7] Then all those virgins rose and put their lamps in order. [8] The foolish said to the discreet, ‘Give us some of YOUR oil, because our lamps are about to go out.’ [9] The discreet answered with the words, ‘Perhaps there may not be quite enough for us and YOU. Be on YOUR way, instead, to those who sell it and buy for yourselves.’ [10] While they were going off to buy, the bridegroom arrived, and the virgins that were ready went in with him to the marriage feast; and the door was shut. [11] Afterwards the rest of the virgins also came, saying, ‘Sir, sir, open to us!’ [12] In answer he said, ‘I tell YOU the truth, I do not know YOU.’

[13] “Keep on the watch, therefore, because YOU know neither the day nor the hour.

[14] “For it is just as when a man, about to travel abroad, summoned slaves of his and committed to them his belongings. [15] And to one he gave five talents, to another two, to still another one, to each one according to his own ability, and he went abroad. [16] Immediately the one that received the five talents went his way and did business with them and gained five more. [17] In the same way the one that received the two gained two more. [18] But the one that received just one went off, and dug in the ground and hid the silver money of his master.

[19] “After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. [20] So the one that had received five talents came forward and brought five additional talents, saying, ‘Master, you committed five talents to me; see, I gained five talents more.’ [21] His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things. Enter into the joy of your master.’ [22] Next the one that had received the two talents came forward and said, ‘Master, you committed to me two talents; see, I gained two talents more.’ [23] His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things. Enter into the joy of your master.’

[24] “Finally the one that had received the one talent came forward and said, ‘Master, I knew you to be an exacting man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you did not winnow. [25] So I grew afraid and went off and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.’ [26] In reply his master said to him, ‘Wicked and sluggish slave, you knew, did you, that I reaped where I did not sow and gathered where I did not winnow? [27] Well, then, you ought to have deposited my silver monies with the bankers, and on my arrival I would be receiving what is mine with interest.

[28] “‘Therefore TAKE away the talent from him and give it to him that has the ten talents. [29] For to everyone that has, more will be given and he will have abundance; but as for him that does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. [30] And throw the good-for-nothing slave out into the darkness outside. There is where his weeping and the gnashing of his teeth will be.’

[31] “When the Son of man arrives in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit down on his glorious throne. [32] And all the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. [33] And he will put the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on his left.

[34] “Then the king will say to those on his right, ‘Come, YOU who have been blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for YOU from the founding of the world. [35] For I became hungry and YOU gave me something to eat; I got thirsty and YOU gave me something to drink. I was a stranger and YOU received me hospitably; [36] naked, and YOU clothed me. I fell sick and YOU looked after me. I was in prison and YOU came to me.’ [37] Then the righteous ones will answer him with the words, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty, and give you something to drink? [38] When did we see you a stranger and receive you hospitably, or naked, and clothe you? [39] When did we see you sick or in prison and go to you?’ [40] And in reply the king will say to them, ‘Truly I say to YOU, To the extent that YOU did it to one of the least of these my brothers, YOU did it to me.’

[41] “Then he will say, in turn, to those on his left, ‘Be on YOUR way from me, YOU who have been cursed, into the everlasting fire prepared for the Devil and his angels. [42] For I became hungry, but YOU gave me nothing to eat, and I got thirsty, but YOU gave me nothing to drink. [43] I was a stranger, but YOU did not receive me hospitably; naked, but YOU did not clothe me; sick and in prison, but YOU did not look after me.’ [44] Then they also will answer with the words, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison and did not minister to you?’ [45] Then he will answer them with the words, ‘Truly I say to YOU,

To the extent that YOU did not do it to one of these least ones, YOU did not do it to me.’ [46] And these will depart into everlasting cutting-off, but the righteous ones into everlasting life.”

26 Now when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said to his disciples: [2] “YOU know that two days from now the passover occurs, and the Son of man is to be delivered up to be impaled.”

[3] Then the chief priests and the older men of the people gathered together in the courtyard of the high priest who was called Ca′ia·phas, [4] and took counsel together to seize Jesus by crafty device and kill him. [5] However, they kept saying: “Not at the festival, in order that no uproar may arise among the people.”

[6] While Jesus happened to be in Beth′a·ny in the house of Simon the leper, [7] a woman with an alabaster case of costly perfumed oil approached him, and she began pouring it upon his head as he was reclining at the table. [8] On seeing this the disciples became indignant and said: “Why this waste? [9] For this could have been sold for a great deal and been given to poor people.” [10] Aware of this, Jesus said to them: “Why do YOU try to make trouble for the woman? For she did a fine deed toward me. [11] For YOU always have the poor with YOU, but YOU will not always have me. [12] For when this woman put this perfumed oil upon my body, she did it for the preparation of me for burial. [13] Truly I say to YOU, Wherever this good news is preached in all the world, what this woman did shall also be told as a remembrance of her.”

[14] Then one of the twelve, the one called Judas Is·car′i·ot, went to the chief priests [15] and said: “What will YOU give me to betray him to YOU?” They stipulated to him thirty silver pieces. [16] So from then on he kept seeking a good opportunity to betray him.

[17] On the first day of the unfermented cakes the disciples came up to Jesus, saying: “Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the passover?” [18] He said: “Go into the city to So-and-so and say to him, The Teacher says, ‘My appointed time is near; I will celebrate the passover with my disciples at your home.’” [19] And the disciples did as Jesus ordered them, and they got things ready for the passover.

[20] When, now, it had become evening, he was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples. [21] While they were eating, he said: “Truly I say to YOU, One of YOU will betray me.” [22] Being very much grieved at this, they commenced each and every one to say to him: “Lord, it is not I, is it?” [23] In reply he said: “He that dips his hand with me in the bowl is the one that will betray me. [24] True, the Son of man is going away, just as it is written concerning him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been finer for him if that man had not been born.” [25] By way of reply Judas, who was about to betray him, said: “It is not I, is it, Rabbi?” He said to him: “You yourself said it.”

[26] As they continued eating, Jesus took a loaf and, after saying a blessing, he broke it and, giving it to the disciples, he said: “TAKE, eat. This means my body.” [27] Also, he took a cup and, having given thanks, he gave it to them, saying: “Drink out of it, all of YOU; [28] for this means my ‘blood of the covenant,’ which is to be poured out in behalf of many for forgiveness of sins. [29] But I tell YOU, I will by no means drink henceforth any of this product of the vine until that day when I drink it new with YOU in the kingdom of my Father.” [30] Finally, after singing praises, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

[31] Then Jesus said to them: “All of YOU will be stumbled in connection with me on this night, for it is written, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered about.’ [32] But after I have been raised up, I will go ahead of YOU into Gal′i·lee.” [33] But Peter, in answer, said to him: “Although all the others are stumbled in connection with you, never will I be stumbled!” [34] Jesus said to him: “Truly I say to you, On this night, before a cock crows, you will disown me three times.” [35] Peter said to him: “Even if I should have to die with you, I will by no means disown you.” All the other disciples also said the same thing.

[36] Then Jesus came with them to the spot called Geth·sem′a·ne, and he said to the disciples: “Sit down here while I go over there and pray.” [37] And taking along Peter and the two sons of Zeb′e·dee, he started to be grieved and to be sorely troubled. [38] Then he said to them: “My soul is deeply grieved, even to death. Stay here and keep on the watch with me.” [39] And going a little way forward, he fell upon his face, praying and saying: “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me. Yet, not as I will, but as you will.”

[40] And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter: “Could YOU men not so much as watch one hour with me? [41] Keep on the watch and pray continually, that YOU may not enter into temptation. The spirit, of course, is eager, but the flesh is weak.” [42] Again, for the second time, he went off and prayed, saying: “My Father, if it is not possible for this to pass away except I drink it, let your will take place.” [43] And he came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. [44] So leaving them, he again went off and prayed for the third time, saying once more the same word. [45] Then he came to the disciples and said to them: “At such a time as this YOU are sleeping and taking YOUR rest! Look! The hour has drawn near for the Son of man to be betrayed into the hands of sinners. [46] Get up, let us go. Look! My betrayer has drawn near.” [47] And while he was yet speaking, look! Judas, one of the twelve, came and with him a great crowd with swords and clubs from the chief priests and older men of the people.

[48] Now his betrayer had given them a sign, saying: “Whoever it is I kiss, this is he; take him into custody.” [49] And going straight up to Jesus he said: “Good day, Rabbi!” and kissed him very tenderly. [50] But Jesus said to him: “Fellow, for what purpose are you present?” Then they came forward and laid hands on Jesus and took him into custody. [51] But, look! one of those with Jesus reached out his hand and drew his sword and struck the slave of the high priest and took off his ear. [52] Then Jesus said to him: “Return your sword to its place, for all those who take the sword will perish by the sword. [53] Or do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father to supply me at this moment more than twelve legions of angels? [54] In that case, how would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must take place this way?” [55] In that hour Jesus said to the crowds: “Have YOU come out with swords and clubs as against a robber to arrest me? Day after day I used to sit in the temple teaching, and yet YOU did not take me into custody. [56] But all this has taken place for the scriptures of the prophets to be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples abandoned him and fled.

[57] Those who took Jesus into custody led him away to Caʹia·phas the high priest, where the scribes and the older men were gathered together. [58] But Peter kept following him at a good distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest, and, after going inside, he was sitting with the house attendants to see the outcome.

[59] Meantime the chief priests and the entire San′he·drin were looking for false witness against Jesus in order to put him to death, [60] but they found none, although many false witnesses came forward. Later on two came forward [61] and said: “This man said, ‘I am able to throw down the temple of God and build it up in three days.’” [62] With that the high priest stood up and said to him: “Have you no answer? What is it these are testifying against you?” [63] But Jesus kept silent. So the high priest said to him: “By the living God I put you under oath to tell us whether you are the Christ the Son of God!” [64] Jesus said to him: “You yourself said it. Yet I say to YOU men, From henceforth YOU will see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power and coming on the clouds of heaven.” [65] Then the high priest ripped his outer garments, saying: “He has blasphemed! What further need do we have of witnesses? See! Now YOU have heard the blasphemy. [66] What is YOUR opinion?” They returned answer: “He is liable to death.” [67] Then they spit into his face and hit him with their fists. Others slapped him in the face, [68] saying: “Prophesy to us, you Christ. Who is it that struck you?”
